Measure Opposed

IRISH HOME RULE BILL COMES UP IN THE HOUSE THIS AFTERNOON.

PRESS COMMENT

(United Press.)
(By Webb Miller)

LONDON, May 10.—The government was expected to encounter its first serious opposition to Prime Minister Lloyd George's bill for Home Rule in Ireland when the measure came up for debate in the House of Commons this afternoon.

The Commons will begin consideration of whether Ireland shall have two parliaments—as the bill now provides—or only one. H. H. Asquith Opposition Leader, has joined the Laborites in favor of the single parliament idea.

The Government declared Asquith's amendments were designed to destroy the bill. The "Mail" predicted short shrift for the scheme, declaring it would obstruct the ultimate unity of Ireland.

Hunger Striker Dead.

The bill in its present form is unchanged in principle, the Times said but is capable of effective changes. The newspaper hoped the government would approach its task "from a broad national viewpoint".

The press generally regretted the refusal of Irish nationalists to participate in discussions on the measure

One of the Mount Joy hunger strikers—a Sinn Feiner, named Redmond—who was released from the prison April 15, died yesterday following an operation for appendicitis. Sinn Feiners say he would be considered a martyr on the ground that his death was caused by weakness incurred by the hunger strike while he was in prison.

DANIELS MAKES A HOT REPLY TO SIMS CHARGES

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary Daniels before Senate investigating committee to-day made his long awaited reply to criticisms of Rear Admiral W. S. Sims on the United States Navy's part in the war American Naval Secretary charged that Sims lacked vision, belittled work of American Navy in contrast to British, coveted British decorations and aspired to become an honorary member of the British Admiralty. He declared that officers supporting Sims' charges were largely "people with grievance." Testimony of other officers in possession of first hand knowledge Secretary Daniels testified "should be accepted by all open minded men as an absolute refutation of practically all of Admiral Sims charges."

HEARING THE APPEAL.

Ten Per Cent Increase n Telephone Rates Appealed.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 10.—Hearing of appeal against the ruling of railway commissioners granting an increase of ten per cent. in Bell Telephone rates in Ontario and Quebec was concluded before the Cabinet Council to-day. Reginald Geary, K.C., Toronto, was heard for Toronto, Hamilton and London and Glen Osler, K.C. appeared for the Bell Telephone Co.

WHEAT BOARD ISSUES ORDER

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, May 10.— Canadian Wheat Board has issued the following order with effect from May 8: "No mixed grains containing wheat, grown in Provinces of Ontario and Quebec shall be exported out of Canada without license or permit of Board. No mixed grains containing wheat shall be imported into Canada without license or permit of Board."

UNITED STATES ARE AFTER CANADA'S MENNONITE SETTLERS

OFFER CONCESSIONS IN THE MATTER OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLES—SEVENTEEN THOUSAND MAY LOCATE IN MISSISSIPPI.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, May 10. — It was learned in official Government circles to-day that efforts are being made by the United States, other than the State of Mississippi, to secure 17,000 Mennonites, who are preparing to leave Manitoba, Swift Current, and Saskatchewan, Sask., districts.

The Mennonites are being offered innumerable concessions in the matter of their religious principles.

At present the Mennonites in Manitoba and Saskatchewan purpose emigrating to Mississippi, and have formed a committee for the purpose of going south to purchase a large tract of country there.

Definite overtures from Kansas and other Southern States officials are said to have been received by the leaders of the Manitoba Mennonites.

Manitoba will allow no teaching but English in the public schools. The Mennonites want to continue teaching their children German.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR ARRIVED IN CITY TO-DAY

SIR RICHARD WINFREY WAS ACCOMPANIED BY HIS SON—ON CANADIAN TOUR.

Sir Richard Winfrey, with his son, R. P. Winfrey ,arrived in the city on the early morning C.P.R. train from Ottawa. This morning at 10 o'clock he was met at the Empress Hotel by City Clerk Armstrong, Acting-Mayor G. N. Gordon, and Rev. F. E. Malott, president of the Ministerial Association and officially welcomed to Peterborough.

The day's programme was outlined to Sir Richard, who did not expect such ostentation ,but accepted the programme graciously thanking them for the welcome they were arranging for him.

When caught by Examiner reporter this morning he was busily engrossed selecting picture post cards of the city from those on the rack at the Empres and in a neat blue suit, with his strapping son by his side, there was nothing about him to denote officialdom or his title. Nevertheless his quite composure and well set-up but slight figure, there was something that would make him conspicuous in any gathering His tanned face and keen eye and quick step shows much contact with the wind and weather, and at one glance you could tell he was a man of the outdoors.

Favorably Impressed.

During the past three weeks he and his son have been travelling through Eastern Canada, and in that time have gained a most favorable impression of Canada. Sir Richard preferred to give a brief account of his public work in England. "One thing at a time" as he says. For fifteen years he has represented one of the largest agricultural constituencies of the county of Norfolk in the British House of Commons. He became attached to the Board of Agriculture as private secretary to Lord Carrington, then president of the Board. "We have presidents, you have chairmen," Sir Richard smiled, with his ready - humor. When Mr. Lloyd George formed his war ministry in 1916 I became parliamentary secretary to the Board of Agriculture, a position which I held for two years.

During his term of office he was responsible for the piloting through Parliament of the corn productions act, which had for its object the production of more home-grown food in England, owin gto the German submarine menace being so serious. It was necessary to take every precaution, and in 1916 the act was passed giving the Board p owerto compel farmers to plough up their grass lands and plant cereals and potatoes. This naturally entailed a large organization, but resulted in two million acres of land being put under the plough, which had been permanent pasture land for over 100 years.

"It was a great achievement, of which the government of the old country may well be proud," he said.

Land Settlement.

Sir Richard Winfrey took a share in the passing of the land settlement act for ex-service men. This act is very similar to that of Canada, although it differs in some respects. In England, owing to the German submarine administration of the act. They purchase the land and hold it, leasing it out to the men. Through the local CROSSING MUST BE PROTECTED BY THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY.

M. C. R. Widdifield, City Solicitor, to-day received an order from the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada ordering that the spurs of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company at Simcoe street leading to the premises of the Quaker Oats Company be portected by watchmen and that the cost of such protection be borne and paid by the Quaker Oats Company. It will be remembered that on April 15th the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada sat at Peterborough in order to hear the application by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in regard to protection at Simcoe street and to decide whether the cost should be paid by the City of Peterborough or the Quaker Oats Company.

J. D. Spence, Esq., C.P.R. solicitor at Toronto, appeared for the Railway Company; F. D. Kerr, Esq., for the Quaker Oats, and C. R. Widdifield for the city. The matter was gone into thoroughly and after extensive arguments the Board reserved their judgment. The argument of the Quaker Oats Company was to the effect that it should not be bound to provide or pay for the cost of protection at Simcoe street because they still found it necessary to maintain watchmen at Hunter street for the protection of their own workmen and customers. Mr. Widdifield, on behalf of the city, argued that if the Quaker Oats Company found it necessary to continue watchmen at Hunter street in order to protect its own employees and those doing business with it, that was a matter of its own concern and to which the city should not be asked to contribute, and that these spurs are private tracks for the use of the Quaker Oats Company only and are not used by any other persons or for any other purpose except for the business of their company; that temporarily diverting the traffic to Simcoe street no new danger to the public has been created other than that caused by the traffic on these tracks for the purpose of the company only; that is to say, that the mere building of the temporary bridge and the diversion of the traffic was not in itself a danger to the public and if these tracks had not been there no protection would have been required. This contention on the part of the city was allowed by the Board and consequently the city was relieved from any cost or expense in the matter.

CONTINUE THE WHEAT BOARD

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 10.—Western supporters of the Government, in caucus to-day practically decided to favor the principle of continuing the Canadian Wheat Board Members, who represent large farming constituencies contended that as European government's were buying on a co-operative or controlled basis only safe course was for farmers af Canada through government to adopt similar course. The plea of rural postmasters and mail carriers for increase pay, was taken up. Committee was appointed to take matter up with government.

Support Compact

PEACE LEAGUE

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 10.—The Central Soviet, a Moscow wireless says, announces that inview of the fact that certain membes of the League of Nations are actively supporting the Ukraine and Poland warring on Russia, it cannot by reason of military considerations, admit into Russia any delegation which includes representatives of those nations, although the Soviet supports the principles of the League's decision to send an investigating delegation into Russia.

The statement complains that the League has failed to protest against Poland's action

PEACE TREATY CONCLUDED.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 10. — The Peace Treaty has been concluded between Soviet Rusia and the Georgia Republic, according to a wireless message from Moscow.

The Treaty provides that Russia shall recognise the independence of Georgia, and undertake not to interfere with Georgia's internal affairs.

The Republic will comprise the following territory: Tiflis, Kutais, and Batoum Governments, and also districts of Zakatali and Sukhuman and a portion of the Black Sea Government.

ADMIT THE PRESS.

It declares that the Soviet is ready to admit all newspaper representatives giving guarantees that they will not abuse the hospitality of the Russian people, and will afford facilities to the British Trades Union delegation as guests of the Russian Trades Unions.

It concludes by stating that a committee has been appointed, who, jointly with Tchitcherin the Foreign Minister ,are authorized to admit at the proper time the League of Nations delegation with conlooking a meeting of the All-Russian Central Executive Committee.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES OF NEWSPAPERS

INCREASED COSTS NECESSITATING THE RAISING OF SUBSCRIPTION RATES ALL OVER CANADA—THREE CENT PAPERS IN LINDSAY.

The newspaper shortage and increased cost of newsprint is forcing newspapers all over Canada to raise subscription rates. The only article of manufacture that we know of that has not been increased since the war is the newspaper delivered to your door although publishers have had an enormous increase in their cost of newsprint and in mechanical costs of every kind. Amalgamations and suspensions have been taking place every few weeks and the publisher will very shortly enter into a period regarding the supply and cost of newsprint when government control ceases that he can obtain no satisfactory information of at present and that it is to be more drastic than any increase yet put into effect.

1 year in advance	$5.00
6 months in advance	2.75
1 month in advance	50c
Single Copies	3c

Kingston papers have had a subscription rate for some years of $6.00 delivered in the city and throughout the whole continent rates are being raised in order that newspapers may stay in business.

FIRE DISCOVERED BY THE POLICE

HOT ASHES SET BOXES ON FIRE.

At 1.45 on Sunday morning, while on night duty, P. C. Boyd discovered a fire in the woodshed at the rear of 240 Simcoe Street, occupied by Mr. Sayer. He broke open the door and pulled the boxes which were on fire into the yard and roused the occupants of the house.

The Fire Department was notified and the fire was put out without any damage. The fire was caused by putting hot ashes into a wooden box and throwing several baskets on top.

Coal said to be equal in quality to the best American steaming coal has been discovered in Venezuela.

Capital Entered

PRESIDENT CARRANZA OF MEXICO HAS BEEN CAPTURED, ACCORDING TO A DESPATCH.

REBELS ACTIVE

(United Press.)

MEXICO CITY, May 10—(By Ralph H. Turner).—President Carranza has been captured, according to a confirmed report here.

The President was overtaken at Apizaco, in the State of Tlaxcala, after he had fled from the capital. His personal safety was guaranteed.

General Alvaro Obregon, heading his troops, was to enter the capital to-morrow.

Reports to the State Department at Washington from the United States Embassy at Mexico City said Carranza was fleeing to Vera Cruz. He was apparently overtaken by the rebels.

This was the first despatch received from the United Press correspondent in nearly a week.

(Canadian Press.)

AGUA, PRIETA, Sonora, May 10. —Should President Carranza be captured by revolutionary troops he must stand trial in civil courts for any misdeeds of which he may have been guilty while chief executive. General Calles, commander of revolting troops in Northwest announced last night just before he left for Juarez, if Carranza succeeds in getting out of Mexico, revolutionists will be pleased, however, General Calles said, a Provisional President will be named to serve until elections in accordance with the plan of Agu Prieta.

Revolutionists desired to acquire through purchase or legal procedure all big land holdings which will be taken over by new Government and opened for settlement under plan similar to that used in the United States, according to General Calles. plan for establishment schools and educating people is to be launched as soon as revolution is settled, he declared.

HOUSTON, Texas, May 10.—Tampico, an important oil loan on the Gulf of Mexico, capitulated to General Obregon's forces yesterday, according to radio advices received by local oil interests here early this morning.

Advices said the town went over to the Revolutionists with any serious disorder.

ST. ANDREW'S IS NEARLY READY

NEW COLOUR SCHEME BRIGHTENS THE CHURCH.

The Murray Kay Co. of Toronto, who have been refinishing the interior of St. Andrew's church during the past month, have nearly completed their contract and it is expected the regular church services will be resumed next Sunday. The work is practically completed and next week the scaffolding will be removed.

The woodwork of the church is finished in a dark mahogany, the walls being finished in a Corinthian marble effect that contrasts beautifully with the woodwork. The ceiling in a cream color with the gilted frescoe work and gilted posts adds a touch of light and sunshine to the interior that was lacking in the old decorations. The organ front is still dark oak, matching up with the seats, which have been re-stained and varnished a darker shade than formerly. The seats will be put in as soon as the scaffolding has been removed.

The effect of the redecorating has been to brighten the church materially, and this has been accomplished most exquisitely. The color scheme has been carefully planned and carried out.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD MEETING THIS MORNING

PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH A CLINIC IN THE CITY—HOUSES UNFIT TO LIVE IN.

A letter was read from the Medical Association at the meeting of the Board of Health this morning suggesting that the provincial government's scheme for venereal clinics be taken up and the clinic be established down town. Mr. George H. Duncan was in the chair with Messrs. J. Lynch, E. F. Mason and Dr. A. W. McPherson other members of the board present.

In view of the large number of accounts on the books of the Board of Health and their inability to collect them it was moved and carried that the City Council be asked to amend the by law governing the work of the City Solicitor so he could collect these accounts.

For his assistance to the M.O.H. during the serious smallpox epidemic Dr J. H. Morgan was granted $35 by the board. The position of caretaker was finally filled after considerable difficulty by appointing. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Morton of Niagara Falls N.Y., at a salary of $700. Mrs. Morton will do the cooking for the hospital.

A Good Garden.

Dr. McPherson reported that the patients at the Isolation Hospital were putting in an excellent garden and it was hoped they would equal their production of the first few years they had at the hospital

"How many acres have you?" he was asked.

"Four", the doctor replied.

For the benefit of Mr. E. F. Mason who was not present at the former meeting when it was discussed, Dr. McPherson outlined the venereal clinic scheme proposed by the government. He stated that he thought the quarters in the City Hall would be suitable if another exit was built out into the market square to make it more private. He estimated the cost of the whole scheme including the rearranging quarters, etc., $3,000 for the first year and $2,500 for the second year. Costs would be $500 apiece for each of the medical men, $1,000 for an orderly, $500 for a social worker and $500 for repairs which might be cut down by the City Trust Commission attending to it.

Dr. McPherson in reply to a question said the treatment would be practically taken away from the doctors and taken over by the clinic. The treatments are free, the city getting

MOTHERS' DAY IN THE CHURCHES

Since its inception some years ago, "Mothers' Day," the second Sunday in May, has been as carefully observed as many of the national holidays and anniversaries

Yesterday was Mothers' Day, and was appropriately observed in the local churches, practically all of them holding special services, with homage to mother as the keynote.

In the Baptist Churches special services were held, with special music. At Murray Street Baptist, both services were special Mothers' Day services ,and at Park Street Baptist a special service was held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

All four Methodist Churches observed the occasion, the ministers preaching sermons appropriate to the occasion, and the choirs rendering special music.

The three Presbyterian churches also recognised the occasion with special services, Rev. Robert Pogue at St. Paul's speaking on "The Glory of Motherhood."

URGE OPERATION OF SHIPYARDS AT CANADIAN PORTS

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 10.—Asking that the Government continue with substantial shipbuilding program in order that as much work as possible be found for the men now employed in various yards throughout the Dominion deputation of returned soldier workers over hundred strong waited upon Sir George Foster and members of the Cabinet to-day. In a memorandum submitted it was stated that the French Government was willing if Canada would provide credit to place orders for merchant marine vessels which would keep Canadian yards busy at high pressure for two or three years. The men also advocated extension of merchant marine and granting of Government subsidies to private enterprises willing to build this year.

DONATION FOR THE G.W.V.A. BAND

The G. W. V. A. Band has just received a donation of $10.00 from "A Friend," with the following complimentary remarks on their performances, which the Band acknowledges with thanks:

6th May, 1920.

Dear Mr. Hughes,

When your band made an appeal for support last fall, I was not in a position to help just then, although my heart was right with you. I now enclose cheque for $10.00, which I ask to be credited to "A Friend."

I was glad to see the fine report of the band's work in the paper the other night. One thing I like about your leadership is that your Band always has a snap that is lacking in the other bands.

Wishing you all success.

I am, yours truly,

"A Friend."

THE SEA MUSSEL INDUSTRY

A novel industry which promises, would be no less than the development of a substitute for the succulent but somewhat costly oyster. This is the sea mussel, found in vast quantities along the low tide mark of the Atlantic coast, chiefly in New Brunswick. The Dominion Government, with the co-operation of scientists, has conducted experiments to this end in Western University laboratories and it is now claimed that mussels can be produced commercially and sold profitably at 15 cents per quart, as compared with the $1.00 per quart around which oyster prices hover.

The mussel is by no means a new article of diet to the people of Canada, and besides being used extensively in coast towns has found its way to the tables of inland cities in Central Canada. Its delicacy of flavor and high food value have been much advertised since the establishment of government investigation and experiment, and deserve to be much better known. There is yet much to be done in the line of research to ascertain conditions under which production would be most rapid and profitable, and to this end the Council of Industrial and scientific Research is devoting its efforts.

A survey of the mussel beds of the St. Croix River, which constitutes the boundary between New Brunswick and Maine, has occupied the attention of a scientist of the council for three years now, and it is expected that this summer will see the satisfactory conclusion of the research. It is believed that the beds of mussels are practically unlimited, and the work occupying those engaged is merely the best conditions of development. It has also been determined that mussels become sweeter and more palatable the farther north they are found, and in this regard Canada has a distinct advantage over the mussel beds to the south of the Dominion. Those of the Hudson's Bay make particularly excellent eating.

The sea mussel cannot be produced in fresh waters so that there is no possibility of developing an industry in the Great Lakes. It is believed that there are possibilities, however, for the development of fresh-water clams there and the Dominion Government at the instigation of the Ontario Fishermen's Association is conducting a series of experiments which will probably result in interesting developments.

WHAT IS HE THEN.

Mother was out, and Bobby's eldest sister was putting on her best blouse, so six-car-old Bobby had to entertain his charming sister's latest admirer. As is the way with his kind, he began to ply the unfortunate caller with questions.

"Mr. Brown," he began, "what is a popinjay?"

"Why—er—a popinjay is a —eh —vain bird."

"Are you a bird, Mr. Brown?"

"No, of course not."

"Well, that's funny. Mother said you were a popinjay and father said there was no doubt about your being a jay, but there didn't seem to be much chance of your poppin' the question and now you say you aren't bird at all."—Windsor

RODNEY SAVES JAMAICA

In the beginning of April, 1782, a powerful French fleet of 33 ships of the line, and two ships of fifty guns, carrying a large force of soldiers and stores of guns and ammunition, with the intention of combining with the Spaniards to capture Jamaica, was collected at Martinique.

Admiral Rodney had arrived at the Barbadoes on 19th February with 12 ships of the line, and soon afterwards he joined Hood at Antigua. The arrival of some other ships made him for a time equal to the enemy, and he realised that if a blow could be struck before the Spanish fleet arrived Jamaica might yet be saved. A slight, indecisive action was followed on the 12th by a British victory off the Saintss, near Dominica.

The British had three or four more ships than the French, and a slight superiority in guns, but the French had a greater weight of metal and number of men. De Grasse, who commanded the French, flew his flag on the Ville de Paris—a noble ship, carrying 110 guns, which had been presented to Louis XV. by the town of Paris, and was esteemed the flower of the whole French navy. The conflict lasted nearly eleven hours, when Rodney succeeded in breaking the French line, and utterly routing them.

For some time the hostile guns touched, and the fire of the British was poured with tremendous effect into the dense ranks of the French. The British did not lose a single ship, and their loss was only about 1,000 men; while the French lost 9,000 men, six ships of the line, and two smaller vessels taken or sunk, as well as the whole train of artillery, with the battering cannon and travelling carriages intended for the attack upon Jamaica. A large treasure intended for the payment of the troops also fell into the hands of the British.

The Ville de Paris, after an heroic resistance, was compelled to strike her flag, being little more than a wreck, and only three men—one of them Admiral de Grasse—unwounded on her deck. The remainder of the French fleet, as night drew in, fled in confusion, leaving the sea covered with human bodies. Shoals of voracious sharks gathered round the sinking ships and might be seen tearing the men from the fragments of wreck to which they clung.

The other French ships escaped, except four, which were soon afterwards captured by Hood, but most of them were so disabled that their safety was probably entirely due to a sudden calm, which arrested the British pursuit.

WRECKED FRENCH MINE RESUMES OPERATIONS

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, May 7.—The first coal mine, wrecked during the war, to resume operations was opened at Ancier earlythis week. It has been equipped with the most modern electrical machinery, and it is expected its pre-war production will be eclipsed.

The Great French Tonic "VITAL" TABLETS

Every home should contain a box of VITAL—the Tonic that is a Tonic. The whole human system is at once toned up. That tired dragging feeling disappears and life becomes a joy. If you are not just feeling yourself, go to your drug store and get a box of VITAL. If you dont' feel better in 24 hours go back and get your money. VITAL acts on the kidneys, liver and blood, and is a powerful flesh and system builder. Price 50c a box.

FIND MONEY DOES NOT FLY.

Aviators Unable to Pay Local Cash on England-to-Australia Journey.

SYDNEY, Australia.—One of the aviation difficulties revealed by the flight of Capt. Ross Smith from England to Australia was that of obtaining money to pay bills in the currency of the country in which the fliers happened to alight.

"We would fly 500 to 600 miles," said one of the party, " and late in the day would arrive in a country with a new currency, and could not pay for our things."

They passed also through extremes of temperature. They left England in a snowstorm and at an altitude of 8,000 feet found their sandwiches frozen and the coffee in vacuum bottles almost congealed. When they landed in Australia they found the temperature 90 degrees in the shade.

In extending its reforestation work the State of Pensylvania expects to plant 8,000,000 young trees this spring.

MOTHERS' DAY IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

SERMON ON "MOTHERHOOD" BY THE REV. ROBERT POGUE.

Mother's Day was observed in St. Paul's church by a sermon by the minister, Rev. Robert Pogue, on the subject of Motherhood. He remarked:

Surely Motherhood is the holiest of all human relationships. It is sacred in itself, sacred in its associations, and sacred in its memories. Its sacredness and its beauty have been the subject of the writer's pen and the artist's brush in all lands, and in all ages of the world's history. In every country where art has flourished, artists have given their best efforts to portray on canvass the glory of Motherhood. One cannot look for example on Raphaels' Madonna without being enthralled by it, and feeling anew the beauty and glory of Motherhood.

What artists have done in their special field, poets have done in theirs, in the tributes they have paid to women and particularly mothers. Mr. Pogue spoke of two things: First, a mother's influence, and second, a mother's ambition. There is no influence so vast, so varied and so far-reachings as a mother's. One of the holiest memories which we all treasure is the memories of our mother's prayers. Many of you are Christians this morning because you could never get away from the influence of a mother's prayer and a mother's life. There is a long line of great and good men running down through the centuries and they would tell us that all they were and all they achieved they owed to their mothers. There is nothing that a mother can do comparable to the work of influencing for God and eternity the child whom He has given her.

Mother's Ambition.

The ambition of every mother ought to be the ambition of the mother of James and John. She desired for them not so much the place of honour as the place of blessing. She desired that they might be near Jesus. That is the only place where children are safe. And a mother can have no higher ambition than that. The most worthy ambition for any mother is not that her sons might get on in the world, but that they might get on in the kingdom; not that they might know the great ones of the earth but that they might know that company of men and women who like their Master, lived not for themselves but for others.

If you had such a mother as this thank God for her to-day. If she is still living do something to-day that will show her your appreciation of the noble ideals she set before you, and all that she has been to you in life. If she is not living, then thank God for her memory, her example, for her prayers and influence. You will best show your appreciation of what she was to you by a rededication of your life to the service of the God for whom she lived."

IRON PARLIAMENT OF 70 CONCERNS RULES GERMAN STEEL TRADE.

BERLIN, May 8—The "Iron Parliament," which is to regulate the whole of Germany's production, sale, and foreign trade in iron and steel, has now been formally constituted. Its headquarters are at Dusseldorf. The law establishing it provides that the regulation will be organised into two groups—one for pig-iron, ferro-manganese, and ferro-silicon, and the other for half-finished goods, railway material, form and bar iron, rolling mill products, plates, and tubes.

The "Iron Parliament" will consist of seventy representatives of producers, traders, and consumers. In each of these groups, employers and employees will be equally represented.

HINDENBURG STATUE CONFISCATED

BERLIN, May 8.—The Hindenburg war statue standing in front of the Reichstag, which, after the war, pased into private ownership, has been previously confiscated by the police. This action was taken, it is declared, in order to prevent the policy of disorders in the event of its being removed from Germany.

AS WOMAN TO WOMAN

By SIDNEY LEAR

The man next to the window in the train looked up in an annoyed way as another man sat down beside him. He was occupying the exact middle of the seat and he moved over a little grudingly. He glanced about the car to see if there were any other seats that the man could have chosen; there were not and he had to submit. His expression of surrender to the inevitable was not overly good natured and he gave the other man so little room that his shoulder extended into the aisle and was in danger of being bumped by every one who passed. The other man stared at him in a puzzled way as if wondering how a man could be so disagreeable and so shameless. The woman in the seat behind them wondered about it too.

"The pig," she exclaimed to her thoughts. "Why doesn't he move over? He could get much closer to the window. I never saw anything quite like that for colossal nerve."

The uncomfortable situation continued for several stations. Then the man by the window got up in the aisle and motioned to the other man to move in by the window. Then, seating himself on the outside of the seat he explained that his arm and shoulder had been injured so that he could not push close to the window for fear of hurting it. For the first time the other man and the woman in the seat behind them noticed that his arm was encased in bandages that reached below the sleeve of his coat. And they both turned the pig thought back to themselves.

"That's the way people do," added the woman in the seat behind them. "They see an incident and then jump to a conclusion about it and call someone a pig when he isn't a pig at all. And then they have a remorse about it for days afterwards."

People do too. Have you ever noticed it? And how they do regret it afterwards, too! Not long ago two girls thoughtless, happy bound on the deep pleasure to be gained from a chocolate nut sundae, turned into a store opening hurriedly. A young man about their own age had started in ahead of them, and wandered slowly toward the door. They marked time impatiently behind him, waving him forward with silent gestures.

"Hurry up," one of them remarked, too softly, she thought, for him to hear. "Don't stop and meditate about going in or staying out—we're hungry." She miscalculated her tone. He heard it. Turning uncertainly around, he smiled apologetically toward the direction of the voice. Putting out his hand, he found the surface of the show window and stood close against it to let hem pass. He was almost completely blind!

There was no joy in chocolate nut sundaes for those girls that day. They could not think of anything but the expression in those sightless eyes. That desire to show that he understood, that he had been hasty and thoughtless, too, at one time, that he had not been hurt, that he was sorry to keep them waiting! Oh how they regretted that rapid, careless remark. How we always regret those snap judgments of people that we always make, and always have to take back. The only fortunate thing about it is that we who make the remarks and think the thoughts always suffer deep remorse that hurts us much more than our thoughtlessness hurts

ONTARIO HAY SAVED CATTLE

Shipments Hurried to Alberta Averted Famine.

Had it not been for the heavy shipments of hay from Ontario and Quebec during the past few months the situation in Alberta, as far as cattle are concerned, would have been exceedingly serious, according to Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture in the Alberta Cabinet, who is about to return home after his extensive purchasing tour in the two Provinces named. Cattle raisers would hove been at the mercy of profiteers who would apparently have had little consideration for them, while many would probably have lost their cattle.

The total amount of hay purchased was about 50,000 tons. After paying all charges, including freight, the cost to the farmer was from $35 to $46 per ton. Compared with these prices the local dealers' demands ranged from $60 to $90 per ton.

Prospects in the Western Province are bright, declares Mr. Marshall. There has been plenty of moisture, assuring plenty of feed for the cattle whatever the outcome of the cereal crops. The prospects for a good crop of wheat are encouraging, in spite of the backwardness of the season.

WANT NORTHERN GROWN SEED

STRATFORD, May 7.—The Horticultural Society are asking the city council to appoint a vacant lots committee to encourage the use of all vacant land to increase production. They are urging also that northern grown potatoes be brought here for seed to insure a good crop this year. The membership of the society has grown to over 600, and it is hoped to make this a thousand active members this year.

"Peterborough Presents Possibilities Unsurpassed."

MONDAY, MAY 10TH, 1920.

LET THE PEOPLE SAY.

Although Premier Drury's stand against any increase in the sessional indemnities of the members of the Legislature seems to have settled the matter for the time being, there is naturally keen resentment among many members of the House. They undoubtedly expected that the signing of the round robin by 79 members would be sufficient to ensure the increase desired, and the result has been an unpleasant surprise to them. Undoubtedly, however, the Premier, in the position he took, sized up public opinion much more correctly than did the seekers after a higher allowance, for the newspapers of the province have almost unanimously protested against the suggested increase.

If the members want to secure an accurate expression of the sentiments of the public in regard to the matter, they should advocate submitting the question to the people on the same day as the liquor referendum is is taken. Of course the latter will be conducted by the Federal government but it might be possible to make some arrangement by which the other question could be settled at the same time.

A vote on the advisability of increasing the indemnities would definitely decide the matter because it is the money of the people of the province that is involved and they should be given the opportunity to express by their ballots their views on the subject. The question resolves itself into whether or not the members of the Legislature are to be paid enough to maintain themselves without any other occupation, which seems to be the aim of many of the legislators.

PRODUCE FOR YOURSELF.

Mrs. George Brodie, of the United Farm Women of Ontario who by the way was in Peterboro for the farmers' banquet to Premier Drury, has been giving some plain talk to a meeting of the Consumers' League in Toronto. The organization was formed in an effort to reduce the high cost of living, and Mrs. Brodie, as a representative of the producers, was called upon for some advice.

Her words are worth remembering: "You have got to do one of three things," she declared, "Pay the present price, go without, or produce for yourselves."

Mrs. Brodie is right. Grumbling at the high price of potatoes will not bring the price down a cent. You can take the second part of her advice if you like, and do without, but the wise citizen will rather adopt the third alternative and produce for himself. In Peterboro many people are the fortunate possessors of back yards big enough for vegetable gardens. Every foot of such ground should be utilized this season. For the others, who have no land of their own, there are vacant lots available which should all be placed under cultivation. The situation as far as vegetables, especially potatoes is concerned, is regarded as serious. It is claimed that owing to the scarcity of help many of the farmers will not bother with growing potatoes except enough for their own use, and the probabilities are that the tubers will be scarce and expensive next winter, unless the back yard and vacant lot habit is cultivated on a large scale by the people of the cities. The local Board of Trade is interesting itself in the greater production campaign, and will be glad to assist those who are looking for vacant lots.

SURPRISING FIGURES.

The figures given by Mr. E. W. Breadner Federal Commissioner of Taxation in regard to the working out of the Dominion Income Tax, have caused a great deal of comment, especially those dealing with the farmers of Canada. While it was generally understood that by far the largest part of the tax was paid by the people of the cities, few realized how little the farmers have been affected. In the whole Dominion in 1917, Mr. Breadner showed that only 9071 farmers were assessed. In Ontario the farmers provided only one-twenty-fifth part of one per cent. of the income taxes collected in the province, and the rest of the provinces did not do much better, the farmers of Manitoba showing the highest record by furnishing one-half of one per cent. of the total income tax for that province. These statistics furnish much food for reflection, for they show either that forming is not so profitable as many urban dwellers profess to believe or that the agrarians as a whole have not been energetic in filing income returns

The Commissioner admits that there have been evasions of the act, declaring that it will be five years before the administrative net is completely spread throughout the Dominion but that when the system is perfected very few will escape.

The general public would like to be assured however, in this connection that some means will be adopted of securing income tax from some of the wealthy Canadians who have escaped assessment because their money is invested in non-taxable Victory loans. The foolishness of issuing these bonds on a non-taxable basis is becoming more and more apparent as people realize that the rich have through them a chance to escape paying their proper share of the burden of carrying on the business of the country.

LOGICAL AMENDMENTS.

There will be general approval of the amendments to the Ontario Temperance Act introduced into the Legislature last week by Hon. H. C. Nixon, the Provincial Secretary. An important and reasonable change has been made in the fines inflicted for the illegal possession of liquor, the minimum fine being reduced from $200 to $100, while the maximum fine is increased from $1000 to $2000. There is logic in both amedments, and many people would have approved of going further in reducing the minimum fine, for even a $100 fine is too severe a punishment for some of the technical violations of the act in which a conviction has to be registered. In all sections of the province there have been frequent cases in which minor breaches of the Temperance Act have been proved, and the magistrate has had no option, when a conviction was made, but to inflict the minimum fine of $200, doing so with obvious regret, in many cases. The amended act cuts the minimum fine in two and will be welcomed by the magistrates on that account.

At the same time the boot-legger's lot will not be improved by the change in the Act, for the increasing of the maximum penalty from $1000 to $2000, is obviously designed to take the profit out of the illegal sale of liquor. Reducing the punishment for technical violations of the Act, and increasing the fines for wilful violations of its provisions ,are steps that will be commended by most citizens.

ELECTION STORIES.

No one ever expects an important political campaign to be conducted with strict regard for the truth by the opposing parties. Lying statements are accepted as "part of the game." But for downright indecent lying some of our American cousins are in a class by themselves on the political stump.

"Ours is the only nation that came out of the war no profit. That is a thing that you and I can be proud of it; a thing that you and I can tell our children and our grandchildren. The nations of Europe all gained vast empires of territory as the result of their victory in the war, and these nations may take their lands and peoples; but I say to you that they shall not take your sons and my sons to maintain their spoils of war."

Senator Johnson is prominent as an American "statesman." He considers himself worthy to be president of the United States The people of rural Indiana must naturally suppose he knows more about the things he talks about than they do—about the peace settlement and the League of Nations. They are likely to believe him, at least till some other equally prominent politician comes along and gives them a different version. Expecting to be believed, Senator Johnson, would-be President, deliberately gives them an entirely wrong interpretation of the greatest issue before the United States—an interpretation calculated to leave them with a feeling of antagonism and distrust for their recent allies.

He tells them that all the allied nations with the exception of the United States came out of the war with a profit. "The nations of Europe all gained vast empires of territory as the result of their victory in the war, and these nations may take their lands and peoples." The nations of the Europe referred to—the allied nations—came out of the war burdened with debt that will leave them under a load of taxation for generations, from having fought from 1914 to 1918 and from doing the bulk of the fighting for the whole five years. They came out also with their business and commerce ruined—in large part diverted to the United States. Their profit is not there, but Mr. Johnson say they gained vast empires. Britain has gained some territory in her own right—German colonies captured at her own expense and by her own sacrifices and whose people are glad to escape from German rule. But those are not vast empires. Senator Johnson no doubt includes in the term the territories for which Britain has accepted mandates. These do not become British possessions and profit that can be derived from administering them will be as nothing compared with the expense and trouble of the task. Britain accepted the mandates because there was no other nation ready or capable of assuming them—because she refused to shirk a world duty, as Senator Johnson and those of his persuasion are endeavoring to have the United States do in the case of Armenia. As for France, she has had restored to her territory that was rightly hers.

"I say to you that they shall not take your sons and my sons to maintain their spoils of war." What an indecent misrepresentation of the policy of American participation in the League of Nations. The United States is wanted in the league not to protect the gains of the allies, but to help to safeguard from future aggression those young nations which gaine gained their freedom by the allied victory— Jugo-Slavia, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland, Armenia and the others. Europe thinks that American participation is essential to the maintenance of the new world order. Senator Johnson tells those whose votes for President he is seeking that Britain and France want their sons and his sons to defend their "spoils of war."

The man who would secure election by inspiring such prejudice in the minds of his fellow-citizens would surely not add lustre to the office of President of the United States.—Ottawa Journal.

GOOD TO BE IN THE WORLD.

With the blossoms back on the apple bough
And the birds at home in the friendly trees,
And the sky as blue as the summer seas,
For man at the lathe or boy at the plow,
It is good to be in the world just now.

It is good to be in the world, I say,
With the sunbeams wa.m where the children play
With the smell of the new turned earth about,
And the tulips and hyacinths flashing out,
Surrounded by beauty I stand and vow,
It is good to be in the world just now.

Forgotten are hatred, and greed and lust,
And the petty schemings of men unjust,
Forgotten the sneers of a thousand foes,
And the griefs and cares which each mortal knows.
I say as the breezes caress my brow
It is good to be in the world just now.

New blossoms are nodding and smiling where
All has been barren and bleak and bare
And the earth which has lived through its days of pain
Has wakened to loveliness once again,
So our sorrow shall pass ,though we know not how,

DRUG CLERK GAVE POISON IN MISTAKE; UNDER ARREST

NEW YORK, May 7.—Arthur Searles, a drug clerk at 497 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn, was held in $5,000 bal to-day on a charge of homicide. It is alleged that he sold "lysol," a poison, on a prescription calling for "laxol," a harmless medicine, and the poison killed Frank de Cara, No. 343 17th street, Brooklyn.

The "lysol" was administered by de Cara's wife on March 18 and he died soon afterward

The defense will point out that the "lysol" was plainly labelled as poison.

AFTER GRIP or FLU

WINTER COLDS— BAD BLOOD

You are pale, thin, weak—with little vitality. Your liver is sluggish and the bad blood causes your stomach muscles to lose their elasticity and become flabby and weak—then indigestion.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made from wild roots and barks, and free from alcohol or narcotics, is the great and powerful blood purifier of to-day. Ingredients printed on wrapper. This tonic, in liquid or tablet form, is just what you need to give you vim, vigor and vitality.

Take the 'Discovery' as directed and it will search out impure and poisonous matter throughout the system and eliminate it through the natural channels.

You can procure a trial package of the tablets by sending 10c. to the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ontario.

SINTALUTA, SASK.—"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for liver trouble, and found it excellent, and would not be without it. I suffered from congestion of the liver about six years ago and I always say that this medicine cured me. I have also given it to my family for colds and it cured them in a very short time. We must have used about 4 dozen bottles of the 'Discovery'."—MRS. ENOCH MITCHELL.

KITCHENER, ONT.—"I had become all run-down, was weak and nervous. My blood was bad also. I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and was completely restored to good health. I am always recommending this medicine to my friends, many of whom have had equally as good results."—MRS. EPH. KETTEL, 64 Breithaupt Street.

BRAKEMAN PINNED UNDER THE TENDER

FREIGHT TRAIN PLUNGED INTO THE RIVER.

FREDERICTON, N.B., May 10.—locomotive of a way freight train on Canadian National Railways plunged into Nashwaak River early this morning, two miles north of Marysville dragging the tender and one freight car into the river with it. Driver J. Gille of Newcastle is missing and it is believed his body is in the river. John Estabrooks, a brakeman is pinned under the tender with only his head and neck out of the water while frantic efforts are being made to lift che tender and thus release him.

Clifford Hughes, a fireman was badly scalded.

Following the heavy rain on Sunday, a dam on the Nashwaak gave way and the rush of logs thus tore away the embankment causing the loss of the engine and cars which rolled down embankment of almost fifty feet. Traffic on the eastern division of the C.N.R. is tied up. Live stock — flaoß

Suffered With Boils

Last 5 Years.

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery it at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

THE FIFTY-DOLLAR LOOK.

When Bozeman Bulger lived in Birmingham, Alabama, that city boasted of two jails—a small city jail, commonly known as the Little Red Brick, and a county jail, which was called the Big Rock. In Birmingham at that time was a lawyer who made a specialty of defending darkies.

According to Bulger, an aged negro stumped into this practitioner's office one morning. His son was in jail and he wanted the white man to get him out.

The lawyer figured from the old negro's appearance that he could not count upon an especially affluent client.

"All right, Uncle," he said, "I reckon I can take the case and get your boy out for about—let me see?—for about ten dollars. Got the money with you?"

"I suttinly has," answered the old man, and he produced a roll of bills big enough to choke a calf. The counselor took one look at that delectable dork-green bundle.

"Hold on, Uncle," he said. "Is that boy of yours locked up in the Little Red Brick?"

"Naw, suh," said the old man; "he's in de Big Rock.

"Oh, I thought he was in the Little Red Brick," said the lawyer. "To get him out of the Big Rock will cost at least fifty dollars."

MAKING THE ROUND TRIP.

In one of the leading churches of the city the pastor took for the text of his sermon, "Better Church Attendance."

The pastor held that the automobile has taken more people away from church than any other thing. He concluded with the exclamation: "The Ford car has taken more people to hell than any other thing that I can mention." Whereupon an old lady began to clap her hands and moan: "Praise the Lord !Praise the Lord!"

"What's the matter, sister?" asked the pastor.

"The Ford never went any place that it couldn't make the round trip, and I am sure that all of those people in hell will be back. So praise the Lord."—Springfield (Ill.) Register.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

A DISTRESSFUL NIGHT

CHAPTER CXVIII.

I had put the note, Everett had written Leola in the long ago, away intending not to look at it again, at least not for some time. But almost immediately after Everett left, I had taken it from the hiding place and once more agonized over it.

Among other things he had said: "You say you can't believe I love you as I say I do. You are my heaven. I have nothing in the world that is dear to me but you, my dearest dear. When I think of you my soul is ravished, my limbs tremble." Etc. I could scarcely realize that my dignified middle-aged husband ever had penned such sentiments; yet here they were in his handwriting, signed by him.

Two or three times during that long evening did I put the note away, determined not to look at it again; and as many times did I take it out again, with tears and a terrible heart-ache, read it over and over.

Every jealous, bitter thought I had had since I married welled up in my heart stronger than ever. Even the banishment of the picture ceased to mean anything. Perhaps he had taken it down because of baby? He was so pleased that I had given him a son ,he had been willing to remove Leola's picture? It was because of his delight in his boy—not for me.

Then I suddenly remembered I had not seen the picture in the attic. What had he done with it? I dared not go up again at night. Since I had burned myself by taking a candle to the attic to satisfy my curiosity I had been very timid of fire and lights. There was no gas or electricity up there. I would have to wait until morning — unless I questioned him when he came in.

"I can't do that! He'll mistrust something has happened." I said aloud as I put the note away for the last time just before I heard his key in the door.

I hurriendly commenced to undress.

"Not in bed yet, Sandra?" the clock had just struck twelve.

"No—is it so late?"

"It is midnight. You look ill. I am surprised that you are still sitting up, especially when you know it is contrary to my orders."

I made no reply, simply hastened my preparations. Had he said "wishes" I should have broken down and sobbed out my misery. But "orders" simply made me hard and cold. So without a word I crept into bed.

I slept little. My tortured brain repeated again and again the words of that love note I found pinned in Leola's dress. The next morning I was so tired and languid that I remained in bed. Everett seemed anxious about me, after he had eaten his breakfast, followed Hetty to my room to see that I ate mine. I could scarcely swallow, but to avoid his questioning I drank my coffee and nibbled at my toast until he finally left for the office, and I was alone with my thoughts.

Not even my boy could take me out of despair into which that note had plunged me. I was hot with resentment one moment, cold with hopelessness the next. I recalled some novel I had read in which life was described as "a dreary waste" and I thought that was what MY life was—'a dreary waste."

Mrs. Gray came up and was very kind. She, I think, connected my depression, my lack of sleep, with something I had discovered, in the attic although she gave no hint of it.

"I am very sorry you feel so ill," she said as she stood by my bed. "It is a beautful day. Later, if you feel equal to it, a drive woul ddo you good."

I thanked her, and as she left me, I had only one thought now in my mind; I would get dressed, go to the attic again, and see if Leola's picture was there. I waited until the house servants were all busy below-stairs, then dressed, and climbed the stairs, trembling with weakness and eagerness.

To-morrow—A Disappointed Quest.

HEART SO BAD
WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Yatem-n, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines, and took several different kinds but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them. Before I had taken more than two boxes I could see that they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DEFOE'S ROBINSON CRUSOE FAME

On 26th April, 1731, Daniel Defoe, journalist and novelist, died from lethargy, or deadly sleep, in Ropemakers' Alley, Moorfields, London. He was born in the parish of St. Giles, Cripplegate, in 1660 or 1661, and he was interred in the neighbouring Bunhill Fields Burial Ground.

During that time he wrote two hundred and fifty published works. It might be expected that his most celebrated work would be that published in 1702, just after the accession of Queen Anne, with the title, "The Shortest Way with the Dissenters," of whom he was one by birth, for the House of Commons ordered this book to be burned.

The author of it was tried at the Old Bailey in 1703 and punished by being placed in the pillory on 29th, 30th, and 31st July that year. A person thus publicly exposed had his head put through a hole and his hands through two others, and was thus unable to defend himself if pelted by the mob with stones and garbage, as was usually done. On this occasion, however, the people formed into a guard round Defoe, covered the pillory with flowers, and drank his health.

He was also ordered to pay a fine of 200 marks, each of which was equal to thirteen shillings and fourpence; to be imprisoned as long as Queen Anne pleased; and he was required to find securities for good behaviour during seven years.

All this he suffered for a satirical pamphlet against what is called occasional conformity, which required a Lord Mayor of London, though a Nonconformist, to attend Church of England worship on some occasions. And yet very few have known that such a publication existed, compared with the number who have read his "Robinson Crusoe," of which one of the best and oldest Free Libraries contains five copies, while it has not one of the pamphlets.

"Robinson Crusoe is only a tale, the subject of which was suggested by Alexander Selkirk, a Scotsman, who had lived alone for nearly five years on Juan Fernandez, an uninhabited island off the Pacific Coast of Chili in South America. He had been left there at his own request in 1705, when he quarrelled with his master, the captain of the ship.

Such was the lasting fame which Defoe obtained by this book, that in 1877 Queen Victoria granted a pension to three old ladies of his name who had descended from him.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

ORILLIA'S POPULATION TAKES A DROP.

The assessor, Mr. J. B. Henderson, returned his roll on Tuesday. The gross assessment is $203,000 more than it was last year, there being some increase under every heading. The exemptions amount to $801,075 and the assessment for school purposes only to $118,000, which brings the net assessment down to $4,305,620. The population is 193 less than last year, when it was 8,047. 2,205 of these are between the ages of 5 and 21, and 1,653 between the ages of 5 and 16 There are 163 dogs on the roll, of which 7 are females.

CARE OF BOULEVARDS IN TOWN OF ORILLIA

Orillia has a number of new paved streets and at the last meeting of the council the matter of the care of boulevards on these streets came up for discussion, the engineer suggesting that they could be looked after under three methods, viz: (1) That they be graded, seeded or soded, where needed, and same be paid by the town as a whole. (2) That the work be done on frontage tax system. (3) That the property owners be asked to do the work under the park's departmental system, so that uniform appearance might be obtained.

On motion the first mentioned method was agreed on.

A SON OF ABRAHAM.

The Heart's Response to the Best.

At this season of the year all nature is about to respond to all the influences which have been brought to bear upon it; in contrast to this, it does seem sometimes that speaking generally man is the most disappointing thing of all God's creation, not only the most disappointing but the most disappointed. But this is his own fault, through wilful ignorance and self will, yet I hope and believe even in these days of extreme pleasure seeking and excitement of all kinds that there are some who have not forgotten a kind and beneficent Creator and to such these few earnest lines are addressed.

We are told in Scripture to strive to enter in at the straight gate, also to make our calling and election sure. How can we do this, how can we know we have hope for a life beyond? Dear fellow reader, one sure way of knowing and proving to ourselves and to others is by the way we respond to the thousand and one influences ever at work for our salvation. Zacchæus, the rich publican, in curiosity climbed a tree to see the Prince among men as He passed by. How little did he guess that a great honour, a great self-revelation, a tremendous response to the magnetic, cheering kindly rays of the Sun of Righteousness was about to take place—and is it not true that the same is waiting for us if we are willing to do as he did—let go of everything which we hold wrongfully either in thought or deed, and restore to others fourfold if we have wronged them, and by acting thus we shall be told as he was that we also are sons and daughters of faithful Abraham and that salvation has come to our house, when we joyfully climb down from our tree and go down to the house to make ready to receive one self-invited guest—Jesus the Prince of Peace.—Com.

MOTHERS' DAY AT GEORGE ST.

IGNORANCE GREATEST FOE OF CANADIAN HOMES, SAYS REV. A. J. THOMAS.

"Mother's Day" was fittingly observed at the George street Methodist church yesterday. The pastor, who preached morning and evening, used appropriate themes and old-time familiar hymns. A very large congregation which practically filled the church at the evening service, added to the inspiration of the occasion.

Special Music.

The choir, augmented to nearly 50 voices, repeated one of the numbers, "Say, Watchman, what of the Night," given at the recent concert, with very fine effect. Mr. J. H. Renwick plans to repeat, "Judge Me, O God," the other eight part chorus, next Sunday evening.

A Tribute to our Parents.

At the morning service, Mr. Thomas, taking as his subject, "A Tribute to our Parents," made a plea for a greater reverence for both father and mother. He pointed out that while mothers occupy the supreme place in the home, the father has a large share also. He showed that in addition to Scriptural exhortation, the facts of experience justify a deep reverence for parenthood which pointed to God.

The Canadian Home.

In the evening the subject of the pastor's discourse was "Is anything wrong with the Candaian home?"

In a forceful manner Mr. Thomas outlined several reasons why many of our Canadian homes are far from ideal.

In the first place some are suffering from the fatal mistake of a wrong choice in marriage. Physically, intellectually, morally and spiritually there should be a fitness in the two who stand before the marriage altar.

Lack of proper home facilities is another reason. We know that material features have much to do with the making of a home. Old rickety, dilapidated buildings are not an asset to any community and it is well nigh impossible for people who dwell in such surroundings to enjoy real home life. A home needs not only father, mother and children but also a distinct dwelling place.

Solemn Contract Not Observed.

The third reason given for lack of ideal conditions in some homes is an impaired estimate of marriage sanctity. "Unfaithfulness," said Mr. Thomas, "is like a foul cancer eating into home life at this very hour. The power of the home on the child never falls out of ration with the holiness of the tie between the father and mother."

Many homes are suffering from the pressure of material needs. Some are working hard because of a greed for wealth; others because of necessity. The will never be ideal however unless the parents recognize the fact that more than material things are needed. There are great moral, social and intellectual needs which must be satisfied.

One of Greatest Foes.

The crippling power of ignorance is one of the greatest foes of the home. "I am thoroughly convinced," said Mr. Thomas, "that one of the great lacks in homes is knowledge. Homes are being handicapped by ignorance of the essentials of true home making." Almose ten per cent. of the children born in Toronto in 1916 did not live to see their first birthday. Undoubtedly that calamity is due to some extent to ignorance of the mothers. Education sanctified by the grace of God will be a great blessing to the child who grows up in such an atmosphere.

The allurement of pleasure seeking is another reason. There is a place for recreation in every life but but the home is far from perfect if the parents and children do not find their greatest pleasure in their own fellowship.

The extreme spirit of individualism is another detriment to homes. The home has become to some young people simply a place of physical convenience. "Young people should learn in the home that which will make them good citizens," said Mr. Thomas. "They can never do so however so long as they foster a spirit of individualism."

Christian Character not Cultivated.

Laxity regarding the culture of Christian character also prevails. Often the ideals set before the children are far too low. Homes are being undermined by irreligion. The Sabbath day is being profaned; there is no family altar in many homes; the word of God is not read; the principles of the Gospel are not taught to the children. Such parents are treating their children with injustice. They should remember that a child is gifted with a destiny that is eternal. If parents expect their children to build a superstructure that is abiding throughout eternity they should lay well the foundation.

"If parents fail in this regard," concluded Mr. Thomas, "they have committed the greatest blunder of their lives. Let us open our hearts to Jesus Christ that He may use us as avenue to come into the home life of this country and into the social and national life of this Dominion."

SERVICES AT MARK STREET

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR THE MORNING SERVICE.

The congregation in the morning was very large, the music was excellent, Mrs. E. Ward excelled herself in solo work, while the choir was at its best.

Mr. L. Joffe preached an excellent sermon in the evening, his subject being "The Truth That Makes Men Free."

The morning subject by Rev. E. E. Ross ,the pastor, was "The Queen of the World," and was based on the text, "Behold Thy Mother," Matt. xii, 4-7. The following is a synopsis of the sermon.

First— Greater than "King" or "Emperor," or "Czar" or "Sultan" is the wonderful term "Mother." It means more than any other single human influence that ever touched the world. To uphold the false doctrine of "The Divine Right of Kings," rivers of blood has been shed. But who has ever disputed the Divine Right of Motherhood? The hand that moves the cradle is the hand that swings the world, and the queen of this planet is "Mother."

Second—This Crown of Motherhood comes from the skies. Sarah, the mother of the Jewish nation, is crowned in the precincts of her tent by an angel of God. Hannah receives the cornet in the temple of Jehovah, Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist, and Mary the mother of Jesus, are crowned by the Divine hand.

Third—Why is motherhood crowned from above? Humanly and reverently speaking, mother is the counterpart of God. The sinner can never go beyond the love and care of the Great Father, nor can your boy, no matter how bad, ever go beyond the range of a mother's love and sympathy. There is no other being in the universe so much like the Divine. Like God, she places her very best, even her life, at the feet of her child. Her step grows slow and feeble, her boy's is firm and elastic, her ear is dull and heavy, his is sharp and keen. She is sinking down to the grave in the valley, he sweeps on to the mountain of activity. Why? Because she has given him her life.

Fourth—The impressions of childhood linger with us till death, but the sweetest memories of early days cluster around "Mother."

Fifth—What do we owe for the undying love ,tender sympathy, absolute loyalty and unshaken faith in us. "Is there anyone in court who will vouch for you?" said the judge to the boy awaiting sentence. "My Mother," was the reply.

Sixth—Some have been denied this crown of Motherhood and some have rejected the honor, preferring to love, and fondle and caress a poodle dog on the end of a string.

Hail Mother. All that the red and white flower means is there. God bless our mothers.

WILL REPRESENT GREAT BRITAIN

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 10. — A Canadian Minister to the United States will be appointed.

The formal announcement of the purpose of the British Government to place her Canadian relations with the United States completely in the hands of Canada was made to-day in a statement, reading:

"Canadian Parliament.—By direction of the Governor-General and the British Parliament at London, and made public here through the British Embassy. Unusual powers are to be conferred upon the Canadian Ministers in the absence of the British Ambassador. He will take full charge of all British diplomatic relations with the United States."

JUST GOATS.

(James J. Montague.)

When William J. McGee, who pulls a switch at Kanakee,
Don't like his pay of eight per day
And quits without a warning,
The 7.30 speeds not by, and consequently you and I
Will get no meat or egs to eat
The next ensuing morning.

When Casey Jones, who drives a truck, finds out that William J. has struck,
He leaves his load beside the road,
As union rules require;
And though the mercury is low and biting, bitter breezes blow,
To save our soul we can't get coal
To stoke the furnace fire.

Then Henry Brown, the warehouseman, says he can strike if Casey can,
And saying which he damns the rich
With eloquence and ardour.
And when with raging appetite we hurry to our homes at night,
Our peace of mind is jarred to find
There's nothing in the larder.

If to employers we complain they answer us with chill disdain,
They'll fight, they say, in their own way,
But compromise? No! Never!
We're just the sovereign people who must do as they are told to do,
Viz., Cast your votes and be the goats
For ever and for ever.

Y.W.C.A. MEETING

Interest is still being kept up in the missionary campaign at the Young Women's Christian Association. The keenest rivalry seems to be between Miss Thomson's and Miss Payne's teams, and although each one led alternately on Saturday, at the time of writing Miss Thompson's is again ahead.

There are two events of importance at the Association this week. On On Thursday evening the annual meeting will be held at 8 o'clock. The different secretaries will tell of the work of the past year in their various departments, and there will be special music. It is hoped that a large number, both of men and women, will come and learn more about the Young Women's Christian Association. An informal hour will be spent at the close of the meeting.

Employed Girls.

On Saturday afternoon, Miss Thompson, secretary of the Industrial Extension Department, will be at home to all employed girls from three to six A cordial invitation is extended to all, whether acquainted with Miss Thompson or not, to come in and meet her.

The clubs and classes will be held much as usual. On Thursday afternoon all the junior members of the gymnasium classes will meet for a special farewell good time.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent fithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Hundreds have joined the silent demonstration, which is causing considerable perturbation among tradesmen.

ACTOR HANGS HIMSELF IN HIS DRESSING ROOM

CHICAGO, March 7.— A tragedy was staged at the Studebaker theatre yesterday. Samuel Burton, an old-time actor, had the leading part. He hanged himself to a steam pipe in his dressing-room. Advanced age and ill-health was given as the cause of the suicide. Mr. Burton was 66 years old and a member of the cast of the "Some Time" Compan.

WATCH YOUR GUMS— BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it known that tender and bleeding gums are the fore-runners of Pyorrhea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, to rid the system of the Pyorrhea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

CIVIC LUNCHEON TO SIR RICHARD

Between forty and fifty guests sat down to the luncheon to Sir Richard Winfrey at the Empress Hotel at one o'clock to-day, and it was a representative body of citizens that gathered to do honour to the prominent Britisher.

The heads of the different civic bodies were present, with Acting Mayor G. N. Gordon presiding.

The chairman welcomed the visitor to Peterborough, expressing the pleasure the citizens felt in having Sir Richard visit Peterborough.

Judge Huycke also spoke, and Sir Richard replied ably in an address of great interest.

Following the official reception, Sir Richard and his son were driven to the Lift Lock and other points of beauty in the city and to the different industrial centres, where they will be shown how prominent and progressive Peterborough, Canada, is in the manufacturing world.

BRAKEMAN DIED HORRIBLE DEATH.

FREDERICTON, N.B., May. 10.—About nine o'clock this morning, Estabrooks died before the tender could be raised because of the other wreckage piled on it, and it was only by cutting off his leg below the knee that his body could be rescued from the water.

The body of Gillies was found under the boiler of the locomotive, but cannot be removed until the wrecking crew succeed in moving the engine.

Gillies is married and leaves a widow and four children at Newcastle. Estabrooks is married and resides in this city, but has no children.

Several doctors who were in attendance at the wreck, had declined to accede to Estabrook's wishes that his leg be amputated befre he died, but continued administering restoratives in the hope of keeping him alive until the wrecking crew were able to move the tender, under which he was pinned.

banks they loan them money to buy equipment, which loans are equal to the amount he can put up himself. The loans are payable within five years with interest at 5 p.c. In Canada the government loans the men the money ot by the land. In the old country the man is a tenant of the state, in Canada he becomes an owner.

Sir Richard prefers the old country system ,but is visiting in his trip out west the land settlements made by the returned men to pick up any suggestions valuable to England. In England, he points out, they have an absolute fixity of tenure as long as they pay their rent, and they can't have their rents raised on their own improvements. They have all their money at their disposal.

Municipal Activities.

As well as being connected with the government, Sir Richard has always been prominent in municipal affairs at Peterborough, England, in which corporation he has resided for 25 years. His estate is located four miles out of the city. During the first two years of the war he was Mayor of the city. He was actively engaged as a result in many war activities, being chairman of the Red Cross and chairman of the Belgian Refuge committee, having charge of 200 small Belgian refugee children during the whole period of the war.

The land question ,as he is a land owner, has ever keenly interested him. He was among the first to preach the back to the land doctrine. "Over there the tendency has been to draw the rural population to the towns and I have found the same tendency here. As early as 1885 he stated, the small holdings movement to divide up the large farms and give the labourer a chance to acquire some property and a stake in the country. Whereas in 1881 and 1891 the census showed a falling off in rural population, after this policy was in force in 1911 a slight increase in his division for the good was shown.

"How large is your constituency?"

"It covers about one-fourth of Norfolk and it is purely agricultural."

Besides his other duties he is a justice of the peace, corresponding to our magistrate, for the liberty of Peterborough. He is intimately connected with the newspaper business, being managing proprietor of four publishing houses in the Easter Counties, publishing one evening paper and thirteen weeklies. The scarcity of newsprint is giving us great anxiety. While prices of newsprint in Canada are three times above the per-war price, in England they are six times. The English paper makers reply on Scandinavian pulp and the supply is not equal to the demand. When he goes back to England he hopes to be able to persuade the English newspapers to turn their attention to the Canadian pulp wood industry and secure capital to this end if necessary.

"I have been very much struck with the places I have visited," he said, and named St. Thomas, Guelph, Woodstock, Windsor and other places. The Niagara Peninsula created a wonderful impression on the visitor, while the apparent prosperity of the entire farming community was remarked. He looks forward with anticipation to visiting the west, and particularly the soldiers' settlements.

THE WEATHER

The cool atmosphere of the last few days has not been conducive to any growth. This morning the thermometer was at 31 degrees—slightly below the freezing point, and the wind blowing to-day was not of the balmy character that we usually associate with a May day. Considerably warmer weather now prevails to the west of the Great Lakes.—W. P.

FEELS FULLY 20 YEARS YOUNGER

MRS. TREMBLAY GAINS TWENTY POUNDS AND NEVER INTENDS TO BE WITHOUT TANLAC.

"After what Tanlac has done for me I never expect to be without it in my house, for I don't think a home is complete without it," said Mrs. Adele Tremblay, wife of a retired farmer living in Albert street, Victoriaville, Canada, while on a visit to her daughter at 65 Marble street, Burlington, Vt.

"For the past twenty-five years," she said, "I had suffered from stomach trouble, and although during that time I had tried many different treatments and medicines, until I started taking Tanlac I had never found anything that did me any good. I gradually got worse as the years went by until finally I had no appetite at all, and when I did manage to eat a little something it would distress me for hours. I suffered with a terrible burning sensation as if there was fire in my stomach after every meal, and the formation of gas was so bad it would nearly choke me. I could sleep but very little and often when I did go to sleep, would wake up in perfect misery. In the mornings I felt tired and worn out, actually worse than when I went to bed, and barely able to stand on my feet.

"One night my daughter read a statement from someone who described their trouble as being very similar to mine, saying they had been entirely relieved by Tanlac, and my husband right then decided to have me give it a trial. Well, it began to help me almost at once, and now after taking only three bottles my stomach trouble is gone entirely. I have a splendid appetite and can eat just anything I want without feeling the slightest sign of that terrible burning sensation or gas. I sleep well at night and always get up feeling greatly refreshed, and my general health is so good I feel twenty years younger. I will always praise Tanlac and I hope others will profit by my experience."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug o., Ltd., in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

THE TRUTH OUT.

One day there came to the clinic at a Philadelphia hospital a negress with a broken jaw. The surgeon, intent on discovering the exact nature and extent of the injury, asked numerous questions, to all of which the negress returned evasive answers. Finally she admitted she was "hit with a object." "Was it a large object?" asked the physician. "Tol'able large." "Was it a hard object or a soft object?" "Tol'able hard." "Was it coming rapidly or slowly?" "Tol'able fast." Then her patience exhausted, she exclaimed: "To tell de truf, doctor, I was jest nach'ly kick' in de face by a gemman friend."—Pharmacal Advance.

BOARD OF HEALTH HELD MEETING, ETC.

50c a treatment from the provincial government. The question came up if the board had power to go ahead with the scheme without consulting the council.

Mr. Lynch claimed there are houses in the city not fit for pigs to live in and should be closed up. They just live like animals, he said, in the filth and dirt. "If I had my way doctor I'd arrest any one contributing to foreign missions while there are such places in the city" was Mr. Lynch's emphatic remark. Dr McPherson said they had power to close up any of these houses but the people only moved to another house.

The chairman suggested that he and Dr. McPherson and the sanitary inspector renew the inspection trips around the restaurants eating houses and laundries like they formerly did under Dr. Amy's and it was decided to do this to keep tab on their conditions.

After considerable discussion on the venereal clinic the board endorsed the provincial plan and the chairman and the M.O.H. were appointed to see the Finance committee and the City Council on the matter of financing it.

A LOGICAL INQUIRY.

A city girl was visiting for the first time a farm belonging to an uncle. As she was shown over the place she evinced the greatest interest in everything she saw.

"What is that queer-looking bird?" she finally asked.

"That's a goose," said the farmer.

"Oh, yes," said the city girl. "And does it lay all the gooseberries you use."—The Country Gentleman.

WHEN JOBS GO BEGGING---!

PROBABLY YOU THINK right now that the pay you are receiving is not in proportion to the work you are doing—in other words you believe you are poorly paid. And, perhaps you are right.

BUT what is it that governs the amount of your wage? Is it not the law of supply and demand—the same law that governs the cost of merchandise?

THE TROUBLE is—there are more men than jobs—a fact which causes so much trouble at the present time.

A CITY IS PROSPEROUS to the fullest extent when there are more jobs than men to take them. Get busy, therefore, and help bring about this ideal condition. Whenever you go into a store ask for the Peterboro City Brand of the Article you want. Insist that your wife and all your family do the same. Thus you will be laying stones in the foundation of a greater Peterboro City—a Peterboro City having enormous factories which will employ thousands of people and cause millions of dollars to be distributed right here at home.

DON'T JUST THINK ABOUT IT!

The Housecleaning Season Is Here

WHAT SEASON OF THE YEAR IS MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SPRING? NONE, IS THE REPLY, EXCEPT THAT IT BRINGS WITH IT THE NECESSITY TO HOUSE-CLEAN—THAT TIRESOME, BACKACHING JOB OF BEATING RUGS, CLEANING DRAPERIES, CHESTERFIELDS, CUSHIONS, ETC. BUT AFTER ALL, WHY BEAT ALL THESE—WHY NOT MAKE LIFE WORTH WHILE, AND TAKE PLEASURE OUT OF YOUR HOUSE-CLEANING INSTEAD OF MAKING IT SEEM A VERY UNPLEASANT TASK? IT IS POSSIBLE TO DO THIS, TOO, WHEN YOU USE THIS FAMOUS

EUREKA VACUUM CLEANER.

IT IS SO EASY TO OPERATE, THAT EVEN A CHILD MAY PERFORM THE SWEEPING OPERATION WITH THE SAME ACCURACY AND PRECISENESS AS A GROWN-UP. THE CONTROL SWITCH IS SO HANDY IMMEDIATELY UNDER THE THUMB ON THE HANDLE. BUT THE BEST OF ALL THAT IT PERFORMS ITS TASK WITH THE GREATEST ACCURACY POSSIBLE; IT SIMPLY SUCKS THE DUST AND DIRT WITH ITS GREAT VOLUME OF AIR PASSING THROUGH THE RUG, OR WHATEVER IT MAY BE, WITH SUCH A HIGH VELOCITY THAT THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO DOUBT AS TO THE CLEANLINESS OF THE ARTICLE CLEANED AFTER THE EUREKA PASSES OVER IT.

The EUREKA does not spoil the nap of your expensive Rug by beating and rubbing away at it by means of a brush. It has the power to suck the dirt and dust out of your Rug without this means of destruction. This is where the EUREKA gains its supremacy. "IT GETS THE DIRT, NOT THE CARPET." There is a great volume of air passing through the EUREKA at a higher velocity than in any other Cleaner. Thus Cleaning, by the best known cleanser—Air—the Rug, and casting the dirt into a spacious bags which is on top of the handle to prevent it being rubbed or scraped on the floor when cleaning underneath beds, etc.

In all, the EUREKA VACUUM CLEANER is the last word in Vacuum Cleaner efficiency. It is compact and not clumsy to handle, and with its attachments is the best House Cleaner possible to secure.

CALEDONIANS THIRD CONSECUTIVE WIN IN LOCAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

CANADIAN WOOLENS PUT UP A STUBBORN DEFENCE—HANNAH AND MATT SHAW SCORED TWO GOALS APIECE—CRIDLAND WORKED HARD TO STEM THE TIDE—CALEDONIANS ADDED TWO MORE GOALS.

CALEDONIANS 6, CANADIAN WOOLENS 0

The football enthusiasts received the first ideal Saturday for football since the beginning of the Peterborough League, and the attendance at the games was gratifying.

All the players of the teams were on the field of play when the Referee Alex McKinley called the game. The full 90 minutes' play was agreed upon by the Captains. The Caledonian captain won the toss and decided to take the advantage of the wind and the sun shining on their backs.

The Teams.

Canadian Woollens — F. Wetton, goal; A. Burton and A. Stills, backs; J. Barrell, W. Baldwin and H. Pilling half-backs; F Clarke, J. Montgomery, J. Cridland, C. Clarke and Ed. Jones forwards.

Caledonians—R. Brunton, goal; J. Willshaw and R. Willshaw, backs; J. Frost, S. McMillian and F. Fenner, half-backs; R. Hannah, Matt. Shaw, Jas. Shaw, Ed. Hardie and R. McDowall, forwards.

Referee—Mr. Alex. McKinley.

The Canadian Woollens set the ball in motion and the first flutter was Hannah runing down the wing crossed the ball to Matt. Shaw, only to witness Wetton save a beautiful shot. From the goal kick, J. Cridland carried the ball into the Caledonian area where F Clarke unintentionally hit the ball, giving Bob Willshaw relief. The foul kick taken by B. Willshaw landed to R. Hannah and wasting no time lashed it across to J. Shaw and the Woolens custodian hit the ball with his two hands, dropped to the other end where W. Baldwin hit the ball with his hand, but the game continued under the referee's decision, and a corner kick was given against Burton—McDowall put past.

Woollens' Good Defence.

Another corner kick taken by R. Hannah was a beauty and every person thought it was through as it dropped on the other side of the crossbar. The whole forward line of the Caleys would carry the ball down on to the defence of the Woollens, only to miss a chance to score through the good tackling of the Canadian Woollens' defence. On nice play by Baldwin and Cridland, play was transferred to Brunton's goal, where the whole forward line missed an open goal from a pass by the Woollens' right wing. At the other end McDowall missed an opportunity to open the scoring on an accurate pass from Hannah. Foul against Hardie brought relief to Burton.

Hannah Scored Twice.

Wetton was playing a great game in goal and repeatedly saved from the Caledonians' forwards, but eventually he had to admit defeat from Hannah, who lifted the ball over the players' heads into the far corner, after having saved from J. Shaw. A few minutes afterwards Hannah on an individual effort added another goal with a swift, low shot, from close in on the goal. The left wing of the Woollens came into prominence as Jones beat Frost and with the aid of Cridland, the forwards played havoc around Brunton's goal, the Woollens' centre severely tested the Caleys' goal-keeper. J. Shaw had a try at the other end and missed two or three chances to score until he finished it up with striking the upright and the ball going past. Play was confined to Woollens' end for a good while.

Headed the Ball Through.

J. Shaw could not score with his feet so lateriy the two brothers kept heading the ball down the field in rotation until Matt. Shaw diverted the ball through with his head. A foul was given to either side on resuming with no one claiming an advantage. Just three minutes before half time, McDowall tore down the left wing and placed the ball into the centre of the Woollens' goal, where Matt. Shaw fell over the ball then jumped up and drove it pass the whole defence, into the goal, giving Wetton no chance. Half time, Caledonians 4, Canadian Woollens 0.

Half Time.

On re-starting, McDowall was drawn up for being offside. Jack Cridland was very much in evidence during this half and by careful and timely passing gave his wing men good support, and along with Clarke raided Brunton's goal Just afterwards, nice combination by Jones and Clark give the Caledonians a fright. The ball travelled to the Caleys' left wing where McDowall tricked Burrell, run with ball to the Woollens' goal and with a very soft shot beat Wetton. The Canadian Woollens claimed offside and after consultation with the linesmen the referee awarded the goal.

Jack Cridland Worked Hard.

Although the score was mounting up against the Woollens this did not prevent J. Cridland from forcing the Caleys to play all the time and many a battle was fought out between McMillian and Gridland, although former broke up the combination of the Woollens' attack. Mid-field play continued with the ball running from end to end, with fouls and throw-ins intermingled. J. Cridland took a foul kick against the Caleys about 20 yards in front of the goal and tried hard to convert the ball. McMillian turned his back to the ball and received the full force of it which kept him company for a long time. He punted the ball that landed right into the Woollens' goal, Wetton jumping high into the air catching the ball and made a nice clearance with J. Shaw trying hard to get the rebound. Styles cleared and passed to Jones who outwitted Frost, passed to Clarke, run the ball against J. Willshaw, giving the Woollens a corner kick that brought nothing. Baldwin had a try at goal a few minutes afterwards.

The Sixth Goal.

Jones was slow in accepting a pass from Cridland, Frost shot the ball up to Hannah, and on a nice combination bewildered the defence, tricked Styles up in the corner, lashed it straigth across the goalf for some one of the Caley forwards to convert. Brunton had to save from Clark and Jones when Clarke beat the whole defence. The exchanges were even and uninteresting for the next ten minutes, until just before the close J. Cridland tripped over the ball and sprained his ankle. Result, Caledonians 6, Canadian Woollens 0.

Notes on the Game.

Jack Cridland was a tower of strength in the Woollens' attack and acceped the decision in a true sportsmanship manner.

At left half, C. Fenner filled Alex. Hardie's position in a creditable manner. Alex. has got a souvenir of last Thursday night's game that prevented him from playing.

You should have seen the smile on Wetton's face when Baldwin hit the ball with his hand while the Caledonians were trying to score. The Caleys claimed a penalty, but the referee did not see it take place because Baldwin had his back to him.

The goal-kepeing display of Wetton was excellent and the more practice Burton and Styles have together they will give a good accoun of themselves.

For nice tackling and judicious passing, McMillian was the best half back on the field, with Baldwin not far behind.

Matt. Shaw played a good game on Saturday and added two more goals to his credit.

The wing men of the Caledonians were the oustanding players amongst the forwards, more particularly Hannah, who worked like a trojan.

LIVELY WORK-OUT OF THE CENTRAL LEAGUE TEAM

The workout of the Peterboro Central League Ball Club at Riverside Park on Saturday, showed that there is a wealth of good material available. The warm weather brought out over a score of ball tossers and the big crowd of fans who watched the practice were delighted with the prospects. The squad put in a solid hour's fielding practice after which a practice game was played.

Hap Harrison and Howard Kirn did the twirling for one crew, with Max Swanston and Bob Ross at the receiving end. With them was an infield composed of Ross, first base, Frankie Collins, second base, Roy Cherrett, short stop, and "Micky" Murray third base, while the outfield was composed of Walter Jackson, Jack McCarney and Connors.

Gordon McClintock, the south paw twirler from Kitchener, was on the mound for the other nine, with with Morse, the Great War Veterans' catcher behind the bat, Harold Long was at first; Ray Rose at second, Tommy Holyman at short and Lorne Rose at third, while the gardens were taken care of by Shaughnessy, Heenan and Lowe.

All three pitchers cut loose in good style and they had a big edge on the battles. The boys have not got their batting eye yet and with the twirlers uncorking a lot of speed and slipping in an occasional hook the batters did not have a very comfortable afternoon, hits being few and far between. Micky Murray and Bob Ross helped themselves to doubles and that was the extent of the long distance hitting.

Both teams fielded in snappy fashion and the seven innings game which resulted in a 4-4 tie, was a good exhibition.

The Petes should be in fine shape by two weeks from to-day when they meet the champion G.T.R team in Belleville.

WAR VETERANS WON FOOTBALL FIXTURE FROM DE LAVAL

ONE LONE GOAL DECIDED THE ISSUE —MANY "NEAR" GOALS.

A long, knee-high shot scored the only point in the football fixture between Great War Veterans and De Laval, at Exhibition Park on Saturday afternoon, the solitary counter being won by the Veterans. The shot was sent on it's way by Ryan. Ordinarily, it would have been easy for Wilf. Jones, but the ball was deflected from the goaler's range, just enough to take him off his balance, and he failed to handle it. Close to the north goal post the ball went through, and the game was won and lost right there For seventy minutes the Veterans had been held back by the superb defence of the De Laval captain. He stopped them, one after another, with the opposition right in on top of him His cool and heady work must have been a great tonic to his team-mates. He alone saved them from disaster. It was admitted by friend and foe alike that with the average goaler on the job, De Laval would have been soundly trounced.

Goodsportsmanship

A bit of sportsmanship that stood out prominently in the first half of the game was credited to Bishop, who worked with Hawthorne on the Veterans' back division. Fifteen yards out the Vets were given a kick on a De Laval foul—not an intentional infraction but enough to justify the referee's subsequent action. Bishop was brought up to kick. Cool and alert, Jones took his position in the centre of the goal line and waited for the ball. It looked a sure goal for the Vets. Bishop having every chance and Jones practically none. But the ball was aimed directly at the goaler, and he had nothing else to do but remain in it's path, and take his time making the return. Not all the spectators caught the spirit of the thing, and Jones was applauded for what had all the appearances of a great stop.

Many "Near" Goals.

Save for the excitement over "near" goals, the game was not as interesting as some of the contests played to date. There was too much of the same things, and the De Laval forwards found difficulty in handling the ball. They were woefully weak in getting away, and Veterans making easy recoveries, kept Hillman and Hartshorn working overtime keeping them out. These two did some gilt-edged relieving.

Referee J. E. Bates sent the teams way on time, and he earned the commendation of both players and spectators for his splendid work. Veterans kicked off with the sun and a stiff breeeze in their faces. Ernie Abraham intercepted the first pass and took the play towards Veterans goal, but the ball was speedily returned. Evans on left wing got in some nice work, and Vets forced the play in on Jones. They had the first corner kick, which Curtis centred nicely, but the ball was kicked over the goal. Jones was hard pressed but he stopped everything. Evans came in alone, and Vets missed a great chance to score, due to poor kicking. Again, Evans rushed without success, and thus the play continued, without the Vets accomplishing anything and De Laval with few chances, doing no better.

De Laval Do Better

"Wait till the Vets have the wind in their favour", seemed to be the popular tune of their supporters, but the second period, produced very little change in the play, De Laval even doing a little better after the rest. But it was not their day for scoring. They had more chances in this half, and on one occasion had the ball right in on Griffin. He fell in taking the ball but came up again with it and cleared in safety. After twenty-five minutes play, came Ryan's kick and the goal that brought Veterans the victory. Just to show that it was largely a mistake, Jones stopped a difficult shot a minute later.

The teams were:—

G.W.V.A.—goal, Griffin; backs, Bishop and Hawthorne; half backs, Burrows, Ryan and Jones; forwards, Curtis, Pigott, Norman, McKinley and Evans.

De Laval—goal, Jones; backs, Hartshorn and Hillman; half backs, G. Hartshorn, Humpage and Brown; forwards, Hartshorn, Cullen, Abraham, Nicholls and Goodman.

REVIEW THREATENS CEASE HIBERNATING

The Review in its response to the Examiner challenge to a game of baseball admits it has been hibernating all winter. The admission was truthful so far as it went but it did not go far enough. The Review's handful of readers are ready to admit it hibernates twelve months in the year and that it should be thankful for the Examiner's efforts to drag it out of that comatose state. It will do the Review baseball pygmies a lot of good to get out and have a workout with such an enterprising lot of sports as the Examiner baseball team even if they are badly defeated. So far the Review has declined to name the date for game. The Examiner has no hibernating periods in its career and is open to meet the Review to readers any time they have sufficient courage to come out

LACROSSE TEAM FULLY EQUIPPED

PETERBORO'S OLD FIGHTING COLOURS WILL BE CARRIED AGAIN.

The lacrosse team set up their nets in the horse show ring in the west end of Exhibition Park on Saturday afternoon and improved their condition with a fast two hour workout. Jack Creighton formerly of Quebec, Haight of Wingham, Tudhope, Harry Donovan, Dillon, Sheehan, Foley, Lawson, Jim, Charley and Fred McCoy, George Robertson, Todd, Vic Hamilton, Dunford and others put in a lively practice. Two nets were used and slides picked.

The team's sweaters were expected to be ready to-day. They are the old Peterboro colours, blue and white with a "P" on the left side and on the left arm. They were made by the Albion Knitting Company and supplied by Thornton Brothers. This will complete the equipment of the team and from all accounts the financial affairs of the club are better than might have been expected after the game's long lapse in this city.

Johnny Sutherland announces that Bert Dodd of Hastings is moving to Peterboro and will play with the locals. In the season before the war he was one of the star performers of the Hastings team. Several Tweed men are eager to come here and may blow in any day.

Harry Scriver will try out in goal At present he is laid up with a tiny piece of steel in his eye. Scriver works at the Henry Hope factory.

Lawson, Foley and Sheehan of last winter's junior O.H.A. team have apparently decided to throw in their lot with the lacrosse team. They are decidedly promising youngsters

Regular practices will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, beginning as early as possible, preferably at 6.30 o'clock.

Creighton was the centre of a lot of the play on Saturday. Dillon is as keen as ever, and George Robertson was out again. C. S. Cummer manager of the local branch of the Merchants Bank took a stick in the game Its lure draws them all and there are other veterans around the city who would like nothing better than to be back in their old form, back with the boys again. The veterans who are regular attendants at practice are coming on fast, and others are giving the younger players advice and encouragement that is proving helpful.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

Reformer: The baseball enthusiasts of Oshawa exemplified the "Back to the Land" movement on Saturday afternoon, when between seventy and eighty fellows hiked to Alexandra Park to put in a good workout. Some of those there were members of the Oshawa team in the Central Ontario League last year, while others were young fellows who have not yet had an opportunity of trying their mettle on Central pitchers, but who only crave to show the batting average they can run up in the Central. A good hard workout was the order of the day and a short batting practice was indulged in.

Kelso, the crack southpaw pitcher, whose past baseball history has been given in The Ontario Reformer, and who is expected to play with the Williams Piano Co. team in the Senior Town League this year was on hand, and from his pitching on Saturday he looks like "Goyer II." He is shaping up like real fine timber.

Intelligencer: "Peeny" Mills, the clever catcher of the Belleville G.T.R. champion team, who left here a few days ago for Brantford, is back again and will this season again don the G. T. R. uniform. The members of the team and the baseball fans of the city rejoice at the return of Mills.

A meeting of the Central Ontario Lawn Bowling League representatives was held in Port Perry on Tuesday afternoon, when the following officers were elected:

President—James Carnegie, Port Perry

Vice-President—J. W. Thompson, Sunderland.

Secy.-Treasurer—W. F Gregg, Uxbridge

The executive is to be made up of presidents and secretaries of the various clubs in the district.

The League schedule is to be arranged by a committee composed of Messrs. E. H. Purdy, Dr. S. J. Mellow, and R H. Short.

Mr. Ward Patterson of Peterboro, has been re-elected as a member of the sub-committee of the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association, for the second year in succession. The election of Mr. Patterson is a well deserved tribute to the interest and energy eh has displayed in connection with baseball.

FAVORITE CAT BURIED IN COFFIN WITH OWNER

NEW YORK, May 7.—The favorite cat of the late Maria Louisa Ewen was buried in the same coffin with its owner. Miss Ewen died a year ago, but her devotion to the cat was not made public until recently when a nephew, John Ewen, a lawyer of Yonkers, N.Y., started to contest the aunt's will on the ground that she had been mentally incompetent.

"SEVENTEEN"

When one hears that Thomas Kelly made his first theatrical appearance with Virginia Harned and E. H. Sothern in "The Light That Lies in Woman's Eyes" one wonders how he can play and look Willie Baxter in "Seventeen," which appears at the Grand this evening.

But it must be stated at the outset that Mr. Kelly is still very, very young, and began acting as soon as he could talk. After a season with Harned and Sothern he joined Miss Ethel Barrymore's Company, playing with her for three successive seasons in "Cousin Kate" in which he played the younger brother "Bobby," in "Alice-Sit-By-the-Fire" playing Conco Grey, and in a revival of Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines.

During the summer of 1907 he was a member of the American company that went to London to play "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," one of the most notable successes ever achieved by an American company and play in England. Mr. Kelly played Wiggs opposite the Lovey Mary of Bessie Barriscale, now a well known picture star. He left during the London run, returning to America to play in Maxine Elliott's company for a season, the play being Rachel Crother's "Myself Bettina." He also played several engagements with Ben Greet's company in Shakespeare and spent a season as the Young Caliph in "Kismet."

At the outbreak of the war he enlisted as a private and spent over a year in France with the 58th Artillery C.A.C. Returning to America he was engaged by Stuart Walker for the part of Willie Baxter in "Seventeen."

LOOK WHO'S HERE

The hit of the season may be aptly applied to the latest Gus Hill triumph, "Keeping Up With the Joneses," which is to be the attraction at the Grand Theatre on Wednesday evening. This new play is based on the popular cartoons of Pop Momand, whose screamingly funny creations first appeared in the pages of the New York Globe. It was Mr. Hill who first saw the possibilities of bringing cartoon to life, as attested, by the success of "Mutt and Jeff" and "Bringing Up Father." Those who have seen this latest landslide of laughter claim that in point of popularity it will surely eclipse the success of any musical comedy of its kind offered hereabouts in seasons. If millions have enjoyed the cartoons, it is easy to predict that millions more will enjoy the play. Startling surprises, plenty of singing and dancing, novelties, pretty women, glittering costumes, a large and capable cast, jingling and effervescent music, fantasy and sensational features comprise this contribution. It is a show built on unusual lines, and calculated to set a new departure in productions which will be difficult for other managers to emulate.

When an idea has been used as the basis of a story in a national weekly and then worked over into a moving picture film, and then "fictionized" once more from the film into a story for a photo-dramatic magazine, it would seem as if little more could be expected of an idea, unless the popular song writers care to take a turn at it just for luck.

HOUSE TO SIT TWO MORE WEEKS

HOPES OF WINDING UP THIS WEEK CANNOT BE REALIZED.

Hopes of bringing the session to a close this week, voiced some days ago by members of the Cabinet, seem doomed to disappointment and the best that can now be looked for is a wind-up a fortnight hence. Nor is it likely that morning sessions will be resorted to. The various committees of the House have received authority to sit while the House is in session, but this procedure, while not open to serious objection where the committee is a small one with but one or two meetings to hold, has decided disadvantages when applied to big committees like those on Private Bills and Municipal Law, both of which have numerous bills to dispose of. The Public Accounts Committee is also coming to life again, several meetings being promised this week. An effort will be made, however, to dispose of committee work this week in order to have everything clear for driving through remaining business in the House. But even by getting through by the 21st the House will have chalked against it probably the longest session on record.

GAME FOR THE SOUTH CENTRAL

THEIR TENDER FOR THE BIG BLOCK OF NEW BUILDINGS WAS ACCEPTED FROM MORE THAN TWENTY SUBMITTED—HAVE ALSO EXTENSION TO THE COMPOUND BUILDING AND LONG NEW "CRANE-RUN."

John E. Hayes and Sons, who were awarded the contract of the new block of C.G.E. buildings, have already begun work and are rapidly advancing the excavations. Tenders were received from more than twenty prominent construction companies of Montreal, Toronto, Peterboro, Brantford and other cities, on a lump sum basis. The tender of Messrs Hayes and Sons is not known, but the job is regarded as one of the largest ever let in this city.

The punch press building will be 285 feet by 83 feet. It runs parallel to Albert street from the south end of the machine shop to which it will be joined by removing the intervening wall of the machine shop. The long extension to the transformer building will be 285 feet by 82 feet with a "leanto" 46 feet wide. It will meet the new punch press building at its south end and the completed block will form a huge square, almost in the centre of which will be the addition to the annealing or foundry building 187 feet by 67 feet.

Two Other Contracts

These are the outside dimensions of the new units the company promised to erect when applying to the city for the continuation of their fixed assessment for ten years, but Messrs. Hayes and Sons have been working on two other separate contracts that are important in themselves. One of these is the addtion to the compound building, the second west of Park street, and on the east half of the property. This annex is 108 feet by 50 feet. The foundation has been put in, the iron girders are on the ground, and the construction will be carried on as soon as other materials arrive.

The C.G.E. company has also decided to extend their "crane run" on the east side of the machine shop from its present terminus almost to the office a distance of 270 feet. This new part will be roofed over its entire width of 56 feet to protect from the weather the machinery and other supplies that are handled by the outside crane. This contract alone is a large one. Heavy concrete piers will be built eighteen feet apart on both sides of the crane to support the steel framework. The roof will be carried down from above the eaves of the machine shop to the outside of the crane-way. It is understood that only the section will be covered, but the present crane-way will be thoroughly overhauled; new concrete footings will be set under the steel uprights and the entire outside crane-run which is chiefly used in loading and unloading finished products and raw materials will be practically new when this contract is finished. The contractors are ready to begin pouring concrete as soon as reinforcing bars are received.

Thirty Men at Work.

On the main contract west of the machine shop twenty-five or thirty labourers have been at work several days. Excavations for the concrete walls and the special footings for the steel pillars are rapidly progressing. It is understood that the terms of the contract call for completion of the job by December 15th. The steel framework will likely be erected before the bricklayers start, and by the middle of June all the foundations are expected to be completed.

The floors throughout will be be concrete. The annex to the transformer building will be of the same height and the whole will be made a single building by knocking out the south wall of the present concrete transformer building.

WHEAT PRICE TAKES A JUMP

MEANS A CENT MORE FOR LOAF OF BREAD.

WINNIPEG, May 10. — The Canadian Wheat Board issued new regulations, effective at midnight, May 8th, advancing the price to mills of all grades of western wheat 35c per bush, and British Columbia. Ontario and Quebec wheat 40 cents per bushel. Another regulation, effective at the same time, increases the maximum prices of bran and shorts to the extent of $3 per ton.

Means a Cent more a Loaf.

According to the flour men and bakers, the Wheat Board's action in increasing wheat prices 35 and 40c per bushel will ultimately add exactly 1c per small loaf to the price of bread. Flour men said last night that as it requires 4 1-2 bushels of wheat to make a barrel of flour, the increase in the cost of that commodity will be $1.55 Manitoba and $1.80 soft wheat flour H. Hilton of the Toronto bakers' organization calculated that the increase meant just exactly one cent on the cost of a small loaf.

YOUNG BUT SOPHISTICATED.

A parson was addressing a school class recently, and was trying to enforce the doctrine that the hearts of the little ones were sinful, and needed regulating. Taking out his watch and holding it up, he said:

PROMINENT LAWYER DIED ON SATURDAY

Mr. J. Follinsbee Practised Law For Thirty Years at Strathroy, Ont.

Mr. John Follinsbee, who for over thirty years practiced law at Strathroy, Ont., during which time he conducted a number of notable legal actions, died at his home in Toronto, No. 1A Hogarth Avenue, Saturday evening in his 70th year, following an extended illness. Mr. Follinsbee was at one time Mayor of the Town of Strathroy, and during his younger years took an active interest in politics. He removed to Toronto in 1908, and for a few years, practiced his profession here. He retired from active work, however, about six year ago. Of recent years he had taken a keen interest in mission work. He was born at Canboro, in Haldimand County. He is survived by his wife, two sons, Dr. F. J. Follinsbee, of Edmonton, and Maurice L., of Toronto, and three daughters, Miss Muriel, Mrs. Harry Newman and Miss Mildred, all of Toronto. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning from his late residence to Norway cemetery.

The late Mr. Follinsbee was well known in the Stoney Lake district, where he had a summer cottage.

DETECTIVE WORE STEEL BREASTPLATE

But Sinn Fein Bullets Seriously Wounded Him.

DUBLIN, May 10.—A sergeant in the detective service, named Revell was shot and seriously wounded Saturday morning on Phibsborough Road, a business thoroughfare, while on his way to report for duty at Dublin Castle. Two men shot the detective from behind and escaped. Revell wore a steel breastplate under his waiscoat, but the bullets truck unprotected portions of his body.

The last remaining two hunger-strikers in the Cork prison were released yesterday, and forty-five Irish prisoners were released from the Wormwood Scrubbs Prison yesterday.

NO CHANCE FOR HIM.

A clergyman, travelling from the East End the other day, happened to get into a compartment in which was a labourer.

The labourer, who had procured a bottle of whiskey from somewhere, kept drinking out of it, till at last the clergyman could stand it no longer.

"My good man," said he, "I have lived 40 years of my life, and never a shilling have I spent on that stuff."

"Ay, now," said the labourer, vigorously putting the cork into the bottle and placing it in his pocket. "Well don't think you're goin' to sponge any off me!"

MAN TO MAN.

When the prisoner had been duly fined for cruelty to the wife of his bosom he was asked to go to the magistrate's private room. There he found that great man waiting.

"Look here," said the latter, "your wife in her evidence just now said you had her completely terrorzed."

"She did sir," agreed the man. —"but——"

"Now, look here! I am not speaking to you as in my official capacity but as man to man. You understand that?"

"Yes, sir!"

"Well, how did you do it?" —

While roasting pork, salt it now and then and insert pieces of tart apple. The apple cuts the grease and makes the gravy delicious.

"BLACK DISGRACE" IN SAAR DISTRICT

CONDUCT OF NEGRO TROOPS DISCUSSED IN GERMAN DIET.

BERLIN, May 10.—In response to an interpellation by a woman deputy in the Wurttemburg Diet, Premier Blos declared the German Government would be asked to bring about at the Spa Conference a discussion of the "Black disgrace" in view of alleged unchecked assaults by French coloured troops upon German women and girls in the occupied zone.

Reports received here from the Saar region which the authorities allege are well authenticated, show an increasing number of murders and suicides as a result of attacks on scores of young German working girls by French negro troops.

The reports state that many working girls have mysteriously disappeared, while women of other classes, preferring self-imposed death to public disgrace, have committed suicide.

IN MEMORIAM

HILL.—In ever loving memory of Ellen Elizabeth Jane Hill, beloved daughter of Cecil and Jennie Hill, who passed away at Bobcaygeon, on April 9th., 1910 aged four years.

Although we all shall miss you
As long as we may live,
Yours is the greatest blessing
That even God doth give:
From sin, from earthly suffering
The King has claimed his own,
To join the happy children
Who dwell around His throne,
So though in life we're parted
From you, we all did love,
God make us worthy, Ellen
In death to meet above.

PREPARING N. W. ROWELL FOR THE NEW POSITION

OTTAWA DESPATCH DESCRIBES HIM AS A MAN OF "UNQUESTIONED ABILITY."

"FIT THE POSITION"

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, May 11.— The precise diplomatic status of the minister plenipotentiary who is to represent Canada at Washington is in considerable doubt. The somewhat meagre statement read in the House yesterday by Sir George Foster states that he "will have charge of Canadian affairs," will at all times "be the ordinary channel of communication with the United States government in matters of purely Canadian concern," will "act upon instructions from and report direct to the Canadian government," and finally that in the absence of the British ambasador, he "will take charge of the whole embassay and of the representation of Imperial as well as Canadian interests."

These statements, although broadly indicating a substantial diplomatic advance, leaves great matters obscure. In the field of diplomacy there are three distinctive classes of representation the order of precedence being: (1) Ambasasdor; (2- Minister Plenipotentiary, and (3) Charge D'Affairs. As the announcement read by Sir George Foster designates the proposed Canadian representative as minister plenipotentiary, it is clear that he is not to have first, or ambassadorial rank. This, therefore, suggests the folowing questions:

Obscure Questions.

Will the Canadian representaive have the same diplomatic status, in the matter of precedence, as the representative of say, Argentine?

Will there be a separate Canadian diplomatic residence, recognized as Canadian territory, or will our Minister operate from and be a part of the British Embasy?

In the case of a treaty between Canada and the United States in regard to boundaries, for example, will the Canadian minister be the sole signatory on behalf of Canada or will the British ambassador also have to sign?

There are several other points not clear, such as the salary to be attached to the post; the question as to whether an advanced diplomatic status is to be given the United States representative at Ottawa; and, finally, and not least in importance, who our minister plenipotentiary is to be.

It is more than likely that some of these matters has been decided. The question of status will probably remain somewhat undefined and tentative until the experiment is tested by time, the final development broadening down from precedent to precedent," and the lesser matters of salary, and so forth, being subject to adiustment.

In the corridors of the House three names are mentioned for the post in the following order: Sir Robert Borden, N. W. Rowell and C. A. Magrath. The Prime Minister would, perhaps, be the ideal appointment, giving the post high prestige to begin with, and bring to his task a thorough knowledge of Imperial and International affairs acquired through long and very real contact with world questions. Mr. Rowell, a close student of world politics, with unquestioned ability, would also fit into the task, and Mr. Magrath's experience, gained as chairman of the joint International Commission, gives him peculiar qualifications.

CORONER'S JURY INVESTIGATE CASE

Claims Death Was Accelerated by Imprisonment.

United Press.

DUBLIN, May 11. — The death of Aiden Redmond, the released Sinn Fener, who died following his hunger strike in Mount Joy prison, was "accelerated" by his imprisonement, the coroner's jury investigating the case, decided.

The immediate cause of death, the jury said, was an operation for appendicitis, "according to the medical evidence."

COUNTER CHARGE AGAINST SIMS

DANIELS GIVES CREDIT OF MINE BARRAGE TO UNITED STATES.

Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, May 11. — A counter charge that the establishment of the North Sea mine barrage was delayed for six months because of the opposition of Rear Admiral Sims and the British Admiralty, was made before the Senate Naval Investigation Committee to-day by Secretary Daniels in presenting the second part of his reply to that officer's charge that the United States Navy Department had unnecessarily prolonged the war through the failure to cooperate fully at first with the allied naval forces. Mr. Daniels claimed that the barrage was "wholly an American idea."

The secretary also charged that Sims attempted in his testimony to rob the American navy of the credit for this project, and to give it to the British.

The plan was conceived, he said, in the Bureau of Ordinance at the U.S. Navy Department and was urged on the British Navy Department for six months before it was accepted.

During this time Sims constantly discouraged and opposed the idea, he added, and when Admiral Mayo was sent abroad and finally convinced the British of the worth of the scheme, Admiral Sims attempted to convey the impression that the project had been delayed while the British attempted to get the American Navy Department's approval.

TATTERSALL'S PIANOFORTE RECITAL TO-NIGHT

PROMISES TO ATTRACT A LARGE AND APPRECIATIVE AUDIENCE— A UNIQUE PROGRAMME

The citizens of Peterborough are to be privileged to hear Mr. Tatersall, the brilliant English pianist and organist of St. Paul's church, in one of his marvellous pianoforte recitals tomorrow evening in St. Paul's church. The English press has spoken in eulogistic terms of Mr. Tattersall's remarkable performances on the piano, and have classed him among the greatest pianists of the day. Mr. Tattersall's extraordinary command of the piano, as well as his technical proficiency, will be demonstrated tomorrow evening. The wonderment of his richly endowed musical genius will be accentuated by the fascinating character of his programme: "Prelude—C. Sharp Minor" by Rachmanoff and D. Flat No. 15 by Chopin, and his "Polonaise C. Sharp Minor," give promise to be most dramatic, and teem with pianistic effects. Two other numbers, "The Two Legendes—"Preaching by the Birds" and "Walking on the Waters," will afford rare exhibitions of Mr. Tatersall's marvellous powers on the pianoforte.

St. Paul's choir is to assist during the evening in some of their best choruses and glees. Bring more music into your life and you will bring more pleasure into it.

God sent His singers upon earth
With songs of sadness and of mirth
That they might touch the hearts of men,
And bring them back to Heaven again.

Virtual Control

OFFICIALS CLAIM MEXICAN REVOLUTION HAS REACHED ITS FINAL STAGES.

Special to Examiner.

WASHINGTON, May 11. — Many of the officials of the new revolutionary party in virtual control of Mexico City to-day maintained that the revolution is in its final stages, so far as active fighting is now concerned.

Statements from the revolutionary leaders at Juarez, opposite El Paso, indicated that all efforts now would be bent toward restoration of the country's industry and prosperity.

Foreign industry and capital in the development of the country's resources was welcomed in a statement in which lives and property were promised protection.

Expatraites also were welcomed to return to Mexico, and it was stated that a reform movement would be inaugurated to prohibit gambling and saloons.

Reports available here to-day dealt mostly with the reported arrest of President Carranza, promises of safeguarding his life, and his probable exile. Little attention was paid to troop movements or activities.

PROCEED AGAINST LABOUR FEDERATION

Canadian Press.

PARIS, aMy 11—The French Cabinet at a meeting to-day instructed the Minister of Justice to open proceedings against the General Federation of Labor with a view to dissolution of the organization, which has been supporting the strike of the French railway men by calling other strikes

Decision of the Government to seek dissolution came after hour's discussion by the council of ministers presided over by President Deschanel.

PENALTY DOES NOT AFFECT FISHING

Some discussion arose in the Legislature concerning the act to amend the Game and Fisheries Act, whereby certain restrictions hitherto applying to guides for hunting were applied also to fishers. Objections were made that a man could not go out for a day's fishing, hiring a boat, without seeing that the man he employed held a departmental certificate. A penalty attached for his ling of action was struck out of the bill, and restrictions on granting licenses for hunters' guides were not permitted to extend to the fishing industry or sport.

Wilson's Problem

BRITISH PRESS COMMENT ON THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION— MAY HAVE TO INTERVENE.

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 11.— There is no immediate prospect of British owned railways in Mexico being returned to their owners, the Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs told the House of Common late yesterday.

The Mexican situation was given considerable attention. Replying to questions from the members, Harmsworth said the government reports indicated a widespread revolution, but did not give details.

The press featured reports of Carranza's flight and capture.

Commenting on the situation the Telegraph foresaw difficulties for the United States in deciding whether it should intervene.

"President Wilson's attitude in the past," the newspaper said, "has been determined by wide consideration of Pan-Americanism. He desired to maintain the best possible relations with the Latin American republics and avoided any course that might have filled them with resentment."

The newspaper speculated, however, whether the President would be able to avoid intervention in the present case.

THE RANGERS

Military Notice.

"The Peterborough Rangers"
Peterborough, Ont., 11-5-20.

The Peterborough Rangers will parade to-night at 8.00 pm.

Dress.—Drill Order.

A limited number of boys are required for the bugle band.

Everyone who is, or has been, interested in the Militia is invited to be on hand to lend the regiment his support.

A new scale of pay has been received and will be published shortly.

A rifle association is being formed.

Attention is drawn to the fact that, members of the association are eligible for the Bisley meet.

It is pointed out in this connection that full pay and allowances are given as well as free transportation to and from England.

It is intended to open the Peterborough rifle ranges about the 23nd of May.

A FREE HAND FOR BRUSILOFF

INSTRUCTED TO "ANNIHILATE THE POLES."

BERLIN, May 11. — Lenine and Trotzky have summoned leading generals of the Czarist regime as military experts to consider the situation created by the Polish offensive, and to determine measures "to annihilate the Polish invaders as quickly as possible," according to a wireless despatch from Moscow.

This council of military leaders of Czarist days is presided over by General Brusiloff, who is reported to have been given sweeping powers.

Among those called are Polivanoff, the Czar's last Minister of War; Werkowski, his first successor after the revolution; Baloneff, a noted Czarist general, and Akmoff, one of the Czar's favorites.

The Polish offensive is having the effect of stirring up a strong nationalistic spirit and making for at least temporary unity between the Bolsheviki and the Nationalists. This is manifested to some degree by the fact that much less emphasis is being placed on the word "Soviet," which is more and more frequently replaced by the word "Russian."

BLINDNESS IS PREVENTABLE.

Many of the blind would now be enjoying the blessings of vision had proper measures been taken early enough. The same is true of failing sight. Worn in time, Glasses not only improve vision, but prevent complications that require complicated lenses. See W. H. Lacey, Optical Specialist, 410 George Street.

To Help Chinese

GROUP OF LARGER NATIONS WILL PROVIDE FINANCIAL ACCOMMODATION.

Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The organisation by Great Britain, France, Japan, and the United States of an International Consortium to provide loans to China is formally announced by the State Department.

Each of the Governments has authorised the formation of a banking group of its nationals. These banking groups will receive diplomatic support of their respective Governments, to which terms and condition of loans will be submitted for approval.

The Consortium is expected to provide for China a credit fund adequate to permit that country to proceed with its economic and industrial development, much of which was suspended during the war.

CARPENTERS WANT TO AVOID STRIKE

REALIZE CERTAIN RESPONSIBILITY AND EXPECT MORE THAN MINIMUM WAGE.

The carpenters are continuing work on the Hunter street bridge, actuated by a desire, they affirm to save other citizens from losses that would undoubtedly follow a strike and the consequent interruption of the progress that is now reaching its full spring height under the favorable weather conditions. Temporarily, at any rate, the are accepting the minimum wage of seventy-five cents an hour and will carry on with the expectation that the Council's provision authorizing the contractor to scale the wages upward will be broadly interpreted and generally applied.

The men realize that delay in the construction of the bridge now would seriously react against the city as a whole, that the entire work might be indefintely tied up, that other workers than themselves might suffer as a result of the inaction and beacuse they hope to preclude if possible such a situation or to avoid it as long as possible the decided to remain at work. They state that they believe the Council was sincere when it empowered the contractor to increase wages above the minimum and it is in the hope that the scale will be raised toward the wage asked for by them that they are working away this week as if there had been no dispute.

WAR VETERANS HELD MEETING

CONDEMN REMARKS OF GENERAL M'LEAN.

At a meeting of the executive of the Great War Veterans' held last evening, a resolution was passed condemning the remarks of Brigadier-General McLean respecting the wives of privates, also commending the attitude of Colonel Peck and Colonel Cooper. Both were unanimously adopted.

JOINED THE VETERANS.

A resolution was sent in from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans' Association, who were also in session last evening, joining the Veterans in their resolution protesting against the unjust utterances of General McLean concerning the pensions of the wives of men who have served,

VETERANS' COMPANY FOR LOCAL RANGERS.

Following in line with what other cities have done, military men in the city have suggested that a Veterans' Company be formed in the Peterborough Rangers—one platoon to consist of 2nd Battalion men, one of 21st Battalion men, a third of 93rd Battalion men, and a fourth of 39th Battalion men. It is thought if such a company were formed it would be an incentive to the younger men to join up.

DEATH.

DIED

IRVINE—On October 2, 1913 John Ogilvie Irvine at 10.20 a.m. Buried on the following day at Greenhall Cemetery, Greensboro, N.C. Informant Mrs. Luella Bell Irvine.

This death notice is published in view of the alleged statements of certain parties regarding the death of the deceased.

SAW SEWAGE DISPOSAL PLANTS OF LATEST TYPE

CITY ENGINEER PARSONS SAID THERE WAS A COMPLETE ABSENCE OF ODOURS AROUND THE BIG PLANTS AT HOUSTON, TEX.

SLUDGE PROBLEM UNSOLVED

City Engineer Parsons returned at noon yesterday from New Orleans and Houston, Tex., whither he was sent by the Council at the suggestion of the Provincial Board of Health to observe the operation of the sewage disposal plants and pumping stations that have been in use in those cities for several years. He was given every opportunity by the engineers of both cities to examine the plants during his three days' stay, and was received with the cordiality that is characteristic of the engineering fraternity.

Mr. Parsons stated this morning that apart from seeing the actual working of the sewage disposal plants and the big specially designed pumps, and from obtaining detailed information from the engineers, his trio may prove highly profitable if he can develop into practical service an idea he conceived of handling the sewage sludge that remains after the effluent pours off.

Weakness of the System.

"You probably remember", Mr. Parsons said to the Examiner, "that all along I have told the Council when we were discussing the various sewage disposal methods that a problem of the activated sludge system was the dehydrating of the sludge. The engineers of the big plants in Houston informed me that they have been trying to get over this difficulty."

They have been continually experimenting and believe they are nearer than ever to an efficient solution. The engineers would not tell me what they were doing, for the reason that they wouldn't make it public until they were certain that their new treatment of the sludge was a practical success and an improvement on the existing methods."

Mr. Parsons was reticent about his own idea which he is eager to work out, but because of the uncertainty of the result he preferred to say nothing about it for the present.

Mr. Parsons was reticent about his own idea which he is eager to work out, but because of the uncertainty of the result he preferred to say nothing about it for the present

"It will save the city $20,000 if I can get the solution which has occurred to me," he remarked. "Houston has two disposal plants, one of ten million gallons and the other of five million. They have been in use three and two years respectively and are both of the activated sludge type. The sludge is approximately ninety per cent. water."

No Odour at Plants.

Mr. Parsons said that there was a notable absence of offensive odour at both these plants. The effluent was clearer than the water of the Mississippi, and the lagoons into which the sludge is pumped were also odourless. One of the features of the activated sludge system is the comparative purity of the effluent, and as an indication of the effectiveness if the disposal plant Mr. Parsons told of seeing a horse drinking from one of the lagoons. It might be expected that the sludge in the lagoons or ponds would be deleterious or at least saturated with impurities, but there were no evidence of such conditions judging by the evidence of both sight and smell.

Use Lagoon Here.

The lagooning system has been proposed for the local plant and Mr. Parsons' favorable reports of unoffensiveness should allay the anxieties of property owners who have been imagining malodorous conditions and

COUNCIL REJECTED THE BREAD BY-LAW

Declined to Give Bakers Excuse to Increase price.

Special to Examiner.

KINGSTON, May 11. — The City Council last night refused to pass a bylaw requiring that bread sold in Kingston be wrapped at the oven. The aldermen declined to do anything that would cause the price of a commodity to be raised. The bylaw was recommended by the Board of Health.

GOOD CONCERT AT THE LYCEUM

MIXED PROGRAMME WAS WELL RECEIVED.

Even standing room was hardly available at the entertainment given last evening in St. Alphonsus Lyceum to raise funds to provide a Victrola for the old people in the House of Providence, and those who were fortunate enough to get in enjoyed a thoroughly delightful evening.

The Programme.

The programme opened with a piano duet by Miss M. McCabe and Miss A. Perrin, which number was heartily appreciated and insistently encored. This was followed by an extremely funny number, a coon's bride's song, by Messrs. E. J. Picard and R. Leonard, during which a realistic touch was lent by Mr. Fred Malane presenting Mr. Leonard with a bouquet of paper flowers. Miss Hazel Davidson was very good in two recitations, while little Miss Ruth Treacy captivated the hearts of the house by a recitation introducing a minuet in which the following took part, each dressed very effectively in old time costume: Misses Cecile Shevlin, Kathleen White, Bregetta Conroy, Mrs. A. A. Perrin, Messrs. J. L. Kennaley, George Rutherford, Stan O'Brien, and Gerald Embery. The The success of this pretty number was due to the efforts of Mrs. Perrin who trained the boys and girls taking part.

Musical Comedy.

A feature of the entertainment was a "musical comedy sketch" entitled Merry Milkmaids which made a decided imression both by way of the novelty of such a feature and the number of talented young people taking part.

The soprano section consisted of Misses A. Gallagher, L. Hogan, A. Legendre, E. Lynch, M. Allan and G. Clancy; the 2nd soprano of Misses C. Tangney and McAulley; altos of Misses N Simons, F. Murray and A. Murray.

The boys in the Farmers' Brigade were Messrs. E. J. Picard, J. FitzSimmons, C. Legendre, R. Leonard and Captain J. L. Kennaley.

Mr. Bob Leonard made a splendid Commodore, Mr. Carmelle Legendre a lively Jew pedlar, and Mrs. Perrin a convincing and very winsome gipsy. A double duet introduced into the comedy, in which Misses M. Allen, A. Gallagher, C. Tangney, and N. McCauley took part, was most effective and warmly applauded.

The Old Judge, Mr. J. Fitzpatrick, Two Jolly Young Farmers, J. E. Picard and J. Fitzpatrick; Ruth, Miss A. Gallagher; Dorothy, a lovelorn Maid, Miss A. Murray; Margery, Miss C. Tangney; Juanita, Miss L. Hogan; Maude, Miss G. Clancy

Organized the Entertainment.

Miss M. A. O'Connel very ably filled the chair for the entertainment which was organized and brought to the very successful conclusion by Miss M. McCabe. Between numbers on the programme selections on the Victrola to be presented to the old folks added greatly to the evening's success.

Mr. Asa Huycke's efforts in training the "coon brides" were thoroughly appreciated. The entertainment will be repeated on Friday evening.

CHANGES IN UNION BANK

Those who are interested in watching the progress of Peterborough and her institutions, will be pleased to notice the alterations recently made in the office of the Union Bank of Canada here. The rear office has been opened up and a second cage put in, to take care of the rapidly growing business of the bank. The work is not all completed as yet, but when finished, the interior will be that of a thoroughly modern, up-to-date banking office

It has also been found necessary to install a very much larger safe, and to add to the steel fire-proof safety deposit boxes, as these are in great demand by the public.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Hurt? No, not one bit! Just drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching then you lift that bothersome corn right off. Yes, magic! Costs only a few cents.

Try Freezone! Your duggist sells a tiny bottle, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Freezone is the mysterious ether discovery of a Cincinnati genius.

FATE'S PERVERSITY.

She—Did your two college mates marry well?

He—I'm afraid not. One got a girl who can cook and insists on playing the piano; the other got one who knows how to play the piano and insists on cooking.

TO PREVENT BLACKLEG VACCINATE CATTLE

AND DO IT NOW.

Last fall a great many farmers of this county lost valuable cattle from Blackleg, a disease very prevalent also at this season of the year. Every farmer should safeguard his cattle against an outbreak of this dreaded malady by vaccinating them—AND DO IT NOW!

There is only one sure way to prevent this disease and that is to vaccinate the cattle, and this dreaded disease can be prevented in animals just as sure as you can prevent small pox in people. Under no circumstances should farmers neglect their cattle.

If you wish to prevent Blackleg either write or go to Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter Streen, Peterboro, and you will be furnished with literature and full particulars how to prevent this dreaded disease.

PAUL JONES WINS PURSE OF $30,375 IN DERBY

Outsider from Parr Stable, Captures the Classic Kentucky Feature.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. May 11.—Paul Jones, owned by R. A. L. Parr, of Maryland, and ridden by Trice, won the forty-sixth renewal of the Kentucky Derby at a mile and a quarter here Saturday over the largest field that ever faced a Kentucky Derby barrier. The winner, given a position second from the rail, sprang into the lead at the start and was never headed. Harry Payne Whitney's Upset, with J. Rodriguez up, was second, being a head behind the winner. Former Congressman George W. Loft's On Watch ridden bw N. Barrett, four lengths behind Upset, was third. Damask, piloted by Jockey E. Ambrose, was fourth, two lengths behind On Watch.

Donnacona was favorite and failed to finish in the money. Seventeen horses started. The net value to the winner was $30,375.

The Kentucky Derby, the forty-sixth running of the Kentucky Derby, for three-year-olds; one mile and a quarter; 1, Paul Jones, 126 (Trice); 2, Upset 126 (Rodriguez); 3, On Watch 126 (N. Barrett). Time, 2.09. Herron, Prince Pal, By Golly, Patches, Donnacona, Damask, Bersagliere, Sandy Beal, David Harum, Cleopatra, Wildair, Blazes, Sterling, Peace Pennant also ran.

BUYING CARVED FURNITURE OF MILLIONAIRE COLLECTOR

PARIS, May 11.—Art collectors here are engaged in a hot rivalry to obtain the marvellous specimens of carved furniture fashioned by the hands of Dr. Henri de Rothschild, the millionaire scientist, who, though he has devoted most of his life to medical research, announced recently it was the duty of all men to do at least some manual labor. His works are fetching sensational prices.

BISHOP FALLON TALKS OF DIVORCE

ATTACKS EVILS OF SEPARATION AND ASKS WHERE ARE THE UPLIFTERS,

LONDON, Ont., May 11.—Bishop M. F. Fallon, addressing a class of confirmation candidates at St. Mary's Church here, launched an attack on the evils of divorce and upon moral reformers who champion other causes and ignore the move for the establishment of Canadian divorce courts.

"For twelve years this province has been subjected to an orgy of moral uplift," the Bishop declared. "The Dominion Alliance, the Methodist Alliance, the Anti-Cigarette League, the Anti-Betting League, the Banish the Bar League, and the Women's Christian Association have striven for salvation by statute, to legislate us into holiness. It has been their work through the Legislature, or through those who control the Legislature to make us holy at all costs, if it takes a new statute to do it."

"Now, so far as I am aware no one ever went to hell through smoking a cigarette. I must confess that when I was a boy about so high," and the Bishop indicated, "I went to the race track and saw a race, and I found it interesting. They banished the bar and I am glad of it. But during recent months an attempt has been made to open wide the door to easy divorce.

Let Go Unchallenged.

Yet this evil, ten thousand times worse than anything battered and hammered by the uplifters for the last twelve years, is allowed to go unchallenged; this most insidious of all evils, that strikes at the root and foundation of the nation, the morality of the home, threatens, and there is not a squeak out of them. What is the taking of a drink, the smoking of a cigarette, or attending a horse race to the breaking up of a Christion home?

The uplifters are horrified if a man takes another drink, but they're satisfied if he takes another wife. I would rather have a thousand drunkards than one divorced man.

"Where are the uplifters? Where are the Dominion Alliance, the referendum Committee, the Women's Christian Association, the Ministerial Alliance? They will tell you that you will go to hell if you buy a newspaper on Sunday, but you may have Mrs. X. on Monday and a different Mrs. X. on Thursday.

"When they launch a campaign against divorce we Catholics will be with them to a man but till they do laugh at them and what they teach. To-morrow some jellyfish Catholics will say why doesn't this man leave such subjects alone? My duty is plain. I know this will go out through the papers; let it. In letters a foot high let the world know that you Catholics and myself are hereby on record against the inroads of immorality throug easy divorce."

The Bishop declared that Canadians to-day have the spectacle of divorce courts being given to Ontario without the people having asked for it and of divorce courts being inflicted on Prince Edward Island against the expressed protests of the people of that province.

LAKEFIELD NEWS

LAKEFIELD, May 10—Mrs. Mahood was in Peterborough on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morphet and family were in the village on Sunday, and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Archbold at the Rectory.

Mr Leonard Hayward, of Peterborough, was a week-end visitor in the village

Mrs. Trude Waldon spent a few days in Peterborough last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Webdale and Miss Mary, of Peterborough, were in the village for the week-end.

Mrs. W. G. Stone, of Burleigh, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Sanderson.

Miss A. Sullivan, who has been in the village for the past two months, returned to her home in Douro.

Miss Gertrude Galvin, of Masillon, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Galvin.

Mr Wm Tucker, of Apsley, was in the village last week

Good Roads.

On Saturday Mr. William Batten, of Hall's Glen, received word from The Massey-Sawyer Company, of Hamilton (one of the companies for whom he is agent) that the Peterborough County Council had purchased roadmaking machinery from them to the value of $7,000.00. This machinery is to be used on the Peterborough good roads system.

Girl Guides.

The Girl Guides, under the direction of Capt. Mrs. Osborne, hiked to Sawers' Creek on Saturday, where they cooked dinner and spent a jolly time. It was an ideal day, and the girls report having had a splendid time.

Entertained.

Miss Ogilvie entertained the members of her Sunday School Class to a picnic on Saturday afternoon. They went to Sawers' Creek and had a happy time.

Miss Ruth Crawford, with her Sunday School Class, also picnicked at Sawers' Creek on Saturday afternoon, and enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

Church Services.

Services for Mothers' Day were held in the Methodist and Presbyterian and Baptist Churches on Sunday. The choir in the Presbyterian Church at the morning service was a Mothers' Choir, and the music was appropriate to the occasion.

Rev. P. L. Jull distributed prizes to the Sunday School children for church attendance. The record of the children was especially good, and the Bibles and diplomas which were given were much appreciated.

The Apostolic Rite of Confirmation will be held in St. John's Church on Sunday morning next, when the Lord Bishop of Toronto will be present to confirm the candidates for Confirmation.

Mothers who have used Zam-Buk say it is so fine for the many little accidents of daily occurrence in the home—and especially where there are children — that they would not be without it. Not only so, but children who have had Zam-Buk applied to an injury or sore, when again injured, cry for Zam-Buk to be applied. They know that Zam-Buk stops pain. Nothing ends the pain of a cut, bruise, burn, or skin disease like Zam-Buk, and nothing soothes, draws out the soreness and heals so quickly.

Mrs. I. Wilson of Sarnia, Ont., says: "I could not do without Zam-Buk for my children. It is the best ointment we have ever used for burns, sores and cuts."

Mr. L. B. Andresen of 1407 E. 22nd St., Minneapolis, Minn., writes: "When any of the children, my wife or self meet with an accident, we immediately apply Zam-Buk. It has saved us many a doctor's bill."

Mrs. C. B. Ritcey of Riverport, N.S., writes: "My baby had sores on her face, caused by teething. Zam-Buk completely healed them."

Zam-Buk is equally good for eczema, ringworm, running sores, blood-poison, ulcers, abscesses, piles, boils and pimples. All druggists, 50c. box or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Send 1c. stamp for free trial.

TREES THAT ARE ACTUAL LIGHTNING SUPPLY PLANTS

The candle-tree is to be found in the Pacific Islands. The nut which it yields produces a large quantity of oil, and the kernels of this candle-nut are strung together on a stick and lighted as a candle!

The fruit of the candle-tree is usually about 42 inches long, and about an inch in diameter. Of a yellowish tint, the fruit, as it hangs on the tree, looks exactly like a collection of wax candles. Not only have these wonderful trees been discovered in the Pacific Islands, but it is rumoured that some have been known to thrive in the Isle of Wight.

Then there is the Japanese wax-tree, the fruit of which is mostly pure wax. This is used for making wax candles. The "wax fruit" which this remarkable tree bears, grows in bunches, just like grapes.

In China, too a wonderful wax is obtained from a shrub called the "Stillingia Sebifera." This tree produces bunches of berries, and in the Autumn, when there are quite white and the leaves have put on their "Autumn-color," a beautiful striking, Nature picture is presented.

And, finally, there have been known to grow certain luminous mushrooms! This may seem incredible, but the fact remains that Dr. W. H. Harvey has recorded that when in Port Jackson, in some woods one night, he was able to see the time from his watch by the aid of the light from some luminous "agarics" (mushrooms).

By a new invention it is possible to speak a message into a telephone receiver and have it recorded on a phonograph record at the other end of the line.

BACK-TO-COUNTRY MOVEMENT GROWS

HUNDRED FAMILIES WEEKLY QUITTING WINNIPEG FOR FARMS.

WINNIPEG.—A back-to-the-country movement has started in Canada.

From over-crowded cities back to under-populated rural districts the flow is drifting steadily. The tide is turning at last, and a more balanced community life will result, according to at least one authority on land settlement.

An average of at least one hundred families a week are moving from Winnipeg to the country, according to an estimate given out to-day by John Wardrop, colonization agent of the Canadian National railways. For the last 6 weeks fully 3 hundred city families have obtained locations in country districts from his office alone. This movement, as far as can be learned from reports, is general throughout Canada, he asserted.

Blacksmiths, carpenters, masons, automobile mechanics, artisans of building trades make up the army going out of town. Practically all are family men, and practically all have the same tale to tell. Wages are going up, but living costs are going higher.

Lay-offs and strikes bring the average wages down to 50 to 60 cents an hour through the year. Savings are being eaten up steadily, and visions of actual hardship in the near future are becoming clearer.

Being Driven Back.

"It's strange, but it takes economics to make things go," said Mr. Wardrop. "I have heard the preachings from pulpit and platform, and seen them in the press for years, about the dismal future in store for the country if the procession from the farms to the cities continued. Nevertheless, it continued. Now, they are going back, but it is not persuasion but economic necessity that is actuating them."

GUESTS RECEIVE FALL AT CORNER-STONE LAYING

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 11.—During the ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the Salvation Army's new maternity hospital here on Saturday, the platform on which those officiating and several guests were assembled gave way and they fell into the excavation.

There were a number of slightly injured, including Mrs. Fisher, wife of Mayor Fisher; Mrs. (Adjutant) Smith; Mrs. Richards, wife of Commissioner Richards, and Major Holman.

Commissioner Richards was in the act of laying the stone at the time and he along with Major Fisher were among those precipitated into the basement. After the injured ladies had been removed the ceremony was proceeded with.

If You Are A Skilled Workman

you will appreciate the C.C.M. Bicycle.

Your trained eye can see the skilled workmanship.

Your trained ear can tell that the C. C. M. is mechanically perfect. It runs with velvety smoothness. Not a sound of friction.

There is no "give" to the frame when you drive hard — proof positive that the C. C. M. Bicycle has quality, strength, stamina built into every part.

There are 1,761 parts in the C. C. M. Bicycle. Many of them are made to closer limits than the time fuses on shells. With such precision in manufacturing is it any wonder that C. C. M. Bicycles run so easily and quietly?

Every C. C. M. has the long, strong "Dunlimouth" reinforcement at the joints. It is brilliantly enamelled over a coat of anti-rust. The bright parts are nickelled over rust-proof copper. The whole idea in making the C. C. M. is QUALITY first, last and all the time.

Canadian workmen who take pride in and know the value of skilled Canadian workmanship have every reason to purchase C. C. M. Bicycles.

AVIATING AGAIN.

The new regulations issued by the Canadian Wheat Board advancing the price to mills of all grades of western wheat 35 cents per bushel, and British Columbia, Ontario and Quebec wheat 40c. per bushel, will be received by the general public with dismay, for judging by past performances the increase will be immediately passed on to the consumer. Flour has already advanced $1.55 a barrel and an announcement of a jump of a couple of cents in the cost of a large loaf of bread may be expected. And bad as is the advance in the price of wheat as far as the cost of bread and flour is concerned, it is far more serious when the effect upon the prices of foodstuffs generally is concerned. For wheat is the basis of the cost of living and the cumulative effect of the Wheat Board's latest ruling will be awaited with much trepidation.

The Board seems to be more concerned with boosting the profits of the grain growers than it is with the suffering of the people. As one miller expresses it: "The Wheat Board is simpy making a few western grain growers wealthy at the expense of the consuming public of Canada." When will the end come?

A CANADIAN MINISTER.

While the announcement that arrangements have been completed between the British and Canadian governments by which a Canadian minister to the United States will be appointed, will be wecomed as in indication that Canadian interests will be more completely represented at Washington than has been the case in the past, there will be many who will agree with Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, that a matter of such importance should have been discussed by parliament before being completed. The government has on its own initiative entered into the agreement and only when the negotiations are concluded is Parliament given any definite information about the matter.

The change is a radical one, and the minister to Washington is to have unusual powers. Not only will he have complete charge of Canadian affairs and act as the channel of communication with the United States' government, in matters of Canadian concern, reporting directly to the Canadian government, but in the event of the absence of the British Ambassador will take full charge of all British diplomatic relations with the United States.

The powers conferred upon the Canadian plenipotentiary are so great that it is evident that the greatest care must be exercised in selecting Canada's representative. Rumours are already connecting the names of Sir Robert Borden and Hon. N. W. Rowel with the appointment, but so far there is no official announcement as to the identity of the Canadian minister to the United States.

THE BUDGET.

The introduction of the Budget, which is to be brought down in the House of Commons by the Finance Minister, Sir Henry Drayton, to-morrow, is being awaited with keen interest throughout the country, for there has been much speculation as to the means the government intends to employ in raising the vast sums of money that will be required to carry on the business of the country. Very little information has been allowed to leak out as to the nature of the taxation Sir Henry wil propose and the members of Parliament seem to be more than usually ignorant as to the details of the Budget.

Ottawa despatches, however, hint at the possibility of the introduction of a new luxury tax which is to be general in its application, coupled with a revised business profits tax, while of course the taxation of incomes will continue. The contention has been advanced that in view of the high cost of living there should be an increase in the amount of exempted incomes, so that those who can ill afford to pay this tax would be relieved. The present exemption in the case of married people is $2,000 and of unmarried individuals $1,000. There are many who believe that these amounts should be increased, but judging from the reports from Ottawa there is no possibility of any change being made unless it is in the other direction, that is, lowering instead of raising the exemption.

All advices are against the probability of anything like a revision of the tariff. There may be a few slight changes made, but on the whole the government is expected to introduce no innovations in custom duties, especially on staple commodities.

To-morrow the country will know the worst —any speculation in the meantime is nothing more than guess work.

THE FARMERS' COMPLAINT.

If the United Farmers of Ontario continue to send communiques to the Ontario government the people of the province will begin to wonder whether or not there is any real government in the province. The latest letter from J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U.F.O., addressed to members on the government side of the Legislature, and protesting against the introduction of a superannuation scheme in the civil service is frank in its tone. "We think it is the duty of this office to keep you posted," declares Mr. Morrison, "inasmuch as we intend that ours shall be a government by the people for the people. Therefore it is up to us to express our opinions to the members we have sent to Parliament and not leave matters to their own personal opinions."

Mr. Morrison remarks that the superannuation scheme is class legislation. But in the name of common sense why should anybody who declares that the United Farmers of Ontario shall dictate the policies of the government of the province complain of class legislation? And why talk of government by the people for the people, and in the next breath lay down the principle that it is the duty of the U.F.O. to express their opinions to the members they sent to Parliament and not leave matters to their own opinions? Mr. Morrison's idea of a democratic government seems to be a government of rubber stumps ready for the use of the United Farmers whenever they feel called upon to employ them. Why not carry this principle out to its logical conclusion and let the province be governed directly from the offices of the U.F.O., with the assistance of a cabinet. It would be a big saving in sessional indemnities and would be about as representaive a system of government as the present one will be if Mr. Morrison and his associates are allowed to interfere in every bit of legislation that is advanced

If Premier Drury wants to confirm the favourable impression he made by his refusal to allow the sessional indemnities to be increased, he should politeiy in form the secretary of the U. F. O. that he—the Premier—and his colleagues, while always ready to receive advice, consider their duty is to legislate for the whole province, and that they are capable of forming their own conclusions and deciding upon their own policies.

FOOLISH CONGRESSMEN.

Fifteen members of the American Congress have cabled the British Premier, telling him what they desire should be done in the matter of Irish administration. This sort of thing is customary when an election campaign is on across the border, and is usually unworthy of notice; but on the present occasion, when powerful forces are endeavouring to establish permanent hostility between two nations it is an unfortunate incident.

That this impudent interference in the domestic affairs of Great Britain reflects the sentiment of the American people as a whole, we do not believe for a moment, and this opinion is supported by a statement of that great paper of the people, the Chicago Tribune. Commenting on the refusal of Bonar Law to allow the Commons to pass a resolution approving the Philippine resolution for self-determination, on the grounds "that it would be better for each country to leave the other alone," the Tribune says:

"The British have knocked the ball over the fence and cleared the bases. They did it courteously. They also have cleared the air, and have done so without breaking any of the windows. The importunities of American politics, operating upon American Senators anxious to catch this vote and the other vote made the United States Senate a busybody in British affairs. Ireland may have a cause dear to the heart of many Americans, but it has no cause which has a place in American politics.

"It is not the business of the American Congress to declare what shall or should be British internal policy. It does not do the Irish much good when the Senate declares that Ireland ought to be free. It certainly does the United States harm.

"If the British Parliament were to regard American internal affairs as open to British suggestion and advice, as the American Congress declared British internal affairs open to American suggestion and advice, we might soon have these two legislatures engaged in international recriminations which would rapidly extend down to the people and affect their thoughts and actions. By degrees the two peoples would work themselves into a state of mind leading to a state of war. One people cannot meddle with the affairs of another, and two people cannot meddle with each other's affairs and not provoke hostility."

That, we are sure, will be the view of all Americans of common-sense, and who still have regard for courtesy and decorum. The foolish Congressmen, who, in order to garner a few votes, insult a friendly nation, have been sharply rebuked by The Tribune. —London Advertiser.

CHINESE AVIATOR CRASHES

Machine Smashed, He Fails to Qualify; Expected to Recover.

(Canadian Press.)

SASKATOON, May 11.—Lim On, a Chinese aviator, suffered a double fracture of the right leg and a broken arm when his Curtiss plane crashed down 250 feet near the airdrome here this afternoon. He was taken to the City Hospital suffering several other minor injuries, but retained consciousness. It is expected he will recover. His machine was smashed beyond repair. Lim On had tried to qualify for a private license on Saturday in flights he took here in the presence of Major Breadner and Capt. Smith, examiners, of Ottawa. He failed to make the test.

SEVERAL CIRCUSES ON THE WAY.

Ontario cities and towns are in for a bumper crop of circuses, travelling shows, etc., this season. The Hagerbeck-Wallace Shows Co., Ringling Bros., and Barnum and Bailey's Combined Shows and the Chesley Shows are booked through Ontario. Sells-Floto are not yet decided as to their route. Their main attraction is Georges Carpentier, the French publist.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

A DISAPPOINTED QUEST.

CHAPTER CXIX.

I paid no attention to anything in which, only the day before, I had been so interested. The dress lay on the floor just as it had fallen when I went down-stairs with the note; the drawers of the old bureau yawned widely, waiting to be relieved of their contents, and so make the Norcross girls happy. But no thought of all this disturbed me. What had Everett done with that picture?

I searched every nook and corner carefully, but did not find it. The picture was too large to be in any of the receptacles in the attic. No trunk or bureau would hold ite. Had he put it where he could look at the face of the woman he had loved so madly even oftener than he could when it hung on the library wall?

His office! Perhaps he had taken it down there! How was I to find out He was very much opposed to my coming to his office. He had told me often that a man's wife never should make his office a place to discuss their private affairs, neither should she use the office telephone for that purpose. He was very rigid in his ideas about these things. I used some times to wonder if he were as severely so with Leola.

As I went down-stairs I planned to make him a visit to the office. I would drive, as Mrs. Gray had suggested, thtn stop for Everett and bring him home with me. I would time my ride to do this.

I dressed carefully. Everett was always annoyed when I did not look well. Then about four o'clock I took the car and Thomas drove me out into the country. The air did me good. I couldn't be quite so unhappy when the sun shone so brightly, and the car ran smoothly along the country road.

About ten minutes before his usual time for leaving the office I stopped before the building, and instead of sending Thomas up—as I had always done the very few times I had called for Everett —I went up myself.

"Mr. Graham has steepped out for a moment. He will be back soon," the office boy told me, looking his surprise at my visit I had told him I was "Mrs. Graham."

"I will wait in his private office."

"Very well, ma'am."

I entered and closed the door. To my delight his Secretary had gone I was alone. A hasty glance showed me the picture was not upon the walls of his office. Just then he came in.

"Sandra!" he said in surprise.

"Yes, I was riding and thought I'd call for you."

"That was kind, altho you know I prefer you should not come here. Are you feeling better?" his voice was gentle. "You are looking far more rested than you did. Your ride has done you good."

"Yes, I am better," I replied rather absently, my eyes roving about the room.

"I am not going directly home, but you may put me down at the club," he said as we left the office.

A sudden suspicion flashed into my mind: Everett always kept a room at the club, and a dress suit and toilet articles there, so that he could dress if necessary without coming home. He had probably taken the picture there. It would be safe, and I never would get a chance to see it, or know where he had put it, as women were not allowed in the club house.

I set him down at the club, and then went home. I felt satisfied I had solved the whereabouts of Leola's picture. But it gave me no happiness, only increased my jealousy. NOW he had it all to himself. Perhaps he had stopped there simply to take a look at her face—the face of the woman to whom he had written such burning love-words?

"I can never be happy again," I said to myself as I gained my room. "I wish, I never had seen that note."

RULES FAIL TO CHECK USE OF "SAILOR" BALL

NEW YORK, May 11.—Allan Sothoron, the leading trick pitcher of the St. Louis Browns, says that the new rules prohibiting freak deliveries will not prevent the use of the so-called "sailor" this year. Sothoron says that as soon as the ball is hit once by the bat it leaves a mark on the smooth cover of the ball, and this one bruise will enable the pitchers to use this spot in throwing a ball so mysteriously that the batters imagine it is floating up to them.

Sothoron believes that pitchers like himself, Cicotte and Eller, for instance, will be able to throw the so-called shine ball without rubbing the ball on their uniform. The Brown contends that if batsmen think they are going to have an easier time making base hits this year they are mistaken, for it is going to be just as difficult as ever.

When on long trips strain the water that goes into the radiator, preventing impurities from getting into the cooling system and causing trouble later on.

THE DISCOVERY OF "VITAMINES"

The study of beriberi and pellagra led to the discovery of a group of food essentials known as "vitamines." They are necessary to normal nutrition and to normal growth. They are found in the whole wheat grain. In making Shredded Wheat Biscuit all the vitamines are retained—all the elements that are needed for building a perfect body. Two of these little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk or cream (or hot water) make a nourishing, satisfying meal for a few cents.

MADE IN CANADA

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR PHONE BOOST, CABINET IS TOLD

OTTAWA, Ont., May 10.—The hearing of the appeal against the ruling of the Board of Railway Commissioners granting an increase of ten per cent. in Bell telephone rates in Ontario and Quebec, was concluded before the Privy Council of Canada to-day. Judgement was reserved. G. R. Geary, K.C., of Toronto, appeared for Toronto, Hamilton and London, and Glyn Osler, K. C., Toronto, was heard for the Bell Telephone Company.

The ruling of the Railway Commission permitted an increase in exchange rates of ten per cent., the increases to take effect from June 1, 1919. The appeal was heard by Sir George Foster, C. J. Doherty, Dr. Reid, A. L. Sifton, Dr. Tolmie, N. W. Rowell, Senator Robinson, Hugh Guthrie and Martin Burrell.

Mr. Geary, K.C., said it was preeminently a case in which appeal should be taken to the Governor-in-Council. It was a case in which the Railway Board had given judgment without any particular evidence to support the figures which it had adopted. The judgment was unjust in its loading of a large amount of money on the pulbic.

An Unexplained Reserve

For over thirty years, the company had not only met its bonded indebtedness, but had paid a dividend of 8 per cent. to its shareholders. Not only had the company met its charges, but it had kept up its maintenance which merely fell behind during the war period to the extent of half a million dollars. It had accumulated immense surpluses which should have been drawn upon before an extra chareg was placed on the public. Mr. Geary cited a reserve of nearly $13,000,000 carried for plant, of which the book value was $42,000,000, a reserve of 30.57 per cent. There was a contingent reserve of $3,132,000 for the existence of which no satisfactory explanation had been given. The company had no well defined system for calculating depreciation. "The public," said Mr. Geary, "is entitled to something more than a guess by engineers interested in the company."

The appellants requested that the increases should be rescinded for these reasons: (a) Because obviously no emergency exists; (b) because the errors of calculation made by the board vititate its conclusions; (c) because the judgment is not founded on the evidence submitted.

GERMAN SOCIALISTS FIND THEORIES FAIL

NATIONAL CONFERENCE FACES FACT THAT "SOCIALIZATION" SCHEMES ARE IMPOSSIBLE,

BERLIN.—Germany's general election campaign has really begun in earnest with the National Conference of the Majority Socialists, whose proceedings were just concluded in Berlin. An illuminating debate lasting two days proved three things which will exercise an important influence on the immediate political future and also, perhaps, on the country's fate.

The conference has shown that the abyss between the Moderate and Extreme Socialists is unbridgable, that the weakness of the former section is increasing and that bankruptcy looms ahead of any form of practical socialism.

Though only the Majority Socialists attended the conference, not even the absence of their open opponent obviated the disunity inside the party itself. Critic after critic complained of the coalition Government's failure to fulfill the promised socialization. They blamed the apathy of the Majority Socialists and such exponents of political gospel as Schneidemann and Miller were at pains to persuade their disillusioned followers that the theories which they have spent a lifetime in advancing will not really stand the test of practical application.

"We have the most democratic Constitution in the world," said Chancellor Muller, "but that doesn't mean that we can carry out Socialism. We lack the necessities of production which would enable us to take our place in the markets of the world. Even if we obtained an absolute majority in Germany, our economic development toward Socialism would still have to be slow."

So slow is it in fact that the Government has not even made any effort to nationalize the mines in accordance with the promise now over a year old.

To encourage a wider market for foreign automobiles in the United States, the reduction of 15 per cent. in tariff on imported cars costing $2,000 or more was advocated by members of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

A Most Trying Time In A School Girl's Life

"Nothing is more common with physicians" writes Hon. Dr. W. H. Roberts, Minister of Health, New Brunswick, "than to find that during the few weeks preceding the closing of the school term, we are visited by mothers having with them their daughters who have been cramming for final examinations and in the majority of instances the story related is something like this—'Doctor! I have brought Mary to you to see if you cannot do something for her. You know she has been leading her class nearly all of the term; she is competing for the Governor-General's Medal, and we are so anxious that she be successful; but of late it is so hard for her to study, her head aches, she has no appetite, we cannot force her to partake of food, her bowels are constipated, she is so nervous, Doctor; she cannot get to sleep, sometimes for hours after she retires.'

'She is so white and frail looking. We also notice her twitching her face, eyelids and mouth a lot, and of late tossing her head to and fro and we are fearful, if something is not done, she will not hold out and we do, so much, want her to take the honours she has worked so hard for all winter.'

"We take a look at the girl and find that in almost every particular the word picture of the mother quite correctly describes the condition found. We find she is truly very anaemic in appearance, tongue quite heavily coated, generally far below the average weight. We notice, too the nervous symtoms spoken of by the mother, simulating a beginning chores, or St. Vitos' dance. Upon examination of the heart, which she complains about as beating rapidly at times, there is revealed a functional murmur, and suspecting from her headache some possible eye complications, we have her see an oculist, who reports severe condition of astigmatism. At the same time, bear in mind, nature is doing her best to shapen and perfect her scheme of physical economy."

Such remarkable results are being obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, under conditions so well described by Dr. Roberts, that it becomes a duty as well as a pleasure to tell others about it

This letter from Mrs. Parks of 72 Picton St., Hamilton, Ont., is very very interesting in this connection. She writes:—"Five years ago my little girl was taken ill with St. Vitus' dance, and for four years we doctored her, trying several doctors and different remedies without curing her. She could not walk or get around at all, and we had to feed her, as she was unable to hold a spoon in her hand. Her tongue was affected so that we could scarcely understand her when she talked. One day a friend of mine who knew of the benefits of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advised me to give my little girl some. I acted upon her advice, and soon could notice a difference. She was quieting down and commenced to eat better. I continued the treatment for some time, and she gradually got stronger and healthier. She recovered from her nervous trouble and was able to get around nicely. We are very grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the cure it effected for our daughter."

MAGAZINES FROM STATES STOPPING

TORONTO.—This city is now receiving from 54 to 61 tons of American magazines less each week than during normal distribution as a result of the paper shortage in the United States. One American weekly publication which fairly flooded Canadian cities has practicall, discontinued its supply to this country.

Some American magazines have ceased publication, some have been reduced in size and others are issuing two months' numbers in one to save paper.

It is stated that it is not improbable that within a month or two there may be no American magazines available for Canada, except those supplied to old subscribers.

It is thought that shortly American newspapers also may be withdrawn from Canadian news stands.

The Pacific Coast States, California, Oregon and Washington, have one motor car to every nine persons.

For the production of fabric, one of the large automobile tire manufacturing companies in the United States has an extensive cotton plantation in southern California.

Officials of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway are in receipt of inquiries from German and Austrian automobile makers regarding entries for the 500-mile race to be held May 31.

A special permit is required for the operation of motor trains consisting of tractors and trailers not exceeding 100 feet in total length, between 8 p.m. and 5 a.m. in Milwaukee, Wis.

Before the end of the year it is predicted there will be passable north and south trunk roads extending from St. John, N.B., to Miami, Fla., and from Victoria, B.C., to San Diego, Cal.

As a school for their instruction prior to the beginning of the 1920 road work, three hundred inspectors and other employees of the Pennsylvania State Highway Department are conducting a two weeks' conference at Harrisburg.

BEST GOES TO PRISON FOR LIFE; CONVICTED OF MURDERING GIRL

PONTIAC WORKMAN PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE AT TRIAL.

PONTIAC, Mich., May 11.—Anson Best, convicted of the murder of Vera Schneider, a telephone operator and sentenced to life imprisonment at Marquette, will not be taken to the Northern Michigan prison immediately. A movement to finance an appeal by popular subscription begun immediately after the verdict, was being continued to-day.

In his statement before sentence was passed, Best called upon heaven to witness his innocence, and a purse was immediately started. It was said to contain $1,000 to-day.

Th prisoner in his direct testimony and on cross-examination maintained he had never known Miss Schneider and that the confession offered by the prosecution was obtained from him under duress.

The jury came in shortly before 7 o'clock with a verdict of guilty. They had debated about five hours.

Best was calm when the verdict was made known When asked what he had to say, by Judge Rockwell, he stood up and announced he was innocent.

Sentenced at Once.

"If God Almighty were present in this court room he would know I am innocent," said the youthful prisoner "I am not a criminal and did not commit this awful crime."

Judge Rockwell immediately pronounced sentence of life imprisonment in Marquette ,and expressed his regret that such a sentence "means only sixteen years imprisonment,' when allowances are made for good behavior by the prisoner.

The case ended to-day with a charge by Judge K. P. Rockwell, who instructed the jurors they might find verdicts of first or second degree murder or manslaughter. The court's charge was brief.

Arguments were made by Ralph T. Ketling for the defence and Prosecutor G. C. Gillespie for the people The defence contended identification made for the prosecution by several witnesses were not to be taken seriously, arguing that they did not agree with other statements of the witnesses.

Crime Was Sensational.

The crime for which Best was convicted was one of the most sensational and brutal in the history of Oakland County. The victim, an Elkton Mich., girl, who had worked in Pontiac since last August, most of the time as night information operator at the telephone exchange here, was choked to death and her body left on the porch of a house under construction. Two knotted handkerchiefs were bound tightly around her throat, but beneath them were thumb prints indicating the victim had first been choked. There also was a bruise on the side of her face indicating she had ben struck a severe blow, and all signs pointed to a terrific struggle made by the girl for her life.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"SEVENTEEN"

"Willie Baxter, the "Baby Talk Lady", the terrible child Jane and all the other well known character of Booth Tarkington's amusing story, "Seventeen" were all seen in fullest advantage in the stage version of the delightful study of youth as presented at the Grand Opera House last night. It was a performance of unmitigated charm for all those who had read the story and those who had not been so fortunate found equal enjoyment in the production.

"Seventeen" pleases because it is a cross section of life Everyman is the audience remembers when he had something of the same ideas as Willie Baxter, and recalls how important appeared to him the details of his first experience with cupid. For "Seventeen" is a story of a real boy and the other characters introduced are equally true to life. There is no elaborate plot. The whole thing hinges upon the ambition of thit seventeen year old youngster to possess a dress suit but around that long ing Booth Tarkington has built a delightful story.

The stage version follows the book with unusual faithfulness and as presented by last night's cast was beautifully staged. Thomas Kelly's conception of Willie Baxter was a master piece, the awkwardness and diffidence of the young hero being realistically presented. Lael Davis was a charming "Baby Talk Lady" and Elizabeth Beach as the ten year old Jane. Willie's "kid" sister whose revelations make constant trouble for the youth, scored a triumph. Judith Lowry made the part of Mrs. Baxter a real one and Louis John Bartelo was most amusing as the negro "Genesis". The other roles were all in good hands the company being remarkably well balanced and capable.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

SEND "BOOZE" ACROSS BY ELECTRIC TORPEDOES

DETROIT, May 11.—Electrically operated torpedoes loaded with whiskey are being sent daily across the Detroit River from the Canadian to the American shore, a mysterious informant told Federal officers here. Without divulging his indentity, he told the result of his entirely private investigations.

There are three torpedoes in use now, he said, of 10, 15 and 25 gallons capacity. They are of copper construction, with a propellor at the nose, actuated by electric storage batteries. They submerge 100 feet and require about five minutes to cross the river at a point he designated only as "east of Woodward Avenue." A red flag on one side of the river and a white one on the other comprise targets at which the operators direct their torpedoes, he said. After being caught and emptied on the American side, the torpedoes are ballasted with water and sent back. A huge torpedo of 50 gallons capacity is being constructed, he told the Federal officers.

SEED SPUDS FOR BELLEVILLE

BELLEVILLE, May 11. — The Chamber of Commerce has secured a shipment of seed potatoes, which will be sold to citizens at $7.50 per bag. Secretary Fredericks has had great difficulty in securing any, for after many inquiries he found many sections where there were no potatoes available at any price, while in other cases they were not guaranted. Only one bag will be allotted to each purchaser.

IMMORALITY IN OSHAWA PARKS

Representatives from the Women's Council of Oshawa waited on the Town Council the other night and made a number of suggestions. The ladies stated that it was felt that the viewpoint of the ladies should be presented to the Town Council.

The women urged the adoption of the curfew bell, the employment of a policewoman, and a proper place of detention for girls. It was claimed that last year there were at least thirty unmarried mothers under the age of 17 in Oshawa. Supervised playgrounds were asked for, and it was claimed that there was not sufficient lighting and supervision in the town parks, and consequently they were hotbeds of immorality.

BRITISH VISITORS TELL OF BROTHERHOOD MOVEMENT

SIR RICHARD WINFREY, MR. WARD, PRESIDENT OF THE BRITISH BROTHERHOOD COUNCIL, AND MR THOMAS HOWELL, SECRETARY OF THE CANADIAN BROTHERHOOD FEDERATION, SPEAK AT MEETING IN ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The citizens of Peterborough had the pleasure of hearing Sir Richard Winfrey, one of the leaders in the great brotherhood movement which has grown up in England and gradually spread to other countries, speak on this movement, its aims and objects, at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church last evening, and with Sir Richard was Mr. Ward, president of the British Brotherhood Council, London, who since the beginning of the work has been one of its most active leaders, and who in a most vivid and impassioned manner described the work they had undertaken and the scope of the good it was possible to accomplish.

Rev. F. E. Malott, president of the Ministerial Association, was chairman of the meeting, which would have been better attended if the citizens had been aware of the addresses in store for them. On the platform with the chairman were Sir Richard Winfrey, Mr. Ward, Mr. Thomas Howell, secretary of the Canadian Brotherhood Federation of Canada, and Rev. J. R Webb

"Our service is honoured to-night in having a prominent visitor from the Old Country—Sir Richard Winfrey." Rev. Mr. Malott touched on the civic reception and the welcome given to him by the city. The speaker dwelt on the great brotherhood movement represented by Sir Richard and the bands of sympathy between the two Peterboroughs.

"His interests are broad, but he is deeply interested in men," was the tribute of Rev. Mr. Malott to the Britisher.

Mr. Ward, the first speaker, said that their visit was primarily in the interests of the Brotherhood movement, in which they were both deeply interested. "We are here to give you an idea of what the movement is." The speaker said that while now there were only three organisations known as brotherhoods, he hoped there would soon be one in every church, with a city federation linked up with the Canadian Federation, which in turn would be affiliated with the world federation.

The Brotherhoods grew out of a religious census being taken, which showed that 75 per cent. of the men and women of England were not present at worship on the Lord's Day, while only 10 per cent. of London's 8,000,000 attended service. At congresses held, the plan came into the minds of the men to form the great Brotherhood. The indifference of the industrial classes towards religion was marked, and they saw they must give these men something they would like. Sunday afternoon meetings developed. It wasn't an attempt to form another denomination. They devised a simple, plain programme, said Mr. Ward, and outlined this programme, which was always simple. "There's something so different in the meetings from the church service." The meetings are generally held at three o'clock. He told of the meetings they held, of the crowds that attended, at which all classes and creeds were represented, professional men mingled with working men in the common fellowship of God.

Mr. Ward told feelingly of the prayers delivered by working men. He said they never had any regular church service—they were just meetings called in the afternoon so they would not interfere with the other church services. The speakers are nearly all workers. When war broke out there were 2,000 of these Brotherhood societies, with over 100,000 attending. In 1908 the Brotherhood Missionary Campaign was started. In France the working men were alienated to the church, both in the south and the north. We wondered if these men would listen to the story of the Brotherhood movement. We had over 600,000 members in England then. The movment in France began in Lille, where the Socialist movement, which had enlisted the workers, was strongest. The meeting was held in a Socialist hall. For the first time since the erection of the building, it was used to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The men listened to something they had never heard.

The audience in St. Paul's last night listened with open ears as Mr. Ward told of the success of the meeting and the growth of the movement in France. When war broke out there were nearly 40 socities in France. When war broke out we thought all we had been working for for years was gone. The officers and men had to go to France. The movement fell, until one day a letter came from Lille telling of the conditions in France, where nothing but poverty and death reigned. With renewed determination they went to Lille with food and goods for the wives and children of the men of the Lille Brotherhood.

Mr. Ward described how they took up the work of sending more consignments to France, with the help of Canadians, who contributed much money. Our greatest call came from Serbia, and Mr. Ward told how they worked during the great Serbian retreat; how they cared for the little Serbian children. When the Armistice was signed we were asked to go to Serbia and see the children we cared for there. It has been found that there are 600,000 children over fifteen years of age, destitute, without food or shelter, of whom 200,000 are orphans, said Mr. Ward, and continuing, outlined the work they had in view. A larger scheme of caring for the children is now being carried out by the Brotherhood. One hundred dollars will save the life of one of these Serbian children. The generosity of our friends will enable us to look after 50,000 of these children before next Christmas. Many of them are being educated in England, and will be kept there for three years.

A thrilling story of his visit at Belgrade was told by Mr. Ward, who said that while there a Serbian soldier rushed up and grabbed him by the hand, exhibiting marked excitement and admiration, for he was a Brotherhood man. It turned out that his little boy, whom he believed to be dead, had been saved by the society, and was well and happy in England.

We have also been extending our Brotherhood organisation. The Serbians wanted it, and also wanted it propagate in the other Balkan States. Mr. Ward told of the confederation of Brotherhoods which have grown up in that land.

"I now have pleasure indeed in calling upon Sir Richard Winfrey to address us," said Mr. Malott.

Sir Richard expressed his pleasure at being present, and referred to the cordial welcome received by him at the hands of the City Council and the Board of Trade and other organisations. "I have brought you greetings from Peterborough."

The evident prosperity of this city was dwelt on in laudatory tearms by Sir Richard, and the good feelings he would leave Peterborough with. He told of the way he was drawn into the Brotherhood movement. The constituency he represents is largely industrial, with many railway workers residing there. With others he was instrumental in erecting a community hall for the workers, and from this grew the Sunday Brotherhood Movement there, which have been a great success. A band has been organised, as well as a library. In 1912 he attended a Brotherhood conference in Birmingham, which was his first experience of the great Brotherhood movement. I heard their record of the work done, and I came home and rejoiced.

"We organised an Eastern Counties Federation," and Sir Richard spoke of the excellent work they were carrying on. The large conference to be held at Washington next October was described. Last year it was held in England. Speaking of his trip through Ontario cities, he said that it had been most successful. The appeal for funds for the Serbian children was met most generously. In St. Thomas $1,930.00 was subscribed. Everywhere they were assisted by all. I hope that as a result of this meeting some committee will be organised, and you can do your part in this great work.

"We have much to be thankful for, and as an English-speaking people we have much to work for. The condition of the world to-day is pitiable. Our task is enormous, and unless we can get our friends to assist us, I can't see how we can accomplish it," said Sir Richard, referring to the problems facing the British Empire to-day. "The condition of Ireland was deeply regretted, and a clearing up of the situation hoped for in the near future.

"Brotherhood means the abolition of militarism. Conscription lives in Europe and even in the United States. Nations must learn to practise that not in selfishness, but only in true service rests the path to national success. Once more we hear the creative spirit of the world. Old ideas of class and relationship have been wiped out by this war. Old ideas of moral and spiritual values are passing. We are out to work for a better and a happier world. Let this mighty Empire bring also a moral victory. Brotherly spirit in the individual is spread, and this means brotherhood in the nation.

"If you want a better social order, you must breed a better man. Lack of ideal is death to the individual and the state. Business is either brutal or brotherly, whatever you make it. It is our mission to see that God widens one for the other to help one another."

Sir Richard dwelt on the labour problem of to-day. Amidst all our difficulties, and as a Parliamentarian, one who has had two years amidst all the complex and distracting troubles, the ideal state that we want to create can only be created when we have ideal men and women. We are the state. Mere practical Christianity can not help us to build up the ideal state. Our Brotherhood societies are out to get the 70 per cent., as Mr. Ward says, and to help all to lead a better life. Let us go hand in hand in this great and noble work. By preaching an old doctrine with a new and wider vision, the doctrine of Jesus Christ can only be spread.

Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, when called on by Rev Mr Malott, extended a vote of thanks to Sir Richard Winfrey and also extended to Sir Richard and Mr Ward God-speed in the good work they are doing.

Rev. Mr. Webb seconded the motion. "We are all thankful to have had the opportunity of hearing you, and hope you will come to our city again."

Rev. Mr. Malott tendered the vote to Sir Richard, to which he replied.

In conclusion, Sir Richard asked Judge Huycke, Mr. Moore, and Mr. Hartley to form a small committee, prepared to carry on the campaign to help the destitute and refugee Serbian children. "If those gentlemen will be so kind as to act, we will communicate with them from Toronto, and you will have an opportunity to help in this cause."

Before the war 345,000 persons held British Government securities; then umber now is 18,000,000.

The Proper Corseting of Women is an Art

It is the foundation of all charms, it is the expression of personality. The woman who realizes its importance and limitless possibilities is the woman admired. The subtle charm of modern corsetry cannot be left to chance, and if you do not wish to buy wastefully you will not casually shop for your corset. The woman who takes the time to understand herself and her corset problem spends less because she buys the right corset in the first place. The woman who lacks this corset understanding buys twice, and is not satisfied either time.

Every GOSSARD Front-Lacing Corset is created a masterpiece that will give unquestioned style, priceless comfort and a wearing service that alone is worth its cost to the figure for which it was designed. And in GOSSARD'S was originated and perfected the principle of designing special corsets for the varying figure types. Whatever your corset needs there is a GOSSARD designed to meet them perfectly at the price you wish to pay GOSSARD Corsets range in price from ..... $3.50 to $10.00

CHILDREN MUST GO TO SCHOOL

TRUANT OFFICER PROSECUTES PARENTS—POLICE COURT NEWS.

"If you cant leave it a fortune, give it a chance to earn its own living," was Magistrate Dumble's censure on a Peterboro father in the police court this morning, who was charged with not sending his child to school. The charge was laid by Truant Officer Miller. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed.

Was Discharged.

Ernest Griffin, proprietor of a local hotel, faced the magistrate on a charge of selling cigarettes to a minor contrary to the Criminal Code.

Mr. F. D. Kerr apepared for the accused.

The young lad who is only 13 told with tears streaming down his face of his cigarette smoking experiences. He swore that he bought the dope sticks from Mr. Griffin.

The magistrate could not forbear to comment on the cigarette habits. Scientific men have determined that it stunts the growth and stunts the intellect. It spoils citizens, and what we want is good citizens, was his accusation against the cigarette smoking habt in part. A marked simile was drawn by his Worship when he compared a man to a locomotive going around and blowing clouds of smoke out of his head.

The boy said he had bought the cigarettes on three or four occasions from the accused. He ased me if I was 16. "I said 'no,' and he told me to keep them in my pocket until I got away."

Dropped Habit.

In the cross examination by the counsel for the defence he said that he did not know till afterwards he was breaking the law. He was not very certain as to the exact date he had had a smoke last but thought ti was three or four weeksago. When he told the court he had quit the habit the little fellow was the recipient of many words of praise. He said that he had gone to school regularly.

Mr. Griffin in the box denied selling any cigarettes to the boy whom he said he had had a qaurrel with some time ago when the boy was delivering meat for Mr. Mervin over the payment of a bill.

"I say I did not serve him." The accused said he was well aware of the law and would not think of selling to a boy who could not see ove rthe counter. He said he had complained to Mr. Mrvin about the boy."

"I want you to be careful now. I have interviewed Mr. Mervin, said the Chief. Remember you are on your oath. Will you swear that you complained to him. Mr. Mervin says the boy's characte was exemplary.

The accused said that he had to, to which the Chief asked that Mr. Mervin be called as a witness. Mr. Kerr objected strenuously to calling in evidence of the lad's character and the magistrate agreed that they would never be at an end if this evidence were taken. Chief Thompson assented.

The Magistrate said the case was just a question of veracity between the man and the boy. "I'll give the man the benent of the doubt," he stated, and dismissed the case.

Broke Traffic Rules.

The majesty of the law was in danger in the last case. George Seabrooke was charged with disobeying the traffic officer at the corner of Charlotte and eGorge streets on aMy 5th. It came out taht when eSabrooke was crossing George going west another car was coming north on George street. P. C. Thomas, the traffic director, put up his hand for Seabrooke to stop. He went on while the other car had to stop. The accused held that it was only a misinterpretation of the signals but the Magistrate saw the whole law of the country rocking on its foundation when the constable's orders were not not adhered to.

"We must stop things that lead to accidents, broken legs and death," he said.

The fine was $8.10 in all.

The Secret of Keeping The Skin Wrinkle-Free

The great secret of keeping the face smooth, wrinkle-free and refined in textuse is to use an effective astringent when the skin shows a tendency to become loose or the pores to enlarge. The best thing of the kind is a simple solution made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch-hazel. Used as a wash lotion, this promptly tightens the skin, which of course smooths out the lines and wrinkles and reduces too-large pores.

Large pores, by the way, encourage blackheads, being so easily clogged with dirt and grime. The lotion referred to therefore serves as a blackhead preventive. It is also valuable in case of sagging cheeks and chin, the astringent action of course serving to "draw in" the folds and obliterate the creases. Powdered saxolite now being sold by druggists generally in this country, any woman can make this lotion herself.

threatening innumerable legal actions against the city. Mr. Parsons intimated that the new experiments are seeking to devise means of dispensing with the lagoons. In one system which he observed the water from the sludge is drained back into the disposal plant. Another de-watering system he examined, although not in operation for the reason that it was temporarily out of order, utilized pressure and heat. The sludge was first compressed and the water content reduced to seventy per cent. At that stage it was fairly dry but in the big heating drums the water was expelled to a minimum of ten per cent, and was sold as fertilizer.

New Orlean's Pumps.

The attraction in New Orleans for the City Engineer were the special pumps by which the city's sewage is pumped over the level into the Mississippi river, the level of which is above the city. The sewage is poured untreated into the big stream and carried out into the gulf. The New Orleans pumps were designed by Mr. A. P. Wood who with Mr. George Earle are well known throughout the continent for their special and highly efficient engineering work.

River Higher Than City.

Mr. Parsons was surprised at the height of the river which was only a few feet below the top of the embankment or levee Without this protecting and partly naturaly dyke thousands of square miles of Louisiana would be under water. The Mississippi itself threw up on either side much of the effluvia with which it is laden and thus formed banks that have ben built up for hundred of hundreds of miles alongs its course.

The temperature in New Orleans was at ninety degrees during Mr. Parson's three day visit there and in Houston. The remaining six days of his trip were spent on trains, three days each way.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

The Great War Veterans Ball Team will practice at the Riverside Park to-morrow night at 6 o'clock. A full turn out of the players is requested.

The Peterboor Central League Club practice at the Riverside Park on Thursday and Friday nights of this week. All candidates for the team are asked to be out.

Baseball moguls will meet at the Empress Hotel to-morrow evening, and make final arrangements for the opening of the City Baseball League next Saturday afternoon at the Riverside Park. On the draw made at a former meeting, Canadian Generals are due to play the Veterans in the first game, with Thistles and Canadian Woollens taking the second half of the bill.

Thistles will show all their pitchers on opening day and Kirn will have the honor of leading off, twirling three innings, McClintock the next three and Harrison the last trio.

Central League prospects are asked to call at Dan McCabe's store and sign certificates. The certificates must be sent to Secretary Nott at Oshawa, and be returned here before the first League game on May 24th, when the locals meet Goyer-Mills and Co., of Belleville, in the Quinte town

Bobby Heck, minus his spitball, came to the rescue of the Leafs yesterday, relieving Peterson, and twirling well enough to beat Syracuse 8 to 4.

The Michigan-Ontario League opened this afternoon with the Michigan City teams apeparing in the four Ontario cities.

The C. G. E. Baseball Club will practice on the Riverside Grounds to-morrow—Wednesday night. All members of the team kindly be present.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

TEAMS PRACTICE TO-NIGHT—THE FIRST LADIES' FOOTBALL TEAM—COMRADES FOOTBALL TEAM—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A special meeting of the Peterborough football executive will be held on Wednesday evening in Mr. Fred Sutcliffe's barber shop, Charlotte street, at 7.30 prompt.

Wetton, the Canadian Woollen's goal keeper, played a great game against the Caledonians last Saturday. During one of the attacks on his goal in the early part of the game, he fractured his finger while stopping the ball and paid no attention to it until yesterday when he had go to the doctor and get it fixed. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Machine Gunners and the Canadian Woollens teams will practice to-night at the Oval at 6.30 prompt.

The C.G.E. football players are requested to make an appearance to-night at the Exhibition grounds for a practice game at 6.30 prompt.

All players associated with the Caledonians will practice to-night at the Exhibition grounds.

Mr. J. W. Worth of the Canadian Woollens, has sprung a great surprise in the city by putting forth the first ladies' football team. Under the careful tuition of Jack Cridland, the ladies have made a good impression and intend going down to Queen Mary's school on Wednesday evening to play a game of football.

The football enthusiasts will regret to hear that Alex. Hardie, the left half-back of the Caledonians, departs for the United States in the near future.

By winning the game against the De Laval of Saturday, the G.W.V.A. jumped up from the cellar position in the League.

The Caledonian football executive had five loads of earth put into the holes and ruts on the football field on Friday last and still requires a lot more to get it into proper shape.

The committee of the Comrades' Football Club in connection with Park street Baptist church, decided that the colors of the jessies will be green and white upright strike and white knickers. As soon as the outfit arrives in the city, the team is willing to play any football team. Please communicate with Neil Porter, John street, city.

To meet the ever-increasing expense of running the Caledonian team, the ladies will hold a sale of work in the Woodman of World hall on Saturday, May 15th, from 2 p.m. till 6 p.m. In the evening there will be a dance from 7 p.m. till 11 p.m.

CITY LEAGUE BASEBALL MEETING

Members of the City Baseball League Executive are reminded of the meeting to-morrow night at eight o'clock in the Empress Hotel, when the final arrangements for the opening of the season on Saturday will be completed. The schedule for the season will also be considered and adopted and every member of the executive is asked to be on hand.

LOOK WHO'S HERE

One of the many attractive features in the performance of Gus Hill's delightful musical success "Keeping Up With the Joneses", is based on the popular cartoons of the same name by Pop Momand. The book and lyrics are by John P. Mulgrew, and the music is by Ed. Hutchison. It is described as a riot of melody song, smart ensembles, wholesome fun and laughter with a galaxy of pretty girls, with a company of musical comedy favorites unequalled for talent. 'Keeping Up with the Joneses' will be seen at the Grand Wednesday evening only. This genuinely funny play of laughter and amusement has been creating records everywhere.

BLANCH SWEET AT THE GRAND

Blanche Sweet is taking a much needed rest after her strenuous work in "A Woman of Pleasure," the seven part melodrama, filmed by Jesse D. Hampton for Pathe, which comes to the Grand Theatre Thursday for three days. The story was written by James Willard and presented upon the stage at the Adelphi, in London It gives Miss Sweet a splendid opportunity to display her wonderful dramatic skill as her role covers a wide range of characterization.

In the early scenes of the picture she plays the part of a poor school teacher in an English fishing village She marries a wealthy landowner who has vast mining interests in South Africa. She marries him because she craves luxury and pleasure he marres her because the law does not permit a wife to testify against her husband and she had been the only witness to a crime he committed.

From the beautiful Carlingforth Estate, where the little school teacher is at last enthroned as a woman of pleasure, the action changes to South Africa and the thrree principal characters—the man and wife not loving each other and the other man, in love with the wife, are suddenly playing dangerous parts in a Zulu uprising. The film comes to a swift and thrilling climax, bringing happiness to the deserving. Miss Sweet is given admirable support by Wheeler Oakman Wilfred Lucas, Spottiswoode Aitken, and that clever freckle-faced boy, Wesley Barry

"THE SPORTING DUCHESS" FIRST STAGED IN LONDON

TO BE SHOWN AT THE ALLEN THEATRE TO-DAY.

"The Sporting Duchess," which will be shown at the Allen theater to-day was first written as a spectacular melodrama to be produced in the Drury Lane theater in London. This theater is world renowned for the stupendous productions that have been staged there. The theater is to London what the Hippodrome is to New York. Only plays of such mammoth proportions that few ordinary playhouses could produce them are seen there.

Drury Lane is also noted for its famous Christmas pantomimes, a form of entertainment seldom seen in this country. Until the advent of motion pictures pantomime was sadly neglected in America. It was found in the Russian ballet, the Italian ballet, the Austrian ballet and the pantomimes at Drury Lane.

Some of the most famous of the Drury Lane melodramas have been brought to American and staged in the largest playhouses here Great quantities of special mechanical and scenic effects were necessary to produce the race scenes and tallyhos filled with people driven onto the stage.

"The Sporting Duchess" created a furore in New York a score of years ago when Rose Coghlan appeared in the title role. It was so stupendous and such a costly production to transport that it was only seen in a few cities outside of New York.

It was not until the advent of motion pictures that this famous melodrama could be staged in a form suitable to show in every city and town through the country. The film version in which Alice Joyce is starred, is even greater than the play.

"The Broken Melody"

You've seen Eugene O'Brien as "The Perfect Lover"—see him now as the adventurous young artist in a drama that holds your interest from beginning to end.

Another Eugene O'Brien Success!

LAVISHLY STAGED, MAGNIFICENTLY SCENED AND SPLENDIDLY ACTED

AT THE EMPIRE

Money, skill, and intelligence have been ungrudgingly lavished upon the feature picture, "The Broken Melody" at the Empire, starring Eugene O'Brien, which drew a capacity house last evening, and the drama proved to be such that the audience's interest was held throughout the action of the play.

The story, which is new, is of two young people living in the Latin quarter of New York, who through the influence of outsiders, are convinced that marriage would interfere with their artistic careers. As the artist, who is led to Paris by a rich New York woman, who has become infatuated with him, is led bU etaoinhmm ated with him, Eugene O'Brien is very convincing and his performance is surprisingly fine, requiring the expression of practically all the emotions. In Paris, however, the memory of the girl he left in New York constantly haunts him, and he finally discovers the success he has made in Paris is due only to her inspiration, and returns to her, she in the meantime having become a star, and being introduced to the theatrical world by the author of "The Broken Melody."

The programme is augmented by some especially brilliant smaller plays and comedies.

MRS. HACHEY IS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Was Weak, Nervous and Run Down Before She Started to Use the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Chiasson, via Shippigan, N.B., May 10.—(Special.)—"I can tell you in all sincerity that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best in the world. I have used them and I am always praising them."

These enthusiastic eulogies of Dodd's, come from Mrs. S. Hachey, well-known and highly respected here.

"I think I inherited my trouble from my parents," Mrs. Hachey continues. "I was troubled with sciatica, I had cramps in my muscles and backache. My appetite was uncertain I was easily fatigued and sleeplessness helped to make me more wretched. My nerves were also bad."

It will be seen from the above that Mrs. Hachey was in a very badly run-down condition. The benefit she got from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills is shown by the praise she gives them.

Weak, run-down women all over Canada will hear with pleasure the statement Mrs. Hachey makes. Ask your neighbours if Dodd's Kidney Pills is not the remedy they are looking for.

WIDESPREAD CONSPIRACY DISCOVERED IN EGYPT

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Low-grade gasoline is frequently indicated by a black smoky exhaust with a disagreeable odor and by difficulty in getting the engine started.

Trouble from water in the gasoline can be avoided by pouring the fuel in to the tank through a chamois skin.

An emergency cotter pin can be made from a piece of wire fastened around a nail.

WEDDING BELLS

ERSKINE—MATTHEWS.

The appended wedding notice, taken from the Fort Frances Times, refers to Mr. Wesley Erskine a former Peterborough boy Mr. Erskine resided in this city unitl about nine years ago:

On Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., there were united in the bonds of matrimony, Miss Ida Ethel Matthews and Mr. Wesley Erskine, late of the 78th Battalion, C.E.F.

The marriage was celebrated at St. John's Anglican church, the Rev. Archdeacon Maltby presiding.

The bride made the long journey from her English home at the insistent call of Dan Cupid, having met her future husband while he was recuperating from the effects of wounds and gas received in the firing line in France.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Erskine, and his two sisters met the bride in Winnipeg and returned to Fort Frances with her, the ceremony took place next evening.

Lt.-Col. D. C. McKenzie, M.D., who has proved himself the "best man" in six bitterly contested mayoralty contests, again acted as such, this time without a contest, while Miss Erskine supported the bride Mrs. Erskine gave the bride away.

After the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to Mrs Erskine's home on Third street, where a delightful wedding supper was served. Twenty-five of the immediate friends of the groom sat down at the festive board and a merry evening was spent. The health of the bride was proposed by Col. McKenzie in a neat speech in which he praised the war record of the groom, but considered the bride to be an equally gallant and faithful spirit as proved by her long and arduous journey to the side of the groom. He pointed out that the marriage was a typical re-union of the Anglo-Saxon family, since the groom served his country with the Canadian forces, his brother Morton fought the Hun under "Old Glory" and now the old land sent one of her fairest daughters to cement the bond. The groom responded neatly as did also his bride who made a delightful and appropriate reply to the Colonel's compliments.

OPENING PRICES ON STOCK MARKET

PRICES WERE LOWER AT THE OPENING—EXCHANGE MARKET.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, N.Y., May 11.—Prices were fractionally lower at the stock market opening to-day. Interest of traders centered in oil shares. U. S. Steel opened off 1-8 at 94 3-4; Reading 86 1-4 unchanged. N.Y. Central 70 off 1-2; Pan Am Pet. 101 up 3-8; Southern Pac. 95 3-4 off 1-8; Bethlehem B. 93 5-8 off 1-4; Texas and Pac. 43 7-8 up 1-4; Studebaker 77 off 1-2; Royal Dutch 120 3-4 off 1-8; Crucible 140 1-4 up 1-4.

STERLING EXCHANGE
(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 11.—The steady rise in the price of German marks on the foreign exchange market to-day carried them above 2 cents, a new high for the present renewed strength in foreign money rates. Demand sterling was up 3-4 cents at $3.83 -34. Franc checks up 35 centimes at 15.42; marks demand $.0203, cables $.0205, up $.0009. Lire checks up 5 at 19.82; Canadian dollars $.9040.

With the exception of the Mexican Oil issues and the Sugar, the list sagged off slightly in the first half hour. U S. Steel sold at 94 3-8. The market generally was narrow. Mexican Pet. advanced 1 7-8 to 182 24, and Pan. Amn 1 3-8 to 102.

Sugar stocks stood out prominently toward the end of the first hour. Bunta Alegra advancing 4 1-4 to 111 1-4. Cuba Cane to 55 3-4, up 1 1-4, and Cuban Amn. up 15 points to 53 3-4. Tobacocs were fairly active. A. T. Securities sold up 1 1-2 at 60 3-4. Bethlehem B sold around 93 1-8 and Lackawanna Steel around 77.

JOE BECKETT WON IN THIRD

KNOCKED OUT BAMBARDIER WELLS AFTER A SHORT AND FURIOUS BOUT.

LONDON, May 10—Joe Beckett knocked out Bombardier Wells in the third round here to-day, thus retaining the British heavyweight championship, which the challenger had sought to wrest from him.

The fight, which was scheduled to go twenty rounds, was furious from the opening gong to the time when, in the third round, a terrific right-hand punch by Beckett floored his antagonist for the count.

Wells had been the favourite in the betting among English boxing fans. They figured that his superior height and reach would give him an advantage over the champion, which the latter, with all his cleverness, would be unable to overcome. Besides, Wells was reported to be in top-notch condition. His own descriptions of what his training had done to place him in readiness for the most important bout of his career had carried conviction to the fans that he would win.

Experts Favoured Beckett.

Experts on the fight game, on the other hand, had picked Beckett to beat the challenger, and their confidence never wavered, regardless of the fans' enthusiasm for Wells.

The brevity of the battle was a surprise to everybody. Belief had been freely expressed by many that the mill would go to the full twenty rounds.

Beckett led the fighting from the very outset, and had Wells practically helpless before he delivered the finishing blow.

Beckett was carried from the ring by admirers, while the crowd, despite the fact that many had lost money by backing the loser, went wild over the dramatic finish to a battle which, brief, had been sharp and fast while it lasted.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from costiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This with the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

Mrs. Letitia Wainman, Orillia, Ont., writes: "From a child I was always very badly constipated and I can well remember when quite young my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning and I got to dread it. After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mr. Margaret Sloane, who died May 11, 1918:

Two years have passed to-day
Since our darling mother went away,
Yet it seems like yesterday,
We miss her more and more each day.

Up there on the sunny hill top,
That slopes to east and west,
With a beautiful view in the distance
We have laid her away to rest.

To rest, till the bright glad morning,
Of the resurrection day.
When body and soul are united
And death shall no more have sway.

With her beautiful hands, so toil-worn,
Safe folded across her breast,
Methinks when the Master sees them
He shall grant her the promised rest.

But the home place seems strangely silent,
And we enter with lagging feet,
For the light that cheered all within it,
Has gone out—we no more shall meet.

With her bright glad smile of welcome,
Standing there by the open door;
And many a time she has waited,
For us in the days of yore.

Oh, heart, that was true and steadfast,
To the living and the dead;
In many a grief have we gone to her,
And we always were comforted.

With us in the happy glad times,
With us, when our hearts were sad,
A tower of strength to the troubled,
Rejoicing with those who were glad.

So thus did her life flow onward,
Just doing from day to day,
The duty that lay the nearest,
Treading the narrow way.

Till at last in the joyous springtime
Her tired and weary feet,
Have climbed up the hill to heaven,
And entered the golden street.

But we know she'll be waiting to greet us,
In that happy home so bright,
Where the light goeth out no more by day,
And where never more is night.

"BOMBS" HIDDEN IN LEAD PENCILS

If You Visit War Areas, Beware of the Souvenirs.

PARIS, May 11—A Frenchman visiting the Somme region found what he thought was a good German pencil with a metal casing. Returning to Paris he called in some friends to see his souvenir.

While it wrote perfectly well, he decided to see how the pencil was encased. In unscrewing the casing he exploded a tiny powder magazine, with the result that his friends were injured, he had to be removed to a hospital suffering from severe burns, and all the crockery in the room was smashed, but little remained of the pencil.

Such accidents are said to be numerous, not infrequently resulting in lossf of life.

Before taking parties to visit the battlefields, tourist agencies warn them of the danger of picking up or even prodding of kicking missiles that have not been removed.

This Will Remove Hair or Fuzzy Growths

(Toilet Tips.)

A safe, certain method for ridding the skin of ugly, hairy growths is as follows: Mix a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface about 2 minutes, then rub off, wash the kin and the hairs are gone. This is entirely harmless and seldom requires repeating, but to avoid disapointment it is advisable to see that you get genuine delatone

"BANNER" —The Open-Coil Bed Spring
Built for Sleep—by Simmons Limited

THIS "BANNER" spring is worth seeing even if you are not thinking of buying a bed spring at present.

And when you stop in at your merchant's store to see it—take first a few minutes to look over his full stock of sleeping equipment from Simmons Limited.

You will find it interesting—and illuminating—to see how beautifully that Simmons principle, built for sleep, has been worked out to cover the full range of sleeping equipment.

Here, for instance, is the "Banner" Spring—for those who prefer the open coil type of spring to the box spring.

The Simmons "Banner" Coil Spring is constructed of the highest grade carbon steel wire—so strong and resilient as to support the body perfectly.

Patented, interlaced, helical top keeps the spring taut and firm—Every part evenly flat and elastic—No sagging or humping.

The Simmons "Banner" Spring yields gently to the weight of the sleeper—with equal support for the shoulders and hips.

There is none of the slacken-ing and sagging which break your rest when sleeping on an ordinary spring.

Consider too, the heavy steel frame with angle side rails—a Simmons feature that insures a lifetime of wear.

Note the smooth unbroken finish. No roughness or loose wires to hurt the finger or tear the mattress.

Simmons Beds, Springs, Mattresses and Pillows cost little if any more than the ordinary merchandise of the average store.

A post card to us will bring you the names of Simmons merchants near your home.

Sleep is a big subject. Write us for the booklet, "What Leading Medical Journals and Health Magazines Say About Separate Beds and Sound Sleep." Free of charge.

WILL VISIT THE DE LAVAL PLANT

The weekly Educational Observation Tour of the Boys' Department of the Y. M. C. A. will be held to-morrow, Wednesday afternoon when through the kindness of Mr. Breyfogle the boys' will be shown through the Tin-shop of the De Laval Company's plant. Those who attended last weeks trip know how great an educational value those tours are and a goodly number it is hoped will turn out to-morrow.

In view of the De Laval Plant being situated so far from the centre of the town and the fact that it ceases operation for the day at 5 o'clock it will be necessary to have all intending on hand ready to start at 4.30 Therefore instead of meeting at the Y.M.C.A. Building those with Bicycles will ride directly from school to the factory the others taking the street car. Any boy in the city whether or not a member of the "Y" is invited to attend.

On Saturday next a bicycle hike will be held leaving the Association Building at 9.30 a.m. A good days fun is assured to those who possess bicycles and have the inclination to use them. Be on hand Saturday morning.

GATHERING SUSPECTS IN ARNESTEIN CASE

Man in Chicago Placed Under Arrest —Said to be Wanted in Montreal.

CHICAGO, May 10.—A. C. Erement, said by the police to be wanted in New York in connection with the negotiating of some of the $2,500,000 securities alleged to have been stolen by "Nickey" Arnstein and "Nick" Cohen, was under arrest here to-day. Erement, who had been living here under the name of C. E. Arthur, also was said to be wanted in Montreal and Buffalo in connection with an alleged $125,000 wire-tapping swindle.

William Carter of the Canadian Federal Police was in Chicago today conferring with the State's Attorney's office. He said he would return to Canada to learn if the Canadian authorities desired to ask extradition papers for Erement.

The man admitted his name was Erement, the police said, and that he was a friend of Philip Kastel, another man said to be wanted in the Arnstein case. Erement denied that he knew Arnstein, but was said to have identified a picture of Cohen as that of a man he met not long ago in Chicago.

New Way to Curl Hair Has Many Advantages

You will find the following to be a simple and excellent method of curling the hair. Apply a little liquid silmerine with a clean tooth brush, drawing this down the full length of the hair just before doing it up. In three hours you will be quite amazed at the result. You will have the prettiest curls and waves imaginable, altogether natural in appearance. Aside from this, the advantages of the silmerine method are that the hair is curled so quickly, that it remains in curl a long time, that it has such a lively sheen or lustre, and is so beautifully fluffy when combed out. A few ounces of liquid silmerine from your druggist will last for weeks. It is, of course perfectly harmless.

REV. E. WATSON AND THE INDEMNITY

In the discussion on the sessional indemnity in the Provincial Legislature a few days ago, Rev. E. Watson of North Victoria, said he had been pressed into taking the candidacy against his will, and found that the work required half his time, as payment for which he might have $300 at the end of the year; therefore he signed the document. He was prepared to throw the constituency open for anyone else.

ADMIRED CHURCH

The chimes were played yesterday afternoon at St. John's Church in honour of the visit of Sir Ricard Winfrey to the church. Sir Richard remarked on the architecture of the beautiful old church, being similar to one of their Norfolk churches and Archdeacon Davidson found that it had been taken from this church.

The prominent Englishman remarked on the coincidence of the names of the Anglican church in Peterborough being known as St. John's also. The beautiful site upon which the church is located was greatly admired by Sir Richard.

TONE TEST WAS HELD IN LINDSAY

Last evening the store and office staff, to the number of eight, of the Greepe Music Company, motored to Lindsay to be present at an Edison tone test being held there in the Town Academy. They report a most successful entertainment by three Edison artistes in a tone test with a new Edison taken from the home of a prominent citizen of the town. The artistes were Miss Fagan, whistler; Miss Petler, soprano; and Mr. W. Osborne, violinist.

The hall was filled to capacity, and many were turned away, unable to get seats.

After the programme, a banquet was tendered the artistes, and a representative gathering of citizens, including the Mayor and was presided over by the manager of the Bank of Montreal.

A very friendly feeling prevailed, testifying to the hold Mr. Mason, manager of the Greene Music Store in Lindsay, has in the esteem of the people. It was two o'clock before the return trip was commenced, and it was accomplished after a further "blow-out" at Omemee, about four o'clock this morning.

WEDDING BELLS

COSS—DEROCHER.

In St. Peter's Cathedral this morning at 6 o'clock, a pretty wedding was solemnized, Rev. C. J. Phelan officiating, when Emma Derocher, of this city, was united in matrimony to Michael J. Coss, late of Sillery Cove, Quebec.

They were attended by Mr. E. Coss, brother of the groom, and Mrs. LaCombe, the bride's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Coss left this morning for a short honeymoon and will later reside in Peterboro.

OBITUARY

MRS. ORVILLE KENNEALLY.

Sad circumstances surround the death of Mrs. Orville Kenneally, formerly Miss Geraldine Lane, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lane, this morning. No word of her serious illness was received by her parents in this city until yesterday morning, when a telegram came from Windsor asking for Mrs. Lane to come at once. Mrs. Lane left at once for Windsor, but that her illness was so serious was not known until early this morning when a message came for Mr. Lane to come at once, followed later by a telegram announcing her death.

The deceaed was born in Peterborough twenty-three years ago and attended school here, later being employed by the Bell Telephone Co. and at other offices in the city.

A most tragic coincidence is the fact that it is just six months ago today that she was married to Mr. Orville Kenneally. Since their marriaeg in Kenneally they have resided in Windsor, but in the near future her parents were looking forward to them returning to this city.

The sudden death of Mrs. Kenneally has caused widespread gloom. In the church, in the social work and life of the community she was always active and her kindness and thoughtfulness won her the love and esteem of a wide circle of friends.

Besides her heart-broken husband she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lane, two sisters, Helen of St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, and Hilda at home, and one brother, Jack.

The body will arrive on the 1.01 C.P.R. train early to-morrow morning. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Russian Bolshevik Agree to Spare Lives of Prisoners

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION IS A PUZZLE

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 12.—Intervention by the United States in the revolution in Mexico would embitter the whole of Latin-America, the Chronicle said to-day, adding that the attitude of the United States might play a big part in the coming American presidential elections.

The newspaper intimated a revolution in Mexico might be "inspired," declaring an outbreak in Mexico seemed to be the usual thing in a presidential election. It noted the instance of 1912 and the "strange coincidence of a repetition in 1916," and again this year.

Mexican affairs, the newspaper said, naturally concern the United States intimately, while no European nation would think of interfering.

The Manchester Guardian saw the possibility of collusion between the powerful oil interests in the United States and the revolutionists.

REBEL TROOPS.

EL PASO, May 12. — The forces commanded by President Carranza fought an all-day battle yesterday against rebel troops under Generals Hill and Trevino between San Marcos, Puebla State, and Huamantla, Tlaxaca State, according to advices received here.

OLD CANNON BALL HELD AN EXPLOSIVE

NEWPORT, R. I., May 12.—Old "solid shot" relics of the Civil War days are good things to leave alone, as was demonstrated at the Naval Torpedo Station yesterday afternoon, for four of the civilian employees of the station are now on the injured list, one of them seriously. Desirous of using one of the old cannon balls, thought to have been solid, which have been piled up at the station for years as ornaments, it was decided to heat and anneal it. It was put into a forge and had been there just a little over a minute when there was a blinding explosion and the four men about the forge were thrown about cut and lacerated as well as burned, by fragments of the shell.

A NOTE TO THIS EFFECT WAS RECEIVED BY BRITISH OFFICIALS—TRADE RELATIONS.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 12.—Russian Bolshevik authorities have agreed to spare the lives of soldiers captured from General Denikine's army in Southern Russia, and those of other Anti-Soviet troops who may in future be taken prisoner.

A note to this effect was received by the British Officials in answer to appeals sent to Moscow during the past fortnight. A suggestion is made in Bolshevik note that British Government negotiate with the Bolshevik representatives preferably those now in Copenhagen, regarding final dispostion of men captured and also relation to resumption of trade relations between two countries.

From British view point this is most satisfactory note on subject yet received from Soviet Government and officials are hopeful protection can be guaranteed Denikine men with trade agreements or other concessions to Moscow.

PREMIER BORDEN REACHES OTTAWA

Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, May 12. — Bronzd and in excellent health apparently Sir Robert Borden, accompanied by Lady Borden, arrived in Ottawa shortly before one p.m., to-day. He showed no traces of illness and to all queries smilingly replied that his health was of the best.

POLES ARE ADVANCING

HEAVY LOSSES INFLICTED ON THE BOLSHEVIK.

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, May 12.—Confirmation of the reports that Odessa, Russia's most important outlet on the Black Sea, had been occupied by the troops of General Petlura, the Ukrainian commander, has been received by the Ukrainian Press Bureau here, that bureau reported to-day.

DRIVEN ENEMY BACK.

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, May 12.—The Polish and Ukrainian forces have struck mighty blows at the Russian Bolshevik front far north of Kiev, and have driven the enemy back along the Beresina River.

Betchitsa, an important Dneiper River crossing, has been captured and serious losses have been inflicted on the Soviet Army.

The necessity for straightening the Polish line after Kiev's capture is said to have led to a new offensive.

The Poles have crossed the Beresina River at several points, and have taken Wielatisch.

North-east of Mozir the Bolsheviki have been forced across the Dneiper, from Kiev northward to the mouth of the Pripet Rover, a distance of about fifty miles.

The Bolsheviki on the west side of the Dneiper are slowly falling back, and are building bridges to facilitate their escape before the main body of the Polish Army reaches the stream.

TOURIST TRADE OPENING UP

The the summer tourist trade is beginning to open up again is evidenced by the freight that has been moving up the lakes on the Grand Trunk of late. To-day Mr. MacNab said the most of the freight consists of groceries and supplies going up from local dealers in unprecedented quantities.

A large number of American tourists are expected in this year, the great drawing card being the possibility of getting a good supply of wet goods for the summer cottage from the east. The States are in a most dry state and its inhabitants have a long thirst that will only be quelled by frequent consultation with the Montreal goods.

SUGAR PROFITS TO RETAIL TRADE

Special to Examiner.

BOSTON, May 12. — Attorney General Palmer to-day set a margin of profit to be allowed on sales of sugar at 1c per pound for wholesalers and 2c per pound retail. In a telegram to United States Attorney Boynton, Mr. Palmer ordered that steps be taken immediately to prosecute any persons taking larger profits.

GRADUATION EXERCISES OF NICHOLLS HOSPITAL

TEN NURSES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS—TABLET UNVEILED—HOSPITAL WAR RECORD.

After three years of perhaps the most arduous training any profession calls for, ten young ladies, the Misses G. M. Drake of Bolsolver, I. E. Thompson of Mount Julian, O. Waterman of South Monaghan, C. E. Gulliver of Whitby, V. Baker of Hampton, R. D. Fraser of Chatham, N.B., H. N. Anderson of St. Catharines, R. P. Gray of Sharbot Lake, M. R. Reid of Lang and B. H. Chalmers of Smiths Falls, received their diplomas last evening at the annual graduation exercises of Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses, held in the G.W.V.A. Hall.

Chairman's Address.

In the absence of Mr. Richard Hall, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital, Mr. John Crane, secretary of the Board, occupied the chair and in a brief address congratulated the graduates upon their success and the Hospital staff upon the results they had attained in sending ten such nurses into the world. He spoke of the splendid work of the institution, which has sent 150 graduates out, and concluded by expressing his satisfaction with the Hospital generally.

Unveiled the Tablet.

Previous to the graduation exercises a splendid brass tablet bearing the names of the fourteen graduates of the Hospital who served overseas, was presented to the Board of Trustees to be hung in the main hall of the Hospital. The tablet was inscribed:

1914—Honor Roll—1919
Nurses Who Served Overseas
Deo et Humanitati
Nursing Sisters G. Reid, Royal Red Cross, M. Douglas, Royal Red Cross.
Nursing Sisters P. Roberts, B. Mowry, E. Willison, Rosamond Kellett, E. Kennedy, M. Droupe, F. Smith, J. Hill, E. Walsh, Hannet Dobbie, A. Kemp, E. Davidson and the Superintendent, Nursing Sister Elizabeth M. Beamish.

Hospital War Record.

In presenting the tablet on behalf of Nicholls Hospital Alumnae, Miss Dickson, president of the Alumnae, said that while the young ladies graduating had been trained and instructed as to their duties there are many circumstances for which they have not been trained and one was the duty which had fallen to herself in making the presentation to the Hospital. In speaking of the record of the Nursing Sisetrs whose names the tablet bore, Miss Dickson said that while they met circumstances of which we know nothing, endured the most trying conditions she has yet to hear any one of them say she is sorry she went. "Their services, given gladly and freely, are appreciated," she concluded, and called upon Mrs. W. T. Holloway, president of the Alumnae during the war, to unveil the tablet, asking that it might serve to remind all of the nurses who served overseas. On behalf of the Board, Mr. Crane thanked Miss Dickson for the splendid tribute.

Essential Qualities.

Rev. F. E. Malott, who addressed the graduates, referred to the nursing profession as one of the greatest callings, requiring as it does all the womanly qualities. Sir Walter Scott, he said, might have invoked the wrath of womanhood with his poem referring to "women in your hours of ease" had he not qualified it by adding a tribute to the fair sex in sickness. The angelic qualities of women are brought out in the sick room. You will find he cautioned the graduates, "many things which will try your patience, but you have been trained to endure much. Your work develops sympathy, patience thoroughness, thoughtfulness and tact." He classed the nursing profession with that of the physician and the ministry, each of which professions stand for service. "What higher service," he asked, could a human being offer than nursing sick people back to health?"

Diplomas Presented.

Following Mr. Malott's address, Mr. Crane, on behalf of the Trustees of the Hospital, presented the diplomas and congratulated each, while Miss S. A. Sanderson, Assistant Superintendent of the Hospital, pinned the medals on the graduates.

Dr. A. M. McPherson.

In addressing the graduates, Dr. A. W. McPherson spoke of the young ladies' splendid record during the three most trying years of their lives. Like those who served overseas, he said, they carried on. In conclusion he briefly outlined the duties the nurse owes to her patient, the doctor and to herself and advised each before adopting any class of nursing to study her fitness for the class she anticipates taking up. He congratulated the Superintendent and staff on the high standard of efficiency which is being maintained at the Hospital.

Bandaging Prizes.

Dr. N. H. Sutton presented the bandaging prizes to Miss I. E. Thompson of Mount Julian and Miss B. H. Chalmers of Smith's Falls and assured them that he had heard of their work in this line spoken of as nothing short of wonderful.

The Harvey Medal.

In presenting the Harvey Medal for general proficiency Dr. E. E. Harvey said that as there is no royal road to learning, any one who stands first does so as a result of sheer hard work and pluck. He paid a warm tribute to Miss Drake, winner of the medal, and spoke of her splendid record in the hospital, concluding by congratulating the graduates and the Hospital staff.

The Programme.

During the evening Mrs. Maurice Park and Mr. Douglas Carlisle contributed several solos and a duet, and at the conclusion of the programme Mr. Fred Roy took several flashlight photographs of the graduates standing on the flower laden platform of the hall, after which refreshments were served and a dance held.

HORATIO BOTTOMLY COMES BACK AGAIN

Resents Story That He Was "Booed" in the Commons.

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 12. — Lady Nancy Astor, the first woman to sit in the British House of Commons, has been "spoiled by flattery in her role as a social reformer," Horatio Bottomley declared to-day in a new attack on the Viscountess in his publication John Bull.

Bottomley resented the stories that he was "booed" in the Commons after his first attack on Lady Nancy.

"I didn't hear any boo's," he said.

The editor reiterated his charges that the Viscountess had changed her position on the Prohibition question since her accession to the Commons.

Italian Cabinet Trouble

RESIGNATION TENDERED AT THE OPENING OF TO-DAY'S SESSION.

(United Press.)

ROME, May 12.—Political observers here attributed the apparent downfall of the Nitti Cabinet to the opposition of the Catholic parties. The Cabinet to-day was reported to have decided to resign after the chamber voted 154 to 113 against the government. The vote was on a measure concerning the posts and telegraphs.

Nitti had told the chamber the vote would be considered as indicating the chamber's confidence in the government. Socialists and Catholics joined in opposing the premier.

Following the vote, the President of the Chamber announced that Nitti would tender the cabinet's resignation at the opening of to-day's sittings.

TO-DAY'S STOCK MARKET REPORT

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 12.—While the foreign exchange was generally steady at the opening to-day. Demand sterling was 1 1-4 cents less at 3.83 1-4. Francs at 14.82 were up 25 centimes. Lire checks 19.62, up 5. Marks demand $.02, cables $.0202; Canadian Dollars $.930.

U. S. Rubber opened at 97, off 1-4; Central Leather 78, off 1-4; Texas Co. 49, unchanged; Studebaker 74 3-4, up 1-8; Republic Steel, 93 5-8, unchanged; Baldwin 115, up 5-8; Bethlehem B 92 3-8, up 1-8; U. S. Steel 94 1-2, unchanged; Royal Dutch 119, off 1-4; Mex. Pet. 181, up 3-8; Pan. Amn. 101 3-4, up 1-2.

Call money renewed at 8 per cent around noon. While this rate was nothing in view of the fact that late borrowers on Tuesday were paying 10 per cent. for funds, it served to cause further selling of stocks. Steel got down to 94, off nearly a point from the high. Oils held up comparatively well, particularly the Doheny issues.

After some early hesitation, big buying orders appeared in the oils. Pan American made an early high close to 103. Mexican Pet. at 182 1-2, was up 6 1-2 points from Tuesday's low close.

SAYS INDIANS DON'T WANT THE FRANCHISE

William Knott of Curve Lake reserve declares that the Chemong Indians are opposed to the franchise the Government intends to grant them. Even our soldiers don't want it", he said. "They say and so do all the men that the franchise would be no use to them The y want to keep the reserve and not be left so they might be thrown on to the road. We are nearly all poor people and we want to keep on the way we always have been."

POPULAR PARISH PRIEST OF DOWNEYVILLE LEAVES FOR NEW CHARGE—BANQUET YESTERDAY.

Rev. P. J. Galvin in charge of the pastorate of St. Luke's, Downeyville for the last four years, leaves next week for his new charge at Sault Ste. Marie To do honour to Rev. Galvin who has been most popular with his fellow priests of the diocese a banquet was held yesterday at noon at the parish when some fifteen priests from this district gathered together to bid farewell to Rev. P. J. Galvin and wish him success in his new parish.

The following priests were present at the banquet: Very Rev. Monsignor Casey, Lindsay; Rev. G. Whibbs, Campbellford; Rev. P. J. McGuire, Peterboro; Rev. M. McGuire, Douro; Rev J. J. O'Brien, Peterboro; Rev. P. J. Kelly, Victoria Road. Rev. M. J. O'Leary, Bracebridge; Rev. W. P. Meagher, Lakefield; Rev. V. G. McFadden, Parry Sound; Rev. J. V. McAuley, Ennismore, Rev. J. J. Guiry Peterboro; Rev. A. B. Cote, Peterboro; Rev. P. Costello, Peterboro; Rev. M. O'Brien, Lindsay.

Presided at Banquet.

Rev. P. J. McGuire of Peterboro, who was formerly priest at Dowpeyville for some ten years presided at the banquet in his usual able manner and in a short address spoke in laudatory terms of Rev. Galvin's work in the community and how he had won the love and respect of all the parishioners during his four years and Rev. McGuire's words were reiterated by the speakers in a brief address. On behalf of the priests Rev. V. G. McFadden of Parry Sound presented Rev. Galvin with a well filled purse as a small token of their esteem. To the address that was read to him Rev. Galvin replied briefly thanking them for the co-operation they had always shown him and hoped the parish would grow and prosper until it was one of the best in the diocese

In the evening an entertainment was held in the parish hall erected last fall largely through the efforts of Rev. Galvin. The Hall crowded to capacity by the parishioners to whom the departure of Rev. Galvin to his new field has caused considerable regret. The new hall is a handsome structure worthy of any community and too much praise cannot be given to Rev. Galvin for his unsparing efforts in erecting the hall despite the many handicaps and delays His heart and soul was out into the work and at last the hall was completed and Rev. Galyvin leaves it behind to serve as a constant memorial to his work in Downeyville and Emily Township.

Rev. McGuire of Peterboro was chairman at the concert which was a big success in every way. The talent displayed is worthy of the highest commendation and the musical end of the program left little to be desired The addresses of the different priests were one in their regret at Rev. Galvin's departure but united in wishing him as much success in his new parish as he had in Downeyville.

In reply Rev. Galvin said that he did not feel deserving of the eulogatory remarks. He had only done his best He thanked the parishioners for coming out to pay tribute to him and to enjoy the fine program, I have spent four blessed years in your midst. I am sorry to leave you." In conclusion he urged a greater community spirit one that would make Downeyville an ideal centre in which to live.

On Sunday Rev. Galvin will conduct his last service in St. Luke's Church and next week leaves for Sault Ste. Marie. Suitable testimonials will be presented to Rev. Galvin by the parishioners. Of his work in Downeyville he will ever cherish the fondest memories and his progress in his new parish will be eagerly watched by his friends in Emily.

SALARIES FOR THE METHODISTS

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, May 12.—"The Methodist church of Canada should have a minimum salary of not less than $1,500 for its ministers," is the statement of Rev. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of that denomination in Canada. This declaration is the first official intimation of what is likely to be the new policy of the church.

G.T.R. SYSTEM NOW PROPERTY OF CANADA

OTTAWA, May 12. — As the G.T.R. System became Canada's property at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternion, when the Governor-General gave assent to the Grand Trunk Bill, an order in Council will be passed this week in all probability constituting the joint board of management provided for in the agreement to operate the system until the decision of the Board of Arbitration is known.

The Canadian National Railways will appoint Messrs. S. J. Hungerford and C. A. Hayes, it is understood, as their representatives on the joint board. For the Grand Trunk Railway two will be chosen from Messrs. W. D. Robb, Frank Scott and J. E. Dalrymple The chairman is to be chosen by the four men thus appointed, but it is generally understood that their choice will be Mr. Howard G. Kelley, the present General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway.

CARRANZA HITS FOR TALL TIMBER

MEXICO'S PRESIDENT GOT OUT WHILE GOING WAS GOOD.

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 12.— President Carranza, his cabinet advisors and other adherents, left Mexico City last Friday morning by train, apparently going in the direction of Vera Cruz, the State Department was advised to-day in a message from the American Embassy at Mexico City. Carranza's train was preceded by numerous trains carrying troops and equipment, supplies, records and archives. Artillery and supplies also were held in trains waiting at railroad station some hours after Carranza left.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., May 12. — Peedras Negrai, Mexican garrison town opposite Eagle Pass, was surrendered to revolutionists at midnight last night. Not a shot was fired.

CARING FOR THE TUBERCULAR CASES

(Canadian Pess.)

OTTAWA, May 12.—Needs of tubercular soldiers in matters of ensions and after care were placed before a special committee of the Pensions Board this morning by Dr. C. D. Parfitt and Col. William Hart, tuberculosis specialists. Col. Hart said finality in the case of tubercular patients should not be reached until the man become seriously ill. These cases should be given frequent review. Referring to scarcity of tuberculosis specialists in Canada, Col. Hart said the work did not appeal to physicians unless they had themselves suffered from tuberculosis. Pay to tubercular workers should be on basis of work accomplished and should not be influenced by any pension or allowance. Asked regarding establishment of colony Col. Hart said any attempt should be on an experimental basis.

COMMITTEE TRYING TO SETTLE STRIKE

Aldermen Hamilton and Whitehouse, of the Council's special committee recently appointed to endeavour to maintain industrial harmony, this morning met the committee representing the C. G. E. employees, who are on strike, at a conference in the Labour Hall.

Ald. Hamilton told The Examiner that this effort toward conciliation was not successful, chiefly for the reason that there was no definite proposal from the company to offer the machinists. He said that he had not given up hope of settling this dispute.

Mayor McIntyre and Ald. Gainey were not present. They returned only this morning from Montreal, where they spent several days on city business, of which the Mayor said he would soon have an important announcment. For the present, however, it was deemed advisable not to make anything public.

PRESIDENT WILSON WAS NOT SUITED

WJODROW WAS NOT SATISFIED WITH WORK OF THE BRITISH ADMIRALTY.

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A confidential cablegram from President Wilson to rear Admiral Sims in London, sent during the war was read to the Senate Naval investigating committee to-day by Secretary Daniels. It disclosed fact that American President was not at all satisfied with the way British Admiralty was directing work of British Navy and also indicated that Mr Wilson could not understand why naval experts there were reluctant to allow American experts to tell them just how things should be done. Mr. Wilson intimated that he considered British naval men too prudent and expressed surprise that "British Admiralty had failed to the Great Britain's great naval superiority effectively against submarines". He called on Admiral Sims for comments and suggestion "based on independent thought" and without regard to, "judgments of any one on that side of water."

Secretary Daniels said Admiral Sims reply was "long telegram of generalities of what British Admiralty was doing."

President in message was that Admirality was "helpless to point of panic", in face of submarine situation.

"Every plan we suggest they reject for some reason of prudence" American President said. "In my view this is not time for prudence but for boldness even at cost of great losses."

In conclusion President Wilson asked Admiral Sims to advise him as he would give advice, "if you were running navy of your own."

DRASTIC FINES FOR DELAY.

(Canadian Press.)

WINDSOR, Ont., May 12.—Six men were fined $600.00 for failing for six days to send in their income tax returns.

THE WEATHER

There was a heavy white frost again this morning, and in addition the temperature was slightly below the freezing point, standing at 31 degrees. While white frost, or conealed dew, is usually harmless, the other kind, or so called black frost—below the freezing point—is deadly to tender vegetation.—W. P.

BLINDNESS IS PREVENTABLE.

Many of the blind would now be enjoying the blessings of vision had proper measures been taken early enough. The same is true of failing sight. MR. JOSEPH WEARING RESIGNS FROM THE CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY AFTER FIVE YEARS' GRATUITOUS SERVICE

RESIGNATION WAS ACCEPTED WITH REGRET—PRESSURE OF BUSINESS GIVEN AS THE REASON—MR. JOHN EDGAR ACCEPTS THE POSITION.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society, held yesterday afternoon, a letter was read from Mr. Joseph Wearing tendering his resignation as secretary of the Society on account of pressure of business.

In expressing his regret at leaving, Mr. Wearing assured the society that his heart would always be with the organisation, and that if a solicitor-secretary could not be secured, he would be happy to carry on the duties of solicitor for the society.

On the motion of Mr. R. H. Parsons, seconded by Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, the resignation was accepted, and a vote of thanks was moved to him for the services he had rendered during the past five years.

On the motion of Dr. D. C. King, Mr. John Edgar was appointed secretary to fill Mr. Wearing's place, and was authorised to purchase an up-to-date minute book.

Committee Appointed.

A committee, consisting of the President, Dr. D. C. King, Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, Chief Thompson, and Mr. J. Edgar, was appointed to take up the matter of signing the Rogers contract for caretaker and matron of the Shelter. A copy of the contract was handed to Mr. Rogers to look into.

Inherited Tendency.

"I have stole again," an unhappy little ward of the society had wrote the agent from Toronto. "I have tried to fight the desire to steal, and pray and go to church and do my best. Please write my adopted mother and ask her not to send me away."

Mr. Powell, who read the letter to the society, explained that the child had an inherited tendency, and that bright prospects had been before the girl. In fact, the adopted mother had promised to leave $2,000 for her education in case she should not live to attend to the matter, but the mother had become exasperated, and had decided to send her back to the home. He will, however, endeavour to do something to rectify the unfortunate happening.

Monthly Reports.

Mr. Powell reported 4 applications for children, 46 involved 3 complaints, 3 investigations, 5 wards placed out, and 2 returned to the Shelter.

Members Present.

The members of the society present were: Rev. C. J. Phelan in the chair, Mesdames W. A. Sanderson, W. H. Gibbs, M. Kimberley, and W. R. Turner; Dr. King, Mr. J. Edgar and Mr. R. H. Parsons.

Would Bear Watching.

Dr. King advised the society that one mother who had been granted the care of her children, would bear watching, as her conduct had been far from above suspicion.

"She's too clever for the police," one member told the society.

CONVENTION PRICES TO BE $41 A PINT

Charge to be Made for Liquor When Politicians Meet in Chicago.

DETROIT, May 12.—Bootleggers, booze smugglers and other violators of Federal prohibition laws, who have defied Government agents in Detroit and Michigan will soon be populating prisons and contributing heavy fines to the United States Treasury.

This is the promise of Major A. V. Dalrmyple, Prohibition Enforcement Officer for the Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin district, who declared to-day that plans had been completed for the enforcement campaign calculated to put Detroit outlaws permanently out of business.

Because of its proximity to the Canadian border and opportunities for smuggling liquor across the river, Detroit requires special attention, Dalrymple said.

Major Dalrymple admitted it was true that liquor would be plentiful in Chicago during the Republican National Convention next month, but the "bell boys" at leading hotels had got together and decided that $41 a pint was the price they would charge thirsty delegates for supplying it.

He added that his agents had recently captured 50,000 bogus doctors' prescriptions for liquors in Chicago, and that he had learned that 20,000 were being prepared to take care of the convention business.

VICTIMS INCLUDED THREE CANADIANS

"BLUEBEARD" HARVEY ADMITS HE MURDERED NO LESS THAN EIGHT WIVES.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 12.—"Bluebeard" Harvey, or Watson, who had confessed to the murder of eight wives, was almost in a state of collapse when, his legs so wobbly that they almost refused to bear his weight, he was led into court to hear life sentence imposed.

Sitting hunched in a chair, his head bowed as if for the first time he was realizing the enormity of his crimes, the multi-wife murderer and arch-criminal listened white-faced as the court said:

"James P. Watson, I sentence you to San Quentin prison for the term of your natural life."

It was during this procedure previous to the actual passing of sentence that disclosure was made that "Bluebeard" had confessed to a total of eight wives whom he had murdered.

The murder for which he was sentenced was that of Nina Lee Deloney, whose mummified body he uncovered from a lonely grave several days ago at Coyote Wells, Cal.

The Canadian Women.

One of his victims, whose name heretofore was unrevealed, was Marie Austin, whom "Bluebeard" had confessed to beating to death with a rock, burying the body in Lake Couer d'Alene, Idaho.

In imposing sentence Judge Willie, of the Superior Court, characterized the arch-criminal's record as "the most heinous in the history of criminology."

The names of the three victims which had not before been revealed, but which "Bluebeard" disclosed during the third degree grilling, to which he was subjected, were:

Experience Saves Money in this Maxwell

THE 300,000 Maxwells built to date saves you many a worth while dollar in the new Post-War Maxwell. Those 300,000 saved in many ways.

1. They taught "short cuts" in manufacturing.
2. They eliminated all experimental work—you don't have to pay for a single engineering mistake.
3. They developed quantity production which has reduced "overhead."
4. They enabled quantity purchases; and better materials are bought at lower costs.
5. They taught now to build an almost trouble-proof car; you seldom take a Post-War Maxwell to a repair shop.
6. They taught how to get the most mileage out of a gallon of gasoline, a pint of oil and a set of tires.
7. They taught how to build a car that the less skilled driver would find simple to operate and take care of.
8. They taught that it was better to build more and take less profit per car rather than build less and take more profit per car.
9. They taught how to put more and more value in the car without increasing the cost.

This Post-War Maxwell is next year's car. It contains features developed during the war, many of which will find their way into other cars in the summer of 1920.

SAD ENDING TO WAR ROMANCE

MET BY INDIAN HUSBAND AT WIARTON.

WIARTON, May 12.—A pitiable aftermath of a war-time marriage in England has, if it is correctly reported, been brought to light here today. Early in the war Laurence Keeshig, a member of the Cape Croker Indian band, enlisted, went overseas and was wounded while on active service. While convalescing he became acquainted with a beautiful English maiden, and later, it is said, succeeded in having her go through a form of marriage with him.

Keeshig, who is a well-educated Indian, having graduated from the local High School, speaks English fluently, and is possessed of a personality that would make a favorable impression.

Late Saturday evening the English girl arrived here with a babe several months old. The latter is a beautiful, happy child, and apparently shows no trace of Indian ancestry, being of very blonde type. Keeshig met the couple at the train, and they have remained at a local hotel, not being taken to his home on the Indian Reserve for reason, it is allged, that at that point resides an Indian wife with two or three children, whom he left behind when he went overseas.

Just what will be the outcome of the situation cannot yet be conjectured, as the English girl is keeping her own counsel and says little or nothing to any townspeople. Her plight has aroused the sympathy of all, and any assistance that can be given her will be rendered with despatch. So far as can be ascertained, no officials of the law have been notified or received any instructions regarding the case.

It is rumored that the English girl has cabled to her family, who are said to be very well to do, and it is deemed probable that she may slip quietly away without causing any trouble to her erring Indian lover.

BUDGET WILL BE POSTPONED

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 11.—The Budget has been delayed. Official announcement was made last week that it would be presented to-morrow, but, to quote a high authority, it is "very doubtful" if the Budget will be brought down this week at all.

In all probability it will be submitted to the House next week.

This afternoon it is expected that Sir George Foster will announce the postponement until the arrival of Sir Robert Borden to-morrow, who will be afforded an opportunity of studying the proposals before its presentation to the House.

FOUR CONSTABLES KILLED IN IRELAND

Shot Down From Ambush While on Patrol Duty.

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, May 12.—Two constables of the Timoleague (Cork County) Police Station were shot dead on patrol duty yesterday by a party of men in ambush. At Bandon Sergeant Flynn was shot dead and another constable was wounded.

Police Sergeant McDonnell, belonging to the Cavan force, was shot dead Sunday night near his hut at Clonakilty, where on the night of March 31 he led his small garrison in a stubborn fight against a Sinn Fein attack.

SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu, Thin, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(By Dr. Valentine Mott.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.

TILLSONBURG, ONT.—"Ever since I can remember Dr. Pierce's medicines were used in our family at home and they never failed to give good results. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' was used as a tonic and blood purifier and for bronchial trouble and it proved excellent. I have personally taken it for bronchial trouble and the 'Favorite Prescription' to build me up when I was run-down and they were both very beneficial."—Mrs. CLIFFORD MITCHELL.

CHIEF MAY CANCEL POOLROOM LICENSES

Windsor Council Gives Him Authority, Following His Report of Misdoings.

WINDSOR, May 12.—Acting on a report from Chief of Police Wills, who stated that certain pool-rooms were guilty of violating the terms of their licenses, the City Council gave the Chief authority to cancel the licenses of pool-rooms not complying with by-laws governing their regulations unless they made good in two weeks.

Gambling is allowed in at least five pool-rooms, and patrons of these places, many of them youths under age, ogled women from the doorways, the Chief said.

PROTECTION BY PASTEURIZATION

Your Protection is in Pasteurization

Ask your milk dealer if he Pasteurizes his Milk, because only by this process can the deadly bacilli that lurk in the very cows themselves be destroyed.

"No raw milk should be given to children unless it is known to be produced under clean conditions. If such milk cannot be procured it should be Pasteurized. We guard with great care as we certainly should, our public water supplies, but disease germs do not multiply in water as they do in milk; in fact, cream and milk are very suitable media for the growth and rapid increase of many pathogenic germs."

Unless one knows, beyond question of a doubt that the cows are in perfect health, that every step in its handling is such that there can not be any infection, unless these requirements be met absolutely, use only properly PASTEURIZED MILK.

OUR MILK IS CLARIFIED AND PASTEURIZED.
Clarified is Clean—Pasteurized is Pure.
OUR MILK IS CLEAN, PURE AND SAFE.

"Peterborough Presents Possibilities Unsurpassed."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1920.

THAT SENATORSHIP.

An Ottawa report says that "a canvass in favour of Mr. J. H. Burnham's election to the Senate is meeting with support." The despatch fails to state where the canvass originated; if it had its origin among the electors of Mr. Burnham's riding the fact has been carefully concealed from the people of West Peterboro, who while they are willing that, Peterboro should be represented in the Senate, have not expressed any emphatic desire that Mr Burnham should be that representative. The Government, however, in an appointment of this kind, may not attach any weight to the opinion of Mr. Burnham's constituents, whether it be favorable to his selection or not. They may come to the conclusion that the talents of the member for West Peterboro can be more advantageously displayed in the Upper Chamber, and that as the press gallery as a rule pays little attention to the debates in the Senate, Mr. Burnham's somewhat peculiar views on different subjects will not be aired through the press to embarrass the Government. The Senate, despite the popular idea that it should be abolished, is not without its uses especially from the standpoint of the party in power. It gives them a chance to reward party friends as well as an opportunity to get rid of members whose eccentricities do not always make them a source of strength in the Lower House.

WHY IS IT?

There are some queer angles to the debate over daylight staving in different cities of Ontario where the matter is still under discussion. In Brampton recently the citizens held a mass meeting to consider the question of the local adoption of summer time, and after an animated discussion, it was decided to take no action because the merchants and business men of the town were opposed to daylight saving. And now the labour men are up in arms. They are circulating petitions asking that the new time be adopted, and they have been so largely signed that the Council has decided to re-open the matter. Here in Peterborough an exactly opposite condition of affairs prevailed. The manufacturers and merchants were in favour of daylight savings and the manufacturers' section of the Board of Trade sent a resolution to the City Council asking for its adoption. Everybody remembers what happened. The Trades and Labour Council, by an almost unanimous vote, condemned daylight saving. The difference in opinion between different sections of the population in Peterborough and Brampton is difficult to explain, unless it can be taken as proof of the contention that the labour interests will on principle oppose anything that the manufacturers and business men favour. In Brampton the business men did not want daylight saving, so labour starts an agitation for the new time; in Peterborough the manufacturers ask for summer time and labour immediately opens a barrage on the system. But after all the variety in opinion may be only a coincidence.

THE SUPERANNUATION BILL.

If the United Farmers want to kill the Ontario government and lose the prestige gained by their organization in the last campaign they have only to continue their interference with public affairs. The attempt of Secretary J J. Morrison of the U. F. O. to kill the civil service superannuation bill, an attempt that fortunately is not likely to prove successful, has caused a great deal of resentment and leaves the United Farmers open to the charge that they are opposed to any measures that are not of direct benefit to themselves. The charge made by Mr. Morrison that the bill is class legislation is ridiculous. Banks, railways, many industrial concerns have a superannuation fund for their employees. They know that it is good business; it ensures a superior class of employees and adds the element of permanency to the staff. And if it is good business for a private concern it is equally good business for the government. Ontario should have a better civil service as a result of this measure, for good men will be attracted to government work, knowing that some provision is being made to take care of them when their working days are over. That the bill will encourage laziness on the part of civic employees, as some of the farmers who object to the measure claim, is an illogical charge, for it should be understood that the civil service employees will contribute a large portion of the fund. Only in the case of the aged employees who are to be retired this year is the government proposing to pay the full amount of the superannuation allowance. The fund will eventually be practically self sustaining and far from being an incentive to laziness, it will prove an inspiration to the members of the civil service.

It is satisfactory to know that following a government caucus held yesterday afternoon the bill will be proceeded with, in spite of the protests of Secretary Morrison and his associates.

DAMAGE.

Is the problem of international exchange so difficult as it seems? Can it be reduced to simple terms? Can any light be thrown on the situation by forgetting for a moment the phraseology of finance and using schoolboy logic? Three men, A, B, and C, have farms close together. They are rivals in their business but they maintain a fair amount of respect for each other, and all are reasonably prosperous, one selling to another the thing he grows in abundance and taking in return the things for which his farm is not so suitable as his neighbor's. One day B and C quarrel and, as the farms are in a remote settlement where there is no recourse to law, B and C make raids on each other's farms. The hired men commence to kill each other. All the work on the farms is abandoned and the whole business of B is diverted to the annihilation of C, and all C's resources bent towards the destruction of B. The fight is about even and lasts for a long time. B finds that he is running short of food and other necessities, so he buys them from A who has gone on farming. Naturally, of course, A prospers and B and C decline. Finally A finds that though he is prosperous, the fight is annoying him considerably. Being a peaceable, God-fearing man, this struggle distresses him, and so he goes to the aid of B with his hired men and his machinery, and in a short time C acknowledges defeat. A claims that without him B could not have eliminated C, but B still holds that he had almost had C beaten when A came in. However, that is not the point under discussion. The three men recommence farming. B finds that his farm is in bad shape. He had used all the money he had in the bank and had borrowed extensively from A. He has been set back years in his business. He must have new machinery; he must pay off the money he owes to A. He must feed his men and clothe them until his business again starts paying. The inevitable result is that he borrows more money from A as A is the only person in the community who has any. "Well," says A, when this proposition is put up to him; "I'll let you have money, but you must pay a good deal more interest for it than you ever did before. You are up against it financially; your farm is all but bust up and your hired men are dissatisfied. Moreover some of your tenants at the outskirts of your farm seem to be getting a notion that they will take possession of the farms they occupy." "Look here," says B; "if that fellow C had slipped it over on me he would have had yours next. While I was fighting with C, I was protecting your property." "That's bunk," says A; "I dont' believe it. Anyway I didn't start the fight, and business is business. Your credit is not so good as it used to be with me. I'll give you credit but it will cost you five times as much as it ever did befoer." B has to have the credit and A is the only man who can extend it, so what does he do? He pays. Now if we let A represent the United States, B represent Great Britain and C Germany, do we not have the simple conditions which affect international exchange? While the allies were throwing away money, the United States was rescuing it. Inevitably the promise to pay of an allied country is not as valuable as the promise to pay of the United States. —Turner's Weekly.

Grip, Influenza

Hamlin's Wizard Oil a Reliable, Antiseptic Preventive

During influenza epidemics spray the nose and throat several times a day with one part Wizard Oil and two parts water, using an atomizer. If you haven't an atomizer, gargle the throat and snuff the mixture up the nose. This treatment sets up an antiseptic wall of defense against "Flu" germs.

Chest colds and sore throat lead to grip. Stop them at once with Wizard Oil before they can develop into dangerous influenza.

STARTLING FIGURES AT TIMBER PROBE

SPANISH RIVER CO. ONE YEAR PAID DIVIDEND OF HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO PER CENT.

SUDBURY, May 12.—The timber probe resumed at Sudbury this morning before the Riddell-Latchford commission. The best part of the day was taken up in a re-examination of officials of the Spanish River Lumber Company. B. W. Arnold of Albany, N.Y., president of the Spanish River Co., testified that in the last eight years his company had paid dividends of $1,185,000 on a capitalization of $200,000. Twenty-five per cent. had been the lowest dividend paid in any one year and 162 the highest. Asked if his firm had re-employed cullers since the commencement of the investigation, Manager W. J. Bell replied in the negative. J. A. Ferguson, superintendent of the woods operations for the same firm, admitted, however, that three cullers had been re-employed and two of these had been sent to points fifty or sixty miles away.

In the Wrong Berth.

Bush Foreman John Nash, also of the Spanish River Company, stated that during one season he had bossed operations on berth I., thinking that he was berths M. or N.

"It is possible that the company could return to the government all the logs cut on the dearer berth as having been cut on the cheaper berth without you knowing the difference?" asked Mr. Justice Riddell.

"Yes," replied the witness.

Today still more witnesses, employes of lumber companies, admitted having taken affadavits as to the accuracy of returns to the government without having verified the figures.

Indications are that the session will last the week here.

Voice Of The People

Editor of The Examiner.

Sir,—Permit me to express my gratitude to Mr. Frank Tattersall, choirmaster of St. Paul's Church, for the exquisite pleasure which I enjoyed last night at the recital given by him, assisted most ably by his choir. I have travelled almost all over the world and have heard the masters of the musical art, including the famous Paderewski, and believe me, sir, I have no reason to flatter Mr. Tattersall, as I am not a permanent resident of your city, but in my judgmnt Paderewski does not excel to any extent the wonderful talent displayed by Mr. Tattersall last evening. It was a very painful experience for me to have seen such art rendered to so small an audience, and at only fifty cents at that.

Evidently a prophet is not appreciated in his own city. In all probability, if Mr. Tattersall had had a foreign appendix to his name, he would have filled Massey Hall to standing room capacity.

Trusting you will find space for my humble expression of well-deserved praise for a man of real genius.—Yours truly, L. Joffe.

CASH PRIZES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

Cash prizes will again be offered by the Canadian Bankers' Association in co-operation with the Dominion Department of Agriculture to boys and girls who feed and exhibit pigs and calves at the local summer and fall fairs. Those eligible to compete for these prizes will do well to get in touch with the local branch bank manager at the earliest possible moment. No time should be lost in finding out all about these competitions. The importance of quick action is apparent, when it is understood that the caves and pig must be fed by the competitors for a period of at least six weeks before being exhibited. Full information and assistance will be cheerfully given by the branch bank managers in the vicinity of the local Fair.

PROVIDES $1,500,000 FOR HOUSE BUILDING

WINDSOR, May 11.—At a meeting here the City Council adopted the 1920 Housing Act of the Provincial Government, thereby releasing $1,500,000 for the construction of workingmen's homes in Windsor. It is expected the money will permit of the immediate construction of at least 300 houses. The houses may be built under two plans, one permitting lot owners to borrow as high as $4,500 at 6 per cent., to be repaid in twenty years or an alternative by which the completed house may be sold to the workingman for not more than $4,000 at 5 per cent. A resolution to pay the members of the Housing Commission a salary of $25 a month was defeated.

SAY BRITAIN LEADS IN GERMAN TRADE

FRENCH MERCHANTS FIND THAT GERMAN FACTORIES ARE TIED UP FOR LONG PERIODS.

PARIS.—That Great Britain has stolen a wide march on the United States and France in the resumption of business relations with Germany, is the opinion expressed by French merchants who have tried to buy goods across the Rhine.

In a great majority of cases, the merchants report, the German manufacturer replies to inquiries that his plant will be tied up for a long time to come by contracts with British customers.

An investigation based upon these reports is said to have developed the fact that the British are exporting great quantities of raw material to Germany, for which they are asking no payment in money, but are taking manufactured articles in exchange.

Germany now is getting her iron ore largely from Sweden under similar arrangement, making her almost entirely independent of France for raw materials. Having at the same time reopened her big outlet for manufactures elsewhere, Germany is also independent to a great extent as to her selling market, while France is anxious to get from her coal and agricultural implements which she can no longer buy in the United States without immense disadvantages due to the unfavorable exchange.

Belief is expressed in official circles that Germany is seeking to use this economic situation to bring pressure on France with a view to gaining concessions in the terms of the Versailles Treaty.

What little export business France has been able to do with Germany has been transacted under the greatest difficulties, the German buyers meeting all sorts of obstructions in obtaining import licenses for French goods, it is said.

The situation resulting from all these circumstances will be one of the first subjects raised at the approaching Franco-German conference at Paris. The French delegates, it is understood, will ask the Germans to show what they can do in the way of reciprocity before seriously considering German participation in the restoration of Northern France, plans for which, it is supposed, will be presented by the German delegates.

To Pay Small Accounts

where you may not wish to send personal cheques, use Bank Money Orders issued by The Merchants Bank.

This is a convenient way to settle newspaper and magazine subscriptions—to pay for goods ordered out of town—in fact, to send any amount up to $50 through the mails.

Bank Money Orders are easily secured—safe to send in a letter—will be replaced without extra charge, if lost or stolen—and can be cashed anywhere in Canada or United States at face value.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

UNGROUNDED SUSPICIONS.

CHAPTER CXX

I sometimes wonder if there is any one thing that gives a second wife the heart-ache that the presence of the first wife's picture does; the thought that it is still cherished? Perhaps if a woman were middle-aged, and so more sensible, not so easily swayed by her emotions, she jealousy of the dead as I had suffered in the first years of my marriage. But, day after day, year in and year out, to have to see the face of my predecessor gazing at me in what I fancied was anger, and sinister reflection that although I had HIM now she had HIM first—this would make any unpoised young woman unhappy.

I did not see Mrs. Graye in the lower part of the house. Everett had given me a message to her. And instead of sending for her, I went to her room—a very unusual thing for me to do, and one I always shall believe I was impelled to do that day by divine will.

"Why, Mrs. Graham, You should have sent Hetty for me," she exclaimed, offering me a chair. "Your ride has done you good. You look better."

I gave her Everett's message, then told her also if she were willing we would empty the trunks and drawers in the attic the next morning.

"I shall be very glad to help you. I have thought for a long time it was almost wicked to allow those beautiful materials to rot because of the time they had lain. Some of them will not be worth making over as it is. Mr. Graham told me of your very generous suggestion to send the best of them to young friends of yours."

"Yes —they will make good use of them," I answered absently. My eyes in roving about the room had lighted upon a large, square package encased in wood, standing in the corner.

"I have had the picture boxed to send away. The expressman promised to call this afternoon, but has not kept his word", she explained, following my glance

"What picture?"

"The first Mrs. Graham. She has a niece in Ohio—her only relative, I believe. Mr. Graham thought she might like the picture, even tho she had never seen the original. He asked my opinion and I agreed with him. It is an ornament aside from any sentiment connected with it."

"Why not send her the things in the attic also?" I asked, my spirits fairly bouyant with relief.

"She is very wealthy. She neither needs, or would wear them. I asked Mr. Graham the same question, you see."

"Then we'll get rid of them to-morrow."

As I dressed for dinner I would have been very happy but for the memory of that note. My mercurial spirits had arisen wildly when I found all my suspicions regarding the picture ungrounded; and had I been able to banish thought of the passionate love-words in that note I should have again felt the joy I had experienced the night of my home-coming when I first noticed the removal of the picture, added to all Everett had done for my comfort. As it was I surely was relieved, and when Everett came in he remarked upon by changed appearance.

"I shall insist that you go out more often, Sandra. You have the cars; use them. You are looking quite like yourself to-night Then he chatted so pleasantly with me that I almost forgot I had decided he did not love me because he had not said such wonderful things to me as he had to Leola.

It would seem that, as time passed and I found out one after another of my causes for jealousy disappear—found that they were under grounded—I would have become less suspicious. But in spite of repeated resolutions to that effect, no sooner would one cause be disposed of than another would immediately crop up and again make me miserable.

I have always pitied the jealous man or woman. I know by experience how often they suffer.

NEWS DESPATCHES

(Canadian Press.)

EL PALSO, Texas, May 11.— Activities of Carranza forces in the region about Tampico, which is itself in rebel hands, are causing the United States government considerable concern, according to a despatch from agents of Mexican revolutionists to agents of the movement here, received to-day. No details were contained in the message.

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 11.— Revolutionary government in Mexico will ask for immediate recognition by the American government.

PROTECTION FOR THE AMERICANS

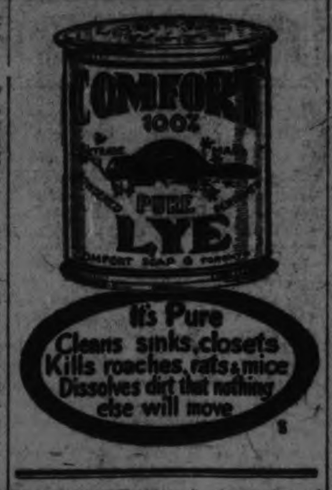
(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 11.—A resolution requesting President Wilson to send American warships and marines to Batum on the Black Sea to protect American lives and property at that port and along the railroad to Baku, was reported unanimously by the Senate Foreign Relations committee today.

HEAVY FIGHTING.

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, May 11. — Bolshevik forces are making a stand on the east bank of the Dnipeer in the region of Kiev, and an artillery battle is raging north and south of that city. Polish and Ukrainian troops found, when they reached Kiev, that two of the three bridegs across the Dnieper had been dynamited.



Faint and Dizzy Spells
Weakness and Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women becomes rundown and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—"I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."

SUGAR IS NINE CENTS, STEAK'S ONLY SIXTEEN, A "SOCIAL PARADISE"

There's No Rent Gouging, Either—Where? In Queensland.

NEW YORK, May 12.—"Ours is a real social paradise," declared Premier Edward Theodore, of Queensland, Australia, at the Labor Lyceum, Brooklyn, in referring to living conditions in his country.

"We have curbed the rent profiteer by passing adequate laws, and we are not troubled with exorbitant prices for sugar or meat. Sugar sells at 9 cents a pound and steak can be had for 16 cents," he declared.

"The Government owns all the grazing lands, the mines, and also operates the railroads. We have laws for the protection of widows and children and compensation laws for the employed."

TO-MORROW WILL BE ASCENSION DAY

Its Signification and Also Its Observance—Hail the Day That Sees Him Rise, Alleluia!

(Written for The Examiner by Frank Russell.)

To-morrow will be Ascension Day, which is one of the great festivals of the Anglican, the Greek and the Roman Churches—so it is common alike to all these three branches of the Catholic faith And why should it not be equally so to other denominations? For surely this is the day on which we commemorate the Ascension of our Blessed Lord and Saviour into Heaven whence He came in a mysterious manner, upon earth only some short thirty-three years before. Without the sacrifice of Calvary, on Good Friday, and the marvellous Resurection on Easter morn, there could have been no Ascension, and the Redemption would have been incomplete.

Alas! A Badly Observed Day.

And yet this is probably the least, one might say almost the worst, observed festival of the Christian Church. Why this should be so is hard to conjecture. Yet so it is, the fact remains. Nevertheless, this is one of the greatest festivals of the Church—the Church which has descended from the time of the Risen Lord.

Is the Neglect Selfishness?

Our general neglect of Ascension Day tells a bad tale; it shows us that our religion is tinged with selfishness. And the reason why this day appeals to so many of us in so small a degree is because we are apt—at least many of us are—to think that it has, in comparison with the other great events of our Lord's life, but little to do with our own benefit.

Half unconsciously we are inclined to think that since our Saviour has died and has risen from the dead, our share in His activities is therefore over; our personal interests in Him and His movements seem to have ceased.

A Jewel in the Crown.

But, after all, Ascensiontide is the topmost jewel in the Crown of our Redemption; it is our Lord's triumph. After all His suffering and pain for us, He goes back to His Father to recover His glory and receive His reward. Has this no claim upon us? Have we no homage to lay before those wounded feet and hands as they ascend, glowing with the scars of love, from the mountain in Bethany?

If we do not approach His Altar—lacking perhaps the opportunity—can we not at least go and praise Him and show our gratitude and love for all that He has done for us? For if He had not ascended into Heaven He could never have triumphed as the Founder and King of His Church.

Has It No Concern For Us.

If we neglect Ascensiontide, on the ground of its having no concern for us, we are indeed grievously mistaken; for Ascensiontide and Whitsuntide are closely linked together in their bearing on our worship, faith and needs. Ascensiontide marks the beginning of our Lord's High-priestly Intercession. "He passed into the Heavens," we are told, where "He ever liveth to make intercession for us," while Pentecost marks the descent of the Holy Ghost on the waiting Church, not only to enable her with His Seven-fold Gift and unnumbered graces, but bringing with Him our Lord's Divine Presence, and so fulfilling His words: "I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you again," and, again, "Lo! I am with you always."

What Is the Practical Bearing of the Ascension on our everyday life? Much every way, for our human nature is now before the Throne of God, since He who took it upon Him is now pleading for us full of "the feeling of our infirmity;" for an eternal value has been given to One who seemed so transient and mortal. We should realise this and believe it, and try to do our utmost to shape our lives upon it.

Therefore, this Ascensiontide, let us thank our Lord for His exceeding great love for us in taking upon Him our nature, and in it pleading for us to-day. Let us pray that His Church may be guided especially, into unity, and a clearer perception of the faith. For there never was a time when He was not God; and at His Ascension He did not cease to be man. This is what the Ascension has always meant.

At Saint John's Parish Church there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.30 a.m. and a Choral Evensong at 8 p.m.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

INSPECTED THE LAKEFIELD CADETS

BOYS MADE THE USUAL GOOD SHOWING.

LAKEFIELD, May 12.—The annual inspection of the Lakefield Cadets took place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Col. Gillespie, of Kingston, gave the boys credit for the good showing they made. The boys have been handicapped this year owing to the playground being too damp for drilling until very recently but in spite of that and the fact of the inspection being earlier than usual the corps made their friends very proud of them. The captain, Mr. Clayton Ridpath, and the lieutenants, Messrs. Roy Everett and Frank Erskine, and the section commanders, Messrs. Sherman MacIlmoyl and Jack Ridpath filled their places very capably. There were thirty-four cadets on parade, which is rather fewer than last year. It would be more encouraging if more of the parents were present at the annual inspection. After Col Gillespie's address the boys gave three cheers and a tiger for him and also for Mr. Simpson.

After the inspection some of the cadets had target practise with their rifles and some good scores were made. The highest number scored was 17, which was the score of Messrs. Roy Everett and George Sherin. Mr. Herman Branch had 15, Mr. Frank Graystock 14, and Mr. Clayton Ridpath 13.

FATHER HANGS YOUNG SON AND THEN SLAYS HIMSELF

(Canadian Press.)

LETHBRIDGE, May 12.—Murder and suicide in the most shocking double tragedy in the history of Cardston were committed on Saturday afternoon as a result of the deranged condition of George Leavett of that town. Leavett, after first hanging his son, Royce, aged nine, then hanged himself.

For some time Leavett's mind had been unbalanced, due it is believed, to the long illness of his wife. Early Saturday afternoon he wandered away, evidently coaxing his son Royce to go with him. Taking him to the fair grounds one and a half miles west of town, and some distance from any human habitation, the deranged man secured a roll of baling wire and succeeded in hanging his son and then hanged himself to a rafter under the grandstand.

On Saturday morning Leavett had told his wife he thought he should offer his son Royce, who was deaf and dumb, as a sacrifice, but this was the only indication of his rash intentions.

TWENTY GREEK OFFICERS SENTENCED TO PRISON

ATHENS, May 12.—General Libritis, Colonels Derleres and Karapatcas and Captain Kanabouvos, leaders in the plot against the life of Premier Venizelos last December, have been sentenced to life imprisonment by a court martial. Fifteen other officers received sentences of from 15 to 20 years in prison, and 24 suspected of complicity in the plot were acquitted.

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 Ottawa St., Hull, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again.

One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

CLERGY APPROVES STATE LIQUOR TRAFFIC CONTROL

KINGSTON, Jamaica, May 12. — A resolution has been adopted by a certain section of the clergy here accepting the Government's proposal for State control of the liquor traffic. Investigations recently made show that the exportation of liquor from Jamaica is on the increase, but the investigators have so far been unable to ascertain where it is going.

A REAL POTATO FAMINE IN THE VICINITY OF LAKEFIELD

FARMERS ARE UNABLE TO GET SUFFICENT TUBERS FOR SEED—LAKEFIELD COUNCIL MEETING.

LAKEFIELD, May 12.—The potato problem is a serious one in this location as the time for planting is here and the seed potatoes are not only an enormous price but are also very hard to get. A local man, who says he needs six bags of potatoes, has only been able to procure one bag and for that he had to go about thirty miles. Unless there is a break in the potato corner, (if such a thing really exists) there will be a serious situation this Spring and also for the next season.

Farmers Progressing.

The farmers have been taking advantage of the continued fine weather for their Spring seeding and are nearly through. Everything promises well and a warm rain would be a great help to growth.

Hydro Election.

Splendid progress is reported from the Hydro Commission. The poles are being rapidly put in and are already more than half way up. As the dark nights are once more with us the villagers will welcome the time when the streets, at least, will be lit up once more.

Council Meeting.

Minutes of a regular meeting of the Village Council held in the Council Chamber on Monday evening, May 10th.

Present: Recorder J. C. Strickland, Councillors Marling, Spence, Smith and Young.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

Mr. R. H. Alford addressed the Council re license for selling cigarettes, the license formerly being $50. After a great deal of discussion on the subject it was moved by Councillor Marling, seconded by Councillor Spence that By-law No. 412, be so amended as to fix the license for selling cigarettes, $5.00 to any merchant paying a business tax which was carried on the following vote: Yeas—Marling, Spence and Strickland; nays—Young.

A letter was read from Mr. N. A. Kearns re notices for tenders for the completion of the Memorial Hall.

A letter was also read from Mr. J. G. Boyle, secretary to the Ontario Minister of Public Works, re grant to Community Hall.

A Petition.

A petition was read from John Millage and eleven others asking the Council to open the drain between Regent and Rabbit streets from Mrs. Webster's lot to the river.

A petition was also read from Robt. J. Lennox, and from others, requesting that Dean street be repaired, and also the sidewalk be replanked. Mr. Lennox offering to do the work if the Council supplied the plank.

One or two other streets that needed repairs were spoken of when the Council decided to take next Friday morning to make a tour of inspection of the streets and sidewalks.

A letter was read from the Board of Trade, recommending a right-of-way for a rail track on part of Concession street.

Also that the dock between King street and Brown's Boat House be put in a state of repair for launches and other small motor craft.

Also asking for a better system of fire protection and expressing their confidence in the present Council for the manner in which they are endeavoring to bring the Memorial Hall to completion.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. J. H. Sherin received news on Sunday of the sudden death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. Edgar Rathbone at the Wellesly Hospital, Toronto.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

WIDOWS WILL GET ASSISTANCE FROM ONTARIO

IF BILL INTRODUCED BY HON. WALTER ROLLO PASSES LEGISLATURE.

TORONTO, May 12.—After July 1 of this year pensions for widows with two or more children will be a reality in Ontario, if Hon. Walter Rollo's Mothers' Allowances Bill, introduced into the Legislature passes the House at its present sitting. As with the Minimum Wage Board, two of the members of the Commission will be women, and five persons who will constitute the Commission will serve without remuneration.

In the act as introduced there are no figures showing the extent of pensions to be given. This is apparently left to the Board. It will decide the amount of assistance to be given.

Besides widows, the act extends its benefits to the family of a man who is an inmate of an insane asylum, or of a man who is permanently disabled and incapable of contributing to the support of his family. There are stipulations as to residence in Canada and Ontario, and the act, as at present introduced, limits its scope to mothers with "two or more of her own children" under fourteen years of age and has not adequate means to care properly for them without the assistance of allowance under this act."

Residential Rules.

The residential regulations state that the mother must be resident in Canada at the time of the death or total disability of the father and for a period of three years immediately prior to the application for an allowance, and who was a resident of Ontario at the time application for allowance is made, and for two years prior thereto. She must stay in Ontario while in receipt of such allowance, must be a British subject by birth, or the wife of a British subject, and a fit and proper person to have the custody of her children.

The widest powers of investigation and administration of the fund, including the right to declare the amount of the monthly allowance, are to be conferred on the Commission. The cost is to be borne jointly by the Province and the municipality in which the pensioner is a resident, except in judicial districts outside of cities, where the Province will bear the whole cost.

Mode of Distribution.

In brief explanation to the members of the House, Hon. Mr. Rollo explained that the allowances would be distributed through local Commissioners acting under the general direction of a Provincial Board. He believed a greater degree of care would be exercised locally if the municipalities bore a part of the burden. It was not the intention of the Government to include stated amounts as pensions, but to see what the family in need of pension had sufficient to prevent them from being in want.

The legislation follows very closely the suggestions laid down by Dr. W. Av Riddell, Deputy Minister of Labor, in his recent report to the Government on mothers' allowances.

"I consider myself quite an expert agriculturalist," modestly boasted the backyard farmer. "I can identify cabbage and turnips when I see them in the market."

THE PETERBORO BAND QUESTION

The Editor the Examiner:

Sir,—A few remarks from myself may not be out of place in the public press of this city with reference to the band question. So after a careful study of the situation, looking at every angle that it presents, I submit the following:

Some say we ought to have a purely citizens' band, free from any military or society regulations, governed and maintained by a set of by-laws and financed by the city.

This I agree with if it were possible and could see any liklihood of permanency, where there would be an open field with none of the other bands to conflict with.

Take for instance, the Waterloo-Preston Musical Society Band This is an organization kept up by the whole district, financed by a membership ticket and a grant of $1200.00 per year. This band is one of the best in the province and has been such for upwards of forty years, and connected with no other society or military organization in the locality. This could be attempted here, but would it be permanent, with already a regimental band here, and likely two of them (if present enthusiasm can be depended on), striving for existence. The band I have mentioned is controlled and financed by a commission, services given gratis. This commission I would have outside of the performers, entirely, and if such plan could be adopted I would most heartily endorse.

But as conditions are here at present and with the experience of the past to review, and summing it all up as a guidance in arriving at a conclusion for the future. Now a great many of our citizens are not familiar with past conditions, (some may say, "let the past go," but we must not ignore the last, even if we are changed somewhat from the effects of the great war, as human nature is the same to-day), and for their benefit I will briefly give a few facts.

Within the past thirty years several bands have been instituted here, each with just as much enthusiasm and ambition as is exhibited to-day. First we had a citizens' band, made up of men which withdrew from the fire brigade band, and making up a strong membership. They got a grant, procured instruments and uniforms, lasted a short time and evaportaed.

Second. The Sons of England undertook to get into the musical field of operation. Secured the services of Mr. Finch Millar as bandmaster. This organization had a strong local society behind it; a free hall, uniforms, and instruments Where is that band to-day? It disappeared mysteriously.

Third. The T.A.S. Society, a very strong organization, took up musical ideas, engaged a bandmaster, spent $600.00 on instruments, etc. Not a vestige of the band is left.

I could go on and name and instance others, but what I have instanced ought to be sufficient to arrive at a conclusion, especially with the past, present and future before us in surveying the whole field and taking in the whole province as such, what do we see.

The many good bands that have stood up for forty years or more, namely the 13th of Hamilton, 19th of St. Catharines, 7th of London, the Queen's Own Rifles, 10th Royal Grenadiers, 48th Highlanders, the Ottawa Guard, P. W. O. Rifles, Kingston, and Peterborough Rangers, many of which have splendid reputations. What is the secret of their success? It is discipline and military organization, Government supervision and partial financial support.

As I view the question as it stands to-day, with scarcely a hope of all coming in together to form one really good band, yet I would strive to have such accomplished if all would only lay aside little petty jealousies, which will result in no good whatever. With the object in view I am satisfied that the stand I have taken is the one which wihtout any prejudice to any other—one grant, one band, and that is the Peterborough Rangers, which has stood on one solid foundation for upwards of forty years, and which has still room enough to accommodate all who wish to further the object sought for by the writer and have a most promising future.

May I add the following, to make my position clear. I am not opposed to the Great War Veterans' organization and I have not forgotten the promises we have made to the soldier before he went overseas and what we are willing to do for him now that he has come home victorious. Any promises, that we have made will be, so far as I am concerned and within my ability, will be kept. But in taking the position as I do in regard to this band matter I am only discharging my duty to the people as a servant of the people whom I have sworn to serve to the best of my ability. I will not vary from my position for any creed or society whatever. And I will carry this out no matter what the consequences to myself from a municipal point of view.

Yours respectfully,
JOSEPH CROWE.

HAD ECZEMA For Over 28 Years

Eczema or Salt Rheum manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust is formed, and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat is almost unbearable.

The success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in skin diseases of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties, and we know of no other remedy that has done or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Mr. James Walker, 152 Niagara St., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I have been using Burdock Blood Bitters for some months past, and find it an excellent remedy for skin eruptions. I have suffered with eczema for over 28 years, and have tried almost everything you could think of. I was recommended use Burdock Blood Bitters, and I am now clear of my skin trouble. It is certainly a good remedy and I shall recommend it to all my friends."

CLAIMS THEATRE QUEUE INJURES HIS BUSINESS

Halifax Grocer Sues Playhouse for Obstructing His Doorway.

Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, May 12.—In the Supreme Court yesterday the first case of the Maritime list was heard. It is the case of the Strand Theatre Company v. Cahill & Company. It is an appeal from the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia reversing the judgment of the Trial Judge and maintaining the respondents plaintiffs action.

The appellant operates a theatre in Halifax, and the respondent conducts a grocery shop adjoining it. In order to obtain seats for the nine o'clock performance at night, the patrons are present some time before the doors pen, and form a queue on the sidewalk. The respondent claim that these queues obstruct the access to his premises, and thus cause injury to his trade. The appellant claims that it is doing everything in its power to minimize the inconvenience to the plaintiff, and that it has placed the matter in the hands of the city police, with instructions to spare no effort or expense in that behalf. Judgment was reserved.

DENOUNCES THE DIVORCE COURTS

STIRRING ADDRESS AT OPENING OF SYNOD MEETING.

(Canadian Press.)

BRANTFORD, May 4.—Denunciation of Divorce Courts for Ontario and of extreme radicalism were features of the charge of Bishop David Williams of Huron, delivered at the annual meeting of the Synod of Huron here to-day. Bishop Williams recommended that the church maintain its present stand in relation to divorce and marriage of divorce people. He believed the establishment of divorce court in Ontario would be calamity of just magnitude to extend the causes of divorce.

Bolshevism in Canada, or in any other country would mean establishment of brutal tyranny. Such forces as extreme radicalism were to be combatted very forcefully by the church, Bishop Williams speaking of need of clergy recommended that minimum stipends for junior clerics be $1,200 and $1,400 for senior clergy.

ROBT. GARRETT'S BODY FOUND IN MOIRA LAKE

Wife Died Some Months Ago And He Became Depressed.

BELLEVILLE, May 11.—The body of Robert Garrett, aged about forty, was recovered yesterday from Moira Lake, near Madoc village. Mr. Garrett had disappeared on Saturday from Madoc, and it was felt that he might have wandered away. The discovery of his hat at the lake led to the search af the waters. He was a member of the staff of the T. Eaton Company, Toronto, and several months ago lost his wife, who died of sleeping sickness, leaving him with four small children. He became depressed, and had been staying of late in Madoc. The remains were to-day taken to Toronto for burial. Mr. Garrett was for many years in the employ of McIntosh Bros. here.

May is Progressive Month at the Cressman Store

Summertime Frocks of Voile and Organdie Gloriously Cool and Beautifully Patterned

The Braker Box on An Automobile Contains Tiny Platinum Points

that are scarcely discernable with the naked eye. These tiny points must be accurately set, for much depends upon them. If they are out the smallest fraction of an inch, all the other parts, no matter how large or seemingly important, cannot be set in motion.

In merchandising, we consider that much depends on small purchases. The buyer of a spool of thread is entitled to the same attention as the purchaser of the largest article in our Store.

The Cressman Co., Ltd.

We have sold many already and have bought and received many more to replace them. They are passing out from our stock every day and await the warm breath of early summer—that is not far distant—to permit them to show their beauty on the street, at the garden party, lake shore or dance.

Often they are touched with ribbon and more often they are frilled with lace or the material itself, and in nearly every instance the sleeves are short.

This smock dress is of light coloured voile in a clouded pattern that is a harmony of many shades—blue and green in particular. The yoke has two little insert darts of val. lace and all the edges are piped with plain blue. It promises to be not only an attractive garment but a cool one. Priced at $20.00.

An English voile with a Saxe blue ground strewn with pink flowers and scrolls of white results in a very charming frock. The blouse is the popular, novelty monkey effect. Over each hip is a series of three frills edged with blue satin ribbon and the round yoke is finished in a like manner. The price is $23.00

Very quaint is a dress of gray with a black and rose stripes and rose floral patterns. All the edges are bound with black satin ribbon and the girdle is the same in a two-inch width. The left side is decorated with an inset pleat and the edges are finished with ribbon. The sleeves are short. It greatly resembles an old-fashioned gown in pattern and trimming. Priced at $35.00.

Saxe blue voile with an interlocking gold ring design supplies the material for this model. Its lines are straight and the skirt has a series of three frills of the material itself. A very narrow blue velvet ribbon encircles the waist and the collar is of white organdie in bib style and the cuffs correspond. Priced at $27.00.

So foreign in appearance that one would take it for an imported model is this number with its overskirt of light grey voile, with hand-embroidered American beauty dots. The lower portion is of organdies and the sleeves are of the same. A wide girdle of taffeta silk with a floral garniture on the side completes the waist. It is priced at $42.00.

This frock would be glorious even without its decorations. The color and material alone are beautiful. It is pink organdie and has innumerable hand embroidered coin dots of white. The blouse is full and garnished with a fichu collar of net and lace and a vest of lace. The girdle is of the material and terminates with a bow and sash at the back. A nine-inch flange at the bottom is topped with a row of val. lace. The price is $33.75.

She who favours Mauve and White will be captivated with this model. The pattern is an all-over effect of Mauve rings and the Skirt is frilled over the hips and tapers down to a point in both the back and the front. The waist is a tie Blouse effect, and has a bow at the back and the neck is edged with pleated Net Frilling. Priced at $17.50.

This number is of White English Voile, and has a baby waist and kimona sleeves. Short Peplums hang over each hip, and the waist is encircled with four straps of White Lace, with the loose ends at the back and suspending white crochet buttons. Lace Insertion is used to advantage on the Skirt and Blouse, and the neck and sleeves are run with Pink Baby Ribbon. Price $22.75.

MR. TATTERSALL'S RECITAL

The ultimate event of Peterboro's musical season was Mr. Frank Tattersall's piano recital in St. Paul's church last night. Not in a long time have the faithful and appreciative concert-goers of this city been so manifestly and markedly impressed as they were by the sheer brilliance of Mr. Tattersall's performance. They had awaited it expectantly and a little impatiently, and they were abundantly rewarded. But referring to their numbers it may be observed that if this audience were the measure of Peterboro's appreciation of enduring or classical music, to use the term which seems to repel so many, then this city does not deserve the presence of an exemplar of the art with the talents, the abilities and the rank of Mr. Tattersall. The several hundred persons should have been multiplied to the capacity of church, and at least there should not have been quite so many vacant pews to reproach a community that complacently believes it is making progress in music from such evidently erroneous signs as the annual number of students trying examinations, the summer crowds in the parks or other manifestations of seeming interest. Pianists have been heard here as accomplished as Mr. Tattersall, but when they did come infrequently it was for single engagements. The conductor of St. Paul's choir has been a very welcome resident for some time, and while those who realize his attainments are proud that Peterboro can make that claim to him, it is to be regretted that there were not as many real music-lovers to hear him as are counted at light miscellaneous concerts.

This discursion must not convey the least suggestion of unsuccess about last night's concert. Mr. Tattersall was in excellent form, and the appreciation of his audience was demonstrated by insistent recalls and by a very noticeable reluctance to accept the last encore as final. In a comparatively arid season Mr. Tattersall's recital was like the shadow of a great rock in a weary land at least to those who attended it, and while the congregation of St. Paul's are to be envied of Mr. Tattersall it is hoped that the general public will quickly become aware that in a sense he belongs to them too.

To do justice to the recital even expedient superlatives would be inadequate and would tend to mock the effort to convey an impression of the excellence of Mr. Tattersall's work.

The programme opened with Rachmaninoff's prelude in C sharp minor, and included the "Polka de la Reine" by Raff, exquisitely played, but was otherwise devoted to Chopin and Liszt. In these major groups Mr. Tattersall's talents and acquirements were displayed to the fullest advantage, and his exposition of the ideas was so lucid and revealing that, with the thoughtful assistance of the annotations in the printed programme it must have been comprehended by every member of the audience. To those who find in Liszt endless and unfading delights, his four Etudes and two Legendes were particularly acceptable. In the latter especially Mr. Tattersall presented an impressive contrast, both scenic and tonal, that exhibited the pianist's powers in spite of the limitations of his instrument. The first number of this group was "St. Francis Preaching to the Birds" and the second "St. Francis Walking on the Waters". In the garden scene the whole picture of foliage and singing birds was amplified in the treble, forming a backing ground for the oratory, in the middle of the keyboard, that broke in upon the trills and flute notes that poured from the trees of fancy. It was a beautiful meditative theme interpreted by a master hand, but no less impressive than its companion piece whose first few bars suggested the wash of unruffled waves that gradually swelled and boomed with a sullenness that was vividly sounded in sweeping passages in the bass. Here the left hand created the illusion or setting while the right filled in the scene with the lulling of the storm and the peaceful ending. It was as dynmaic and dramatic as the other was pastoral and contemplative, and Mr. Tattersall swept his audience off from the June garden of a monastery to the stormy seaside under the magic spell of his music that overwhelmed the imagination by its persuasiveness.

So thorough is Mr. Tattersall's musicianship that it is difficult to recall one phase that might be regarded as predominant. His technique so commanded the difficulties with which his programme was replete that it was positively fascinating, although in no sense did it intrude upon the flowing music. The clarity of tone never faltered, even in the most rapid bravura effects. Touch and pedal combined with an exactness that admitted no indistinctness when the notes poured in torrents and in both forte and piano effects. Mr. Tattersall's wrist action is wonderfully developed, and unites flexibility and amazing strength. In a word, Mr. Tattersall carried off his recital of standard pianoforte works with the aplomb of the fine artiste he is, and without any undue intrusion of himself. His audience last night went away with a feeling of indebtedness to him for the privilege of enjoying his art and a few of the beauties of two master-composers for the pianoforte.

The Etudes also caught the spirit of Liszt and sparkled with his strange forms and ideas. They were wholly flawless with the Notes making a particularly strong appeal to the audience.

The Chopin group was equally impressive. The three movements coming early in the programme gave the first emphasis to the Mr. Tattersall's skill, the range of his abilities, his insight and depth of feeling. His chords and pedalling was always remarkable, his left hand is as facile as the right; but his technical requirements need not be enumerated. His tone and rythmns were features some what apart from technique, though dependant upon it. The recurring motif in the Prelude in D. flat major, and in the C sharp minor polonaise was of compelling beauty, pure and clear. Of the scherzo its mood graphically set out in the programme is worth recalling for the truth of the testimony not only to the composer's genius, but also to Mr. Tattersall's interpretation and expression:—

"Chopin wrote four scherzos, but the most dramatic is the one in C sharp minor, Sneerng, jesting laughing, playing, it vaunts its successive humors in bewildering rapidity; now savagely triumphant, now horribly sarcastic, now suavely enchanting, now humbly murmuring in the chief section; and anon in the Trio a chorale is uplifted from the hearts om humanity below, whilst the angelic hosts above accompany it with a faint murmuring of their celestial harps—a mortal and immortal song in a duet of earnest and beautiful significance. Apart from the pianistic effects with which it teems—the fiery octaves succeded by discontented murmurings the alternations of solemn chords in the rich lower tones of pianoforte and broken ripling passages in the highest part, the sweeping clouds of vapoury arpeggios, the satisfying chords for the right hand announcing the re-appearance of the Trio theme accompanied by prophetic troubled notes in the bass—apart from all these things, it contains an energy so resistless, a triumph so confident, and vindicates an existence so reasonable as at once to demand for itself a pinnacle in the Art world."

Mr. Tattersall was assisted by the choir of St. Paul's which contributed four numbers, every one of them well delivered. The chorus "Martyrs of the Arena" was deserving of special mention as was Gounod's anthem "Come With Him."

OLD GUNBOAT NOT EAGER TO TACKLE JACK JOHNSON

NEW YORK, May 12.—Gunboat Smith is the latest to be offered a battle with Jack Johnson across the Mexican line. The veteran Gunboat is not so anxious now to mingle with the big black as he was when Johnson held the title, and he was the foremost white hope.

Smith has not declined the offer definitely, but he wants more money than the promoters care to offer. Johnson is training daily, and pretends he is as formidable as ever, but those who have looked him over have not been greatly impresed.

CAPTAIN EARNEST HILL, of Portland, Me., who says he was not able to report for duty before taking Tanlac. Declares he feels like a new man now and is on deck every day ready for work.

"I feel just like a new man since I began taking Tanlac and I am not only willing, but I am anxious to tell other people what this medicine has done for me," said Captain Earnest H. Hill, Portland, Me., recently.

Captain Hill is in command of the Ben Hur, plying between Portland and Casco Bay. He has been in the service for ten years and is held in high regard as an officer and citizen by all who know him.

"I have suffered from indigestion and stomach troube for the past eight years," continued Captain Hill, "and at the time I started taking Tanlac I was in such a weakened condition I could hardly stand up. When I walked I would actually stagger like a drunken man and at times, would have to hold on to something to keep from falling. After every meal I would simply suffer torment. My food would sour and I would swell up so with gas I could hardly get my breath.

I would also have awful smothering spells at night and sometimes I would have to get up to get my breath. Lots of times I would have to open the windows and doors to let in fresh air or go out into the open air in order to get my breath. I could not find anything to do me any good and along toward the last I became so weak and nervous I could not do my work.

"Five bottles of Tanlac have made a wonderful change in my condition. It helped me from the very first dose and now I feel as good as I did when I would also have awful smother- and have a fine appetite and just feel like a new man in every way. I am now able to be on deck every day ready for duty."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gobles by J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Fruzzle & Son.

MINIMUM WAGE BOARD WITH SWEEPING POWERS PROPOSED

GOVERNMENT INTRODUCES BILL IN LEGISLATURE TO REGULATE WOMEN'S AND GIRLS' PAY—EMPLOYERS MUST FURNISH ALL NEEDED INFORMATION—FIVE COMMISSIONERS TO BE APPOINTED.

TORONTO, May 12.—A bill to provide for a minimum wage board with power to regulate in certain cases the minimum wages of women and girls, was introduced in the Legislature by Hon. Mr. Rollo, minister of labor. Among the main provisions of the measure is one for the establishment of a board of five, two of whom shall be women, to be known as the Minimum Wage Board.

The chairman is to be appointed by the lieutenant-governor-in-council and of the remaining members of the Board two shall be appointed, in the first instance, for one year and two for two years and every member subsequently appointed shall receive a five-year term.

The members of the Board shall serve without remuneration, but will be allowed a per diem allowance to be payable to the members on their attendance at meetings. In addition to this, they will be given travelling and living expenses.

Special Appropriation.

The expenses of the board shall be paid out of moneys appropriated for the purpose by the legislature.

Where it is made to appear to the board that the scale of wages or the method of determining the same, payable to any class of employes, is inadequate or unfair, the Board, may upon request, direct a conference between representatives of employers and employes in the class of employment in question for the purpose of reaching an agreement and recommending to the board minimum wages to be payable in that class of employment.

The board may appoint, in writing, the representative as above, or may provide for the selecion of such representatives by the employers and employes, respectively, but every conference shall consist of an equal number of representatives of employers and employes, respectively.

The board shall have authority to conduct such investigations as it may deem necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the conditions prevailing in any class of employment, and the scale of wages payable therefor, and for this purpose shall possess all powers that may be conferred upon a commissioner under the public enquiries act.

After due enquiry, the board may establish a minimum wage for employes in any trade, occupation or calling in Ontario, but a wage lower than the minimum wage may also be established by the board for employes classified as handicapped, or part-time employes, or as apprentices.

May Demand Information.

It is also provided that the lieutenant-governor-in-council may require employers to furnish information as to names, ages and places of residence of all employes, and such other information respecting the hours of labor and conditions of employment as may be deemed necessary for the proper carrying out of the objects of the act. He may also require them to define and limit the number of handicapped employes, part-time employes and apprentices, to whom a wage lower than the minimum fixed by the board may be payable by any employer.

Provides Severe Punishment.

Every employer who contravenes an order of the board by the payment of wages of less amount than that fixed by the board shall be fined not less than $50 for each employe concerned, and not more than $500, and shall, in addition, be ordered to pay such employe the difference between the wages actually received and the minimum wage fixed by the board. In default of payment of such penalty, imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months and not less than two is provided.

JUST ONE DAY WILL DO IT

IT IS ALWAYS WISE TO LOOK AFTER A BACKACHE—IT MAY MEAN SOMETHING SERIOUS.

People who have been suffering from backache, kidney trouble, rheumatic ailments, are sometimes under the impression that they will continue to suffer from these ailments and will be unable to obtain relief. Headache, nervousness, soreness in the bones and limbs are frequently caused by poisonous gases being absorbed into the system, and the kidneys are overtaxed in their effort to expel these gases. Dr. Banta's Kidney and Rheumatic Pills will prevent the formation of these poisonous gases, and are highly recommended for kidney troubles, rheumatic ailments or any other disease arising from a disorderly condition of the kidneys. The manufacturers are so confident that these pills will do what we claim for them that your dealer is authorized to refund your money if they do not give you satisfaction. Will you try them and be convinced? They are sold by one reliable dealer in each county. Sold in Peterborough at Lynch's Drug Store. Price 50c. Mail orders attended to promptly. 168 Hunter street.

WHERE TWO WAYS MET.

Mark IV.

"Whe.: two ways met," I stood the day,
With douots and fears beset,
And know not which should be my way,
If this or that would lead astray—
Where two roads met.

"Where two roads met," I voiced a prayer,
My eyes with tears were wet,
My heart was heavy with its care—
My hopes and fears were centred there,
Where two ways met.

"Where two ways met," I saw the Christ,
The vision lingers yet,
His look of love my heart sufficed,
We kept the while a sacred tryst,
Where two ways met.

Mr. MacNab, local agent of the G. T.R. did not know what effect the taking over of the G.T.R. by the government would have as far as the local division was concerned, when questioned on the subject to-day

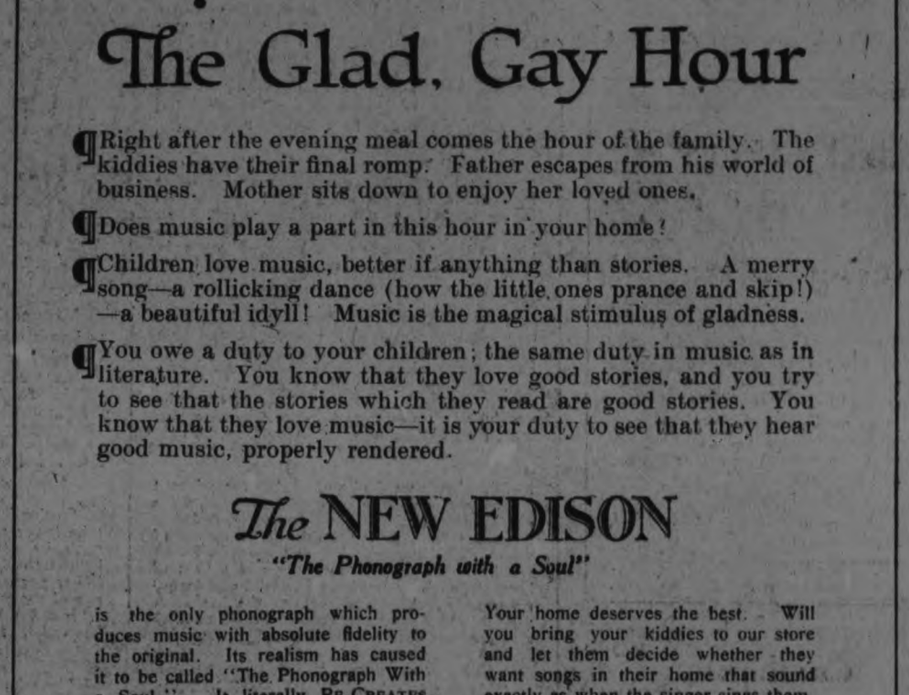
He stated that he hoped they would call it the Canadian National Railways and eliminate any confusion if the old name was retained Mr. MacNab thought the whole system of National Railways should have only one recognized name and not half a dozen as at present.

HAVE MOVED TO NEW QUARTERS

The Peterboro Canadian Order of Foresters have moved from their old quarters in the Snowden Building, on Simcoe street, which they have occupied for thirty years, to the hall above Potvin's store on George St. It was not that they wanted to leave but that they had to that caused them to vacate their old hall, but in the new they expect to carry on as successfully as ever.

On Friday night their first meeting was held there but soon the dedication of the new hall will take place with full ceremony.

Much pleated organdie appears on dresses of other materials.



The Glad, Gay Hour

¶Children love music, better if anything than stories. A merry song—a rollicking dance (how the little ones prance and skip!) —a beautiful idyll! Music is the magical stimulus of gladness.

¶You owe a duty to your children; the same duty in music as in literature. You know that they love good stories, and you try to see that the stories which they read are good stories. You know that they love music—it is your duty to see that they hear good music, properly rendered.

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

is the only phonograph which produces music with absolute fidelity to the original. Its realism has caused it to be called "The Phonograph With a Soul." It literally RE-CREATES music, and Mr. Edison has the exclusive right to use the word RE-CREATION in connection with the reproduction of music.

The New Edison does not distort music; it does not give a wrong conception of music. On the contrary, it gives you and your children everything there is in music.

Your home deserves the best. Will you bring your kiddies to our store and let them decide whether they want songs in their home that sound exactly as when the singer sings them, or whether they want songs as no singer would sing them? It will be interesting to note how quickly your children will observe the difference between the New Edison and talking machines.

Please remember that the instrument which your kiddies select can be paid for on convenient terms.

THROWN FROM LOAD OF WOOD

Thomas Parrington ,son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Parrington, 339 Aylmer street, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon at about five o'clock when the team he was driving, took took fright in front of Ackerman's harness factory, George street, and threw him from his seat on the front of the load of wood he was hauling to the cement road, the rear wheels passing over his body. The boy was picked up, Dr. J. M. McCulloch called, and taken to Nicholls Hospital, where he underwent an ex-ray examination to-day. The injured boy returned recently from overseas.

SPORTING NEWS, VIEWS AND GOSSIP

THREE GAMES PLAYED LAST NIGHT IN PUBLIC SCHOOL JUNIOR SERIES

QUEEN ALEXANDRA, QUEEN MARY AND CENTRAL SCHOOLS EACH WON A GAME—SPORT COMMENT.

Games in the junior series of the Public School baseball league, played yesterday afternoon, brought victories to the teams representing Queen Alexandra, Queen Mary and the Central Schools. Ald. Frank Whitehouse and Mr. Myles Hamilton, were interested spectators of the Queen-Alexandra-King Edward game, the lads from the north winning the contest by a score of 19 to 4. With an advantage in stature, the Queen Alexandra boys excelled in long distance hitting. Their smaller opponents how ever never gave up trying.

Queen Mary team defeated King George nine by 36 runs to 11, and the Centrals won their game with South Centrals by 22 to 8. South Centrals won the junior honors last season.

Ladies Baseball.

Peterboro will receive a visit from the All-American Ladies Baseball Club of Chicago. If Jake Solomon can make the necessary arrangements a date will be arranged. The club is gathering information to be used in routing the team this summer. The advance notice places considerable emphasis on the tatement that the ladies can play ball.

Umpire Question.

The important question of umpires must be dealt with at the City League ball meeting in the Empress Hotel to-night. Alex. Kay did most of the work last season, and made a good job of it, but he is not anxious to repeat. Much of his spare time will be taken up with the Central League, but an effort should be made to retain him for service at his convenience. Good umpires are a luxury, but in this case the situation doesn't call for economy.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Ed. Dugan, the peppery infielder of the De Laval crowd, will play with the Veterans, in the City League.

J. J. Turner and Sons are re-painting the score board at the ball lot.

Canadian Generals will show their goods at the Riverside Park this evening. A stiff work out is on the card, in preparation for the opening game on Saturday.

Babe Ruth also played in the Chicago-New York game yesterday, the American league walloper hitting out two home runs and a triple.

An attendance of 2200 saw Hamilton lose to Flint by the score of 5 to 1 in ten innings. London won and Kitcheer lost to the champion Saginaw team.

40,000 U.S. LAND SREKERS COMING

CANADIAN WEST TO RECEIVE GREAT INFLUX—35,000 BUYERS.

WINNIPEG, May 11.—Forty thousand landseekers, 35,000 of whom will become settlers, will come from the United States through Winipeg during the next three months, according to estimates given a correspondent to-day, by dealers in Western land.

Beginning next week, the rush of land hunters will continue throughout the summer at the rate of about 10,00 monthly, for May, June, July, and August. The invasion has been held back by land agents until spring had fairly set in. Fair weather was the past week has put the roads in good shape, so that the first wave will be released at once.

"Judging from actual experience, I put the figure of prospects who decide to buy in Canada at 90 per cent.," said L. A. Walsh, president of the Walsh Land Company. "We never have had so many inquiries as this season. I believe 40,000 is a conservative estimate of the number of land seekers who will come from the United States this summer. And, if 40,000 come, 35,000 of them will buy.

"American settlers, drawn from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Illinois, and other northern and central states, are flowing into Canada because of the high rents asked for American farm lands. With the money, a farmer pays as rent for one year on a high-priced American farm, he can pay the first instalment on a farm of his own in Canada, and in three or four years, paying sums no greater than his yearly rent, he will be the owner of a farm in a choice locality.

"It is a proposition that is coming home to renters in the United States," Mr. Walsh declared. "They have realised this for some years, but the war naturally has discouraged migration. This year there is nothing to stop them, and they are going to come in great numbers, numbers from 30 to 50 per cent. greater than for many years past."

NORMALITES WON BASEBALL FIXTURE

The Normalities and the Examiner clashed yesterday afternoon in a bush league fixture at Nicholls Oval The Normal school battery was represented by Hutchinson and Spry and the star player for the Examiner was pitcher F. Scates who finished the game with sixteen strike outs to his credit. The catching end of the Examiner aggregation was woefully weak. The score was 8-5 in favour of the budding pedagogues. The result of this game might help to bolster up the courage of the Review. The latest proposal from the Review camp is to select from the two organization an all star team and challenge other teams throughout the city. The Examiner team will not fall for this suggestion and if the Review baseball team think they can sidestep the issue in this manner they have another think coming. The examiner could be defeated by every team in the city and still have a good enough team to trim the Review outfit who to date have played all their games on paper.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

C.G.E. AND DE LAVAL PLAY TO-MORROW NIGHT—WHERE DID ALL THE FOOTBALL TROPHIES GO?—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A good game of football is promised the enthusiasts to-morrow evening at the Exhibition grounds, commencing at 6:30 promptly between the crack G.G.E. team and De Laval team.

In all probility the C.G.E. team will be minus Gash, their centre forward, for to-morrow night's game, and Turner may fill the pivot position. The C.G.E. team will be chosen from J. Naples, goal; B. Mason and J. McDonald, backs; A. Parkins, H. Bestard and J Young, halfbacks; A. Manders, Wag Hotston, H. Turner and Ed. Bartley, forwards; reserves, H. Cowie, J. Bills and W. Ridley.

Dick Evans has got mostly all his players into fairly good shape for the game on Thursday evening. The captain of the De Lavals intends to give the C.G.E. a run for the points. The team will be chosen from W. Jones, Captain., goal; W. McDougall and Fred Hartshorn, backs; W. Brown, G. Humpage and J. Cooper, G. Hartshorn, J. Long, J. Cullen, A. Nicholls and E. Abraham, forwards.

On Saturday the C.G.E. team will be without the services of their dashing out side right—Manders—who is most likely to be out of the city during the week end.

In a few weeks time Williamson, the inside left of the C. G. E. team, will be seen in the boxing ring in the United States. We wish him every success.

Football Executive Committee—Remember the meeting to-night at 7:30 prompt.

The Football League Executive has got no trophy yet. But there used to be in Peterboro before the war the R. R. Hall Cup, the J. R. Stratton Cup and the County or Exhibition Cup. Any information relative to where the trophies are will be gladly received at the Examiner office.

CITY BOWLING TOURNEY.

Great interest is being taken in the coming five-pin bowling tournament for singles, doubles, and three-men teams. Many entries have been made and everything points to a successful meet.

All double and three-men entries will be drawn for partners. The tournament begins on Monday next, and all those who wish to enter should have their names in by Saturday night.

HOBOKEN MANUFACTURER SUCCUMBS AFTER BEING SHOT

HOBOKEN, N. J., May 12.—Frederick Rueckert, Vice-President of the White Metal Manufacturing Company, shot five times by a masked burglar in his home here early Sunday morning, died in St. Mary's Hospital yesterday.

The police said yesterday that they had no clue to Rueckert's assailant. The mask used by the man was found in the dining room of the house. There were no witnesses to the shooting.

Nothing of value was taken from the house, although there were cash and other valuables there at the time.

LOOK WHO'S HERE

The hit of the season may be aptly applied to the latest Gus Hill triumph, "Keeping Up With the Joneses," which is to be the attraction at the Grand Theatre to-day.

This new play is based on the popular cartoons of Pop Momand, whose screamingly funny creations first appeared in the pages of the New York Globe. It was Mr. Hill who first saw the possibilities of bringing cartoon to life, as attested by the success of "Mutt and Jeff" and "Bringing Up Father." Those who have seen this latest landslide of laughter claim that in point of popularity it will surely eclipse the success of any musical comedy of its kind offered hereabouts in seasons. If millions have enjoyed the cartoons, it is easy to predict that millions more will enjoy the play.

Startling surprises, plenty of singing and dancing, novelties, pretty women, glittering costumes, a large and capable cast, jingling and effervescent music, fantasy and sensational features comprise this contribution. It is a show built on unusual lines and calculated to set a new departure in productions which will be difficult for other managers to emulate.

TYRONE POWER

When Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd., selected Mr. Tyrone Power to head the first producing company, travelling exclusively under their management in a cross-Canada tour they made a choice which could hardly have been equalled. Mr. Power stands today by common consent of the most discriminatin critics on this continent, as the most dominating figure among the few great figures on the English speaking stage of the present day. The late William Winter named him as the logical successor upon whom the mantle of Richard Mansfield must inevitably descend.

Mr. Power spent a few years in motion pictures for the remarkable reason that he would not consent to appear, even at a salary which was far in excess of offers he had previously received, in any play which he deemed brought odium and dishonor upon his profession. His return to the stage in two such dramas as Charles Rann Kennedy's "Servant in the House" and "Little Brother" by Milton Goldsmith and Benedict Jones, is an event which possesses an especial significance at the present time, when the Brotherhood of Man, the lesson both plays teach, is a subject being discussed in every civilized country and a problem which the statesmen of every civilized country and a problem which the statesmen of every civilized country are laying their heads together to solve.

Mr. Power will present "The Little Brother" at the Grand Theatre on Monday, May 24th. He will return next season in "A Bunch of Violets" and "The Middleman," and will also be seen on the trip from the west back to Montreal during the same season in "Claudius" and "The Red Lamp."

FALL WHEAT IS LOOKING GOOD IN PETERBORO COUNTY

The fall wheat and clover have never looked better for years, said one farmer to the Examiner to-day, and in conversation with others his opinoin was corroboraed. The seeding in nearly all localities is completed and the spring wheat up and looking fine. Some trepidation is felt over the night frosts—one farmer stating that he could break the ice in a dish of water this morning. A good rain is needed in the country, the agriculturists stating that this is the driest spring they have seen in years, and their opinion is borne out by the roads that are as dusty as in July.

Hay was plentiful on the market to-day at $28.00 a ton. One lonely rig graced the square. In the rig at the rear were three small pigs. How much are your pigs? $20 a pair. How much for the three? $25.

Y.W.C.A. NEWS

Amid keen excitement the Missionary Campaign at the Young Women's Christian Association closed last night, with Miss Brownscombe's team ahead, and Miss Thomson's a close second. The total amount received to date has been one hundred and seventy-eight dollars with several cards still to be handed in, and it is hoped that when the returns are all in there will be at least $185.00 and possibly the two hundred originally aimed for. All the teams and their captains are justly proud of the work they have done.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

The Senate of Canada has dissolved the marriage between Frederick Tristram Clarke, dyer, of Peterborough, and his wife, Elizabeth Clarke who he married on March 17th, 1915, in Lindsay, and F. Clarke may at any time marry again. Clarke petitioned the government for the dissolution on the grounds of infidelity.

SOCIAL EVENING.

Court Stanley, A. O. F., No. 7680, held an open night last evening, and provided a very enjoyable programme to the large number of members and their friends who attended. A large representation from Queen Alexandra Circle was present, and the entertainment proved a very happy occasion. Dainty refreshments were served.

GOODS DEARER IN CANADA

"Prices are dearer here than they are in England" R. P. Winfrey, the son of the former Mayor of Peterborough told the Examiner yesterday "Clothes are very much cheaper over there also food. Gasoline is very dear —nearly a dollar a gallon in your money. Nearly everyone seems to have a car over here and telephonea are common," he said in comparing conditions. It seems that in England telephones are few and far between while the service is most irregular.

"The prices of automibiles is exhorbitant and the delivery is uncertain and generally before it is delivered the price his jumped £50 or so." Sir Richard has purchased a car in Toronto and is having it sent to England saving considerably after paying freight and shipping.

In Canada it is certainly nice to be able to have all the butter and sugar you want In the rationing system in England you can only get 3 oz. of butter a wek nearly as much as you use at one meal and 6 oz. of sugar a week.

WEDDING BELLS

ELSEY—FARR.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. John's Anglican church, Toronto, on the afternoon of Saturday, May 8, when Miss Lilly Elsey, sister of Mrs. George Chandler, of this city, was married to Mr. Harold Farr, son of Mrs. A. Sheward, also of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Russel McLean, and the couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Farr will reside in Toronto.

MATTHEWS—HOCKADAY.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnised on Wednesday afternoon, 5th May, 1920, at 4.30, at the Methodist Parsonage, Lakefield, when Florence May, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Matthews, Smith, became the bride of Mr. Percy Melville Hockaday, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hockaday, of Douro.

Rev. S. F. Dixon officiated.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of pearl grey silk crepe de chine, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Vera Mitchell, who was bridesmaid, wore grey silk. Mr. Roland Matthews, brother of the bride, supported the groom.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, after which a bountiful supper was served. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents, showing the esteem in which both the young people are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome pearl sunburst.

The evening was spent in music and games. Mr. and Mrs. Hockaday will reside in Douro.

CASH PRIZES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

In the development of type and quality in live stock, public competitions is a dominant factor. The show ring is the sorting house for type and quality; it is theer through contrast that desirable animal characteristics stand out in the most instructive manner.

The Canadian Bankers' Competitions, promoted to impress upon the younger generation the great importance of good breeding and feeding in farm live stock, provide such public competitions for boys and girls. Banking institutions in cooperation with the Dominion Department of Agriculture, offer attractive cash prizes to boys and girls who feed and exhibit pigs and calves at the local fair. Full instructions with regard to these competitions can be obtained from the local Branch Bank Manager, who will be glad to assist prospective competitors in every way.

NON-TECHNICAL EXPLANATIONS ARE GIVEN OF THE DIFFERENT DETAILS OF CAR CONSTRUCTION

RADIATOR TYPES, VALVES AND VALVE LOCATIONS ARE DESCRIBED SO THAT ORDINARY OWNER MAY UNDERSTAND—FUNCTION OF THERMOSTAT IS OUTLINED BRIEFLY.

Many of the terms and phrases which are commonly used in speaking of different features of automobile construction, are perhaps not as well understood as they should be. While it is not essential today that man should be thoroughly posted on the mechanical construction of cars, still it is very desirable for him to have at least a working knowledge of the subject.

Brief non-technical explanations of the terms most commonly used are:

Radiators.

There are two general types of radiator construction in use today. These are the cellular or honeycomb and the fin and tube types. The cellular or honeycomb radiator consists of a series of cells of square, hexagonal or other special shapes, arranged in rows with very narrow water spaces between the walls of adjacent cells. The front and rear edges of these walls are pinched together and soldered. Each cell is open from front to rear to allow free circulation of air through the radiator.

The advantages claimed for the cellular type of radiator construction are: greater area of cooling surface, also ease of repair on account of the fact that damaged cells can easily be removed and replaced with new ones.

The fin and tube type of radiator consists of a number of vertical tubes with a series of closely placed horizontal fins surrounding them and in contact with the outer walls of the tube. The purpose of the fins is to assist in carrying off the heat transmitted to them through the walls of the vertical tubes.

The fin and tube type of radiator is claimed to be less expensive than the cellular or honeycomb type, somewhat lighter in weight, and it is also claimed that this type offers less resistance to the passage of the water, making it more suitable for use with the thermo-syphon cooling system.

Thermostat.

This is an automatic controlling device used in the cooling system on a number of cars to regulate the flow of water through the radiator according to the heat of the engine. It consists of an expansion bulb located in the hot water outlet from the cylinder head and is connected to a by-pass valve which, when open, allows all the water from the engine to pass through the radiator and when closed forces part or even all of this water through a connecting tube direct to the pump inlet connection. When the engine is cold the expansion bulb keeps the by-pass valve closed, so that the water from the cylinder jacket returns immediately to the lowest point in the jacket without having to pass through the radiator. This assists in warming up the engine quickly in cold weather.

Thermostats are used only in connection with pump cooling systems. They are not needed in thermo-syphon systems for the reason that in this system circulation does not commence until the water in the cylinder jacket reaches a fairly high temperature.

Engine Horsepower Rating

In the first place it should be understood that the term horsepower as commonly used does not refer to the maximum power or strength of any particular type of horse, but rather to the average amount an average work horse could perform under average conditions. This amount of work has been computed as 33,000 foot pounds per minute, or in other words, the effort required to life 33,000 pounds one foot in one minute or any other combination which amounts to the same total, such as lifting 550 pounds, 60 feet per minute, etc.

On account of infinite variations of design, operating conditions, etc., it has been found impossible heretofore to work out any simple formula for the calculation of the horsepower output of a gasoline engine, based on the bore and stroke, etc. An approximation of such a formula is the so-called N. A. C. C. rating, which is a simple rule for calculating roughly the horsepower that an engine will develop at a piston speed at 1,000 feet per minute. For instance, if a given engine has a stroke of 5 1-2 inches, the piston will travel 11 inches up and down, while the crankshaft is making one complete revolution. A piston speed of 1,000 feet per minute in such an engine would, therefore, correspond to a crankshaft or operating speed of 1,091 revolutions per minute.

"Square the cylinder bore, multiply the number of cylinders and divide by 2.5"

Valve Types

There are but two distinct types of valves used in current practise in automobile construction. These are the poppet type, which is by far the most numerous, and the sleeve type. The poppet valve consists of a circular head with a long stem attached to the centre. The outer edge of the head has an angular face which bears against a seat cut at a corresponding angle in the portion of the cylinder in which the valve is located. This type of valve is opened by pressure on the end of the valve stem, which lifts the head of the valve off its seat. It is closed by a spring attached to the valve stem which pulls it down again as soon as the pressure at the end of the stem is removed.

The poppet style valves are sometimes referred to as mushroom valves, but this term it not always correct. The mushroom type valve is a poppet valve with the head rounded so that it is roughly similar in shape to a mushroom. Some poppet type valves have flat heads, however.

The sleeve type valve consists of a circular sleeve mounted inside the cylinder, arranged so that it can be moved up and down, and having slots cut in it which register with corresponding slots in the cylinder walls leading to the intake and exhaust manifolds. Sometimes the sleeve is mounted only in the upper end of the cylinder and in other constructions it extends for the full cylinder length and the piston operates inside of the sleeve. Two sleeves per cylinder may be used, one inside of the other as, in the Knight type engine. The Knight type is the most prominent sleeve valve engine in use today, but it is important to bear in mind that not all sleeve valve engines are Knight engines.

Valve Locations.

Where poppet type valves are used in a four-cylinder engine, (that is an engine in which there is an explosion in each cylinder every second revolution with four distinct operations, intake, compression, explosion and exhaust, in the cycle), there must be at least one inlet and one exhaust valve per cylinder. Sometimes two inlet or two exhaust valves or two each may be used, the object in this case being to secure a large valve opening without unduly increasing the size and weight of the individual valves. One very large valve would be heavy and therefore would require a stiff spring and would be noisy and would cause heavy strains and perhaps rapid wear on the cam-shaft and valve operating mechanism.

Where the inlet and exhaust valves are arranged side by side along one side of the engine, the cylinders are said to be of the L-head type. Where the inlet valves are arranging along one side of the engine and the exhaust valves along the other side, the cylinder construction is referred to as the T-head type.

If the valves are placed in an inverted position in the cylinder head, they are said to be of the overhead type or the cylinder construction may be referred to as I-head.

Sometimes the inlet valve, for instance, will be arranged along one side of the engine similar to the L-head construction while the exhaust valve will be inverted above the intake or possibly in the centre of the cylinder head. This valve location is referred to simply as the side and head arrangement.

The only other location for poppet valves that is used to any great extent, is the horizontal arrangement similar to that used in Duesenberg engines, in which the inlet and exhaust valves are located side by side in the cylinder head with their stems horizontal, and are operated by long rocker arms from a camshaft in the usual location along one side of the cylinder block.

SHOOTINGS IN IRELAND

REPORTS FROM MANY PARTS INDICATE AN EPIDEMIC OF DESTRUCTION.

LONDON, May 13.— An extraordinary number of reports came in this morning from all parts of Ireland recording shootings, robberies, destruction of public property and other similar actions. Whether these events have been the result of concerted action has not yet been learned. It is believed here, however, that they could hardly have been coincidences.

Besieged Barracks.

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, May 13. — 200 men besieged Hollyford police barracks in County Tipperary for four hours early Wednesday morning, using rifles and bombs. A part of the building was set on fire, but the ten officers defending the place, withdrew to another section of the structure and continued their resistance. The attackers eventually retired. No casualties were reported.

OFFICES RAIDED

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, May 13.—At least nineteen police barracks in various parts of Ireland were wiped out in course of wide spread destruction of public property and other activities by bands of armed and masked men in various parts of Ireland last night. Five income tax and customs offices also were raided and papers found in them burned. Two mail cars and one mail train were held up and official papers taken from them. One was killed in outskirts of Dublin, where barracks were being burned. Rev. T. G. Wilkinson, one of Canons of Down Cathedral at Down Patrick was shot and critically wounded while pursuing raiders on street. Houses of two newspaper editors were raided and one anti-Sinn Fein Editor was tarred and feathered.

LONDON, May 13.—As at Easter time many police barracks were attacked and large number of them destroyed. Income tax offices also were again attacked and many documents destroyed. Notable instance of such attacks was raid upon income tax office in heart of Belfast. At Irish Office it was said this afternoon that, that office was without advices concerning events mentioned in reports. Meanwhile Viscount French, Vice Roy was in conference with Andrew Bonar Law regarding policy to be pursued with view to restoration of order.

THE NURSES WANT TWELVE HOUR DAY

Fifteen member of the Graduate Nurses Association met to-day and expressed their absolute sympathy with the twelve hour duty which has been proposed. In the discussion it was pointed out that on some private cases the nurse is practically on twenty-four duty. The only way of remedying the extended hours of duty thought feasible was through introducing it into the hospitals and let it gradually work out into private nursing. The matter will be fully dealt with later.

A discussion of the Registered Nurses Act followed thediscussion on twelve hour duty and it was hoped that the act would go through in June Miss Dickson, president of the Association, occupied the chair.

POLAND IS FIGHTING AGAINST BOLSHEVISM

Will Continue the Fight Without Asking Aid From the Allies.

By Adrian Bradford.
(United Press.)

WASHINTGON, May 13. — Poland is fighting the fight of the world against Bolshevism, but it will continue along without asking the Allies for help or the United States, Prince Casimir Lubomirski, Polish Minister here, declared in an interview to-day.

Prince Lubomirski is the next in order of the foreign diplomats waiting to present their credentials to President Wilson and he will probably lay the Polish situation before the President when received at the White House.

"Poland hopes that the old cultural world will help her in the task of saving culture and civilization from Bolshevism," Lubomirski said, "but she will not appeal to the Allied nations for further aid."

Gasoline Going Up

LATEST PROPOGANDA ON THE OIL SITUATION.

(Special to Examiner)

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 13.— Finding of oil in Saskatchewan or Alberta is great hope of oil situation Pacific coast and western Canada. Outlook is black indeed for continued supply from present sources, according to statements to-day by Imperial Oil Co., officials. Fuel oil heating outfits will have to return to coal before next winter. There is decreased production from California and Peruvian fields developing none too satisfactorily. Imperial Oil Co's plant here capable of refining 2,500 barrels daily is cut down to 2,000 barrels at present. Gasoline prices certain to ascend.

NEW AUCTION SALES ROOMS

THE DEALERS UP IN ARMS

OBJECT TO THE PAYMENT OF COAL IN AMERICAN FUNDS.

(Special to the Examiner.)

TORONTO, May 13. — The coal dealers of the city are up in arms against the demand from the Grand Trunk and other railways that all freight charges for incoming coal must be prepaid in American funds. Already a number of them have had coal cars turned back from the border because the American funds in payment for the rest of the journey to Toronto was not forthcoming.

Realizing the dispute would likely work a hardship on the public, the Provincial Fuel Commissioner, H. A. Harrington, investigated the situation and filed a complaint to the secretary of the Railway Commission.

It was learned to-day that the G. T.R. has been having considerable trouble in enforcing the demand for American funds and that in some cases real hardships had been the result. The Lackawanna, Lehigh and New York Central Railways are refusing point blank to forward coal into Canada unless whole freight charges is prepaid in Buffalo in American funds.

"Ah, sure," says Mike, "that won't be any great loss."

BIG STRIKE THREATENED

CIVIL SERVANTS ARE GETTING UNEASY OVER WAGE CONDITIONS.

(Canadian Press.)

VANCOUVER, May 13.— General strike of civil servants extending from coast to coast is now being mooted, according to high officials in the postal service here, as a protest against the alleged unsatisfactory salary provisions contained within the reclassification subject announced recently by the Civil Service Commission here.

During the last few days, it is declared, telegrams have been despatched between eastern and western cities, pledging full support to any action embracing the whole of Canada, which may be decided upon in protest.

ASCENSION DAY WAS CELEBRATED

LARGE CONGREGATIONS IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES TO-DAY.

Ascension day was fittingly observed as a holy day in the three Catholic Churches of the city, by early and later masses, which were largely attended. At the Church of the Sacred Heart Rev. J. I. O'Brien, referring to the solemnity, stated that after His resurrection from the dead our Lord had remained 40 days on earth to give every proof that He had risen from the dead and to silence enemies and doubters by freely appearing in His accustomed places. By His resurrection and His ascension into heaven He confirmed His divinity and the faith of His followers in Him.

"He lived as a man among men," Father O'Brien said, "and as an elder brother, as it were; He went before us into heaven to prepare a place for us. We should take every means to sanctify our lives that we may one day be united with Him in heaven"

CALEDONIAN CLUB SOCIAL FUNCTION

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

For helping herself to an old rose sweater coat a local young lady was arraigned before Magistrate Dumble to-day on a charge of stealing. The mother of the girl said that in spite of a good home and all their efforts she was addicted to stealing. When it was found that she was only paid $5 a week where she worked the court did not wonder at her lifting the choice piece of wearing apparel, but her mother replied that she had been given everything she wanted. After a severe lecture and an uplifting sermonette by the Magistrate, the girl promised to obey the commandment "Thou shall not steal" in future, and His Worship gave her a suspended sentence on the understanding that she report to the police matron frequently.

OTTAWA GIRLS MAKE SPECTACULAR ESCAPE

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, May 13. — An escape from the detention home, Ottawa, which was palnned two weeks before it was carried out, took place last week when two girls, aged 14 and 15 years respectively, tied four sheets together, and fastening them to the radiator in the room, descended hand over hand from a second storey window into the arms of two boys who were waiting for them. The boys had bicycles with them and took the girls on the handle bars and made good the escape.

The boys were former inmates of the Home and when they were in it, letters passed between them and the girls. When the boys were released they went back and helped the girls to escape.

RASPUTIN OF THE U.F.O.

LIBERAL MEMBER'S REBUKE TO J. J. MORRISON FOR ATTEMPT TO DICTATE.

TORONTO, May 13.—R. R. Hall (Liberal, Parry Sound) took occasion in the Legislature yesterday to roundly condemn J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U. F. O., for writing members of the Legislature, asking them to vote against the Bill superannuating civil servants. He described Mr. Morrison as the Canadian Rasputin.

"For the last several days," said Mr. Hall, "I have been receiving letters asking that I should vote in a certain direction, that I should vote against the Hon. the Premier's Bill, and against the Government. It seems to me a very high-handed proceeding. It seems to me there is something wrong somewhere, and after making inquiries I find that this thing emanates from one man. The key to the whole thing will be found in The Farmers' Sun, in the last issue, where we find a letter over the signature of one, J. J. Morrison.

Wants Bill Passed.

"I have no desire to defeat that Bill," he continued. "I have spoken in favour of it, and I am not going to retract. But there is something behind it that is important to the Government. It is a matter of government in or government out. Here are men who say the present Government is their Government, that they elected the gentlemen to the positions which they now fill, and here we have a man behind the throne, the 'Rasputin' of the Farmers' Union, a man who assumes the role of dictator, a man who is not satisfied to dictate to his own class, but who undertakes to dictate to those who are not of his class, and also to dictate to those who are farmers and who are not in the pay of somebody else to obtain a livelihood. I farm for my living, and I am not going to permit J. J. Morrison to think for me."

No More for Hospitals.

The Ontario Hospitals Association waited on the Provincial Secretary yesterday with the request for an increaseed grant from 50c to 75c a day, and that municipalities be compelled to pay $1.75 a day instead of $1.50. The request was refused, although the hope was held out that perhaps next year something might be done.

PLEADED GUILTY TO STEALING

A local young man aged 18, appeared with two charges of stealing against him. One was for lifting $6 from W. C. Leggett of Peterborough and the other for confiscating an overcoat valued at $25 from Cecil Follis ,also of this city. It is alleged that the last was taken at a dance. The prisoner pleaded guilty to both charges and promised to make good the money by Saturday, and with a reminder to scrape up all he could and re-appear on Saturday next, the magistrate adjourned the case till then. The overcoat was returned to its owner, Chief Thompson said.

Curing a Mean Drive

Practically every factory of any size has one or more mean drives which seem to defy all attempts to correct them.

Up to date you're beaten—but that's because you want to solve the problem yourself.

Our transmission experts take more real satisfaction in solving mean drives than in selling belts.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting

has helped to solve many transmission problems, and we have yet to find a drive where it will not provide efficient satisfactory service.

Don't continue to waste your time and money on experiments. No matter how much experience you may have had, it is quite probable that our engineers have cured the identical kind of drive that has been worrying you for months.

It will cost you nothing to have one of our belting experts study your problem.

If he can't help you he will tell you so. If he can help you it will cost you only the price of a belt that will give a longer and more satisfactory service than any other belt has given on that particular drive.

The first step to that satisfactory service is a phone or wire to our nearest service branch.

ST. JEANNE

From the Stake to the Altar—The Story of Joan of Arc.

MAID OF ORLEANS, WHO WAS BURNED AS A "RELAPSED HERETIC" NEARLY 500 YEARS AGO, TO-DAY CANONIZED BY THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, NOW TAKES HER PLACE IN A LONG LINE OF MARTYRS AND CONFESSORS OF THE FAITH.

(By FRANK RUSSELL)

Today, on the great Church Festival of the Ascension of our Blessed Lord into the heavens, there has been completed the Canonization of Joan of Arc, otherwise known as "The Maid of Orleans" and who will in future be known as Ste. Jeanne.

Many years ago the initial steps towards her canonization were taken, and her beatification was completed on April sixth, nineteen hundred and nine, leaving then only the ceremonial performed with great pomp this day at the vast Cathedral Church of St. Peter at Rome.

Prologue.

Most people have, at least, a little knowledge of the story of this national heroine of France, one of the most remarkable figures that has flitted across the pages of history for half a thousand years.

Her Parentage.

Born in 1410—some historians say 1402—of a well-to-do farming family, her father was a peasant-owner, which meant a freeholder. Her parents dwelt at Domemy, a small village in the district of the Vosges, partly in Champagne and partly in Lorraine. Her father's circumstances were 'easy,' so Joan wanted nothing. His name was Jacques Dare, and the rightful name of the new saint was Jeannetton Dare. Her popular name, "Joan d'Arc" appears to have been a mispelling or corruption of her real name, Jeannetton Dare. Her Christian name has become Anglicised into Joan. Her mother was unusually devout so history tells us, even for that early day. She had made a pilgrimage to Rome and was rigourous in her observance of the Customs of the Church.

Her Early Days.

From this village, Joan—to give her the familiar name—emerged, unlettered, to advise a king, and later on, to take command of his army. She appeared, as if in fulfillment of prophecy. She spoke of her divine inspiration, of the leadership of heavenly voices. At first she was scorned, but she triumphed over each succeeding rebuff, and finally, in the moment of testing, penetrated a King's disguise and commanded his attention and confidence.

"Fantastic and Fanatical."

None could have been more surprised than the nearest neighbors when she came forward with claims that were looked upon as pertaining to one who was at once hysterical, fantastic and a fanatic. Possibly a few of her girlhood friends were not much amazed, for they had watched her gradually withdraw from their society and give her time to solitary brooding and to fervent prayer.

Anyway

Her Military Genius

placed a crown upon the brow of an uncrowned Dauphin (the title of the eldest son a French King.) She won wild acclaim. Then came a reverse. With it came the loss of popular favour and of the King's confidence.

Ultimately those who had believed in her heavenly guidance looked upon her as a witch. In fact she was sold by those whom she had served and saved.

"History repeats itself." There are many other such examples on record.

Bidden by "Voices"

It was when Joan was between thirteen and fourteen years of age, according to the best attested statements, that she became conscious of "hearing supernatural voices." From her own word it is assumed that she verily believed these manifestations to be accompanied by a blaze of light. Her declaration was that she recognized these voices, attributing them to St. Michael, St. Catherine and St. Margaret. To her father confessor, however, nothing was said by her about these voices, and at the time of her trial she refused to testify further about these appearances to her, beyond saying, "I saw them with these very eyes as well as I see you."

However, by May, 1428, (which looks as though her birth date was 1410) she had no doubts whatever as to the messages that were transmitted through the medium of these "Voices." She felt that she was bidden to go to the assistance of the King.

"Take Her Home to Her Father and Give Her a Good Whipping."

At that period of the history of France the country was over-run by the Anglo-Picardy troops of the Duke of Bedford, regent of King Henry VI. of England, as well as by the forces of the Duke of Burgundy.

Joan presented her plea to Robert Baudricourt, who was in command of the King's forces in the neighbouring town of Vaucouleurs. Baudricourt.—at least so it is said, and the Catholic Encyclopoedia is the authority—rebuffed her with jeer and raillery. "Take her home to her father and give her a good whipping," was his remark.

But in the next few days the situation of the Dauphin, (afterwards Charles VII. of France), became much more desperate. The city of Orleans was invested by the opposing forces and it really seemed as if the French forces must face an utter and complete defeat.

Her Persistency.

In January, 1429, Joan again tackled Baudricourt. Again he refused to place any serious reliance on her statements. Joan remained in his vicinity and won over a considerable number of his advisers. On February 17 she predicted a great defeat of the King's armies at Orleans. A few days later the official reports of this engagement came to hand and then those who had before been sceptical, turned to Joan for advice.

With Baudricourt's express sanction and attended by half a dozen men-at-arms she sought an audience with the Dauphin at Chinon. Joan was attired in a male costume which she had adopted as a protection while in the company of the soldiers. The King was just as sceptical as Baudricourt had formerly been. He assumed a disguise; but Joan singled him out from among a large group and conveyed to him a message that made him realize that this maid was no ordinary personage.

Her Military Triumph.

The command of the French troops was turned over to Joan. She assumed an officer's uniform, a sword and a white banner, she threw herself boldly into Orleans, of which she raised the siege; defeated the English in several battles and in less than three months after taking the field, she had the Dauphin crowned King of France in the Cathedral at Rheims on July 17th, 1429.

Feeling that her mission had been successfully accomplished Joan desired to withdraw from the King's armies but was not allowed to leave. In a subsequent attack on Paris she received some severe wounds.

"The Maid" is Taken Prisoner.

But after taking part in several successful engagements she was taken prisoner by the Burgundians at Compeigne, who sold her to the English for sixteen thousand francs (about $3,000).

By the English she was also turned over to the Inquisition—a terrible ecclesiastical court that tried people for alleged offenses against the Church.

Her Trial.

She was tried by this ecclesiastical court—a court by which everybody haled before it was condemned with but very few exceptions. Sentence was suspended; an order was made for a new trial, but rather a trial on another charge—that of relapsing into heresy. That heresy consisted merely in the wearing of male apparel and she was condemned to be burned.

Led to the Stake.

On May 24, 1431, her judges took Joan to the graveyard of the Church if St. Ouen at Rouen. There was a stake, and faggots all prepared ready for the burning. She was then told that she would suffer the penalty of being burned to death, unless she signed a document by which she promised to wear female dress and would submit to the judges. It will be borne in mind that all the time she was leading the French armies she had been wearing male attire as a protection.

Even Then She Was Tricked.

Joan consented, provided she would receive a pardon. As she was unable to read, another paper was substituted, reciting a statement that her saints and "voices" were evil spirits and that she had been guilty of all kinds of wrong-doing. Her jailors, by trickery, induced her to put on her male dress again. When she had done this she was judged to have relapsed and was sentenced to death.

Burned at the Stake.

On May 30, 1431, she was burned to death in the marketplace of Rouen. Eight hundred soldiers surrounded the stake, fearing lest something might happen to be done to save her, even at the last moment. Only one kind priest pitied her and brought a crucifix which he held before her while the flames consumed her.

Her ashes were scattered into the River Siene—which flows through the city of Rouen, on its way to the sea at Havre—because of a superstitious fear that the machinations of the devil would begin in the vicinity of her remains, were her ashes buried.

Today she triumphs and millions who owe nothing to her by any national tradition will venerate the "relapsed heretic"—the witch — as a Saint.

After Her Martyrdom—A New Trial.

Twenty-four years after the condemnation of Joan, who, it will have been seen, was burned at the stake in May 1431, a revision of her trial was begun in Paris with the consent of the Holy See. The proceedings of the previous trials were reviewed exhaustively; witnesses were re-examined; and, finally, the judgment was reversed and technically annulled.

Oh! the irony of it! For poor Joan's body was then in ashes, and the waters of the Seine had carried these ashes whither they would.

Even before the trial there had been many adherents to the Maid of Orleans who had believed her to be divinely inspired. With the repudiation of the findings of the courts many began to feel that the mere reversal and annulment of the judgment could not atone for what had been formally declared "an error," but which was in reality nothing more or less than an ecclesiastical murder.

From the Stake to the Altar.

The part Joan played in the destinies of France; the legend that has grown around her person; the years of controversy over the steps leading up to canonization, have made the memory of the Maid of Orleans one of the high lights of history. In the minds of the French, Joan of Arc is not only a tradition—and a real one at that—but an ever-present guardian of the nation's destinies. To them it was the spirit of Joan that stayed the advance of the Huns at the River Marne, not so many years ago.

The "Relapsed Heretic" Now A Saint.

The name of Joan of Arc now takes its place with the martyrs and confessors of the Roman Catholic Church. On April 6, 1919, nearly five hundred years after she was burned at the stake as a "relapsed heretic" she was proclaimed a saint, and veneration of her name becomes an obligation on Roman Catholic altars.

The canonization to-day represents the ultimate effort of the Church to remove a stigma which it has long since repudiated.

In Art and Literature.

The Maid of Orleans was pictured by early painters and historians as a shepherdess. But from her own lips there is a denial of this. She tended her father's flocks but occasionally; for her chief occupation was that of maid-of-all-work. She is said to have been an excellent cook. She was proficient in the use of the needle. She was note for her physical energy, which is often a complement of a highly nervous temperament.

Her Justification.

But it was not for nearly four hundred and fifty years after this terrible murder of Joan of Arc had been committed that proper measures were taken. In 1869 steps were taken for her beatification and ultimate canonization. In that year Monsignor Dupanloup, Bishop of Orleans made an appeal to His Holiness, the Pope. In 1909, on April the

The Glad, Gay Hour

¶ Right after the evening meal comes the hour of the family. The kiddies have their final romp. Father escapes from his world of business. Mother sits down to enjoy her loved ones.

¶ Children love music, better if anything than stories. 'A merry song—a rollicking dance (how the little ones prance and skip!)—a beautiful idyll! Music is the magical stimulus of gladness.

¶ You owe a duty to your children; the same duty in music as in literature. You know that they love good stories, and you try to see that the stories which they read are good stories. You know that they love music—it is your duty to see that they hear good music, properly rendered.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

is the only phonograph which produces music with absolute fidelity to the original. Its realism has caused it to be called "The Phonograph With a Soul." It literally RE-CREATES music, and Mr. Edison has the exclusive right to use the word RE-CREATION in connection with the reproduction of music.

The New Edison does not distort music; it does not give a wrong conception of music. On the contrary, it gives you and your children everything there is in music.

Your home deserves the best. Will you bring your kiddies to our store and let them decide whether they want songs in their home that sound exactly as when the singer sings them, or whether they want songs as no singer would sing them? It will be interesting to note how quickly your children will observe the difference between the New Edison and talking machines.

Please remember that the instrument which your kiddies select can be paid for on convenient terms.

THE INDEMNITY QUESTION.

An Ottawa news despatch declares that the Dominion government has decided not to increase the indemnities of members at the present session. For some time there have been reports that it was planned to raise the indemnities to $4,000, while some rumours placed the revised figure at $5,000, but apparently the government has sensed the opposition that exists in the country to any salary "boosting" by members of Parliament, and the $2,500 allowances will have to suffice. The turning down of the request for increased indemnities in the Ontario Legislature, and the popular approval of Premier Drury's firm stand against the desired increase, has affected the Ottawa situation for it has shown the government what the majority of people think of larger indemnities. In addition the government undoubtedly realizes that any attempt to increase the sessional indemnities would be bitterly opposed by the returned soldiers and would result in renewed demands on the part of the latter for bigger gratuities. The mere rumour of an increase has caused several bodies of returned soldiers to fire strongly worded resolutions of protest at the government, and the opposition would be general were any serious attempt made to augment the present indemnity.

THE INCOME TAX.

There seems to be a good deal of confusion in the minds of the public in connection with the filing of the Dominion income tax returns, especially in regard to the question of just who are required to make such returns. The details have been advertised on several occasions, but the wording of the official notices has not been as clear as it might have been, and as a result there is undoubtedly a misunderstanding on the part of many people. The experience of the half a dozen Windsor citizens who have been fined $600 each for failing to make returns when called upon to do so shows that failure to comply with the law is costly. These men did not file the particulars of their incomes when asked for them because their earnings were below the taxable minimum, and the magistrate had no alternative but to impose the fine called for by the regulations. The Act sets forth that married persons whose income is $2,000 a year or over and unmarried persons whose income is $1,000 a year or over, must make a return to the proper authorities. And further, any person, no matter whether his or her income is above or below the taxable minimum must also file particulars if served with a notice to do so by the taxation officials. This is the point that is causing confusion. Many people who know they are not liable to taxation have ignored the official notices sent them and have put themselves in a position where they are liable to a heavy fine. Anybody who receives a letter from the Department asking him to file returns should do so at once. Of course, if no notice is received and a person's income is below the minimum mentioned in the act, there is no necessity to make a return.

A NEW "RASPUTIN."

The description used by Mr. R. R. Hall, Liberal member for Parry Sound in connection with Mr. J. J. Morrison, secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario, may have been a little severe, but nevertheless it represents a very large volume of public opinion. Mr. Hall described the U. F.O. secretary as "the Rasputin behind the Throne," and declared that his action in writing members of the Legislature asking them to vote against the government's superannuation bill was a high-handed proceeding that indicated that Mr. Morrison wanted to be a dictator. The sooner the United Farmers' organization abandon the idea that they can map out and carry through all the legislation of the province to suit themselves, the better it will be for the Drury government and for the people generally. Members of Parliament are expected to use their intelligence in deciding upon questions of policy and in transacting the business of the province. If they are merely to be voting machines to be operated according to the whims and wishes of the executive body of the U. F. O., then people are justified in coming to the conclusion that the present government is nothing more nor less than a class government bound hand and foot to the organization that returned it to power. This is evidently the way Secretary Morrison would have it, but fortunately for the province—and for the United Farmers themselves— Premier Drury has shown that he has backbone and is not afraid to take a position contrary to the wishes of the U.F.O. when he is satisfied that what they are asking is detrimental to the best interests of the people. Let Mr. Morrison and those associated with him, keep on with their policy of interference and it is a safe prediction that before many months the government will not be able to carry on and another appeal to the country might be attended by developments that would be as surprising as those of last October.

STARTLING EVIDENCE.

The evidence that has so far been given before the Riddell-Latchford Commission which is inquiring into Crown lands timber limits affairs has amptly justified the holding of an investigation. The conditions that have already been revealed are astounding. The testimony of Stonewall J. Jackson, for fifteen years Crown Timber Agent at Webbwood, furnishes an example of the lax way in which the interests of the province have been looked after. This witness declared to the atonishment of the Commissioners, that he thought all a culler or a jobber had to do to make an affidavit was to sign his name. In one instance, he explained, a signature was placed on a blank form and afterwards the information that was supposed to be sworn to was added. He had never put the men who took affidavits on oath. No wonder Judge Riddell was constrained to remark, "I thought I was beyond being surprised, but I confess I am surprised at the way you thought an affidavit should be made."

That an official of this calibre should have been allowed to hold such an important office for fifteen years indicates a very lax administration of affairs. As Crown Timber Agent Hawkins' duty was to protect the people and the government from fraud and yet in all the years of his tenure of office he had never made a culler take an oath in making an affidavit.

Coming after the startling testimony of Mr. James Nash, former of lumber camps for the Spanish Lumber Company, Hawkins' evidence is further proof of the fact that the loss to the people from the methods employed in collecting the timber dues payable to the province has been enormous. Nash told the Commissioners that he kept no books showing the number of logs cut, that the culler's returns were never compared with those of the clerk of the camp and that he had taken an affidavit declaring that he had examined the books of the culler and had a correct account of the number of pieces cut, although he did not know anything about the figures except what some one had told him.

There has been enough evidence already presented to show that there will have to be some extensive changes in the manner in which the province's timeb dues are collected. It is all too evident that the people of Ontario have lost vast sums of money through the looseness of the methods used.

FORCED THE GOVERNMENT'S HAND.

Perhaps, after all, Premier Drury's sudden change of front on the subject of Hydro-radial construction was not so much a sign of weakness and indecision as evidence that the government's had had been forced in the matter and that there was nothing to do but guarantee the bonds of the Port reditC-St. Catharines line, and sanction its construction.

The Herald is informed that very large financial obligations have already been incurred by the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission in the acquirement of right of way for this line. They have been incurred without the sanction of the Drury Government; but the province is ultimately liable for them. If the construction of the road were indefinitely postponed, the government probably would have to assume the indebtedness incurred by the commission, and would of it would represent loss. Thus the government decided that, although construction at this time would be abnormally costly the cost of postponement would probably be greater. It had to choose between two evils, and it chose what it considered to be the lesser.

This information the Herald has received from a source which it regards as liable. If it be true, as we believe it is, it reveals a condition of affairs which ought not to be allowed to continue. It goes to show that mission has been apparently unchecked and unrestricted in its exercise of financial authority. The statute provides that the consent of the provincial government is necessary before construction work can start on any Hydro-radial road; but if the commission be allowed to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars on right of way for any such road, it has the power to commit the government to the construction work, and therefore the power to dictate government policy against the government's will.

Such a state of affairs is intolerable. The attention of the legislators should be directed to it, and the premier should be asked for an explanation.

It may turn out that the commission in incurring these financial obligations, did not act without authorization but with the knowledge and sanction of the Hearst government. If that is so there is less cause for criticism. But the legislators and the public should be informed of the facts.—Hamilton Herald.

UNGROUNDED SUSPICIONS.

CHAPTER CXXI

Gradually my feelings regarding the note I found became less poignant. This was due in part to my interest in and love for my boy; in part to a change in Everett. This change was almost intangible, so slight was it from day to day. But that it was there I realized.

While he still "ordered" me to do things, he did not use the word as often as formerly. It was "I wish" oftener, and no one who has not lived under the same conditions can understand what a difference that one little thing made in my life. I was now glad to please him, where before I had rebelled at being told I must do so and so.

"I want you to learn to be self-reliant" he said once. "But I want it the right sort of reliance—not a mistaken idea that what you do is right; what others do, wrong. You are older, now, more capable of judging for yourself, I know I can trust you, and I intend to do so. But be careful, Sandra. The dividing line is very narrow at times. You are young and very attractive. It will be necessary to watch your step if you are to have the freedom you seem to think indispensable to your happiness."

I was astounded. It had been a long time since I had made any complaints, months, in fact, I had rebelled, and bitterly before my baby came, because he treated me so like a child, so little like a wife and companion. But it had been a long time since I had mentioned the subject; so his evidently prepared speech about giving me more freedom came as a surprise.

One day he caught me looking at him—I expect wistfully, for he said: "What is it, Sandra? Do you want to ask me something?"

"No." How could I tell him I was wishing he would take me in his arms and tell me he cared for me the same way he had cared for Leola—whose name, now that the pittura wa s good — we never mentioned. How could I say that I wanted to be told in the words of the note he had written her, that I "made his heaven." He called her his dearest dear" and said other things about trembling because he loved her so much, and that would have made me so happy if said to me.

"I thought you looked a question," he remarked pleasantly. "Never be afraid to ask anything you wish. It is only by asking that we learn what we wish to know from others."

"It was nothing."

Gradually the change I had noticed in Everett was noticed by others. Mrs. Gray remarked one day:

"Isn't Mr. Graham feeling well?"

"Why—yes—why?" I asked, wondering if he were ill and I had not sensed it.

"He seems changed, more quiet in a way, yet more approachable. I think the baby has been a help to him he is younger and seems to be happier since he came."

Little did she know that every word stabbed me. The change in Everett, his kindness to me, was not caused by an awakening love for me, as I had tried to think, but solely to the baby. If a mother ever could be jealous of her own child, I was of mine for just a moment. Then ashamed I sought the nursery and holding him close, I begged his pardon in whispers and told him I too had changed because of love for him, had become more womanly and so could not blame the father who also had felt the influence of an angel right down from heaven in the house.

I wanted Everett to love his boy. I should have been heart-broken had he not. But I also ardently longed for his love. I had now given him my whole heart, my every thought. He was all in all to me—the man I loved; the father of my boy. I anguished for the same love in return. Yet I never gave expression to my great love for my husband. I didn't dare for fear I should be repulsed.

BOY SCOUTS MAY GO TO ENGLAND

Ask Provincial Government for $2,000 to Send Delegates.

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 13.—Representatives of the Boy Scouts Association of Manitoba have asked the provincial government for a grant of $2,000 to assist in sending 26 scouts and four officers to represent this province at the International Jamboree of Boy Scouts to be held in London, England, the first week in August. It is believed that the request will be granted.

PETERBORO SALVATION ARMY HISTORY

By F. H DOBBIN

Nearly all of our local institutions had small beginnings. Whether these were social organisations or material things that were to contribute to our advancement and welfare, all started in a humble way. That is, those that survived and became eventually successful. True it is that we have had things of sporadic moment, such as the much-vaunted beet sugar factory and enterprises of like kidney. The celebrated Corday Company is another in kind. These things started with a magnificent flourish of trumpets, with loud acclaim, with all the signs of prosperity and progress. Presently all were punk. Not built on the foundation of thrift and perseverance, not having the individual spirit that made for community of effort, they languished and died. It is absolutely true that such industries as we have that are prosperous began in a small way and grew with the times and with persistent effort.

In the same manner, what we have of local institutions that survive and give of service are where they are because of the personal work and enthusiasm of membership. That hung on, and kept to the good work in adversity and in prosperity. So among the roster of the faithful it becomes us to give a glance to one of our local institutions that has, winter and summer, in fair or foul weather, carried on and gained in membership and influence.

Far Call Back.

It is a far call back to the evening of Thursday, 9th April, 1885. Promptly at seven o'clock there appeared on our front street a small gathering of men and women. Outwardly they wore strange garb. Spots and splashes of red stood out at odd places on the garments. There was a flag, the Union Jack. There was a drum and cymbals and a cornet with a concertina. The little band emerged from the doors of the old Baptist Church on Aylmer Street (now the Gillespie Garage), and turning the corner on to Simcoe Street, walked to the corner of George Street. There the group paused, and while the cornet shrilled and the drum beat a crowd collected, surprised at the assemblage and the queer preparations. Presently led by a stentorian male voice the group burst into song, and the refrain of "Hold the Fort for I am Coming," rolled along the street. Followed, what was a novel situation in the town, prayer and invocation in the open-air and on the public street. That gathering was the first public appearance of the Salvation Army in Peterborough. A chronicle of the days says: "The first gun fired by the Salvation Army in Peterborough, from the old Baptist Church, Aylmer Street, the proceedings in command of Aide-Camp Eddy, also Sergt. Rogers and Capt. Mills (lady)."

"Sunday morning" 13th, saw the first march-out, led by Capt. Eddy and Cadets Langtry and Hart. Happy Jack Rogers sang at the street corner meetings, and the evening meeting was a ringer, to use the expression of the reporter. Rapidly the Army drew supporters and adherents. It promised to fill a long-felt want.

Call for Help.

The local corps sent out a call for help. It was felt that all that could be done to impress the work and the theme on the people should not be lacking, and on 10th October, 1886, the local organisation welcomed to Peterborough General Booth, the commander and originator of the Salvation Army. He came, accompanied by several staff officers, and the occasion was important enough to call for a hearty reception by the civic authorities and municipal institutions. Meetings and services of special import were held, and the Army made its mark.

Within two years, the work had reached a position of renewed importance and a real necessity arose for larger and fuller accommodation. The first modest quarters had been outgrown. A movement set on foot to provide what was to be the Salvation Army Temple, a structure in keeping with the importance of the Army and its work, culminated in opening of the handsome building on Simcoe Street, so long and still in use as the headquarters.

On 14th July, 1888, the building was opened and dedicated with all the rites and ceremonies of the organisation. A large delegation of visiting officers from important posts in the province attended. The services on the Sunday following were phenomenal in point of attendance and effort. The Monday following there was a march-out, led by Army bands from a distance, and from the energy shown and caught up, the Army continued on in an increased field of effort and usefulness. This was emphasized when, on 26th November following, the band of Gen. Booth's Household Troop visited Peterborough and gave entertainments. Staff-Bandmaster Applebee and visiting officers shared in the demonstrations.

A Prosecution.

However, life is just one thing after another. It would now seem a travesty to look back on and reflect, but it is a fact that on 25th March, 1886, the Salvation Army was hailed to the Police Court, charged with obstructing the streets and making an annoying disturbance. On 31st March, the case was given a further hearing, and a fine of $5.00, and costs, imposed. But public feeling was aroused. And so soon as judgment was pronounced and made public, a subscription was taken up with the object of testing the decision in a higher Court. By noon of the same day $225.00 had been collected. However, the matter dropped.

The foregoing recital brings us to the point at present to be presented. On 15th May next, the Army will enter on a local campaign in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the institution of the Salvation Army and its worldwide work. It is true that the fiftieth year was five years earlier, say about 1916. But the War was on, and the Army was intensely busy with its gigantic work in the war zones. So now we have it in times of peace. The campaign will be announced and the local effort made. Committees have been struck, districts allotted and the canvas will be made and successfully. It is proposed to raise $5,000.00 for local extension and work. $1,000.00 to be expended locally and purely and $4,000.00 as a missionary effort from the local corps. Both good objects, both worthy of support.

No organization mustered for the fighting forces in excess of the Peterborough Salvation Army. Its local record is 100 per cent. When the call came for conscription there was not one man in, or connected with the Salvation Army, of military age. All had gone, served and returned disabled or were on the firing line. So that in asking for this support to the Army objects it knows that as a loyal institution it has lacked not in any particular.

Hats off to the Army. It does a work that no other will attempt. There is no social sore that it does not attempt to heal. It has some critics, but what are they in comparison to its friends, both in number and influence. The Army is wedded to poverty, it lives from hand to mouth. It practises perhaps the most genuine Socialism that the world has ever seen. Its workers live quiet, modest, earnest lives. No one can say that they benefit financially by their association. Its officers tackle the roughest propositions in the most uncouth surroundings. They train the tramp's children for honest work. Its women do not hesitate to tackle the wife-beater. It waits to help at the police courts and the jail gates. Hats off to the Army. Spurgeon said that "if the Salvation Army were wiped out of London 5,000 extra policemen could not fill its place in the repression of crime and disorder."

So when you are asked, on the 15th to do something, do it cheerfully, confident that you are helping a helpful cause and supporting a Purpose and a Movement that stands without a peer in its field—the World at Large.

LIVING APART CHEAP, DANIELSON SAYS

FANNIE HURST'S HUSBAND FINDS COMBINED EXPENSES LOWER UNDER THIS METHOD.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The Times received the following note and statement:

"In the face of the deluge of comment aroused by Miss Hurst's and my marriage announcement, I find myself constrained to make the following statement, to avoid growing misconceptions on the part of the public apparently eager to stamp with sensationalism the slightest departure, no matter how seriously and conventionally undertaken, from the beaten matrimonial trail.

"Very sincerely yours,

"J. S. DANIELSON."

This is the statement:

"Quite a shiver seems to have rippled along the spine of the public conscience over the fact that Miss Hurst and I are occupying separate apartments during this period of housing shortage. There are worse economic crimes being committed day after day in the average home of the joint and domestic felicity. I will venture the assumption, fairly secure in my statement, that in proportion to our respective incomes, our combined rents and scale of living amount to less than they would otherwise.

"Free from the strain of a marriage that has narrowed down the woman's scope so that creature comforts come to assume unduly large proportions, we find ourselves, with our multitudes of outside interests undiminished, content to live on scales that I confess are below the power of our respective incomes. Miss Hurst employs one maid in her studio. I have merely the by-the-hour services of a visiting maid. For those who seem to think that I am being cheated of the carpet slipper, fire-side aspect of domesticity, I wish further to make the statement that whenever I find the ache beginning to set in for the comfortable sag of the patent rocker, I need only to drop in at Miss Hurst's for one of the delicious homemade dinners her maid of five years' permanency knows so well how to prepare and the deep repose of her studio, which for quiet and comfort is equalled only to the similar hominess of mine own.

"I am grateful to the uplift ladies for their kindly solicitude as to my lonely state, but, like the small boy under the patronage of the well-meaning old lady, I wriggle. The worst of this alliance of mine is that I like it. The gracious woman barrister who commiserated my possible state of forlorn neglect upon the occasion of ill health, etc., need feel no concern. During one or two illnesses that have occurred these last five years I have never felt for one instant the lack of either garden variety wifely interest or solicitude, and, if I may enlarge upon Miss Hurst's graceful expression of the matter, the dew is thick upon the roses of that garden.

The popular interpretation seems to be that the life of Miss Hurst and me is one long rendezvous with alien interests. As a matter of fact, Miss Hurst probably spends more time in her home than the average woman. She is at her desk for six hours a day. She entertains friends at her own table three or four times a week; spends as many as three or four months a year with her parents in St. Louis. We are both workers, and must devote long evenings to study and reading and practise, so, all in all, I hardly think we can be classified as a pair that has thrown off the responsibilities of the usual marriage ties in order that we may play promiscuously.

"Rather, as it has worked itself out, we have thrown off the rusty shackles of some of the outworn matrimonial impositions, in order that we may have more liberty to live up to more of the responsibilities of our lives and our work."

Chorea—St. Vitus' Dance

When children's nerves become starved and exhausted their trouble usually takes the form of Chorea, St. Vitus' Dance or Convulsions.

Rapid growth—physiological changes—urgent school work and examinations mean a tremendous strain on the nervous system of the child who is naturally of a nervous temperament.

The child becomes fretful and irritable. Restless, wriggling movements of the limbs and face—inability to sit still—tendency to drop things from the hands tell of the development of these troubles.

Later, speech is affected and there is irregular twitching of the muscles, squinting of the eyes and other indications of loss of control of the muscles.

Rest in bed in a bright airy room with cheerful companionship and the absence of anything to irritate or excite the nerves is the ideal condition for recovery.

Since the nervous system is completely starved and exhausted it is essential that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food should be used regularly and persistently to build up the depleted nerve cells.

Instead of dwelling on the merits of this well-known food cure we shall refer you to the letters quoted here which tell of actual results accomplished.

St. Vitus Dance

Mrs. Wm. Matt, Cordova, Man., writes:

"My little girl, ten years old, was not very well, and I noticed some rather odd ways about her. She used to act very strangely at times. I asked the doctor what could be the matter, and he said she had St. Vitus' Dance, to keep her quiet and out of school. He said treatments weren't any use for her. She was affected in this way for a year. I thought something ought to be done, so in looking over Dr. Chase's Almanac I read several testimonials from people who had used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I sent for six boxes, and started this treatment with my daughter. Before she had finished the first box I could see a great change in her, and by the time she had taken the six boxes, she was completely cured. She is real well now, and going to school every day."

Twitching Nerves

Mrs. M. E. Robson, 170 Dublin St., Peterboro, Ont., writes:

"When about the age of 14 or 15 my daughter was on the verge of nervous break-down. She had a very poor appetite, lost all her color, and at times had a twitching of the nerves in her limbs. I secured some of Dr. Chases Nerve Food and gave her a treatment, using five or six boxes. The results were splendid, entirely curing her of her nervous trouble, and restoring her appetite. I find Dr. Chase's Nerve Food a splendid Spring tonic, and best results to be found by taking some of the Kidney-Liver Pills at the same time."

St. Vitus' Dance

Mr. S. F. Flarity, Wiarton, Ont. writes:

"My daughter, eleven years of age, was in a run down condition, and suffered from a nervousness which showed a tendency toward St. Vitus' Dance. I got a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her, and by the time she had taken three boxes there was a big change in her. She is much stronger, and her system in general is built up. She has recovered from her nervous weakness, and you could not detect a trace of it now. I gladly recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from nervousness of any kind."

Convulsions

Mrs. Xavier Albert, St. Francois, N. B. writes:

"My daughter, Imelda, was troubled for four years with nervousness. Almost every night, she used to take nervous convulsions. We took her to a doctor, but he did not do her any good. Finally we began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and gradually the convulsions were less and less frequent, until they disappeared altogether. It was two years ago that she used the Nerve Food, and six boxes completely cured her. We are very grateful for what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done for her."

DELEGATES FROM BANDS WILL BE INVITED TO MEET THE COUNCIL

ANOTHER ABORTIVE EFFORT TO DISPOSE OF APPROPRIATION FOR MUSIC IN THE PARKS—PROPOSAL FOR COMMUNITY BAND PRESENTED BY G.W.V.A.

Some time this summer the City Council and the bands interesetd in the civic appropriation for music in the parks may reach an agreement. Another chapter to the prolonged discussion was written in the minutes of the Committee of the Whole last night, but the last word is not yet. After hearing a deputation from the G.W.V.A., composed of Messrs. Layfield, Whatley and Dyer, the committee decided to defer action until a later meeting, when representatives of both the G.W.V.A. and 57th Regiment will be invited to attend. At first it was suggested that the question be again laid before the Parks committee, but it was considered advisable to let the whole Council wrestle with it in Committee of the Whole. The patience the Council has exercised should be rewarded by achieving a spirit of harmony and unity that has not been evident in all the discussions up to the present.

Mr. Layfield's Proposal.

"We are not asking money from you to-night," Mr. Layfield said, "but we offer to go fifty-fifty with you in forming a Citizens' band."

In the plan he briefly outlined a Band Commission would have control of the community organization and would include a member from the G.W.V.A. The Veterans were prepared to donate $1,000, providing the city contribute an equal amount. They would also furnish the band hall with light and heat and other accommodation that represented $1,000 a year. The city's annual grant for music in the park would materially help in maintaining the proposed band, and other engagements would make it self-supporting.

The G. W. V. A. bandsmen didn't want to tie themselves up "body and soul for three years to a military organization," Mr. Layfield said. A similar opposition had been shown by the 91st regimental band of Hamilton. Out of sixty-five bandsmen available only twenty-two had attested for the militia.

"Our band would cease to be a society band and would be open to all citizens," Mr. Layfield concluded, remarking the conductors, Messrs. Hughes and Peryer, had spent three years during the war leading several of the best military bands seven days in the week.

"We offered ourselves as a unit to the 57th Regiment," Mr. Whatley said, "but we have never received a reply to that letter. We concluded therefore that our services were not required. Of course there was something in the way that didn't suit the officers of the 57th. Naturally we asked that the conductors of the G.W.V.A. band be retained if the organization was accepted for regimental work."

Take It From 57th.

Referring to the letter from the G.W.V.A. to the regiment, Ald Crowe stated that the offer the Veterans made did not "look like joining up with the regiment, but like taking the whole matter out of the 57th's hands."

"I'd like to see the two bands get together," he continued. "We need only one band and if we had a society behind it I am sure that many citizens would subscribe toward its maintenance. We have the armouries and we know that we will have a regiment, and the regiment must have a band. If the regiment wasn't there I would certainly endorse the G.W.V.A. proposal. We can't get the men together in a little while It might take a year or two to get things in shape."

Mr. Whatley presented a written agreement under which the G.W.V.A. band would merge into community institution to be known as the Veterans'-Citizens' Band.

Ald. Gordon moved, seconded by Ald. Whitehouse, that the G.W.V.A. deputation and representatives of the 57th Regiment confer with the Parks committee with the object of ascertaining whether an amalgamation could be accomplished.

This motion was defeated, only Ald. Hamilton voting with its proposers.

"I voted against Ald. Gordon's motion beacuse we were called together to dispose of this question to-night," Ald Turner explained. "I am prepared to vote on it now We haven't $1,000 to contribute for the purpose suggested. The Parks committee has the money, but certain expenses have been incurred in building paths in the parks that will eat into the appropriation."

Ald. Crowe moved, seconded by Ald. Turner, that $600 be appropriated for thirteen concerts by a band of thirty, including the conductor, the bandmaster to be held responsible for the fulfilment of the contract..

Should Be One Band.

Ald. Hamilton—It seems to me the G.W.V.A. are acting in a public spirited manner and that we should take advantage of their offer. It is necessary that the Regiment should have a band, and we should encourage them to whatever extent we can. The only solution is to get the two bands together. If they won't come together let's try to smooth out the difficulties.

Ald. Morrison— I think the 57th should be set aside.

Ald. Gordon—They wouldn't take the split grant last year.

Ald. Phelan—With all due respects to the G.W.V.A. I would hate to turn down the 57th Regiment. It would be better for all concerned and for the city too if they could be brought together.

Ald. Gordon offered his resolution as an amendment to Ald. Crowe's motion. Its substance this time was that representatives of the two bands meet the Committee of the Whole with a view to trying to have a citizens' band established.

Ald Turner voted for it as did Aldermen Whitehouse, Hamilton and Phelan. This was the necessary majority.

SILVER CUP WAS PRESENTED TO "B" COMPANY OF THE CADET CORPS

MEMBERS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD ADDRESSED THE CADETS AT THE ANNUAL INSPECTION—THE INSPECTION WAS A BIG SUCCESS.

The Peterboro Cadet Brigade, comprising No. 13 Cadet Battalion of the Collegiate Institute and the Cadet Corps of the public schools, was inspected yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Exhibition Grounds by Lt.-Col. G. H. Gillespie of Kingston O C. of Cadet Corps. The Brigade turned out about 400 strong and made an excellent showing under the command of Cadet Brigadier E. T. W. Bailey before a large crowd of spectators.

A Good Showing.

The Brigade made an impressive sight formed up for the ceremonial which opened the inspection and in the march past which followed did some very good marching. Due to the number of Corps ot be inspected and the shortness of the period at their disposal, battalion and platoon drill was dispensed with. In the company drill the Collegiate Cadet Corps performed the movements especially well with the King Edward School Corps a close second.

Lt.-Col. G. H. Gillespie.

At the close of the inspection Lt.-Col. Gillespie addressed the Brigade and said it was the best unit which he had inspected in the district. He considered the Collegiate Institute Cadets had made an especially good showing but this was to be expected considering their greater experience and age. Next to them they considered the King Edward School Cadets the best. He said the other Corps must not think that the Collegiate Cadets took first place because of their uniforms, for while they looked very smart in the uniforms, it was not on account of that but because of the manner in which they went through the drill that made them worthy of first place.

Deplored Collegiate Cadet Incident.

Lt.-Col. Gillespie deplored the recent incident in the Collegiate Cadet Corps and especially the publicity which it received. It was only "a tempest in a tea pot." In the future, he hoped, this would prove a lesson to the Cadets and if such an incident should recur they would be careful to see that it did not gain such publicity.

Rifle Events.

He spoke of the coming rifle events at the Toronto Exhibition and stated that he wished the Collegiate Institute Cadets to enter a team. He though they were the smartest looking unit he had seen and in their uniforms would make an excellent showing at the Exhibition.

Presentation of Prizes.

Lt.-Col. Gillespie then presented the silver cup, which is given each year to the commanding officer of the company of the Collegiate Cadets which makes the best showing, to Cadet Major Philip Davidson, commander of "B" Company. The ribbons which are given to the winning platoon he presented to Cadet Lieutenant Harold Wilgar, commander of the 7th Platoon, of "B" Company and congratulated both officers highly. This is the first year in some time that "B" Company has won both prizes, "A' Company, the larger boys, having won them for several years in succession. Lt.-Col. Gillespie also congratulated Capt. C. E. Jamieson, B.A. Ll D., the Collegiate Cadet Instructor.

Associated with Lt.-Col. Gillespie in the inspection was Capt. G. G. Winterbottom, Adjutant of the 57th Regiment.

Members of School Board Speak.

Mr. R. Denne, chairman of the Board of Education was present and made a few remarks in which he congratulated the Cadets on their showing and promised them a full day for inspection next year. Two other members of the Board, Mrs. W. R. Morris and Mr. A. A. Fowler also congratulated the Cadets.

COUNCIL MENTIONS MR. BURNHAM'S HOPE

ALLUDED TO HIS POSSIBLE INTERMENT IN THE SENATE.

In a spirit of either levity or gravity the elevation or sepulture of J. Hampden Burnham by his possible appointment to the Senate was mentioned at the Committee of the Whole Council last night when some member asked whether the Council would recommend him to the Government for this honour.

"If any person is recommended, I think it should be Mr. T. E. Bradburn," Ald. Gordon commented.

"Let us keep out of politics," Ald. Crowe advised, but one of the members asserted that this wasn't a political question. At that, it faded out of the passing scene for the Committee had freed itself for the evening from the major problems of the band grants and a new housing scheme. They were in the mood to give anything a "once over."

Carry Out Agreement.

Ald. Turner was assured that as soon as the by-law has passed the Council, the Wilson brothers' offer to sell their 38-acre site for the sewage disposal plant at $17,000 will be confirmed, and it is likely that the money will be paid immediately thereafter.

Ald. Gordon suggested that there was no hurry about making the full payment. The Wilson brothers, he said, had got a big price for their land.

The majority of the Committee agreed that the purchase might as well be expedited and completed as soon as possible.

City Engineer Parsons is working on the property now.

To Succeed Ald. Phelan.

At the next meeting of the Council a suburban roads commissioner will be appointed to succeed the late Ald. Harry Phelan.

Ald. Hamilton was authorised to order a supply of tarvia for repairs to street crossings.

Mayor McIntyre was instructed to sign the plans of the Hunter Street Bridge showing the platform to the Quaker Oats factory, as soon as they have been approved by the Quaker Oats Company.

MADAM PANTAZZI ADDRESSED THE PETERBORO WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

THE PLIGHT OF ROUMANIA WAS VIVIDLY PORTRAYED BY THE SPEAKER.

Last evening in the Great War Veterans' Hall, under the auspices of the Woman's Canadian Club, Madame Pantazzi placed before the large audience the story of her adventures in Roumania and in Odessa, graphically picturing the occupation of Odessa by the Bolsheviks and their subsequent evacuation of the city, all of which the speaker witnessed.

The Club.

The evening opened with a charmingly rendered solo by Miss Florence Scott, after which Mrs. James Kendry, who occupied the chair, spoke of the organization of the Club, which has now a membership of 177 women. She referred to the series of interesting addresses which have so far been given to the Club, concluding that Madame Pantazzi's address would doubtless be a banner night for the organization.

The First Canadian.

After a brief sketch of Roumania, Madame Pantazzi stated that her arrival there 11 years ago was a great disappointment to the majority of the people, the majority of whom had never seen a Canadian before, and doubtless expected her to be tinged with Indian or Eskimo blood.

The War.

Roumania's situation in the war was unique, the speaker said, in fact her ruler, King Carol, was a Hohenzollern, a distant relative of the Kaiser ,and her Queen, Carmen Sylva, was also a German; while the sympathy of the whole nation was with the Latin races. The only object the country might have in going into the war was to regain Transylvania. Day by day, the speaker contined, from 1914, the sympathy of the Roumanians kept growing for the allies, and in 1916, while in Bucharest, where she herself came in close touch with leading political opinion she learned that in all probability the country would cast her lot in with them.

Again the country was in a peculiar situation in the fact her people had learned not to trust the Russians, beside whom they must fight, while France and England were far distant.

On August 27th, King Carol died, and his Queen followed a few months later. Ferdinand, now on the throne, though also a Hohenzollern, like Queen Marie, sympathized with the allies and had expressed his willingnes to go in with him when action was finally decided upon. On the night following the declaration of war against Germany, which was made at 5 o'clock, at 12 o'clock a Zeppelin raid was made of the country.

Roumania's Plight.

Continuing, the speaker told of Roumania's plight with five divisions to stem the German hordes of fourteen divisions, at a result of which one million Roumanians were lost in her two years of war. "Never," she said, "did the spirit of the officers falter over the situation, but they were depressed over the rows of their countrymen being mowed down by guns superior to their own."

A Refugee.

Having herself experienced the horrors Madame Pantazzi gave a graphic description of the refugees from Roumania, of the desperate conditions they all combatted, suffering with cold and lack of proper food and water. She spoke in glowing terms of the kindness of a community of French nuns who shared their all too little with the refugee children. Hunger, over-crowding, and a cold wave brought in its wake a number of contagious diseases, including the plague, from which only one per cent receovered who contracted it.

At Odessa.

Later Madame Pantazzi arrived in Odessa where she resided when the revolution broke out. She described the chaos ensuing when the ignorant Russians, thinking that if they were not at home when the land settlement took place, they would not get a share, left the trenches and blindly started for their one time homes.

German spies were now getting in their work and Red Bolshevism soon spread like wild fire. The sailors cast in their lot with the Reds and a reign of terror ensued in Odessa, which was practically isolated from other countries.

"Before us," the speaker said, "was the Black Sea sown with mines, behind us the Russians and Roumanians fighting and outside the on-coming German hordes. The worst fears of the Roumanians had been realized." The speaker described her personal experiences with the Bolsheviks who searched her house and then treated her with the same barbarity they treated all the others.

The Arrival of Colonel Boyle.

With no news of Roumania, the colony of Roumanians were absolutely at bay until word came that a Canadian had arrived in Odessa. To Madame Pantazzi's delight he was none other than Colonel Boyle of Woodstock. She described the Colonel's attempt to exchange the 400 Bolshevik prisoners taken by the Roumanians for the 75 hostages the Bolsheviks had imprisoned, amongst whom was Madame Pantazzi's husband, of his success in obtaining a promise of the exchange, the treachery of the Bolsheviks in taking the prisoners to sea and Colonel Boyle's subsequent triumphant arrival back with the hostages after enduring untold hardships in doing so.

The speaker concluded by describing the reception tendered to Col. Boyle at the hands of Roumania when the Queen conferred on him the highest honor in presenting him with the Star of Roumania and the Prisoners and their wives an illuminated address bearing the inscription "God Bless Canada and her Noble Sons."

Vote of Thanks.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker for her interesting address, by Mr. H. R. H. Kenner, seconded by Mr. J W Fraser.

There Are Five Reasons Why We Carry Five Different Widths in Our Footwear Lines

Hundreds of people are wearing boots too long or too short because the dealer did not have the proper width, and he overcame the difficulty by selling a size larger or smaller. We purchase our footwear in widths from AA to D, and have reason to be glad of it every day. We mention this to point out how exacting we are about fitting shoes.

OUR WHITE SUMMER OXFORDS AND PUMPS HAVE ARRIVED

to the links, the lake shore or the seaboard, and all on pleasure bent, and it means so much to be fittingly attired. The plaid or striped skirt is certainly the favourite whether it is to be worn amid a landscape of green or destined to have the rippling surface of a blue lake or the rolling ocean for a background.

A taupe serge with a large plaid over pattern of three shades of blue, ranging from dark to light. It hangs gracefully from the waist in wide and narrow pleats. The top is finished with a wide belt adorned with a solitary blue button. There are two front pockets into which you can poke your hands in man fashion, if you desire. Priced at $33.75.

A French gray worsted is pleated and the pattern so arranged that the last eighteen inches of each pleat is apple green and two circular bands of apple green relieve the upper portion. A deep belt is trimmed with green lock stitching and makes a charming finish. Price, $27.00.

A fine serge that almost resembles a jersey cloth in its softness is a medium sized check pattern that shows an equal amount of taupe and twilight blue. It has two jutted patch pockets trimmed with taupe buttons and the single pleat that extends down the back is treated in a similar manner. The belt is narrow and plain. Price, $29.00.

A navy blue worsted serge patterned with an overplaid of twilight blue and mingled with a stripe of gold is cut on swagger lines with six box pleats and two slot pockets in front. The fastening of the belt is concealed by a large pearl gray buckle. Price $32.00.

Light and airy is this one of fine French serge with an equal amount of gray and cream in the striped pattern that runs perpendicularly. There is also a dash of turquoise blue in the form of narrow stripes that relieve the white. The two pockets are concealed by a set on flap with pearl buttons. Price $33.95.

Tailored, sports or dressy chapeaux, which will it be? or all three. They are here in all their transparent beauty with maline or mohair crowns and brims, deftly braided with lisere and other straws and sometimes flowers and still more flowers to give them a dash of colour. Wisps of wheat or jutting pieces of aigretted ostrich are marvellously arranged at queer but becoming angles. Leghorns are greatly favoured in both dressy and tailored models. For sports wear jaunty shapes with rolling brims in plain tagal and combination colours, with bands of taffeta are made pleasing with many little seemingly unimportant touches.

As to shape, there is no set rule. It is merely a question of what is most becoming, but many women will select one with a wide brim, for they afford greater protection from a warm sun.

Beautiful Check Fabrics With Which to Make a Skirt

They are the finest quality of French serge and have a novelty finish that is not unlike suede. The checks are defined by narrow pencil lines that are not boisterous.

You have choice of a rose ground with a gray check and a purple ground with a gray check and a beautiful soft French blue tone with a gold check.

They are fifty-two inches wide and are priced at $7.75 yard.

CUT KING EDWARD PARK INTO 48 LOTS AND BUILD HOUSES ON 24, THE COUNCIL PROPOSES

ALD. TURNER'S PLAN FOR RELIEVING THE SCARCITY OF HOUSES APPROVED BY THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE—FIRST STEPS TAKEN TO GIVE IT EFFECT.

COST MORE THAN $75,000

The transfer of King Edward park to the Housing Commission for subdivision into 48 lots, each 108 feet deep with a frontage of 40 feet, and the erection of houses on twetny-four of these lots at an aggregate cost of from $75,000 to $100,000, exclusive of the value of the property, was proposed at a meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council last night as a relief to the pressing scarcity of houses in this city.

Scheme is Tenative.

The resolution embodying this scheme which is still in the inceptive stage was moved by Ald. Turner and seconded by Ald. Crowe, and was unanimously adopted. Mayor McIntyre presided, with Aldermen Jones, Hamilton, Turner, Whitehouse, Phelan, Gordon, Morrison and Crowe present.

It was apparently Ald. Turner's idea, but it is only in its first draft. Assurance of its fullest consideration before definitive action is taken is found in the requirement to submit several bylaws to the Committee of the Whole before final authorization is given the local Housing Committee to proceed with the plans.

Re-appoint Commissioners.

Ald. Turner's motion first provides for a new by-law re-appointing Mayor McIntyre, Frank H. Dobbin and James Finnie Housing Commissioners under the 1920 provincial Act, and also provides that the new Act shall apply to Peterboro.

The issuance of Housing debentures to the amount of $200,000 bearing interest at six per cent. is also authorized, and the Provincial Government will be asked to guarantee them.

Further, the Peterboro Housing Commission is instructed to have a survey made of King Edward Park for its subdivision into lots, to submit plans of the proposed houses to the Committee and after these have been approved by the Council the Commission is empowered to call for tenders for the construction of twenty-four houses on the King Edward Park lots, the tenders to be submitted to the Committee of the Whole before the contract is let.

Mr. Dobbin, who was present last night asked whether it was the intention to confine this housing scheme to the south end. He said that Mr. Worth was anxious that if anything was done that some houses be erected in the north end.

Ald. Turner replied that if this programme is carried out it will help to relieve the present over-crowding. The scheme might be carried into other sections of the city, he added.

Action Delayed.

"As you are aware, we haven't got along very fast with this proposition on account of the Government not having the Housing Act ready" the Mayor remarked as a preface to the Housing problem for the discussion of which he said the meeting had been called.

City Clerk Armstrong laid before His Worship a letter dated May 4th from I. A. Ellis, of Toronto, Chairman of the Provincial Housing Committee, enclosing a copy of the new Act and notifying the city that, if Peterboro intended to adopt a building scheme, local bonds would be guaranted by the Government to the maximum of $250,000.

The Act Only Slightly Altered.

Replying to the enquiries of several of the Aldermen Mr. Armstrong stated that the 1920 Housing Act was practically identical with last year's, except that in 1919 the Government loaned money directly to municipalities whereas the municipal councils are now empowered to raise the money they need for housing by issuing debentures which the Geovernment would guarantee.

Ald. Gordon suggested that a new bylaw be passed to accord with the 1920 Act.

Cut Up King Edward Park.

Ald. Turner submitted a pen sketch of the proposed sub-division of King Edward Park showing forty-eight lots.

If the Council undertook a building scheme on this property he believed the houses would be quickly disposed of.

Ald. Dobbin—"I haven't heard one citizen speak adversely of the cutting up of that Park."

Mayor McIntyre asked whether the Committee considered a forty-foot frontage to broad for these lots, and the consensus appeared to be favorable to that frontage.

Open a New Street.

The plan provides for a lane along the north side of the park at the rear of the lots for the south side of Romaine street. A new street would be opened from Aylmer to George street and on each side of it there would be sixteen lots, those on its north side having a lane which would also serve the remaining sixteen lots that would front on the north side of Princess street.

The dimensions of each of the 48 lots would be 40 by 108 feet. An alternative division of the property admitted 54 lots each 35 feet by 108 feet but the 40 feet frontages were preferred by the Committee; and at $400 each their total value would be $19,200.

The depth of the Park from Princess street to the north boundary is 466 feet.

"Forty feet seems quite a lot for one house," Ald. Crowe remarked.

Aldermen Jones, Whitehouse and Turner were in favour of the wider frontage.

Ald. Turner outlined his resolution "to bring the discussion to a head." It was decided to ask the Government to guarantee the bonds in order that they would have the additional security.

The rate of interest the debentures shall bear was fixed at six per cent. Ald. Turner informed the Committee that local manufacturers had applied for only $50,000 of the Housing bonds. If the rate for the debentures generally subscribed was higher than six per cent., he argued that this rate be paid for all the bonds sold.

PALE ANAEMIC CHILDREN NEED VINOL

It Makes Puny, Thin, Ailing Children Strong, Robust and Rosy

Physicians Recommend It and Druggists Guarantee It

Rapidly growing children need a great deal of vitality. They not only grow fast but play hard and work hard at school and often are tired, thin, pale, worn and listless when they should be strong, robust and rosy.

If mothers could only realize how VINOL will build up strength for thin, pale, delicate, ailing children, create a hearty appetite, sound flesh and muscle tissue, rich, red blood, and make them strong, robust and rosy, they would not rest until they had started their little ones taking it.

It is the medicinal, body building extractives of fresh cods' livers, aided by beef peptone and tonic iron, three of the oldest and most successful tonics known to medicine, that act so quickly in VINOL, and you know what you are giving your little ones.

If VINOL fails to benefit them, your druggist will return your money.

GOOD DIGESTION

To be able to eat what you want and to digest it properly is a priceless blessing. Good digestion is not appreciated until you lose it. Then you canot afford to experiment, for strong medicines are hard on weak stomachs. If you have indigestion do not be persuaded into believing you can cure yourself by the use of pre-digested foods or so-called stomach tonics. There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every part of the body. It is through the blood that the stomach gets its power to assimilate and digest food, and as the blood goes to every part of the body any improvement in its condition not only results in strengthening the stomach, but every organ in the body. Rich, red blood is absolutely necessary to good digestion. If your stomach is weak and you are troubled with sour risings in the throat, a feeling of pressure about the heart, or nausea after eating, try the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. So many dyspeptics have been cured by this medicine that every suffer from stomach trouble should try it. You will soon know the joy of good digestion and enjoy better health in other ways if you give this medicine a fair trial.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

When Buying a Watch Think First of Quality

THE FIRST COST of an inferior Watch is a long way from being its last cost. Watchmakers nowadays receive high wages. Their bills are apt to be large for time spent in trying to repair low grade watches. It is far better to buy a Guaranteed Watch from us, and save repair bills.

URGES ANGLICANS TO PRAY FOR GOOD WEATHER AND CROPS

CALGARY, Alta., May 13.—Bishop Pinkham of the Anglican diocese of Calgary, earnestly asks the clergy of the diocese to use, in public worship, suitable prayers from the New Canadian Prayer book, for favorable weather during the season for the cultivation of the soil and for a bountiful harvest, and he invites all Anglicans to join him in praying for these blessings when they pray privately, or use family prayer.

Stomach and Liver Trouble

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes wilful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of sorts. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal you should take Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They liven up the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Mrs. G. L. Cackett, Enchant, Alta., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have found them good for both stomach and liver troubles. I have told others about your valuable medicine and they have used them with good results.

"They are also good for headache."

GEN. GWYNNE LEAVING OTTAWA

END OF A LONG AND HONOURABLE MILITARY CAREER.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWWA, May 13.—Retirement of Brig.-Gen R. J. Gwynne, C.M.G., from headquarters staff of the Canadian Militia, is announced, together with news that the general is leaving Ottawa in about one month to reside in future in Western Canada. While there has been no official announcement of the decision of General Gwynne to retire, it is definitely known.

His military career has been long and honorable and his knowledge of cavalary matters in which he has specialized, has given him the well deserved reputation of being one of the best informed and most capable cavalry experts in Canada. This is shown by a book published by him entitled, "Explantions and Details for Movement in Cavalry Training," published in 1909, which showed his intimate knowledeg along such lines.

Cadet Training.

For the last eight years General Gwynne has been attached to the headquarters staff in Ottawa. He was brought to Ottawa from Western Canada by Sir Sam Hughes to take complete charge of cadets for Canada, having been an enthusiastic in the training of cadets in the west. He was later appointed Assistant Adjutant General for Canada and for a time acted as Adjutant General during the absence of the Adjutant General during the war.

General Gwynne will remain in Ottawa, holding office until July 1, and while no one has been appointed to succeed him, announcement along this line will be made before General Gwynne leaves the city.

General Gwynne is an old country man and was educated at Eton and Oxford. He was gazeted Major of the 16th Light Horse in Canada 1907, and Lieut.-Col. commanding in 1908.

Sir George Foster announced yesterday afternoon that the budget would be brought down Tuesday. The House will go into supply on Monday.

THE SELFISH THING.

"You're engaged to Fred, aren't you?" remarked the girl in the pink velour hat

"Yes; but I'm not happy," replied her friend in the puce frieze coat.

"What's wrong?"

"I'm afraid he's selfish."

"Why so?"

"He asked me for my hand, and I gave it to him," said the girl in puce frieze, her voce flat and miserable.

"Of course."

"Well, it wasn't until I had given my hand to him that he put a diamond ring on my finger."

The girl in the pink velour hat looked at her friend in bewilderment.

"Of course not. But how does that show selfishness?"

"Why, it was his hand, then, wasn't it?"

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or have Bladder trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Now is the time for all the rest of the paragraphers to remark that they are outja bored.

STRANGE RECOVERY.

Cured By Falling — Now Able to Walk as if Never Sick.

(Canadian Press.)

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., May 13.—A remarkable incident happened at St. Joseph's Convent here recently. One of the sisters who for the past twelve months has been unable to walk, suffering from a tubercular knee, and who was told by several doctors that it would be absolutely impossible for her to walk again, fell from a chair in trying to get a wheel chair that was close by, and in falling she regained her strength. The strange thing was she started to walk; in fact ran around the convent, and she is now walking, it is said, as if she had never been sick.

RUST-PROOF STEEL USED IN DENTISTRY

PLATE WEIGHS JUST HALF THAT OF GOLD PLATE FROM SAME IMPRESSION.

At a convention of German dentists recently held at Jena one of the members spoke on the use of rust-proof steel in dentistry, says the Scientific American.

This steel, highly alloyed with chromium and nickel, has been put on the market by the house of Krupp It is protected by patents. The steel is remarkable for its high power of chemical resistance to corrosion; it is excellently suited for mechanical purposes, since it possesses an extraordinary toughness. The fine qualities of this new form of steel became evident especially during the war.

Hauptmeyer, the lecturer, has tried to use the steel in dentistry, for it not only equals gold and platinum in mechanical value but it even surpasses these precious metals in regard to powers of resistance to chemical action. Especially good results are promised in the manufacture of instruments with edged surfaces which have to be sterilized without injury to the edge.

The surface of the rust-proof steel acquires an intense brightness from polishing and it may therefore be used for mouth and throat mirrors. For the purpose of fastening artificial teeth in rubber the steel will probably also become a valuable substitue for platinum and gold, which are now in use. The rust proof steel may be drawn into fine wire. On account of its elasticity and firmness, even dental plates may be cast from the steel, the weight of such a plate being just half that of a gold plate made from the same impression.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

YOUR AND YOU MONEY

LOOK AHEAD FIVE YEARS

By John M. Oskison.

Look ahead! That's old advice—and sound advice. In the days before so many of us became hired men we knew mighty well that if our little store of our farm were to make a comfortable living for us we must foresee the demand for goods and farm produce. We planted to reap, and bought to sell.

Now, more and more of us are dealing only in our personal assets We are marketing only our hands and brains.

Is there less need than before for us to look ahead?

I think not.

I don't need to tell you that there is now a good market for our hands and brains. Need I say that this is a world of change? What about tomorrow?

And five years from now? Here is a thought for you to take home and develop:

Beginning in five year. Germany is pledged to commence yearly payments to our late Allies amounting to more than a billion dollars a year These payments will continue for about thirty years.

In order to pay Germany will have to manufacture things which can be sold outside. More and more of her people will be drawn into the factories where exportable goods are made. Germany's need for a world market for her goods will be more acute than ever before in history.

Her workers are going to come into strenuous competition with those of other countries including the United States. And our manufacturers will either have to cut production or lower cost of production to meet German competition.

That is going to mean reduction of wages and salaries—you and I must look forward to that time.

Meanwhile, too, England and France and Belgium and Poland and other European countries will also felt the need for exporting as much as they can in order to get their money back on the old basis of value as compared with ours—in order to pay their debts to us.

The pay envelope is fat to-day; what are you going to do about the future, when it begins to grow thin?

BEWARE OF TENDER GUMS

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

NOT ACTORS BUT PUBLIC THAT NEEDS UPLIFTING

Tyronne Power Speaks on "Relation of the Theatre to the Community."

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 13. — A vigorous invective of the apathy and indifference of the general public towards the production of good plays was delivered by Tyronne Power, when he addressed delegates to the Local Council of Women, at their annual meeting, on the subject "The Relation of the Theatre to the Community." "There is no such relation," he declared. "People are not interested in the theatre and know nothing about it. They do not take the theatre and the actor seriously or realize that they can have the best plays and playwrights if they cared enough to ask for them. There is some talk about uplifting the stage, but I tell you, it is not the actors who require uplifting, but the public who must be uplifted to our standard. Let the theatre be more than a place of amusement—one of the noblest platforms in the world for speaking truth and light," he said. In conclusion Mr. Power declared: "I would suggest that if you want good drama, instead of twaddle and trash, that you form an organization similar to the Drama League of America, which has already accomplished wonderful things."

eleventh, his action culminated in the publication by Pius X. and in 1919 on the sixth of April she was proclaimed a saint.

The Climax.

And now this victim in her lifetime, of error, suspicion, betrayal, trickery, persecution and martyrdom, who was burned, as we have seen at the stake at Rouen, as a witch, in 1431, is to be linked with the long list of Martyrs and Confessors of the faith, to whom honour and praise are to be offered on the Altars of the Roman Catholic Churches.

Grounds for Doubting Her Burning.

There are always some historians to be found who doubt certain well-accepted beliefs. The father of the noted Horace Walpole used to say "anything but history; that must be false." According to Boswell, Dr. Johnson used to hold a somewhat similar opinion, and Gibbon, alluding to the falacies of history, said, "the spectators of events knew too little, the actors were too deeply interested to speak the truth."

Now the date of the burning at Rouen is generally accepted as being May 30, 1431, yet it is now said by some French historians that the archives of the city of Orleans contain in the Treasurer's accounts for 1435, a receipt for eleven francs and eight sous, paid to messengers who had brought a letter from 'Jeanne la Pucelle.' (Jane, the maid) by which name she had been known.

Alleged Proofs.

In the registry of the city of Mentz are documents—so it is said—which purport to show that she went there in 1436; and in order to make sure she was not an imposter, the magistrates sent for her two brothers, Pierre and Jean, who at once recognized her. There are even entries in the city books in reference to the marriage contract between Robert d'Armoise, Knight, and Jeanne d'Arc, la Pucelle d'Orleans. It is likewise averred that the King of France ennobled the Dare family and the records for 1439 of the city of Orleans bear entries of various sums spent on public rejoicings on the occasion of the visit of Robert d'Armoise and Jeanne, his wife, visiting the city. Also a payment of the sum of two hundred and ten livres (about seven hundred and fifty dollars)—a large sum in those days—for services rendered by her during the siege of the city.

It has been urged, however, that Dame d'Armoise was an imposter. Yet there was a belief that the Maid of Orleans was never burned, but that another criminal was substituted for her; the real Jeanne being released from prison on the death of the Duke of Bedford in 1435.

Whether these alleged entries be spurious or genuine I do not pretend to say. Suffice it that today's proceedings would not have been endorsed by the Holy See without the closest examination into all factors in the case.

And so I leave the question—a very pretty puzzle as it stands. Anyway I have always been taught to believe that the real history is such as I have here briefly outlined, and which has been accepted by the Roman Catholic Church, as evidenced by its ceremony today.

Epilogue.

Joan of Arc, Maid of Orleans, Sainte Jeanne! the writer humbly bows the head to your memory. He has been in city of Rouen many times, and on the site of the execution and on each occasion his heart, if not literally, has metaphorically bled at the recollection of that act of irreparable injustice which culminated in the betrayal and murder of that simple-minded lass who was the Saviour of her country, who led the compatriots' army to victory.

Truly a noble example.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty)

A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair is vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury, but care should be exercised to get real delatone.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

CLUBS REQUEST PETERBORO HELP FOR MIDLAND FOOTBALL LEAGUE

REFEREES APPOINTED—HANDSOME DONATIONS RECEIVED—ENGLAND VS. SCOTLAND PLAYERS TO BE CHOSEN NEXT THURSDAY—MIDLAND FOOTBALL LEAGUE SUGGESTED—PLAYERS TRANSFERRED

The football executive of the Peterborough Association met last evening in Fred Sutcliffe's barber shop to transact business that has accumulated during the past two weeks. Mr. J. Parkins, the president, occupied the chair.

Referees Appointed.

The referees' reports of the games were accepted as satisfactory, and the following referees were appointed for the games on Saturday and next Thursday:

Canadian Woollens vs. Machine Gun—Mr. A. McKinley—on Saturday.

G.W.V.A. vs. De Laval—Mr Fred Roberts.

Caledonians vs C.G.E.—Mr Bates—on Thursday evening.

Handsome Donations.

Handsome donations were received by the Association from Mr. Roland Denne $5.00, Col. Johnston $10.00, and Manufacturers' Association $50.00.

England vs. Scotland.

The executive will meet next Thursday evening at the Exhibition Grounds, after the Caledonians vs. C.G.E. game, to pick the respective players that will play in the International game on the 24th May.

Midland Football League.

A communication was read from Mr. George Brasford, of Oshawa, per Mr. Douglas Loomis, of the local Y. M. C. A, requesting that the Peterborough Association be the headquarters of the Midland Football League.

In Oshawa, they have six good football teams, and are getting satisfactory encouragement to get this Central League started. They stated that Bowmanville and Port Hope were willing to co-operate.

Mr. Baldwin, the Canadian Woollens representative, intends visiting Oshawa in a few days, and will consult the officials in the Lakeshore

The executive held it in abeyance until next meeting.

Transfer of Players.

Mr. Hillman of De Laval to the Canadian Woollens.

Mr. Sam Calladine of the C.G.E. to the Canadian Woollens.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

Port Hope Guide: The baseball team will practice this evening at the town park, weather permitting. On Friday night the boys had a brisk workout for an hour and while there are still some kinks in the arms and shoulders the spectators were well pleased with the showing and look forward to a most successful season. Nearly all of last year's players are available and with the addition of McDonald and Carveth, the locals should not have to take a back seat to any of the teams in the Central League. And let the management bear in mind that some of the younger blood should be introduced. Alex. Thompson and Frank Bird were playing snappy ball last year and should not be overlooked in the selection of this year's team.

SCOTT GETS THROUGH.

Pitcher Ed. Scott of Hillcrests, appeared before the Toronto Amateur Baseball Association executive and satisfied that body that he was o.k. to play in Toronto this season.

The first system of shorthand appeared in 1588.

ALL IS READY FOR THE CITY LEAGUE OPENING; TWO GAMES ON SATURDAY

At a meeting of the City Baseball League Executive held at the Empress Hotel last night all arrangements were completed for the League opening on Saturday. There will be a motor parade from the Y.M.C.A. at 1.30 o'clock sharp headed by the G.W.V.A. Band. Mayor McIntyre will pitch the first ball with Ald. Phelan and Ald. Crowe assisting him in the opening ceremonies.

A change was made in the schedule for the opening games. Under the new arrangements the Great War Veterans and Canadian Woollens will meet in the first game which will be called at 2 o'cock sharp while the Thistles and Canadian General will clash in the second fixture, both games to be seven innings affairs.

There is great interest in the League race this year and Saturday's programme promises a most interesting afternoons sports for the big crowd of fans who will undoubtedly be out.

Mr. Afex. Kay has consented to umpire. The announcement will be received with pleasure by fans and players alike and Mr. Kay's services will be of great benefit to the League

Following is the suggested schedule which will be considered at a meeting to be held on Monday evening next at 7 o'clock.

Saturday, May 15.—G.W.V.A. vs. Canadian Woollens; Thistles vs. C.G.E.

Saturday, May 22.—C.G.E. vs. G. W.V.A.; Canadian Woollens vs. Thistles.

Saturday, May 29.—C.G.E. vs. Canadian Woollens; Thistles vs. G.W. V.A.,

Tuesday, June 1.—G.W.V.A. vs. C.G.E.

Thursday, June 3—Thistles vs. Canadian Woollens.

Tuesday, June 8 — C.G.E. vs. Thistles.

Thursday, June 10.—Canadian Woollens vs. G.W.V.A.

Tuesday, June 15.—Canadian Woollens vs. C.G.E.

Thursday, June 17.—G.W.V.A. vs. Thistles.

Tuesday, June 22.—G.W.V.A. vs. C.G.E.

Thursday, June 24. — Canadian Woollens vs. Thistles.

Tuesday, June 29.—C.G.E. vs. Canadian Woollens.

Saturday, July 3.— G.W.V.A. vs. Canadian Woollens; Thistles vs. C. G.E.

Tuesday, July 6 — Thistles vs. G.W.V.A.

Thursday, July 8.— Canadian Woollens vs. C.G.E.

Saturday, July 10.—Thistles vs. Canadian Woollens; C.G.E. vs. G.W.V.A.

Tuesday, July 13.—G.W.V.A. vs. Thistles.

Saturday, July 17.—Canadian Woollens vs. G.W.V.A.; C.G.E. vs. Thistles.

The Canadian Woollen's team has been strengthened by the addition of Gordon McClintock the southpaw pitcher of the Thistles whom Manager Yeotes has consented to turn over. The Canadian General team has a number of surplus players who may also be seen with the Woollens while Manager Mulhall has signed Chris Bergoine, the clever little catcher of last years De Laval. The Woollens had contemplated relieving from the League race but at last night's meeting decided to stay in the battle the other teams offering to assist them in the hunt for players.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

Mayor A. A. McIntyre will pitch the first ball in the opening game of the City Baseball League on Saturday afternoon, when the Thistles and Canadian Generals get away at two p.m. Ald. Jos. Crowe, chairman of the Legal and Reception Committee, will wield the willow and Ald. Nagle Phelan, who is secretary-treasurer of the League, is down on the programme as catcher. The Mayor promises to give the batter some real music when he sends the ball on its first trip of the season.

The mayor and members of the Council discussed the invitation to take part in the opening ceremonies of the league, when in committee of the whole council last night. The matter of providing space for the purpose of parking cars outside the grounds on Saturday afternoon, was left with the Special Bridge Committee.

Louis Yeotes, manager of the Thistles, said to-day that he would probably start Howard Kirn against the Electrics, using "Hap" Harrison at first, Butcher at second base, Holyman at short field and Murray at the last pillow. Out in the garden he will have Shaughnessey, Adams and Lowe. Max Swanston will handle the big mit.

Against this formidable line-up Canadian Generals will have to do their smartest. Frost and Ross will probably form the battery, with Walter Jackson, Ray Rose, Roy Cherrett and Lornie Rose at the infield positions, Jackson performing at first, the Rose brothers at the other two bags, and Cherrett at third Jack McCarney will be seen in middle field, and Collins in left. There are many candidates for right field.

Canadian Generals and Veterans went through a four innings practice at the Riverside Park last night, with "Bun" Frost and Bobby Ross as battery for the Veterans and Allan Wade and Morse doing similar service for the Electric gang. There was much hitting and considerable booting, the latter being due largely to the condition of the pathways. For the Electrics, Yeager guarded first, Conners, second, Cherrett short and Collins third. Veterans displayed Gus Rose at first, Billy Field at second, Ed. Foley at short and Rutherford at third.

Whatever the omissions may be the fans are bound to see some good pitching and backstopping this summer. Both the Thistles and Generals are particularly strong in this Department. The infielders no matter how good they may be, will play under a big handicap, as it will be extremely difficult to field smoothly. The real estate used in an attempt to improve the infield has failed to do the job.

A defeat on opening day and prospects of another got on Manager Shaughnessey's nerves at Hamilton yesterday. The Flint catcher charged "Shag" with interference, and promptly knocked him down. Some catcher.

Currie and Ryan won for the Leafs yesterday, making it eight straight. "Babe" Dye has been farmed to Syracuse.

Blanche Sweet in A Woman of Pleasure

BLANCHE SWEET AT THE GRAND

APPEARING IN A "WOMAN OF PLEASURE."

Blanche Sweet, supported by an unusually strong cast, comes to the Grand Theatre to-day, Friday and Saturday in a special Pathe feature, "A Woman of Pleasure," produced by Jesse D. Hampton and directed by Wallace Worsley. Cast in the difficult role of a poor school teacher who marries to satisfy her desire for pretty clothes and social position and then repents her bargain when she meets her ideal in an employe of her husband's, Miss Sweet does some of the best acting of her long and splendid career.

Wheeler Oakman, remembered as the star of "The Ne'er Do Well," and Mabel Normand's leading man in "Mickey," previous to his career as a soldier for Uncle Sam, plays the role of the hero-lover. Wilfred Lucas, who alternates between being a hero and a villain, is a villain as mean as anyone could wish for. Wesley Barry, the freckle-faced kid who shared honors with Mary Pickford in "Daddy Long Legs," and with Blanche Sweet in "The Unpardonable Sin," gets a lot of laughs out of his part. Others in the cast are Spottiswoode Aitken, Milton Ross Joseph Swickard and Frederick Starr.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"

With plenty of laughs and jokes Gus Hills' presentation "Keeping Up With the Joneses" at the Grand last night gratified a well filled house who got exactly what they anticipated a hilarious comedy.

James K. Wesley as Aloysius P. McGinis ably filled the role and brought the cartoons of Pop Momand to life while Beatrice Harlow as his wife made the typical aspiring society queen whose fine ways were often forgotten when she reverted to horse play and rough house to deal with her delinquent husband. The other roles were well taken and the plot which was collaborated from the cartoons had all the characters in it and with lots of action and plenty of jokes it worked its way through two long acts.

The musical numbers that came across were, "What a Day it will be", "See her now," Cuba and Venetian Moon." The orchestral director Mr. Ken. Arnold was a shining light putting a pep and snap into his playing.

AT THE ALLEN

WELL UTILIZED BY D. W. GRIFFITH IN "A ROMANCE OF HAPPY VALLEY."

The characters in "A Romance of Happy Valley," are such persons as D. W. Griffith knew in his boyhood days when he rambled through the valleyed uplands along the Ohio River in Kentucky and Indiana and Ohio. Simple folks they are who lived and loved and had their weariness and woes all in one small area.

From the lives of the keeper of the country boarding house, his family and his neighbors, he took less than ten years for his story. With their little schemes and their great sacrifices, with trivial events that drove them to far reaching actions, with the urge of their lives and its penalties and rewards, he drew the details of the drama. It is so simple it seems a tale about one's neighbors; so forceful it seems all life in one white flame.

It pounds home no propaganda, it thumps no pulpit; it is without sermon or moral, only such as life teaches in its quiet way. The Griffith mastery conceived it; the Griffith artistry produced it, which promises well for "A Romance of Happy Valley." It will be shown at the Allen Theatre for the last time to-day.

MUCH INTEREST IN AMERICAN CUP RACE

The problem of the America Cup is evidently creating much interest among scientific yachtsmen, says the London (England) Field. We have been asked why the Shamrock IV. is so designed that she will have to concede considerable time allowance to the Defender? It is suggested, it would seem, if Shamrock IV. is shaped and rigged in such a style, that she must concede much time allowance under the American rule, the designer must have been unwise to design her in this form. What is our opinion on this point? It is that no man can say it was unwise to design the challenger in this way. On the contrary, the designer—Fife, of Fairlie—appears to have approached the situation in bold style. In planning his attack the architect had the option of going to work on conventional lines and giving the owner a moderate "gentle" vessel of similar size to the American type, in which case there would be practically no time allowance. Had he adopted this course it would have been a very difficult thing to defeat Herreshoff, especially difficult, we think, to beat him in his own waters, which he knows so well.

The architect, therefore, adopts the different—and, we may say, the unexpected—form of attack, and produces a vessel of great size, power, and weatherliness. What, then, is the chance of success under these conditions? We repeat the opinion that Shamrock IV. had "a sporting chance," and use no stronger expression because we dislike the idea of being too sanguine. We do not wish to blow any trumpets. We always get hammered in the America Cup somehow or other, and we can only hope for the luck to change this Leap Year.

Long experience of racing days, racing ways, however, leads us to think well of the "sporting chance" of the big vessel with the long immersed side and huge upstanding sail plan. Goodness, how such vessels do walk along in a breeze of wind! We know them well; directly you haul in the mainsheet and the side goes down, and the gun'le is just awash, they step out to windward in a marvelous manner and the small ships seem nowhere.

"Time allowance" seems no use at all to them, and they fade away in the haze almost out of sight astern. So whilst those aboard the Shamrock IV. will naturally be wondering "if she will do it," we can quite picture the American gentlemen on their small boat having that uncomfortable feeling, "This enormous vessel is going to sail right away from us."

By the way, we know no more uncomfortable feeling in racing; the only thing to be done seems to be to go down below and have lunch! There are many possibilities when the first gun fires for the America Cup.

Asparagus served with pimento sauce makes an agreeable change.

FULLY FITTED FOR IT.

"I believe my hired man would make a champeen chess player if he'd just put his mind to it," said Farmer Bentover.

"Does he know anything about the game?" asked a neighbour.

"I don't s'pose he does. But he can set in one spot and gaze at nothing for hours at a time without movinu a muscle."—The Country Gentleman.

The assertion that the consumption of sugar in the United States has increased enormously on account of prohibition is contradicted by the statistics of the American Sugar Bulletin, given in a table, showing the consumption of sugar per capita in the United States for the last 10 years, from which it appears that, omitting the years 1916, 1917 and 1918, when consumption decreased on account of the war, the per capita consumption has averaged 83 pounds for the 10-year period, and the 1919 per capita consumption was only four ounces greater for the year than that of 1913—when they had no prohibition.

"NUFF SED."

A tiresome attorney in a remote American town, in arguing a complicated case, had looked up authorities dating back to Julius Caesar, and had consumed more than an hour and a half in the most intricate part of his plea, when he was pained to observe what seemed to him inattention on the bench. It was as he had feared—His Honor was unable to appreciate the nice points of the argument.

"Begging Your Honor's pardon," said he, "but do you follow me?"

The judge shifted uneasily in his chair. "I have, so far," he answered "but I'll say frankly, Mr. Jones, that if I though I could find my way back, I'd quit right here."—Windsor

WEDDING BELLS

LITTLE—STOCKDALE.

At St. John's rectory yesterday a quiet wedding was solemnized when Frederick Roy Little of Niagara Falls was united in matrimony to Elizabeth Jane Stockdale of Harvey Township, daughter of Robert Stockdale. They were attended by Miss H. G. Harrison of Lakefield, and Mr. R. N. Stockdale of Hall's Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Little will reside at Niagara Falls.

HALL—DEFOE.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in St. John's church, on April 29th, when Kathleen Defoe of Peterboro, was united in matrimony to Frederick Hall, of Hall's Bridge, Archdeacon Davidson officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will reside in Peterboro.

OBITUARY

MISS ELLEN PAYNE.

On Tuesday Ellen Payne, a much respected resident of the city for many years, died after a lingering illness. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of her cousin Mr. Michael S. Crough Ennismore to St. Martins Church and Cemetery. Requeim High Mass will be celebrated by Father McAulley.

At the church of the Sacred Heart this morning Rev. J. J. O'Brien specially requested the congregation to remember her in their prayers. For years, he said, she had been housekeeper at St. Peter's cathedral rectory and had been as a mother to many of the priests of the diocese who at one time or another had served as it were their novitiate at the Cathedral. The priests, Father O'Brien said, had always ben deeply grateful to Miss Payne for her faithful and devoted service and would likewise not forget her in their prayers

MRS. PETER DOWNHAM.

Word was received in the city to-of the death of Mrs. Peter Downham at Los Angeles, California, on 8th May.

The late Mrs. Downham was well-known in Peterborough, where she resided for a number of years. Her husband was formerly associated with the Peterborough Creamery.

Before leaving the city, Mrs. Downham placed a silk flag and suitably inscribed brass tablet to Mr. Downham's memory in the City Council Chamber.

The remains will be brought to London, where they will be buried on Friday afternoon, in Decker Cemetery, near London.

IN MEMORIAM.

CONROY.—In loving memory of Gerald Francis Conroy, who died 13th May, 1919.

BOARDING HOUSE IN NEW YORK IS BEING REPLACED

APARTMENT BUILDINGS ARE FOUND WHERE ONCE BOARDERS LIVED BY WEEK.

NEW YORK,—Fifth Avenue residents have joined the ranks of co-operative apartment house owners. In a transaction involving nearly $2,500,000 a group of prospective tenants have purchased an eleven storey multi-family house at Fifth avenue and Sixty-Sixth street. The house will contain twenty-room suites, and rents, originally estimated at $20,000 to $30,000 will be reduced 50 per cent.

The boarding house in New York city is slowly but surely taking its place alongside the dodo, cheap food and four star Scotch whiseky. It will soon be a thing of the past. With the present serious housing shortage, officials declare there is no place for the boarding house, and the big buildings, where formerly the prune held forth are being converted into small apartment houses.

Modernity has broken down the customs of New York's Chinatown. Americanized daughters of Pell Street Chinamen have tossed away the age-old bindings that benumbed their feet and now are gathering callouses in uptown restaurants, where as waitresses they smilingly and quietly serve hungry multitudes.

A crowd in a busy downtown street has been blocking the sidewalk the last few moons, watching the latest in front window cookery. The rotisserie chefs and the deft-fingered, white-coated flippers of "cakes" are eclipsed by the latest novelty, the doughnut kettle. The public stops, looks and sniffs. Not a few buy. Someone invented a machine that puts the doughnuts and drops them into the melted lard with astonishing speed and absence of effort. The operator merely turns the crank. Perhaps that accounts for it. Perhaps there is something else. A sentimental interest attaches to the doughnut. It is reminiscent of grandmothers, light and airy kitchens, wood-fire cook-stoves, vacations on the farms. The doughnut is a part of American tradition along with pumpkin pie, turkey and cranberry sauce. Mated with a good cup of coffee it has comforted many an aching heart and empty stomach.

CHOICE RECIPES

YE OLDE VIRGINIA CHICKEN PUDDINGE.

Put the skin from the breast and other parts of the chicken through the food chopper, adding the meat picked from the neck and carcass and the giblets, and then add:

Two onions,
One green pepper,
Four branches of parsley.

Turn into a mixing bowl and add:
One and one-half cups of flour,
One and one-half teaspoons of salt,
One teaspoonful of paprika,
One well-beaten egg,
One cup of chicken stock.

Beat to mix and then turn into a well-greased casserole. Bake in a moderate oven for forty minutes. Serve with a sauce made as follows:

One cup of chicken stock,
One cup of milk,
Five tablespoons of cornstarch.

Dissolve the starch in the milk and stock and then bring to a boil and cook for five minutes. Add one well-weaten egg and then beat again, then season.

One teaspoon salt,
One teaspoon of paprika,
Three tablespoons of finely chopped parsley.

OATMEAL COOKIES.

Three cups of uncooked oatmeal, three cups of flour, one cup of boiling water, one cup of melted shortening, one cup of sugar, one teaspoon of soda.

Mix these ingredients together well, then roll very thin and cut into round or fancy shapes. Bake in a moderate oven until lightly browned, watching carefully.

A delicious cookie may be made from this same recipe but adding a half-cup of shredded cocoanut or finely chopped almond. Add a few drops of almond flavouring, and these cookies will taste as good as macaroons.

JELLY OATMEAL TARTS.

Scald two cups of finely ground oatmeal with one cup of boiling water. Add one tablespoon of fat, mix thoroughly, and roll very thin. Small pie pans or tart tins should then be lined with this dough to shape it while baking, and the dough should be baked in a hot oven.

Fill these tart crusts with any kind of tart jelly.

SLIGHT PROGRESS BUT SOME HOPE OF SETTLING STRIKES

Negotiations held for the purpose of endeavouring to settle the strikes by the employees of some of the departments in the C.G.E. and Peterborough Lock Companies were resumed at the City Hall this morning.

Several of those who were present at the separate conferences were interviewed afterwards, but declined for the present to discuss what had been accomplished. It was implied, however, that although the concrete results were comparatively slight there were certain expressions and proposals that seemed to hold promise of an early settlement, especially if the evidences of conciliation should broaden in the next day or two.

The C.G.E. machinists were represented by their business agent, Mr. Harry Harper of Toronto, and Mr. Alex. McArthur and Mr. John Cairns of this city, Aldermen Hamilton and Whitehouse in their appointment by the Council represented the community as a whole ,ond Mr. E. G. Patterson, superinendent of the local plant, appeared for the C.G.E. company.

No definite information was obtained as to what actually took place this morning except a hint or two that there had been a few signs of rapprochement. Nothing at any rate had been lost through the conferences, it was stated, and the slight progress might lead to an early settlement.

It was assumed from the fact that another meeting was arranged for that the representatives had withdrawn to consider what concessions would be made toward conciliation and the return to work.

Mayor McIntyre was the intermediary in the meeting with the metal polishers of the Lock company. He also declined to discuss the results of the conference over which he presided, except that he had hopes that the dispute would be settled soon.

Ald. Gainey was unable to attend to-day's conferences of the special committee. There has been one notable feature of this committee's activities since its appointment a week ago to-night. In the four dispuutes in which the committee has offered its mediative services there has been in every case a complete willingness of both employers and employees to avail themselves of this voluntary board of conciliation, which, lacking actual power to arbitrate, endeavours to effect an adjustment of differences through mutual agreement.

REBEL FORCE VICTORIOUS

CARRANZA FORCES ARE READY TO SURRENDER TO THE REVOLUTIONISTS.

(Canadian Press.)

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, May 14.—Mexican rebel forces have apparently won the first phase of the battle against the troops still loyal to President Carranza, which have been fighting in a desperate battle north of San Marcos, in the State of Puebla, for the last four days.

Advices from Vera Cruz indicate a break in the Carranza lines and an effort on the part of the President's men to break through the rebel lines and march northward.

The struggle is still continuing, and new rebel reinforcements are reported to have reached the scene, coming up from the south.

An international incident may be foreshadowed by the fact that W. A. Body, the British Consul for Vera Cruz, is in the camp of President Carranza.

Advices give no details as to the reason for his presence there, but it seems probable that he accompanied the President in his flight from Mexico City.

The British authorities in Vera Cruz have arranged for a Mexican naval lieutenant to go by special train to the battlefield and make an attempt to rescue the Englishman.

British and French warships have made their appearance in the harbour of Vera Cruz, and four United States fighting vessels are at anchor there.

Negotiations for the surrender of Matamora, across the frontier from Brownsville, Texas, are under way, and it is expected the Carranza forces there will surrender without fighting, to-day.

"THE MISSION OF LIFE," BY BENJAMIN WHITE

A VERY INTERESTING PUBLICATION BY A LOCAL AUTHOR—FIRST EDITION SOLD.

There has been recently turned out from the presses of the Peterborough Examiner, a book of considerable local interest, entitled "The Mission of Life," by Mr Benjamin White. The book itself is not a work of fiction, but a recital of plain facts by the author, who has been engaged in practically all the different lines of activities presented in the book.

The First Edition has been entirely sold out. Some of the leading homes in the city and surrounding country have secured a copy. Letters of appreciation have been received from Sir Robert Borden, Premier, General Sir Douglas Haig, Commander of the British Forces; and Hon. Dr. Cody, former Minister of Education for Ontario.

A Second Edition of the book is under way, and no doubt will be as readily taken up as the First Edition. Mr. White, the author, has endeavored to make a book that can go into every home, and be appreciated and of service there.

Samples of the First Edition may be seen in the window of Soden's Bookstore.

LOOKING FOR LOST SON

The City Clerk has received the following letter which is self explanatory:

Apartment 21,
172 Sherman Ave,
New York, N.Y.
May, 10, 1920.

"Honorable Sir:—I beg of you to have published in your city newspapers the following:

My son Michael H. Bass, aged 26 left me in Chicago, Ill., in 1911, since which time the last word I had from him was a few weeks after his departure, in the City of Toronto, Canada. My response to this letter was never delivered, the same was returned to me and since then his whereabouts have been a mystery.

I have lately been informed that he settled down in your city and it is to feverish hopes that he will read this, that I entreat of you to please print in your paper consciousness the following: "Michael my boy, write to me, for God's sake do before it is too late."

ONE BIG UNION REPRESENTATIVES ARE OPERATING IN THE QUEBEC LUMBER CAMPS

(Special to Examiner)

VANCOUVER, May 14.—Ernest Winch, head of Loggers One Big Union in British Columbia has gone on missionary cruise to Quebec. When in early spring there was talk of a loggers strike in British Columbia, a man closely identified with the lumber trade went to Quebec to induce a number of hardy lumber men there to leave for this province to work in the woods. He was hardly on his way when Winch followed. Reports received here are to effect that the two of them are spending much time amongst woodsmen of Quebec where Winch is distributing large quantities of literature. There is still a bitter feeling between the One Big Union and the International Unionists in Vancouver. The bakers are on strike but no other union has joined them and more significant still is that deck hands and firemen on coast steamers have been in strike a week, but One Big Union will demonstrate if they can that individual strikes have little chance of winning and so will attempt to induce workers to rally to the ranks of the One Big Union.

A PROTESTANT CHURCH MAY BE ERECTED SITE OF VIMY RIDGE BATTLE

(Special to The Examiner.)

MONTREAL, May 14.—A delegation, consisting of Principal Donald Fraser, Rev. Dr. Bieler, Rev. T. W. Davidson, Rev. George Adam, and Rev. F. M. McCutcheon, representing all the Protestant churches of Montreal, waited on General Sir Arthur Currie, and asked his approval and patronage in a movement to erect a Protestant church at Vimy Ridge as a memorial to the Canadian soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice at that place.

It was pointed out that the movement has developed out of one started in the United States to help in the reconstruction of the many French Protestant churches destroyed in the war zone.

As so many of the Canadian soldiers killed at Vimy Ridge were Protestants, and as the church which was destroyed at Lens was a Presbyterian one, it had been felt that Canada should assume the responsibility of building one at the famous battleground.

It was stated that the proposed church will cost about $500,000, and will probably be undenominational.

The Presbytery of Montreal favours the idea, and the ministers of other denominations also support it.

General Currie expressed his sympathy, and will, after going fully into the scheme, acquaint the delegation with his decision.

POLICE RIFLE SQUAD SHOOT TRAIN ROBBER AFTER TWO HOUR FIGHT

THE WEATHER

Although to-day is the 14th of May there were flurries of snow to be seen this morning. Last night the thermometer was down to 33 degrees, and there was another narrow escape from frost. The barometer is again high and still rising, denoting fine weather but still cool.—W.P.

TO-DAY'S STOCK MARKET REPORT

OPENING QUOTATIONS IN NEW YORK —THE EXCHANGE MARKET.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 14.—The trend of stock prices continued irregular at the market opening to-day. Desultory trading resulted in but fractional changes.

U.S. Steel opened at 93 1-2 up 1-8; Studebaker 79 5-8 up 1-8; General Motors 27 off 3-8; Reading 84 1-4 up 1-8; Crucible 138 up 3-4; Vanadium 74 1-4 up 3-4; Replogle 91 3-4 up 5-8 Bethlehem B, 90 1-2 off 3-4; Corn Prods 93 3-4 off 1-4; Texas Company 47 7-8 up 1-8; Baldwin 115 up 5-8.

STEEL MERGER

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 14.—On reports that negotiations for a merger of several independent steel companies had encountered difficulties all steel stocks of companies involved sold off a point or more. Inasmuch as Bethlehem was already down over eight points from the price of a week ago it is said purchasers have already discounted actual calling off of negotiations if it occurs.

American Sumatro Tobacco Co. Stock sold off more than three points at 64 3-4 on announcement of the sale of $7,500,000 five year 7 1-2 per cent notes of the company.

Motors were steady.

EXCHANGE MARKET

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 14.—German marks were the feature at the foreign exchange market opening to-day, making a new high at $.0210 for demand and $.0212 for cables. Demand Sterling was unchanged at $3.81; Franc checks were $15.37 off 5 centimes; Lire checks off 15 at 20.62 Canadian dollars $.9025.

THE ROBBER TOOK HALF A MILLION DOLLARS FROM A MAIL CAR.

(Canadian Press.)

CHICAGO, May 14.—Rifle squadron of the Chicago police early to-day cornered and shot a train jobber who robbed an Illinois Central Railroad mail car of currency estimated at half a million dollars. The train arrived here this morning about one o'clock, three hours late, and the robber left the mail car. A few blocks away two policemen accosted him and he shot one through the head. This attracted a squadron of patrolmen, who cornered the robber in an apartment building. The rifle squadron was summoned and after two hours' sniping the train robber was killed.

MUNICIPAL CARE OF TREES.

As Much a Function of Civic Control as Lighting, Says a Writer.

Simple and practical information with which the ideal of "the city beautiful" may be brought nearer realization is contained in a recently published bulletin, "Street Trees," prepared by a horticulturist of the United States Department of Agriculture. With very few exceptions the bulletin points out, the tree growth of the streets of the average American town or city is ragged and unkempt.

That of the suburb or small village is not much better unless it has been under adequate municipal control, and the plantings on a given street have been confined to a single kind of a tree. Those modern necessities, the telephone, telegraph, electric light and trolley car, each have shared in the mutilation and destruction of good trees. Too few municipalities realize, however, that these modern facilities can be provided without impairing the beauty of shade trees, says the writer. One means of preventing injury is more general use of alloys for public utility wires. Faulty pruning has also caused much deformity.

Providing shade on city streets is as much a municipal function as providing lights on sidewalks, says the publication, and therefore should be undertaken by public officials. Negative control by requiring permits for planting, pruning and removal is a little better than no control. Probably the most satisfactory supervision is through an unpaid commission of three or five members—men who should be appointed to long terms, since it takes two to three years for a commissioner to realize the needs and scope of the work, according to the bulletin.

Even a good board charged with the care of street trees can accomplish little without liberal funds. Those may be provided by appropriation from the general tax fund or direct assessment against the property owners, collectible with their taxes. In any event, the minimum appropriation provided should be sufficient to carry on properly the work already begun.

Everything is set for the opening of the City Ball League to-morrow and if the weather man will send along a good brand there will be a big programme at Riverside Park the festivities opening with a parade from the Y.M.C.A. at 1.30 o'clock headed by the G.W.V.A. band.

At the ground Mayor McIntyre will pitch the first ball with Ald. Crowe batting and Ald. Phelan catching.

The Canadian Woollens and the G. W. V. A. meet in the first game which is called at 2 o'clock.

McClintock the Kitchener southpaw will be on the rubber for the Canadian Woollens when Umpire Kay starts the game at 2 o'clock.

The Great War Veterans will have manager Alan Wade on the slab with Morse doing the receiving. Lew Lebarr's squad have been working hard to get into shape and look considerable stronger than last year. Their line up will be chosen from the following: Wade, Morse, G. Rose, Anderson, Campbell, Legon, Corrin, McCoy, Field, Foley, W. Jackson, Rutherford. Any of these players who have not received a uniform are asked to call at Manager Lebarr's store to-night.

The Canadian General Electric team and the Thistles will come together in the second game and it promises to be a battle royal. There is ken rivalry between the two clubs and the games should be a fight from the first ball pitched.

Manager Ernie Rahmel of the C.G.E. in pinning his faith on Frost pitcher of last year's champion Matthews Blackwell team. Frost has been showing a lot of stuff in practice and is in good shape for the opening battle in which he will have the support of a first class team. Manager Rahmel will trot out the following aggregation.

Manager Louis Yeates of the Thistles has nominated Howard Kirn as his pitching selection with Max Swanston behind the bat. Hap Harris on will play first base and will be ready to take his turn in the box if he is needed. The Thistles will line up as follows:

A glance over these two line ups show the teams to be composed principally of former members of the Matthews-Blackwell and Oriental teams of last years. The C.G.E. have three former Orientals and three of the Matthews-Blackwell team while the Thistles have six of last year's Packers and two of the Orientals.

The games should provide a good afternoon's sport and there will be a big crowd of fans out.

ASSOCIATION FOR POLICE

BILL REPORTED TO THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE THIS MORNING.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, May 14.—The Private Bills Committee this morning decided unanimously to report to the House J. Walter Curry's Bill for the incorporation of the Police Association of Ontario.

The purpose of the Association is to foster the interest of the police throughout the Province. It is proposed to have all the forces in the Povinces included in it, and to build a clubhouse in Toronto.

The Association will serve the police in place of a union, by enabling the police to form resolutions to be passed on to those in authority over their affairs.

Athletics and other recreation will also be taken up.

REMAINS BRITISH SUBJECT THOUGH DENYING SHE IS ONE

NEW YORK, May 14.— Elizabeth Leahy, a comely young stenographer, refused here to take the oath required by law to make her an American citizen because in it she would have to admit that George V. was King of Ireland. She said she preferred to remain a "citizen of the Irish Republic" rather than take the oath, which requires applicants from Great Britain to renounce allegiance to "George V., King of Great Britain and Ireland."

FARMER CONFESSES TO KILLING EIGHT

WASHBURN, N. D., May 14. — Henry Layer, a farmer has confesed to the killing of Jacob Wolf, his wife and five children, and a chore boy, Jake Hofer, on the Wolf farm, three miles west of Turtle Lake, N. D., April 22, it was announced here today by J. E. Williams, State's Attorney for McLean county.

SHOWDOWN IN BRANTFORD COMING ON PASTEURIZATION

BRANTFORD, May 14.—According to the members of the Board of Health, pasteurization in Brantford will be enforced just as soon as the plants now being rushed to completion are ready for the process. A member of the board stated this morning that the whole issue was coming to a showdown with the City Council, but the by-law would probably be enforced before the Council held the next meeting.

IVENS ONLY NOMINEE AMONG STRIKE LEADERS

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, May 14. — The Dominion Labor party last night cancelled all previous nominations of its candidates for the Provincial elections in this city, which have hitherto included the imprisoned Labor leaders, and will submit to the membership a new list of names from which a ticket will be drawn up a fortnight hence. On the new list only the name of one the convicted leaders appears, that of Rev. William Ivens.

PAYNE'S NEW ICE CREAM PARLOUR

To-morrow, the stock of home-made confectionery at Mr. John Payne's new confectionery and ice cream parlor on Charlotte street, will be larger and better assorted than on the opening week. Everything will be fresh and dainty, and a visit to the store will be a pleasure. 1d 114

P. BLACK'S TEN DAYS' SALE

The selling down at P. Black's store, on the corner of George and King streets, is going at a lively gait, judging by the way prices of all goods have been cut down. Shoppers should not miss the opportunities offered while this sale lasts, as they are sure to save many dollars on their Spring and Summer needs. Read the Advertisement in another column.

BLINDNESS IS PREVENTABLE.

Many of the blind would now be enjoying the blessings of vision had proper measures been taken early enough. The same is true of failing sight. Worn in time, Glasses not only improve vision, but prevent complications that require complicated lenses. See W. H. Lacey, Optical Specialist, 410 George Street.

"How often during the winter when it becomes necessary to prime your motor to secure a start, have you cursed your luck when you found yourself without a container of some sort for the priming fluid? Next time that happens just take one of your tire valve caps, tie a string around it and lower this improvised dipper into the fuel tank; it will bring up sufficient gasoline to prime the engine. Simple, isn't it?"—American Motorist.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL FOR DRUNKEN DRIVER

Wesley Hamilton Gets Heavy Sentence From Hamilton Magistrate.

HAMILTON, Ont., May 14.—Wesley Hamilton, of Toronto, found drunk in charge of an automobile, was sentenced to six months in jail without the option of a fine. It was his third conviction for similar offences. Please on behalf of hs sick wife and two children availed nothing.

WILL CLOSE UP THE REESTABLISHMENT AND INFORMATION SERVICE

Throughout Canada the soldiers' re-establishment service and information bureaus are being dissolved by the end of June. The Peterborough branch, which as been located in the Labor Bureau, Charlotte street, since its inception some 18 months ago, has been under the efficient charge of Capt. A. S. Morrison. The work has been carried on successfully but of late, with the returned soldiers being nearly absorbed into civil life again, a slackening up could only be expected, and for this reason the government has decided to close them.

Some have already closed but they will not all be closed until the end of June. What work of the nature carried on by the department turns up will be looked after by the Labor Bureau.

The closing up of the information bureau will have no effect on the vocational training department, Capt. Morrison said.

INDIANS NOW SEEDING 500 ACRES PER DAY

Hope to Reach 10,000 Objective by End of Week.

(Canadian Press.)

REGINA, May 14.—Seeding on the greater production farms in Saskatchewan operated by the Department of Indian Affairs, is proceeding at the rate of 500 acres a day, according to reports to reach W. M. Graham, head of the department for the Prairie Provinces, with headquarters in Regina. One half of the 10,000 acres in this province is already sown in wheat, and approximately one-third is showing above the ground. The objective of 10,000 acres is to be reached by the end of next week.

The Indians on reserves in Southern Saskatchewan expect to have 20,000 acres in wheat. There operations are entirely separate from the greater production farms. They are away to a fine start, and expect to finish next week.

Operations on the big farms have been handicapped to a certain extent owing to the amount of moisture in the land. Traction engines could not be used and all the work up to date has been accomplished by horse-power.

COLD WEATHER HAMPERS NEW BRUNSWICK FARMERS

(Canadian Press.)

MONCTON, May 14.—The backward weather prevailing in Eastern New Brunswick is having a discouraging effect upon the farmers whose preparations to crop on a somewhat larger scale than last year may have to be considerably curtailed in consequence of the shorter seeding period. Only in a few places has a start been made in preparing the soil for seeding. Unless there should be a change to warmer and finer weather very soon, there will be a considerable shortage in farm products in this section in comparison with last year.

CITY CAN BE FORCED TO PAY 85c FOR GAS

BRANTFORD, May 14.—Under a contract made in October, 1904, with the Brantford Gas Co., the city can be forced to pay up to 85 cents per 1,000 feet for its gas supply. The company has the right to, at any time, increase its selling price to that figure, and the city would have to pay. In the Provincial Legislature, however, a bill has been brought forward asking for the cancellation of all contracts now standing between municipalities and gas companies. If the bill passes, Brantford will be released from the present contract.

BIRTHS.

DUMMITT.—On 12th May, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Dummitt, 51 Alfred Street—a daughter.

RICH.—On Thursday, 13th May, 1920, at St. Joseph's Hospital, to Mr and Mrs. J. E. Rich—a daughter (Irene May).

DEATH.

JOHNSTON.—Mr. Mark Johnston, of 531 Park Street, at his daughter's residence, 68 Aikman Avenue, Hamilton, on Thursday afternoon, 13th May, at 4.30.

The Funeral will be held at 2 o'clock, Saturday, at Hamilton.

EVIDENCE BEFORE THE SENATE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE— NEWS FROM THE WORLD OVER.

Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, May 14. — Rear Admiral Sims' "fallacious and baseless" charges that the Navy Department's delays prolonged the war four months unnecessarily, was "practically the only charge of unfavorable results from the many sins of omission and commission" that officer had ascribed to the committee. It was fully refuted, he added, by the admiral's own testimony. There never was a time, the witness said, when tonnage was not available to carry the troops and supplies to France as fast as they could be landed and transported to the front.

The allocation of ships to the United States by the allies, always was the dominant factor, Mr. Daniels declared.

ASKED FOR GRANT.

Canadian Press.

TORONTO, May 14. — Premier Drury this morning hinted that $10,000 will be granted to the Canadian Deep Waterways and Power Association. A deputation, headed by Sir Adam Beck, and Mayor Church, of Toronto, waited up on him and asked for $15,000.

The Premier made no promise but said the government favored the association's scheme and said that the grant would probably be made.

Among those on the deputation were John O'Neill, Jos. E. Thompson, and Major A. C. Lewis, Toronto; Rev. Major Watson, M.P.P., South Victoria; W. B. Burgovne, St. Catharines, M. M. Maxwell, Chatham, O. E. Fleming, Windsor.

MASS MEETING.

Canadian Press.

LONDON, May 14. — A mass meeting of the 90 employees of the London and Port Stanley Railway, who went on strike last night, was held to-day, and they unanimously decided to hold out as a body until their demands for increased wages are met.

President Willsie of the union, said that an agreement between the men and the commission would probably be reached as soon as Sir Adam Beck, Chairman of the Commission arrives here. He is expected this evening.

STEEL COMBINE.

OTTAWA, May 14. — Col. W. Grant Morden, a member of the British House of Commons, and organizer of the huge steel merger, interviewed Sir George Foster and Hon. Arthur Meighen to-day in regard to the British Empire Steel Corporation. Col. Morden was accompanied by his counsel.

Following his interview, Col. Morden declared to the Canadian Press that he felt confident application before the government would be granted. It was a mere formality he said.

WANT TROOPS REMOVED.

Canadian Press.

LONDON, May 14. — The German Cabinet after a full discussion with the Ministers of the Federal States, decided unanimously that Germany should not send representatives either to Spa or Brussels' conference unless the French troops are entirely withdrawn from Main District by May 16th, according to a Central News despatch from Berlin to-day.

It was urged that every pretext for the continued occupation of Main Region by the French had been removed.

SINN FEIN ACTIVITIES.

Canadian Press.

DUBLIN, May 1. — Several additional attacks on government property and other incidents occurred in various parts of Ireland last night but up to noon to-day reports indicated that continued activity of armed bands was on nothing like the scale of Wednesday night's demonstrations.

The court house and the post office at Bturee County, Limerick were burned.

WEST INDIES.

Canadian Press.

QUEBEC, May 14. — Delegation from the French colony of Guadeloupe is expected here by the end of the month to promote commercial relations between this province and the isles.

The West Indies have also sent a communication to the board of trade, voicing their desire to further by all possible means commercial intercourse.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Canadian Press.

LONDON, May 14. — The Prince of Wales had a narrow escape at Greymouth, New Zealand, while motoring along a narrow and dangerous road, skirting a ravine in Pullar Gorge, according to a despatch to the Central News. At one point the rear wheel of the Prince's car actually hung over the gorge and the earth gave way. The motor car, however, quickly recovered. The Prince did not turn a hair, the despatch added.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU WILL CLOSE JUNE 1

It is announced that the office of the Ontario Government Employment Bureau in Lindsay, will be closed after June 1st.

ONE GREAT ESSENTIAL TO A WOMAN'S HEALTH IS HER NERVES

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and sinking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N.S., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LIQUOR DISAPPEARS FROM LOCKED CELL

Locks Intac, Dust on Window Sills Undisturbed, But Tracks Outside Window.

WALKERVILLE, May 14.—Twenty-five cases of liquor were stolen some time between midnight Wednesday night and 6 o'clock Thursday morning from a locked cell at the police headquarters here.

The liquor, part of one hundred cases seized at the home of a Walkerville resident suspected of being in the rum-running business, was placed in the cell late Wednesday night. The cell door was locked, as were the outer doors of the offices, before the police left for the night.

The locks were still intact this morning, but the liquor had disappeared, and no clues were left by the thieves. Dust on the sills of the windows was undisturbed. Outside one of the winodws, however, was a tangle of footprints, which, the police believe, indicates that the windows were in some way opened without leaving traces.

COMMISSION GOVT. FOR BELLEVILLE

BELLEVILLE, May 14. — The City Council may be asked to submit to the electorate at the January elections the questions of whether there should be a change in the form of city government to that by commission. The latter form has been under consideration here for some time, and the Chamber of Commerce has invited the City Manager of Westmount, Quebec, to come to Belleville to address a meeting on the question.

MATHER'S CORNERS DEFEATED 12TH LINE, OTONABEE.

Last night, at the Water Street Alleys, Mather's Corners again demonstrated their ability as bowlers when they defeated the 12th Line by 363 pins. A good evening's sport took place, both for the players and spectators. All games were close and exciting, the winners rolled in great form, and on the evening's play they would have defeated the City League teams. Rolling the high single of 887 Comrie was high for the winners with 536, Odette next with 574. Nelson rolling high single of 228. For the losers Shaughnessy rolled 490, high single 221.

Mather's Corners are now open to meet any of the teams from the surrounding country.

Following are the scores:

Mather's Corners—
Comrie	184	157	195	536
Nelson	89	143	228	460
Doris	151	153	156	460
Hall	172	133	138	443
Oudette	172	167	170	514
	773	753	887	2413
12th Line—
Shaughnessy	122	221	147	490
Gillian	163	150	—	313
Stratton	—	—	141	141
E. O'Connor	137	98	141	376
Crowley	124	72	107	303
F. Connors	173	120	154	447

THE TORONTO BROTHERHOOD MEETING

Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.P.P., was unable to attend the Brotherhood meeting owing to a Government measure before the House, so he sent the following message as representing his personal views on the matter:

Parliament Buildings,
Toronto, 13th May, 1920.

I would like to express my thoughts with regard to the Christian Men's Brotherhood Federation of Canada and Labour. I believe the two great organisations should be closely related.

The Labour movement is essentially a moral and spiritual movement—at the present time looking for spiritual guidance. It is not a matter of the sordid dollars and cents, as some unscrupulous manufacturers and newspapers would have people believe. The working man at this time is thinking for himself, and his thoughts originate from his home surroundings. His wife and family are his first thought. If these are starving or are short in any way, he resents this, for he has worked all he can, produced all he can, and at the present time finds he is not able to meet the necessary expenses.

Set the home of the working man on a proper progressive basis, and you will have him right. The labour movement does not discriminate in creed or colour, but unites in one common bond of Brotherhood to preach the Gospel of Emancipation of the workers, preaching the sentiment of Love and Brotherhood, and it is upon these grounds that the Church and Labour must ultimately join forces.

Let me suggest that if the working man will not go to church, take the church to the worker. Do you not think that if you first democratise the Church you will very soon Christianise Democracy?

We have a Labour Day in this great Dominion of ours. Why not have a Labour Sunday?

Other fraternal societies, such as the Oddfellows, Foresters, etc., have a church parade Sunday. Why not Labour? Let the churches take the iniative and invite the different local Unions of their particular district to Church. I am optimistic enough to believe it would meet with results.

Pardon me if I say that I think that Christianity and Economics are so interwoven that unless the two are dealt with fearlessly from the pulpit, that progress in the great social world will be very seriously hampered.

I sincerely wish your great organisation God's blessing.

Fraternally yours,

Thomas Tooms, M.P.P.,
West Peterborough.

TAXI SPEEDS FOR BLOCKS WITH DEAD MAN AT WHEEL

NEW YORK, May 14.— Speeding for more than four blocks in the heart of the city with a dead man at the steering wheel, a taxicab plunged into a stone wall skirting Central Park, after narrowly escaping collision with other automobiles.

William Sell, forty-seven, the chauffeur of the taxi, was seized with a nacute heart attack. As he expired, his hands slipped from the steering wheel and his body sank foward in the car, throwing such pressure on the foot accelerator that the machine

The Plague of Pimples

Body Covered With Them

The primary cause of pimples arises from the blood not being in good condition. When the blood becomes impure you will find that pimples will break out all over the body, but more particularly on the forehead, nose and chin, and although they are not dangerous trouble they are very unsightly. What you need when pimples or boils break out is a real good blood purifying medicine such as Burdock Blood Bitters.

This preparation has been on the market for over 40 years and is the most reliable remedy for all troubles arising from a bad condition of the blood. It removes all the impurities from the system and will leave a clear, healthy skin.

Mr. Emerson G. Goodwin, Cambridge, N.B., writes: "For nearly two years I suffered from boils and pimples on my face and neck, and nearly all of my body was covered with the pimples. I tried most everything, but got no relief. One day a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using three bottles the pimples and boils had all left me and there is no sign of them returning. I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone who is troubled with skin disease.

MRS. W. R. MORRIS IN WARSAW YESTERDAY

At a meeting of the Woman's Institute held yesterday afternoon in Warsaw, Mrs. W. R. Morris gave on interesting address on Education and Consolidated Schools heartily endorsing the consolidated school movement. In this Mrs. Morris was unanimously supported by the large gathering of women. Mr. F. C McCrae, government representative, who was present spoke on School Fairs and on the culling of unprofitable fowl from the flock. He expects to have a demonstration on judging the best class of fowl presently. Mrs. David Miller, (nee Miss Coleman), of Nicholls Hospital Staff occupied the chair.

Mrs. E. V. Frederick and Dr. Jessie Birnie also attended the meeting.

MRS. SANFORD'S MESSAGE TO WORKING WOMEN

Laurel, Miss. — "Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had headaches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took twelve bottles of it, and my health has been good ever since. I am able to run the machine and do dressmaking besides my housework. You are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman." —Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

Thousands of women drag along from day to day in just such a miserable condition as was Mrs. Sanford, or suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headache, nervousness, or "the blues."

Such women should profit by Mrs. Sanford's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find relief from their sufferings as she did.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their long experience is at your service.

A MEASURE OF RELIEF.

The decision of the City Council to cut King Edward Park into building sites upon which twenty-four houses are to be erected under the direction of the Housing Commission, may not be an ideal plan, but it will be welcomed as a definite step towards relieving the present housing situation. There may be some objection to the scheme on the ground that the houses to be erected by the city will be confined to the southern portion of the city, bu the building of twenty-four houses, no matter where they may be located, will undoubtedly be a measure of relief. The situation at present is serious, and with more industries a possibil[illegible] the near future, it is imperative that some definite plan be adopted as soon as possible. The details of the scheme are yet vague, but there does not seem any doubt in view of the present condition of the real estate market that the city would be able to dispose of houses erected on the King Edward Park sites without the slightest difficulty. The plan as tentatively proposed by Ald. Turner, should be pushed through as rapidly as is consistent with a careful consideration of the details. There is no time to be lost in dealing with the housing question if there is to be any improvement in the situation this year.

MUCH NEEDED HELP.

The action of the Ontario government in increasing the provincial and municipal grants to hospitals will meet with general approval, the only criticism that is being voiced is that Hon. Mr. Nixon might have gone further in providing this much needed assistance. Under the new scale the province will pay 50c. per day and the municipality $1.50 towards the maintenance of patients who are admitted on an official order. This is an increase of 20c. per day in the case of the former and of 25c. a day in the municipal grant, thus giving the hospitals an additional revenue of $3.15 per week for each indigent patient. The relief is none too great. The hospitals of Ontario have been hard pressed for funds Like every other institution they have been hit by the increased cost of living, the maintenance of patients necessarily being much more expensive than in the days before the war. There have been heavy burdens upon the hospitals, the difficulty being increased by the shortage of houses, which has caused many patients who in normal times might have been cared for at home to be sent to the hospitals The relief afforded by the increase in the grants will be a very welcome assistance to those at the head of hospital work and doubtless the people generally will be glad to learn that the government has decided to come to the rescue.

AWAITING DEVELOPMENT.

The return of Sir Robert Borden to Ottawa has once more revived the question of the leadership of the Union government. Sifting through the many newspaper despatches from the capital it is found that the consensus of opinion is that the Premier will not remain long at the head of the government. Parliamentary observers believe that he will before long tender his resignation, and rumour has it, become the first Canadian minister to the United States. If his health permits him to assume that most important position, the appointment of the Premier as the Canadian Plenipotentiary at Washington would meet with little objection, the opinion of Dr. Beland, Liberal member for Beauce, that Sir Robert's nine years as Prime Minister of Canada would give him the necessary prestige, being echoed by many other people of all shades of politics.

But the departure of the present Premier would make the situation awkward for the government, for the choosing of a new leader would be a task that would present a great element of danger and that might cause a split in the ranks that would wreck the administration. The first address of the Premier will be awaited with a great deal of interest. In the meantime it is evident that the members of the House are in an expectant mood awaiting develpments that may make a transformation in the political situation.

THE STRIKE OVER.

The settlement of the dispute between the Canadian General Electric Company and its employees, who have been on strike for over a week, will be received with great satisfaction by the whole city. The bringing of the strkie to a conclusion is a triumph for the Conciliation committee of the City Council, which has been carrying on te negotiations between the two parties and which has had the satisfaction of knowing that its efforts have been entirely successful. To Ald. Frank Whitehouse, upon whose shoulders much of the work of forming an entente cordiale between the company and employees fell, a large share of the cerdit is due. His efforts during the past few days have been a great service to the community. Both parties involved in the strike are to be congratulated upon the spirit they have shown in connection with the negotiations, and the strike has been an orderly one, conducted on a common sense basis. The amicable settlement that has been reached will be welcome to every citizens who realized what a calamity it was to have hundreds of workmen idle at a time when production is so badly needed.

A METEORIC CAREER.

The appointment of Sir Arthur Currie, former commander of the Canodian Army Corps in France, as principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, is another chapter in a career that in the past few years has been more remarkable than any that the pages of fiction can disclose Six years ago Sir Arthur Currie was plain Arthur Currie, a British Columbia real estate agent, known only to his fellow citizens on the coast and to the people of Middlesex county, where he spent his early days. In the short space of a half a dozen years his name has become world famous. The war that brought death to millions of people and suffering to countless millions more, gave Sir Arthur his opportunity. A colonel in the Canadian militia he was among the first to volunteer for service overseas and his career with the Canadian troops was marked by promotion after promotion, success after success until he finally had the honor of commanding the whole Canadian army. How he succeeded in that great task the world knows.

Sir Arthur is not without his detractors. No man who has risen to such a position as he can hope to escape criticism, and Sir Arthur Currie has had his share. But few Canadians have had such a tribute paid them as has been accorded him in his selection as the head of the great University of McGill. And the official announcement of the McGill Board of Governors is an eulogy that any public man would be gratified at receiving. The University authorities declare that there is in Canada or Great Britain no one better fitted for the position and that 'the qualities that made him an incomparable organizer and leader at the front fit him pre-emently for the leadership of a great Canadian University."

TO PREVENT BLACKLEG VACCINATE CATTLE

AND DO IT NOW

Last fall a great many farmers of this county lost valuable cattle from Blackleg, a disease very prevalent also at this season of the year. Every farmer should safeguard his cattle against an outbreak of this dreaded malady by vaccinating them—AND DO IT NOW!

There is only one sure way to prevent this disease and that is to vaccinate the cattle, and this dreaded disease can be prevented in animals just as sure as you can prevent small pox in people. Under no circumstances should farmers neglect their cattle.

If you wish to prevent Blackleg either write or go to Lynch's Drug Store, 168 Hunter Streen, Peterboro, and you will be furnished with literature and full particulars how to prevent this dreaded disease.

FINDS ENGLISHMEN COLD

New Zealand Commissioner Contrasts Them with Americans.

LONDON.—The average Englishman's aloofness is contrasted unfavorably with the hail-fellow-well-met manner of the average American by Sir Thomas MacKenzie, High Commissioner for New Zealand, who is planning to found in the heart of London what he calls a great imperial and social club for visitors from the Dominions.

"The Englishman's heart is good, and his friendship, when you have once got it, is warm and invaluable," said Sir Thomas in an interview with The Daily Graphic, "but you have to overcome the formality first. This aloofness, I know, is doing harm. Colonial visitors to London find themselves lonely and friendless.

"Years ago I set out to find my own friends in London. It was hopeless. I got tired and went to the United States, where I found the Americans friendly and homely, and have never forgotten it. It is much the same to-day. The various societies and clubs here do good work, but the right spirit is missing somehow."

The proposal is to get wealthy colonials to endow a £1,000,000 fund for a social centre with 500 bedrooms a restaurant, and rooms for receiving entertaining and business.

The city of Charlotte, Mich., has added several hundred dollars to the municipal bank roll by tapping the maple trees in the Public Park and selling the syrup.

A passenger train on the Union Pacific which ran into a herd of cattle near Evanston, Wyn., killed 81 animals and crippled 68—total estimated value $10,000.

TWO YEARS MORE BEFORE BELGIUM IS NORMAL AGAID

NEW YORK.—Emile Franqui, Belgian Minister of State, and F. Hankar, President of the National Bank of Belgium, were passengers on the Red Star liner Finland which docked here.

Mr. Franqui, who is head of the Societe General Beligue, the largest banking institution in Belgium, said that he and his associate were here to try to postpone the maturity of $50,000,000 of bonds issued subsequent to the armistice.

Speaking of conditions in Belgium, M. Franqui said the labor situation was most satisfactory. He believed there were fewer disturbances in Belgium than in any other country in Europe or the United States. Unemployment existed to some extent. M. Franqui admitted, but that was due to lack of materials.

Production of coal, which he said was the basic industry of Belgium, this year equaled the 1913 output. Production generally in industry was from 35 to 60 per cent of the output sevent years ago, M. Franqui said.

Food Outlook is Good.

Regarding the food outlook, he described it as "rather good." Belgium was compelled to buy cereals in Canada, the United States and South America because the grain stocks of Southern Europe were low. M. Franqui believed it would be two years before Belgium would be normal.

Officers of the Finland said that half of the first cabin passengers were Hollanders, Swiss and Scandinavians who had grown rich out of the war and were here to spend some of their profits and that not a few of the travelers spent consequential sums trying to "drink the ship dry." Fred Godham, steward of the smoking room, said he and his men had not had more than four hours' sleep on any one day, so heavy were the demands of the thirsty.

The exploits on shipboard of Robert Peel, son of Sir Robert Peel, who arrived here with his bride, the former Beatrice Lillie, a London musical comedy favorite, formed the chief topic of conversation among passengers. Peel attracted attention in the smoking room the first day out by the lavish way he played the host. On Wednesday, according to the passengers, he started theship by climbing up the stanchions on the outside of the vessel as far as the boat deck, where he was prevented by Captain T. W. Barman from mounting the wireless pole As the ship was rolling heavily, it was feared he would fall into the sea.

Smashes Windows With Fire Axe.

Late Saturday night, it was said, Peel got a fire axe and before passengers could interfere, he began to smash windows and electric light globes. Running down a companionway, which he hacked, he was seized by a sailor who wrested the axe from him.

Peel, whose great grandfather organized the Irish Constabulary and was Prime Minister of England, admitted that he had had "a good time" on the trip, but was reluctant to discuss his exploits. It was learned that he had agreed to pay for the damage he had done.

"Were you ever arrested?" he was asked.

"No; we invented the police, you know," he answered with a smile.

Peel is 22 years old and stands six feet five. He was married in January while he was a student at Harrow. On his father's death, he will inherit the title and family estates, including a valuable collection of art.

Teach the Children to Save

Habits are acquired early in life. Children, who are taught the value of money and the habit of saving, grow up into good business men and capable women.

The easiest way to teach children to save, is to start a Savings Account for each child ($1.00 each is sufficient). After a child has saved another dollar to make an additional deposit, he or she will have a better appreciation of just what a dollar stands for, and how much work and self-denial it represents.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

SANDRA IS SHOCKED BY A LETTER FROM ROSE.

CHAPTER CXXII

I had another long letter from Rose Kemp. My heart ached as I read it, and tears filled my eyes. Often during the reading I had to wipe them away so that I could see the words.

"Dear Sandra: The end has come-I am about to leave Walter. I can endure no more. I have suffered so that I feel old, Oh, so old, And I look old too, when in his eyes is unforgivable. He has been so open in his affairs, that I can no longer retain a shred of respect and live with him. I might have known that a marriage begun in deceit — it was deceit when I did not tell father and mother, or you—would end in failure. But I loved him so, Sandra, I was afraid I would lose him if I did no do as he asked. I knew his reputation, spoke to him about it. But he swore he never had loved as he loved me, and that was the reason he had been called a philanderer; that now he loved me, he would never stray again.

"I, little fool that I was, believed him. He was handsome, he made love so wonderfully. I was his angel his heaven," I winced at the expression, "his little love, and a thousand other things that I longed to hear, and that I believed he meant.

"The sad, the awful part of it all is that I still love him—still love to hear him say those very things he said when he was urging me to marry him. Now I KNOW he doesn't mean them, yet I shut my eyes and my mind and try to comfort myself that he does think a little of me.

I think, Sandra, that men who 'protest too much' are never men of deep feeling. Walter protested overmuch. He is shallow, and without honor—with women as— I wrote you before. It is strange what a queer angle some people have on things, isn't it? Walter has the name here in Chicago, as he had in Hendon, of being strictly honorable in business. His word is considered as good as his bond among men of affairs. Yet he will lie to wheedle, and cajole one woman after another without the slightest compunction.

"Once I told him I wished he would meet some woman whom he REALLY loved, and that she would treat him exactly as had me. What do you think he said? That he was 'love-proof'! Then he went on: 'I did love one woman, but she was as inaccessible as the stars. Because she had the bad taste to love her husband.'

"Can you imagine anything more cruel than that speech? Someway I have always thought he liked you, Sandra. Do you suppose, just because he knew he couldn't have you, he imagined himself in love with you? But he couldn't really be in love with anyone but Walter Kemp.

"I know you will regret that I am so miserably unhappy. I have written father; told him the whole story of repentance on my part; o f the neglect and unhappiness caused because I was so selfish, so self-willed. But I also tried to make him understand how dearly I loved Walter. Dear old dad, he DID understand, and there is nothing but love and forgiveness at home for me. He wrote me to come at once and he would attend to all details for a divorce if I still wanted one. I DO want one at times; then at other times I feel that if I free Walter I never can be happy again, because I will have lost all hold on happiness when I lose him. I cannot eat or sleep, I am so miserable. Perhaps if I leave him for a few weeks, he will miss me and want me back. I think I shall try that. I will go home altho it will be hard to face the girls and boys if they know, and see what happens.

"I think of you often, dear Sandra, you and your husband and that precious baby. How wonderful it must be to be married to a man who loves you, thinks of you—instead of one who neglects and embarrasses you. Love from your unhappy Rose."

"Poor Rose!" I said as I laid the letter away. "Poor girl." Then I added, "My troubles seem small compared to her, yet I too have been unhappy a good deal of the time. "Then a still small voice whispered:

"Yes, but never have you been truly doubtful of your husband's faithfulness And Rose KNOWS."

WARSAW NEWS HAPPENINGS

WARSAW, May 12.—Mrs. Norman Bell, Ottawa, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Choate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster spent Sunday with Mrs. Foster's mother in Raeboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Stark and little son and daughter are visiting with Mrs. Stark's sister ,Mrs. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Payne, Lakefield, were in the village Saturday.

Mrs. A. F. Choate returned home on Sunday.

After spending the winter at McMaster Hall, Toronto, Rev. Percy H. Robert returned home on Saturday.

Miss Alice Wasson, who is in training for a nurse in Nicholl's Hospital, Peterboro, spent Friday afternoon at home. Miss Wasson is intensely interested in her work.

Mr. Harry Bickle, of Smith township, was in the vicinity Thursday last looking for potatoes.

Mr. John Cooper started on his milk route on Monday morning. He draws on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of this week.

Spring Seeding.

Seeding is progressing rapidly. The weather has been ideal, never has soil worked up better.

A Bush Fire.

Quite a bad fire occurred as the result of the wind rising on Friday afternoon after some brush was fired on a fallow owned by Robert and David Miller. The fire ran rapidly in all directions among the dead bracken. It was kept out of the timber, but it burned a pile of sugar bush wood Mr. Wallace Anderson had drying for next Spring, also about 150 yards of Mr. James Hawthorne's fence.

Summer Pasture.

Nearly all young and beef cattle are on their summer pastures now.

Annual Meeting.

The Methodist W.M.S. held their annual meeting and election of officers in the basement of the church last Thursday afternoon. From a financial point of view and in other ways also this society has just had one of the best years it ever had. The amount of money received was much in advance of any previous year, and the members hope to make the ensuing year better still . The reports read by the different officers were more than satisfactory.

Last year the study-book was "The Healing of the Nations," dealing with missionary work among women of all nations. They do not yet know what the subject for next year's study will be.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Wm. Wasson, President; Mrs. Sneider, Vice-president; Mrs. George Taylor, Recording Secretary; Mrs. James Greystock, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Arthur Edwards, Secretary of 'Strangers' Committee; Mrs. Richard Batten, Superintendent of Systematic Giving.

Church Services.

Service was held in the Baptist Church yesterday. It was conducted by Rev. Vose, who is likely to be here during the Summer.

In the Presbyterian Church, morning and evening services were conducted by Rev. Prentiss. Mr. Townend, who was expected was unable to come. Mr. Prentiss is an overseas man, who returned to his studies as a divinity student. He is going to India as a missionary in the Fall. The morning text was "Ye, have not passed this way heretofore." He spoke of the road of life and the opportunities, responsibilities, trials and death which comes once. During the offeratory the choir sang "My Mother's Prayer." Mr. Prentiss is one of the few who were privileged to attend the great International Sunday School Convention held in Des Moines last Fall and at the evening service he gave a talk on that great gathering. He showed the need of missionary work and told how the people of heathen lands themselves were asking for the gospel through their own representatives. He showed, from the words of natives, how even the leading heathen religions had failed. He asked for nothing, he simply stated facts, and left the issue with the people.

Farmers' Club.

Regular meeting of the Farmers' Club was held last Wednesday evening. Some who had not been in the habit of attending found out that the Club is educational and that through it the general feeling of the people regarding almost all important matters may be found out and will hereafter attend.

There is to be a debate on the Consolidated scho ol question at oCtessoloe on June 3rd.

At a special meeting of the Council held on Friday last, it was carried that the Memorial Monument to the twenty-five Dummer boys who fell be the better one, with the granite soldier on top.

The Friendly Smoke

THERE is something mighty comforting and satisfying about "OLD CHUM" Tobacco; a sort of soothing restfulness that pipe smokers have come to associate with this friendly smoke.

"OLD CHUM" is an old, old chum with all pipe smokers.

It has the perfect tobacco taste—the mellow richness—and men know that they can be chummy with "OLD CHUM" all day long and that the "good night pipeful" will be as sweet and cool as the one enjoyed just after breakfast.

For years and years "OLD CHUM" has been Canada's favourite pipe tobacco and today is more popular than ever.

THE REAL DISCOVERER OF THE WIRELESS

We have the opinions of experts of all nationalities on the great discovery of wireless telegraphy, but few of them have informed the world of science that such telegraphy was practised by a Scotsman before Marconi was born. That man was James Bowman Lindsay, who was born at Carmyllie on 20th April, 1799. Not only did Lindsay suggest, but he also carried out successful experiments in proof of his theories. All his life he had to deny himself to the utmost limits in order to purchase materials for his experiments. All the habitation he had consisted of one room, and that solitary room was illumined by electric light of his own installation—in the year 1835. It is difficult to realise that so long ago there was a room in Scotland so lighted. In that room Lindsay wrote several of his works, and there was compiled a portion of his marvellous dictionary, in fifty different languages, which, in his own handwriting, is to be seen to this day in a glass case in Dundee Museum.

In 1845 he suggested the possibility of extending the electric telegraph to America, and in 1853 he maintained that it was possible to establish electrical communication through water without wires. In 1854 he patented his invention, and conducted experiments in London and Portsmouth, where he successfully telegraphed without wires across a stretch of water 500 yards wide. In 1859 he telegraphed in this manner across the River Tay at Glencarse, where it is about half a mile wide, and also read a paper on the subject before the British Association at Aberdeen. In the presence of the members Lindsay conducted experiments at the Aberdeen Docks, where he proved conclusively the correctness of his theories.

This poor Scotsman prophesied 82 years ago that: "Houses and towns will in a short time be lighted by electricity instead of gas, and heated by it instead of by coals, and machinery will be wrought by it instead of steam, all at a trifling expense."

After repeating his experiments across a two-mile stretch of the Tay, between Dundee and Woodhaven, it was thought that something would result from the achievements. But nothing was done to give them a practical bearing.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

"Henry," said Mrs. Gadder, "I must have a new motor car."

"Good heavens, woman," exclaimed Mr. Gadder, "what's the matter with the automobile I bought you six months ago? Didn't you choose the upholstering yourself and didn't you have every contrivance you could think of put in the tonneau, by which you added nearly $2,000 to the original price."

"Oh yes, Henry, but I've been about quite a bit in that car. All my friends and acquaintances have seen me in it repeatedly, and it no longer attracts attention when I go for a spin along the boulevard. Dear me! When I'm in that car I'm beginning to feel as if I were wearing a last year's dress." — Birmingham Age Herald.

BUILDING BETTER BOYS

Military training will help—but it takes something besides "setting-up" exercises to make healthy, sturdy men. The body is built out of the food you digest. Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains the vitamines that are necessary to normal nutrition in addition to the tissue-building elements which are absent from many expensive foods. The crisp and tasty goodness of the baked whole wheat is a joy to the palate-most real food for the least money.

P. BLACK'S TEN DAYS' SALE!

CORNER KING AND GEORGE

Commences Saturday, May 15th, and Will Last Until After the 24th of May

OUR BARGAINS always leave an echo round the City and County of Peterborough. It is no wonder we have worked up such a large trade. Our motto is "Fairness and Honesty," and this motto always makes a customer satisfied. We never look for large profits — we always figure out the smallest margin of profit and thereby make more and quicker sales, when we give the customer a share of our profits.

This sale will be an exception to any other sale before for the reason that we had more difficulty in securing all needed goods at reasonable prices, and by hard work succeed in clearing out the balance of a big manufacturer's stock at greatly reduced prices. This is why this sale is better than usual.

LACK OF WORKERS IN SOVIET RUSSIA

REPORTS OF BOLSHEVIK CHIEFS SHOW INDUSTRY AT LOW EBB— TROTSKY'S COMPLAINT.

PRODUCTION IS LOW

WASHINGTON, May 9. — More captured Bolshevist documents just received in Washington, which confirm out of the mouths of Soviet leaders themselves the definite reports which had reached the Allies from independent sources as to the collapse of the Soviet industrial and economic system were made public in Washington to-night.

The documents include reports on economic conditions inside Soviet Russia., made before a recent session of the Congress of Delegates from Councils of National Economy, trade unions and the Moscow Soviet, by Leon Trotzy, the Bolshevist Minister of War; A. Rykov, Chairman of the Supreme Council of National Economy in the Soviet Government, and by M. Tomski, Chairman of the Central Council of Trade Unions.

The reports all deal with the steady decline of industrial productivity in Soviet Russia since the rise of Bolshevist power, and on the phenomenon of a labor shortage in industry when the demand for labor is at a low mark.

These reports were among the official Soviet documents, not intended for the outisde world, which have just reached Washington from Helsingfors, where they came into the possession of Gregory Alexinsky, a former Moderate Socialist member of the Russian Duma.

Trotzky in his report states that the 1,000,000 workers given by Rykov as employed in Bolshevist nationalized industry is an exaggerated figure. He says there are only 850,000 workers.

The lack of skilled labor is stated to be so acute that even establishments engaged in producing supplies and equipment for the Red Army have at times experienced the greatest difficulties in obtaining sufficient skilled workmen to enable operation to continue. Rykov characterizes the skilled labor shortage during the present industrial depression as one of the most dangerous phenomena of Russian economic life. It has attained such proportions, he says, that "we are unable to utilize certain establishments even though they are provided with raw material, only because of the lack of skilled labor."

Workers Desert Industrial Centres.

M. Tomski, in his report, commented on the labor shortage problem, as Chairman of the Central Council of Trade Unions.

"What has become of the labor forces of the industrial proletariat?" he asks in the report, and makes the following reply:

"If in capitalistic society a shortage of labor power marks the most intensive activity of industry, in our own case this has been caused by conditions which are unique and unprecedented in capitalist economic experience. Only part of our industry is at work and yet there is a shortage of labor power felt in the cities and industrial centres. We observe an exodus of laborers from industrial centres, caused by poor living conditions. Those hundreds of skilled laobrers whom we are at present lacking for the most elementary and smallest requirements of industry have gone partly to the country, to labor communes, Soviet farms, products associations, while another part, a very considerable one, serves in the army.

"But the proletariat," continues Tomski, "also profiteers and barter-traders, we are ashamed and sorry to confess. This fact is being observed and there is no concealing or denying it. There is also another cause which hurts the industrial life and hinders a systematic organization of work; this is the migration of workers from place to place in the search of better living conditions. All of this, again, is the result of the one fundamental cause—the very critical food situation in the cities and, in general, the hard conditions of life for the industrial proletariat."

Trotzy in his report on the same subject agrees with Tomski on what he characterizes as the "dissipation of the working classes." He says:

"Hunger, the unsettled dwelling problem and the cold are driving the workers from industrial centres to the country, and not only to the country, but also into the ranks of profiteering, into the ranks of parasites."

This view is also concurred in by Y. Kamenev, Chairman of the Moscow Soviet, who called the attention of the Congress to "the enemy whom the Moscow proletariat has felt already for some time to be present, but who has succeeded in growing up to full height and is now eating up the entire fabric of the new Socialistic economic structure."

Commenting on the industrial situation Rykow's report states that the nationalization of industry has been quite thoroughly carried out by the Bolshevist authorities. In 1918, the says, the Soviets had nationalized 1,125 factories and mills. Toward the close of 1910 he gives the number of industrial establishments taken over by the State as about 4,000.

One-Fourth of Industry Idle.

"Of these 4,000 establishments," Rykov continued, "only 3,000 are working at present. All the rest are closed and idle. The number of workers, by a rough estimate, is about 1,000,000. Thus you can see that both in point of number of the workingmen employed as well as in point of numbers of still working establishments, the manufacturing industry is in the throes of a crisis."

TTrotzky, in his report as received here, attempted to explain the industrial crisis by the destruction of technical equipment. Rykov, however, states that "the Soviet State, the workers' and peasants power, could not utilize even thoes lathes, machines and factory equipment which were still at its disposal."

Out of 1,191 metallurgical plants, 614 are reported as having been nationalized. These plants, according to Rykov, have only been able to fulfill 15 per cent. of the Russian metal requirements. They were supplied in 1919 with raw materials amounting to about 30 per cent. of the country's requirements, and of this amount they were only able to utilize half.

"This," according to Rykov, "is less than one-quarter of the need that must be satisfied in order to sustain a minimum of our industrial life."

It is affirmed in the reports that 30 to 40 per cent of former production is the figure that prevails in the main branches of Russian industry, in other words that Soviet Russia, industrially, is living only a third as well as Russia lived before the war. According to Rykov, Soviet Russia has been living on the supplies left over from pre-war Bolshevist Russia.

"But these supplies are becoming exhausted," he says. "We are daily and hourly approaching the final crisis in these branches of industry."

KAISER'S THRONE UNDER HAMMER

WILL BE SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER AT AUCTION IN NEW YORK MAY 22.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The Imperial German throne is to be sold here at auction. Household effects of former Kaiser Wilhelm, the former Kaiserin and other members of the German Imperial family, seized from the Imperial palaces of Berlin and Munich for unpaid bills after the Emperor abdicated and went to Holland, also will be sold under the hammer here, May 22, one of the city's largest art collectors announced to-day. Sixty-five pieces are in the Imperial collection which was brought here two weeks ago by the purchaser and importer, Valdemar Povelson. He declared he had considerable difficulty in getting an export permit from the German Government, which was obtained, he said, only after he had promised to buy food with the net proceeds for re-sale in Germany. Authenticity of the art objects is vouched for by one of Berlin's most reputable art firms.

The Kaiser, according to Mr. Povelson, was not always prompt about paying his bills. Immediately upon his flight, trades people, whose patience was exhausted, seized household belongings as payment for their accounts.

FORECAST NEW HARVEST WILL FEED ALL FRANCE

Use of Tractors Aids in Promising Bumper Crop That May Favorably Affect Exchange.

PARIS.— So good is the French crop outlook for this year that agricultural experts believe the wheat harvest will come close to meeting the nation's full requirements for the following year. This improvement, as compared with last year, is due in some degree to the increased use of motor-driven farm equipment.

According to official figures, more than 12,350,000 acres have been sown with wheat. The Department of Agriculture estimates that this should produce 26,000,000 bushels, leaving only about 3,700,000 bushels to be imported. Last year the home crop was so small that 13,000,000 bushels had to be imported.

The bumper crop is expected to save France no less than 6,000,000,000 francs and may even have a noticeably favorable effect on the exchange situation.

Corn Oysters.

Beat two eggs light, add one can corn, one tablespoon melted butter, and one-half cup corn flour sifted with one-half teaspoon salt and a pinch of pepper. Fry on hot, well-greased griddle by spoonfuls. Very nice eaten plain or spread with honey or maple syrup.

Fish—Caledonian Finnan Haddie.

1 haddie, 8 raw potatoes. Milk, flour, pepper, butter. Soak finnan haddie in cold water one hour; drain and place in roasting pan. Sprinkle with flour and pepper and pieces of butter. Surround with potatoes cut in quarters. Cover with hot milk. Bake three-quarters to one hour.

STOP HEADACHES BEFOREHAND

You never had a headache when you were well.

To keep well is to keep clean, inside.

To relieve headache, and to prevent it, keep the liver active and industrious and the bowels as regular as a clock.

Two generations of healthy, vigorous people have done this by taking one pill at bedtime, regularly—a larger dose when nature gives the warning.

The Glad, Gay Hour

¶Right after the evening meal comes the hour of the family. The kiddies have their final romp. Father escapes from his world of business. Mother sits down to enjoy her loved ones.

¶Children love music, better if anything than stories. A merry song—a rollicking dance (how the little ones prance and skip!) —a beautiful idyll! Music is the magical stimulus of gladness.

¶You owe a duty to your children; the same duty in music as in literature. You know that they love good stories, and you try to see that the stories which they read are good stories. You know that they love music—it is your duty to see that they hear good music, properly rendered.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

is the only phonograph which produces music with absolute fidelity to the original. Its realism has caused it to be called "The Phonograph With a Soul." It literally RE-CREATES music, and Mr. Edison has the exclusive right to use the word RE-CREATION in connection with the reproduction of music.

The New Edison does not distort music; it does not give a wrong conception of music. On the contrary, it gives you and your children everything there is in music.

Your home deserves the best. Will you bring your kiddies to our store and let them decide whether they want songs in their home that sound exactly as when the singer sings them, or whether they want songs as no singer would sing them? It will be interesting to note how quickly your children will observe the difference between the New Edison and talking machines.

Please remember that the instrument which your kiddies select can be paid for on convenient terms.

The Late Joseph Lunn.

The death of Joseph Lunn, which took place on Thursday, 29th April, removes one of the best known and most highly respected residents of Cavan Township. Deceased was born in Manvers 67 years ago. He was a man of genial disposition, a kindly neighbour, and his passing will be regretted by a host of friends. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and two children, to whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

Deceased was a staunch Conservative and a loyal Orangeman. The funeral, under the direction of L.O.L. No. 79, to Port Hope Cemetery on 1st May, was largely attended. The church burial service was conducted by Rev. S. T. Tucker.

SUGAR MARKET IS IMPROVING

NEEDS OF CANNING INDUSTRIES MET.

WASHINGTON, May 14. — A marked improvement in the sugar situation can be expected in the very near future.

This assertion was made here by Assistant Attorney-General Figg, following a conference with representatives of the refining industry. Pledges of co-operation with the department followed the meeting, Mr. Figg said, and it is already assured that the needs of the canning industry will be met.

"Harmonies," said Mr. Figg to-day, "is the biggest factor we can employ in the solution of all questions. It was with this view that a meeting of all of the cane sugar refiners in the United States was called at the department yesterday.

"We felt that if we could get together with 'big business,' we would be able to co-operate and meet the critical needs of the canning indus-eries. The production and distribution of sugar has reached, and is now in, a most acute state—a serious condition that requires an immediate effective remedy.

"We realize that we must bring in all of the outside sugar into this country that we can, in order to provide for the requirements of the essential industries that will supply us next winter and also the markets during the summer.

"The plan to equalize distribution of sugar is faithfully believed to be practicable and with the powers granted by the Department of Justice, together with the strict adherence and co-operation on the part of the refiners and distributors of sugar to the requirements of distributing, executives would demonetrate its practical value to the extent of affording considerable relief from the present acute condition. To obtain favorable results power must be behind the manlates of the officers in charge of sugar distribution. Powers will have to come by agreement with the sugar refiners and distributors in answer to the direct question, "will you co-operate or will you obstruct?"

"At yesterday's meeting of the sugar cane refiners, they agreed to pro rate the requirements of the essential industries. What they asked of these industries was to have on file their requirements and they promised that their needs should be met."

COMMITTED TO JAIL.

GRANT EXEMPTION ON IMPROVEMENTS

PREMIER DRURY'S BILL TO RELIEVE BURDEN OF TAXATION PASSES COMMITTEE.

TORONTO, May 14. — Premier Drury's bill to exempt from taxation improvements, income and business, was passed by the municipal law committee of the legislation by a vote of 18 to 9.

The measure gives to municipalities the power to pass a bylaw exempting from taxation for all purposes, for the first year following the passing of the bylaw from 10 to 25 per cent. of the assessed value of improvements, income and business assessment. From year to year afterward a further additional 10 to 25 per cent. may be exempted until the whole assessed value is exempt. Thereafter, while the bylaw remains in force, all taxes shall be imposed on the value of land exclusive of improvements.

The council of a municipality may levy a rate sufficient to produce the same amount of money as would be raised by the full rate allowed if the bylaw had not been passed.

At Electors' Request.

A petition signed by 10 per cent. of the electors of the municipality will bring the submission of a bylaw on the question. If the same number sign a petition for the repeal of the bylaw, the repeal shall be submitted to the electors. In event of a repeal carrying the exemptions will be decreased year by year in the same proportion they were granted.

Spoke for the North.

A. W. Roebuck, speaking for northern Ontario interests, said the west had not gone back on taxation of land values. He mentioned New Liskeard, where a tract of land stood unused for years while the people of the town were penalized with taxation to improve its value. He declared that the progressive person who improves his land should not be penalized while the other man leaves useful ground unused.

Bamboo writing pens are still favored in India, where they have been in use for over 1,000 years.

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

DESCRIBES POLAND IN THE UPBUILDING

EVERYTHING IS BEING DONE TO STIMULATE NATION'S "SOCIAL CONSCIOUSNESS."

An English observer, travelling in Poland, writes to The New Europe that while Warsaw is a vastly better city than it was when he visited it a year ago, Poland, like all the new nations of Europe, is suffernig from what he calls the lack of "social conscience." To help build up this deficiency of "social conscience," he writes, reading matter is being distributed to soldiers, peasants, and workmen to aid them in clearly comprehending the questions at issue. In the meanwhile, the work of building up the ravaged portions of Poland is being delayed because of the lack of raw material and the fact that Poland is still under arms.

Writing of his impressions, the English observer says:

"Warsaw is quite a different place from the one I found on my first visit a year ago. The holes in the streets are not yet all gone, but they are going. Then buildings, both public and private, were shabby, dirty, and neglected. The city of Europe, whose palaces compare favourably with those of Florence and Vienna looked as if it had never been combed and brushed. Now the whole place is changed. Paint and whiting and kalsomine have followed the thorough scraping that gets rid of the dirt of a decade. A year ago there was not a post-box in the city; now they are to be found in adequate numbers; even two taxicabs have made their appearance!

"Similar things are going on in the other cities. At long last, Lodz, the Manchester of Poland, is getting her factories under way again. At least one quarter of the pre-war production has been attained. Of course, the crippled machinery is not yet replaced. Again there is still great lack of raw material. In the coal fields enormous improvement in the output has been achieved. In the oil districts of the Carpathians things have moved more slowly because of the complete lack of certain indispensable parts for refining plants. But the export of oil products has already begun. Best of all, there is a real effort being made to out large quantities of timber, in which Poland is rich, at the disposal of the lands to the west which need it badly."

HELPED LENIN TO GET INTO RUSSIA

Just what has become of Fritz Platten, the fiery Swiss Socialist leader who played a big role in getting Nikolai Lenin and other Bolsheviki transported through Germany from Switzerland to Russia following the Russian revolution of March, 1917, since his capture by Polish or Lithuanian troops near Kovno early last March seems to be a mystery, as recent Swiss papers contain no reports as to his where abouts. The Swiss Socialist Party has appealed to the Socialist members of the Lithuanian Parliament to effect Plattens release, and has also asked the Swiss Government to intervene on his behalf, but apparently without results. German newspapers of April 8 says that when Platten was taken from the airplane in which he was trying to reach Germany on his way home from Moscow he was in possessionof a letter from Lenin announcing his appointment as Russian Soviet Trade Commissioner in Switzerland. The machine in which Platten and his wife were traveiling was one that had taken 1,100 oounds of medicines from Germany to Russia and was piloted by a German Lieutenant name Folte.

Late Swiss newspapers note, with much sarcastic comment that, while the prices paid to the producers for beef and pork have receded from 25 to 40 per cent. since January, the consumers are not getting any material part of the saving thus effected by the distributors.

The Greek Minisetr for Foreign Affairs has sent a memorandum abroad informing them of the resumption of diplomatic relations between Greece and Germany, accordling to an Athens dispatch sent out by the Wolff News Bureau on April 12.

According to the terms of a commercial agreement said to have been effected between Hungary and Jugo-Slavia a few weeks ago, and reported in the Frankfurter Zeitung of April 15, the latter was to furnish the Hungarians with 4,500 carloads of corn, 350 carloads of beans, 500 carloads of wheat and 3,000 fatted hogs by May 15. These supplies were to be paid for either in "sound bills of exchange," to which category the Belgrade Government did not assign its own currency, or in materials, preferably railroad rolling stock.

BRIGHT SALESMAN FOR FASHION-CRAFT

Peterborough's "Fashion-Craft" Shop has secured the services of Mr. Ed. Riley for its local staff of salesmen. Mr. Riley will make a popular addition to this store, where the high grade of men's garments and haberdashery are stocked. His experience will be serviceable in catering to the class of trade which embraces so many of Peterborough's smart dressers. Exacting young men who are particular about their clothes, will find in Mr. Riley a good judge of what is most suitable, as well as an exponent of the best, masculine taste in fashionable attire.

Perhaps the periodic unrest among the Sing Sing prisoners is due to frequent harassing reports that some of the New York rent hogs will be sent up there to live.

FRIENDS AMAZED AT BIG CHANGE

EATS ANYTHING, SLEEPS SOUNDLY AND IS FULL OF ENERGY AND AMBITION.

"When a man is in a weak and run down condition for seven years and is suddenly restored to health, so that he is full of energy and eager for work, he naturally wants to tell everybody about it," said Arthur Galarneau, who resides at 108 Chateauguay street, Quebec, when the Tanlac representative called to see how he was getting on with the medicine, a few days ago.

"I was in a terribly rundown condition," he continued, "my stomach was out of order and whatever I ate would lie on my chest like a lump of lead. After my meals I always felt drowsy; and yet at night could not sleep well, for my rest would be disturbed by dreadful nightmares when I would jump up and start to yell. I got so weak at last that I used to dread going to work and it always seemed as if the day would never end. I had no energy and my work was like martyrdom. I can assure you I lost all hope and my case was about desperate.

"If I had all the money I spent on medicines trying to get relief during the last seven years I would be well-to-do today. And when I first read the statements in the papers about what Tanlac was doing I was very skeptical about it helping me, for my case was exceptionally bad. Still I decided to give it a trial, and I've been congratulating myself ever since that I did. Every dose I took seemed to bring me new relief. My appetite got keen, I began to enjoy my food and found out I could digest it perfectly. I got stronger every day, and now my friends are all amazed at the great change in my condition. I am full of energy and my daily work is just a cinch. I have now got some ambition in life and feel that there is some hope in the future. I shall always be grateful for what Tanlac has done for me and I am glad of this opportunity of recommending it."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co. Ltd., in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

The Barnet Is a Real Refrigerator

Its Circulation and Ventilating Systems Preserve Food for Long Periods

The Barnet is equipped with a snow-white, one-piece vitreous porcelain lining. There are no crevices, joints, or cracks, in which bits of food can hide away and spoil.

There are eleven distinct walls scientifically arranged to keep out the heat and retain the cold. That, of course, means a very slow consumption of ice, and a low temperature at all times—even as low as 34 degrees.

We are sole agents in Peterborough for this unequalled Refrigerator.

Hats to Shade One From the Summer Sun

Mr. McIlroy has been in the C.P.R. service for 20 years. Previous to going to Toronto, he was for three years city passenger agent at Hamilton, and prior to that was in charge of the Peterborough office of the C.P.R.

SAYS SUGAR SHOULD BE 11 1-2c A POUND

AMERICAN EXPERT TELLS OF HUGE PROFITS TO PRODUCERS ACROSS LINE.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Sugar should sell for 11½ cents a pound and present prices ranging from 20 to 25 cents are due to profiteering, W. Jett Launck, consulting economist of the railroad brotherhood told the Railroad Labor Board here. Sugar gougers" will exact a total of $600,000,000 from the American people this year, or $30 from each family in the country, according to Lanuck, who is urging the board to grant railroad men increased wages.

Income tax returns for 1919 showed that beet sugar producers had earned 52.28 per cent. on their capital stock, 59.92 on capital invested; and 45.53 on their capit al actually invested after all taxes were deducted, he said. Cane producers earned 27.28 per cent. on capital stock, 238.34 on capital actually invested and 191.04 on capital after deduction of taxes, according to Lauck, who said sugar was then selling for 7.7 cents a pound "If the producers showed such amazing earnings then," said Lauck, "what must be their earnings to-day with sugar hovering about 25 cents a pound?"

COMMUNICATION WITH MOSCOW

EXPLOSION PUT THE WIRELESS STATION OUT OF BUSINESS.

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, May 14.—Wireless message are again being received at the Eiffel tower from Moscow, the wireless station controlled by the Bolshevik Government, communication with Moscow was interrupted early this wek and messages received since it was restored. State the Moscow station was damaged by an explosion in an ammunition dump.

GENERAL ELECTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

THE IRISH QUESTION WILL BE THE MAIN ISSUE.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 14.— Decision by Government to make an early appeal to country by a general election in an effort to fix upon definite Irish policy has been reached according to rumors current in London last night, in well informed circles. These rumors are ridiculed, however, and as yet there has been nothing to confirm them.

CANNOT CROP FARMS OWING TO LABOR SHORTAGE

(Canadian Press.)

SARNIA, May 14. — Shortage of farm help is keenly felt throughout rural localities. So acute has this become that a largely-decreased acreage sown is the alternative resorted to, and grave results are likely to follow.

One prominent Plympton farmer states that in 600 acres of fine farm lands, on the right of his farm and 600 acres to the left, an area of 1,200 acres, only 50 acres in all are sown to crop.

AFTER THE GRAND VIZIER'S HIDE

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 14.—Another attempt to assassinate Damad Ferid, Turkish Grand Vizier, was made on Thursday, according to a Constantinople despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. The attack occurred at the Grand Vizier' residence and was made by policemen who fired upon Ferid, but only wounded the latter's armed atendant. The assailant was arrested.

DYSPEPTIC DIET NO LONGER NECESSARY

The old plan of prescribing strict diet for dyspeptics and stomach sufferers is no longer popular among progressive medical men partly because of its weakening effect but mostly because of the discovery that nearly all stomach trouble is due to excessive acidity. The organs of digestion are themselves all right but acids in the stomach irritate and inflame the delicate stomach lining and cause sourness and premature food fermentation. The logical treatment, therefore, is to get rid of the acid, when natural painless digestion will follow.

For this purpose a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water neutralizes the acid, stops the fermentation of the food, dispels the gas, and thus permits the stomach to proceed with its work without hindrance. Owing to its prompt and certain action Bisurated Magnesia, which is obtainable in either tablet or powder form, should always be used in preference to the other forms of magnesia, such as the milks, citrates, carbonates or oxides. Stomach sufferers are advised to try this plan for three weeks and note results.

MADE IN CANADA WEEK

MAY 15--22

During this week, Saturday, May 15th, to Saturday, May 22nd, we are making a special showing of Made-In-Canada Goods. Special prices will be featured on different lines, but the main feature of this week is that every item advertised is a product of some Canadian Factory. If one would stop for a moment and run over, mentally, the different articles that are produced by Canadian manufacturers, you would be surprised to find that Canada is advanced so far in the productive world. Not only that, but if everyone were to put forth an extra effort and purchase, when possible, Canadian - made goods, it would greatly help to build up a better, bigger and stronger manufacturing nation out of our Canada. Every purchase of Canadian-made goods is a boost for Canada.

In order that we all might know just how much of and of what quality Canadian goods are compared with others, we are holding a "MADE-IN-CANADA" Week and advertising nothing but home products. The green maple leaf price tickets throughout the entire store will be your guidance for these special items and prices during this event.

THE DE LAVAL WERE OUTPLAYED BY THE FAST GOING C.G.E. TEAM

JONES BRILLIANT IN GOAL—TWO BEAUTIFUL GOALS BY TURNER—A PENALTY AGAINST THE DE LAVAL—MANDERS SCORED THE FOURTH GOAL—WILLIAMSON MADE IT FIVE.

The De Laval team were guests of the Canadian General at the Exhibition Park last evening when about 400 people assembled to witness the play. The weather was perfect for football. Two changes were made in the C.G.E.—Turner going to centre in place of Gash and Cowie taking up the centre half position. The De Lavals were minus Hillman, while Lindsay, a Scotsman, a new comer, filled the inside left position.

The Teams.

The teams were as follows:

De Laval — W. Jones, Capt., goal; J. Godfery and W. McDougall, backs, W. Brown, E. Humpage and A. Akers, half backs; G. Hartshorn, J. Long, A. Nichols, J. Lindsay and E. Abrahams.

C.G.E.—J. Naples, goal; B. Mason and J. McDonald, backs; A. Parkins, H. Cowle and H. Bestard, half backs; A. Manders, C. Hotston, H. Turner, J. Williamson and E. Bartley.

Referee: C. Parkins Lloyd.

A Goal in 3 Minutes.

De Laval won the toss and the C. C.G.E. made a straight line for the De Laval goal where Williamson shot close past. The ball went into play again with Hartshorn trying to carry the play up-field where McDonald checked, and the C. G. E. forwards went down in a body, the ball travelling from player to player until Brown missed it, Manders jumped in, and centred the ball where Williamson and Turner were harrassing Godfrey and McDougall, Jones ran out of his goal to clear but Turner got there first and registered a nice headed ball past Jones after three minutes play. Just afterwards "Wag" missed an open goal by shooting high over the cross bar and on return play gave Jones a hard one to stop. Play was confined to the DeLaval goal where Bartley and Turner had a try that ended with the custodian giving a corner. Williamson took the corner, McDougall cleared.

The De Lavals now made a raid on the C. G. E. defence when Mason hit the ball with his hand. From the resulting kick J. Long put past the C. G. E. goal.

Jones Brilliant in Goal.

The goalkeeper was playing a brilliant game in goal and repeatedly brought relief to his side by his daring saves and timely saving. On an individual effort by "Ted" Bartley the play ran into the corner where he shot the ball across the goal mouth, that landed at the far corner of the goal. Hotston shot it in for the second goal.

Even and lively play ensued without either side becoming very dangerous, but Abraham at last had a fine drive from about 20 yards out. Naples cleared and Humpage tried to break through but Mason stopped him. At the other end Jones saved a beautiful corner kick from Manders. A few minutes afterwards Bartley carried the play down on the De Laval goal and passed to Williamson, who missed the upright.

A Clever Goal.

Fine work by the Manders-Hotston wing gave them two corner kicks in succession and after a beautiful corner kick the ball travelled into play; McDougall cleared, but it went to Hotston, who passed nicely to Manders. He lifted the ball across to Turner, making no mistake with his head for the third goal that went inside the upright. Play was uneventful until Hartshorn had a solo run on the right, but McDougald tricked him and punted the ball down the field. Turner caught hold and the ball struck the cross bar with a rocket shot, rebounded into play, where Bartley was judged off-side. A right wing attack brought a corner kick but just as half time arrived Hotston shot past.

Half-time, C.G.E., 3, DeLaval 0.

Half Time.

On resuming an opening came to the De Lavals, where Abrahams and Lindsay dashed in and crossed to Nichols who missed closely by a fine try; C.G.E. retaliating and Godfrey missing his kick. Jones had to run out to clear the situation. From a corner kick the C.G.E. left winger shot past. On the other side of the field Manders forced a corner of Brown that was fruitless.

A Penalty Against De Laval.

Nice combination by Lindsay and Abrahams was frustrated by McDonald. The C.G.E. forwards worked their way down on the defence where Godfrey in his over-eagerness to make a clearance upset Manders, the referee awarded a penalty. The penalty was converted by Manders while one of the De Laval players was standing inside the penalty area. The De Laval captain questioned the decision but the referee held out and declared that it was a lawful goal. The game then went from end to end for a long time with netiher one claiming an advantage.

De Laval Goal Keeper Good.

The C.G.E. now had the upper hand of the game and it was just a battle between the C. G. E. forwards and Jones. On a visit on the De Laval goal the whole forward line jumped on to Jones but everybody was surprised to see him come out of the tussle with the ball. On a nice play by Williamson and Bartley, the former added the fifth goal for the C. G. E. Play was in mid-field when full time was called, with the C. G. E. five goals to the good.

Analysis of the Game.

	1st Half.	2nd Half.	Total
Goals	3	2	5
Goal kicks	1	1	2
Corner kicks	4	3	7
Offside	2	1	3
Fouls	3	3	6

De Laval.

	1st Half	2nd Half.	Total.
Goals	0	0	0
Goal kicks	6	9	15
Fouls	0	1	1

Notes on the Game.

The brilliant goal keeping of Jones was worth seeing and if it had not been for him no doubt the score would have been much larger.

As a pivot Turner is in his proper place. His headwork was a feautre of the game and the two goals scored by him were well deserved.

No doubt, Hillman was missed from the De Laval defence but McDougall made a good showing for a man who has been out of the game for ten years.

The more games Manders and Hotston have together the combination improves and both of them had a field day.

The De Laval inside left—Lindsay—who has just arrived from Scotland strengthened the attack and along with Abraha mswill produce good results.

GAMES FOR SATURDAY—SAM CALENDINE WITH CANADIAN WOOLENS—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The games for Saturday are Canadian Woollens vs. Machine Gunners at the Oval at 3 o'clock prompt. Mr. A. McKinley referee; G.W.V.A. vs. De Laval at the Exhibition grounds, 3 o'clock sharp, Mr. Fred Roberts referee.

G. W. V. A. — Goal, Hawthorne; backs, Gamble, Bishop; half backs, Burrow, Ryan and Edwards; forwards Curtis, Monks, Norman, Peel, Evans. Reserves: McKinlay, Jones, Piggott.

The Machine Gunners intend to get their first two points on Saturday against the Canadian Woollens by placing the following team in the field: W. Flowers, goal; J. Crowe and R. Perry, backs; R. A. Metcalfe, R. G. McLeish and H. J. Darling, halfbacks; R. Payne, J. Roberts, L. Frazer, J. Bell and H. Darling.

The De Laval team will be chosen from W. Jones, goal; Wm. McDougall and M Godfrey, backs; A. Akers, Ed. Humpage and Wm. Brown, halfbacks; G Hartshorn, J. Long, A. Nichols, J. Lindsay and E. Abrahams. Reserves, J. Cooper and J. Goodman.

Wetton, the Canadian Woollens' regular goal-keeper, will not be able to play for a few weeks, but Mr. Worth has been fortunate in securing Sam Caledine, the old 93rd Batt. goalkeeper, for his team.

A difference of opinion in regard to Hillman, of the De Laval, who wanted a transfer to the Canadian Woollens, has deprived both the teams of his services A player must be transferred 48 hous before a game is played.

It is the desire of the football executive to draw the public's attention to the fact that they spoil the game if they do not stand back from the touch line, more especially around the goals. To help the players please take the hint for Saturday.

The prominent long distance runner of this city, in the person of Mr. Charles Thorp, has signed up with the Canadian Woollens for the football team.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

The Oshawa Reformer reports that Mr. John Nott, secretary of the Central Ontario Baseball League, says Lindsay is sore on account of losing Pitcher Ed. Scott, which is all bosh. Mr. Nott has another guess coming, says The Lindsay Warder. Lindsay fans hope to see "Scotty" go through to the finals and wish him every luck.

TO REFEREE AT OSHAWA.

President Lockington of the Central Ontario League, has requested Umpire Butler to officiate at Oshawa on 24th May.

A free-for-all, in which players and spectators joined, marred the Michigan-Ontario League game; in which Flint beat the Tigers at Hamilton.

DAY OF SPORTS.

Cannington is arranging for a day of sports on 24th May.

BRAMPTON WILL STICK.

BRAMPTON, May 14.—The rumours that have been afloat concerning the Brampton Excelsiors withdrawing from the senior series are without foundation. True, they have lost Bill Stephens, who is inspection bridges as a pastime in the wilds of Mono, and playing lacrosse for Orangeville in between, but all the old vanguard will stick, with Campbell, Mona, Beecham, Warre, Blain, George and Harry Sproule, Sarles, Rod Anderson and Charters, of last year's Seniors, and Jack Burrell, who has returned from overseas.

Clarence Stephens, a brother of Bill's, will be tried out at the centre position, and with Pete Fleming, McLean, Cook and Bolton, they will make good. Jack Carmichael will coach.

Insects which spend most of their lives in a torpid or semi-torpid condition are seldom injured and never killed by being frozen. There are numerous instances of travellers in mountain regions having found beetles and butterflies above the snow line which were stiff, frozen, and apparently dead. When carried down to the warmer air in the valleys, however, they revived in a very short time.

LEW CODY IN A LOVE DRAMA

WILL BE SEEN AT THE GRAND NEXT WEEK.

Girls—Girls—GIRLS! Not the familiar bathing beauties nor those of musical comedy variety, but girls, lovable, kissable gils are the feature of "The Beloved Cheater," the Robertson-Cole Special in which Lew Cody will star.

Some one has said that there are fifty-seven varieties of love-making. Well, here are the whole fifty-seven exemplied by the master hand of the ace of hearts himself.

Lew Cody believes in beauty. This is perfectly apparent not only in the visions of feminine loveliness, but in the spectacular settings and gorgeous costumes. In keeping with these ideas, he has surrounded himself with a number of famous screen beauties, among whom will be seen Eileen Percy and Doris Pawn.

"The Beloved Cheater" has a novel twist that will keep you guessing from the very first scene to the unexpected climax. At the Grand, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, twice daily.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"A WOMAN OF PLEASURE."

The fact that the story embodied in "A Woman of Pleasure," the feature picture at the Grand, is something different, something entirely new, made a strong apepal to the large audience last evening, and Blanche Sweet did some of the best acting in her long and successful career in the greatest English melodrama ever shown in this city.

Miss Sweet plays the part of a poor school teacher whose desire for pretty clothes and social position leads her into marriage with a rich man, which action she has cause to regret when she meets her ideal in one of her husband's employees. The bare narration of the story cannot give a proper idea of the novel and humorous situations and the thrilling advenutres which are met during the action of the play. All the support are well known actors who have won won distinction in the movie world.

AT THE EMPIRE

In his first photodrama James G. Corbett, formerly the world champion pugilist, now one of the shining lights on the silversheet, appeared at the Empire Theatre last night in "The Prince of Avenue A," a thriller from the beginning to the end but chuck full of humor and clean fun. James Corbett is the one ring champion who does not depend on his acrobatic or pugilistic ability for success on the screen for not only has his success there been phenomenal but on the stage he has created a most favorable reputation.

In this picture Corbett appears as a popular young New York East side plumber, Barney O'Connor, who shares with his father the leadership of the district politics. The wealthy candidate for mayor has a pretty daughter with whom the young Irishman falls irresistibly in love. Inspired he is stirred to supreme efforts when his opponents attempt his defeat. The mass scene at a Tammany ball when Jim comes out a victor is a stupendous scene excellently produced.

Next day the polls declare corbett elected, to be followed by his winning the mayor's daughter, a leader in the gay and wealthy society circles of Fifth Avenue.

OLYMPIC TRIAL FINAL 100 MILES.

C. W. A. Announces Dates for the Preliminary and Final Trials.

The Canadian Wheelmen's Association Olympic road race trials start to-morrow on the Vaughan Road with a 15-mile road race under the auspices of the Classic A. C. The start will be made at 2.30 sharp.

On 24th May the Broadways will stage a 20-mile event; on 12th June the Herb. Macdonald A. C. will hold a 25-mile race, and on 26th June the R. C. B. C. will put on a 30-mile event.

The final trial, probably a 100-mile grind on the Exhibition track, will be pulled off by the C. W. A. on 10th July.

Valve stems are sometimes inclined to stick. This is due to deposits of carbon and may be remedied by pouring kerosene into the air valve while the engine is running.

When a car is driven on a car track the wear of the car comes in one place, thereby placing an unusual strain on the walls of the tire. The tires are further damaged by small splinters of steel, which are likely to become embedded in the fabric. Don't drive on a track if a road is open elsewhere.

INTERESTING REPORTS READ AT ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Y.W.C.A.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION CONCLUDES A VERY SUCCESSFUL YEAR—OFFICERS ELECTED FOR THE YEAR.

At the annual meeting o the Young Women's Christian Association held last evening, the Board of Managers elected for the ensuing year were: Mrs. Walter Roger, honorary president, and Mrs. W. D. Scott, Miss M. Dickson, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. A. W. Cressman, Mrs. James Wood, Miss E. Morrow, Mrs. W. H. Hill, Mrs. Robert Neill, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Vincent Eastwood, Mrs. R. H. Turner, Mrs. Cruikshank, Mrs. Adam Hall, Miss Florence Cameron, Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner, Mrs. Greer, Mrs. George MacDonald, Mrs. E. Harvey Mrs. Widdess, Mrs. Ingall, Miss Walton, Mrs. C. C. Abbott, Miss McVannel, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Cormack, Mrs. R. M. Waddell, Mrs. Gordon Langley, Mrs. C. R. Widdifield, Mrs. Allen Cameron and Mrs. Buchanan.

A Social Factor

At the conclusion of the devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. F. Chapman, pastor St. James' Methodist church, Mrs. W. D. Scott, President of the Association, in a brief and interesting address, outlined the aims and objects of the Y.W.C.A. which strives to make the institution a social factor in the Kingdom of God. Through the interest manifested by the Board and several friends during the past year a long felt want in the Association had been filled in the appointment of an Industrial and Club Secretary. One essential duty of the Y.W.C.A., Mrs. Scott concluded, is to lead girls into strong womanhood.

Progress Gratifying.

It is gratifying to note the progress of the YW.C.A. the Secretary, Mrs. Cruikshanks, said, in her report, which on account of her illness, was read by Mrs. C. C. Abbott. She spoke of the splendid manner in which Mrs. W. D. Scott had carried on the work of the Institution, of the happy appointment of Miss Jean Thompson, and said that the two local young ladies who had been appointed, Miss Price as Physical Director and Miss Leta Bronscombe as Assistant Secretary, had more than justified their appointments. Miss Payne has proved herself a competent swimming instructress. Continuing the report stated that $500 had been expended on renewal of house furnishing and referred to the splendid services rendered by Mrs. Morrison in the household department, especially during the influenza epidemic. In conclusion she spoke of the genuine regret felt at the resignation of Mrs. Walter Roger.

Treasurer's Report.

The report of the Treasurer, Miss E. Morrow, was as follows:

Assets—
May 1st, 1919:

Cash on hand	$ 719.11
Cash in bank	613.39
House income	13,503.76
Public income	4,617.48
	$19,453.74

Liabilities—
May 1st, 1919:

Outstanding cheques	$ 1,399.71
House expenses	12,927.93
Public expenses	4,639.09
Credit balance	487.01
	$19,453.74

Cash on hand..$387.74.
Cash in bank—$2,252.58.
Outstanding cheques—$2,153.31.

House hold Department.

In her report of the household department Mrs. Morrison told of the many ways in which the institution strives to make the Y.W.C.A. a real home for girls and those applying for rooms are never turned away, if the home is filled, proper accommodation may be found for them elsewhere. There were during the year 130 girls practically residents of the institution, 225 transients, and the capacity of the home of 72 has been filled most of the year. Concluding she referred to the fact that on account of the general high cost of living conditions the "Y" had found it necessary to raise the prices of board slightly.

A New Department.

In her report of the Industrial and Club Committees, which department commenced in Febraury, 1920, Miss Jean Thompson outlined the activities of the department whose object is to reach all senior employed girls. Through the medium of this department Miss Thompson comes in touch with 125 employed girls at noon. Four clubs of employed girls have been formed, the "Athena," the "Good Cheer," the "Jolly Juniors" and "The More the Merrier," all of which are self governing. "I feel," Miss Thompson concluded, "that I am voicing the opinion of the girls when I say that our clubs are helping us make a bigger contribution to life. There is no longer any doubt that women are needed in industry but if industrial women are to come into their own they must have the understanding friendship and backing of all women."

Gymnashium Work and Swimming Pool.

In her report of the gymnasium work, Miss Price stated that the department had had a most successful year and hoped that a larger number would in future take advantage of the opportunities the gymnasium offers. Miss Payne reported an enrollment for the swimming pool of 114 and stated that in the near future a number of the swimmers she expects will qualify for the Royal Live Saving Society medals, for which examinations will be held presently. She referred to the fact that the swimmers would be known throughout Canada by means of a film which a cinema man took at the pool some weeks ago and which have already been shown in Toronto and will be shown in this city.

GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT

Miss Charlotte Layton, General Secretary of the Y.W.C.A. reported growth and development in the Association and referred to the past year as one of co-operation amongst the Board Members, Secretaries and girls. She referred briefly to different ways which have been adopted to fulfill the purpose of the Institution which included a course of interesting lectures on law by His Honor Judge Huycke, a six weeks' course in the art of story telling after which a story telling circle was formed for practise in the art; a class in conversational French conducted by Miss Curlette; and, a Beginners' Class by Miss Helen Kenny. The latter is still in existence; the former discontinued on account of the interference of the 'Influenza epidemic.

Religious Activities.

Outlining the religious activities of the Institution Miss Layton spoke of the formation, under the auspices of the Inter-Church Girls' Council, of a six weeks' course for teachers and leaders of teen-age girls.

Continuing Miss Layton told of the many little tasks accomplished by the general office and spoke of the past year as a trying one in the fact that every one on the staff outside of Mrs. Morrison was in her first year. She hoped, however, that things had become properly adjusted and looked forward to a year of unprecedented progress.

What the "Y." Means.

It is not the building, but something that builds.
It is not the membership, but something that wins it.
It is not the budget, but something that raises it.
It is not the organization, but something that organizes.
It is not the achievement, but something that achieves.
It is not anything on earth, but the spirit that lifts things heavenward.
It is the spirit of sisterhood, uniting women of faith in fellowship and service.
It is the spirit of service, choosing "not to be ministered unto, but to minister."
It is the spirit of sacrifice, preferring rather "to fall into the ground and die, than to abide by itself alone."
It is the spirit of youth, with the zest and freshness of the morning.
It is the spirit of womanliness, pressing forward with the mid-day heat and the burden.
It is the spirit of Association—the girl, the woman, the Christ, in undiscouraged, irresistable co-operation.

JUNIOR CLUB REPORT.

In her report for the year Miss Leta Bronscombe, Assistant Secretary showed a total enrollment for the Saturday afternoon clubs of 36 with an average attendance of 24.

In February it was found necessary to divide the club into two smaller groups. Mrs. McKenzie has guided the work of the "Ever Bright Club" with loving and helpful interest. The little ones recently completed twelve neatly made scrap books which they purpose sending to the sick children in the hospital.

The older girls chose as a name for their club the "Sunshine Club" and have fixed up a club room for themselves. They are following out the programme of "Canadian Girls in Training" with its fourfold standard: Physical, Intellectual, Religion and Service. At their meetings they are learning to conduct a business meeting—the duties of officers, committees, etc. Some time each Saturday is devoted to Bible study. The two clubs have several things in common in the fact that they meet each Saturday afternoon and have an hour in physical culture and games. With the opening of the swimming pool the girls became anxious to learn to swim and for the summer months instead of gymnasium work the clubs are having lessons in swimming. The report concluded by a reference to the many other things which the two clubs have in common and an expression of the confidence of the institution of obtaining bigger and better resuts in the future.

Vote of Thanks.

In moving a hearty vote of thanks Mrs. W. R. Harstone paid a warm tribute to the staff and to the excellence of the reports which showed the important part the institution plays in the community. Mrs. Walter Roger seconded this and in doing so said that she had never heard better reports, better expressed, and stated that she was surprised at the progress being made by the institution.

The Programme.

During the evening a splendid programme was given, to which Miss Emmerson contributed some charming solos, and Mrs. Percy Hooper a violin solo. Dainty refreshments concluded the evening's activities.

Run Down, Pale and Weak, Nervous and Tired

"Vital" Tablets

THE GREAT FRENCH TONIC WILL BUILD UP

How many people today are putting in an existence, far different from what nature intended. Disease of one sort or another is lurking inthe system, sapping the very life itself. One cannot enjoy life. The French have come to the rescue of all such persons. In VITAL Tablets are all the essentials to make you healthy and strong. You have no appetite, your food does not agree with you, your nerves are all on edge, why? Because the very part of your body that needs to be kept in a strong, healthy condition, is gradually getting weaker, rather than stronger. You must fortify your body. Once your body is strong, it will throw off the disease. The question is, what should one take to do this? The makers of VITAL Tablets will sell them under a guarantee. If they do not build you up, you can have your money back. Build yourself up, and away goes every disease. VITAL Tablets are a wonderful reconstructive remedy, known to science. Go to your druggist and procure a box of VITAL Tablets. See for yourself. Price fifty cents per box at all drug stores.

GIVES NOTE OF WARNING ON GROUP INSURANCE

CANADIAN FRATERNAL ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT SEES INDIVIDUAL TAKING TOO MUCH FOR GRANTED.

TORONTO, May 14. — About one hundred delegates from all parts of the Dominion representing 21 fraternal societies, and a grand total of more than 400,000 members, were present at the opening session of the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Canadian Fraternal Association. The address of welcome on behalf of the city was delivered by Mayor Church.

In his presidential address, Mr. James B. McKillop, of London, referred to the amendment of the Insurance Act of 1917, which passed Parliament one year ago. Speaking of the recent practice of employers granting group insurance to employees, said that it was possible that an employee receiving a policy or certificate in this way does not fully understand his position and thinks himself fully insured, not realizing that the insurance only continues in force while he remains in the service of the employer and for a period of one month thereafter.

There are many objections and dangers connected with group insurance, continued President McKillop, such as the right of the employer to cancel, the temptation to depend entirely upon this form of insurance until the insured is not in a position to take a higher fixed policy. "The question is of such importance that it behooves every officer and member of a fraternal society at least to see that no member of his society is permitted to be deceived into lapsing his membership because he is temporarily insured in a group," he said.

A LINDSAY TRAGEDY.

Scugogville Resident Had His Stock of "Medicine" Stolen.

Lindsay Warden—A daring burglary was pulled off in Lindsay Saturday when the home of Mr. Peter Kennedy, Glenelg street, was entered by thieves and a quantity of bottled ale, porter, etc., used for medicinal purposes, was carried away. It is surmised that the robbery was carefully planned and that the thieves had previously entered the house and placed the five cases inside the kitchen door, so that when the automobile came along all they had to do was open the door and carry the goods out, which was done shortly after the midnight hour. Five empty cases floating down the Scugog told part of the story.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this read-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You molsten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

OLD BRITISH NAVY SEA MYTH IS BROUGHT STRONGLY BACK WHEN HUN NAVY SURRENDERS

ADMIRAL DRAKE'S PROMISE MADE AT EARLIER AGE OF BRITAIN'S SEA POWER IS WEIRDLY FULFILLED AS BRITISH NAVY STOOD BY THEIR GUNS.

Many strange stories are told of happenings in connection with the calling of those "who go down to the sea in ships" that find fierce and abiding grip on the hearts of sailor men. To the landsman, whose familiarjty with the sea is based on an annual visit to Margate, there stories are mere fanciful dreams, in the lives of men who are regarded as ever prone to romanticism and mystery. But what self-respecting seaman is to be found who would think of questioning the existence of "The Flying Dutchman," for example. Or, who of them would cast a doubt on the existence and baleful influence of all who know Sir Henry Newbolt's lines:

"Take my drum to England, hang it by the shore,
Strike it when your powder's runnin' low;
If the Dons sight Devon, I'll quit the port of Heaven,
An' drum them up the Channel as we drummed them long ago."

And if you would hear the fulfillment of Drake's promise listen to what Mr. Arthur Machen had to say in "The Outlook."

"On the 11th of November the Armistice between the Allies and the German Empire was signed. On the morning of 21st November, 1918, the British Navy awaited the enemy in a state of mind that is hard to describe. The surrender of the German fleet they all knew had been demanded and granted; but at the last moment our men thought the unutterable disgrace must boil in the veins of those German sailors and the guns of their great ships must speak their final word of fire before they sank beneath the water. Every preparation was made for the fight. The ships were cleared. The men were at "action stations." Naval discipline was at its strictest. Every man on board every ship knew his place to an inch, his duty to the most minute detail. The King's ships had made them ready for battle. It is hard for a landsman to realise the awful and inexorable import of such an array.

"The Fleet steamed to the appointed rendezvous; waited; and looked eastward. It was a misty morning, with a gentle breeze.

"One of the ships was the Royal Oak, chiefly manned by sailors of Devonshire. She was flying on that day a magnificent silk ensign made for her by the Devonshire ladies. On her bridge 60 feet above the top deck was a group of officers, Admiral Grant, Captain Maclachlan of the Royal Oak, the Commander, and others. It was soon after 9 o'clock in the morning when the German fleet appeared looming through the mist. Admiral Grant saw them, and waited. He could scarcely believe, he says, that they would not instantly open fire.

"Then the drum began to beat on the Royal Oak. The sound was unmistakable; it was that of a small drum being beaten in rolls. At first the officers on the bridge paid little attention if any, to the sound, so intent were they on the approaching enemy. But when it became evident that the Germans were not to show fight, Admiral Grant turned to the Captain of the Royal Oak and remarked on the beating of the drum. The captain said that he heard it but could not understand it, since the ship was cleared for action and every man on board was at his battle station. The commander also heard, but could not understand, and sent messengers all over the ship to investigate. Twice the messengers were sent about the ship, about all the decks. They reported that every man was at his station. Yet the drum continued to beat. Then the Commander himself made a special tour of investigation through the Royal Oak. He to, found that every man was at his station.

"It must be noted by the way that if someone playing a practical joke had been beating a drum between the decks, the sound would have been in audible to the officers on the bridge. Secondly, when a ship is cleared for action the members of the band have specially important duties in connection with fire control apparatus assigned to them. The band instruments are all stored away in the band room, right aft, and below decks.

"All the while the British fleet was coming to anchor in a square about it, so that the German ships were hemmed in. And all the while that this was being done, the noise of the drum was heard at intervals beating in rolls. All who heard it are convinced that it was no sound of flapping stays or any such accident. The ear of the naval officer is attuned to all the noises of his ship in fair weather and in foul; it makes no mistakes. All who heard knew that they heard the rolling of a drum.

"At about 2 o'clock in the afternoon the German fleet was enclosed and helpless, and the British ships dropped anchor, some 15 miles off the Firth of Forth. The utter, irrevocable ruin and disgrace of the German Navy were consummated. And at that moment the drum stopped beating, and was no more heard.

"But those who had heard it, Admiral, Captain, Commander other officers and men of all ratings held then and hold now one belief as to the rolling music They believe that the sound they heard was that of "Drake's Drum," the audible manifestation of the spirit of the great sea-captain present at this hour of the tremendous triumph of Britain on the seas. This is the firm belief of them all.

"It may be so. It may be that Drake did quit the port of Heaven in a ship of fire and driving the Huns across the sea with the flame of his spirit drummed them down to their pitiful and shameful doom."

WORLD'S WEALTHIEST WOMAN

The wealthiest woman in the world lives not in the United States, but in Japan. She is a little widow who, until her husband died in 1899, lived the cloistered life of the average Japanese wife. Her husband, who had worked up from nothing to the ownership of a one million-dollar sugar refinery, left her his refinery and his camphor business. The Russo-Japanese war gave such an impetus to Japanese commerce that she sold the refinery to what was then the Japanese sugar trust for three and a quarter million dollars, then a record price for a single commercial transaction in Japan. The outbreak of the European war found her in control of fifteen large factories—steel works, shipyards, cotton mills, coal mines, breweries, flour mills, match factories and celluloid works. The European war poured from 200 million to 250 million dollars into her lap and its ending finds her a frail, unobtrusive queen of commerce whose fabulous wealth is one of the most vital factors in Japan's growing power.

She is Mrs. Yone Sazuki and she lives on a modest estate on the fringes of Kobe, Japan. Her business manager, S. Takohata, has just arrived in London. I asked him today how many women Mrs. Sazuki employed. "I do not know," he said. "It is too difficult to say. She has so many interests in so many industries in so many parts of the world that it is impossible to judge. Probably between 35,000 and 40,000 are employed by the companies directly under her control. A large proportion of them are girls and women, in whose welfare she takes a great interest."

Mrs. Sazuki owns 98 per cent. of the shares in the great firm of Sazuki & Company, one of the most powerful corporations in the world, with its head office at Kobe and branch offices in London, New York, Glasgow, Hong Kong, Seattle, Shanghai, San Francisco, Marras, Manilla, Bombay, Calcutta, Valparaiso, Vladivostok, Singapore, Melbourne and a long list of far eastern seaports.

She controls the steel industry of Japan, she has the world monopoly in crude camphor and she dominates the sugar market. She is the holder of vast estates in Japan, Korea, Chian and the East Indies.

She operates at present a fleet of 60 setamships, built in her own yards and totaling more than a half million tons, but as many more are building in her yards, so that shortly she expects to operate a fleet of 100 ships with a tonnage of almost one million.

"What is Mrs. Suzuki accomplishing for her women employees?" I asked Mr. Takohata.

"You must understand," he said, "that labor conditions are very different in Japan from what they are in the United States. Almost 75 per cent. of our laborers are women in Japan, and the conditions under which they formerly worked were very hard. When Japan passed the 12-hour a day labor law, it was looked upon as a great reform. Even then the factories worked day and night, and when one shift of girls was finished with their day's work they crawled into the still warm beds which had been vacated by the last shift.

"But now conditions are improving rapidly. Mrs. Suzuki's employees are working only eight hours a day, which means a greater concession than even six hours in the United States, for with the unfavorable climatic conditions of Japan and the poorer education and skill of its laborers, it is necessary for them to work about four hours a day longer to equal your production."

Mrs. Sazuki has helped to obtain a higher status for married women in Japan, and in the business enterprises under control, the reforms she has achieved have electrified the Japanese labor world.

"The girls in Mrs. Suzuki's factories live in large, healthy dormitories and recreation grounds are now being established for them," Mr. Takohata told me. "Such things are quite new to Japan, but Mrs. Suzuki hopes to see the day when women in Japan will enjoy privileges equal to those in the United States.

Much of the stimulus for Yone Suzuki's reforms has come from the United States. Her son was for a time a student at the Massachussetts Institute of Technology in Boston, and had it not been for the European war Mrs. Sazuki would have visited him there.—London correspondence, Kansas City Star.

THE CHANGING CLOUDS.

Across the infinite azure sky
The wind-blown white clouds lightly roll,
And take the shapes of earth that lie
Outstretched beneath from pole to pole.

They mock old continents that pass
In ever-changing forms of land,
Like shadows in a magic glass
Held in some great Enchanter's hand.

The Wheeler of the Winds of Time
That ceaseless blow the plastic mold,
Reshapes in solitude sublime
New vessels from the things of old.

The Urn of Water, Vase of Fire—
Ameri ca and Africa—change;
And Asia of the world's desire
Is lighted with a light more strange

I see blown Europe's altering coast,
Her islands fading: bold expanse
Of caep and headland—all are lost,
Smoothed out by whirling winds of chance.

And where her tidal seas had lain,
Or winding rivers too k their way,
Lo, mountains stretch, and wooden plain,
And sand-strewn deserts hold their sway! —M. E. Buhler.

FLOUR ADVANCED 80 CENTS; BREAD WILL GO UP SHORTLY

BRANTFORD, May 14.—Local millers announce that flour has been advanced 80 cents per hundred pounds, small bags being advanced 20 cents in price. The increase will mean an increase in the price of bread, which is now selling at 13 cents per loaf, just as soon as the bread manufacturers have their old stock of flour used up, and it is intimated that the worst is still to come.

ROMANCE COMES INTO BLIND JOURNALIST'S LIFE

DETROIT, May 14. — Annesley Burrowes, a well-known blind author and former newspaperman, who made his home in Windsor for many years, was married in Detroit Thursday to Mrs. Grace Root, a young Highland Park widow, who for month has been coming to St. Luke's Hospital to read to the blind jouranlist. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. Burrowes' sister, Miss Katherine Burrowes, 246 Highland avenue, Rev. Dr. McDonald, pastor of Highland Park Presbyterian church, officiating. The honeymoon will be spent in a tent near Birmingham, ten miles beyond the city.

A Terrible Penalty

frequently follows the neglect of an injury. Germs and dust get into the wound, it begins to fester, blood-poisoning sets in, and sometimes the loss of a limb is the result.

Safeguard yourself against such a possibility by applying Zam-Buk at once. This antiseptic balm destroys all germs and prevents festering and blood-poisoning. Then the healing essences promote the growth of new tissue and it is not long before the wound is completely healed.

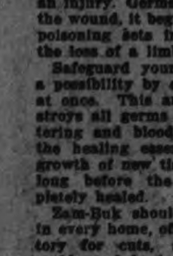
Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every home, office, store and factory for cuts, scratches, burns, scalds and bruises. It is equally good for eczema, rashes, boils and ulcers. All dealers, 50c. box.

VICTORY BOND WORTH $850 STOLEN IN WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, May 14.—Theft of some $850 worth of Victory Bonds from the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farrel, Royal Hotel, became known here. The theft is thought to have taken place last night. Mrs. Farrel discovered the fact that her bureau had been tampered with, and investigation revealed the fact that the bonds had been taken. The police are working on the case.

In the Spring Time

Any fool knows enough to carry an umbrella when it rains, but the wise man is he who carries one when it is only cloudy.



Any man will send for a doctor when he gets bedfast, but the wiser one is he who adopts proper measures before his ills become serious. During a hard winter or the following spring one feels run-down, tired out, weak and nervous. Probably you have suffered from a cold, the Grip or flu, which has left you thin, weak and pale. This is the time to put your system in order. It is time for house-cleaning.

A good, old-fashioned alterative and temperance tonic is one made of wild roots and barks, without the use of alcohol, and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form. This is nature's tonic, which restores the tone of the stomach, activity of the liver and steadiness to the nerves, strengthening the whole system. First put up by Dr. Pierce over 50 years ago, now procurable at any drug store; or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont., for trial package.

OF DEATH AND THE HEREAFTER

By H. F. GADSBY

The oldest Ottawa correspondent vows that this is the most listless session he has seen in twenty-five years. From the way matters dawdle it is evident that the Government is waiting for something to turn up—Premier Borden or its own toes.

Some believe that Sir Robert will come back—the date set is May 15—others believe that he can't. Among those who believe that the robin will return is Dr. Reid who visits the premier from time to time in his sunny southern home. It is to be observed that it's Doctor Reid who always goes on these father-dear-father-come-home-to-us-now appeals. Doctor Reid is a practical politician and he tells the absent one what is what, in plain language. Calder would never do because he is too diplomatic, nor Mr. Rowell because he is too full of hope that Providence will intervene. Mr. Rowell is so immersed in the public good that he can't see his own fate coming. His is the faith that looks the worst in the face, confident that the Almighty will perform a miracle to save Union Government because there is one just man in the Cabinet.

Not that Mr. Rowell relies entirely on faith—not at all. He knows that faith without words is dead and consequently he works everybody and everything that can boost Newton Wesley Rowell. The Bureau of Information, having been deftly hidden away in the Department of External Affairs, Mr. Rowell comes forward with another gay balloon in the shape of an Imperial News Service, subsidized of course by the Government whose chief function is to cable daily to the English newspapers that Mr. Rowell is the one really great man in Canada, in reply to which the English end of the combination cables back that Max Aitkin and Grant Morden are two best bets over there.

As Minister of All The Residuary Powers Mr. Rowell does everything that the other Cabinet Ministers leave undone and gets good advertising at every stage of the game. It remains to be seen whether this advertising pays. Mr. Rowell firmly belives that it does.

Mr. Meighen is another statesman who thinks that public opinion needs a little stimulation. He looks forward to the time when Union Government will pass away and Arthur Meighen will be looking for a soft spot in the hearts of the people. To that end a little paper has been started in Toronto called the Onlooker, which repeats from week to week what a clever fellow Arthur Meighen is. Incidentally it tells what a great man Sir George Foster is but as everybody knows that Sir George is as old as Enoch and like him about to be translated the inference is that Arthur is the real cheese and that Sir George has just been slipped in to give an artistic verisimilitude to an otherwise bold and unconvincing narrative.

THE DOCTOR'S GOLDEN FUTURE.

Dr. Reid, I am told, is not interested in newspaper reclame because long before Union Government passes out, he intends to make himself President of the Canadian National Railways at fifty thousand a year. The Doctor knows as much about railways as I do about the fourth dimension, but that does not alter the fact that he has his old age to provide for and Canada is the only country that will do the providing. The docor is already buttressing his prospective position as president by refusing to answer questions of railways management on the ground that it is "not in the public interest."

Assuming that Dr. Reid, Minister of Railways, foreshadows Dr. Reid, President of the Canadian National Railways, the public can rely on getting as much information out of him and his Canadian Northern associates as the average citizen can get blood out of a stone. It is the doctor's policy never to cough up—and that policy applies not only to his job, but also to any information he possesses abut it.

If Sir Robert decides to vacate his shoes Mr. Calder is another contender. So far Mr. Calder has no special voice in the Canadian press, but that matter can doubtless be attended to later on. Meanwhile Mr. Calder has announced at one little dinner and another, that vilification of public men—that whom none is more public than Mr. Calder himself—must cease. Just how Mr. Calder is going to head off brisk criticism is not apparent but doubtless he will find a way by order-in-council or otherwise. And of course, after the criticism has ceased the band will begin to play.

Outside the four names I have mentioned ambition does not exist. The rest of the Cabinet Ministers are willing to let things drift. No new Cabinet Ministers are likely to occur because entering the Cabinet now is like stepping into an open boat in mid ocean and taking chances on mild weather. Threats are made from time to time of a Unionist policy but it is agreed on all sides that the best policy a corpse can pursue is to remain dead. Anything else would be indecent and would disturb the spectators.

READY FOR DEATH.

As it is the Cabinet has its own midst all the elements of a dignified decease—lawyers to draw up its will, doctors, horse and otherwise, to ease its pain, lay preachers—Mr. Rowell, no less—to administer spiritual comfort—everything, in fact, except an undertaker and embalmer to nail down at the finish. So far the Government has not done the necessary things to make a peaceful death bed—that is to say it has not retrenched in the right places, taxed the right persons, or deflated the paper currency—but there is reason to believe that it would face its end manfully if it only knew which end it was facing. It is, so to speak, bewildered.

The complaint among newspaper men is that everything is dead—Government, Parliament, Opposition, Farmers—all dead, not a kick anywhere. No fighting. The only person that rises to a point of order is the statute of the Sieur de Champlain, and the Nepean Point he rises to is half a mile away from the Speaker's eye. It has been suggested that MacDonald, Cartier, Brown, Mackenzie, Baldwin, Lafontaine, Magee, instead of standing around on Parliament Hill doing nothing, might be brought in to mix things up in the Green Chamber. Failing this miracle, it looks like a dull session.

Anything to get up a scrap. The mace for instance—why not fill its hollow, gilded head with cocktails and then spray Parliament with high spirits?

Still another idea. Divisions are as scarce as hen's teeth. Why not kill two birds with one stone? Increase the sessional indemnity—without appearing to do so—and at the same time start a little excitement by paying $20 to each member of parliament for every division he takes part in? Fifteen hundred dollars being the void between the present indemnity and the four thousand dollars so ardently desired, it follows that seventy-five extra divisions at twenty dollars per would bridge the chasm. It would do more than that—it would mean a full and constant attendance of members and a Parliament chock full of pepper.

SAME CONDITIONS EXISTED IN 1767

EXTRAVAGANCE AND HIGH PRICES THE ORDER OF THE DAY THEN AS NOW,

"The enormous expenses and unparalleled success of the late war" is the reason given for high prices and extravagance in the London Magazine or Gentleman's Monthly Intellig eencer" for the year 1767, in an article which the American Exchange National Bank here is reprinting in pamphlet form. It is interesting to compare the situation then and now and to find how similar conditians of fact and thought were a century and a half ago.

The writer says that "whoever remembers the many millions annually borrowed, funded and expended, during the last war" can be under no difficulty to account for the high prices of provisions, etc., and he shows how the interest on these borrowed funds and the new taxes every year imposed "must unavoidably increase prices."

Taxes Interdependent.

"For," he says, "a duty laid on any commodity does not only add the value of that duty to that commodity, but the dealer in it must advance the price double or treble times that sum; for he must not only repay himself the original tax, but must have compensation for his losses in trade by bad debts, and loss of interest by his increased capital. Besides this, every new tax does not only affect the price of the community on which it is laid, but that of all others, whether taxed or not, and with which at first sight, it seems to have no manner of connection. Thus, for instance, a tax on candles must raise the price of a coat, or a pair of breeches; because, out of these ,all the taxes on the candles of the woolcomber, weaver and the tailor ,must be paid. A duty upon ale must raise the price of shoes, because from them all the taxes upon ale crank by the tanner, leather-dresser, and shoe-maker, which is not a little, must be refunded.

"No tax is immediately laid upon corn, but the price of it must necessarily be advanced, because, out of that, all the innumerable taxes paid by the farmer on windows, soap, candles, malt, hops, leather, salt and a thousand others, must be repaid. So that corn is as effectually taxed as if a duty by the bushel had been primarily laid upon it :for taxes, like the various streams which form a general inundation, by whatever channels they separately find admission, unite, at last, and overwhelm the whole. The man, therefore, who sold sand upon an ass, and raised the price of it during the late war, though abused for an imposition, most certainly acted upon right reasons; for though there were no new taxes then imposed either on sand or asses, yet he found by experience, that, from the taxes laid on almost all other things, he could neither maintain himself, his wife, nor his ass, as cheap as formerly. He was, therefore, under a necessty of advancing the price of his sand, out of which alone all the taxes which he paid must be refunded. Thus the increase of taxes must increase the price of everything whether taxed or not; and this is one principal cause of the present extraordnary advance of provisions, and all the necessaries of life."

Currency Inflation.

The philosophy of that day has not changed in the 153 years that have passed. This, on inflation, has a similar sound: "The first, and most obvious effect of the increase of money is the decrease of its value, like that of all other commodities, for, money being but a commodity, its value must be relative, that is, depending upon the quantity of itself, and the quantity of itself, and the quantity of the things to be purchased with it. In every country where there is a great plenty of provisions, and but little money, there provisions must be cheap, that is, a great deal of them will be exchanged for a little money; on the contrary, where there are but little provisions in proportion to the number of consumers, and a great plenty of money, or what passes for money, there they will inevitably be dear, that is, a great deal of money must be given to purchase them. * * * The increase of money does not only operate on the price of provisions by the diminution of its own value, but by enabling more people to purchase, and consequently to consume them; which must unavoidably likewise increase their scarcity, and that must still add more to their price."

The extravagance of those times, brought about from the same causes as in these; the right to work little or be idle, which, if denied incited rebelion; all these are duplications of the present situation.

"The consumption of everything is also amazingly increased from the increase the wealth in our metropolis and indeed in every corner of this kingdom and the manner of living throughout all ranks and conditions of men, is no less amazingly altered. * * * The shop keeper, who used to be well contented with one dish of meat, one fire, and one maid, has now two or three times as many of each his wife has her tea, her card parties and her dressing room; and his 'prentice has climbed from the kichen fire to the front boxes at the playhouse. The lowest manufacturer and the meanest mechanic will touch nothing but the very best pieces of meat and the finest white bread."

NEW ZEALAND PROFITEERS.

But They Fall Far Short of Reaching Prices in This Country.

Profiteers thrive in New Zealand just as they do elsewhere, but despite this fact food and rents are far more reasonable in that country than here mhis was brought out in an address recently by Walter Nash of Wellington, New Zealand, who gave some very interesting facts about his country.

Telegraph messages can be sent from one end of th ecountry to another, he said, at one cent a word plus a four cent tax on each message. For $25 a year families have unlimited telephone service for twenty-four hours a day, but in very small towns where such long service is not needed the rate is $20 for twelve hours. Business firms pay only $30 for full service and $25 for half service. Letters he said, can be sent all over New Zealand at two cents. The Government, which owns the telephones, telegraphs and postal system, made a profit last year of $51,799,070 on them.

Sugar during the war was selling for 6 cents a pound, but went up to 7 cents last year and is expected to advance another cent before this year is over, he said. The price of good butter there is only 38 cents a pound; tea sells for between 42 cents and 72 cents a pound; milk is 12 cents a pound; beef a pound is 23 cents; a pound of lamb costs between 24 and 30 cents. Profiteers who have raised rents in New Zealand are amateurs compared with New York landlords, Mr. Nash declared, although the housing conditions there, as here, are very serious. There are no houses to be had, he said.

During the war New Zealanders sold supplies to the British Government for the soldiers at very low prices, he said, giving the following as examples: Lamb, from 12 to 13 cents a pound; mutton, 9 to 11 cents; beef, 8 to 10 cents; cheese, 14 to 20 cents; butter, 27 to 34 cents, and wool 24 to 44 cents. British manufacturers, who used to sell the wool at $1.44, had to give the wool growers one-half of their profit. The growers gave one-half of this to seamen's charities, Mr. Nash said.

HOW TO APPLY PLANT-FOOD FOR TOMATOES

Fertilizer for tomatoes is best applied through the fertilizer attachment of a grain drill or through a broadcast lime and fertilizer distributor. Part of the application can be made through the potato planter fertilizer attachment, which will open the furrow, mark the row and apply up to 600 pounds of fertilizer per acre in one application. Many growers apply part of the fertilizer through the attachment on the transplanter. Many growers find it profitable to side dress the crop with 200 to 400 pounds per acre, using a regular cultivator with top dressing attachment. A fertilizer bugle, consisting of either a long funnel or a length of hose tied in the corner of a sack of fertilizer, can be used. The sack is thrown over the shoulder and a hand is left free to direct the application.

MAGISTRATES MAY CONDUCT INQUESTS

TORONTO, May 14.—While the House was in committee on the bill amending the Coroners Act, so that at the request of the Attorney-General or Crown Attorney for the district every police magistrate shall have power to conduct an inquest. Attorney-General Raney admitted that further amendments to the Act were very necessary for a person to be a medical man to qualify as a coroner.

The NUT-KRUST Ideal to make the best bakery products ever sold over a retail counter

THE deliciously "home-cooked" taste of all Nut-Krust Products is due to the use of only genuine materials in baking.

There are no substitutes in Nut-Krust Products.

Fresh, sweet butter, milk and eggs (candled by ourselves); first-grade flour; pure leaf lard; fine, whole nuts; highest-grade raisins, hand-picked and hand-washed; every article the finest obtainable—give Nut-Krust Products a tastiness and wholesomeness impossible in bakers' cooking, where the use of "substitutes" is so general.

Then, too, distinctly modern equipment and methods add to the excellence of Nut-Krust Products. Every Nut-Krust Bakery is electrically equipped, doing away with soot or carbonous gases. Everything is baked before your eyes in white-tiled, white-walled buildings—by healthy, white-uniformed bakers who are masters of their trade. Nut-Krust Products are as pure and wholesome as it is possible to make them.

Step into the Nut-Krust Bakery and see the variety of Nut-Krust Products. Try a Nut-Krust Loaf—sweet as honey and so rich that it stays fresh for a week. Or any of the Nut-Krust specialties in cakes and rolls. Give your family or the "company" a real treat by serving a Nut-Krust specialty for dinner or supper.

Enjoying the Winter in Old Quebec

(1) Chateau Frontenac, Quebec.
(2) Toboggan Slide, Citadel Hill, Quebec.

Mayor Lavigueur of Quebec has announced that the official opening of the Winter Sport Season in that City will open on Tuesday, January 20th, with a grand parade of the Snowshoe and kindred Clubs. The season will last a month, and an attractive programme of week-end races and sports has been arranged, ending with a grand carnival from February 14th to 17th.

Since Winter Sports have become as popular as those of Summer, there is no need for anyone to dread the dreariness of December, January and February. To skate rhythmically upon an open-air rink; to tramp on one's snowshoes over fields which are impassable for the ordinary pedestrian; to jump from an immense height and yet to land, upright and graceful, on one's skis; to toboggan at the rate of an express train and, most fascinating of all, perhaps, to slide on the Swiss bob-sleighs which are still a novelty on this side of the Atlantic,—all this and more does Winter offer to her devotees.

Skating and skiing require some practice before one is an adept, but sliding and snowshoeing are perfectly simple; all one needs is "the will to do, the soul to dare." Where winter's icy mantle covers the waters and spreads a blanket of snow over the land—there winter sports are at their best. In Canada, "Our Lady of the Snows", every type of winter pastime flourishes; and in Quebec, Canada's oldest City, the outdoor life takes on a new character. Situated on the St. Lawrence River, easily accessible by train, Quebec offers to her guests an unfeigned welcome. At the Chateau Frontenac, the huge hotel which the C.P.R. has built on Dufferin Terrace, the winter guest will find that his indoor comfort and outdoor sport have alike been considered. Two rinks, one in the courtyard for the skaters, the other in the summer cafe for the curlers; a toboggan slide built on Dufferin Terrace, and perhaps, greatest attraction of all, the Swiss bob-sleighs—these are but a few of the inducements offered to those who love an outdoor life. The hills which surround the city make it ideal for skiing, and the broad countryside is as easy to traverse on snowshoes today, as when the Indians swept over it three hundred long winters ago. After a day out of doors, one is ready to return to the hotel for an evening of dancing and other allied amusements. The Chateau Frontenac is the centre of Quebec's social life, the magnet which draws to it all that is vivacious and charming of her society. No one who has been present at her New Year's Dance in the Chateau Frontenac can ever forget it; and this season the social life in the Ancient Capital bids fair to eclipse even its own brilliant past.

To the guest, the "Chambres Canadiennes" are sure to make a strong appeal. They form one of the several Period Suites in the hotel, and, as the name implies, are typically French-Canadian. In naming them after Jacques Cartier, Champlain, and Montcalm, heroes all, the Company has spared no effort to make them represent rooms in the manoir of a French-Canadian seigneur.—J. I. T.

WEDDING BELLS

MACAULAY—PALINE

On Wednesday, April 21st., Mr. Thomas B. Macaulay of this city, was married to Margaret, daughter of the late Arnold Palin, of Gloucester, at St. Leonard's, Upton, England. Rev. Alfred Palin, uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. Canon Brewster Sir James Brunton, M.P., gave the bride away. Mrs. Macaulay belongs to a family long identified with the British army. She is a niece of Dr. Henry Palin, ex-mayor of Wrexham, and a cousin of the late Lieut.-General Charles T Palin of Major-General Sir Philip Palin, K.C.B., and of Col. Gilbert Palin, C.B., all of the Indian army; and of Lady Robertson. She is also a cousin by marriage of General Sir William Birdwood and by another connection bears the same relationship to Lord Haig and to the late Captain Valetine Cowper, R. N., formerly British naval attache at Berlin.—Montreal Gazette.

OBITUARY

ROBERT HENRY TAMBLIN.

The death occurred at the family residence, 56 Victoria Avenue, last night of Robert Henry Tamblin, in his 67th year, after a lingering illness. The deceased had resided in this city for many years and was well known here and in Belmont Township, where he was born and raised. Besides his sorrowing wife, he leaves two sons, Richard F. of Toronto and Nelson H. of Flinton, Ontario. One son, Albert W., was killed in action. Three daughters survive Mrs. George Gray of this city, Mrs. George Strain of Smith Township, and Mrs. Agnes Clarke, city.

The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 from the family residence to the Little Lake Cemetery, Rev. James Rollins, of St. Andrew's Church, will conduct the service at the house at 2 o'clock.

BRIDGEBURG O.T.A. CASES BRING $900 TO TREASURY

BRIDGEBURG, May 14.—J. N. Day, one of the four men implicated in the recent check-up of Bridgeburg cellars by Inspector G. A. Putman of the Ontario License Department, which check-up brought out the information that much liquor that had been ordered is not now on hand, pleaded guilty in Judge House's Court here on Wednesday, and was fined $300 and costs for violation of the O.T.A. As a result of the investigation conducted by Inspector Putman, License Inspector Ferris, and others, the Police Court Treasury is $900 richer, and considerable whiskey has been seized. Other cases are pending.

TWO MEN IN SING SING GO TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

OSSINING, N.Y., May 14.—Richard Harrison and Chester Cantine were put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison last night. Cantine was the first to be executed. Harrison was brought to the chair two minutes after Cantine was pronounced dead.

SCHEDULE OF MINIMUM WAGES FOR EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENTS WHO WALKED OUT LAST FRIDAY—COUNCIL'S COMMITTEE MATERIALLY ASSISTED.

ARRANGED NEGOTIATIONS

The C. G. E. strike was settled this morning and the employees who have been out since last Friday will return to work on Monday.

The company has conceded a minimum schedule of 75c an hour for machinists, 60c for machine specialists, and 50c for handy men and 45c for labourers.

Throughout the city this afternoon there were general expressions of relief that this dispute had been amicably settled. The new rates are fixed for one year and if either party desires a change at any time within that period one month's notice must be given.

The settlement of the strike was expedited by the C. G. E. Company's acceding to the demand for a scale of minimum wages, but it was hastened by the efforts of two members of the special committee of the council which was appointed at the sugestion of Ald. Gordon with the object of mediating in local industrial disputes and of trying to restore harmony. Their assistance in this case is their biggest success. Mayor McIntyre and Ald. Gainey did not enter into the negotiations in the C. G. E. strike because they were out of the city when the first step was taken. The effort was chiefly made by Ald. Whitehouse and Hamilton, and it was generally stated that to Ald. Whitehouse a special measure of credit is due for the happy ending of the strike.

Among the departments to which the scale applies are the machine shop, punch press, transformer and armature assembly.

Other Proceedings.

In the meantime Mayor McIntyre has been acting as an intermediary between the Peterboro Lock Company and its metal polishers, and has also been meeting the hoisting engineers in regard to the demands of their members who are working on the Hunter street bridge. His Worship stated to-day that good progress has been made in each case. The engineers are continuing an arrangement which the Mayor said was acceptable to both the men and the city, and the other dispute he hopes will soon be settled.

Committee a Success.

It is generally recognized that Ald. Gordon's idea has proved more effectual than any members of the Council had hoped for. It was a voluntary offer of service to endeavor to bring both parties of the several strikes together and in the committee's ten days it has accomplished incalculable good to the public as a whole and to everybody directly concerned by arranging the negotiations which culminated this morning in a complete agreement. Mr. Harry Harper, the business representative of the machinists has given his entire attention to the conciliatory discussions and it is also recognized that the cooperation of the C.G.E. Co. was largely instrucental in achieving today's results.

NORTHUMBERLAND TOBACCO.

COBOURG, May 14.—S. J. Brown & Son, of Brighton, have proved that tobacco can be successfully grown in Northumberland County. They made their first shipment from Brighton last week of an experimental crop, which brought $500.00, and was grown on about one and a half acres.

MAN WHO SLEW LANDLORD IS ACQUITTED BY JURY.

(Canadian Press.)

SASKATOON, May 14.—Fourteen days after choking to death Harry D'Orguerre, his landlord, John Arthur was acquitted of murder by a jury at Kinderslev Criminal Court on Wednesday.

The jury tok 80 minutes to arrive at the conclusion—Arthur acted in self-defence when he got into a violent quarrel with his landlord, and, seizing him by the throat, choked his life out.

DIAMOND MEDAL FOR CADDIE WHO BEHAVES BEST AT WHITE MARSH.

NEW YORK, May 14.—A diamond medal is something that is usually associated with a big gold championship of some sort, but the White Marsh Valley Country Club has offered to give such a medal to the caddie whose conduct on the course is the most meritorious during the season.

Besides this, a gold medal will be given for second choice, and a silver medal for third place, while a cup will be presented to the winner of the caddie championship of the club.

This is going the United States Golf Association one better. The national body sent out a suggestion to its member clubs recently to the effect that a cash bonus at the end of the year might help toward caddie efficiency.

CENTRAL SCHOOL WON THE GAME

Central School Senior Team had an easy victory in the Public School Baseball League last evening when they defeated King Edward Seniors by 18 to 1. The Centrals were the better team all the way through, hitting hard and fielding sharply. Harold Delahaye, the Central's pitcher, not only pitched well, but also did some smart fielding, his grabbing of a line drive in the third being one of the features of the game. His teammates gave him splendid support.

Trussler started in the box for the King Edwards and while he did well fielded poorly. He gave way to Chas. Bradley in the fourth and the change brought some improvement. Fred McNeeley umpired the contest.

The batteries:

King Edward: Trussler, Bradley and King.

Central: Delahaye and Thornton.

Stern Repressive Measures Will Be Adopted In Ireland

NEW POLICY FOR IRELAND

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WILL MAKE AN EFFORT TO CHECK SINN FEINERS.

(United Press.)

LONDON May 15.—Interest in the Irish situation here to-day centred in reports of stern repressive measures planned by the government through its new officials for Irish affairs.

Latest estimates placed the number of police barracks burned since Wednesday at 100. More than 400 have been burned since Easter.

While details of the government's new measures to restore and preserve order were not made public, newspapers were unanimous in their belief that rigorous action might be expected. All divisions in Ireland will be brought up to full strength through heavy reinforcements, it was claimed. Cavalry already has been stationed in some parts of the island.

The press generally supported the reported plans for a sterner policy, declaring some method must be found to enforce respect of the laws.

Forty constables have been shot in the past seventeen months ,the Telegraph pointed out, asserting that "Britain's policy toward the militant Sinn Fein and murder societies should be ruthless application of the iron heel."

The Times supported the government's "determination," but believed its Irish policy during the last year was "indefensible."

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

MR. JOHN EDGAR PRESIDED—INSTRUCTIVE ADDRESSES.

Last evening in St. John's Church Sunday School Hall the local council of religious education held their first meeting at which all the Sunday schools of the city were represented as decided upon at the annual meeting last February. Fully two hundred teachers and officers of the different Sunday Schools in this city sat down to the bountiful supper which was held at 6.15 followed by the meeting which lasted from 7.30 to 9.30. Mr John Edgar one of the pioneers in this movement in Peterboro and superintendant of St. John's Sunday School presided.

In an interesting and helpful address he outlined the work of the council and the work they hoped to accomplish. Miss Florence Cameron taught a model Sunday School Class on the platform and this model lesson proved most valuable to the teachers. Mr. C. E. Sisson spoke on the organiation of the teachers training class for the whole city and it was moved and seconded that the superintendants of each Sunday school meet and form a committee with Mrs. H. R. H Kenner who has charge of this work.

Rev. F. E. Malott dwelt on the religious census it is proposed to take next fall and the need for this step. The one taken about 2 years ago had not been as satisfactory as was expected. Rev. Malott pointed out what they wanted to find out was not the church people went to but those that didn't end any. Mr. A. Mowat, president of the council, spoke on organization and emphasized that organized classes were all right but when there was not enough study and too much organization it was carried too far.

This is only the first of these get together meetings and the success of the first amply warranted more of the same calibre.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD HAD BUSY SESSION.

In Favour of Amended Prohibition Act, Condemn Profiteering and Urge Ministers to Study Social Welfare.

(Canadian Press.)

VICTORIA, B.C., May 15.—At the sessions of the Presbyterian Synod of British Columbia, just finished, resolutions were passed favoring the present amended prohibition act and declaring that government control would impede the advance toward prohibition condemning corporations and individuals who amass fortunes by forcing upward the cost of living urging ministers to study literature on social problems and publications such as the "Labor Gazette," "Social Welfare," and books suggested by V.C. Midgeley, secretary of the Trades and Labor Council of the One Big Union.

VANCOUVER CONTRACTS.

Two 8100 Ton Steamers will be Built There.

VANCOUVER, B.C., May 15. — Two more 8100 ton steel steamers are to be built in Vancouver, according to word from Ottawa department of Marine and Fisheries. The Coughan yards were awarded the contracts.

PRISONERS CANNOT HAVE PHOTOGRAPHS

KINGSTON, May 15.—There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among the prisoners at Portsmouth Penitentiary over an order recently issued. For years the prisoners have been allowed to have certain photographs hanging on the walls of their cells. The old rule was that they could have small pictures of mother, father, wife or other members of the family. Now all pictures are prohibited.

Strange Bequest

STRANGE WILL OF WILLIAM O'BRIEN OF ORILLIA, NOW IN COURT.

(Special to The Examiner.)

TORONTO, May 15.—"I bequeath my wife $500.00 until to-morrow," read the will of William O'Brien, of Orillia, Ont.

What Mr. O'Brien meant is not known, but here is what he says in his will:

"Orillia General Hospital,
"Orillia, Ont., May 19.

"I, William O'Brien, in right mind and of my own free will, to-day, the first of September, nineteen hundred and nineteen, hereby bequeath to my wife, Elizabeth, five hundred dollars until to-morrow, as witness my seal and signature.

"(Signed) Wm. O'Brien.
"Witness:
"(Signed) Eleanor J. Johnston.
"(Signed) J. Athol Murray"

Mr. O'Brien died on 6th November, 1919. On 26th November his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, was appointed the administratrix of his estate by the Surrogate Court of Simcoe.

He had in his possession $2,120, of which $1,914 was deposited in the Dominion Bank at Orillia and $205 invested in Victory Bonds. His widow has since disbursed $512.

The Survivors.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien never had any children. His parents are dead, and he is survived by five brothers, of whom Mrs. O'Brien only knew the address of one, Charles O'Brien, Benedicto's Camp, Hardwick Island, British Columbia. Charles O'Brien was appealed to in British Columbia, and he said that he did not know the addresses of any of his brothers, Morris, Robert, John, and Joseph. Morris' last known address was the Northern Hotel, Spokane, Washington, and the last time he had heard of Robert was at Tacoma, Washington.

Next Thursday, 20th May, John T. Mulcahy, barrister, Orillia, will move in the weekly Court at Osgoode Hall to declare Mrs. O'Brien beneficiary of her husband's estate.

It will be remembered that recently in the County of Simcoe a man bequeathed his office furnishings to his brother, on condition that his brother would shout each 24th of May from his verandah, "Hurrah for Laurier and Reciprocity."

A GOOD BILL FOR VICTORIA DAY AT EXHIBITION PARK

SPEEDING IN THE RING AND A LACROSSE MATCH—TWO BANDS.

A big day full of entertainment is promised at the Exhibition Grounds on May 24 when the holiday crowds will have the best program it is possible to give them. Arrangements are being made to handle the monster crowds which are expected from far and wide and the Exhibition Board has not spared itself any to secure the finest attractions.

Two races—a 2.25 and a colt race will provide an unsurpassed day's speeding in the ring and a good list of entries is assured.

The monster parade will leave the Armouries at 1.30 p.m. led by the two bands of the 57th and G.W.V.A., the Boy Scouts and Machine Gun Corps, 140 strong

A lacrosse game between two picked teams will be a feature of the programme and a football match between the grand old rivals, England and Scotland will provide plenty of excitement.

Excellent music by both bands will be furnished at the grounds.

THE WEATHER

There was frost again last night, 1 degree below the freezing point with me, and probably more in lower lying sections. As cold air is heavier than warm air it naturally settles in the valleys and lower lying sections, and if there is no wind stirring these low sections will usually register from 2 to 4 degrees lower than the higher points.—W.P.

COMING TO PETERBORO

SCOTCH LASSIES FROM THE HIGHLANDS LAND AT MONTREAL.

(Special to The Examiner.)

MONTREAL, May 15.—The rich burr of the Highlands of Scotland was strongly in evidence as the Sicilian docked here with 765 passengers—two-thirds of which will be on their way to-day for various parts of Ontario. Several are booked for Peterborough.

There was an unusual number of young girls—young, healthy Scots lassies from Banffshire and Fifeshire—who have pulled up stakes from their native land, and have come here to work—some in offices, a few in shops, and a number are on their way to positions in domestic service.

The Matron, in referring to the girls, said:

"We brought over on this trip a large number of the very best type of Scottish girls, level-headed girls, who are going to work and settle in Canada. We had a number of brides-to-be, coming out to the boys who were in the Canadian Army. Some of these girls are going to the farms in Ontario and the West, but a large number are going to reside in the small towns of Ontario and the West, where their prospective husbands are in positions or in business on a small scale for themselves.

"The men on the passenger list were all tradesmen, almost all of whom were going to positions in different parts of the Dominion, many of them being for the Province of Ontario."

LIQUIDATION IN THE MARKET

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE FINANCIAL SITUATION.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, Moy 15.—Sentiment in financial circles this week was frankly less cheerful, this feeling finding more direct expression in renewed, if moderate liquidation, further professional selling and neglible public interest. The railroad strike with its serious results to almost all lines of industry, additional credit restrictions and cumulative signs of slowing down of general business, emboldened an already short account to extend its aggressions. Standard rails and industrials suffered almost in equal measure with speculative issues, strengthening the impression prevalent in many quarters that a large proportion of the offerings was of an involuntary character. This same condition dominated the bond market, where practically all of the domestic war quotations in striking contrast to British issues of the same class, recorded new levels of discount. Lowest quotations were made by Liberty Bonds, following an announcement that new treasury certificates of indebtedness are to be on five and a half per cent. basis.

Local banking conditions, it was generally agreed are on a firm foundation, but the tenor of advices from western and southern reserve centres again reflected the rigid attitude of the Federal Reserve Board concerning non- essential credits. Little if any relaxation of money rates is anticipated before the expiration of the fiscal year.

By that time, however, it is believed that many underwritings, chiefly for account of railroad reconstruction, will have progressed to the point of successful completion.

LATEST NEWS DESPATCHES

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 15. — Dr. C. B. Corbett, son of Ottawa city treasurer, and hero of two hundred and fifty mile journey through Northern Quebec, after being accidentally wounded, was operated on yesterday at St. Luke's hospital for removal of shot pellets which remained in his hip. The operation was entirely successful and it was stated that all had been taken out. It is expected that the plucky physician will soon be entirely recovered.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

(Canadian Press.)

HELSINGFORS, May 15.—Finland is willing to begin peace negotiations with the Russian Bolshevik government and will soon propose time and place for holding a conference with this end in view according to notification sent M. Tchitcherin, Bolsheviki Foreign Minister, by M. Holstet, Finnish Minister of Foreign Affairs yesterday. This action is the result of deliberations of the Finish government on the recent offer of the Moscow government proposing peace conversations. The recent hitch in the armistice negotiation will be disregarded by Finland.

EXPLOSION INJURED BOBCAYGEON MAN

BOBCAYGEON, May 15.—While blasting at the dam on Saturday evening last, Jack Cameron narrowly escaped being killed. It seems they had run out of battery caps, and were using fuse. Cameron had lit a number and had just turned his back to light another when the last one he lit went off.

The explosion stunned him for a minute, and this probably saved his life, as it kept him close to the place, and the stones spread out over, letting him off without a scratch.

On Monday night the same thing occurred, but with more serious results. Cameron had just lit six and was going to light the seventh, when the sixth went off, the stones cutting him badly about the face.

A NEAR VICTIM OF "BLUEBEARD"

(Special to Examiner)

TORONTO, May 15.—A Toronto woman— a war widow whose husband was killed fighting the Hun at St. Julien, —was a near victim of "bluebeard", Watson the wife killer who is now serving a life sentence in Los Angeles for the murder of nine wives he had admitted slaying in different parts of Canada and the United states. She is Mrs. Norah Wallace, who, with her twelve year old daughter Grace, lives on Yorkville avenue

Mrs. Wallace married this twentieth century "Bluebeard" in Niagara Falls, N.Y., on August 11, last year. He said his name was Wm. Anderson and posed as a California millionaire horse buyer and boasted of his "wonderful farm and estate with his retinue of servants", in Hollywood, California. He deserted her eight days later in Toronto.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT ST. ANDREW'S

After worshipping for five weeks in the Conservatory of Music, St. Andrew's Congregation returns to their church, corner of Brock and Rubidge streets, to-morrow, for the 87th anniversary of the founding of the congregation and the 35th anniversary of the dedication of the present building.

During these weeks the church has been extensively renovated and all who have seen the interior have been greatly pleased. St. Andrew's church building is pure Gothic and the aim of the decorators has been to let the architecture speak. Stenciling has been eliminated and the result is very chaste, pleasing and restful. The work has been in charge of the Murray-Kay Co., of Toronto, who have employed Peterboro men extensively. The entrance floors have been laid by the Vermont Marble Works, Peterboro, with a result that is admirable.

It is regretted that the carpet which has been ordered for some time cannot be had before the autumn. When this has been laid St. Andrew's church with its splendid organ, will be very complete and satisfactory.

The services to-morrow will be conducted by Rev. D. N. Morden, Minister of St. James' Square Church, Toronto. Mr. Morden is one of the outstanding preachers of the Provincial Capital.

The choir under the direction of Mr. John Crane will render special music. Visitors and strangers will be cordially welcomed.

GAVE HER THE REAL ARTICLE.

Misapprehension cost him $2—Maybe it was worth it.

NEW YORK, May 15. — "I want a candy kiss." 18 year old Frances eckler told Joseph Woss, a candy store manager. Woss thought that the girl means a real kiss. Magistrate Nolan set the price at $2.

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED

DECREE ISSUED BY THE SOVIET EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

(Canadian Press.)

MOSCOW, May 15.—A decree issued by the Central Executive Committee dated May 11th., proclaims martial law in the provinces of central and northern Russia and Archangel. The Provincial Executive Committee have full power to protect the railways, military supplies, magazines and depots and to control telegraphic and telephonic communication. Twenty four hour work day in administrative offices is decreed and means are to be taken to stimulate production of war material. Until abolition of martial law, executive committees are given same power as military tribunals to secure carrying out of this progam, declaring punishment for disobedience.

The decree is signed by Lenine and Malinin. The inevitable interruption of the development of peace time industries through concentration upon effort to produce war material, it is pointed out here will tend indefinitely to postpone the execution of plans for the resumption of importations and exportations on a large scale.

BELMONT CLUB ANNUAL MEETING

MR. WALTER BELLEGHEM ELECTED PRESIDENT.

The twelfth annual meeting of the Belmont Club was held in the Empress Hotel last evening. A banquet at which 65 of the club members were present was held at 7 o'clock, following which Mr. F D. Kerr gave an interesting address on "Our City." Mr. Kerr pointed out Peterboro's growth during the past twenty-five years, comparing assessments, illustrating its development and comparing its buildings. He especially mentioned the parks, impressing his audience with the fact that Peterboro was a city second to none in Canada considering its size.

Mr. R. A. McKee, president of the club occupied the chair and a hearty vote of thanks was moved to Mr. Kerr.

The election of officers then took place, Mr. J. T. C. Lang, honorary vice-president, occupying the chair.

Following are the officers elected for the coming year:—

President—Walter T. Belleghem.
1st Vice President—William English.
2nd Vice-President — Harry Dulmage.
Secretary — Robert Langford.
Treasurer—Frank Jobbitt.
Executive Committee — C. M. Moncur, Stanley Lowes, Leon Fraser, Wilbert Regan, Jack McNab
Auditors—Frank Linton, Harry Carey.
Honorary President—Dr. A. W. McPherson.
Honorary vice-President—J. T. C. Lang.

PRESENTATION TO MR. EARL BARRIE

On Thursday night the class of Tuxis boys of George street Sunday School met and presented Mr Earl Barrie their teacher with a handsome pair of encased ebony brushies as a token of the appreciation of his work in the class. A suitable address was read by the boys and signed by the President Ted Outram, the Vice-President, M. Davidson, the Secretary, H. Baker, the treasurer, F. Ash.

Mr. Barrie is leaving to spend the summer in the west and the boys deeply regret his loss but hope to have him return in the fall and resume his duties.

WEEK'S BUSINESS AT LABOUR BUREAU

At the Government Employment Bureau during the past week there were 42 applications, 28 vacancies, and 31 were placed.

The farm labor situation is improving though the Bureau still has 17 vacancies for farm labourers.

Is Still Running

CARANAZA IS STILL HEADED FOR THE TALL TIMBERS.

(Canadian Press.)

VERA CRUZ, May 15.—President Carranza who with force of loyal troops has been resisting rebel attacks near San Maries, Puebla state for last five days has broken through rebel lines to southeast and accompanied by one thousand men has fled into the mountains according to advices received here this morning.

Trains and war material which could not be carried with them were destroyed. General Murula and Urquiso with some of Carranza troops are still fighting near San Marcos for the purpose of retarding the pursuit of the fleeing president.

Later Reports.

General Carranza and eight hundred men have surrendered to forces surrounding them in Mexican mountains, according to word received here to-day by way of Nogales. Information was given out by Manuel De Papena, self styled commercial attache in this city of new Liberal machine government. General Santiago also surrendered with Carranza according to De Lapena.

MOVIE ACTOR GETS DIVORCE

ERNEST SHIPMAN AND HIS WIFE MAKE MUTUAL ...SEMENT WHEN HARMONY CEASES TO EXIST.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15.—Ernest Shipman, of New York, well known in the motion picture world, stated last night that the announcement of his divorce from Nell Shipman, motion picture star and leading woman in "Back to God's Country," is correct. There is no scandal connected with the case on eith side. The time had come when their relationships ceased to be in harmony, and mutual separation was arranged, he said. Mrs. Shipman was a fine woman, and he wished her every success.

Mr. Shipman was formerly the husband of Rosella Knott, and lived for many years in Eastern Canada.

A. SWARTZ' FINE NEW STORE

SHOPPERS SURPRISED AT THE HIGH CLASS GOODS AND THE BETTER STORE SERVICE.

The numerous old patrons and friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. Swartzt, who carried on a successful business for over 12 years at 432 George street, and who recently retired from business for a short rest, are complimenting them in resuming business in their splendidly improved new store and stock at 422 George street.

An inspection of their new lines of goods will be interesting to all shoppers. There is much to be seen in Swartz's new store that is specially interesting to the ladies at this season of the year. If it's style that is wanted, there is lots of it on display in the two well-stocked floors. The winsome spring styles in ladies' and misses' and children's wear, as well as in the various staple lines, are of the better grades, and the money to be saved surprises buyers. Every purchase will help to keep down high prices.

PRODUCE MOTION PICTURES AT WINNIPEG.

BOARD OF TRADE ENDORSES THE PLAN.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15.—The Board of Trade of this city this afternoon endorsed the 100 per cent. making of motion pictures in Winnipeg, under the direction of Ernest Shipman, producer of "Back to God's Country."

Many of Ralph Connor's novels will be put on, made here, for the screen by companies to be brought from New York.

The Board of Trade members subscribed for $100,000.00 stock.

They are to be released by the First National Circuit. These include "The Foreigner" and "Black Rock." "The Man from Glengarry" will be made along the Ottawa River.

CONNECTION WITH O.B.U.

PRESIDENT OF THE DOMINION TRADES COUNCIL SPEAKS OUT.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, May 15.—Further evidence of the connection between the One Big Union and the Winnipeg Defence Committee was received at the Dominion Trades and Labour headquarters yesterday in the form of a photographic reproduction of an O. B. U. official membership receipt, signed by James Law, who is, and has been since its inception, the paid secretary of the Defence Committee.

Mr. Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labour Council, said that Mr. Law, while appealing for funds for the purposes of the Defence Committee, out of which he draws a salary, was evidently at the same time making an effort to secure members for the One Big Union.

The receipt is in favour of a carpenter, and this makes the case all the more remarkable in Mr. Moore's opinion, as the carpenters of the International movement sent over $17,000 to Winnipeg during and since the strike.

"Gratitude evidently has no place in the One Big Union," said Mr. Moore.

"ELUSIVE NICKY" HAS SURRENDERED

NICKY ARNSTEIN, LEADER IN FIVE MILLION DOLLAR BOND THEFT KEEPS HIS PROMISE AND MAKES EARLY CALL ON OFFICERS.

Special to Examiner.

NEW YORK, May 15. — Jules W. "Nicky" Arnstein, the "master mind" of New York's five million dollar bond theft plot, was arrested here to-day, in the District Attorney's office when he appeared there with his wife Fanny Brice, the actress.

Arnstein told the reporters that he had been in Pittsburg all the time the police have been looking for him.

The elusive "Nicky" for whom Canadian and American police, from Coast to Coast have been searching since last February in finally fulfilling his oft repeated promise to surrender himself appeared in the District Attorney's office bright and early.

Besides his wife he was accompanied by William J. Fallon, his lawyer. They seated themselves and patiently waited for the attaches of the office to show up for the day's work.

Five minutes after their arrival Detective Edward Rayens, attached to the office, walked up to Arnstein and by order of Assistant District Attorney Rorke, placed him under arrest.

BLINDNESS IS PREVENTABLE.

Many of the blind would now be enjoying the blessings of vision had proper measures been taken early enough. The same is true of failing sight. Worn in time, Glasses not only improve vision, but prevent complications that require complicated lenses. See W. H. Lacey, Optical Specialist, 410 George Street.

No Worry—No Trouble—No Waste

When pressed for time—when you must wait for your oven—when you cannot get the right temperature—these are the causes of your troubles on bake days when you use the wrong kind of baking powder.

To have enjoyable results of a day's baking, to have no worry or wasted cakes and pastry despite adverse contions, you must first be careful about the baking powder you select.

Use

EGG-O Baking Powder

It does its work absolutely. Its double action makes it a never failing leavener, notwithstanding having to wait on your oven.

Always follow the directions—one level teaspoonful to one level cup of well sifted flour. By doing so, you use a quarter to a half less EGG-O, and get better results.

WOULD PARK CARS ON SIMCOE STREET

ALD. GORDON SUGGESTS METHOD EMPLOYED IN OTHER CITIES.

A recommendation that automobiles be permitted to park in a single file on Simcoe street between George and Alymer streets was sent on to the Council by the Legal Committee last night.

Ald. Gordon, who introduced it, contended that some accomodation should be provided in the centre of the city, especially on Saturday mornings when the market square is not available. Other cities had adopted the new method of designating certain streets for parking cars. By so doing they cleared the curbs of busier streets, which in Peterboro are now lined with automobiles which block the approaches from the street to many stores that find this practise a nuisance and an obstruction to business.

If the Council would agree to use Simcoe street, Ald. Gordon believed that no inconvenience would be caused to any merchant. Traffic would have plenty of room to pass on either side, and where necessary gaps could be left in the line of cars permitting entrance to all lanes.

Can Hold Up Parade.

"Is there no way we can cut out this joy-riding up and down George street," Ald. Crowe enquired. "That's a downright nuisance the way a lot of automobiles drive up and down the pavement, passing repeatedly."

"Extend the paved area is about the only solution," Ald. Turner replied.

"Couldn't the police order such people off the main streets after he has got tired seeing them pass him," Ald. Crowe persisted.

"As soon as he would hold them up they would tell him they were going somewhere that trip" Ald. Gordon said, "and what could you do in that case?"

"You can't do anything," remarked Ald. Turner.

"It's the same on Yonge street in Toronto and in other cities" said Ald. Gordon and the discussion ended at that.

A DIMINUTIVE GRAND PIANO

In our own Canada, and in many other parts of the world: Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, South America, South Africa and now France—the art pianos of Ye Olde Firme of Heintzman & Co., Limited, take a first place. The Diminutive Grand is a very popular style, both at home and abroad, adapted to many homes where the parlor is only of moderate size. Our readers are invited to inspect this piano at the firm's warerooms, George and Hunter streets, Peterboro.

A SPRING EVENING.

Calm, and the sunlight glimmering o'er the lea;
Cold, yet a balmy mildness soothes the chill;
Silence, save ripplings of some murmurous rill,
Or the clear call of the wild birds' mated glee
In notes that chime with Cupid's melody.
And now the lights go dancing down the hill,
And kiss the flowers to rest as all grows still.
Starred Celandine and meek Anemone.
Rest, silence, cold, and calm; where but of late
Were work, and noise, and warmth, and stirrings gay;
So ends life's task; and hopes, quenched in the dew
Of fading twilight, sink to the lapsed state!
Ah no! for after rest another day
When all shall wake again and sing anew.

Voice Of The People

Peterboro, May 14, 1920.

To the Editor,
The Examiner, City.

Dear Sir,—

Will you kindly allow me to use some of your valuable space to enter a strong protest against the proposed transfer of King Edward Park to the Housing Commission for subdivision into building lots?

I would like to ask why it is necesary to use King Edward Park for this purpose in face of the fact that there are more vacant lots in close proximity to the Park than the Park would provide?

Take Lansdowne street from Park street to Maude street, which is not half built on; and take Prince street, both sides from Park street to George street, provided with sidewalks, water and sewer at great expense and not half built up; and take the Overend property on Princess street, which is mostly vacant land, and there is enough vacant land on these streets to provide double the space that the Park would, to say nothing of all the vacant land on the west side of Park street and both sides of Romaine street, west of Park street.

Have some of the members of the City Council lost sight of the fact that it would cost thousands of dollars to open up a new street through the Park in building new sidewalks, lighting system and building a sewer in the quicksand which underlies all that part of the city? Have they lost sight of the fact that it will be necessary, before long, to dig up the sewer on Romaine street from George street to Alymer street and relay it owing to trouble with quicksand?

King Edward Park, as such, is not much to blow about. It has a band stand and some young trees planted out, which, with care wil grow into beautiful trees. The tendency in cities is to secure parks for the use of the people and to make the city beautiful. What has our Board of Trade to say about taking our south-end Park for building lots, and what about the Board of Health? Surely they would not stand for this outrage against the health of the community.

The south half of King Edward Park was plowed up some years ago and left in that condition and not even harowed or rolled and the grass has grown up through the sods and in consequence it does not look so bad from a distance. In the years to come when all the present vacant land is built on it will be too late to secure land for a Park and now that we have one provided through the forethought of a former Council let us do all that we can to hold it, and no doubt there will be plenty of voices raised in protest against doing away with King Edward Park.

Yours truly,
PROPERTY OWNE...

Dear Mr. Editor: Allow me space in this valuable paper of yours to introduce the "Great Reform at Queen Alexadra School.

The teachers were greatly amazed at the pupils who came to school in old trousers, coats, overalls and hats, such as soft Fedoras and dinged Christies. The pupils resolved to wear out abandoned clothes and thus reduce the H. C. of L.

In the afternoon a great turn out was seen, all wearing old cast-offs.

The resolution is as follows:

1. Resolved, to go without hair cuts until the prices come down.
2. To accumulate and wear out cast-offs.
3. To keep them as long as possible.
4. Not to buy high class or fancy clothing until the prices come down.
5. To swear off wearing evening dress suits.

The Queen Alexandra School has been the first in this anti-high-price clothing campaign and cordially invite all the other schools to join in it. Yours sincerely. Q.A.S.

RALPH D. PAINE

Ralph D. Paine has established a record for sea-stories. He has written twenty-eight books in which ships and sailors figure. From his youth he has delighted to follow the sea. He declares that he came close to being designed a pirate, for when, some twenty years ago, he shipped to Cuba with Captain "Dynamite" Johnny O'Brien, on a filibustering expedition, he was cited in piracy proceedings brought by the United States Government. In 1898, he was still championing the oppressed Cubans. In the Spanish-American War he served as correspondent with the United States Navy, and later wrote of the naval battles in "The Fighting Fleets." Mr. Paine's latest record of sea adventure is "The Old Merchant Marine," one of "The Chronicles of America." His historical narrative is said to move with the same delightful nautical swing as do all his sea tales.

Mountain Grown Orange Pekoes are Best

Orange Pekoe Teas are plucked from every tea bush.

So there are poor Orange Pekoes and those of fine quality. Low price and high price.

The best Orange Pekoes are plucked from tea bushes grown from selected seed in the carefully cultivated soil of mountain side gardens, and gathered at a certain time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

Naturally these command the highest price.

They are worth it, as you will agree when you taste their exquisite flavor in our Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---the new and higher priced tea for those who are willing to pay a little extra price for a tea of extra quality.

There are numerous packages of Orange Pekoe teas on the market. See that the one you buy has the name---Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---on our waxed board carton.

POINTS TO REMEMBER.

The two most important things to remember about filing Dominion income tax returns may be stated again for the benefit of those who are still in doubt.

In the first place, if you receive a notice to report on your income, don't fail to do so. You will save yourself a fine of $600.00, and costs, by complying with this simple request. No matter what your income is, if a notice is sent to you by the authorities, you are required to report.

In the second place, if you are single and your income from all sources is $1,000.00 or more, or married and your income is $2,000 or more, you must make a return, whether or not you get a notice.

In other words, everybody who is liable to the income tax must file a report, and, everybody, whether liable or not, must also register the particulars as to income, if the authorities request him to do so.

DANGEROUS GROUND.

The Ontario Legislature is treading upon dangerous ground when it undertakes to defy the plainly expressed wishes of the people, as it has done in the case of three by-laws involving expenditure on civic work in the city of London. These measures, which provided for the building of a new bridge, the construction of storm sewers, and other municipal work, were submitted to the ratepayers of London at the municipal election, and were voted down by the people. The City Council thereupon applied to the Legislature for power to go ahead with this work, regardless of the result of the by-laws, and the Provincial body has granted the request and approved the expenditures.

The course followed in this case hardly lines up to the claim that the present Legislature is a democratic one, for the will of the people of London has apparently been ignored. The matter is one that only affects the citizens of that city, the interests of the Province not being involved, and yet the Legislature has decided to interfere to the extent of ruling the results of the voting upon these measures out of court, and authorising projects to be undertaken that have been rejected by the people who are alone concerned in the matter.

AN UNPOPULAR STRIKE.

The threatened strike of the employees of the Toronto Street Railway, is attracting attention throughout the Province, chiefly because it presents the unusual occurrence of a dispute in which neither side has much public sympathy behind it. The people, as a whole, have nothing but censure for the attempt of the Street Railway Company to "pass the buck" to the public by endeavouring to secure the consent of the Ontario Government to an increase in the fares to meet the demand of the employees. At the same time, there is a general feeling that in asking for a scale of 85c an hour the men are unreasonable.

Only by a very elastic interpretation of the description could they be said to be skilled workers; yet they are asking for the same wages as carpenters and other mechanics who have to spend years in learning their trade.

It is claimed that any man of ordinary intelligence can learn the duties of a motorman or a conductor in a couple of weeks, and in view of that fact, the demand of the Street Railway workers seems to be exorbitant. The situation in Toronto, too, is complicated by the fact that next year the system is to be taken over by the city so that the public stands to lose, no matter what development takes place. If the strike occurs, they will suffer the inconvenience of having no car service. If the rates are raised to meet the demands of the men, the people will not only have to pay larger fares now, but the increased cost of operating the system will have to be borne by the public when the city takes possession.

STUDENTS AND LATE HOURS.

The principal of the St. Catharine's Collegiate Institute has made public a statement preparing the parents of pupils for many expected failures at the coming examinations and declaring that the blame for such failures will have to be assumed by the pupils themselves or by their parents. Principal Coombs' statement charges that there have been so many late parties, dances, entertainments and other attractions engaging the attenion of the students that they have come to school day after day so exhausted that they were in no condition to make progress in their studies. There is no reason to believe that the situation in this respect is any worse than in any other city. Undoubtedly children of school age are being allowed much greater liberty in regard to evening entertainments than was the case a few years ago and it is not surprising to find the school authorities forced to make a public protest against the practice. The dancing craze is responsible for a great deal of the trouble, and it has been noticeable that the attendance of young people of both sexes in their middle 'teens has been steadily increasing. It is an indisputable fact that they cannot be one hundred per cent. fit for either school or work following the late hours and exhaustive exercise of such social functions. In some quarters there has been an agitation for the abolishing of home work, but if such action will only serve to give the students more freedom to join in the social wheel, the wisdom of its adoption is questionable. Principal Coombs of St. Catharines, is evidently a man who has the courage of his convictions, and the frankness of his statement may produce beneficial results.

THE RAYBESTOS BY-LAW.

On Wednesday next, May 19th, the ratepayers of Peterborough will have an opportunity of securing another promising industry for the city when the by-law to assist the Canadian Raybestos Company will be voted upon. The Raybestos Company is a purely Canadian company, incorporated under a charter of the Dominion government, and will manufacture moulded clutch facings, asbestos sheet packing, millboard, brake linings and other asbestos products. This is a business that promises to steadily grow and extend as motor cars increase in number, and electrical insulation becomes more and more in demand. The Canadian General Electric Company of Peterborough, for instances, uses a large amount of asbestos yarn for insulating purposes, and the market for such products is steadily growing. The American Raybestos Company, which has been in existence for a little over ten years, shows assets of three and one half millions, which gives an idea of the bright prospects before the concern which proposes to locate in Peterborough.

The Canadian company has agreed to purchase the plant of the Lundy Shovel and Tool Company and will use a portion of Stewart street and the lot to the west of it for the erection of two new buildings which it is proposed to construct. It is estimated that the company will spend $25,000 in repairs to the Lundy building, the alterations including a sprinkler system, new floors and a modern heating system. The company agrees to expend in the purchase of the lands required, the reconstruction of the Lundy building and for machinery the sum of at least $50,000, and to employ no fewer than twenty-five employees for fifteen months, commencing not later than three months after the passing of the by-law, and at the expiration of that period, to give employment to at least seventy-five employees. In return the city is asked to give the company a fixed assessment at $10,000 for a period of ten years and to convey to the company in fee simple the land required by the Raybestos concern.

It is the intention of the company to make the Peterborough plant the exporting factory for the English and European trade and it will be the only plant the Raybestos company, which uses over half the asbestos mined in Canada, will have. A very satisfactory feature about the company is that nearly all the employees require a certain amount of training which enables them to earn good wages when they have learned their trade.

The industry is one of the most promising that Peterborough has had a chance to secure and the city is getting it upon splendid terms. There should be a heavy vote in favour of the measure on Wednesday. It is thoroughly in the interests of Peterborough that the by-law should be carried.

MONTREAL'S RECORD WORST IN AMERICA

Infant Mortality Heavy and Effort is Made to Save Babies.

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL, May 15.— On Sunday, May 16, will commence Baby Welfare Week in Montreal. In the past this has been found to be one of the most successful methods of calling the public's attention to the conditions against which babies have to contend. The Baby Welfare Committee state that out of every hundred babies born in this city, nineteen die during their first year of existence as compared with eight in Toronto and New York. This makes the infant mortality in Montreal greater than in any other city on the continent. The causes for this high death rate are lack of care and advice for the majority of expectant Montreal mothers; inadequate treatment by careless physicians; neglect of the mother or disease of the parents, acting on the child before its birth.

THE WORKER AND HIS RIGHT TO FOOD

This subject, announced in another column for the evening service at Murray Street Church, reminds us of a remark made a few days ago by a large employer of men. He said: "I am puzzled to know how some men provide food and shelter for their families from the contents of their pay envelopes, to say nothing of clothes. There is, however, only one alternation as far as we are concerned and that is to close our factory."

The subject is timely and is certainly in keeping with the gospel of Christ and its discussion will be heard with interest.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

IRMA BARTON IS MARRIED.

CHAPTER CXXIII

Barrett Edmonds called a few days after I had received Rose's letter. I told him something of what she said—because he had spoken of knowing of gossip about Walter—and he said:

"I am not surprised. In fact I am only astonished that she had stood it so long It is common talk that he neglects and abuses her."

"She says she still loves him."

"That is what I can't understand. She isn't the only woman in Walter Kemp's life who 'still loves him.' The fellow seems to have a sort of fascination for women which men cannot explain or understand. He is a male vampire."

"Yet she says he is well liked by business men in Chicago, and I know he was here. Everett didn't like him, didn't want me to receive him, yet he spoke highly of Walter's business ability and business principles."

"The man is a Jekyl and Hyde. I am very sorry for your friend. But if she can go home and be contented I should think she would be glad to be rid of him."

Irma Barton was to be married. We had received invitations, and I was to have a lovely new gown for the wedding I begged for a pale yellow, a love of a gown, but Everett would not allow me to have it. Another blue dress, lighter than a sapphire, was his choice. It was really lovely, and I had to be content.

We sent Mrs. Barton an exquisite lamp which cost a fabulous amount. But Everett laughingly said:

"We shan't have a chance to send her another wedding present and we'll do it up brown."

"How do you know you won't He may die, and she get maried again. It was in my mind that she wasn't as old as Everett was when he married me.

"Then we will send her the mate to it," he retorted, flushing a little I was sure he had read what was in my mind.

I had a wondeful time at the wedding. Barrett Edmonds was there, and Alice Sloane and her husband, besides several other young people. We danced after the bride and groom left on their honey-moon trip, and I enjoyed myself hugely. The only drawback was that horrid fat Mr Leveridge who seemed always to do something to annoy me.

I had to dance with him, as usual because of his business affiliation with Everett. And as usual he stepped on my toes, and almost ruined my new silver slippers. I didn't mind that so much as I did what he said. Everett could afford to buy one more slippers, especially as they were spoiled because I was being nice to a business associate of his. But while we were dancing he had remarked in that oily voice which I loathed:

"I suppose your husband is happy now,"

"I hope he is," I replied.

"I hear that boy is a fine youngster. He always wanted a son."

"Most men do, don't they?" I asked as innocently as I could.

"Perhaps," then he added coarsely: "but some of us don't have the chance to marry a young woman to give us one."

I was furious. If it had not been for Everett's repeated warnings that I must not get angry at Mr. Leveridge, that he was a rough diamond, etc., I should have told him never to speak to me again. As it was I pleaded that I was tired and cut the dance short. On the way home I told Everett:

"That odious Mr. Leveridge told me again to-night that you only married me so you might have a son and was disgustingly coarse and common."

"As long as we both know better why should we let what anyone says make us unhappy?" he returned laying his hand on mine.

To-morrow—Alice Sloane Visits Sandra.

WHIRL OF EXCITEMENT WON'T PASS EXAMINATIONS

(Canadian Press.)

ST. CATHERINES, May 15.—In a public manifesto issued here which declares that the past winter has been one of a continuous whirl of excitement for the young people, Principal Coombs of the Collegiate Institute prepares the parents of pupils for many expected failures at the forthcoming examinations, and declares that the blame must be borne by the pupils or parents. He claims that, as a result of a surfeit of late parties, dances, entertainments and picture shows, many pupils have gone to school fagged day after day, and only yesterday afternoon more than sixty were absent because of a matinee.

Letters full of Praise— A Wonderful Record of Healing

GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

Gin Pills, the greatest help in overcoming Kidney Troubles, have relieved so many thousands of people throughout Canada, that the verbal praise, from mouth to mouth, is not enough to satisfy those who have suffered and been made well by Gin Pills. They write continually to us, and here are some extracts from the letters which have reached us recently:—

Sid Castleman, a prospector in the Larder Lake District, wrote thus:—
"I am writing to thank you and to tell you the good your Gin Pills did for me. I had been suffering for some time with my kidneys and urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty, some days as many as thirty times, and each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night. I began to feel quite worn out. I sent my chum out to get Gin Pills (about 60 miles) for me, and in less than six hours I felt relief. In two days the pain had left me altogether. I took about half a box, and to-day feel as well as ever I did, and my kidneys are acting quite naturally."

Mrs. E. Dean, Whiting, Ind., had this to say: "When I sent for the last box of Gin Pills, I was all crippled up with rheumatism and my face was so badly swollen that I could hardly see out of my eyes. After taking six of the pills, I felt better. After a few days I had no more pain."

"I beg you to publish my letter," writes Isidore Thomas, of Tilley's Road, N.B., "so that people may know what Gin Pills did for me Everybody expected my death. I tried Gin Pills and in a short time was well again, and soon had gained 20 pounds."

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Mrs. B. Walters, Savona, B.C., says: "I have been troubled for years with weak kidneys. One box of Gin Pills cured me. I recommend them as an absolute and reliable cure."

"I suffered untold misery," writes Lewis MacPherson, from Halifax, N.S. "My trouble was inflammation of kidneys and bladder. I finally determined to go to the hospital for treatment. Two days before my intended departure, a neighbour called and happened to have some Gin Pills with him and insisted on my taking them. Six hours after the first dose the effects were simply miraculous. Instead of going to the hospital I sent for a box of Gin Pills, with the result that I am a well man. I recommend Gin Pills to everyone suffering from Kidney trouble."

If you have pains in the back or sides, constant headaches, stiff and swollen joints, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, dizziness, constipation or stone in the bladder, take no chances. Get Gin Pills at once. They may save you from a critical operation.

Give Him a Chance and He Would Poison the Coffee.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Paul Koenig, who said he once cooked breakfast in Hanover, Germany, for the former Emperor William, said on the witness stand here that were the experience to be repeated now he would "put poison in his coffee."

Koenig was being examined as a veniremen in the trial of William Bross Lloyd wealth Communist, and twenty-three others charged with attempting to overthrow the Government by force.

When Koenig told of his exeprience in Hanover several years ago he was asked by one of the attorneys:

"How would you like to prepare a meal for the ex-Kaiser now."

"I would enjoy the experience very much," Koenig answered, "but I think the ex-Kaiser would not appreciate the meal, beacuse I'd put poison in his coffee."

Koenig was excused by both sides.

NEW CANADIAN CENT ISSUED ON MAY 15

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 15.—Authority has been given for the issue of the new Canadian cent on and after May 15. The coin will not, however, actually be in circulation till towards the end of the month.

The cent will be slightly larger than the Canadian ten-cent piece, or three-quarters of an inch in diameter. It will bear thet following design:

Obverse impression: His Majesty's crowned effigy, consisting of head and bust, wearing the Royal robes, and looking to left, with the inscription, "George V., Dei Gra.; Rex et Ind. Imp."

Reverse impresion: The words "One Cent," supported by a maple leaf on each side, and bearing the word "Canada" above and the date of the issue below.

Murmuring the self-same secret to the strand,
And in like mystic cadences employed
As when, Creation's dawn, the dominant land
Drew back in pride, your cold touch to avoid—
Throbbing and seething, tossing salty spray,
In playful brusqueness grinding stone on stone,
Your depths reflect the heavens' own blue to-day—
For lashing storms your brief calm would atone.

In giant strength you bear what gliding craft,
Faring toward port or to th' horizon's rim.
Breathing so gently, some sailed hull you waft,
Where eyes, turned shoreward, watch old sights grow dim!
Around the ledge on which the lighthouse stands
You eddy lovingly, soft-fringed in white,
A willing servant, waiting the commands
Of those taught well the treachery of your might!

Sweet as the censer's perfume is your breath
To one, a truant from the dull, walled town,
Its sordid misery, disease and death
Its spurred, tense crowds, still hurrying up and down—

By JANE PHELPS

IRMA BARTON IS MARRIED.

CHAPTER CXXIII

Barrett Edmonds called a few days after I had received Rose's letter. I told him something of what she said—because he had spoken of knowing of gossip about Walter—and he said:

"I am not surprised. In fact I am only astonished that she had stood it so long It is common talk that he neglects and abuses her."

"She says she still loves him."

"That is what I can't understand. She isn't the only woman in Walter Kemp's life who 'still loves him.' The fellow seems to have a sort of fascination for women which men cannot explain or understand. He is a male vampire."

"Yet she says he is well liked by business men in Chicago, and I know he was here. Everett didn't like him, didn't want me to receive him, yet he spoke highly of Walter's business ability and business principles."

"The man is a Jekyl and Hyde. I am very sorry for your friend. But if she can go home and be contented I should think she would be glad to be rid of him."

Irma Barton was to be married. We had received invitations, and I was to have a lovely new gown for the wedding I begged for a pale yellow, a love of a gown, but Everett would not allow me to have it. Another blue dress, lighter than a sapphire, was his choice. It was really lovely, and I had to be content.

We sent Mrs. Barton an exquisite lamp which cost a fabulous amount. But Everett laughingly said:

"We shan't have a chance to send her another wedding present and we'll do it up brown."

"How do you know you won't He may die, and she get married again. It was in my mind that she wasn't as old as Everett was when he married me.

"Then we will send her the mate to it," he retorted, flushing a little I was sure he had read what was in my mind.

I had a wonderful time at the wedding. Barrett Edmonds was there, and Alice Sloane and her husband, besides several other young people. We danced after the bride and groom left on their honey-moon trip, and I enjoyed myself hugely. The only drawback was that horrid fat Mr Leveridge who seemed always to do something to annoy me.

I had to dance with him, as usual because of his business affiliation with Everett. And as usual he stepped on my toes, and almost ruined my new silver slippers. I didn't mind that so much as I did what he said. Everett could afford to buy one more slippers, especially as they were spoiled because I was being nice to a business associate of his. But while we were dancing he had remarked in that oily voice which I loathed:

"I suppose your husband is happy now,"

"I hope he is," I replied.

"I hear that boy is a fine youngster. He always wanted a son."

"Most men do, don't they?" I asked as innocently as I could.

"Perhaps," then he added coarsely: "but some of us don't have the chance to marry a young woman to give us one."

I was furious. If it had not been for Everett's repeated warnings that I must not get angry at Mr. Leveridge, that he was a rough diamond, etc., I should have told him never to speak to me again. As it was I pleaded that I was tired and cut the dance short. On the way home I told Everett:

"That odious Mr. Leveridge told me again to-night that you only married me so you might have a son and was disgustingly coarse and common."

"As long as we both know better why should we let what anyone says make us unhappy?" he returned laying his hand on mine.

WHIRL OF EXCITEMENT WON'T PASS EXAMINATIONS

(Canadian Press.)

ST. CATHERINES, May 15.—In a public manifesto issued here which declares that the past winter has been one of a continuous whirl of excitement for the young people, Principal Coombs of the Collegiate Institute prepares the parents of pupils for many expected failures at the forthcoming examinations, and declares that the blame must be borne by the pupils or parents. He claims that, as a result of a surfeit of late parties, dances, entertainments and picture shows, many pupils have gone to school fagged day after day, and only yesterday afternoon more than sixty were absent because of a matinee.

GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS

Gin Pills, the greatest help in overcoming Kidney Troubles, have relieved so many thousands of people throughout Canada, that the verbal praise, from mouth to mouth, is not enough to satisfy those who have suffered and been made well by Gin Pills. They write continually to us, and here are some extracts from the letters which have reached us recently:—

Sid Castleman, a prospector in the Larder Lake District, wrote thus:—"I am writing to thank you and to tell you the good your Gin Pills did for me. I had been suffering for some time with my kidneys and urine. I was constantly passing water, which was very scanty, some days as many as thirty times, and each time the pain was something awful, and no rest at night. I began to feel quite worn out. I sent my chum out to get Gin Pills (about 60 miles) for me, and in less than six hours I felt relief. In two days the pain had left me altogether. I took about half a box, and to-day feel as well as ever I did, and my kidneys are acting quite naturally."

Mrs. B. Dean, Whiting, Ind., had this to say: "When I sent for the last box of Gin Pills, I was all crippled up with rheumatism and my face was so badly swollen that I could hardly see out of my eyes. After taking six of the pills, I felt better. After a few days I had no more pain."

"I beg you to publish my letter," writes Isidore Thomas, of Tilley's Road, N.B., "so that people may know what Gin Pills did for me Everybody expected my death. I tried Gin Pills and in a short time was well again, and soon had gained 20 pounds."

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

Mrs. B. Walters, Savona, B.C., says: "I have been troubled for years with weak kidneys. One box of Gin Pills cured me. I recommend them as an absolute and reliable cure."

"I suffered untold misery," writes Lewis MacPherson, from Halifax, N.S. "My trouble was inflammation of kidneys and bladder. I finally determined to go to the hospital for treatment. Two days before my intended departure, a neighbour called and happened to have some Gin Pills with him and insisted on my taking them. Six hours after the first dose the effects were simply miraculous. Instead of going to the hospital I sent for a box of Gin Pills, with the result that I am a well man. I recommend Gin Pills to everyone suffering from Kidney trouble."

If you have pains in the back or sides, constant headaches, stiff and swollen joints, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, dizziness, constipation or stone in the bladder, take no chances. Get Gin Pills at once. They may save you from a critical operation.

Your Druggist or Dealer sells them, 50c. a box, under money-back guarantee.

WHY PALE RUN-DOWN THIN WOMEN NEED VINOL

It Enriches the Blood and Creates Strength

Recommended By Physicians and Guaranteed By Druggists

If you are not feeling up to the mark, are run-down, overworked, feel listless and as though you could hardly drag around, do not hesitate to go to your druggist and get a bottle of VINOL, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic without oil, combined with beef peptones and hypophosphites.

In a natural manner it creates a hearty appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, and strengthens and energizes the entire system.

There are thousands of women in Canada, once pale, thin, run-down and sickly, who are now strong, well and healthy owing to VINOL.

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, for thin, puny children, feeble old people, overworked men and women, we guarantee VINOL will build up health, strength and energy more quickly than anything else.

It is sold on a Guarantee by all Druggists.

He Now Works Just Like a Young Man

WINNIPEG MAN PRAISES DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

For Ten Years Was so Weak it Was Impossible for Him to Walk—He Tells of the Benefit He Got from Dodd's Kidney Pills.

....Winnipeg, Man., May 14. (Special) —"I advise everybody who suffers from backache to use Dodd's Kidney Pills." So states Mr. Adam Duciewicz, who resides at 183½ Maple street, this city.

Asked to give the reason why he gave this advice, Mr. Duciewicz said: "Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a great benefit. I even wonder myself how this medicine helped me. For ten years I was so weak it was impossible for me to walk. When I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills I felt I was getting young and strong again.

'I am now 52 years old and I work just as if I were a young man."

It is very noticeable that people who have used Dodd's Kidney Pills are enthusiastic in recommending them to others. That is how Dodd's Kidney Pills have made and maintained their reputation. Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. If you have not used them yourself, ask your neighbors about them.

MUSLIN COMES FROM MOSUL

More cases have been reported to the profiteering tribunals in connection with articles of clothing of various kinds than with anything else.

Few people realize that the names of the materials from which clothes are made come from nearly all parts of the world, showing how many different nations it required at one time to provide the clothes one now wears.

Cambric for example, is named after the famous city of Cambrai, in France, made doubly famous since 1914. Muslin, on the other hand, is named from Mosul, right away on the banks of the Tigris in Asia, while calico comes from Calicut, a town in India which was once celebrated for its cotton cloth.

Damask, as most people know, takes its name from Damascus in Syria, while silk and serge are both derived from the same Latin word seres, meaning the Chinese. It was from northern China that these two fabrics first came to Europe. Velvet is also a Latin word meaning fleece, while alpaca comes from an animal of the same name which lives in Peru, in South America.

LYCEUM CONCERT WAS REPEATED

The delightful programme of last Monday was again presented in St. Alphonsus' Lyceum last evening, and those who were fortunate enough to be present enjoyed one of the prettiest musical sketches ever presented in the city. The entire presentation by local talent was the embodiment of grace and refinement, and reflected great credit upon the organizer, Miss McCabe.

The minuet was an especially pleasing number, its success being due to the artistic skill of Mrs. A. A. Perrin.

The comedians were decidedly entertaining.

The musical comedy sketch was well presented. Mrs. Perrin's portrayal of the Gypsy called for repeated encores.

Mr. Huycke's splendid singing of the "Floral Dance" received a great ovation.

Miss Davidson was heard to splendid advantage in several numbers. This young elocutionist's skill and personality quite captivated the audience.

The organization is deeply grateful to those who helped make the entertainment such a pleasant one as well as contributing to such a splendid cause, that of providing a bit of cheer for the old folks of the House of Providence.

WANT DEFINITE ASSURANCES OF COMPLETION OF HUDSON BAY RAILWAY BEFORE APPROVAL OF ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAYS PROJECT.

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15.—That the city of Winnipeg will oppose the St. Lawrence Waterways project unless definite assurance is given that the Hudson Bay Railway will be completed soon, was indicated to-day by Mayor Gray. The project is designed to turn the Great Lakes into islands, Mediterranean and open additional, 500 miles in Canada and United States to ocean going vessels Absolute assurance, said Mayor Gray, that the railway will be completed soon should be given before it is asked to approve the construction of the ocean route.

To Flake Off An Old or Soiled Complexion

A woman need never cease to have a young-looking complexion if she will adopt the simple mercolized wax habit. The wax actually takes off the old complexion, with all its imperfection, and the newer and livelier skin, which then appears, bears that rare beauty and irresistible loveliness that only a youthful skin can possess. The skin is indeed youthful, in reality as well as in appearance. The natural process of tissue-change, which slows up with the passing of the years, and in most conditions of ill-health, is hastened along by this mercolized wax treatment. Faded, muddy, freckled or blotchy skin is flaked off in powder-like particles, a little each day, causing no inconvenience.

Mercolized wax, now procurable at any drug store in this country, is the only known product that accomplishes such results. It is applied at night like cold cream, and washed off in the morning.

SEAFORTH GIRL GETS $6.000 BY WILL OF DETROITER

DETROIT, May 15.—Mis Effie McLeod, of Seaforth, Ont., is named as a beneficiary to the extent of $6,000 in the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Waterman, which was filed for probate here to-day. The will was drawn February 22, 1917. Cameron D. Waterman, husband of the testatrix, is made executor of the will and also trustee of the bequest to Miss McLeod, who is to receive the income each month from such securities, to the amount stated, as Mr. Waterman may deem advisable.

CANADIAN MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION CONVENTION

Will be the Biggest Affair of its Kind in Western Canada. About 500 Delegates Expected.

(Canadian Press.)

VANCOUVER, May 15.—When the Canadian Manufacturers' Association convention opens here on June 7, official welcomes to the delegates will be voiced by Premier Oliver on behalf of the province and Mayor Gale on behalf of the city. The provincial branch of the association with the assistance of other organizations, is making every effort to present in the fullest form all information respecting the possibilites and resources of Brtish Columbia, with a view of inducing Canadian capital to invest in the West. About 500 delegates, many of whom will bring their families, are expected to attend the convention which will be the largest "all Canadian" gathering scheduled for western Canada for this summer.

Nearly everyone of the delegates is interested in the development of export trade, according to J. B Thomson, chairman of the British Columbia division of the association. Added to these 500 delegates will be others attending the fisheries convention which is booked for approximately the same time. Indeed some are intending to put in attendance at both conventions.

FINDS FOSSILIZED REMAINS OF BYGONE AGES

Farmer Discovers Fossilized Remains of Shell Fish and Big Fish.

CALGARY, Alta., May 15.—While excavating at Berry Creek, Alberta, a resident found the fossilized remains of a huge shell fish and those of a big fish. The iridiscent, phosphoric hues still were retained in the solid rock formation and a crust of limestone had been broken off to show the true lines of the mollusk and those of the fish. In fact the fish's ribs were clearly marked.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., May 14. —What is claimed to be the largest strawberry patch in Canada is that of F. H. Boulter, who has a twenty-acre patch under cultivation this year in Stamford, on the old portage road. He has already sold thousands of plants. The twenty acres are in one field.

CHILDHOOD CONSTIPATION

Constipation is one of the most common ailments of childhood and the child suffering from it cannot thrive. To keep the children well the bowels must be kept regular and the stomach sweet. To do this nothing can equal Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative; are absolutely safe and never fail to relieve constipation and indigestion; colds and simple fever. Concerning them Mrs. Jules Fauquereau, Nominingue, Que., writes: — "My baby was terribly constipated and suffered day and night, I was advised to give him Baby's Own Tablets and from the first they helped him and now at the age of thirteen months he is a big healthy, happy boy." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NEW LITERARY EDITORS FOR N. Y. EVENING POST

Henry Siedel Canby and William Rose Benet have accepted the positions of literary editor and assistant literary editor respectively, of the New York Evening Post. Mr. Canby is well known as the author of "Our House" (Masmillan), and associate editor of the Yale Review, and "War Aims and Peace Ideals." Mr. Benet's five volumes of verse, published by the Yale University Press, have been widely read: "Perpetual Light," "The Burglar of the Zodiac," "The Great White Wall," "The Falconer of God," and "Merchants from Cathay."

Your complexion tells a story to the world

NOTHING so quickly creates an impression of your personality as your skin. Don't let it tell of unhygienic or thoughtless habits.

If it lacks clearness—if it is marred by disfiguring little blackheads—give it the special treatment that will overcome this defect.

Blackheads are a confession that you are using the wrong method of cleansing for your type of skin. To keep your skin free from this trouble, use this treatment every night:

Apply hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened. Then with a rough washcloth, work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with clear hot water, then with cold. If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a lump of ice. To remove the blackheads already formed, substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in the treatment given above. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

Special treatments for each different skin need are given in the famous booklet of treatments that is wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Get a cake today—begin using your treatment tonight.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake lasts for a month or six weeks of any treatment or for general cleansing use.

MURRAY STREET CHOIR PICTURES

An excellent sample of modern photography is on display in the window of the Peterboro Music Store, 404 George street, of the photos of members of the Murray street Baptist choir. The splendid artistic achievement is the work of Mr. F. D. Lee, photograhper, forty-eight members of the choir the pastor, Rev. R. J. Webb, the organist, Miss Sanderson and the choir leader, Mr. Asa Huycke.

It is no exageration to say that the entire picture is indeed an achievement or which the citizens of Peterboro may well and justly be proud. The central picture, the Church, is also a work of art.

BECAME SO THIN SHE WAS AFRAID

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Made Her Well, Strong and Vigorous

MADAME ARTHUR BEAUCHER

805 Cartier St., Montreal.

"I suffered terribly from Constipation and Dyspepsia for many years. I felt pains after eating and had gas, constant headache, and was unable to sleep at night. I was getting so thin that I was frightened and saw several physicians who, however, did not seem able to help me.

At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a short time, the Constipation was banished, I felt no more pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

Silken Materials for the Sports Skirt

Light in Weight, Delicate in Color, and All Shimmer and Sheen

Will hang and drape in all manner of graceful ways. Their sphere of usefulness envelopes every dressed-up summer occasion that calls for something distinctive.

Charmeuse

—soft and supple, in four glorious tints: Apple Green, Flesh, Ivory, and Cerise. If you intend to use the width for the length, it will require 1½ yards; if not, 2¼ yards. It is 40 inches wide and priced at $6.00 yard.

Silk Jersey

in an Ivory tint; a close, even weave, and 35 inches wide. The usual length required is 2¼ yards. Priced at $4.50 yard.

Tamayoka

—it is an Ivory shade. It comes from far-away Japan. Like most Japanese Silks, it has an uneven surface. It is quite smart, and is particularly adapted to sports wear. The 36-inch width is $2.75 yard, and the 40-inch $3.50.

Reversible Crepe

You can use either side. It does not matter, for one is as pretty as the other. The inside has a lustrous finish, and the reverse side is a decided Crepe effect. Obtainable in Coral or Orchid. The width is 40 inches. The price is $6.95.

Kumsi Kumsa

—or "snake-skin," as some call it, because it bears a resemblance—has many admirers. The weave is a decided novelty. We are showing it in Hortensia—a beautiful Blue with a Pinkish cast. Price $13.50.

The Laying of a Corner Stone Is Usually Accompanied by Much Pomp and Ceremony

Tub Dresses for She Who Has Reached the Ages of 4 or 6

If she is six years and you want something that is simple and easy to wash, we recommend this one of Tan Chambray. It has a gathered skirt and a plain bodice, except for the piped Blue and White edge at the waist line and the animal motif in front. The yoke and sleeves are also piped. The price is $1.25.

We picture the little girl of six under a sunny sky, with this Dutch Blue Chambray. A pointed Pique collar finishes the neck and the cuffs and two patch pockets are piped with Pique. The box pleat down the front originates with a group of shirring at the yoke. This shirring is patterned with Red and White Embroidery Silk in a criss-cross design. Price $2.98.

The bodice of this one in size 6 is Blue and White check Gingham and the gathered on skirt is of Blue Chambray, with large pearl buttons for trimming at the waist line. The yoke is square and is banded with the Chambray, and the cuffs are finished in like manner. A pair of Rompers is included at the $2.98 price.

This Blue and White checked Gingham Frock for the young person of six summers is quite simple. The yoke is square and outlined with White Repp. The Skirt is gathered beneath the White piped edge that defines the waist line. A pair of Rompers is included at the $2.98 price.

Dotted Muslin is looking its best in this Frock of Pink in size 4. The collar is circular and knife pleated, and the sleeves correspond. The high waist line is marked by a row of hemstitching. In the centre of the front and centre of the back are gathers, on which a panel of Rose is worked with Silk thread. A narrow Pink Picot-edged Ribbon is run through eyelets and hangs in a sash at either side. Price $6.95.

Blue and White pin checked Organdie for the four-year-old. The round White Organdie double collar is hemstitched and the two tiers are edged with the material. The cuffs are similarly arranged. The girdle is of White, and is bowed at the back. The hem is concealed with a frill of the material and another frill is placed just a few inches above it. Price $5.25.

LEGAL COMMITTEE FACED MANY DAMAGE CLAIMS AGAINST CITY

BROKEN SIDEWALK, BLASTING OF SEWER, SPRING FLOOD IN WEST END AND JAGGED TIN IN LAKE STREET BATHING PLACES CAUSES OF DAMAGES.

$18 TROUSERS TORN

Accumulated claims for damages against the city were examined by the Legal Committee last night. Ald. Crowe presided, with the Mayor, Aldermen Gordon, Turner and Phelan present.

Margaret Levoir asked for $15 for damages to her dress caused by her falling over a board that sprang up in a sidewalk when she stepped on it. The committee recommended that her request be granted.

Mrs. E. Graham, Bonacord street, wrote that blasting in the excavation of the sewer on McDonnel street last December had cracked the plaster in some rooms of her house and had caused other damage. She sought compensation; the City Engineer was instructed to report on the exact cause and extent of her loss.

House Was Flooded.

Wm. Brady, 513 Reid street, estimated that the Downie street creek flood on March 12th injured household effects in his parlor, dining-room and cellar to the amount of $81.

City Engineer Parsons informed the council by letter that the city had no control over the flooding of creek and was therefore not liable for the damage suffered by Mr. Brady. No action was taken by the committe for the present.

Other complaints were tabled in the same way. The Higgins Hardware store was inundated with water flowing on Hunter street. Mr. Parsons reported that there seemed to be a defective joint in the surface drain that might be charged against the Waterworks department. Further information will be received.

A detailed report is also desired in connection with W. H. Green's claim for $18. He tripped over a "free air" pipe in front of Banks' garage and tore his trousers necessitating the purchase of a new pair.

W. J. Cox and M. Pammett drove their cars into a water-filled hole on George street in front of the Alfred McDonald box factory and Mr. Cox presented a bill for $15.50 repairs and Mr. Pammett, $8.15.

Mr. Parsons reported that the hole was due to the settlement of an excavation made by the Waterworks department last winter.

These claims were left on the file with the others and will be reconsidered later.

Several other minor claims were also received.

Son Was Injured.

Mr. J. F. Strickland appeared with M. John Feeley, whose son Amos was injured last July at the Lake street bathing place by cutting his knee on a tin or glass while playing in the water.

"Mr. Feeley does not want any litigation over this," Mr. Strickland said, "but he feels the city is liable for certain damages because they invited the public to use that bathing place but did not take the care to rake the bottom clear of refuse in the shallow parts. They had a caretaker there but neglected to clean out the bathing place."

The boy's hospital and doctor's bills and other costs to his father amounted to $75.75.

Ald. Turner—"This man can't afford to lose $75.

City Solicitor Widdifield—"The city is not liable. You are creating a dangerous precedent if you give this compensation."

Ald. Gordon disagreed with Mr. Widdifield and expressed the belief that the city could be held liable for failing to protect the public at the swimming place.

Mayor McIntyre—"No use having a City Solicitor if you go against his opinion."

Ald. Gordon moved that Mr. Feeley be paid $75 in the full settlement of his claim. Ald. Phelan seconded the motion, Ald. Crowe voting from the chair. Ald. Turner and Mayor McIntyre opposed it.

To Prevent Accidents.

A motion by Ald. Gordon that the traffic bylaw be amended to provide that automobile drivers shall turn around only at street intersections was arrived at the growing habit many of them are developing of making a full turn whenever they take the notion.

"There have been several accidents lately which were caused by this practise" Ald. Gordon said.

Drivers thought nothing of abruptly turning any place in a block whether traffic was busy or not. It would be only a slight inconvenience to proceed to an intersecting street and then turn in the approved way.

Mr. Laplante Wants to Buy.

J. F. Strickland accompanying N. T. Laplante asked that part of the unopened street north of Perry street and east of George street be closed and sold to Mr. Laplante.

Ald. Gordon moved, seconded by Ald. Phelan that the west half of this street be closed and leased to Mr. Laplante for ten years at the rental of $25 a year without taxes and with the provision that at the end of the ten years Mr. Laplante will have the right to buy it for $250 if the part of the street immediately north becomes invested in the Alfred McDonald Company, and that notice be given of the Council's intention to close that part of the street.

Under the agreement with the city the McDonald Company has the right to buy the north half of this unopened street, the use of which they obtained from this year's Council.

WILL WORK ONLY FEW DAYS AT HIGH WAGES.

HAMMOND, IND., May 14.—Swarms of idle labourers are besieging the manufacturers for employment in Calumet region cities, but refuse to take jobs unless they get at least $1 an hour. In the meantime distressed farmers offer hundreds of jobs with good wages and board. At many of the plants it is common to see from 500 to 700 men at the factory gates each morning asking for jobs, and many of them are young men of farm training drawn to the cities by high wages. The applicants only want to work a few days a week at high wages.

MRS. JOHN GANNON OF PETERBORO COUNTY IS OVER 102 YEARS OLD

CAME TO CANADA 95 YEARS AGO ANB HAS A KEEN RECOLLECTION OF EARLY EVENTS IN THE LIFE OF THE DISTRICT—WHEN WOLVES HAUNTED THE BACK YARD INSTEAD OF CATS.

To be able to look back to the days when Peterboro was but a struggling village on the banks of the Otonabee, when travelling was done on foot, on horseback or by stage on mere paths of bitter mudholes, cut through the dense forests of Upper Canada, when the wolves howled at night in the forests and deer and bear rambled through woods which today are flourishing towns and cities is the unique distinction of Mrs. John Gannon, of Gannon's Narrows, Ennismore. Mrs. Gannon will be 103 years old on March 25 next. Her husband, one of the early settlers in that district, and after whom the Narrows is called, predeceased his wife some fifty years ago.

Out of a family of twelve, four only survive; two boys and two girls. The eldest "boy," with whom she resides, is Michael, aged 78. John, the second son, is 67.

Although she is leaving the century mark behind and has passed the allotted three score years and ten by 32 years she is in good health and able to be about and walk around the house. She has never been confined to her bed for any length of time and has always enjoyed remarkably good health. Her eyesight and her hearing are wonderful and only for reading and other duties entailing eye strain does she use her glasses. Her memory is clear and she is able to recall events of 80 and 90 years ago almost as clearly as if they had happened yesterday. Until the last year she had taken a great interest in the daily events and read the papers closely. "She was greatly interested in the war news," her son stated. Her knitting, which she was once an adept at, had to be given up in spite of her reluctance to sacrifice it.

The changing times have interested her deeply and she loves to recall her early days in Cornwall where she first lived when coming to Canada 95 years ago. Here she attended school and met her husband. Some 75 years ago they settled at their present home in Ennismore and the same frame structure she resides in in her declining years formed the shelter where she raised her family of twelve 60 years ago.

She attributes her long life to taking good care of herself, eating the proper kind of food and plenty of hard work. Her adage is the proverbial "early to bed and early to rise makes a man (or woman) healthy, wealthy and wise" and her 102 years of a happy, useful life bear testimony to her successful adoption of this old but true saying.

SAYS PULPWOOD PRICES WILL FALL IN FEW MONTHS.

(Canadian Press.)

QUEBEC, May 14.—Major F. C. Shorey, director of the Meige Pulpwood Company of Canada, in an interview here to-day on the pulpwood situation, said:

"The price of pulpwood is doomed to fall within a few months. Most of the pulpwood companies in Canada are increasing their production considerably. Last year was one of the leanest for pulpwood production—this year is one of the greatest. Our company has practically doubled its former production. The idea of the pulpwood industry making more money through holding back production and thus boosting up the price has no place in the minds of the captains of industry.

BABY HUTT.

"Owes his life to Virol."

Ottawa,
Nov. 23, 1916.

I should like to testify the benefit of VIROL. Our baby boy when born and up till he was one month old was healthy, then he began to fail, nothing would agree with stomach or bowels. We did everything possible, but he kept getting worse, till at last we were advised to try Virol. He was then 8½ months old and only weighed 9½ lbs., we could scarcely handle him. In 10 days we saw a vast improvement, and in 3 months he sat up alone. He is now 18 months old, has 12 teeth, weighs 32 lbs., and never has been sick for one hour since we gave him Virol. I owe sure we owe little Jack's life to Virol only.

MRS. H. S. HUTT,
396, Chapel Street, Ottawa.

Virol increases the power of resistance to the germs of disease and replaces wasted tissue, it is therefore a valuable food in Measles, Whooping-cough, Infantile Diarrhoea, Influenza, etc.

PROTECTION BY PASTEURIZATION

Your Protection is in Pasteurization

Ask your milk dealer if he Pasteurizes his Milk, because only by this process can the deadly bacilli that lurk in the very cows themselves be destroyed.

"No raw milk should be given to children unless it is known to be produced under clean conditions. If such milk cannot be procured it should be Pasteurized. We guard with great care as we certainly should, our public water supplies, but disease germs do not multiply in water as they do in milk; in fact, cream and milk are very suitable media for the growth and rapid increase of many pathogenic germs."

Unless one knows, beyond question of a doubt that the cows are in perfect health, that every step in its handling is such that there can not be any infection, unless these requirements be met absolutely, use only properly PASTEURIZED MILK.

OUR MILK IS CLARIFIED AND PASTEURIZED.
Clarified is Clean—Pasteurized is Pure.
OUR MILK IS CLEAN, PURE AND SAFE.

TO SELL CANADIAN FRUIT BY FRACTION OF AQUART

Two-Fifths of a Quart of Berries Soon to be Law.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 15. — Canadian fruit, owing to its luscious nature, must now be sold in less than quart boxes, if suggestions made before the Agricultural Committee of the Commons are followed. It was explained the raspberries and strawberries, especially from Ontario, and British Columbia, was of such a luscious nature that it was impossible to get more than two-fifths of a quart without damaging a portion of it. The committee decided that berries and currants, after June 1st, of this year, will be sold in four-fifths of a quart, one pint and two-fifths of a quart boxes. The Minister of Agriculture, Dr. S. F. Tolmie, will have power to make new regulations as the necessity may arise.

A PRACTICAL ANSWER

A Sunday school teacher had been telling her class of little boys about crowns of glory and heavenly rewards for good people.

"Now, tell me," she said at the close of the lesson, "who will get the biggest crown?"

There was silence for a minute or two then a bright little chap piped out:

"Him wot's got biggest 'ead."

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

For Colds, Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Earache, and for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, take Aspirin marked with the name "Bayer" or you are not taking Aspirin at all.

Accept only "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in an unbroken "Bayer" package which contains complete directions. Then you are getting real Aspirin—the genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years. Now made in Canada.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

IN THE LITERARY WORLD

INTERESTING ARTICLE BY MR. F. M. DELA FOSSE—CHATS ABOUT BOOKS—LITERARY NOTES.

Chats About Books.

There is nothing more fleeting than the popularity of a book. From a list lying before me of some 1700 works of all kinds, mentioned by the compiler as "notable," it would be hard to pick out 200 which to-day are read, or one-third of the entire number which are even known by title to present-day readers. Yet the list is really a fine one of what was considered excellent general reading some twenty or twenty-five years ago. It seems to be much the same with literature as with the fashions. Constant change is needed to keep alive the trades on which so many millions depend for their living. In all the crafts fresh creations have to be constantly placed on the market. If milliners and tailors, for instance, did not exert their brains to produce new effects in headgear and in clothing, women would be "hatted" and garbed in the styles of centuries ago and perhaps in some cases it would be a blessing if they were. It is much the same with literature. Publishers could not live and the printing trades would languish if fresh authors were not continually cropping up in an endeavor to woo the world's favor. In the last 125 years great changes have taken place in public taste in the matter of fiction. First there was the epoch of sentimental gush and briny tearfulness, as exemplified in the novels of Fanny Burney. Then came the wild and hair-raising melodramas of "Monk" Lewis and of Mrs. Radcliffe; these again were followed by the three-volume society novels beloved of our grandfathers and grandmothers and to-day we have pseudo-society novels which take in their scope every peccadillo and crime known under heaven. It is not a marvel that so many changes have been manifested in public appetite, nor, when one comes to think of it, is it much of a disaster that such authors as Scott, Dickens, Thackerary and a few others have survived the great ordeal. Still there are many other books, fiction and non-fiction, which did not deserve such a fate and whose intrinsic excellence it would be wise to recall in these days of hurry and bustle. How many, for example, have read "The Amateur Poacher" by Richard Jefferies, one of the finest writers on rural life that England has produced? His book "Wood Magic" has been lauded as containing one of the finest prose poems in the language. It is found in the last chapter entitled, "The Dialogue of Bevis and the Wind." Jefferies was one of those who suffered from lack of recognition and who well-nigh starved in enriching his country's literature. How many to-day, know even by title, "The Amenities of Literature" by Isaac Disraeli, the father of Lord Beaconsfield? It was published when the author was 74 years old. A wonderfully interesting book it is and leads the reader into many half-hidden by-paths of English literary history. The Druidical Institution and many other subjects are treated in its pages. The "Annals of the Parish," by John Galt, is another book which nobody reads nowdays and yet in its own day it was looked upon as a fine production. The author is interesting to us, as Canadians, owing to the fact that he was the father of Sir Alexander Galt, at one time Finance Minister of the Dominion, and also because he was the founder of the city of Guelph. He was sent from England to Canada to act as agent for the claims of Canadians for losses entailed during the war of 1814. The government rejected his suggestions but the men for whom he had been laboring retained his services and formed the well known Canada Company, of which they appointed him secretary.

Social Reform.

"Ginx's Baby" was a book, which in its day, did its bit in helping along social reform. I came across it the other day in the library and hailed it as an old friend. Its title is deceiving. It is really a satire and a very clever one on the way that the English Poor-laws and other charitable organizations used to be administered. The author, Edward Jenkins, was born in Bangalore, India, but was educated at McGill University and at the University of Pennsylvania. He afterwards entered the English Parliament. The book ran through several editions both in England and America and excited widespread controversy.

In the field of humor we have many books and the unfortunate truth must be told, that, as in other departments, the old favorites seem to be drifting fast into oblivion. Josh Billings, Bill Nye, Artemus Ward, even Mark Twain, are not read to the extent that they were a few years ago. With the exception of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, Mark Twain's books lie neglected on the shelves, and it is doubtful if any of the others go out more than once or twice a year. The reason is, I suppose, that taste in humor changes like everything else. As the younger generation grows up it seizes on the favorite of the hour and allows the older writers to be forgotten. At one time Artemus Ward, or, to give him his right name, Charles Farrar Browne, was regarded as the prince of humorists, both as lecturer and writer. His lectures on the Mormons used to bring tears of laughter to the eyes of his audiences. But when his personality was withdrawn by death his writings soon lost their appeal.

Josh Billings said a good many wise things in his time and some rather enigmatical ones, and like Artemus Ward, relied upon erratic spelling to make them more striking.

"It won't dew tew stir a man up when he is thinking, enny more than it will a pan of milk when the cream is rising," was one of them.

Politicians anxious to acquire success should take notice of the following:

"Tew be a suckcesful pollytisian a man should be buttered on both sides and then keep awa from the fire."

'Woman will sumtimes confess her sins but i never knu one to confess her faults."

There are tastes in humor as in other classes of writing and perhaps the most engrossing to any is that which is to be found in reading the lives of men like Sydney Smith and Sheridan or any of that galaxy of genius and talent which brightened the reign of George the Third and Fourth and of William and Victoria. Anecdotes of the wits are amongst the most interesting things in literature, for they help as much as anything to divulge a man's character and the social life of his time. Stories like the following, which is to be found in Forster's life of Goldsmith, teem in many biographies. Goldsmith was introduced to the Robin Hood Debating Society by Samuel Derrick, when Caleb Jeacocke, a baker, was president. He was so impressed by Jeacocke's imposing appearance that he whispered to Derrick that nature must have intended such a man for a Lord Chancellor. "No, no," replied Derrick, "only for Master of the Rolls." Samuel Derrick is well known to us as being Boswell's early tutor in the ways of London and also as having called forth a characteristic judgment from Dr. Johnson. He was a poor writer and on the sage being asked whether Derrick or Kit Smart was the better poet he made the reply, "there is no settling the point of precedency between a louse and a flea." Johnson seems to have liked him however, and he certainly enlisted his help in obtaining material for his life of Dryden.

Old Writers.

Mention was made last week of the valuable series of books dealing with old Greek and Roman writers which we have in the library. The subject is of sufficient importance to return to for there is a lamentable lack of knowledge amongst us concerning these old writers and their times. One thing noticeable on looking through these volumes is the startling manner in which history seems to have repeated itself through the centuries. In the time of Juvenal, for instnce, there was the same lack of accommodation for the public as we are experiencing in these days. Houses were scarce and the poor were compelled to live together. The nobles and wealthier families lived in seclusion in the midst of vast estates. Rome swarmed with "bloods" of a type closely approximating to the Mohawks and Hectors who at the close of the 18th century used to make night hideous in towns and cities by breaking windows, upsetting sedan chairs and molesting quiet citizens. Women made themselves conspicuous by appearing at gladiatorial combats just as, after the lapse of centuries, they are commencing to do to-day. There was patronage of literature as in Dr. Johnson's time and much the same sort of callousness on the part of patrons towards struggling and suffering authors. Then, as now, poets, sometimes forsook lyric and ode and turned for a surer livelihood to writing for the stage.

"Mary Marie" by Eleanor H. Porter, John Allen Toronto, Price $2.00.

It will be good news to admirers of Eleanor H. Porter's "Pollyanna" to know that the author has brought out a new book that ranks in the same class as her first success. In "Mary Marie" Mrs. Porter has created another Glad Book of a type both charming and uncommon. The dual name of the book makes a logical structure for the divorce case that enters into the life of Mary Marie. The latter tells the story of the domestic catastrophe in her quaint childish way and is ultimately the means of repairing the breach in the domestic relations. The development of Mary Marie and her narrow escape from the fate of her parents is skillfully handled and lends a charming touch to a well-written story. It is a story that can be easily applied to present day conditions, and readers of the book should feel indebted to the author for the realistic elements that are woven into the story and the subtle lesson it contains. The popularity and success of Pollyanna in book form and in the movies should give Mrs. Porter's new book a wide distribution and create in the minds of its readers many a happy as well as serious thought for the conditions that produce divorce with its train of scandal and suffering for the offspring that may be involved in its mesh.

Piles and Constipation Cured—Says Internal Bathing Saved Her Life.

If the thousands of men and women with constipation and the many ills which follow would bathe internally instead of continually dosing themselves with drugs, they would soon realize why every user of the J.B.L. Cascade is so enthusiastic in its praise. There should be one in every home. Keep the colon clean and free from poisonous waste and you will not need the doctor.

Mrs. Robert Gordon, 422 Cadillac St., Montreal, Que., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of the J.B.L. Cascade. It has saved my life. I have been troubled with constipation piles and ulceration of the bowels for years, have only been using the Cascade for three months, and am happy to be doing my own housework again after having been laid up for many months. I would not take one hundred dollars for my Cascade if I could not procure another."

The J.B.L. Cascade is the only perfect appliance for Internal Bathing, the invention of Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, of New York, and is doing more towards improving the health and efficiency standard of the nation than all other means combined.

This appliance is shown and explained by Warne Drug Co.

BECKETT NOW WANTS CHANCE AT DEMPSEY

Coming to America and Would Meet Carpentier While here.

NEW YORK, May 14.—The victory Joe Beckett, England's heavyweight champion, scored over Bombardier Wells has gone to his head to such an extent that he now wants to meet Jack Dempsey. Beckett is going to have two more bouts in England and then he is coming to America.

While here he intends to seek matches with both Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. A Carpentier Beckett match would be rather interesting affair, and it may be arranged, for Carpentier know how he stands with Beckett. As for Beckett meeting Dempsey that is just one of the Englishman's little joke.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers—No pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

The Last Corn

When you end your corn with Blue-jay, it will be the last corn you let grow.

You will know how to stop the pain. And how to quickly and completely end all corns.

There are millions who use Blue-jay now, and they never let a corn remain.

The new-day way

Blue-jay is the new-day way, the scientific method.

It was perfected in a laboratory world-famed for its surgical dressings.

It is supplanting the many treatments which are harsh and inefficient.

It has made paring as ridiculous as it is unsafe, for paring doesn't end corns.

Do this tonight:

Apply to a corn a Blue-jay plaster or liquid Blue-jay—whichever you prefer.

Mark how the pain stops. Then wait a little and the corn will loosen and come out.

What that corn does all corns will do. Some 20 million corns a year are ended in this way.

Don't suffer corns. Don't have your feet disfigured. They can be ended almost as easily as a dirt-spot on your face. They are just as inexcusable.

Don't forget this. It means too much to you.

Ask your druggist for Blue-jay.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

There are a few perennials and a few of the less common annuals which should find a place in the garden unless it is very small. What is more delicious than the first pulling of rhubarb in the spring? What is nicer through the winter than your own horseradish with your roast? What mint tastes anything like what you pull fresh from the garden while the lamb sings in the oven?

Rhubarb.

For the very small garden rhubarb takes up too much room, but if you have your own place or a long lease and a fair sized lot, be sure to have at least half a dozen roots.

This is best set out in the spring. The soil cannot be made too rich, for is is a voracious feeder. If you are not moving your roots, dig in all the old manure you can. This keeps it from going so much to seed as well as giving larger and tenderer stalks.

When roots get too large the stalks become thinner, and the plant runs much to seed. In that case dig up the root, cut it into pieces and replant. Division should be made every three or four years. In setting out rhubarb, have the eye just level with the self.

A mistake is often made in pulling rhubarb all season and then kicking about the failure of the plants next season. You can take it as a safe rule not to pull it after July or, at least, very slightly. Rhubarb being such a feeder requires to store away a lot of energy and that must be done before the frost. Take all you want from spring up to July1 and then let the roots have a chance.

Another mistake is to try to use the leaves as spinach. Don't. They are poisonous, not enough to kill you perhaps, but enough to make many people sick.

Horseradish.

This takes a good deal of room, for the leaves spread more widely than cabbage. But you may have a corner which seems hardly worth while for anything else. The set is simply a short portion of a root. The horseradish likes a cool soil, but it must be deeply worked. Given depth and moisture and sun it will grow anywhere. But not if the water lies too long where it is located.

It is so hardy that you do not need to dig it up till the frost threatens to make the ground hard. Store the roots in earth or grind them for putting in jars. The smaller roots will do for sets for next year. Store them in earth and keep the earth moist. In the spring cut these into two-inch lengths and set an inch deep. In grating or grinding do not use the outer skin; scrape that off and you will have anarticle much superior in flavor and in appearance.

Spearmint.

When the roast lamb goes into the oven it shouts aloud for mint. It will grow any old place so no one has any excuse for not having it. The trouble is that it spreads so much it gets to be a nuisance unless it is kept in check. Keep your neighbors supplied and you'll find you can keep it under control.

A small portion of root, no matter how small or large, as long as it contains a joint will start spearmint. Lay in horizontal about half an inch to an inch deep and that is all. Trim it out in the fall so that it will start right in the spring, that is to say, that it will not occupy the whole garden. A good point to remember is that mint when at its best in the summer, can be put down in vinegar for the making of mint sauce later. Simply pull and wash the leaves and cover with vinegar and seal.

A Few for Salads.

There are few vegetables which have not been mentioned yet which are splendid for salads. Mustard, cress and chevil are among the best. Plant early in May in rows a foot apart, half an inch deep. The first two grow fast and go to seed fast so that successive planting must be made weekly if you wish to have any length of season. Mustard and cress are especially tasty, with sandwich or salad on a hot day. The chervil is somewhat like parsley in value for garnishing and is held by a good many people to be superior. Unfortunately it is not much grown on this side of the water, though in Europe it is common.

Peppers.

This should have been dealt with at the same time as tomatoes because the same treatment does for them. Remember that peppers are even more tender than tomatoes. Follow the methods described for them and the result will be satisfactory. They do not grow so bushy so they do not need the same pruning nor do they need stakes over three feet high. Set them out a few days later and watch carefully for the least sign of frost. Set them 18 ins. apart in rows 2 or 2½ feet apart.

The Most Artistic Roof

is the one that completely harmonizes with the design and finishing of the house. For this reason there is a steadily increasing demand for Brantford Asphalt Slates for the modern style of homes.

Brantford Asphalt Slates have a surface of crushed slate embedded into our asphalt coating, the base of the roofing being felt saturated with asphalt. They are cut the size of shingles, and their beautiful soft colors of reddish brown and dark green give a roof a most artistic appearance. The colors are the natural shades of the slate as it comes out of the quarries. Brantford Asphalt Slates are, therefore, unfadeable—never require painting.

Brantford Asphalt Slates

are accurate in size and pliable, which makes them very easily handled and quickly laid, saving time and labor, and therefore costing less to lay.

Brantford Asphalt Slates make an artistic, durable and economical roof. Booklet describing them mailed on request.

GARDENERS ARE GETTING READY

GREATER PRODUCTION WILL BE EVIDENT IN PETERBORO.

A large number of residents of Peterboro who have any available land for back door gardens, are using every effort to use the land to get the maximum result from their gardening operations. The florists handling seeds and young plants, claim the demand for such has been much heavier this year than at any year previous, including the days of the war when production was urged at practically every gathering of people.

A factor which will doubtless prove a stimulus to the amateur gardener is the fact that the price of young plants, such as tomatoes, cabbage, cauliflowers, etc., has not increased, and these are being bought in large quantities as soon as they can be placed on the market. Seeds such as onion, beet root, carrots and squash, are being freely bought and amateurs are evidently going into gardening scientifically, and are making intelligent inquiries about the proper method of sowing seed and cultivating the ground to get the best results.

"You would be surprised," one of the florists said, "at the number of business men who have told me they rise at five o'clock these days on the rare occasions the sun shines, to dig up the ground, and get in their plants.

RITCHIE SAYS WINDSOR IS A BAD FIRE HAZARD

WINDSOR, May 14.—This city is one of the greatest fire hazards in the Province, in the opinion of J. R. Ritchie, Chief Engineer of Provincial Marshals, who made an official inspection here. Particularly in the business section conditions were found exceedingly dangerous, with all alleys strewn thickly with paper and rubbish. Some of the older buildings, Mr. Ritchie said, were little better than fire traps, and scores of fire exits and fire escapes should be installed at once. The local fire department was found to be in efficient condition, with a well disciplined force.

SEEKS PRESIDENCY OF THE TYPO. UNION

John McParland Will Address the Local Union on Sunday.

TORONTO, May 15.—John McFarland, candidate for the Presidency of the International Typographical Union, will be in Toronto over the week-end, and will address a meeting of the Toronto union on Sunday in the Labor Temple. The election of officers of the I.T.U. will take place on May 26, and the fight is one of the keenest of many years.

The present administration of the union makes the charge that the slate headed by McParland is not progressive, but is radical, and that it is the result of the printers' strike of New York city, where the authority of Marsden G. Scott, President of the union, was questioned by local organizations.

McParland promises to make the union journal an open forum for the expression of the opinion of all members, restore the principal of the initiative and referendum, and exercise the strictest economy consistent with sound business principles.

The girl is yours when you kiss her—until you meet the next one.

With all women, gentleness is the most persuasive and powerful argument.

Every woman is wrong until she cries—and then she is impossible.

When women love us, they forgive everything, even our crimes. When they do not love us, they do not even credit our virtues.

There's nothing strange in what women do—each has her whim and therefore—an alibi.

On Kissing

The first kiss might make her angry, but the second would console her . . . and the third . . . Oh! Wonderful Woman!

May you live through an age of happiness
In a realm of wedded bliss;
And may every day be a memory day
Which begins and ends with a kiss.

I pledge the kiss
Whose poignant bliss
Comes from a microbe, so they say.
A microbe—ho!
If that is so,
He tickles in a pleasant way.

And so I say,
"If man must die
Of microbe that and microbe this,
I'll gladly sip
The fatal lip,
And take my microbe in a kiss."

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

Well, they're off at the ball lot this afternoon and here's hoping that class wins. The choices are Veterans for the curtain-raiser and Thistles for the main battle. And here's how they doped it last night. Thistles with the best gunners should more than make up for any weaknes in hitting, because Canadian Generals, who are conceded greater batting strength, will find it hard to get enough solid cracks off Kirn. Switch the batteries and Thistles would go down unhonored and unsung.

The rail warmers who saw Lefty McClintock work out this week, are not expecting any great show of control by the new arrival. They admit that he has qualifications of a good pitcher, and with his eye on the platter, will make 'em all hop. Wade has been working out regularly with a heady catcher, and with knowledge of the local hitters, he has the edge on his opponent, and should turn in a victory for the Vets.

Canadian Woollens, win or lose, have good sports behind them. The management of this large and growing plant have done splendidly by their employees, having provided everything necessary for the football and baseball teams, and members of the firm are always on hand when the employees are engaged in their sports. Good luck to the Canadians Woollens athletic club.

There is no evidence of partiality on the part of Mr. Weatherman, and Lawn Bowlers are no better off than their fellows of other sports, consequently there have been no rocks hurled at the kitty. The grounds committee are making the best of things, however, and it is confidently expected that the game will be opened next week. No effort will be spared to make games on Victoria Day a certainty.

How about a revival of lawn tennis? A few years ago the inter-club competition aroused wide interest, and the handsome F. D. Kerr trophy was the prize. It now forms part of the splendid collection of trophies encased at the Y.M.C.A. and it might be coaxed out again for further competition. All Saints' Church young people are taking up the game, the Y courts will soon be opened, and doubtless the Oval will be the playing grounds of several clubs. There are grounds adjoining the Lawn Bowling greens that might be secured by clubs desirous of finding a central point for play.

Football, lacrosse and the ponies will serve up the entertainment for the holiday crowds. The soccer game, England vs. Scotland, with players picked from the football league promises a rare contest. Lacrosse will awake after a long lapse. There are hundreds of people who have not seen an exhibition of the game, made famous in pioneer days by the redskins.

Interest is added to baseball this season by the presence of two former players of the old Midland League days, Dan McCabe, manager of the Centra Leaguers and John Mulhall, manager of the Canadian Woollens team. Both were with the Peterboro' team in the palmy days of the league. Games were played on the P.A.A.A. grounds, in Ashburnham, now Cricket Place. In the vernacular, "them were the happy days." Chris. Graham was the catcher of Dan, McCabe's shots and and Jack Mulhall was an outfielder. But the members of the battery are the only two veterans left in town. The Peterboro' team won many honors, and in 1806, when George Paxman was manager, the crown of champions of Eastern Ontario was worn by the home team.

One day after a league game, the Peterboro' pitcher undertook to reclaim the hat of a ball fan. The wind had taken and deposited the headpiece under a bridge near the grounds. Dan jumped and one foot landed on a rusty nail. Doctors orders directed him to stay indoors. A few days later the Bowmanville team arrived here to play, and Dan was not carded to twirl for the locals, but just before the play was called, he was seen emerging from the "entrance" from Lipsett's lane, the injured foot well padded, in a boot several sizes larger than the footwear usually worn by him. Hobbling up to the Peterboro' bench, Dan said he was ready to pitch. Protests were of no avail and he went to the mound. With the shoots from his sturdy right arm, he not only pitched the locals to victory but also smashed out a home run.

ATHLETES

"ABSORBINE JR." Makes an Ideal Rub-Down.

Football and lacrosse players, tennis and golf enthusiasts, runners and oarsmen, find quick relief from bruises and muscle soreness after a brisk rub-down with a trainer's wash made of one ounce of "ABSORBINE JR." and a quart of water or witch hazel.

This wash—used by many prominent athletes, physical directors and trainers—is healing, soothing, strengthening and invigorating. Puts vim into tired, lame muscles—wonderfully effective in strains and wrenches—prevents "next-day" soreness.

"ABSORBINE JR." keeps the muscles pliable and in proper tone.

Keep a bottle of "ABSORBINE JR." in your locker. $1.25 a bottle—at most druggists or sent postpaid by W. F. YOUNG, INC., Lyman Building, Montreal. 34

STAR, ON HORSEBACK, LEAPS OVER BROKEN BRIDGE ABOVE CHASM

ANITA STEWART'S DARING RISK TO MAKE SCENE IN PICTURE REALISTIC.

Anita Stewart makes a startling leap on horseback over a broken bridge above a chasm, taking great risks, in a scene from the First National special feature, "In Old Kentucky," in which she stars. This great American classic will be shown at the Allen Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The bridge is a draw over a ravine more than 100 feet deep. But the draw has been wrecked. In the story it is necessary for Miss Stewart to leap over this broken draw to reach a man who is lying unconscious in the road far beneath her, where the villain has placed a dynamite bomb beneath him.

The horse, upon which she is mounted at first refuses to make the jump, but she starts again and spurring it to the utmost speed, rides straight for the broken bridge. The horse rises to her spur and makes the jump. But it reaches the oposite side by such a narrow margin that broken bits of the bridge are kicked from beneath its feet into the chasm beneath.

Miss Stewart admits that she was terribly frightened but had every confidence in the horse as it has made greater leaps than the one taken in the picture though never such a dangerous one.

This thrilling scene is clearly shown in this picture which is the story of an untotured girl, who after risking her life for her friends in the mountains, goes to the city where she wins laurels for herself.

GOOD PICTURE AT THE GRAND

It is a matter of great pride that the manager of the Grand Theatre announces the engagement of the great Universal production, "The Virgin of Stamboul," for three days, commencing Thursday. Taking the role of "The Virgin of Stamboul," Priscilla Dean, the noted screen star, achieves her most wonderful screen triumph. Never before has this remarkable actress appeared to such great advantage. Not the least important item in connection with this production is the wonderful photography. Immense Oriental scenes are shown with all the splendour of the East. Under the direction of Ted Browning some of the most realistic scenes have been portrayed in a most vivid fashion.

In one case as a great troop of horses gallop across the desert to the rescue of the heroe in the story one would almost feel that the horse's hoofs would plow right through the audience. The story is immensely entertaining from every point of view. Its settings are extravagant in the extreme and it is doubtful if there has ever been a more thrilling motion picture drama ever seen.

Morrison Makes Defence

Denies That He is the Dictator of the U.F.O.

TORONTO, May 15.—J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U. F. O., was back in the city to-day from Chicago, and was asked what he had to say about the intimation of Reece Hall, the Liberal member for Parry Sound, that in opposing the civil servants' superannuation bill, and other measures he was setting himself up as a dictator.

"Nothing of the kind," said Mr. Morrison. "My office is the headquarters for the agricultural organizations of the Province and we have as much right to use our influence for or against legisaltive measures as Labor or any other organization. We are supposed to have representative government and in the past we have elected men for four years and left them alone to do as they please with the result that they did not represent the people. The people are much more likely to rule, when they do as our organization is doing. The issue in this matter is not whether I am wrong or right in my views but as to whether the public has a right to a say in their own affairs. I have done nothing without the knowledge and approval of the U.F.O. executive.

FIRE LOSS OF MANITOBA DOUBLE THAT OF LAST YEAR

Loss of $1.50 For Every Person in the Province For First 4 Months of the Year.

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15. — Manitoba's fire loss for the first four months of 1920 was $900,000, or $1.50 for every man, woman and child in the province, according to Charles Heath, provincial fire commissioners. This is slightly more than double the loss for the corresponding period of 1919.

LIVER TROUBLE AND HEARTBURN

All liver diseases of whatever character are diseases of the highest importance and demand close attention.

The liver is the largest and one of the most important organs of the body. Its duty is to prepare and secrete bile and to serve as one of the filters of the body, cleaning it from all impurities and poisons. Therefore when the liver gets out of order it is the starting of trouble in nearly every part of the body.

Keep the liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn, constipation, biliousness, sick or bilious headaches, dull, yellow eyes, brown blotches, sallow complexion, coated tongue, jaundice, catarrh of the stomach, or the painful, protruding, internal or bleeding piles.

Mrs. John Kadey, Chipman, N. B., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for some times and can recommend them to anyone suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried other remedies but they only relieved me for a short time. I always recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to all sufferers as I think they are a valuable remedy."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FIVE TEAMS IN U.F.O. LEAGUE

TYRONE POWER

Mr. Henry Mosi, business manager for Mr. Tyrone Power, the eminent English actor, is in Peterborough today concluding all arrangements for the return visit to this city of this distinguished actor at the Grand Opera House for one night only—Monday, 24th May (Victoria Day).

Owing to the tremendous success achieved by Mr. Tyrone Power and his notable company of English artistes on his first visit to this city a few months ago, in "The Servant in the House," Trans-Canada Theatres, Limited, will again present the distinguished actor in another of his great successes. Mr. Power will, on his return visit, be seen in "The Little Brother," a powerful drama of love and sacrifice, from the joint pens of Milton Goldsmith and Benedict James.

Few roles enacted on the American stage ever created the instantaneous sensation that was made by Tyrone Power's interpretation of the character of the Russian priest in "The Little Brother," which he will present at the Grand Opera House, on Monday, 24th May (Victoria Day), as a special return engagement. It was instantly successful. He revealed the character as one of the most impressive in his stage career.

William Winter, then the dean of dramatic critics in America, and one of the ablest and most scholarly writers on things dramatic this continent has ever known, wrote of his work thus: "Stalwart in figure, pictorial in aspect, rugged in manner, bold in style, broad in gesture, various in vocalism, steadily propulsive in action, he made the part surprisingly graphic. I have seen no other contemporary actor who, liberating into assumed identity the surge of profound emotion and abounding enthusiasm, could have done more to vitalise the character and make it possible."

GRAY-DORT

The new Gray-Dort is a veritable treat to the eye—dignified, pleasing, modern.

The new hood with its many long, narrow louvres gives a European touch. So, too, does the smaller, smarter cowl. The gasoline tank is now in the rear. And the Rayntite top, hand-tailored in our own shops, is easily the smartest top on any light car.

Crowning all is the lasting elegance of the coach-builder's art and finish which Gray-Dort craftsmen have spent 60 years in perfecting.

But this beauty of line and finish clooks even more desirable features.

The smooth, quiet Gray-Dort motor with its 5" stroke and 3½" bore: the heavy 40 lb. crankshaft: the channel steel frame: the heavier steering gear: the Thermoid brake lining: the improved ignition and carburetor: the Westinghouse starting and lighting systems: the heavier rear axle and cantilever springs, both Chatham-built:—the more you know about cars the more superiorities will you find in the Gray-Dort, hidden under its robe of smart beauty.

At $1465 there is nothing in the light car class to match the refined and improved Gray-Dort.

It is the dominion VALUE. See it first.

Motometer. Clock. Tilting steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Oversize tires. A car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

And the Ace!

The most beautiful light car of to-day—The Gray-Dort Ace. Sapper green body, with handsome California top to match. Trouble lamp and bull's-eye flashlight. Plate-glass windows. Rear-vision mirror. AND all the features of the Gray-Dort Special. This is the DE LUXE car for the man who does not wish to pile up tremendous operating cost. $265 extra on the standard.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

Sandy Lockington denies that "Finnegan" Hill, of the Port Hope team, will don a Peterborough uniform. Sandy ought to know.—Lindsay Post

Lindsay Warder: Silver, who is on the pitching staff of the Central League team, learned the game behind the old curling rink in Lindsay in the days when there was a ball team on every vacant lot. He had lots of pep and steam in the old days, and apparently has not lost it. After drifting away to the west he figured in some of the best Leagues, and perhaps played his best ball in 1913 in the Regina city leagues, when he defeated such good pitchers as "Curly Mack" whom it will be remembered won the Midland League for the Lindsay Red Birds in 1904, or thereabouts. When the war broke out Silver went overseas and played considerable baseball over there.

EARLY SYMPTOMS OF BLOODLESSNESS

Shown by Pallor of the Face and Lips—How to obtain New Blood.

Anaemia, or lack of blood, is so gradual in its approach that it is often well developed before the patient is sufficiently alarmed to consult a doctor or take proper treatment to restore the blood to a healthy condition.

The earliest symptom of anaemia is loss of color, especially in the lips, gums and membranes lining the eyelids. Then comes shortness of breath on slight exertion, such as going up stairs, palpitation of the heart, increased pallor of the face and lips. If this thinning of the blood is not corrected it will proceed rapidly until a complete breakdown in health follows, when there may be disorders of the stomach, headaches and backaches, dizziness and fainting spells. The most effective and prompt way to increase and enrich the blood at a time like this is through the fair use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills. These pills have restored to good health thousands of weak, anaemic people, among them Miss Mae Johnston, of Port Arthur, Ont., who says:—"Between the ages of sixteen and eighteen I worked in a telephone office, and it was very trying to the nerves and health. I became bloodless, and so pale that friends often said I looked consumptive. One night I had to be taken home from the office, and a doctor was called in who told me I must not go back for a time. Sometimes I would faint, and to walk up stairs would leave me utterly breathless. As I did not appear to be getting any better one of my girl friends, whose mother had used Dr. Williams Pink Pills with great benefit, advised me to try these. I took the pills very faithfully for some time, with the result that they restored me to good health, and now when anyone tells me they feel weak or rundown I always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as I feel so thankful for the help they gave me."

If you have any of the symptoms described by Miss Johnston try building up the blood with Dr. Williams Pink Pills. Eat nourishing food, exercise a little in the open air daily and watch the color return to cheeks and lips. You can run no risk in giving Dr. Williams Pink Pills a trial as they can not injure the most delicate system. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that his distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has affected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength.) Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should

BAGDAD'S CHANGE OF NATIVE DRESS

The war has wrought a wonderful change in the people of Bagdad, not the least of which is their change of dress according to the Times of India, which says: "In Bagdad to-day the young bloods are showing a desire to adopt European dress. We cannot imagine why anyone should want to discard the picturesque Arab headdress in exchange for a billycock hat, but there is no accounting for taste. Relief at getting rid of Turkish misrule had presumably to be celebrated in some way or other, and the acquistion of a new suit of clothes, even if they are ready-made reach-me-downs, is undoubtedly an event which would appeal to the nut of Bagdad who, like nuts all over the world, wants to be unlike his elders.

COMMUNISTS PLAN WHOLESALE MURDER

BLOOD WILL RUN LIKE WATER IN NEW INSURRECTION BEING PLANNED.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 15.—The German Communists are planning a new insurrection, which may be attended by wholesale murders, acocrding to a Berlin despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, quoting the statement by Herr von Graefe, Conservative member of the Reichstag.

The despatch says Her von Graefe has advised the Ministry of Defence that meetings of Communists are being held regularly in Mecklenburg, and that the question whether landowners alone should be put to death or whether their wives and children should meet a like fate is being discussed. He maintains, it is said, that "there is no doubt Mecklenburg will be the scene of frightful slaughter."

PRINT PAPER DEAL NO GOOD.

Shortage Would Not Exist if Production Had Been Held Up.

WASHINGTON, May 15. — The agreement between print paper manufacturers and the Department of Justice was denounced as "worse than useless" by Senator David I. Walsh, Massachusetts Democrat, today at the hearing of the Senate manufacturers sub-committee of which he is a member.

"The manufacturers who were parties to this agreement have forced the papers to make separate agreements ,and the agreements are therefore worse than useless," Walsh said.

"It is but another confession of the inability of the Government to control profiteering and prices. Do you know the agreement had been disregarded to the extent that the manufacturers who were parties to it have reduced consumption in many cases? If they had held production to the point provided for in the agreement, the print paper shortage of to-day would not exist."

French Troops Started To Evacuate Rhine Cities This Morning

FRENCH FORCES LEAVING OCCUPIED RHINE CITIES

FORFEIT OF A MILLION MARKS DEMANDED AS A GUARANTEE AGAINST POSSIBLE DISORDERS.

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 17.—As a guarantee against possible demonstrations by the citizens of Frankfort and other German cities in the newly occupied Rhine territory, when the French troops are withdrawn, beginning today, the French have demanded that the Germans post a forfeit of a million marks and deliver six hostages, a Frankfort despatch by way of Berlin said to-day.

The hostages would include the Mayor, the Governor, Chief of Police and the chairman of the City Council.

A Mayence despatch said Marshal Foch's evacuation order had been received, and that the Frnch troops would start their movement from Frankfort and the other newly occupied cities to-day.

The French decision to evacuate followed the confirmation of Germany's claims that her troops in the Ruhr district had been reduced to the 20000 allowed by the agreement of last August.

"KEPT THEIR WORD."

MAYENCE May 17.—The French troops which have been occupying Frankfort Darmstadt and other cities on the east bank of the Rhine evacuated those cities this morning, it is announced here.

The Germans were informed of departure through a laconic proclamation issued by General De Goutte, which read:

"The French have kept their word."

The evacuation proceeded in orderly way and amid entire quiet.

It is also understood it was decided that Germany would be permitted to issue bonds to cover her indebtedness to the allies, payable in annual instalments. Such action it was pointed out would enable France to discount part of her claim on Germany and permit her to settle her debts to the United States and the Allies.

These decisions together with the action taken postponing the Spa conference with Germany to June 21, comprise the definite conclusions reached by the French and the British premiers and their advisers, according to the understanding here; all other details of arrangement to be settled by the financial delegates who are still working upon thm.

A special conference of allies will be held at Ostend to consider the financial question, it was stated. The date of the conference remains to be fixed.

JEWISH FAMILIES OFF FOR PALESTINE

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 17.—Ninety Jewish families in Winnipeg are preparing to emigrate to Palestine to establish two farm colonies.

Forty families, banded in a society called Hoikor, have sent a representative to the Holy Land to buy land. As soon as the purchase is made the society will leave in a body.

Fifty families, organised as the Hochuso Society, are planning to leave before next Autumn, having purchased $30,000 worth of land in Palestine.

FIRE DESTROYED AN AUTOMOBILE

UNUSUAL SPECTACLE WITNESSED ON CHARLOTTE STREET, SUNDAY.

Even if the "gas" we get now is poor stuff, it will burn quick enough. This was well demonstrated at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, when the light roadster belonging to J. L. Johnston, the well-known lacrosse and baseball enthusiast, caught fire in front of Robert Hicks' gas tank on Charlotte Street. The owner had just filled his tank, which is on the front of the car, under the hood, but gave the tank a little too much of the impetuous fluid, with the result that it overflowed, running down over the front of the motor. When he cranked it, there was evidently a short circuit formed, and the gas that had been spilled burst into flames.

Grasping the situation in a second, the owner and some other men pushed the car away from the pump down on to the road. In less than ten minutes the car was a wreck, for the flames fed on the oil and grease, and ate up the woodwork and upholstering of the automobile in a breath.

An explosion from the gas tank was imminent, but as the top was off the tank, it all went up in a big puff and a cloud of heavy dense smoke. The onlookers breathed a sigh of relief, nevertheless.

The Fire Department was called from Box 33, the corner of Stewart and Charlotte Streets, and smothered the fire with water, but not before it had done is worst. No insurance was carried on the little bus, which was valued at two or three hundred dollars. It presented a sorry spectacle after its roasting, and will never grace the boulevards of Peterborough again. A local junk yard will undoubtedly claim it.

Some little excitement was caused by this unusual fire, and crowds gathered from all directions to watch the little car meet its fiery destruction.

REV. W. E. M'RROW IS NOW PARK ST. PASTOR

By a unanimous standing vote Rev. W. E. Morrow of Bracebridge was appointed pastor of Park street Baptist Church and will take over his duties at the church on June 13th. Rev. Mr. Morrow will arrive in the city to-night to look for a home in the city

All services at the church yesterday were conducted by Rev. S. McCausland of Stainer and the congregation in the evening was usually large.

CONFIRMATION AT ST. JONN'S CHURCH

At the evening service at St. John's church yesterday, twenty-five candidates received the holy rite of confirmation from Bishop Reeve, who preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation. Twenty-three of the candidates were prepared for confirmation by Archdeacon Davidson, and two by Rev. Mr. James of Omemee.

Consecrated the Chancel.

During the evening His Lordship also consecrated the Chancel, the debt upon which was paid at Easter.

MONTHLY MEETING HELD ON FRIDAY

The King Edward Home and School Club held its monthly meeting on Friday afternoon, and decded to discontinue the sewing done in connection with the relief work until fall. The teachers of this district feel that no finer or more effective work of this nature has been done during the past winter by any club in the province.

Daniels Resumes Defense

CLAIMS SIMS' ATTACK WAS AN EFFORT TO MAKE A "RUBBER STAMP" OF CIVILIAN HEAD OF NAVY.

(United Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 17 (by Raymond Clapper).—An effort to Prussianise the American Navy and make a "rubber stamp" of its civilian head is behind the attack led by Rear-Admiral Sims, Secretary Daniels declared to-day.

Resuming his defence before the Senate Naval Investigating Committee, Daniels turned his heaviest guns on Sims and those supporting him.

"Let me state to you, gentlemen, and to the American people, what is behind this blatant hue and cry you have been deluded with," Daniels said.

"If you have not already seen the cloven foot, you will find a deep-seated determination to organise the Navy Department upon the approved Prussian plan by giving all power to the military and taking all away from the civilian."

THE LIFT LOCK OPENS TO-MORROW

Due to freight delivery and manufacturing conditions generally, the parts necessary for the repairs of the Lift Lock have been held up and the opening of the lock, which will take place to-morrow morning, postponed some weeks later than usual.

The Government boat, the Bessie Butler, has undergone some rather extensive repairs and is at the Lakefield dock ready for the season's work.

BUSH FIRES IN BURLEIGH

WOODS ARE DRY AS TINDER FROM LONG DROUGHT—ONE BLAZE FOURTEEN MILES WIDE.

Three serious bush fires are responsible for the hazy atmosphere to-day. The wooded cattle ranch of 300 or 400 acres belonging to J. G. Jopling and Sons, on the 16th concession of Smith, a mile or two this side of Buckhorn, caught fire on Saturday. The fire swept the entire ranch on Saturday and yesterday, spreading with great rapidity, and eating its way through the brush in spite of the efforts of the owners and a large gang of men who burnt ahead of it, cut it way, plaved chemicals on it and did everything to save the bush. The farmers of the vicinity worked unceasingly and last night the fire died down after making a clean job of the bush. To-day it is just a smoking, smouldering blackened area and the atmosphere for miles around is charged with dust and smoke.

The fire spread over on to the adjoining farm of Mr. Cullen, doing considerable damage there too.

Cattle Missing.

The Joplings had 35 head of cattle on the land that they have not been able to locate. The land is heavily underwooded but it is not expected that much damage will be done to the heavy timber unless it is killed out by the heat.

"We need a rain mighty bad — the woods are as dry as tinder," Mr. Fred Jopling said to-day.

Concern for Farmers.

Between Buckhorn and Burleigh the largest fire is raging sweeping the bush for 14 miles wide, travelling east. Considerable concern is felt for the farmers in this section.

Another large fire is in Cavendish, near Bottle Lake, which is razing the bush which is already burned and blackened with these all too frequent recurrences.

These fires are started by carelessness, and are fast leaving the northland a burnt waste. A burning match, cigar or cigarette thrown idly into the dry grass or leaves is all that is necessary to start a fire that causes thousands of dollars damage, and endangers human lives.

FLAGS DEDICATED

Vimy Ridge Troop of Boy Scouts at All Saints.

NEW YORK BARBERS ARE OUT ON STRIKE

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, May 17.—The residents of Greater New York, who had not shaved themselves in years, raked up the old razor to-day.

Ten thousand hair clippers and beard trimmers, members of the Journeymen Barbers' Union, walked out on strike at 8 a.m., when the boss barbers continued in their refusal to grant the demands for higher pay.

The demands of the barbers call for $30.00 a week and half of all they take in over $40.00. They also ask an hour for lunch and half an hour during the afternoon for tea.

A Golden Wedding

LAKEFIELD COUPLE WERE MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO.

LAKEFIELD, May 17. — A very happy event was celebrated on Saturday morning when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waldon entertained their family and relatives in honor of their golden wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldon were married fifty years ago in Chumleigh, Devonshire, and left at once for Liverool en route for Canada. Theri four sons, Messrs. John, Charles, Trude and Ernest and their three daughter, Mrs. Fred Abbott of Douro, Mrs. Thomas Cheyne of Gore's Landing and Miss Etta were all present and also their nine grand children and one great grand child ,the daughter of Mrs. Roland Darling. Also Mrs. Waldon's sisters, Mrs. S. A. Leggott and Miss Trude and Mr. W. F. Trude of Buckhorn, her brother. The house w decorated prettily for the occasio with golden flowers and the fine wedding cake was also decorated with gold. The evening was spent in social intercourse and was in every sense of the word "a family gathering." Among the relatives from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Miss Ella Waldon, Miss Clarice Snelgrove and Misses Cora and Lilian Waldon of Gore's Landing, who are cousins of Mr. Waldon and Miss Pemberthy of Peterborough, who is a daughter of a deceased sister of Mrs. Waldon.

Mr. Waldon was a famous plowman in his day and has won trophies at plowing matches both here and in England.

THE LADY OF SHALOTT

Unusual interest is being shown that Bendall's setting for ladies' voices of Tennyson's beautiful poem, The Lady of Shalott, is to be sung at the Murray street Baptist choir concert Wednesday night.

The finely trained, entirely voluntary choir of 50 voices, includes a large number of Peterborough's best known soloists. This year the choir will be composed entirely of Murray street singers and a fine picture of this organization is on view at the south window of the Peterborough Music Co. Tickets from choir members and at music stores.

SALE OF THE LATE DR. BROWN PROPERTY

The auction sale of the residence of the late Dr. Brown will take place to-morrow on the premises, No. 474 George street, opposite the Y.M.C.A. at three o'clock p.m. This is one of the best known central residences in the city, and occupies a situation so valuable that makes it a most desirable property for a down-town office, business or residence. The property must be sold in order to wind up an estate. The terms of sale have been made so convenient that the auctioneer, Mr. J. F. Thornton, feels confident that the property will readily find a new owner. See advertisement on second page.

BLINDNESS IS PREVENTABLE.

Many of the blind would now be enjoying the blessings of vision had proper measures been taken early enough. The same is true of failing sight. Worn in time, Glasses not only improve vision, but prevent complications that require complicated lenses. See W. H. Lacey, Optical Specialist, 410 George Street.

British Exports of Coal

FRANCE CONCLUDES A SPECIAL AGREEMENT WITH GREAT BRITAIN—REPARATION AMOUNT.

(United Press.)

LONDON, May 17.—France will receive 45 per cent. of the British coal exports, under an agreement reached by Prime Minister Lloyd-George, Premier Orlando, and Premier Millerand in their conference at Hythe, according to the Evening Telegram.

The conference, which started on Saturday morning, closed late yesterday, Premier Millerand going aboard a destroyer at Folkestone to sail for home.

The Exchange Telegraph Co. outlined the Premier's statement on parallel liquidation as follows:

If Germany fails to pay any indemnities to France for two years, France may withhold payment of her debt to Britain for a similar period.

TOTAL REPARATION.

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, May 17.—It is understood in official circles here that the Anglo-French conference at Hythe, which closed yesterday, decided that the sum total which Germany should pay as reparation would be fixed at approximately $30,000,000,000.00.

THE ODDFELLOWS WENT TO CHURCH

DR. WALTER ARCHBALD ADDRESSED THE MEMBERS.

LAKEFIELD, May 17. — About thirty members of the Lakefield lodge of Oddfellows marched to St. John's church on Sunday evening to service.

The beautiful service, which was interspersed with suitable familiar hymns, was greatly appreciated by the Oddfellows.

Dr. Walter Archbold gave a rousing address, which made a strong appeal to them as individual men to live up to the levels and principles of their order.

The constitution of the society has as its base a belief in the Supreme Being and this goes farther in uphold. ing the doctrine of the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God. The motto or watchword of the society is Friendship, Love and Truth. Friendship in its highest meaning toward one's fellow members and their dependents Love is greatest for God is love and Christianity is love. There are men going over the country today denouncing secret societies as opposed to Christianity, but the first record in the world of a pass-word is in the Christian church in its early days when these professing the faith met in secret and greeted on another with their pass-word. This was in the days when the Christians were thrown to the lions in the Colliseum of Rome, and persecution was rife in all lands.

Dr. Archbold implored them not to allow their lodge to be a substitute for church going but to be worthy followers of religion, for if they are good Christians they will be good Oddfellows.

Dr. Archbold extended, on behalf of himself and the officials of the church a hearty wlcome to the visiting brethren.

Mrs. Osborne sang as a solo a beautiful setting of "Son of My Soul" in a most acceptable manner.

3,500 CARRANZISTS TAKEN PRISONER

Canadian Press.

VERA CRUZ, May 17. — Mexican revolutionary troops commanded by Generals Sanchez and Aglar are pursuing President Carranza and troops which fled with him from the battlefields at San Marcos, on Friday.

Government forces numbering 3500 were captured by revolutionary troops following the escape of Carranza. General Liberato Torres, who was wounded in the fighting on May 13th ,and was brought to the city, is dead.

General Candido Aguilar, Governor of the Vera Cruz state, and son-in-law of President Carranza, who has been virtually a prisoner of the revolutionary forces near Orizaba, escaped last night. It is believed that he is trying to reach Carranza, who fled into the mountains near Chalchicomula on Friday, and who so far as is known, has not yet been located. General Aguilar has with him about three hundred of his followers.

A good sandwich is made of cheese spread with French mustard — very thin.

LATEST RETURNS ON SWISS REFERENDUM

(United Press.)

PARIS, May 17.—The latest returns on the Swiss Referendum on the League of Nations, which was balloted on yesterday, showed a vote of 405,000 in favour of Swiss adhesion to the League to 321,000 against, a Basle despatch said.

The German-speaking cantons showed a majority against the League.

A PICTURE FILM OF LOCAL FACTORY

MR. W. R. BREYFOGLE WILL GIVE AN ADDRESS.

The initiative ability of the De Laval Manufacturing Company is again to be demonstrated in a form of advertising by the use of a moving picture film.

This form of advertising is not new by any means but the De Laval is the first business in the city to take advantage of it. The film will be used in some two hundred theatres throughout Canada, and will no doubt have the effect of advertising the city and its industrial activities.

The film, in charge of Mr. W. R. Breyfogle, general manager of the De Laval Manufacturing Co., will be shown in the Board of Trade Chambers this (Monday) evening at eight o'clock. During the showing of the film, Mr. Breyfogle will explain its various phases.

Owing to the limited capacity of the Chambers, the business and professional men only are invited.

The showing of this film will demonstrate the advertising possibilities in securing a film covering the whole city. A thousand-foot film of Peterborough would cost approximately $600.00.

INSPIRING MESSAGE BY BISHOP W. D. REEVE OF TORONTO—THE MORNING SERVICE.

LAKEFIELD, May 17.—The apostolic rite of Confirmation was administered by Bishop W. D. Reeve, assistant Bishop of Toronto, in St. John's Church, Lakefield, on Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock service. A class of eighteen were confirmed—five of them being adults. The church was filled almost to capacity for the beautiful and impressive service. The Bishop took as texts part of the 15th verse of the 3rd chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew: "For thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness," and the 11th verse of the 6th chapter of the Epistle to the Hebrews: "And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end."

The Lord's Presence.

The Bishop spoke of our Lord's presence in the crowds gathered at the River Jordan to hear the famous preacher, John the Baptist, preaching to the people and baptising those who desired it. It was a great surprise to St. John when our Lord presented Himself for baptism, and he demurred as he felt unworthy to baptise Him, who was his Lord and Master. But our Lord overcame all objections and was baptised, and straightway the heavens opened and the spirit of God in the form of a dove descended on Him, and the voice of God came from heaven, saying: "This is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased." It was as though it was our Lord's confirmation as well as His baptism, as the spirit of God descends on us at Confirmation, though not in visible form as in our Lord's case, but in the laying on of hands, which was practised by the apostles from the earliest days of the Church. And while the voice of God is not audible to our outward ears, it nevertheless speaks to each one in their hearts (the voice of conscience), telling them they are doing the right thing.

Duty to God.

One question in the Presbyterian Catechism is "What is man's chief end?" and the answer is "Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy Him for ever." So we must recognise our duty to glorify God in our work (if it is honest work), no matter how commonplace it may be. The great Spurgeon, the Baptist preacher, once asked a girl if she was converted,and on her reply that she was, he asked how she knew, and she said: "Oh, sir, I sweep under the mats now." And this is what we should do—do our work thoroughly so that God, whose all-seeing eye goes beyond our earthly vision can see our honesty of purpose. The Forward Movment, which was carried on so successfully this winter in its financial aspect, has only begun, as we still have the spiritual side, which is even more important. Many people respond generously to the call for money, but will not come to church. If all the people who should come to church did so, there would have to be more churches. In Toronto alone there are 104,000 Anglicans—over 50,000 more than the Presbyterians, and 60,000 in excess of the Methodists who come third. The Confirmation is a Forward Movement which goes on unceasingly till life ends, and even after that.

Let us set to work to encourage non-churchgoers to go to church. The confirmed drunkard or criminal does not get as many followers as the respectable citizen, and so when he does not go to church or respect his religion, he does more harm than the openly bad man. During the War, our soldiers' noble work raised Canada to a very high place in the history of the world, and are we going to let it sink down again? It is our duty individually to keep the name of Canada high in the world of nations. We have a splendid heritage, and let us be worthy of it.

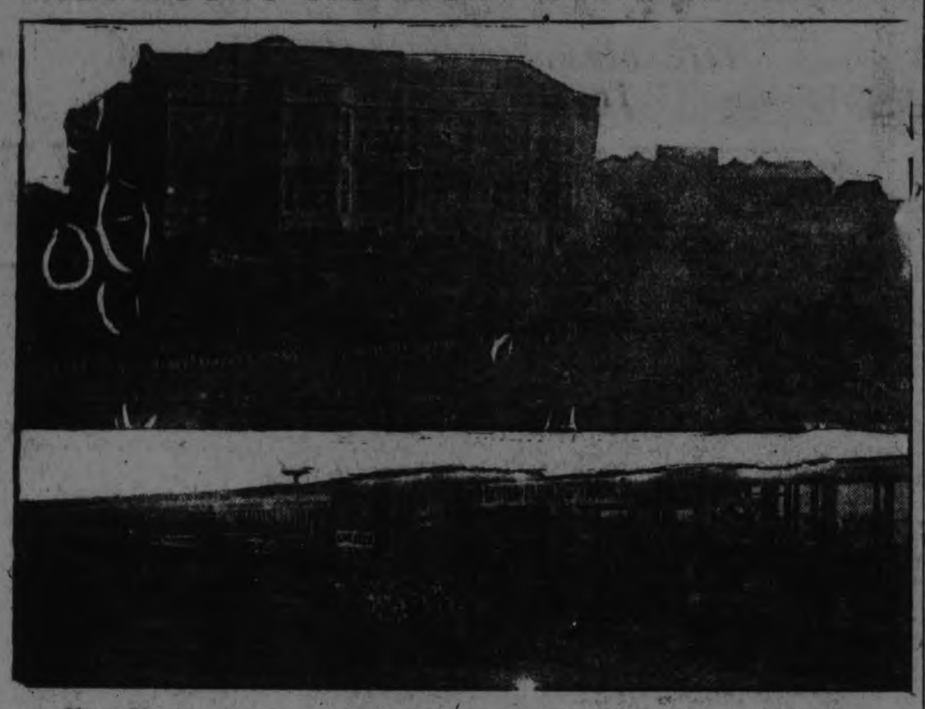
DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVE GOURLAY PIANOS

SASKATOON'S UNIVERSITY FOR THE PRAIRIE.



Upper Picture.—One end of the Administration Building, University of Saskatchewan, with the Engineering Building in the background.

Long after the ivy peered in at the upper windows of such splendid universities as Oxford, Cambridge or Harvard, such an institution as the University of Saskatchewan had not even been imagined. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who laid the corner stone of this new university July 29th, 1910, was a student poring over his books few but Indians had stood on the height of land which is the site of the buildings shown in the accompanying photographs, and watched the waters of the South Saskatchewan River gliding swiftly and silently northward.

Although the prairie soil was as rich and the river as broad and full then as now, the City of Saskatoon was unconceived. Even as late as twenty years ago, where now stands a city of 30,000 people on three lines of railway, there were not one hundred men, women and children and these were housed in a few tents and shacks. The wildest enthusiast would hardly have dared to prophesy that one day a university would grow there—yet there it stands!

The buildings of the University of Saskatchewan crown the height of land north east of Saskatoon and the site could hardly have been more fortunately chosen. It includes half a mile of well-wooded river front and altogether embraces 1,338 acres of rich land, 393 acres of which are set aside for a campus, 160 acres for purposes of agricultural experimentation and 450 for the Agricultural College farm. The plan provides for the eventual accommodation of 5,000 students.

The present buildings consists of an administration building, containing a hall and offices for the different departments as well as class rooms, two students' residences, one containing a spacious dining hall and the other a gymnasium and swimming pool; an engineering building; livestock pavilion and up-to-date model farm buildings. All the buildings conform to the preconceived plan and will, like those already erected, be of stone in the Gothic style. Work has just recently begun on a new science building. There are also several private residences on the campus, the two principal stone ones provided for in the architect's plan being those of the President of the University and the Dean of Agriculture. The buildings of Emmanuel College, a church of England Divinity School, the first of its kind in Saskatchewan also occupy a part of the campus. The University grants sites of from three to five acres to such affiliated colleges at a nominal rental. Eight thousand dollars has already been subscribed towards a beautiful structure which will be the home of the Presbyterian College.

The university provides degrees in Arts, Science, Law, Agriculture, Civil Engineering and a Diploma in Pharmacy.

The present enrolment is between 1,400 and 1,500, including returned soldiers who are retraining in various branches of skilled work, particularly engineering. Scores of promising returned soldiers have been turned out as capable motor mechanics. Steam engineering and the handling and repairing of farm tractors are also taught. Agricultural students, principally the sons of farmers, are training in livestock handling and judging, and even in the care and management of poultry.

An important feature of the work of the University of Saskatchewan has been its Extension Department consisting of short instructional courses at seasonable times for farmers and farmers' wives. Each year a special train is fitted out and a regular course of instruction mapped out including lectures to farmers. This train is widely advertised as the "Better Farming Train." It makes a tour of the Province, stopping at all important points and the farmers drive in for miles to examine the exhibits, talk over their problems with experts and hear the lectures. Realizing that the average busy farmer cannot go to the University, an effort is made to take the University to him and to let him know at first hand the results of experiments with special varities of grain, the latest information about methods of soil tillage, and the like.

During the recent winter evening lecture courses have been given at a nominal fee for the benefit of city residents. Some of the best educated people in the community have attended these classes.

From an educational standpoint Saskatoon offers as great opportunities as any city in Canada. Complete training from Kindergarten to University is provided through a fine set of public schools, thirteen large public schools, which ranged in cost from $115,000.00 to $156,000.00 at pre-war building prices. An accompanying photograph shows two of them in one block in the working class section of the city. The enrolment of pupils in the public schools is now well over 4,000.

The Collegiate Institute, which provides the intermediate stage between the Public Schools and the University, has an enrolment of about 2,000.

VETERANS AND THISTLES WIN OPENING CITY LEAGUE GAMES

G.W.V.A. BEAT CANADIAN WOOLLENS BY 12 TO 3, WHILE THE THISTLES HAMMER FROST HARD AND WIN EASILY FROM CANADIAN GENERAL BY 9 RUNS TO 2.

OPENING A BIG SUCCESS

The local baseball season was ushered in most auspiciously on Saturday afternoon at Riverside Park when the City League made its 1920 debut with a double header, proceeded by the usual frills attendant upon such occasions. The Great War Veterans and the Thistles were the winning aggregations, the former beating the Canadian Woollens 12 to 3 and the Yeotes crew triumphing over the Canadian General crowd by 9 runs to 2. Both games were seven innings affairs.

Everything combined to make the opening a success The weather man produced the finest afternoon in weeks, the fans turned out in large numbers and the baseball played, considering the few opportunities the raw cold weather has given the teams to practice, was good. The majority of the fans who always scrutinize the City League games with an eye to Central League possibilities, went away satisfied that Peterborough will be represented in Sandy Lockington's circuit by a hustling ball club that should be strong in all departments.

The afternoon's programme opened with a motor parade from the Y.M.C.A., headed by the band of the G.W.V.A., which gave its services for the good of the cause and also played a number of selections at the grounds. The players of the four teams were in line in the procession. When the park was reached, Mayor McIntyre declared the season open and went to the mound to pitch the first ball. Ald. Crowe was the batsman and Ald. Phelan did the receiving .The Mayor's first offering was fouled, but Ald. Crowe hit the next one safely and the season was on.

The First Gane.

Lew Lebarr's G.W.V.A team had not much difficulty in cleaning up the first game from Canadian Woollens. Manager Alan Wade was on the rubber for the winners and he turned in an excellent game, showing good control and a slow curve mixed with a fast one that held the Woollen men in check. He allowed only five scattered hits and gave but one complimentary, and with perfect support would not have been scored upon.

McClintock, the left hander from Kitchener, was Manager Mulhall's choice, and the southpaw was in difficulties all the way. The Vets totk a liking to his offerings from the go-in and in five sessions had accumulated twelve runs and thirteen hits off him. Len Johnston went in the sixth and stopped their fun, blanking them for the last two innings. The score would have been closer if he had been called upon earlier.

The Vets, outside of the veteran Gus Rose, who was guilty of three errors, fielded in good style and Rose made up for his misplay in the field by leading his team in run-getting.

The fielding feature was contributed by Chris. Bergoine and Hubert Legros in the first innings. With a man on the bases Anderson rolled one in front of the plate. Bergoine dashed out and with a quick throw to Legros got the batter at first and Legros returned to the plate to nail Morse as he slid in . It was the snappiest bit of fielding of the game.

The Veterans got one in the first with two out. Morse walked and stole second. Anderson rolled one in front of the plate and was out at first on a nice play by Bergoine, while Legros returned the ball to the catcher in time to double Morse at the plate, a lightning double play. Murphy was safe on Russell's fumble and Rose was hit. Campbell beat out a hit to short, Murphy scoring. Wade rolled to Mulhall.

In their half the Woollens were blanked. Heenan fanned. Gus Rose tossed out Legros and Mulhall flied to Foley.

In the second, after Foley was out on a foul bunt on the third strike, and Legros had fouled out to Begoine, Jackson walked and stole. Russell's fumble on Morse's grounder, sent him home. Anderson singled on a line to centre, but Murphy rolled to short.

For the Woollens, Bergoine fanned. Coughlin went to second on Anderson's high throw to first. Russell was safe on Rose's fumble. A wild pitch scored Coughlin, but Gilchrist rolled to Wade and Legon gobbled up Kennedy's fly.

The third was a nightmare for Canadian Woollens. Rose was safe on Kennedy's error. Campbell fanned. Wade singled to right, sending Rose to third. Infield hits by Foley and Legon, Field's infield out, Coughlin to Legros and Morse's long double to left, sent four runs clattering over the plate before the side was finally retired on Anderson's fly to centre.

The ultimate losers got two back in their half. After McClintock had fanned, two errors in succession by Rose on grounders from Heenan and Legros, with Mulhall's infield out and a single to right by Bergoine, the first hit off Wade, scored two runs.

The Vets got four more in the fourth. Murphy scratched a hit to second and Rose was hit. Campbell fouled to Bergoine and Wade struck out, but Foley, Legon and Field came through with singles, and four big runs registered before McClintock ended the innings by grabbing Morse's fly.

Woollens went out in order, Russell, Gilchrist and Kennedy all expiring on flies that were taken care of by Field, Legon and Murphy.

In the fifth Anderson opened for the Vets with a single to left, and after Murphy had flied out, Rose singled to right. Campbell's infield out Wade's hit through the box, and an error by McClintock chased home a pair of counters.

For the losers, McClintock hoisted to Foley, Heenan rolled to Wade and Legros singed, but was out stealing, Morse to Rose.

Johnston went into the box for the Woollens in the sixth and the Veterans' run-getting stopped right there. Rutherford died on a foul fly to Legros. Morse singled. Anderson ranned and Murphy flied to Mulhall.

Wade grabbed Mulhall's line drive in the Canadian Woollens' half. Bergine walked and Smith singled to right, but Russell and Gilchrist struck out.

The Veterans were blanked again in the seventh. Rose fanned. Campbell hit safely, but was forced at second on Wad'es samsh to Johnston, and Foley fanned.

Kennedy opened the Woolens' half with a single through short and Johnston singled to right. Kennedy died stealing third. Heenan rolled to Wade and Legros to Rose, and the game was over.

The lop-sided score in the second game was a surprise to most of the fans, and especially to the Canadian General team. A close hard game was looked for, the teams on paper shaping up on very even terms.

The Thistles, however, won, going away by 9 runs to 2 ,thanks to their own hard hitting and the skill with which their pitchers baffled the Electricians. The veteran Kirn, who twirled the first five innings for Manager Yeotes' gang was in mid-season form and had the C.G.E. outfit tied in a knot, showing a bunch of speed and a sharp breaking curve, while his control was excellent. Four hits and one unearned run, the result of a bad throw across the diamond by Harrison, was all the Electricians could do with him, and he finished the fifth in a blaze of glory when, after McCarney and Frost had singled, he whiffed Collins, Cherrett and Connors in a row. "Hap" Harrison did the gunning in the last two innings and fanned five men, his smoke being too much for the losers, although McCarney and Cherrett bunched hits in the seventh for the only earned run the C.G.E. gang got.

Bun Frost was Manager Rahmel's pitching selection, and his slants seemed to be just to the liking of the winners, who combed him for fourteen hits, four of them doubles in the seven innings. "Micky" Murray and Max Swanston led the assault with thee safe blows in five trips to the plate. Murray had two doubles and a single and was robbed of another two base drive by a circus catch by Lornie Rose. Swanston came through with three singles and lost a fourth through Cherrett's fine capture of his smoking liner between short and third. Kirn, Shaugnessy and Lowe helped themselves to two safeties, and altogether the Thistles had a merry afternoon with the willow.

"Hap" Harhison, after making three of the hardest hit fouls ever seen at Riverside, failed to hit safely, although he had a sacrifice hit that would have been good for two sacks at least if Connors had not been playing out in the next county for him.

Both teams turned in some nice fielding. Rose's catch already mentioned, Cherrett's grab of Swanston's liner and his equally fine play on Adams' grounder past third, on which he forced Kirn at second, being the features.

The superiority of the Thistles' pitching made the game an easy one for them, but the fans enjoyed the contest in spite of the big score.

Alex Kay behind the hat and Harold Long on the bases, handled both games in good style.

The Thistls got off to a good start. After Adams had died on a nice play by Ray Rose, Lowe singled over second. Murray doubled to left, scoring Lowe. Murray kept right on going on the throw to the plate, and when Ross tossed wide to third the Thistles third sacker scored. Swanston singled over second. Harrison, after a mammoth foul, fanned. Shaughnessy was safe on Collins' fumble, but Holyman flied out.

The C.G.E. failed to score in their half, although Collins, the first man up, was safe on Kirn's fumble. Cherrett was out for bunting the third strike foul. Connors forced Collins. Butcher to Holyman, and Kirn tossed out Ross.

With one out in the second, Kirn beat out a roller to third and was sacrificed to the middle station by Adams. Lowe made the third out on a fly to Jackson.

Ray Rose opened the C.G.E. half with a single and went to second on Jackson's roller to Butcher. L. Rose struck out, his brother stealing third on the third one. Murray was spiked in making the play but stayed in the game. McCarney ended it with a fly to Adams.

In the third Lornie Rose made a fine catch of Murray's fly to deep left. Swanston singled through the box. Harrison fanned. Shaughnessy singled to right, sending Swanston to third, but Ray Rose made a nice stop of Holyman's high bounder and got the runner.

For C.G.E. Frost fanned and Collins lined to Murray. Cherrett doubled over Adams' head and went right on to third, making that station when Murray juggled the throw. Connors died on a smash which rebounded off Harrison's shins to Kirn, who shot the ball back to Harrison for the third out. Both these plays were close.

With one down in the fourth, Kirn was safe on Collins' error. Adams sacrificed and Lowe pushed a single past third to score Kirn. Murray grounded to Cherrett.

The Electricians got that one back in their half. Ross walked and stole second. Ray Rose hoisetd one to Harrison. Jackson grounded to Holyman, but Harrison threw low to third trying to head off Ross and the base runner scored. Kirn threw out Lornie Rose.

Cherrett made a great catch of Swanston's line drive in the fifth and Lornie Rose, playing third in place of Collins, who went to right field, while Connors moved to left, got Harrison on a grass cutter to third. Shaughnessy singled to left and Holyman followed with a double which Connors misjudged, "Shag" scoring. Butcher rolled to Lornie Rose.

The C.G.E. got off to a good start in their half, when McCarney singled through Butcher and Frost hit safely to right, sending McCarney to third. Kirn, however, was master of the situation, striking Collins, Cherrett and Cononrs out in succession.

Louis Yeotes' team cinched the game in the sixth. Kirn opened with a double and Adams was safe on Cherrett's fumble. Lowe's sacrifice fly scored Kirn. Murray doubled to right centre, scoring Adams. Swanston dropped a Texas Leaguer into short left and Harrison boomed a long fly

TYRONE POWER

Few roles enacted on the stage have made the instantaneous impression created by Tyrone Power's interpretation of the character of Father Petrovich the intolerant, Russian priest, in the powerful drama of "The Little Brother," by Milton Goldsmith, and Benedict James ,on it's initial New York production. The great success attending Mr. Power's tour last season with the play have induced the Trans-Canada Theatres Limited, to present it to Canadian audiences with Tyrone Power in the original role, and he will play an engagement of one day at the Grand, on Monday, May 24th, in this sterling drama.

William Winter, the dean of dramatic critics on this continent, and one of the ablest and most scholarly writers on things dramatic, wrote of Power's work, thus.

"Stalwart in figure, pictorial in aspect, rugged in manner, bold in style, broad in gesture, various in vocalism, steadily propulsive in action, he made the part surprisingly graphic. I have seen no other contemporary actor, who liberating into the assumed identity the surge of the profound emotion and abounding enthusiasm, could have done more to vitalize the character and made it seem possible."

WHY DIDN'T YOU TAKE KISS? IS GIRL'S TAUNT

The ways of women are illustrated in the picture "In Old Kentucky," featuring Anita Stewart, when the rough mountaineer tries to make love to the little mountain girl. Clumsily he tries to put his arm about her waist, and pleads for a kiss. She eludes him, and after she is at safe distance, taunts him with: "Why didn't you take it. You are big enough.' This picture of the life of the mountaineers of old Kentucky and of the city folk with their racing and hunting and night riding for outlaws will be shown at the Allen Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

KING EDWARD PARK.

A Princess Street resident has written the newspapers protesting against the proposed action of the City Council in cutting up King Edward Park into building lots for the purpose of erecting houses. There is much food for thought in his letter, especially his reference to the difficulty and expense that may be involved in providing sewer accommodation for the proposed houses in view of the troublesome quicksand in the section. This point is one that will have to be considered before final action is decided upon.

He is undoubtedly right, too, in his objection to the principle of doing away with a park for building purposes. However, as he admits, "King Edward Park as such is not much to blow about." And the question of a park for that section of the city could be solved by the purchase and improving of the Exhibition Grounds, according to the plans that the directors have in view. Were this to be done, the residents of the south section of the city would probably have little objection to the wiping out of King Edward Park, which, after all, has received little attention from the authorities, and in its present condition can hardly be called "a thing of beauty and a joy for ever."

MAKE SURE OF IT.

The Canadian Raybestos Company by-law, which is to be voted upon on Wednesday, is a measure that should commend itself to the ratepayers, for it gives the city a new and most promising industry upon very easy terms so far as Peterborough is concerned.

The Raybestos Company, the first concern of the kind in Canada, is regarded as having a bright future, with every prospect of rapid development and expansion. It will prove a very excellent addition to Peterborough's manufacturing plants, and every ratepayer who has the interests of the city at heart should help to make sure of this industry by voting for the by-law on Wednesday.

The company intend to purchase the Lundy Shovel and Tool plant, reconstruct it, erect two other buildings, and spend $50,000.00 in repairs, building operations, and securing the necessary site. Within three months after the passing of the by-law they will have at least twenty-five employees at work, and in fifteen months guarantee to give employment to at least seventy-five, although the probabilities are that that number will be exceeded, for it is expected that the products manufactured by the company will be in ever-increasing demand. The ratepayers should not fail to vote for the Raybestos by-law—it means another step towards that bigger Peterborough about which people are so fond of talking.

A NECESSARY CHANGE.

The change in the traffic by-law suggested by Ald. Gordon, and passed by the Legal Committee the other night, by which drivers of automobiles shall be be allowed to turn their cars around only at street intersections, is a safety measure that is badly needed. There are far too many drivers who have got into the habit of turning around anywhere the notion takes them, and regardless of whether or not they happen to be on a busy thoroughfare. Several collisions have happened recently as a result of this practice, and in many other cases there have been some very narrow escapes from bad accidents.

When the traffic by-law is changed, it is hoped that the police will see that this section is carried out, for it will be a valuable preventative against accidents. But even in turning at corners there are many drivers who are careless in their habits, and who fail to give a signal with their arm that they propose to make a turn. It is a simple precaution, but an important one, and all motorists who have any commonsense, and who are not indifferent to their own safety and that of others will see that it is carried out. The rapidly increasing number of motor cars makes it absolutely necessary that there shall not only be adequate traffic regulations, but that they shall be carried out in spirit and letter. The man who makes an abrupt turn in the middle of a busy block, or who turns suddenly at a street corner without signalling his intention to do so, is a menace to himself and to everybody else, and if his own intellect does not tell him so, there will have to be some more emphatic way of teaching him that "safety first" should be the motto of every motorist.

And in this connection, in spite of several fatalities that have been caused by this practice, there are still motorists who run by a standing street car from which passengers are alighting. It is impossible for the police to get all such offenders, but the street railway employees should have no compunctions about securing and reporting the numbers of the cars that pass by under such circumstances. They would be doing a great service to the people generally if they succeeded in rounding up the criminally careless drivers who gamble with death by ignoring this section of the traffic regulations.

THE SALVATION ARMY DRIVE.

Peterborough's opportunity of participating in the world-wide jubilee self-denial campaign of the Salvation Army is at hand, for the local drive in this great effort commenced on Saturday, and will be continued throughout the present week. The local objective is $5,000, and the members of the Peterborough Corps have pledged themselves to contribute $1,000 of the amount on their own account, leaving but $4,000 for the rest of the community to subscribe.

The sum aimed at in Peterborough should be far exceeded if the subscriptions are in proportion to the merit of the cause. It is almost unnecessary to refer to the good work of the Salvation Army, for it is so generally known and so thoroughly appreciated that eulogies seem superfluous. Everyone knows what the men and women of the Army have done and are doing. Everybody knows how they have gone alone and undaunted where others' hearts have failed them—out into the streets, down into the slums, into sordid dens of iniquity, vice, and disease, among the despised, the shunned, the outcast and the fallen.

The Salvation Army has had fifty years of service throughout the world. It appeals to the people for help at this jubilee occasion, basing its claims upon the record established in that time. The courage, humility, personal sacrifice, practical Godliness, cheerful willingness, and the world-wide experience of the Army all justify the appeal, and are reasons for a hearty response in the present campaign.

"Never did the world's humanity stand in greater need of moral and spiritual help to re-gather its dissipated forces and reconstruct its moral and material defences," declared Sir George Foster, in endorsing the Salvation Army drive. And he adds: "It follows that never did the Salvation Army have so wide an opportunity for fulfilling its unique mission."

The sum asked of Peterborough has been purposely limited, as in every other centre, to an amount so small that it can readily be subscribed without being burdensome to anybody. The campaign richly deserves support, and Saturday should find Peterborough with the objective left far behind.

MR. WILSON'S NAVAL STRATEGY.

As part of his answer to the disclosures regarding the attitude of the United States Navy Deparment early in the war made by Rear Admiral Sims, Secretary Daniels has made public an address delivered by President Wilson to the officers of the American Atlantic Fleet on board the flagship Pennsylvania in August, 1917. It was a rather remarkable utterance, and it may easily be understood why nothing of it was released to the public at the time.

President Wilson in that address was urging the American Navy to go to it and win the war. He was not satisfied with what the British Navy was doing and had an idea that there was some simple way of ending the submarine menace if someone would only think of it. He complained to the officers of the Atlantic Fleet that American suggestions had not been acted upon by the British Admiralty. "Every time we have suggested anything to the British Admiralty the reply has come back that virtually amounted to this, that it had never been done that way, and I felt like saying: 'Well, nothing was ever done so systematically as nothing is being done now,'" said President Wilson. Therefore, he wanted to see something unusual happen, something that was never done before, and so he advised the American naval officers to "throw tradition to the winds."

Perhaps the British Navy and the brains of the Admiralty did not measure up to the problem presented by the submarine situation. They may have been too timid, and they may have failed in strategy. But President Wilsn hardly did them justice in suggesting that they were doing nothing. He himself had no solution for the problem other than the vague notion that the submarines should be attacked at their bases He was willing he declared, to sacrifice half the American Navy to destroy the bases, but there was no assurance that such sacrifice would accomplish its purpose. And if Britain had sacrificed half her navy in such an attempt and it had failed, where would she have been. A large part of her navy was required in distant waters, and the United States Navy Department, as has been disclosed, was unwilling to send all the ships to the North Sea that were wanted. The British Navy made the winning of the war possible by keeping the German fleet bottled up and helpless. Had half the navy been sacrificed in a wild attempt on German bases and had that attempt failed it might not have been possible to keep the German fleet impotent.

Eventually such a plan as President Wilson was thinking vaguely of was carried out by the British Navy and finally succeeded—the attacks on Zeebrugge and other bases. But these efforts were only possible after careful planning and there was never any certainty of success. Earlier efforts were abortive

Just what the British Navy would have accomplished more than it did accomplish by "throwing tradition to the winds" is difficult to imagine. The first naval engagement of the war, that in Heligoland Bight, put such a fear into the enemy that he never after that ventured far from his fortified bases in any strength. The individual engagements which freed the seas from German armed raiders were also of some account, surely, and the summary bringing to account of von Spee's squadron in the South Atlantic. And in these actions traditions were not thrown away.

The submarine warfare presented a problem which past experience did not help to solve, but even in that the traditions of the British Navy stood the Allies in good stead. The trawlers and the "Q" ships which risked almost certain destruction daily in combatting the German pirates were inspired by British naval traditions. So were the men of the merchant marine, whose heroism and determination did as much as anything else to foil the German plan for bringing England to her knees.

Get all the Tire Mileage You Buy!

THE average motorist is only getting about 60 to 80 per cent. of the mileage which is built into his tires at the factory.

This is the basic reason behind the Goodyear Service Station policy and Goodyear Tire Savers.

Many tires are ruined by poor tubes and lack of tube care.

Buy good tubes and give them the best of care.

Clean the rust from rims when you change a tire.

Be sure the inside of the casing is clean before you insert the tube.

Learn to use a sprinkle of Goodyear French Talc to prevent chafing and friction.

Keep your valves clean and air-tight, and the air-pressure up.

Carry spare tubes in Goodyear Tube bags to prevent injury by loose tools and from chafing.

Let your Goodyear Service Station Dealer show you the advantages of Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes, and how to use the Goodyear Tube Repair Kit.

He is glad to do this, and many other things that save tires, to increase your mileage. He knows that long mileage tires bring customers to him.

He is taught by Goodyear that low-cost-per-mile has built for Goodyears the largest sale of any tire in the world.

To supplement his work, we will gladly send you, free, our Tire Conservation Course. Write us at Toronto for this course.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

ALICE SLOANE VISITS SANDRA.

Chapter 124.

In spite of the fact that I had come to like Irma Barton I could not help a feeling of relief when she was safely married. I had been so jealous of her—although without any particular reason—that just knowing she was beyond Everett's reach was comforting.

One thing was sure. Everett remained at home more often in the evening. Of course her marriage broke up the delightful card parties she used to give—delightful to those invited. And he had one less excuse to remain out. I had learned to play a fair game and we occasionally asked Alice and Duane Sloane over to play. You see it is hard to entertain a middle aged husband when you are young. If you invite young people he is bored; if you invite people his age you are bored. But it doesn't seem to make much difference in playing bridge whether one is young or old if they can play a fairly good game.

I tried in other ways too to make home attractive. I had practised daily since he gave me the baby grand piano and occasionally we would have, a musical evening. I had read somewhere that it was the wife's fault if her husband spent his evening's out—that it was because he was not interested and entertained at home. But I dont' believe whoever wrote that was young and had married a middle aged man with his habits all fixed.

A club is a habit like anything else. At least his club was with Everett. I tried not to be unhappy when he said he was going there, tried to think how much better it was than if he were going to see some woman—like Walter Kemp did—but often I felt abused, neglected, because of that old club which seemed to hold so much of interest for him.

"I declare if you aren't jealous of that poor man's club," Alice Sloane with whom I had become very intimate, teased. I had been grumbling that I could not get Everett to play cards that evening because he had telephoned me he would not be home for dinner; that he was going to dine at the club.

Then she added: "Seriously, Sandra I think it is better for men and women both occasionally to spend an evening or several of them for that matter apart. We get stale. Who I heard a woman say the other day that she 'knew what her husband was going to say before he even opened his mouth! Think how awful that would be! I am always rather glad when Duane gives me an evening by myself—that is of course provided I know where he is. I fuss about and look over a lot of rubbish and try new ways of combing my hair—and a thousand and one things I wouldn't do if he were at home."

"But you could do all these things during the day and so have the evening together," I objected.

"No, I couldn't—I am always being interrupted. Then too, it isn't half the fun to do them days. But aside from all that, my dear Sandra, I love Duane. I don't want him to tire of me. I would feel terribly to have him say he knew what I was going to say every time that I opened my mouth, as that woman did of her husband. I try to study and read too when I am alone. A woman cant' get by now adays with the ease that she used to. There are too many of us and some are too clever by far."

"You funny girl. I didn't know you were so serious."

"Serious! that's only sensible. By the way, I have joined a morning reading club. Won't you go too?"

"Of course I will—I'd be delighted too." Then I added: "That is if Everett doesn't object. He is rather difficult and particular about some things—where I go ,with whom I associate. He thinks me a baby yet, even if I have a big boy."

"I'm flattered that he thinks me all right," Alice said, laughingly as she rose to go. "Dont' forget to ask him about the class; and don't be jealous of his club."

"I'll remember, and I'll try not to be jealous."

BICYCLE APPEALS TO THE INDIANS

Interests Him More Than the Complicated Machinery of Civilization.

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 15.—The Indians, who were brought to Winnipeg from the far north to participate in the Hudson's Bay anniversary pageant, some of whom had never been in a large city before, when asked what they thought was the most wonderful thing witnessed here, declared it to be the bicycle. The reason for this, it is said, is because he can see the working of the bicycle, whereas he fails to undestand in the slightest the wonderful mechanism of the locomotive engine, the airplane, the automobile or the immense structures of the city. The bicycle with its simple mechanism appeals to the Indian's mind, and interests him much more than the more complicated machinery of modern civilization.

SHORT OF BREATH
Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for anv heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, allgone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N.S., writes:—"I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

A REALISTIC ANSWER.

The Sentry Didn't Have to Go Into Details With the Officer.

During one of Haig's attacks on the Hindenburg line a "Minnie" had come over and knocked all the stuffing out of a sentry. He staggered to his feet—except for the tremendous shaking, practically unhurt—fighting for breath, which he could not get back for some minutes. While he was so standing a young officer, newly out, turned the corner of the trench. There was a heavy bombardment on. The unexperienced young officer, not knowing what had happened and seeing the sentry rifleless (his rifle had been blown many yards away), knees bent, body limp, eyes half out of his head and mouth (half full of dust) gaping open like a loosened sack head, inquired, "Well, what's the matter with you?"

The man tried to answer, but had no breath to do so, and, knocked silly as he was by the shock, gaped helplessly and idiotically at the officer, who said again, this time more sharply, "What's the matter with you?"

At that moment over came another "Minnie," falling sufficiently near the officer to serve him exactly as the previous one had served the sentry. As half blinded, wholly smothered and three-quarters stunned the officer stumbled to his feet the sentry ran forward to help him up. Then, standing the regulation two paces away, the sentry came smartly to attention and, ceremoniously saluting, said, "Beg pardon, sir; I couldn't answer before, but that's what was the matter with me."—London Chronicle.

OUR LAGGING WORLD.

Its Motion Is Slowing, and the Day Is Growing Longer.

Our earth appears to be slowing down its spin. Two British astronomers who have finished a long study of the matter report that it now takes almost exactly three seconds longer for the world to turn over once than it took 100 years ago, and a century hence still another three seconds will have been added to the day.

At this rate Shakespeare had nearly ten seconds less in his twenty-four hours than has a modern dramatist. William the Conqueror was handicapped a half minute in keeping up with his descendants. Julius Caesar was a whole minute to the bad, while even if he had lived to old age his life would still have been some twenty of our days short of what his biographers would have claimed for him.

Abraham and the early Pharaohs would have been still more pressed for time. The earliest men, say in the year 100,000 B. C., would have had no use for "How to Live on Twenty-four Hours a Day," for they had only twenty-three hours to do their living in and were really only seventy-six years old when they thought they had reached fourscore.—Edwin Tenney Brewster in St. Nicholas.

Ma Didn't Understand.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unenameled tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for disease germs to enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

Y.W.C.A. ACTIVITIES FOR COMING WEEK

Although the gymnasium classes are over for the season, there are still numerous activities at the Young Women's Christian Association. On Tuesday night the Athena Club will meet at the Association for supper and afterwards will have a theatre party. The Good Cheer Club, Jolly Juniors, T.M.T.M.'s and Merry Maids will meet as usual on their regular nights. The T.M.T.M.'s are planning a picnic to Warsaw for the 24th of May, to which all girls are invited If it is a fine day they can be sure of a good time

Big excitement is expected at the swimming pool the next two weeks over the campaign for new swimmers. Every girl who at present takes lessons or swims in the Y.W.C.A. pool will be on one of the teams, so if you are among that number and still have not been approached by any of the captains, just telephone 223 and find out to which team you belong. Come in to the pool to-night at 8.15 and see the fun when the races are on, or better still, if you can swim and have a doctor's certificate, come in the races.

Girls in the life-saving classes will be working hard now to get ready for their examination which will take place in about two weeks. Miss Pickard from Toronto will be the examiner.

COST OF LIVING TO BE HIGH FOR TWO YEARS.

OTTAWA, May 17. — That it is useless to look for an immediate remedy for the present high cost of living simply because the worlds production of foodstuffs is not nearly equal to the demand, was the gist of an interview here with Dr. J. W. Robertson, C. M. G., who was sent overseas by the Canadian government to look into after-war food problems and who has just completed a tour of the Dominion in an effort to understand the real nature of the country's most pressing duty and opportunity at the present time.

TO CUT CLOTHING COSTS IN U.S.

London Manufacturer Comes with 50 Per Cent Reduction Offer.

NEW YORK, aMy 17. — J. C. Shannon, a London clothing manufacturer, who arrived here yetserdav on the Carmania, announced that he was prepared to furnish American clothing merchants with clothing at one-half the present cost. He said that he had come to the United States to build up a trade.

"My firm is prepared to produce men's suits, export them, pay the duty and sell to the retailer at $32 each," he said. "The same suits now sell here at prices ranging from $60 to $80 a suit."

SUES ON 'TIPPERARY' SALES

Music Writer Alleges Tune Was Based on Her Composition.

NEW YORK, — Victor Herbert was a witness here in the suite of Chappell & Co., music publishers, for the recovery of royalties on the song "Tipperary" on the ground that it was based on a composition she wrote called "The Yakima Booster Chorus." Mr. Herbert was called by the defence and testified he didn't believe one tune suggested the other.

Mr. Herbert said that the use of a violin at the trial to show the likeness between the two compositions did not furnish the best evidence because no harmony could be obtained from a violin.

MINE SINKS ITALIAN STEAMER.

Accident.

Mrs. Peter Baptie was the victim of a nasty accident on Friday morning. She was holding some stove pipes when one fell and struck her on the forehead, inflicting a severe wound. Dr. Fraser was summoned, and he found it necessary to put in several stitches. The injured lady is doing fairly well, and, it is hoped, will soon be about again.

SICK HEADACHE For Last 10 Years

Headaches affect all ages and both sexes alike, but in all cases the treatment should be directed to remove the cause for with the cause removed the headaches vanish for all time.

What is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Flora Hall, Dominion, N.S., writes:—"I have been troubled with sick headaches for the last ten years. I had lost faith in all remedies until recently a friend of mine advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. This I did, and found relief in a very short time. I would now recommend B.B.B. to anyone who is suffering as I did. I only took 3 bottles, and am never troubled with sick headaches anymore."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HITCH IN THE C.G.E. STRIKE SETTLEMENT

Beyond a statement that a hitch had developed in the settlement which was understood to have been arranged on Saturday there was no definite information to-day as to why work was not resumed at the C.G.E. this morning.

"Until two o'clock on Saturday afternoon we thought everything was settled," Mr. Harry Harper, business agent of the Machinists said at noon to-day. "We were then told the men needn't come in on Monday. That's all the information we have."

From the office end of the company it was stated that everything would probably be straightened out shortly.

In the meantime the Electrical Workers went out this morning.

E. M. TROWERN WILL ADDRESS MERCHANTS

A meeting of considerable importance to all merchants will be held in the Board of Trade Chambers on Tuesday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will have the pleasure of hearing addresses by the well-known organizer of merchants, Mr. E. M. Trowern, of Ottawa, secretary of the Dominion Board, and Mr. W. C. Miller, of Toronto, secretary of the Provincial Board of the Retail Merchants' Association.

These addresses should prove of great interest in this day of organization, and the local merchants will benefit considerably by listening to these able speakers on a practical subject.

This meeting has been arranged by the efforts of the Executive of the Mercantile Association, and it is hoped that the speakers will go away with the idea of the keen interest that the Peterborough merchants are taking in promoting and protecting their own interests.

WHEN JOBS GO BEGGING---

PROBABLY YOU THINK right now that the pay you are receiving is not in proportion to the work you are doing—in other words you believe you are poorly paid. And, perhaps you are right.

BUT what is it that governs the amount of your wage? Is it not the law of supply and demand—the same law that governs the cost of merchandise?

THE TROUBLE is—there are more men than jobs—a fact which causes so much trouble at the present time.

A CITY IS PROSPEROUS to the fullest extent when there are more jobs than men to take them. Get busy, therefore, and help bring about this ideal condition. Whenever you go into a store ask for the Peterboro City Brand of the Article you want. Insist that your wife and all your family do the same. Thus you will be laying stones in the foundation of a greater Peterboro City—a Peterboro City having enormous factories which will employ thousands of people and cause millions of dollars to be distributed right here at home.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH CELEBRATED EIGHTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

REV. D. N. MORDEN, OF TORONTO, PREACHED AT BOTH SERVICES.

Yesterday was a doubly important occasion at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, celebrating the 87th anniversary of the founding of the congregation and the re-opening of the church after the completion of the redecorating of the interior. The services were in charge of Rev. D. N. Morden, pastor of St. James Square Church, Toronto.

At the morning service Rev. Mr. Morden preached an eloquent and inspiring sermon taking as his text, Revelations 22; 4, "And they shall see his face."

Rev. Mr. Morden expressed the pleasure which it gave him to be present on such an occasion and apologized to the congregation for the fact that his voice was not in the best of condition.

Message of Hope.

He stated that the Book of Revelations was not a "Chinese puzzle" to perplex men through the ages, as many believed but that it was written to give hope and comfort to the oppressed. At the time that it was written the persecution of the Christian Church by the Roman Empire was at its height. Martyrs were offering up their lives daily. John had been exiled to the Island of Patmos and "was in the spirit on the Lord's Day." But he was not, Mr. Morden believed, in a peacefully meditative state of mind but rather he was aroused because of the sufferings of the Christian Church An angel appeared to him and he wrote his "Revelations" as a comfort to his fellow sufferers. To him wrong was embodied in the powers of Rome. But it would have been unsafe to openly antagonize Rome so he wrote in word pictures which needed to be interpreted. The interpretation of pictures is a matter of temperament, Mr. Morden stated. The message of John was that eventually God would triumph over all evil and oppression.

Meeting God.

Continuing, Mr. Morden said that he had often wondered as to the seeing of God's face referred to in the text. He believed in the Trinity and believed that when he looked upon the face of God he would see the face of Jesus Christ, for Christ had said to Philip: "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." Consciousness of sin was as an earth-born cloud rising up and hiding the face of God but John had said that the time was coming when we should see God face to face. Mr. Morden stated that there was a connection between the text and the promise in the preceding chapter, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes

Spiritual Longing

John's message, Mr. Morden believed, was the assurance that man's deepest spiritual longing, to see God and to be like Him, would be satisfied, This life was only the beginning the cradle. Afterward we shall "know as we are known" that is, we shall know God even as he knows us. We cannot know Him until we have seen Him even as an audience cannot fully understand a speaker whom they cannot see. In the future life we would understand much that perplexes us now. Then we would know why sin was allowed to enter the world, why the Kaiser was allowed to cause such carnage and devastation and why some were let struggle vainly through life while others obtained more than they needed without half trying.

Concluding, Mr. Morden said that we should go through life having faith—"God knows best."

MRS. NELLIE PECK, of Kansas City, who says her little boy never had a well day until he began taking Tanlac. Declares she will never be able to pay the debt of gratitude she owes the medicine.

"I will never be able to pay the debt of gratitude I owe to Tanlac for what it has done for my little boy and me," said Mrs. Nellie Peck, No. 1421 Charlotte St., Kansas City, recently.

"My little boy Curtis is fourteen years old and never in his life had he seen a well day until he began taking Tanlac. I worried and worried over his condition, but in spite of everything I could do he didn't seem to gain any strength and was weak and delicate practically all his life. He seemed to have a very weak stomach It just looked like he couldn't eat anything and digest it like other children.

He had no appetite at all and what litle he did eat seemed to sour on his stomach Sometimes his heart would palpitate terribly and he would get so dizzy he could hardly walk and as I stood he could hardly walk and as I stood and looked at him I thought he would surely fall over. He would have bad headaches and was nervous and could never sleep well at night. At school he was never able to keep up his work and he had to stay out a great deal on account of poor health.

"I had heard so much about Tanlac I decided to try it and see if it wouldn't help him. Well, you just can't imagine how overjoyed I was when he began to improve I kept right on giving him the medicine until now it is hard for me to believe he is the same child. His health is better than ever before in his life and he is bright and playful all the time and he enjoys going out and playing with other boys. He has a splendid appetite and I let him eat anything he wants. He is not the least bit nervous any more and is asleep as soon as he goes to bed. In fact, he is perfectly well in every way.

"After seeing what Tanlac did for him I began taking it myself as I have been suffering from stomach trouble, headaches and dizziness for five years. Since taking this grand medicine I am now happy to say that I never suffer any more with these troubles.

"Tanlac has been one of the greatest blessings that ever came into our home and I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Peterboro by W. B Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowlers Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

TIME LIMIT FOR AIR FORCE ENROLMENT

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 17.—May 29th has been fixed as the final gate on which applications for membership in Canada's new flying militia can be posted to the air board. The Board is considering this and other matters connected with the new force at a meeting here to-day. It is expected that about thousand officers of Royal Air Force will enroll in Canadian forces. With other ranks to be enrolled, flying militia will number about five thousand men, most of whom will put in month or so in training at Camp Borden this year

MODERN METHODS ARE EMPLOYED

POLES REMOVED FROM CHARLOTTE ST. IN A FEW HOURS BY UTILITIES COMMISSION LOG WAGON.

The Utilities Commission are to be Complemented on their Progressive Methods.

In Peterboro they have the best electrical and mechanical working equipment in Central Ontario District One of the latest additions to this fine working outfit is a three ton log waggon equipped with a cerrick. The whole device is portable and will either raise or lower the heaviest pole in a few minutes with absolute safety.

By means of this up to the minute outfit, the poles on Charlotte Street from George to the Grand Trunk were all taken down in a few hours this morning. Many of us can remember in days gone by when a gang of men worked all day on George street to lower two poles, and when the poles were safely landed to the ground, many would heave a sigh of relief that no accident so far had happened

THIS WOMAN'S RECOVERY

Shows Remarkable Curative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chesley, Ont.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up the steps. I tried two doctors but they did me no good. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and thought I would give it a trial. I took four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am married, am the mother of two children, and do all my housework, milk eight cows, and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends who are in need of medicine, and you may print this letter if you wish."—Mrs. Henry Janke, R. R. No. 4, Chesley, Ontario.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

CHURCH SERVICES AT MARK STREET

CHOIR WAS LARGE AND MUSIC EXCELLENT.

The usual large congregations attended Mark street yesterday and the pastor, Rev. G. E. Ross occupied the pulpit both morning and evening. The choir was large and the music excellent.

The morning subject was "Temple Service in the Great Beyond," and was founded on the text, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple." Rev. vii, 15th.

The following thoughts were developed in the discourse.

First—The Apostle John, banished to the Ise of Patmos for his faith in Christ, finds himself in the spirit on the Lord's Day, and has a wonderful vision of heaven. Had he planned for Sunday joy-riding, or other Sabbath discretion he never would have had this vision splendid.

Second— John sees, in vision, the City of God ,with its pearly gates, and walls of jasper; its towers of chrystal, and rainbow-encircled throne. He sees the circles of elders, martyrs, apostles and millions of the redeemed.

Third—Where did this multitude come from? From all the world, throughout the centuries till the end of time. Why are they there? Not because they came out of great tribulation, but because they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Fourth—Did all these millions know the true God, or the Bible? Did they ever hear of Christ or Calvary? No, but those who lived according to the light given them are saved, for every man that ever entered the world has a certain measure of light. "This is the true light that lighteneth every man that cometh into the world." The millions before the throne, who come from the darkness of heathendom ,and lived according to this light, are saved from sin and its consequences, but not from ignorance. They will learn over there what was denied them here, even the story of the Divine love.

Fifth— Does this mean a second chance of salvation? Not at all, Those who rejected the light are lost. The records of redeeming love shall form the story to be imparted to the multitudes over there.

Sixth—Who shall tell this story on the other side? Those who heard and believed the story here shall tell it yonder. We wondered why our loved ones died so young and why that dear friend went away just when he was needed most ,the answer is, they had greater work to do over there. Then cheer up thou drooping spirit, thou shalt find they level yonder, and none shall drive thee to the wall. Of thou discouraged preacher of the gospel, who never had your chance, but were crowded aside by some one who could never play the game like thee, cheer up, for God will give you a field yonder, and the wire-puller shall not be there.

The evening subject was "The Faith of Atheism," and was based on the text, "The Fool hath said in his heart there is no God," Ps. liii, 1. The following are the points of the sermon:

First— The man who rejects the God of the Bible must put something in His place, and we know that there is to-day a deep dark atheism a spacious and tremendous negative, a creed of four words of dark significance, namely, "There is no God." It lies like a deadly vapour on multitudes of souls. It is not the "Tom "Pane" type, but it steals like some invisible, poisonous taint into men's blood—that the existence of God is doubtful. It has never been proved. Perhaps, after all, He does not exist.

Second—The man who rejects the God of the Bible must accept in the place of Theism, some one of the following: Atheism, Pantheism, Polestheism or the faith of the Agnostic. Mighty indeed is the faith of the man who can accept any of the above creeds in place of the pure and holy teachings of God's word. Mr. Ross carefully examined the teachings of the above creeds to the intense interest of the congregation. The service was deeply spiritual in its character.

BREAD ADVANCED TO 28 CTS. TO-DAY

INCREASE FOLLOWED HIGHER PRICES OF WHEAT AND FLOUR.

The price of bread was increased to-day two cents a large loaf, which is now selling at 28 cents. This advance was presaged by the recent increase in the price of wheat by the Canadian Wheat Board. Immediately the millers were affected, then the bakers stepped into line, and while all blame the Wheat Board the consumer pays the increase.

"Bread increased in price all over the country to-day," said one baker. "The public is generally aware that on May 10th millers quoted a new price showing an advance of $1.60 a barrel. Orders we had placed with the mills were cancelled, the millers informing us that the new price for wheat reverted to all orders and also to flour in transit. That is our position and we had practically no reserve stocks to use."

There have been some reports that the price of flour and bread has not yet reached the resting not to mention the turning point. The pound and a half loaf is selling in Chicago at eighteen cents.

The Canada Wheat Board, as has been previously explained, controls the wheat in its every position in this country. It controls and practically owns the wheat and also the flour in the mills. The demand for wheat by foreign buyers was given as the cause of the increase in price. It is said that the benefit of the advance goes to the producer of the wheat through the distribution of participation certificates.

CHOICE RECIPES

Sour Milk Doughnuts.

One cup of sugar, 1 small half-cup butter, 3-4 cup of sour milk, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon saleratus, cinnamon nutmeg, salt, flour.

Butter and sugar are creamed together, then the eggs well beaten, the sour milk, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt are added. The saleratus must be dissolved in a little water, then added to the other ingredients, and enough flour mixed in to make a dough one can roll. It is then cut into shapes and placed in frying basket, immersed in deep, hot fat.

Baked Potato Croquettes With Cheese.

Boil and mash potatoes, and while hot beat well, adding a little sweet milk and about one-quarter cup of grated cheese to each cup of potato. Season well with salt and pepper, shape into croquettes and roll in fine bread crumbs. Set aside until about fifteen minutes before serving, then put in the oven to heat through and brown slightly.

Baked Ham.

Take a cured ham. If it is very salty, soak in cold water overnight. The next morning put in, skin side down, to cook in fresh cold water, having a rack or plate in the bottom of the boiler to prevent scorching. Bring the ham to a brisk boil, add a pint of cold water and skim off the scum. Then put into the kettle a few whole cloves, a little whole allspice and mace. Watch closely and when boiling begins lessen the heat and keep it just simmering—rapid cooking will toughen the meat. When the ham is done, let it cool in the water in which it was boiled. Remove the skin carefully; then stick cloves all over the fat part. Dust with black pepper, sprinkle with brown sugar, and put in a deep baking dish, adding some of the liquid in which it was boiled, or a pint of sweet cider, and baste about every ten minutes, letting the ham bake in the oven for about two hours. A few slices of onion and sweet herbs may be added to the liquid while baking.

Cream of Potato Soup.

Pare three or four good-sized potatoes, cut into dice and cover with boiling water. Boil five minutes, drain and throw the water away. Cover with fresh water, add a few slices of onion, a half cup of chopped celery, and salt and pepper. Cover and cook till the potatoes are tender. Put two tablespoons of butter in a double boiler, melt, blend in two tablespoons of flour and gradually add a quart of milk, stirring until it thickens. Add the cooked potatoes, celery, onions and the liquid with them to the milk sauce, re-heat, season with salt, and serve.

Quick Mince Meat.

Put a half pound of cold roast beef and two ounces of raw suet through the meat-chopper. Shred two ounces of citron and two ounces of orange peel. Mix one pound of seeded raisins with one half pound of currants. Peel, quarter and chop one pound of apples. Mix all the ingredients together. Add a level teaspoonful of ground cinnamon, a half teaspoonful of ground cloves, a half teaspoonful of allspice, and one-quarter cup of sugar. Add enough sweet cider, canned fruit juice or syrup from sweet fruit pickles to make it the desired consistency. Heat slowly and bring to the boiling point, then let simmer for about ten minutes, or until the raisins are well softened.

ARE RIOTING AGAIN TO-DAY

VIOLENT DISTURBANCES IN LONDONDERRY—2,000 TROOPS FROM ENGLAND STATIONED IN CORK.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDONDERRY, May 17.—Londonderry, after two nights of rioting was again the scene of riotous demonstrations again to-day. The city was in state of high tension and hundreds of men remained away from work, walking about streets, where many individual encounters occurred between Sinn Feiners and Unionists. There was considerable stone throwing, and at one point Sinn Feiners, the police reported, fired at two ex-Unionist soldiers, but missed their mark. Hundreds of military, with machine guns and police with rifles, were ordered to vicinity of Bridge and Fountain streets.

MOB PASSIONS UNCHECKED

LONDONDERRY, May 17.—Rioting last night beeween nationalists and unionist mobs was even fiercer than Saturday's fighting, bottles, bricks and pistols were again freely employed by combatants. Groups of men and woman in the Unionist quarter of Fountain street and similar groups in the Sinn Fein quarter in Bridge street followed an exchange of party cries with stone and bottle throwing. In addition to killing of ex-soldier named Doherty three others were wounded. When hostilities broke out, police in disturbed district were withdrawn and for four hours mob was supreme.

TROOPS OCCUPY CORK

CORK, May 17. — Two thousand troops from England were landed at Bantry on Saturday and immediately distributed through out west Cork, where they will be stationed at points five miles apart. Troops to number of 150 also arrived at Skibbereen. They commandered several buildings there including town hall which was made their headquarters.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

The girls of the Young Women's Christian Association are justly proud of their beautiful swimming pool—so proud that they want all the girls of Peterboro to swim in it. For the last two weeks in May they are putting on a campaign for more swimmers. Their slogan is "Every girl a swimmer," and they aim for at least 200 additional swimmers in the two weeks. The captains of the teams are Miss Dorothy Fenwick, Miss Helen Metheral, Miss Florence Johnson and Miss Ethel Elliott. Under these captains are teams of ten girls each with first and second lieutenants for each team. There will also be a married ladies' team. The progress of the different teams is marked by the climbing of little kewpie dolls up the five ladders in one of the corridors in the swimming pool.

The campaign will begin on Monday with open night at the pool. Any girl or woman who has a doctor's certificate may go in at 8:15 Monday night. There will be races and a general good time.

When a spark plug becomes fouled with oil it can be cleaned by boiling in a compound of common washing soda and water.

THE UNDER-STRENGTH DE-LAVAL TEAM LOST TO THE VETERANS

JONES ROBBED NORMAN THREE TIMES IN SUCCESSION OF SURE GOALS—SHARMAN SCORED FOR THE VETERANS—EVEN FIRST HALF—DE LAVAL DROPPED AWAY AT THE FINISH,

In spite of the numerous other attractions in the City, the football game between the Great War Veterans and the De Laval attracted a good attendance. The Veterans tried out Peel at left half, while the De Laval had a few new faces in their line-up.

The game was called at 3 o'clock sharp with Mr. Fred Roberts handling the whistle

The Teams.

De Laval:—W. Jones, (Capt.), goal, W. Brown and J. Godfrey backs, A. Nichols, Ed. Humpage and W. Akers, half backs; G. Hartshorn, J. Long, E. Styles, J. Lindsay and Jack Haw.

G.W.V.A.—C. Griffine, goal; H. Gamble and A. Bishop backs; A. Burrows, P. D. Ryan and J. Peel half backs; S. Curtis, J. Monks, H. Norman, J. Sharman and F. McKinley.

Sharman Opened the Scoring

Jones won the toss and Norman set the ball in motion, with the whole Vets attack ready for an opening that ended with Godfrey conceding a corner-kick to them. Two corner-kicks in succession brought nothing to the Vets. From the goal kick Lindsay caught hold of the ball and raided the Vets defence where Bishop cleared easily. On nice combination play Curtiss and Monks drews out the defence went into the corner and put across a rocket ball that gave Sharman an easy opportunity to open the scoring giving Jones no chance whatever.

Lindsay Tested Griffine.

A break through by Lindsay gave the Vets a lot of trouble. He had the defence completely baffled and drove a hard shot into the far corner of the goal that Griffine stopped cleverly, the ball being run to the other end by McKinley and Sharman tested Jones with a close low shot that compelled him to give the Vets a corner—Curtiss placed a beauty into the goal-mouth with every player up in the air trying to head the ball and in the muddle Norman punted it through. More attacking by the Vets brought them no reward, with Ryan shooting wild over the bar and Curtiss solo runs unproductive. Ted Humpage tried to force the issue for the De Laval by carrying the ball into the Vets area where Gamble made an attempt to stop it, going over the line for the De Laval's first corner-kick. Lindsay landed the ball into Griffine's hands. Every De Laval forward had a shot at goal without any results. An individual effort by Sharman carried the play to the other end with Norman in partnership, they tried hard to beat Jones in many ways but he always came out on top with flying colours. A few minutes later Norman dropped one just over the crossbar. At the other end G. Hartshorn passed to Styles whose parting shot was weak and left Griffine and easy clearance.

De Laval Scored.

Just afterwards, Lindsay run the ball into the touch, outplayed Gamble crossed it in front of the goal to Hartshorn who scored an easy goal against Griffine Vets pressed hard after this and Jones had to come out of his goal repeatedly to clear when both his back were beaten. Sherman was called up for offside that brought relief to the De Laval. Hartshorn and Styles at the other end beat Gamble run the ball into the goal, with Styles shooting missed the mark. Just afterfollowing another Vets raid Godfrey hit the ball unintentionally with his hand in the penalty area, the referee awarded a penalty, then a foul and completed it by awarding a throw-down. Ryan was conspicuous in repelling other two De Laval attacks and then the Vets retaliated. A foul was awarded against the Vets just before the whistle went for half time—G.W.V.A. 2; De Laval 0.

Half Time

Immediately on resuming Hartshorn ran in to have a grand chance to score, but easing up at the crucial moment, the opportunity was gone in a flash and Bishop cleared. The ball travelled to Norman who run at top speed down the field, held on to it too long in front of goal, giving Jones ample time to come out of his goal to clear the situation.

De Laval Worked Hard.

Twice in succession Hartshorn and J. Long forced the Vets back to concede corner-kicks that were fruitless A foul against Burrows worked havoc around Griffine's goal, Bishop clearing. Norman caught hold, passed to Curtiss who beat Humpage on the run, centered nicely to Norman who tested Jones with a swift shot. The Vets were warming up again, the whole forward line would swing the ball across from wing to wing in the De Laval half of the field that would finish up with some of the Vets shooting very poorly. Sharmon took a corner-kick, Jones saved it in brilliant fashion.

Jones Given no Chance

On a solo run on the right wing Curtiss lashed the ball across the goal with all the Vets forwards lying on top of Jones and McKinley at the far end of the goal had no difficulty in scoring.

De Laval Hopeless.

The pressure was telling on the De Laval and the Vets had an easy time for the next ten minutes. Jones saved from Norman, came out af his goal, beat a few of his opponents while running up the field with the ball, leaving an open goal behind. The Vets tried hard to increase the score but Jones was always there to prevent them. Even and uninteresting exchanges took place until just 5 minutes to go Norman on a nice tackle caried the ball up against Jones who came out to clear. Norman trapped the ball as Jones arrived and made the score 4 goals for the Vets. A few minutes later Norman repeated the same play on Jones. From this till the end of the game there was nothing of note to chronicle, full time arriving with the Vets being winners

Analysis of the Game.

The following analysis will show the referee's decisions.

G.W.V.A.	1st. Half	2nd Half	Total
Goals	2	3	5
Goal-kicks	3	2	5
Corner-kicks	3	5	8
Offside	1	1	2
Fouls	0	1	1

De Laval.	1st. Half	2nd Half	Total

Corner-kicks	2	1	3
Fouls	0	2	2

NOTES ON THE GAME

For a real sport, Jones of the De Laval carries off the honours. Although twice beaten in the two games during last week, he came out of the game smiling and intends getting two points from some of the teams yet.

Under great difficulty Sharman of the Vets turned out in uniform at inside left. He played wth an injured right toe and his presence in the line-up strengthened the attack.

The De Laval defence has fell away since Hillman left them. Bert Hartshorn stripped for the game but after a little try out, gave it up At the last moment R. Akers jumped into the game.

The Veterans half-backs out-played the De Laval players and fed the farwards well. The co-operation between Ryan and Norman was good.

Gamble and Bishop were the best pair of backs, although the latter was not sure of his kick.

Three times in succession, during the first half, Jones run out of his goals and picked the ball off Norman'sfoul; but in the second half the Vets centre used new tactic against Jones and out witted him for two goals.

Nichols of the De Laval gave Griffine a fright by the long shot into goal that landed on top of the crossbar and went past. The referee awarded a corner-kick then a goal-kick.

When Godfrey hit the ball with his hand in the penalty area, all the players thought it was a penalty-kick and prepared to take it. The referee awarded a foul and a little while afterwards changed his decision to a throw-down. The Vets questioned the decision with the referee but took it smiling.

The old reliable, Mr. Tom Moffatt accompanied by Mrs. J. Smith of the Homeside Football Club of Hamilton were interested spectators at the game on Saturday. Tommy was down here scouting for players.

MACHINE GUNNERS GRABBED GAME FROM THE WOOLENS

CAPTAIN JACK CRIDLAND SCORED THE FIRST GOAL FOR THE WOOLENS—A GOOD GAME.

Every dog has his day, and Canadian Woollens in their football game with the Machine Gunners at the Oval on Saturday afternoon secured a much-longed-for goal. They were defeated by three goals to one, but the solitary counter helped some. The honour of kicking the team's first goal fell to Captain Jack Cridland after ten minutes of play in the second half. Canadian Woollens were given a penalty kick on a foul, and Cridland bulged the corner of the netting behind Flowers.

The winners easily deserved their victory. They were fleeter and played better than their opponents, and they should have had more goals. It was an afternoon of missed opportunities for Leon Frazer's eleven. Had they to kick their way through life, the Gunners would not have a look in. Time after time, by neat passing and well executed plays, they had the ball at the Canadian Woollens' goal, but the nets might just as well have been on top of the Lift Lock. They kicked high, wide, and awful, the whole bunch of them—one was as erratic as the other.

The Gunners practically won the game in the first period, when they got the ball through Sam Calladine for two goals. Canadian Woollens made them go some, but on the play the Machine Gun crew were the logical winners. Their back division put up a rattling fine game, and Flowers proved capable of handling everything that got past.

When the Canadian Woollens scored in the second period, they were conceded a chance to equalise, but the Gunners decided otherwise.

Bell's Feature Play.

It was Jimmy Bell, one of the Warsaw delegation on the Gunners' line-up who made it sure. He contributed one of the neatest plays of the afternoon when he scored the third and final goal. Getting under the ball, following a long kick from midfield, that could not have centred better had it been made to order, he headed it, a few feet out in front of Calladine, and sent the ball on past the astonished goaler. The play caught the Canadian Woollens back division napping.

Thorpe Looked Good.

Charlie Thorpe played his first game with the Northerners, and did some fine work on the forward line. He showed fast footwork, and when he rounds into shape, will add a whole lot of strength to the team.

With Wetton on the casualty list with a broken finger bone, Sam Calladine was called in for duty between the poles. He made several nice saves. In the first goal against him, the ball glanced off the top bar, making it a difficult chance. The other two might have fooled the best of them.

Referee McKinley handled a difficult game well.

The teams were:

Canadian Woollens—Goal, Calladine; backs, Barton and Styles; halfbacks, Reid, Jackson, and C. Clarke; forwards, Jones T. Clarke Cridland, Thorpe and Montgomery.

Machine Gunners—Goal, Flowers; backs, Crowe and Perry; halves, Metcalfe, McLeish and Darling; forwards, Payne, Pryce, Frazer, Bell, and Darling.

MATHERS CORNERS WON THE GAME FROM 8TH LINE

On Saturday night at the Water street alleys in a five pin game between Mathers Corners ond the 8th line of Otonabee, Mathers' Corners won out by 220 pins in the three games. FIVE PIN TOURNAMENT STARTS TO-MORROW NIGHT

The five pin tournament staged at the Water street alleys will start to-morrow night, when some of the singles will be played. The double and three men teams will be drawn to-night. Anyone wishing to enter still has a chance by giving their names before the draw is made.

OSHAWA LACROSSE TEAM WANTS GAME

INVITATION FOR EXHIBITION MATCH NEXT SATURDAY RECEIVED.

The Peterborough lacross team has an invitation to play an exhibition game with the Oshawa team on their grounds on Saturday, 22nd May.

Mr. F. E. Ellis, secretary of the Oshawa club, has written the locals through The Examiner, and requests that as early a decision as possible be communicated by letter or telephone. He writes that the Oshawa grounds are in good shape, and their team would be willing to play a return game here whenever desired.

Arrangements as to expenses can be made between the two executives.

THE LACROSSE PLAYERS HAD GOOD PRACTICE

The lacrosse candidates practised at Exhibition Grounds on Saturday afternoon, with fourteen players out, in the absence of Johnny Sutherland, the manager, who is ill in the hospital with pneumonia, President Todd took charge of the players, and put them through a hard workout. Harry Scriver and Ed. Dillon worked in the nets, and play from end to end was the order of the afternoon.

The team is coming along well, and there will be no trouble experienced in getting together enough players for two teams to play on the holiday.

On Tuesday evening the executive and all players are requested to attend the practice at the Exhibition Grounds, when selections will be made for the teams who will provide the holiday game. It is important that everybody be out early.

to Connors, Murray easily scoring after the catch. Lornie Rose missed Shaughnessy's grounder and the runner was safe. The third strike on Holyman was a wild pitch and the batter went to first, Swanston scoring. Shaughnessy counted on Butcher's single to centre, but Holyman was caught between third and home on the play.

Harrison was on the rubber for the Thistles when the Electricians went to bat in their half. He walked Ross to start with, and Ray Rose was safe on Murray's fumble, but Jackson and Lornie Rose fanned and Swanston nailed Ross when he tried to steal third.

In the seventh Kirn drew a pass, brt was forced at second on Cherrett's fine play on Adams' grounder, which looked like a sure hit. Lowe flied to McCarney. Murray singled past third but Swanston fanned for the third out.

In the C.G.E half, McCarney singled to right. Frost and Collins fanned. McCarney stole second and scored on Cherrett's single to left. Connors fanned, ending the game.

BASEBALL NOTES.

All members of the executive of the City Baseball League are reminded of the meeting to-night at 7 o'clock at the Empress Hotel.

The Peterborough Central League Club will practice at Riverside Park to-night at 6 o'clock. All players are asked to be out for there is only this week in which to get ready for the opening game at Belleville next Monday.

Ald. Crowe introduced a new feature in base running during the opening ceremonies on Saturday when, after hitting one of Mayor McIntyer's slants he dashed directly for third base.

The City League is away to a good start and should provide some interesting ball for the fans this summer.

"Gosh! How my back aches!"

After Grip, "flu" or colds, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys.

This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further inroads of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Anuric (anti-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those pains, such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

Send 10c. for trial pkg. of Anuric to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont.

PRESTON, ONT.—"I was troubled with rheumatism in the right limb and hand for several years, and lately in the left shoulder. The only way I could lie was on my back. I had great difficulty to sit down and more to get up. Recently I had a very severe pain in my back. I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery several times with the most satisfactory results, so I concluded to give his Anuric Tablets a trial. The pain in limb and shoulder has stopped entirely and in right hand it is very slight and getting less all the time. I can now sit or lie in any position I wish without discomfort or pain. I certainly will recommend Anuric; there is nothing nearly so good; I have tried them all."—GEORGE BOOS, cor. Duke and Waterloo.

SIR ADAM BECK AND TRENT DEVELOPMENT.

Speaking at Smith's Falls on Thursday last, Sir Adam Beck, referring to Trent development, told of the acquisition of the privately owned plants on the river, stating that there had been no coercion or intimidation, and that all had been secured through friendly recognition.

"We are negotiating now," said Sir Adam, "with the two or three other companies still existing now, for their plants. They will have a great deal to say, and we will have very little to say other than to take them when funds are available."

It will be a matter of regret to the many friends of Miss Margaret Weart of the C. P. R. office staff, to learn that she has had to resign her position on account of a nervous breakdown.

Asked about a musical writer's inspiration Mana-Zucca, the composer, said to an interviewer: "I'll tell you a secret about my inspiration. I wrote mp piece 'Sunbeam' when it was pouring; I wrote some 'Oriental' music in London, so you will admit that such inconsistencies could not possibly have been inspired by surroundings. I usually manage to forget surroundings and create my own atmosphere. I find it far greater fun imagining myself in various places than really being there."

IDE—PRESTON.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized by the Rev. J. A. McKenzie, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Preston, 216 Reid street, when their only daughter, Violet May, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Henry George Ide of Toronto. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding wedding march, played by Miss Annie Spicer of Toronto. The bride looked charming in a dress of Georgette and crepe de chine, with the regulation veil and orange blossoms; her cousin, little Miss Olive Northy, dressed in pink crepe de chine, made a very pretty flower girl.

After the ceremony and signing of the register, which was witnessed by Miss Marie Hopkins of Toronto, and Mr. Sherman Preston of Windsor, dainty refreshments were served, toasts were proposed and responded to, and the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes, on the 5.35 train for Toronto. After the honeymon the couple will be at home to their homes at 30 Webb avenue, Toronto west.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. George Evans, New York; Miss Marie Hopkins, Miss Annie Spicer, of Toronto; Mr. Sherman Preston of Windsor.

Among the numerous and costly gifts was a beauiful cut glass set from the Barries Ltd., showing the high esteem in which the bride was held.

The many friends extend their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Ide for future happiness and a long and happy life.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM FANNING.

William Fanning, formerly of this city, died at his home in Toledo, U.S., on Friday, after a short illness. His brother, Mr. J. S. Fanning, left yesterday to attend the funeral, which will take place in Toledo.

ALBERT A. PRESTON.

Deepest regret has been expressed throughout the entire community at the death last evening of Albert Alexander Preston in his 63rd year, for the past 35 years a well known resident of this city and vicinity, after a severe illness extending over three or four weeks. The deceased was very widely known in this district, and all who knew him respected him for his fine qualities and his strong upright oustanding character.

Fifteen years ago Mr. Preston took up farming in North Monaghan township, where he lived until five years ago, when he returned to Peterborough, residing on Frederick avenue. He was a consistent member of Trinity Methodist church.

Besides his sorrowing wife he leaves four children, Allan of North Monaghan, Frederick at home, Miss Edith at home and Mrs. H. T. Millard of this city.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday, May 19th at 3 p.m. from the family residence, to Little Lake cemetery Service will be held at house at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. F. E. Malott officiating.

EDWARD F. AIRRIESS

The death occurred last night of Edward F. Airriess, aged 63, of Smith Township, a resident of this district for the past 36 years. The deceased was born in London, Eng., in 1857. When he was 16 he came to the United States and had lived in various places until he came here 36 years ago. During his long residence he made many friends in the city and in Smith township, where he was well known. In 1907 he suffered a severe paralytic stroke and since then has been unable to lead an active life. The last two years he has been confined to his bed almost entirely, but his faith and cheerfulness during his long illness were remarkable. Besides his wife he leaves one son

The body will be taken to his former home, 693 Water street, from whence the funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. A. J. Thomas will officiate at the service at 2:30.

MRS. EDWARD HOWLEY.

Mrs. Edward Howley died this morning at 9 a.m., at the home of her father, Mr. Patrick Heffernan, Douro.

Deceased had been ailing for some time. Her husband predeceased her about three years ago.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her father, one brother, Wm. Heffernan, at home, and five sisters, Mrs. T. Clancy of Peterboro; Mrs. R. Carveth, Douro, Misses Josephine, Jennie and Mary at home; also two daughters, Mrs. Austin Allen and Mrs. L. Roache, both of Douro; three sons, John of Havelock, Gerald and Ambrose at home.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning to St. Joseph's Church and cemetery.

THREE SMALL FIRES

Grass and Chimney Fires Over the Week End.

At 6.30 Saturday afternoon the wooden fence of the Exhibition grounds along Lock street caught fire but was extinquished by the residents along Lock Street with a few pails of water.

A pile of junk and dry grass in the old raceway back of Driscoll Terrace became ignited in some strange way, just at noon to-day. The firemen were called and quickly extinguished the blaze with chemicals

A small chimney fire at the home of W. B. Warne, 638 George streets Saturday afternoon caused more excitement than damage and was quickly put out by the firemen.

FIGHTING NEAR KIEV

Bolshevik Forces Are Counter Attacking Against the Poles.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 17.—Russian Bolshevik forces are striking back at Polish and Ukrainian troops which captured Kiev about ten days ago, according to an official statement issued in Moscow yesterday and received here by wireless. Statement said Soviet troops had started an advance and were engaged about ten miles north-east of Kiev.

If there is one thing on earth that young Mrs. Blake likes more than another, it is clothes—hats, frocks, coats, and—oh, all the rest of 'em!

One morning she rushed into her hubby's private room at his office and burst out gleefully,

"I've just ordered the most beautiful hat to be sent home. It's the sweetest thing you ever saw, dearest, and only $25! It's a perfect love!"

But "dearest" had reached his limit. Without raising his eyes from the letter he was reading, he replied:

"I regret to have to tell you, my dear, that your love will be returned."

ROBINSON. — On Tuesday, May 11, 1920 to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Robinson, a daughter.

WARREN.—On Saturday, May 15th, 1920, to Mrs. W. D. Warren, 8 Brown Street, Brownton, a daughter.

HALES.—On 16th May, to Mr. and Mrs. W. Hales, 84 Douro Street, a son.

DIED

PRESTON. — On Sunday evening, May 16, 1920, Albert Alexander Preston.

Funeral from the family residence, 304 Frederick avenue, on Wednseday, May 19th at 3 p.m. Service at the house at 2.30. Interment at Little Lake cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.

HARPER.—In Loving Memory of Bert N. Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harper, who departed this life May 17th, 1918.

Two years have passed since that sad day
God called the one we loved away;
Forget him, no; we never will,
As years go on we love him still.

VOL. XLVI. NO. 117 PETERBOROUGH, TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1920 PRICE TWO CENTS

CITY RESTRAINED FROM SUBDIVIDING K. E. PARK

CLAUSE IN THE LEGISLATION UNDER WHICH THE PROPERTY WAS PURCHASED RETAINS IT FOR PARK PURPOSES—WILL BUY THROUGHOUT CITY.

COMMISSION TO PROCEED

The proposed sub-division of King Edward Park into building lots has been temporarily frustrated by the provision in the legislation under which the property was bought, which reserved it solely for park purposes.

"It's just as well, perhaps. That will be valuable property," Ald. Gordon remarked, when the restriction imposed by a former Council was announced at last night's special meeting.

"It's a better idea to scatter the houses over the city anyway," said Ald. Jones.

Ald. Turner pointed out that if the city desired to cut up the park it could apply to the Provincial government at the next session for the annulment of the clause which at present prevents the city from using King Edward Park for its first housing effort. That session will be early enough for next year, but the Council was forced to consider an alternative for the current building season.

By-law's First Reading.

The report of the Committee of the Whole recommending that the government be asked to guarantee Peterborough's $200,000 housing bonds was adopted. The Housing Commission is also authorized to submit plans and specifications for houses to the Committee of the Whole, and after they have been approved to call for tenders for 24 houses, which in turn shall be referred to the Council in committee.

The by-law authorizing the issuing of housing debentures was given its first reading and will be forwarded to Toronto for indoresment by the Ontario Housing Commission.

In the meantime the local Commission be empowered to secure options on properties throughout the city upon which the houses will be built.

Commissioners Appointed.

In the formal appointing of the housing commissioners by by-law last night Mr. James Finnie was named for a two year term and Mr. F. H. Dobbin for one year. The Mayor is the third member.

LACK OF NURSES HAMPERS SERVICE

CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT OF VICTORIAN NURSES BOARD OF GOVERNORS DEPLORES SCARCITY OF EFFICIENT NURSES.

Special to Examiner.

OTTAWA, May 18. — The great scarcity of nurses, particularly of those with public health training, was deploed by Mrs. J. Charlotte Hanington, chief Superintendent at the annual meeting of the Victorian Order or Nurses Board of Governors here to-day. Before the war lack of money had hampered the work, the Superintendent said. Now it was the lack of nurses—a need made more noticeable since the war gave an impetus to all branches of the public health service.

The establishment of the Canadian National Red Cross Peace Time Programme and the activities of the Provincial Health Department and voluntary bodies dealing with the care of the sick and the prevention of disease, would ensure a measure of relief from negative health conditions hitherto unknown. But the weapons without which this campaign was useless, were financial support and trained personnel.

"If a national programme is to be carried out successfully an army of public health nurses is necessary," Mrs. Hanington continued. "Recruiting for this work should be the first consideration. The shortage of nurses is greater than ever before and the shortage of probationers in the hospitals is even a more serious matter. The educationists are beginning to realize that the education of nurses is a responsibility of the state."

75 GALLONS OF BEER FOUND IN HAMILTON G. W. V. A. BRANCH.

HAMILTON May 18—Prompt action has followed Saturday night's police raid on the Barton Street clubhouse of the East Hamilton branch of the G. W. V. A., where were found 75 gallons of beer and eighteen men in the room where it was being served.

News of the raid was wired Provincial President O'Flynn at Belleville, who telegraphed A. H. Peart here to suspend the branch and refuse to pay the Police Court fines out of the funds of the branch.

An investigation will be ordered, and the clubhouse closed this afternoon.

ALDERMEN WITHOUT CARS ALONE VOTED FOR PROPOSAL TO TAX THEM

A resolution emanating from the Galt Council, and submitted to the other municipal Councils of the Province for their support, proposes that the Legislature be petitioned to authorise the taxing of all motor vehicles at the rate of one dollar a horse-power. The money thus raised would be used in the municipalities in which it was collected for the improvement of the roads.

Broad smiles rippled around the aldermanic circle last night when the letter from the Mayor of Galt was read. After a significant silence, Ald. Gainey laughingly said: "I have no car, so I'll move that this resolution be endorsed." Ald. Morrison seconded it, but they were alone when the Mayor called for the vote.

"The Government has enough worries this year without us giving them more," said Ald. Gordon.

The proposed tax would be a money-getter. Fifteen horse-cars would yield fifteen dollars, and so on up the scale to the 90 horse-power class, if there are any here.

COUNCIL AT LAST DECIDES $500 EACH FOR TWO BANDS

RIFT IN BANDS' LUTE BEYOND IMMEDIATE REPAIR AND PROTRACTED DISCUSSIONS OF UNION FAIL TO BRING G.W.V.A. AND 57TH BANDS UNDER ONE BATON,

PLAY TEN CONCERTS EACH

The Council's prolonged deliberation of the disposal of the appropriation for music in the parks this summer terminated last night with the decision to give $500.0 each to the G. W. V. A. and 57th Regimental Bands for two series of concerts to be played on the designation of Ald. Gainey, chairman of the Parks Committee.

Preceding the meeting a last and conclusively unsuccessful effort to bring these two bands together under one leadership was made in Committee of the Whole.

Deputations from the two organisations were heard, but the ten days' interval had failed to compose their differences. The breach was just as wide as before, although Mr. R. E. Layfield, of the G. W. V. A., declared that their bandsmen were not antagonistic to the Regiment, but were opposed to signing up for three years with the Militia as required of 57th Bandsmen.

The deciding vote fell to Mayor McIntyre. The deadlock confronted him first in committee, and rather than declare himself then, he suggested that action be deferred until the by-law was introduced in Council.

In the second reading of the by-law, Ald. Gainey moved, seconded by Ald. Morrison, that $500.00 be granted to each of the two bands for two series of ten concerts each.

Ald. Turner's amendment, seconded by Ald. Jones, proposed that $600.00 be given the 57th Band for thirteen concerts. The amendment was modelled after Ald. Crowe's plan, which he advocated repeatedly in the previous discussions.

The vote on the amendment was as follows:

For.	Against.
Copping	Hamilton
Phelan	Gordon
Jones	Gainey
Turner	Morrison
	McIntyre

Aldermen Whitehouse and Crowe were absent.

Ald. Turner then submitted another amendment, seconded by Ald. Copping, that $1,00.00 be partitioned to include the Salvation Army Band, giving them $300.00, and $350.00 each to the other two.

The question arose as to whether this amendment was in order.

Ald. Gordon, presiding, allowed it, and Ald. Gainey's motion, seconded by Ald. Morrison, that it should not be allowed on a point of order, was lost.

The vote on the amendment was the same as above.

The by-law was accordingly passed with the transposition of the two groups.

It was stated that the presence of Aldermen Whitehouse and Crowe would not have affected the result, as they would have paired. Ald. Crowe standing by the one grant scheme, and Ald. Whitehouse for the division of the appropriation.

The Deputation.

The 57th deputation included Col. E. B. Clegg, Major Frank Bradburn, Capt. Winterbottom, Mr. Rupert Gliddon, and Bandsmen Benson and Westbrook. Major A. W. McPherson spoke later at the Council meeting.

The G. W. V. A. were represented by R. E. Layfield, Sidney Whatley, and W. Dyer.

Tried to Amalgamate.

No new point was brought in in the exchange of opinions Both sides held the ground they had previously taken and occupied.

Col. Clegg stated that at the outset of the negotiations with the G. W. V. A. he was told that they would have no objections to absorption by the Regiment Disagreement developed on the question of leadership of the Regimental Band. The G. W. V. A. decided that they would not join up except under Walter Hughes or W. Perver.

"Mr. Gliddon was brought here 20 years ago by the 57th, and up to the War we always had a good band," Col. Clegg said. "We got a reply from Mr. Hughes to the effect that the G. W. V. A. Band would not join th Regiment under the leadership of Mr Gliddon. He dropped the question there, and anything done or said since has been between the bands and not between the associations.

"The 57th intends to stand by Mr. Gliddon, whose abilities we are sure of, instead of engaging some other leader we don't know quite so well. Mr. Hughes is a capable man. He was paid by the 57th because he was a good musician. We asked Mr. Perver if he would take the leadership, but he refused. [illegible] went in with him." Ald. Crowe's letter was a complete statement of the case.

"If we get a grant from the city we will try to bring in musicians to strengthen the band, so as to ensure good music."

Offered to Retire.

Mr. Gliddon remarked that he had offered to retire from the 57th Regimental Band. "Mr. Hughes is a real good fellow, and he and I got along for seventeen or eighteen years without one discordant note. He didn't think it beneath his dignity to play with us I offered to retire in favour of him at the end of the year."

Position Unchanged.

Mr. Layfield reported that at the meeting of the G. W. V. A. Band on Friday night, the men unanimously decided against amalgamation with the 57th.

"We are not antagonistic to the 57th. All of us have been members. The Officer Commanding stated his views in a fair way. This is not a fight between the Veterans and the 57th. It is a move to establish a community band. We are coming to you with that offer. Our men feel that to play in a band they should not be required to tie themselves up for three years in the Militia. We wish the 57th the best of luck."

Mr. Whatley corroborated Mr. Layfield's report and expressions. If the Council decided not to establish a community band, the G. W. V. A. would endeavour to secure funds for uniforms A movement for that purpose was already under way. The G. W. V. A. bandsmen, after nearly three years' work, didn't feel disposed to lose their identity"

Col. Clegg, replying to an inquiry, stated that 57th bandsmen were required to attend parades and camp, but the regiment never tried to hold a man who desired his discharge. Once a man became dissatisfied, it was better to let him withdraw.

CALL FOR WATERING CARTS AND ROAD OIL

The watering carts and road oil sprayer were paged by the Council last night, but City Engineer Parsons reminded the aldermen that the oil treatment is never a success until the summer heat of June arrives. An order has been placed for a car which is expected to be delivered in a few days.

As for the watering carts, this wing of the anti-dust forces is suffering from the lack of replacements. Some of the rolling stock is so dilapidated that effective service cannot be given with the remaining equipment.

Ald. Copping declared that the streets in his section of the west end were clamoring for water, but Ald. Gainey replied that Mr. Parsons had been unable to attend to his own district in Ashburnham.

Ald. Gordon moved, seconded by Ald. Copping, that the Board of Works be instructed to buy a new watering cart if they considered it necessary. Mr. Parsons discouraged hope from this possible addition, stating that it could not be delivered before autumn.

DAMAGE CLAIM IS SETTLED OUT OF COURT

An order was made to-day in the County Court case of Loretta L. Booth against Bruce Fitzgerald whereby the action was by consent dismissed without costs. Miss Booth claimed damages or injuries sustained when she was struck by his automobile driven by defendant on George street last fall The case was to have been tried at the coming sittings of the county court but has been settled by the plaintiff accepting the money paid into court by the defendant. Mr. Jos. Wearing acted for plaintiff and Mr. O. A. Langley for defendant.

Reviews Position

MYSTERIES OF BUDGET REVEALED IN THE HOUSE TO-DAY.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 18. — Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, presented his first Budget to the House to-day.

Prior to stating his taxation proposition, Sir Henry gave an extensive review of the financial and economic position of the Dominion. Conditions obtaining all over the world, he said, were very different from those which prevailed while the War was in progress. Reduction of the nation's indebtedness, he stated, was the first duty of the country now that the War was over. The task, he maintained, was not so severe as the obstacles overcome in the fire years of the War, and would be "easy and simple" if Canadians could become as united and earnest as during the War period.

Sir Henry sketched the progress of Canadian trade, showing how the excess of import over exports had within the past few years been reversed. He gave a series of tables showing the steady growth in production of wheat and farm produce generally.

Turning to the national debt, Sir Henry said the gross debt amounted to $3,014,483,774 and less investments the net debt was placed at $1,935,946,302.

Referring to the inflation in currency and credits Sir Henry compared the note circulation in Canada with that in other countries, showing that while in Great Britain there was an increase of 207 per cent. and of 70 per cent. in the United States, during the War period in Canada the increase in circulation was 108 per cent. The percentage of gold reserve to the Dominion and bank note circulation was 43 per cent.

"Inflation," said Sir Henry, "can only be safely cured in this as in other countries by Provincial Governments stopping further loans, and by all Government institutions reducing expenditure wherever possible, and by an increased production by all our forms of productive industry."

The Exchange Rate.

Speaking of the adverse exchange rate between this country and the United States, the Finance Minister said: "Undoubtedly the exchange rate is against our national buying from the United States. It cannot be remedied by artificial means and will change of commodities with United States is reduced to a more reasonable rate. Revenue for the fiscal year would reach approximately 388 million dollars, the largest revenue Canada ever collected, he said. It was no less than 255 millions greater than that of the first year of the war. The consolidated fund and ordinary expenditure for 1919-20 would be approximately 349 millions. Giving further statistics Sir Henry stated that the total expenditure for the war up to March 31, 1920, amounted to $1,874,000,000 apart altogether from pensions, soldiers' civil re-establishment land settlement and interest on war debt.

LUNDY PROPERTY OFFERED AT $25,000

EXTENDS FROM PARK STREET TO THE MONAGHAN ROAD—FOR HOUSING SCHEME.

The property owned by D. J. Lundy on Park street, opposite the Baptist church and extending westerly to the Monaghan road, has offered to the city for $25,000. In includes an area touching on Chamberlen street and could be divided into 86 building lots. Mr. Lundy's letter was referred to the Housing Commission.

Spoilng Work of Art.

The Women's Art Association informed the Council last night that children have been handling and marring the figure of "Mercury Charmed by His Lyre," which it is complained should be placed beyond reach. Miss Wallis, the sculptress, is returning to Peterborough this year, and the Art Associaiton point out the desirability of preserving one of her masterpieces.

May Park on Hunter Street.

The suggestion that automobiles be permitted to park on Simcoe street, between George and Aylmer streets, was abandoned by the Council because of the fact that it is frequently used by the fire department. The Legal committee will reconsider its proposal and may recommend the use of Hunter street from the bridge to Water street until the bridge is completed.

Thursday Half Holidays.

The Thursday half holiday in the City Hall begins June 1st this year except in the tax collector's office where the Thursday half holiday extends from July 15th to September 15th. The motion providing for the change was presented by Ald. Gordon and seconded by Ald. Morrison.

BOLSHEVIKS CLAIM SUCCESS.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 18 — Successes against the Poles in the fighting on the northerly part of their front are reported by the Russian Soviet government in an official message from Moscow, dated Monday. The Poles were forced back over the Beresina river at one point, it is claimed.

A PETERBORO RESIDENT REACHES 90TH BIRTHDAY

REMEMBERS WHEN FROGS CHORUSED IN A SWAMP AT THE CORNER OF GEORGE AND HUNTER STREETS.

"More hard work and less play and movie shows," is the solution for the present high prices and the general unrest, offered by Mr. George Young, who celebrated his 90th birthday today at his home 569 Park street.

In conversation this morning, Mr. Young said he came to Canada from Edinburgh, in 1834, and landed in Quebec after a trip which took from May 24th until September 18th. The journey was fraught with much difficulty, and there was an epidemic of cholera and subsequent quarantine at the island where the sailing vessel first landed.

After a tedious trip by boat through Ottawa, then Bytown, he arrived in Port Hope, and drove by Weller's stage to Monaghan, about 5 miles from Peterboro, where his parents settled in a log house built in the middle of a small clearing.

"Those were the days," Mr. Young continued, "when you shivered in bed as the wolves in the woods howled, when the sun went down; when bears stole your pigs and deer were frequent visitors. While I was myself never attacked by wolves it was no uncommon occurrence for the people driving into the hamlet of Peterboro to be followed by a small pack.

Living Cheap.

"Then we used to take our wheat to the mill and get 40 pounds of flour from a bushel of wheat, and our bread was as good as they are selling to-day at 28c a loaf. Eggs sold at 7c and 8c a dozen, and all prices were in keeping with those I have mentioned.

Peterboro a Swamp.

Speaking of Peterboro, Mr. Young said his earliest recollections of it were when there was not one brick in the place, when Monaghan and Peterboro were one, and when there were only two gaps in the dense forests between his father's place, five miles out on the gravel road, to George street. "Property has changed in value since then," he continued, "I remember when John Reid was offered the corner on which Mr. Wm. Madill's drug store now stands, for [illegible] deed, and he refused it, as the frogs on the site, (then Kelly's swamp) squeaked too much. Aylmer street commenced at a dense woods."

A Young Man.

Though 90 years of age, Mr. Young is younger than many a man of 50, and retains his faculties. He works his garden every day and never misses church on Sunday. His faithful attendance at church and advanced years were referred to by Rev. Robt. Pogue in St. Paul's church on Sunday. He celebrated his golden wedding in 1907 but Mrs. Young passed away some time later.

THE SITUATION IS NOT SERIOUS

WORK IS UNDER WAY ON THE HYDRO DEVELOPMENT SCHEME.

(Special to The Examiner.)

NIAGARA FALLS, May 18.—While the situation is serious, it is not bad enough to warrant the statements that work on the Chippewa Hydro development is "disorganised practically all over the job," and that hundreds of men are quitting work. The men, pending the decision of the Ontario Legislature, have settled back to work on the 13 mile stretch of the canal construction.

Less than a third of the 2,600 men employed on th job are foreigners, and there are men commencing work and others quitting every day. A small percentage of those on the work are preparing to leave, and are for the most part men who preferred the ten-hour day, with time and a half for the extra two hours overtime, than the eight-hour day in force since last Saturday.

LATEST NEWS DESPATCHES

(Special to The Examiner.)

WASHINGTON, May 18. — A settlement of the controversy over the [illegible] tended over several weeks) is expected to-day or to-morrow by the Department of Labor officials. Concessions obtained by Secretary of Labor Wilson from both the miners and the operators during daily conferences, the officials said, have made possible a peaceful settlement.

TRADE INCREASE.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, May 18. — An increase of $32,633,172 in the grand total of the Canadian trade for the month of April, as compared with April, 1919, is shown by the trade statement issued to-day by the Customs Department,

The trade of Canada during the past month reached a total value of $154,161,134, as compared with $121,527,962 for the same month last year. It is noticeable however that while there was a great increase in the value of goods imported into Canada as compared with a year ago, there was a decrease of $11,132,763 in the value of good exported.

(Special to The Examiner.)

TORONTO, May 18. — Argument was begun this morning by W. N. Tilley, K.C., Counsel for R. Carr Harris, in the latter's suit against the Canadian General Electric Company, for $68,000, claimed as commission on munition orders obtained for the company from England.

Mr. Tilley gave a list of orders on which commission was claimed and contended that his client's employment as an independent contractor was not like that of a servant of the company.

SOVIETS IN FRANCE.

(Special to The Examiner.)

PARIS, May 18. — Soviet rule in France was to have been established if the revolutionary strikes inaugurated on May 1st had succeeded, according to the French police who said to-day they had obtained complete evidence of this from the documents they secured.

S. A. CAMPAIGN OPENED YESTERDAY

The Salvation Army Self-Denial Campaign started on its five-day drive yesterday, with a good start, to roll up $5,000.00 for their most commendable work. The teams report that everywhere they have had an excellent reception, and the public seems well acquainted with the purpose of the camnaign, and are ready to subscribe all they can to the cause.

Team No. 9, W. H. Bradburn, reports $15.50 for yesterday Team No. 5, J. M. Greene, $36.40. Team No. 4, R. M. Glover, $34.00.

SIMPLT TEST FOR DIAMONDS

ALMOST A FATALITY

While driving his car past the corner of Charlotte and George streets last night, a prominent young man almost ran over a young lady who was crossing George street at the time. The young man explained that he was hurrying to secure tickets to hear Joe Williams sing "I'm Shy Mary Ellen I'm Shy" in Victoria Hall on Friday night, and on agreeing to have the young lady accompany him, we may expect to hear more about this remarkable escape from serious injury!

MR. W. R. BREYFOGLE GAVE AN ADDRESS

The sixty business and professional men who saw the first showing of the advertising film of the De Laval Co. last night in Board of Trade Chambers, were visibly impressed with the advertising possibilities of these films. The film, which was largely taken in the plant of the Montreal Dairy, Ltd., Montreal, showed the dairy machines for clarifying and pasteurising milk making butter and ice-cream, and kindred appliances manufactured by the local company in actual use. Scenes from the farm illustrated milking machines on the job and cream separators and other machinery for the dairymen.

The film was very interesting, and with Mr. W. R. Breyfogle, general manager of the De Laval Manufacturing Company, explaining the different phases of the operations, and also the milk and dairy situation in Canada, the film was doubly interesting.

This film will be shown in about two hundred theatres in Canada, and will be shown in a local house during its circuit. No one should miss this picture when it comes to Peterborough. Outside of its advertising the De Laval Company, it will serve as an advertising medium for this city.

COUNTRY IS IN NEED OF RAIN

"We need rain badly in the country" one farmer told The Examiner to-day. "The crops are all looking well, from general reports, but will not continue so unless a good rain happens along. The clover and fall wheat are coming along nicely, but the dry weather has held up their growth."

Hay on the market sold for $26.00, $28.00, and $30.00, but did not sell very readily at the latter price.

NEWS DESPATCHES

YOUNG CULPRIT HIS OWN LAWYER.

(Special to The Examiner.)

NEW YORK, May 18. — John Brant is only 13 but he conducted his own case in the childrens' court. "You might charge me with receiving stolen goods, but not grand larceny," he said. "I stood outside while two other boys robbed the place."

READ HIS OWN OBITUARY.

(Special to The Examiner.)

ROCHESTER, May 18. — Wallace Vanorder saw a report of his death in the newspapers. Vanorder went to the morgue to view the remains, and announced like Mark Twain, that "the reports were greatly exaggerated"

NEW ORLEANS HAS "OLD CLOTHES DAY"

NEW ORLEANS, May 17.—A day designated as "old clothes day" in New Orleans was announced in a proclamation issued by Acting Mayor Ricks.

The proclamation urged all men to wear old clothes as a protest against high clothing prices.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freezone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Freezone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

CLEANLINESS IS HEALTH

By the use of Gillett's Lye, house cleaning is made a pleasure instead of a drudgery. It softens the water and cleans thoroughly whether the dirt is visible or invisible. Destroys all bacteria and infectious germs, removes obstructions from drain pipes, closets, sinks, etc. Refrigerators are made delightfully fresh and clean by using one teaspoonful of Gillett's Lye dissolved in two gallons of water.

DUMMER TOWNSHIP COUNCIL

A special meeting of the Municipal Council of the Township of Dummer, was held in the Town Hall, on Friday the 7th day of May, commencing at 11 o'clock in the forenoon; the Reeve and Councillors were all present, minutes of formr meeting were read over and confirmed. The question of the By-law respecting a Township levy of the amount of $3,500. for the purpose of erecting a memorial monument to the memory of our soldier boys whose lives were forfeited on the battlefields, and otherwise in the service of our Country as Soldiers from the Township of Dummer, was taken up to be finally passed. It was moved by J. J. Crowe seconded by W. D. Robson, that a by-law to levy and collect the sum of $3,500. for the purpose of erecting a Soldiers Memorial Monument at the village of Warsaw, be now read a first time; after the first reading thereof it was moved in amendment by George Barr seconded by Er. Hamblin that the council levy not more than $2,500. for the Monument; The Reeve decided in favor of the original motion, and the by-law to make a levy of $3,500. was passed in due form.

Moved by J. J. Crowe seconded by Ed. Hamblin, that a special grant of $150. be made to be expended on the Stoney Lake road to meet a grant from the County for the same amount to be expended on the same road. Moved by Ed. Hamblin seconded by J. J. Crowe, that a By-law be passed at next meeting of council, to further amend by-law 877, to authorize the Overseer of Roads and Bridges in the Township of Dummer, to issue an order on the Treasurer for payment of any employees for work done under his direction as such overseer. Moved by J. J. Crowe, seconded by George Barr, that the Reeve and Clerk be appointed to attend and consult with the Douro Council respecting Municipal Telephone service in part of the Township of Dummer, in compliance with a requisition now made by a number of applicants from the Township of Dummer.

Council adjourned to meet as a Court of Revision on the Assessment Roll for the year 1920, in the town hall, at Warsaw, on Tuesday the 25th day of May 1920, commencing at 10.30 o'clock in the forenoon.

INSISTS WILL BARS HENRY FIELD'S SON

COUNSEL FOR MARSHALL FIELD, 3D, ARGUES ONLY LEGAL ISSUE WAS MEANT.

CHICAGO, May17.—The relations of the late Henry Field, a grandson of Marshall Field, and Peggy Marsh, an actress were the subject of much of the argument in the resumption of the trial of the action brought in behalf of Marshall Field, 3d, for a construction of his grandfather's will.

The claim of Peggy Marsh on behalf of her son, Henry Anthony Marsh, to a share of the $100,000,000 estate of the late Marshal Field was termed ridiculous by Edward O. Brown, representing Marshall Field, 3d. The question as to whether Mr. Field intended to include possible illegitimate children of any of his heirs he asserted not worthy of argument.

The question centres around the word "issue," used in one place in the Field will, and the term "legal issue," used in another place, in reference to the children of Marshall Field, 3d, and Henry Field. In one place Mr. Field made provision for the "issue" of his sons, providing Marshall and Henry should die before the expiration of the long term $100,000,000 trust.

"After Henry Field and Peggy Marsh had erred they acted pretty decently on both sides," said former Governor Edward F. Dunne, counsel for Henry Anthony Marsh.

"When faced with maternity Peggy Marsh was neither a coward nor an infanticide. She bestowed upon her son all the love of a mother. Henry Field proved himself to be a man. He lavished money on his son and its mother, left nothing undone that would add to their comfort and before marrying signed a contract to support them."

According to the contract, Henry Field was to pay to Peggy Marsh during their joint lives $10,000 a year for the support of her and the child. When the boy became 5 and 10 years old the sum was to be increased by $2,500, to go toward his education. Field also took out an insurance policy for $100,000, of which, at his death, $20,000 would go to the mother and the child, and the remainder would be invested to bring an income of 5 per cent.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it ad draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

CORNER KING AND GEORGE

CONTINUES ALL THIS WEEK UP UNTIL AFTER THE 24th OF MAY

OUR BARGAINS always leave an echo round the City and County of Peterborough. It is no wonder we have worked up such a large trade. Our motto is "Fairness and Honesty," and this motto always makes a customer satisfied. We never look for large profits — we always figure out the smallest margin of profit and thereby make more and quicker sales, when we give the customer a share of our profits.

This sale will be an exception to any other sale before for the reason that we had more difficulty in securing all needed goods at reasonable prices, and by hard work succeed in clearing out the balance of a big manufacturer's stock at greatly reduced prices. This is why this sale is better than usual.

THE BAND GRANTS.

The band queston has been finally settled by the City Council—settled in the usual manner by splitting the grant, the bands of the G.W.V.A. and the Peterborough Rangers each to receive $500. All efforts to effect an amalgamation between the two organizations have been fruitless and the majority of the Council are apparently not anxious to attempt to form a citizens' band, so that the situation is just where it was two months ago, with the difference that the Salvation Army, which withdrew its application for a grant to facilitate the organization of a citizens' band, does not share in the division of the appropriation. As events have turned out, the Temple musicians might just as well have remained in the field and secured a portion of the grant, for their self-sacrifice has only enlarged the share of the other two organizations.

It is certain that the question of a citizens' band is not likely to be brought forward again for some time. With the Council refusing the offer of the G.W.V.A. to make a grant of $1,000 to provide uniforms, an offer that was supplemented by the promise of a free band room with heat and light, there is not much likelihood of a proposition of this kind being advanced again.

A MISTAKE IN POLICY.

There is every respect for the work of the Social Service in Canada, and its aims and objects are such as to commend themselves to the public generally. These facts, however, do not necessarily mean that the leaders in this work cannot make mistakes and there are many who believe that a mistake was made in sending a resolution to the Ontario government opposing the formation of a boxing commission. Boxing, when conducted on a proper basis, is a clean, manly sport, and as Premier Drury remarked yesterday in welcoming the Falcons, clean sport brings out in the athletes their very best, both physically and morally. The Social Service leaders might reasonably have been expected to approve of a plan that was to ensure that the best features of boxing would be preserved, while all questionable elements would be removed. Their action in attempting to block the formation of a commission is therefore not only difficult to understand, but leaves the organization open to the charge of being narrow and prejudiced in its views, a verdict that cannot fail to interfere with the work the Social Service heads are endeavouring to carry on.

TAXING AUTOMOBILES.

The proposal of the Galt city council that the Ontario government be asked to empower the municipalities to collect a tax rated at $1 per horse power from automobile owners, the money to be expended iin road work, is the sort of a plan that will meet with approval — except from those who possess motor cars. As the number of the latter class is constantly increasing there is not much likelihood of the plan receiving general endorsation, and the action of the local City Conucil in refusing to approve of it will likely be imitated in other centres. And yet there is much to be said in favour of the suggestion despite the fact that some of the aldermen found it a subject for levity. Motor cars have added considerably to the expense of keeping roads in repair, and a tax of the kind proposed would be a levy for road work thta would be collected from those who are principally responsible for the repairs that are necessary. The principle of charging so much per horse power is also sound, for the heaviest tax would fall upon the man with the most powerful car, who is generally the man with the largest purse. The proposal may be turned down now, but sooner or later some such system will be adopted.

Belt Efficiency Lowers Power Cost

Do you know how many drives in your plant are wasting power? There are a number in most every plant. Each one a leak that is helping to create a stream of lost production dollars. These leaks are called pulley slippage, idle machines, idle employees, spoiled material, undersized belts, poor fabric and worse construction.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting

will place your transmission equipment on the nearest possible approach to 100 per cent. efficiency that you may ever expect to obtain.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting is not merely rubberized fabric. It is saturated with a special friction rubber compound, which makes it water-proof, vulcanizes the fabric plies together, and practically eljminates all slipping on the pulleys—whether it is used on main drive, inter-shaft or machine.

Dominion Rubber System Belting Engineers, after thoroughly studying your requirements, without cost to you, will specify the correct belt for each given purpose that all power waste may be eliminated—that idle employees may be forgotten, and that your production may be brought to the greatest volume possible with practically no increase in overhead.

TO-MORROW'S BY-LAW.

The Canadian Raybestos By-law has been so thoroughly explained, and the advantages the securing of this industry will bring to Peterborough are apparently so well appreciated that it is scarcely necessary to say anything further about the measure except to remind the ratepayers that the vote is to be taken to-morrow. A list of polling sub-divisions is published elsewhere in this issue. If you have Peterborough's interests at heart you will consult this list, find out where you vote and get out to-morrow and mark an X in the "yes" column. New industries add new life blood to a community, and Peterborough can only keep up to the progress of rival cities by getting her share of the factories that are being located in Canada. So far this year the city has been very successful in this line and to-morrow presents an opportunity to secure another promising industry that should develop into a most flourishing concerp. It is the duty of the citizens to-morrow to make no mistake, but to give the Raybestos company measure a big majority and add another fine plant to the city's list of manufacturing firms.

A WISE DECISION.

The decision of the men employed on the Chippawa development work of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission not to go on strike until a commission has been appointed by the Legislature to inquire into the causes of the dispute and propose a remedy, is a sane step that will earn them public sympathy. Beyond a doubt as the Labor members of the Legislature who addressed the workers pointed out, sentiment was against the proposed strike, and the men employed on the Chippawa scheme would have been without that moral support of the public which is necessary to carry their cause through to victory. By postponing direct action to give the Legislature a chance to investigate the situation they have placed themselves in a position whereby they can command public sympathy if it can be shown that their case is a good one. Sir Adam Beck by his refusal to consent to a board of conciliation or arbitration to consider the claims of the workers, has not helped to make a settlement easier and the Labour members of the government who have directed their energies to heading off a strike have done much more for the province than has the Hydro knight. Had it not been for their efforts a walkout would have certainly occurred yesterday and there were prospects of the strike involving the employees of the Hydro Commission's generating and transmitting stations at Niagara Falls, who were preparing to quit their work in sympathy with their comrades. The result of such a calamity would have been disastrous for a million people in the power zone would have been effected. The Labour members, in averting for the present at least, a strike on the Chippawa development work, have earned the thanks of the public.

UNCLE SAM'S TRUMP CARD.

Senator Underwood's gentle hint the other day to the effect that if the Canadian authorities should persist in enforcing an embargo on the export of pulpwood Uncle Sam might do something in the shape of keeping coal, cotton, and other raw materials from the list of articles exportable to Canada, has caused some of our Canadian neighbours to show irritation.—Buffalo Courier.

Not irritation only, but apprehension, too.

There is no denying that Uncle Sam's power to deprive Central Canada of coal whenever it may suit his purpose to do so is a trump card which he has often played to good advantage. Rather it is a whip with which he has more than once flourished and cracked with considerable effect to intimidate us Canadians.

He has this power over us. But he ought not to be allowed the full advantage of it much longer. It is a patriotic duty of this generation of Canadians to make this country independent of the United States for its coal supply. The question whether it could be made practicable to bring Nova Scotia coal to Ontario and have it sold at reasonable prices, is one which the Federal authorities ought to have investigated without delay. Also the feasibility of utilising the coal and lignite of the west for use in the east. Even if it were necessary for the haulage of this Canadian fuel from the points of production to the points of consumption to be paid for partly out of the national treasury, it might be a public expenditure well warranted. To be independent in the matter of fuel supply and free from intimidation would be worth a great deal to Canada.

How unjust this intimidation is! The Provincial Governments of Ontario, Quebec, and New Brunswick, in order to conserve the pulpwood resources of those provinces, have passed laws forbidding the cutting of pulpwood on Crown lands for purposes of export. The Federal Government has nothing to do with those laws—has no power to repeal them or have them altered; but the Federal Government of Canada is called upon to secure the abrogation of those laws, in order that American paper makers may deplete the pulpwood resources of the three Canadian Provinces, and if the Canadian Government does not do what it has no power to do, Uncle Sam may punish the whole Canadian people by cutting off their supply of coal, cotton, and other raw materials.

Would it not be pleasant to be in a position to say, "Go ahead, Sam, and do your worst?"

As for cotton, it is now being cultivated with success in the Soudan, in Nigeria, in India, and other tropical parts of the British Empire, and it may not be long before the Empire is independent of the United States for its supply of raw cotton. As for coal, the remedy lies in Canada's own hands.—Hamilton Herald.

A Coach of Beauty Adorns This Silent Chalmers

THE fine craftsmanship of coach building turned itself loose in this new appearing Chalmers. You observe a high front line and a low rear line, which a well known artist has said is the way a car should look.

You find nothing severe, however, about this Chalmers. It has a new elegance, a new grace; and yet a quiet reserve distinguishes the car from others.

Particularly does this appeal to you after you've been seated and touch your foot to the accelerator.

The silent flow of power, the notable harmony, the ease of the engine engage you.

And again you pay a compliment to Hot Spot and Ram's-Horn, which tackle the low grade gas of the day and make it perform.

Thus the beauty which the eye sees is enhanced by the beauty of action of its master engine; and you, too, say with so many others that Chalmers surely is one of the few great cars of the world.

PAYMENT FOR PUPILS FROM OUTSIDE

Reform in High School Matters Urged on Ontario's Government.

TORONTO, May 18.—Upwards of a hundred high school representatives waited on the Ontario Government urging reforms in school matters. Their main request was that outside municipalities from those in which high schools and collegiates were located should pay the full 100 per cent. of the cost of pupils attending instead of 65 per cent. as at present. It was argued that the pupils living outside of the actual municipality in which the school was located were being educated at unfair expense to the school municipality. Various speakers thought all municipalities should pay an equal and full share.

Premier Drury said that nothing could be done this session but that the whole school system including this particular request would be fully investigated during the recess following the present session. The government had some sympathy with the request of the deputation. The main speakers for the deputation were J. N. McKendrick, Galt Collegiate Institute; Judge Scott of Perth; and William McDonald, ex-M. P. P., Chesley.

$50—NO BENEFIT

This money might have been saved by Mr. Z. D'Muro of 722 Papineau Ave., Montreal, had he only known of Zam-Buk sooner. Writing to the proprietors of Zam-Buk, a short time ago, he said:

"For over a year I suffered with eczema which nothing seemed able to cure. I had treatment from three doctors, which cost me $50, but none of them were able to cure me. I suffered intensely from the irritation and pain, and I thought I should never get relief, until one day a friend told me about Zam-Buk and I started using it right away. From the very first application I felt better. Zam-Buk relieved the irritation and seemed to cool and soothe the sores. Gradually the sores began to heal and, with perseverance, Zam-Buk completely rid me of the disease.

"I would like to be able to tell all sufferers from eczema to stop experimenting with useless remedies and use Zam-Buk. By using this balm in the first place they would save themselves needless suffering and expense."

Zam-Buk should be in every home, not only for skin troubles, boils, rashes, pimples, abscesses and ulcers, but also for cuts, burns, and scalds, for which it is indispensable. Get a box to-day. It will keep indefinitely and still retain its strength and purity. All dealers, 50c. box.

Send this coupon, piece of paper, and 1c. stamp (for return postage) to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, and they will send you free trial box. 425

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

JUNIOR HAS A NEW NURSE

CHAPTER CXXV

My boy was two years old. Miss Lane had remained until he was 20 months, then Everett had yielded to my persuasions and hired a young woman, a graduate from a babies' hospital, and highly recommended.

Miss Pierce was a little younger than I. She was pretty, agreeable and congenial. I was delighted at first to have so pleasant a person around instead of Miss Lane, whom I never had learned to like altho I was obliged to accede her capable.

Junior had had several slight illnesses, aside from cutting his teeth and Miss Lane had carried him thru them without any trouble; yet with a good deal of anxiety on my part. He was a fine big boy for his age, and so cunning. When he was two I said that was the cunning age, and thereafter, every year, until he was seven I repeated the same thing!

Miss Pierce fitted in our household from the first. Mrs. Gray and Hetty liked her as well as the other servants. The baby took to her at once; as also did Everett.

"I think she is going to do nicely." he said a few days after her arrival. "She seems intelligent, is good to look at, and will be an addition to the household."

"Yes—I think—she will do. "I rejoined, thinking only that he had said "she is good to look at."

Suppose I had brought someone into the house only to have Everett fall in love with her? Not yet had I stopped fretting because I felt I had not possessed the same kind of love he gave Leola. I was more sure of his affection as time passed but it was quiet, undemonstrative affection ,while I craved the passionate expression he gave his first wife The note I had found and which had caused me so much agony, I still kept I do not pretend to explain why. I knew every word by heart, and I surely did not intend to show it to him.

I never had told him of the visit from the wife of the man who had loved Leola. Occasionally I thought of that strange visitor who had come and gone, like a ship in the night. Then it was with pity, as I visualized again her face from which all joy seemed to have fled. The woman who loving a man, living with him, had watched him die with the name of careless, pleasure-loving Leola on his lips!

"Someday I may tell him. "I said to myself when thinking of Leola. "Some day I'll tell him how that other woman called her 'a vampire,' Perhaps then he won't love her so well," but as yet I had not the courage to do so.

Now my jealousy was again aroused I watched Miss Pierce closely, yet I could not see that she sought to attract Everett in any way. But the slightest attention to her on his part would make me furious, and terribly unhappy.

"Have I done anything to offend or annoy you, Mrs. Graham? she asked one day when Everett had given her some little thing —a rose, I think it was. He had brought me a box of flowers. I was out of the room. When I came in neither of them heard me. Miss Pierce was exclaiming upon the beauty of the flowers and he selected one and gave it to her

I had turned and crept quietly from the room. When Everett brought me the flowers, I took them most ungraciously, scarcely thanking him. He looked hurt, but said nothing. I could not act natural with Miss Pierce, hence her question.

"No, you have done nothing," the rose was pinned at her waist, and to save my life I could not avoid looking at it. She flushed, but said no more. A little time afterward when she came to me about something, it had disappeared.

I felt ashamed, but as usual apologized to myself by muttering: "I couldn't help it," that was my plea when I did such things, It was my nature to be jealous, and so I could not help it.

I wish ardently that I could make every girl understand, to give way to jealous impulses is a sure road to unhappiness. To love, to trust—that is happiness.

To-morrow—Rose Again.

ONLY TABLETS MARKED "BAYER" ARE ASPIRIN

Not Aspirin at All without the "Bayer Cross"

The name "Bayer" stamped on tablets positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over nineteen years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes containing 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

Voice Of The People

Editor Examiner,

Dear Sir,—

In Saturday's issue a resident of Princess street very logically and forcibly protests against the proposed outrage of cutting up King Edward Park into building lots.

Your correspondent points out the folly of incurring addition needless sewer, water and light expense in building a new street in this quicksand area, but why in the name of common sense sacrifice a park when acres of building lots are vacant, without going outside the boundary or off the street car line.

We think this Aldermanic dream has the ordinary "fool proposition" beaten to a frazzle; they had better build a terrace on Water street along Victoria Park front; we could still hold the band concerts on the hill side.

A general criticism of several formed councils has been their failure to provide ample park and playground space before land prices became prohibitive, the scarcity or price of lots is not a serious item in house building at the present time and this ridiculous proposal is nothing short of an outrage on the future, when these hundreds of vacant lots are built upon and recreation space required. The City Council cannot change to any appreciable extent the abnormal conditions under which the building trade suffers at the present time—conditions almost world-wide—it would be just as sensible for them to try and reduce the price of wheat.

If the Council wants to help house the working man who cannot afford to pay $20 per month rent, this absurd proposal of a 40 foot lot with its consequent frontage taxation is certainly not a solution. The trend of taxation in the near future is on land values—the workman's lot must be narrow, 30 feet is ample and 25 feet is sufficient.

This proposition is not for the workman at all but to provide for the highly paid foreman or skilled mechanic who is able to pay his own way.

If the city builds on these lots it will cost about $5,000 per house to the purchaser with interest at six per cent, taxes $75.00, it will take over $30.00 per month to cover expense along with principal and depreciation additional to provide for.

This is only a scheme favoring the manufacturers in providing for their leading men and leaving the ordinary workingman to shift for himself as best he can.

Let the Council get busy on taxing vacant land until it is forced into use and they will thereby take one important step in making future conditions better for all—but hands off the parks and recreation grounds—instead of less, we will need more in the future.

What has our new Town Planning Commission to say about this proposed confiscation of the people's property without even consulting them about it?

In conclusion, if this scheme goes through and an injunction can be secured to protect the people's rights and prevent the confiscation of their property without their consent that step will be taken.

Yours,
CITIZEN.

Peterborough, May 15, 1920.

Sir,—It is certainly refreshing to know that we have at least one alderman who has the courage of his convictions. Alderman Crowe deserves the support of the people in his endeavour to cut out what he terms a "downright nuisance" This eternal joy-riding up and down George Street. It was, of course, not expected he would receive any support from the aldermen present, who have their sails trimmed to the fraction of an inch to catch the slightest breeze of popularity that blows. Here we have in Ald. Crowe a man who is bold enough to tackle a question that even the pulpits and our great social uplifters have been afraid to touch. They speak of the evils of the bar room, the cigarette, and divorce, but they fail to tackle this, the greatest evil of them all. The automobile is here to stay, and it can be safely said it is at once the greatest convenience and the greatest curse of the twentieth century. The bar room and the disorderly house are things of the past—there is no necessity for these institutions now. The great social uplifters on this North American Continent have deprived the poor jaded and begrimmed working man of his refreshing and invigorating glass of beer or whisky ;but we have instead a far more deadly and insidious form of intoxication in this joy-riding, and and one to which young women especially are most susceptible.

Too bad we have not a whole flock of Crowes scattered throughout our pulpits, our Commons, and our Legislature.—Yours truly, Observer.

Two hunters killed a deer, and, chancing to come on a party of campers, they sold it by the pound. They had no proper means of weighing it, but each man knew his own weight. One was 130 pounds and the other 190 pounds. They placed a rail across the fence so that it balanced with one of them on each end. They then exchanged places, the lighter man taking the deer in his lap and the rail again balanced. What was the weight of the deer?

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

EXPENDITURE ON HUNTER STREET BRIDGE $224,919.73 TO MAY 3RD

OF THIS SUM $90,000 REPRESENST CREDITS OF STOCK ON HAND, ESTIMATED SALVAGE, ETC.—COUNCIL IMPATIENT FOR BECK'S REPORT ON STREET RAILWAY EXTENSIONS.

The total expenditure on the Hunter street bridge up to May 3rd was $224,919.73 according to the statement of the city's accountant, Mr. Alex. Elliott, to the Council last night.

This sum is reduced by $90,435 covering estimated salvage, stock on hand, and other items, leaving $134,484.73 as the amount spent in the actual construction of the bridge up to May 3rd. One of the largest items in the summary is $55,862.84 for concrete.

Stock on hand totals $62,765, buildings $2,000, temporary bridge $5,670 and salvage estimate $20,000 making the total of $90,435.00.

Ald. Whitehouse Appointed

A bylaw was passed appointing Ald. Whitehouse a member of the County suburban road commission succeeding the late Ald. Harry Phelan. Mr. Ernest Deyell of Otonabee, is the county's representative.

Want Street Material.

G. Foster and other ratepayers petitioned that the street be watered this year.

Ald Gainey moved that Ald. Morrison and Fire Chief Grange consider the proposal to place a hydrant at the corner of Euclid avenue and Erskine street.

Garage for City.

With the purchase of an automobile for the police department Ald. Hamilton stated that a garage was necessary and moved seconded by Ald. Copping that the City Trust be requested to build a garage at the rear of the city buildings for the police car and the two used by the board of works.

Waiting Beck's Report.

Ald. Gainey said that the report on local street railway extensions promised by Sir Adam Back had not yet been received. His motion seconded by Ald. Copping asking that this report be forwarded to the Council was adopted.

Call Meeting Here.

Ald. Gordon moved seconded by Ald Turner that Ald. Gainey be authorized to call a meeting in Peterboro of representatives of the municipalities interested in the proposed electric railway connecting this city to the Toronto and Eastern Railway at whatever town is decided upon, either, Oshawa, Bowmanville or Whitby.

Will Assist Board of Health.

The Board of Health's request that City Solicitor Widdifield act for them in legal matters was granted on Ald. Turner's motion, and a minimum stipend of $50 was granted Mr. Widdifield for these extra services was adopted in a motion by Ald. Gordon seconded by Ald. Hamilton.

Free License Restricted.

Frank Munden asked for the renewal of the license he was given without charge last summer permitting him to sell refreshments in Inverlea Park.

The license given him by the Council last night good from the first of June to the end of September does not include permission to sell cigarettes.

May Remove Ono Tree.

To remove the houses on Burnham street, adjoining the new bridge which he bought from the city, David Conroy sought permssion to cut down four trees.

City Engineer recommended that he be allowed to take out one tree on condition that he plant a new one and take care of it until it grows strong and is able to shift for itself.

Mr. Parson's report was adopted on Ald. Gordon's motion.

"He has it down anyway," Ald Jones commented.

Letter orf Acknowledgment

Mrs. Bertha M. Whittaker writing on behalf of the family of the late W. H. Moore cordially acknowledged the Council's tributes to her father and his long public service.

THE HOUSING PROBLEM

Our City Council appears to be unable to come to a clear conception as to its duty regarding furnishing houses for persons who come here to live or for people now living here who want new homes to live in. In short, there are many people who want some persons to build houses for their accomodation.

It is well for the citizens to give this matter careful thought to see if they are under any obligation to spend many tens of thousands of dollars for the accomodation of people who have not been able to save money to build their own homes.

For nearly 100 years citizens here built houses in Peterboro and rented them. The land was cheap, lumber and other material was cheap, labor was cheap but rents were very low.

Now I figure that no man can build houses to rent unless he gets at least 10 per cent. on his money. I assume that th e landlord pays insurance, taxes, natural decay and the ordinary wear and tear, shingling, painting, plumbing, furnaces, etc., and then gets a rental that will leave him at least 6 or 7 per cent. on his investment. Who wants such an investment? If his money is idle then he can invest in mortgages, bank stocks, or Municipal or Gevernment Debentures. These give no worry or trouble. At present most people who have money lying by are putting it into bonds. Houses are troublesome. Why should the citizens be compelled to put up their money to build houses for strangers?

The man who does this mortgages his own property to get money to build houses for strangers. You ask, how is that? The answer is evident. The City Council borrows money in its notes, called debentures, then they tax you and me and all the citizens so long as the debentures are outstanding. They raise by force off us whether we like it or not, enough each year to pay off the debenture in, say 20 years. It generally requires 10 per cent. per annum to pay off these debentures. In short, you are loading your property and your earnings to accomodate people you know nothing about and for whom you care less.

These people who move into your houses are supposed to pay enough to the city to pay off the mortgages you are loading your property with, but can you guarantee that the tenants will live? will pay? will not abuse the houses. The only thing you are sure of is, that in the first instances You are putting up the money, You will have to pay the debentures, You are voluntarily taking the chances. Will the tenants all insure their lives or will you have to assume this extra responsibility?

If the head of the family breaks his leg or becomes sick and helpless he will be loaded on you or his family will. You are voluntarily assuming the responsibility for the debt you are asked to assume. Who put up the houses we live in? Why should a town council have power to load the citizens with this new fad?

Why not let the factories who pay their dividends and put millions away to their rest build the houses. McLaughlins', of Oshawa, do this for their employees. Why should not Peterboro manufacturers put up houses for their workmen.

These people can collect their rents out of the wages. Let others do it! If the citizens are wise they will out their hands on their pockets and keep what they have and not let the City Council put their "Municipal hand" on your purse to build houses at exorbitant cost for people you would not lend $100 to.

When you are out o'stepable, keep out! and don't let strangers called "Councillors" or "Trustees" do with your money what your own judgment does not prompt you to do of your own free will.

It is easy for the Council to pass By-laws for the next 20 years, or until the debentures are paid. The interest and sinking fund will be raised off you by annual taxes. Let the people speak out and forbid the Council from putting on the ratepayers this burden of costly houses which never was and never will be a profitable investment. Our citizens are not building houses at this time of exorbitant cost. Has the Council any magic way of building that individuals don't know of. Citizen Dobbin, after learning all he could, does not recommend the Council to build. He is too honest to do it. Now take an old man's advice—keep your hands off the houses. Let those people build who can prove it is justifiable to do it. Don't let an irresponsible Council load your property up with more taxes to be levied on your property for the rest of your years.

between two fires

Given a personable young man, a socially inclined mother and a popular actress bent on horrifying the family of her betrothed—well, the result is worth finding out. As an actress, Miriam succeeded so well that she very nearly lost more than she originally bargained for. And poor Tony, torn between love for his histrionic fiancee and his doting mother was indeed "between two fires." It's not a comfortable place to be. Tony's predicament is highly amusing—you'll thoroughly enjoy "Two Women and Tony" by Henry P. Holt, appearing in the May issue of

PIMPLES ON FACE CUTICURA HEALS

Caused Disfigurement. Itchy and Burning. Had Restless Nights.

"My face came out in little pimples that were sore, and I scratched them constantly, and then they turned into scales, causing much disfigurement. The skin was so itchy that I irritated it by scratching. The burning was fierce, and I had many restless nights.

"This trouble lasted about a year before I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) W. Byrns, St. Basile, Que., Nov. 23, 1918.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

THE SUN LIFE OF CANADA, with over $105,000,000.00 of Assets, is the logical place to Insure.

CARUSO OVATION IN HAVANA

Tenor, Who is Receiving $10,000 a Performance, Opens in "Martha"

HAVANA.—Enrico Caruso made his initial appearance here "Martha" and received an ovation from an audience that packed the National Theatre to capacity. He was supported by Maria Barrientos, the Spanish singer, who took the role of Lady Harriet.

When Caruso, who is receiving $10,000 for each appearance here, entered his automobile following the performance he was again greeted with applause and handclapping by a crowd waiting outside the theatre.

Adolfo Brocale, manager of the opera company stated that the receipts for the opening engagement totaled $47,000.

FARMER AT PONTYPOOL ENDED LIFE

Wm. Edgerton, an Elderly Man, Succeeded in Hanging Himself.

A tragedy took place on the farm of Mr. William Edgerton, one mile north of Pontypool, Saturday morning, when that gentleman ended his life by hanging. His lifeless body was found hanging from the rafters in the sheep pen at an early hour in the morning.

It appears that the deceased had been ailing in health for several years and was despondent. He was well known and about two years ago lived on a farm one mile north of Janetville.

The brush and comb should be washed once a week in ammounia water.

THE KING GEORGE HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The executive of the newly formed Home and School Association in the King George School, Ashburnham, are surely to be congratulated on the wonderful success of their first regular meeting on Friday evening, May 14th. In spite of the fact that many homes are quarantined with measles, the kindergarten room was crowded to capacity.

In looking over the audience one found a splendid representation of the men of Ashburnham which augurs well for the success of the Association. It may be Woman's Day but the greatest achievements require the combined efforts of both men and women. We shall look for great success from such an organization as we saw gathered together.

President's Address.

Mrs. A. S. Cowper, president, occupied the chair. In her address she expressed her appreciation of the honor conferred upon her in electing her as president of such a promising association and urged the members to take an active and personal interest in the association so that its value might be felt in the community.

After the reading of the minutes, Mrs. S. T. Medd, president of Queen Mary Association, and Mrs. W. R. Morris, member of the Board of Education, each in her capable manner, spoke briefly of the many ways in which such an organization might be of infinite value.

Constitution Adopted.

The following constitution was then adopted:

NAME—This organization shall be called the King George Home and School Association.

OBJECT—The object of the Association shall be to promote co-operation between teachers and parents, to get the largest possible returns to the community from the school for the old and young alike ;to support all progressive school improvements; to inquire into educational problems; and in every way possible to create the best conditions for the training of boys and girls into good Canadian citizens.

MEMBERS—Any person who sympathises with the object of the Association shall be eligible for membership. There shall be one class of members—namely, active members.

OFFICERS—The officers of the Association shall be a presiden, two vice-presidents, a secretary and a treasurer. These officials, with all convenors of committees, shall constitute the executive committee.

AMENDMENTS—The Constitution and By-laws may be amended at any regular meeting by unanimous consent or by a majority vote, if notice of motion is given at a previous meeting.

MEETINGS—Regular meetings of the Association shall be held on the first Monday of each month, from September to May, inclusive. Special meetings may be held by order of the Association or at the call of the executive AFFILIATIONS—On a favorable vote of the membership the Association shall affiliate with the Ontario Federation of Home and School Association and also with any Home and School Council which may come into existence in our city.

BY-LAWS—The annual fee for active members shall be twenty-five cents, payable at the annual meeting.

ELECTIONS—The officers of the Association shall be elected for the ensuing year at the regular meeting in February.

COMMITTEES — The executive shall have power to appoint sub-committees to study special problems or to carry out special lines of work. Such committees may be appointed also at any meeting by vote of the membership.

Mrs. G. L. Hay was elected as convener of the visiting committee, Mrs R. H. Parsons of the relief committee, Mrs. J. M. Gemmel of the social committee and Mrs. A. A. Perrin of the programme committee.

Will Co-operate.

Mrs. A. A. Fowler spoke of the willingness of the Board of Education to co-operate with the citizens in every possible way.

Mrs. T. Paxman explained a contest which the executive purpose holding. At each meeting the parents of the pupils of each class-room in the school will be counted. A banner in the school colors, gray, purple and gold, with the words, "King George School" on it will be presented to the class having the highest number of parents present and at the end of the year a prize will be given by the executive committee. The parents of each class were then asked to stand and we congratulate Mr. J. Munroe for winning the banner for May.

The following most enjoyable programme was then rendered and we feel we are voicing the wish of the audience when we extend thanks to all who so ably contributed.

Programme.

1. Piano solo by Miss M. Succee.
2. Reading by Miss M Perry.
3. Vocal solo by Mr. Maurice Park.
4. Vocal solo by Miss E. Eagleson.
5. Vocal solo by Mr. D. Carlisle.
6. Selection on guitar by Miss M. Perry.
7. Vocal duet by Mr. M. Park and Mr. O. M. Steer.

Not content with the pleasure already given, Mrs. J. M. Gemmel with her assistant, served refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee, which furnishes ample proof that the ladies of Ashburnham have accomplished the fine art of cooking.

The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem but to quote from a little poem:

"The party closed at sundown,
And everybody stayed."

so that the ladies and gentlemen lingered talking and visiting in groups as if loath to leave the school on the hill.

The committee wish to thank the Board of Mark Street Church for the loan of chairs and the W.A. of St. Luke's Church for dishes.

IRELAND IS A SEETHING VOLCANO

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR MILITARY CONTROL—UNIONISTS AND SINN FEINERS ARE READY TO FLY AT EACH OTHER'S THROATS.

By Wedd Miller.
(United Press.)

LONDON, May 18.—A large body of troops arrived in Londonderry last night, following three nights of rioting between the Unionists and Sinn Feiners. Cordons of soldiers were thrown about the disorderly areas. Saloons were closed at 4 p.m. Citizens were urged to remain off the streets at night. The existence of a "state of war," despatches said, was beginning to be recognized by everybody in Ireland. In some quarters the proclamation of martial law was expected.

Lieut.-Col. Repington, military expert, commenting on reports that martial law would be established, said that in such an event, at least 400,000 troops would be required, "because it would involve occupation of three-parts of a hostile country."

Arrangements for military control were reported practically completed. Troops were taking over private residences in the disturbed areas of the south and west. Disorders in Londonderry were quelled yesterday after the troops were called in, but the feeling between the Unionists and Sinn Feiners was described as still intense."

A renewal of outbreaks was feared.

The Daily News and Daily Herald to-day said that masked Orangemen started the trouble. Other newspapers blamed the Sinn Fein.

General Macready, addressing the constabulary at Dublin yesterday, voiced the determination of military authorities to sustain the police.

Meanwhile further developments were expected in the House of Commons to-day when the Irish Bill again came up for debate.

REDS OCCUPY TRELIZOND PORT

RUSSIAN AGITATORS SET UP TEMPORARY BOLSHEVIK GOVERNMENT.

(Canadian Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 18.—Trebizond, the important port on the Black Sea coast of Asia Minor, has been taken over by the local Bolshevik administration according to an announcement made by the Turkish press bureau here. The population hauled down the Turkish flag and raised the Bolshevik emblem and set up a temporary government following a great demonstration in the city. It is not known that the Bolshevik soldiers have actually reached Trebizond from Russia, but a revolution is believed to have been managed by Russian agitators.

A NEW BOOK ELEANOR PORTER

"Mary Marie" by Eleanor H. Porter, Thomas Allen, Toronto, Price $2.00.

It will be good news to admirers of Eleanor H. Porter's "Pollyanna" to know that the author has brought out a new book that ranks in the same class as her first success. In "Mary Marie" Mrs. Porter has created another Glad Book of a type both charming and uncommon. The dual name of the book makes a logical structure for the divorce case that enters into the life of Mary Marie. The latter tells the story of the domestic catastrophe in her quaint childish way and is ultimately the means of repairing the breach in the domestic relations. The development of Mary Marie and her narrow escape from the fate of her parents is skillfully handled and lends a charming touch to a well-written story. It is a story that can be easily applied to present day conditions, and readers of the book should feel indebted to the author for the realistic elements that are woven into the story and the subtle lesson it contains. The popularity and success of Pollyanna in book form and in the movies should give Mrs. Porter's new book a wide distribution and create in the minds of its readers many a happy as well as serious thought for the conditions that produce divorce with its train of scandal and suffering for the offspring that may be involved in its mesh.

KANSAS AFTER GROCERS.

Eighty Wholesalers Said to Profit 100 Per Cent. in Sugar.

TOPEKA, Kan.—Investigation of charges that a price agreement among forty-five wholesale grocery concerns in Kansas, thirty-eight in Missouri, and officials of the Theodore Poehler Mercantile Company, in violation of the State's anti-monopoly law, was begun here by Attorney General R. J. Hopkins, following the issuing of warrants yesterday for the arrest of F. H. Smithmeyer, President, and George Kirchoff, Secretary of the Poehler company.

Testimony he had gathered, Mr. Hopkins asserted, showed that sugar had been sold for profits ranging up to 100 per cent. by grocery concerns under the alleged agreement.

The complaints issued charged that an agreement was entered into "to control and advance" the price of sugar, flour, canned goods, soap, cereals, coffee, tea, dried fruits, and other articles to the consumer.

"A fine report! Correct lubrication and quality gasoline are mighty important. These costs sheets prove that we've fewer delays for repairs since we standardized on Imperial Polarine and Imperial Premier Gasoline—our delivery service now runs on schedule."

Reduces Upkeep and Depreciation Expense

EVERY drop of Imperial Polarine gives superior lubrication and maintains exactly the right body to seal in power and kill friction under all engine temperatures. It reduces wear and carbonization to a minimum.

Imperial Polarine won't become thin, break up, or gum. It cushions the friction surfaces of a motor with a protective, unbreakable oil film.

One of three grades described below is specially suited for your car. Consult the Imperial Polarine Chart of Recommendations—on display wherever Imperial Polarine is sold—for the proper grade to use.

Imperial Polarine is sold in sealed gallon and four-gallon cans and steel kegs, half-barrels and barrels, by dealers everywhere throughout Canada. Buy by the half-barrel or barrel and save money.

TEAMS PRACTICE TO-NIGHT—CHALLENGE FOR LADIES' FOOTBALL TEAM—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A full turn-out of all players connected with the Caledonians are requested to be on hand at 6.30 prompt to-night. The Executive intends putting on the best team available for Thursday evening's game.

The Canadian General Team will practice to-night at the Exhibition Grounds at 6.30 prompt.

Mr. Tom Moffatt and Mr. J. Smith of the Hamilton Homeside Football Club were in Peterboro during the week end on special business. Tommy recalled the days of Nomads and C. G. E. team in the Ontario Cup Finals.

As a cartoonist, Edwards of the Vets, holds the premier position in the city. Every Monday morning he turns over up-to-the-minute local Football Cartoons to Mr. Fred Sutcliffe, the Charlotte street Barber, so as to be displayed in the window. They are attracting a great many admirers.

The Homeside Football Club of Hamilton have the reputation of being a great sporting bunch. They are out to win the Ontario Cup. Tom Moffatt would like to arrange a Football match between a selected team of Peterboro and the Homesides, home and home games. The game can be fixed by communicating with Mr. J. Smith, Homeside Football Club, 406 Cope street, Hamilton.

An interesting discussion relative to picking the Internationals teams was brought up at the Executive meeting. The committee wanted two Scotsmen to pick the Scots team and two Englishmen the Saxon team. Representative Cook said he could not choose any team because he was Scotch through and through although born in England. To make matters worse Joe Parkins said he was a Scotsman by birth, being born in Banff, Scotland, but an Englishman by nature. To solve the difficulty the Executive will pick the team on Thursday evening after the Caledonian and Canadian General Game.

Here you are—J. W. Worth—a challenge comes from the Homeside Ladies Club to play home and home games with the Canadian Woollens Ladies' Football Club. Now is the time to ge things going, get in touch with them right away Joe.

The Canadian Woollens Football Team will practice to-morrow evening at the Oval, commencing at 6:30 prompt.

SPORT FROM THE EXCHANGES

The Central Ontario League opens on Monday, May 24th, Port Hope playing at Oshawa, Lindsay at Cobourg, and Peterborough at Belleville. R. Butler of Lindsay will umpire the Port Hope-Oshawa battle; Alex. Kay of Peterborough, will look after Lindsay and Cobourg, and Claude Wilson, of Oshawa, will have a busy day with two old rivals, Belleville and Peterborough.

CANNON BALL SCOTT.

Globe:—On Saturday afternoon the local amateur league got under way, and large crowds were the rule. Special interest was evinced in the Western City and Toronto Senior Leagues, where some of the best players in Toronto were performing. St. Mary's victory over Judeans at Stanley Park and the defeat of St. Francis at the hands of Hillcrests at Willowvale were expected. The favorites started the season by running true to form. Hillcrests with their ace pitcher, Cannoball Scott, in action, found the Saints to their liking and won by 6 to 2. Scott held the losers to four safe blows, one of which was a double. Scott struck out fifteen men.

BASEBALL

Joe Dugan of the Mackmen is hitting the ball hard and showing wonderful skill as a second baseman. He played the position with more steadiness than he showed as a shortstop, and he looks like ons of the best young players of his league.

Boston fans are getting an agreeable surprise after drawing the conclusion during the Winter that they had two confirmed second division outfits, both Red Sox and Braves playing fine ball.

The rumor that Jack Coombs might supplant Hugh Jennings as manager of the Tigers is listed in Detroit as bosh. Jennings is highly regarded by President Navin and will be retained as leader of the club.

Oscar Vitt is consigned to a siege of bench warming with the Red Sox. There is little likelihood of his displacing Eddie Foster at third, and Mike Mc-Nally's work around second base could hardly be improved upon.

Dode Paskert is the oldest active outfielder in the major leagues, being 37 years of age, but he goes along with all the vim and agility of youth. He still can outstep most youngsters and his stickwork was good enough recently to produce two home runs in as many days.

Joe McGinnity, one-time Iron Man of the Giants, is now coaching the pitchers of the University of Illnois. He will manage the Decatur, Ill., team this season.

Sam Agnew, veteran major league catcher, who is now with the San Francisco club, has been unfortunate this season. First he was hit on the throwing arm and after getting back into the game an untamed shoot connected with his ear. He recovered from both and is again working behind the bat.

THE CITY LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE

At a meeting of the executive of the City Baseball League at the Empress Hotel last night, the schedule as submitted last week was adopted with one change. The draw for a week from Saturday was altered in order that the Thistles vs. G.W.V.A. game shall be played first, the C.G.E.-Canadian Woollens being shifted to the second half of the double header.

The games this Saturday will bring together the C. G. E. and G.W.V.A. in the 1st game and Canadian Woollens and Thistles in the second fixture.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

When Canadain Generals meet Veterans in the first game of the City League bill next Saturday, Manager Wade will add Harry Corrin to his support at first base. Joe Murphy is a liklihood for second base, with Eddie Foley at third, Gus Rose will be sent out to pasture in the garden till he gets into better shape. Here's a lineup that will give the Electrics a battle.

Louis Yeotes has been introduced to Freddy Scates, a youngster with the Examiner ball team, who pitched against Normalites and whiffed 16. Scates will be a starter in the game with the Canadian Woollens at the week end. He is under the wing of Max Swanston and "Hap" Harrison.

"Kitty" Mulhern, who was with us last summer and beat Port Hope here in a Central League game after fanning an even dozen of Sam Lockington's hopefuls, pitched the Moose team of the Toronto Western City League to a 11-3 victory. He fanned nine men and allowed only four hits.

Herb Belleghem, another ex-Peterborough player, was also a winner. His team, the Classics, won their opener in the Riverdale league, Toronto.

Central Leaguers and Veterans will put on an exhibition game at Riverside Park Wednesday evening. It's going to take some grey matter to pick the line-up for the Central Leaguers, but the jop appears to be in capable hands.

The runways at the ball lot have been scrapped, and men are at work to-day doing the job all over again. When the down grade has been built up with proper materials a roller with the right qualifications will be brought into service. The repairs will be completed in time for the game tomorrow evening.

TYRONE POWER

Tyrone Power's performance of Father Petrovich, the Russian priest, in "The Little Brother," has added another to his list of powerful characterizations, for which the modern stage is indebted to this sterling actor. In Father Petrovich he at times rises to tragic heights, as he portrays the bigoted, intolerant and misguided efforts to sweep from his path all that is opposed to the narrow beliefs of his fanatical creed. Justice will ever condemn and punish the effort to do good by means that are evil, and the bomb that he has launched returns to confuse and crush him, when he learns that those whom he has devoted every effort of his life to persecute and destroy are in effect his own people, and that he himself is one of the despised Jewish race. The situation is one tense with interest, difficult in the extreme, and in the hands of one less capable would lose greatly in effectiveness, but Power rises to its full requirements and though crushed by the momentous disclosure accepts defeat and bending kneels not without a certain dignity to accept the blessing of his brother whom he admits to be justified in his beliefs.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THE BELOVED CHEATER.

"A man of a thousand loves," an amateur lover and a girl who refuses to be kisesd form the main characters in one of the happiest, cleverest and most amusing screen plays which have been shown at the Grand in a long time, and the play, "The Beloved Cheater," was thoroughly appreciated by a large audience last evening.

In the title role Lew Cody is excellent and introduces some splendid acting in portraying the man of many loves who, desiring to help out his amateur friend who is in love with a girl who considers kissing a disgusting habit, kisses the girl himself and gets in wrong with the man who he aimed to help. The entire play is full of laughs and ridiculous situations, none of which are too overdrawn to be natural. A Sunshine comedy, "His Naughty Wife," supplements the splendid programme.

SLEW DUKES IN BOX CAR.

A Harbin Correspondent Sends a Tale of Hidden Caskets.

HARBIN.—An extraordinary find was made at Hailar by some railway men recently, a box car addressed to Col. Bulikoff, who is Simionov's representative at Hailar, was opened and found to contain apparently bags of flour and firewood. Underneath these were found eight caskets, each one duly labeled, six bearing the names of grand dukes and duchesses and the other two the name of a priest and a valet of one of the grand dukes.

To make sure there was no ruse one casket was opened and a body was revealed. In addition to the names of the dead there was also written who had killed them and where. The question is being asked who had forwarded these bodies and for what reason and where they were ultimately destined to be sent. In these days when railway men expect to find hidden away gold, jewels and other precious metals, to be confronted with caskets containing murdered persons is indeed a gruesome and unwelcome find.—Herald, Shanghai, China.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

There are a number of very excellent vegetables which are not much seen in Canadian gardens, yet which deserve a place there. It would be a good plan if in every garden there were grown each year one plant not grown before. Grow it, understand it, and then be able to arrange your garden list to the very best advantage.

Of course, many gardeners know and grow the ones mentioned below, but the great majority grow only the more common vegetables.

Endive.

This is an excellent salad plant and a fine green. It has the additional advantage that just when the weather is getting too warm to have nice crisp sweet lettuce, the endive comes in nicely to supply the lack. Lettuce gets bitter in the dry hot weather, and endive, if properly handled, replaces it.

The time to plant is 15th May or 1st July. Plant half-inch deep; thin to one foot, in rows eighteen inches apart. When the plants are almost full grown, gather the leaves loosely over the plant and tie. This is to blanch it, when it is much more tender. The blanching in hot weather may be done in a week, but later on in the fall it will take as much as three weeks. On no account must the tying up be done when the plants are wet or they are liable to rot. It is best to tie up a few plants at a time, just what you can use. Those which you do not tie up, if there are any, can be used as greens. It takes 50 to 60 days for endive to come to table maturity.

Egg Plant.

Those who like egg plant may have it in most sections by setting out the plants if it is possible to get them from your seedsman. They are essentially a hot weather plant and must be planted only when earth and air are warm, a little later than the tomatoes. They must have full sun and the soil must be thoroughly drained so that it is quite warm. If you cannot give these conditions, do not try egg plant. Also there is no use trying them in heavy soil; they must have a warm loam and lots of old manure.

Set the plants two feet by three feet. As the climate is not any too good to them, pluck off all the blossoms except two or three, or the fruit will not ripen.

They are an especial pet of the potato bug, so get the poisoned Bordeaux at work as soon as the plants are well set. Don't wait for the bugs to get busy.

Another enemy is a fungus disease which, however, can be avoided almost entirely if the location of planting is changed each year.

If you cannot get plants, it is of course too late to grow them, and besides, unless you have the facilities it is too difficult for the amateur to bother with.

Salsify.

This vegetable is much esteemed in Europe, but seems to have made little headway here for the simple reason people have not tried it. It has a distinct flavour of oysters, whence its other name of oyster plant. It is grown the same as parsnips.

Corn Salad.

This can be used for salads like lettuce or as a green. It is like spinach in culture. It is best sown in mid-September and grows in spring as spinach does, but it can be planted any time in spring. Plant half-inch deep, thin to five inches apart in rows one foot apart. It runs rapidly to seed (again like spinach), so must be used quickly and repeated sowings made for succession. It seeds especially fast in the hot weather. It does not mind frost.

Whitloof Chicory.

On the table this is frequently known as French endive. It is a warm weather vegetable. Plant when the earth is warm, same time as the beans, half inch deep, thin to four to six inches apart. The earth should be only fairly rich, but must be deeply worked, at least a foot deep. The culture as same as carrots. In the late fall dig up the roots and pack in earth in cellar, keeping the earth moist, not wet. From time to time plant a few roots in a box of earth, water, and place beside the furnace. The roots will throw up stalks, which are excellent eating, either raw or cooked.

Herbs.

There are many herbs which are favourites with different people. Two only are mentioned here, for they are the most common. Summer savoury and sage are what might be called the staples. They are not particular as to the soil, provided the weeds be kept down till they get a real start. Summer savoury should be pulled when in full bloom and hung up by the roots till dry. Sage should be left out till the fall, and pulled when the fall rains are beginning to dirty the leaves with earth.

Planting of all herbs is the same. The seeds are small. They should be just covered. Sow them thickly and thin out to the required stand—eight inches for savoury, one foot for sage.

MAT. A. CARLSON PRAISES DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

He Says They Steadily Helped Him When He Was Sallow and Thin and Felt the Twinges of Rheumatic Pains.

Endako, B.C., May 17th.— (Special.)—Mat. A. Carlson, a well-known resident here, is a firm believer in Dodd's Kidney Pills as a remedy for sick kidneys. Mr. Carlson gives his reasons:—

"I was sallow and thin," he says, "and then I felt the rehumatic pains, dizziness and chills. I unfortunately didn't suspect my kidneys and was nearly dead when I discovered the true cause of my sufferings.

"I read so much of the health and strength that comes to all who use Dodd's Kidney Pills that I felt sure they would help me.

"Such blessings of health and comfort I got from them I cannot describe. They very soon helped me and their steady use keeps me active and strong."

To keep healthy the kidneys must be kept in good working order. They strain the impurities out of the blood. Pure blood is the first essential to good health.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills have not proved their worth as a remedy for sick kidneys.

MUSKRATS IN HIS CELLAR

Ottawa Man Catches 13 Animals — Came From Inlet of Canal.

OTTAWA, May 18.—Mr. A. Turcotte, 13 Third avenue, caught 13 muskrats in his cellar. The back of his lot is near an inlet from the Rideau Canal. He first set the trap for house rates and on catching one muskrat, consulted a game warden and was allowed to continue trapping.

To Have Wavy Hair Like Nature's Own

Here's a brand new recipe of unquestioned merit, that you should make note of, unless you are one of the few possessors of naturally wavy hair. It's very simple, for all you need do is to apply a little liquid silmerine before doing up the hair—with a clean tooth brush— and in three hours you will find this has dried in the sweetest curls and waves imaginable. They will be just like "Nature's own," having no resemblance to the effect produced by a hot iron, which is so obviously artificial.

The application is really beneficial to the hair and gives it that lively lustre so much desired. As it is so easy to obtain a few ounces of the liquid silmerine from your druggist — sufficient to keep the hair curly for many weeks—there's no reason now for putting up with either that straight, contrary hair or with the curling iron nuisance.

ENFORCEMENT OF ADOLESCENT ACT

The Adolescent School Attendance Act passed by the Legislature last year is to be put into force by the Ontario Government commencing September 1, 1921, Hon. R. H. Grant, Minister of Education, announced today.

The Act makes compulsory the part time attendance at school of boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18.

The Department of Education is endeavoring to secure the co-operation of the municipalities of the Province.

MESSRS. JULE AND J. J. ALLEN SECURE FIRST NATIONAL FRANCHISES FOR CANADA

Consummating a deal whereby the Allen Theatre enterprises secure twenty-five year franchise for each of the fifty motion picture houses of the well-known circuit, giving exclusive exhibition rights to the productions of the host of popular picture stars, authors and directors, Messrs. Jule and J. J. Allen today issued one of the most important statements to have enamated from their offices in recent years. The deal, which was finally consummated in New York last Saturday involves upwards of a million dollars and secures for the Allen interests an absolute assurance that they will secure the pick of the motion pictures to be released during the next twenty-five years by the Associated First National Exhibitors' Circuit, Inc., the dominating distributing organization in the motion picture field. The significance and magnitude of the transaction just completed can best be understood when it is stated that the "First National" controls the productions of such sought-for stars and directors as Charles Ray, Norma Talmadge, Katherine McDonald, Anita Stewart, Marshall Neilan and others of like prominence.

The contracts, which were signed by Messrs. Jule and J. J. Allen for the Canadian circuit of theatres and by representatives of the Associated First National Exhibitors, will become effective immediately and will include all photoplays released up to date and in the future with the exception of those few that have previously been contracted for by other interests. As fast as outstanding contracts with outside concerns expire, they will automatically be taken over by the Allen Theatre Enterprises.

The local Allen Theatre, will, in the future, present all the big special attractions released through their recently acquired associates, as well as the pick of the other film services now in the field.

WHY A HEINTZMAN & CO. PIANO?

Why the best in anything? Because the best is always the most satisfying in every way. The compelling force in the Pianos made by Ye Olde Firme, Heintzman & Co., Limited, George and Hunter Streets, Peterborough, is their strong quality in all particulars—beauty of exterior, perfectness of interior. The Heintzman & Co. tone is known the world over.

DROVE A WOOD BURNER ON ONTARIO RAILROADS

MR. AND MRS. CLARKE FORMERLY RESIDED IN PETERBORO.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clarke, of 116 Spencer avenue, yesterday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The happy couple were married at Port Hope on the 17th of May, 1870. Mrs. Clarke, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Burt, was born in Bowmanville, 68 years ago. Mr. Clarke, who is in his 72nd year, was born in Stockport, England, and came to Canada in 1858, settling in Peterboro. For four years he was a sailor on the Great Lakes, but after serving that period on the water took to railroading. His career with the various railways began on May 13, 1867, when he began as fireman on the Port Hope, Lindsay and Beaverton Railroad. Four years later he was promoted to engineer. All the engines were wood burners when Mr. Clarke started. After serving two years on the above road he went on the Toronto and Nipissing, and this also is now a part of the G.T.R. For eight years and six months he served on this road. Mr. Clarke likes to recall "Farley," the old engine he drove on this line. In 1882 he left the Toronto and Nipissing and went on the Credit Valley which is now the property of the C.P.R., where he stayed until seven years ago, when ill-health forced him to retire. Upon retiring he was presented with an illuminated address and a handsome morris chair, while Mrs. Clarke was the recipient of a silver tea service.

Among those who were present at the celebration last night were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke. There are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clarke of Medicine Hat, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clarke of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Clarke of Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Wales of Toronto, and Mrs. H. Camplin of Youngstown, Ohio. Mr. Ralph Clarke of Lindsay, Mr. D. Clarke of Hamilton, Mrs. Wm. McConnel of Port Hope and Mrs. Wm. Elliott of Peterboro, brothers and sisters of the happy couple, also were present.

COUNTESS MARKIEVCZ MAKES REAPPEARANCE

Turns Up at Dublin Meeting in Memory of Rebel Dead.

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, May 18.—Countess Georgia Markievicz, Sinn Feiner member of Parliament for the St. Patrick's division of Dublin, whose whereabouts has long been a mystery, made a theatrical reappearance clad in a commandant's uniform at an open-air meeting in Croker Park in memory of the members of the Irish republican parliament who were executed after or killed during the rebellion of 1916. The countess delivered an address in which she appealed for support for Irish industries.

It is recalled that the police on March 12 raided the residence of Mrs. Eamonn de Valera, wife of the Sinn Fein leader, in search of the countess.

The police barracks in Gormanstown, a village of County Meath, near Balbriggan, were attacked and burned Sunday morning.

COW MOOSE SEEN ALONG RAILWAY TRACK

While the Haliburton train was steaming between Gelert and Howland yesterday morning the passengers and crew saw a cow moose, which raced the train for about a poll length. In attempting to clear the wire fence the moose tripped and fell toward the track on its back. Its next effort was successful, but it landed on its head the other side of the fence and disappeared.

Like cushions on floors and pavements

Have you ever stopped to think why tiled floors tire your feet, or how easy it is to walk on linoleum-covered floors?

The principle of applying Cat's Paw Heels and Rinex Soles to your shoes is identical to the cushion provided by rubber matting, linoleum, and other heavy floor coverings.

Cat's Paw Heels and Rinex Soles not only cushion each step on hard pavements and wood floors, but they give to your step a springiness that seems to refresh, rather than tire, your feet.

If Cat's Paw and Rinex added only to your walking comfort, you would have excellent reason for wearing them constantly, but there is the satisfaction of their economy. They last twice as long as leather. They prevent slipping; are waterproof and noiseless.

When you buy new shoes insist on Cat's Paw and Rinex, for they need no "breaking in."

You can save many dollars by telling your cobbler to put Cat's Paw and Rinex on all shoes with good uppers.

Remarkable Home-Made Wrinkle Remover

A wrinkle removing preparation which acts powerfully and quickly may at the same time be entirely harmless, as has been amply demonstrated in the case of the now famous saxolite solution. While acting so marvelously on wrinkles of every sort, the lotion is really beneficial to the skin, giving the latter tone and improving its texture. In the case of baggy cheeks or chin, also, more than mere temporary results are obtained.

One ounce of pure powdered saxolite, dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel (obtainable at any drug store, of course), makes this most effectual wrinkle-remover. Use as a wash lotion.

LABOUR MEMBERS GUESTS OF PARTY AT BIG BANQUET

PREMIER DRURY SAYS HE IS OPPOSED TO EIGHT HOUR DAY.

TORONTO, May 18.—Premier Drury believes in every principle of the I.L.P. platform except one, that of the eight hour day. This he stated in no unhestitating terms in the course of his address at the historic banquet held by the party in honor of the Labor members of the provincial house. He stated that he believed that production was the essential need of the province, of the Dominion during the next few years, and with it the work necessary to its consummation. With this view the president of the party J. W. Buckley in his able address differed. He believed that the principle of the eight hour day was one for which the party would fight with unceasing determinatiin. The day was passed when the worker would work twelve hour a day with the prospect before him of existence in the workhouse. Aside from this difference of opinion complete unanimity of accomplishment and aim marked the addresses of the speakers at the banquet which was historic in this that it represented the gathering together of clans which presaged in their compact a new order, a new era, one which was ably expressed by James Simpson as the era of humanifarian ideal concreted in political administration, administration first conceived in Ontario.

Nearly All Are Workers

Premer Drury, responding to the toast, "The Province," referred to the entente cordial between labor and farmer in the new experiment in government administration. Rather sarcastically he referred to the more ancient governments as staffs of politicians. "The matter of governing," said the premier, "is not so much the framing of laws as of doing things, of carrying out laws framed. In the name of common-sense," reminiscently "who of us is not a worker? In the path of the good old scriptural aphorism, 'he who worketh not, he shall not eat.' The good old rule of the good old Book is a splendid one. I can safely say 99 per cent. of us are workers. As for the other 1 per cent., he forms a negligible quantity."

The Rural Viewpoint.

Continuing, the premier touched upon the rural viewpoint of politics. In the farmholds, he said, was the breeding ground of the nation. It was imperative to keep the farmers content, prosperous and inspired. They should be made to feel they are men of fine calibre. "The two groups in the house," said the premier, "first came together rather afraid of each other. There was a feeling that labor might assume too radical a turn of mind, and our labor friends were afraid their rural friends might turn out to be too conservative. But as they became to know each other better, each became more trustful of the other, realizing that both had similar thoughts, similar aims, founded on like principles, among these being better homes, better comforts, finer hopes, happier children, happier parents, with all hopes centred upon the children—the great assets of the nation. In these principles he believed his cabinet ranked high. Forty-two children and 3,000 acres of land represented the assets of the cabinet members and ther wives.

"There is no cause to fear any hard ships which may come. We must meet all emergency with unity, with sanity and with inspiration. And let us beware lest the dropes, if there be any, seek to run off with too much of the honey. I sympathize with every aim of the Labor party but one. I am not fully in agreement with the ideal of less hours. I believe in full production. Let us be workers, not drones. Why should we care what the value of the dollar is provided what we do get will produce our full requirements? We have differences. Let us bury them. Why not lose the hybridity of our present name, why not change our name from that of the U.F.O - I.L.P. coalition to 'The People's Party?' "

MOTHER SUPERIOR OF ROSARY HILL HOME

Tells How Vinol Restores Strength and Vitality to Weak, Run-Down, Nervous People

She says: "For eighteen years I have been at work among the sick and poor and have used VINOL for weak, run-down, emaciated people with excellent results. One young woman when she came to me was so weak she could hardly creep to my door, and so changed in a month by taking VINOL I hardly recognized her, she had improved so much. I cannot recommend VINOL too highly for such conditions. These words are uttered from my heart in order that more people may know about VINOL."—Mother M. Alphonsa Lathrop, O.S.O., Hawthorne, N.Y.

Such testimony as this should convince every one of the value of VINOL. The reason it is so successful in such cases is because it contains the tissue building and medicinal elements of cods' livers, without oil, aided by the blood making, tissue building and strength creating properties of tonic iron, beef peptons and hypophosphites.

It creates hearty appetite, aids digestion, enriches the blood, with thousands of red blood corpuscles and in this natural manner imparts health, strength and vitality to every organ, muscle and tissue of the body. Why not try VINOL on your druggist's guarantee?

Constipation or Costiveness

Constipation, although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver.

There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of diseases arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

Mr. A. Roder, Hastings St. E., Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"I desire to express my thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I had been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headaches. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few doses."

Get Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills when you ask for them or send 25c. and they will be sent by return of mail by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE MACHINISTS WILL HOLD A PUBLIC MEETING

At a meeting of the Machinists who are now on strike at the C.G.E. works it was decided that we should hold a public demonstration on the Market Square on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in order that the citizens of Peterboro may become acquainted with the true situation, and the efforts of the men to bring about a settlement before this strike took place, and explain what has taken place since, and the efforts of the City Council's Committee and the Trades and Labor Councils committee and the public in general to bring the strike to a close.

REV. G. E. ROSS GAVE ADDRESS

Rev. G. E. Ross of Mark street Methodist church, addressed Trinity Epworth League last night on the subject, "Good Books as Life Teachers," and his address proved very interesting and helpful to all. He emphasized the good influence of reading good books and the counter influence of bad trashy, nonsensical ones. Rev. Ross had his subject excellently prepared and the League is deeply indebted to him for his fine address. Mr. J. Kennett presided at the meeting. Several musical numbers added much to the success of the meeting.

No Trouble to Keep Skin Free From Hairs

(The Modern Beauty.)

There is no need for any woman to countenance superfluous hairs, because with a paste made by mixing some powdered delatone with water it is easy to get rid of them. The paste is applied for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed. This treatment will rid the skin of hair without leaving a blemish, but care should be taken to see that you get real delatone.

AN EPIDEMIC OF MEASLES

An epidemic of measles has broken out in Peterborough, but fortunately, Dr. A. W. McPherson, Medical officer of Health, stated to-day, the outbreak is of a very mild type, and no serious cases have come to his notice in all the forty cases so far reported.

East City has suffered most heavily of any district. A number of cases have not been reported.

He also stated that the city must have measles the present is the most favourable time for doing so, as the main danger in the disease is lung complications, which do not often occur at this season.

Outside of measles, the city is exceptionally free from diseases of any kind.

Approximately 1,000 miles of market roads will be constructed in the province of Manitoba this year.

VOTE FOR THE BY-LAW TO-MORROW

To-morrow from 9 to 5 o'clock the ratepayers of Peterboro will vote on the Raybestos bylaw. This company is a purely Canadan company, incorporated under the Dominion government. It has agreed to purchase the Lundy Tool and Shovel plant and will erect two new buildings. It is estimated that the repairs to the plant, including the sprinkler system, new floors, new heating system and other necessary alterations will cost approximately $25,000.00.

The American company although only 10 years old, has assets of three and a half million dollars and has built up a business that is continually expanding. Manufacturing moulded clutch facings, asbestos sheet packing, millboard, brake linings, and other asbestos products, this concern has kept pace with the growing and extensive use of motor vehicles and electricity for which they manufacture insulation. It is intended that the plant here will be used for exporting to the English and European trade.

During 1919 the American company built a number of houses for their employees at Bridgeport, Conn., and if it is necessary to do so this company will be able financially to carry on a housing scheme.

It is understood that local help will be engaged as much as possible, the men being taught good trades, that will pay them excellent wages when trained.

The company agrees to employ 25 employees within three months from the passing of the bylaw and 75 within 18 months. The company has purchased or agreed to purchase lots ten and eleven north of Perry and west of George street, and the south halves of lots ten and eleven south of Rink and west of George streets, and the city will convey to the company the following: Stewart street lying between the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's right of way and Perry street, all those parts of lots twelve and thirteen north of Perry street and west of George streets, lying south or south easterly of the said right of way, and part of lot eleven south of Rink and west of George streets.

By the bylaw the assesment of the company is fixed at $10,000 including business assesment, but exclusive of school taxes and local improvement rates for a period of ten years. The company must expend $50,000 on its land and buildings.

The city is required to supply 500 loads of coal ashes for filling in purposes on the land and to construct a sidewalk on the north side of Perry street from the Grand Trunk Company's land to Park street.

G.T.R. OFFICIALS PASSED THROUGH

Superintendent G. G. MacMillan and Trainmaster R. E. Orr of the G.T.R., passed through the city this morning on a special from Belleville to Midland. General Superintendent Fish will join them there, where they will inspect the terminals. Mr. A. MacNab, the local agent, leaves for Montreal to-night, where he and other G.T.R. agents and superintendents east of Portland, Maine, will confer on the new schedule of wages for freight and shed staffs. Mr. MacNab expects to be absent several days.

CRUSHED UNDER BUCKET.

Young Man's Narrow Escape in a Quarry.

INGERSOLL, May 18. — Elgin Whaley, a young married man, son of Thomas Whaley of Centreville, had a miraculous escape from instant death at Downing's quarry, near Beachville on Monday. A bucket of limestone, weighing, it is said, about a ton and a half, was being hoisted by a derrick. Without warning the bucket descended, fortunately comparatively slowly, but Whaley, who was working under it in a stooped position, was caught. He was gradually crushed down until a projecting builder prevented the entire weight of the loaded bucket from resting oi him. He was extricated as quickly as possible, and three physicians were soon at the scene of the accident. His back was badly injured, but his recovery is anticipated.

GREEKS AND TURKS CLASH.

(Canadian Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 18. — Greek and Turkish troops have clashed about twenty-five miles east of Smyrna, where the Turks are taking the offensive and are apparently massing reinforcements preparatory to further advances against the Greeks. Jafar Tayar, commandant at Adrianople, has sent a message here from that city, saying that forty thousand Turks and Bulgarians are prepared to resist the Greeks.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

WEDDING BELLS

PALLIN—JOHNSON.

A very pretty house wedding was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon April 14th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hans M. Johnson, when their only daughter, Clara Wilhelmine became the bride of Ralph Ashton Pallin, son of John H. Pallin, Indian River, Ont. Rev. Geo. A. Steel, B.A., performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties.

About 45 guests were present. The youthful bride was given away by her father and looked very charming in a beautiful gown of cream Duchess satin with conventional embroidered veil and orange blossoms; carried a large sheaf of cream carnations, snapdragon and ferns. Her attendant, Anga Carlson, was gowned most becomingly in a pretty Copenhagen blue voile with cream Georgette; while Mr. Norman Johnson, brother of the bride acted as best man.

Immediately following the sermon the bridal party and guests partook of a most sumptuous dejuner, the long table being prettily decorated with four-storey bride's cake and flower decorations of cream carnations, snap-dragon ferns. The Victrola rendered the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march and other suitable selections. Many useful and costly gifts testified to the popularity of the young couple, among which were a handsome cabinet of Community silver and a valuable cheque.

Mr. and Mrs. Pallin will reside at Alderson, Alta. The best wishes of all are extended to the young couple.

OBITUARY

JOHN ELLIOTT.

In the death of Mr. John Elliott last night, North Monaghan lost one of its oldest and most widely known residents. The deceased was born in Ireland 80 years ago, but he came to this country at a very early age settling in North Monaghan, on the homestead, lot 8, concession 8, where the deceased has resided for 60 years.

He has long been associated with the life of the community and was known throughout the entire district.

Five years ago his wife predeceased him. No family survive. When he was able to attend the deceased was a valued member of the Springville Presbyterian church, but of late years his health has been failing preventing him from actively participating in church work.

The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 10:30 from the residence of John Boyd, lot 8, concession 8, North Monaghan, to the Ida Cemetery.

Service will be held at the house at 10 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Craw, of Springville Presbyterian Church. — Motors.

DEATH OF INFANT.

The death occurred last night of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morrison, Junior, Lakefield.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence at Lakefield, to the Lakefield cemetery. Rev. C. J. Jull will conduct the services at the house at 2 o'clock.

JOHN BROWN.

An old resident of this city died this morning at his home 219 Crescent street, in the person of John Brown, aged 54.

The deceased was born in Cobourg but had lived here for many years. During his long residence here he made many friends who will deeply regret to hear of his death.

He leaves a widow and four sisters: Mrs. Frid, of Hamilton, Mrs. Williamson of Hamilton, Mrs. Davey of Hamilton, and Mrs. Lapish, of Holland, Michigan.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence to the Little Lake Cemetery. Service will be held at the house at 2:00 o'clock.

SCOUT NEWS.

The Scouts of Trinity Troop will meet at the Sunday Sunday school hall at 6.45 sharp to-night. S. Whitcroft, secretary.

In 1914 the National Woman's Council set apart the second Sunday in May as a time to pay our loving respects to Mother with a floral offering. Sweet Peas, Roses and Tulips, etc. are appropriate, although the white Carnation is first suggested as the proper tribute. Don't let Mother think you have forgotten her. Wear a flower yourself and send her a basket or a bouquet.

Every event is an occasion for flowers.

AT THE EMPIRE

Olive Thomas appeared at the Empire Theatre last night in "Footlights and Shadows," and in this delightful Selznick picture added to her already large number of admirers, who class her with the leaders on the screen by her histrionic ability, her youth, and freshness, and winning personality. Miss Thomas is a supreme character, and her acting is beyond reproach. The story is cleverly written, and revolves around the life of Gloria Dawn, a dancer, played by Miss Thomas, engaged to be married to a man she does not love, but his money attracts more than love. How a man, a true lover, comes into her life, and eventually wins her provides a most delightful plot, and a crowded house should greet this production to-night. "She's Everywhere," featuring Montague Love and Enid Markey, a two-reel picture, is one that cannot fail to be appreciated, and a scenic "Lake Tamagami," is a beautiful picture, and lovers of nature will enjoy this immensely.

Keep on the Move

THE GOVERNMENT'S NEW POLICY IN IRELAND—SPEEDY PUNISHMENT.

By Webb Miller.)
(United Press.)

LONDON, May 19.— The Government's new Irish policy, formulated in the recent Downing street conferences, was beginning to be more apparent to-day. In the future according to information here, no offender will be jailed on suspicion to be held until evidence is obtained meriting their trial, or until it is found they are innocent. Those already in jail will be released unless evidence has been obtained which warrants their being brought to trial.

The government will abolish its plan of procedure against alleged Irish criminals under the defence of the Realm Act. Normal legal processes will be restored.

Murders and violence will be suppressed with the greatest firmness, it was said. Numerous military posts will be established throughout the island and especially near the disorderly centres of the west and south.

Flying columns of infantry, supported by armored automobiles, will be held in readiness to swoop down on suspected "terrorists" meeting in an effort to catch plotters red handed.

Military in Control.

Reports that martial law might be declared could not be confirmed. The military, however, will be in effect in supreme control, it was indicated.

Speedy punishment for those found guilty of crimes has been decided upon, it was understood. Convicted murderers will be hanged without delay.

Troops in Ireland will be kept constantly on the move in an effort to prevent conditions which might lead to an outbreak. Additional troops will be sent to the island as needed.

General Macready, it was learned, believes the success of the British authorities rests more upon preventing outbreaks than punishing those guilty of past lawless deeds.

TRYING TO KEEP THE PRICES UP

PROPAGANDA PUT OUT BY THE CLOTHING MEN.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 19.— Skirts are going down this fall, but not in price.

In the opinions of the National Cloak and Suit Manufacturers' Association in convention here, skirts have reached a precarious height.

The knee length may be popular in Paris, but except on the stage, it apparently has no friends in this country, said M. Brintz, chairman of the style committee.

Styles for the fall and winter call for conservative models, and slender designs to give women folk that youthful appearance, said Mr. Brintz.

Prices cannot fall along with the skirt, because the cost of labour and materials still is abnormally high, he said.

HEAVIER TAX FOR THEATRES

ONTARIO LEGISLATURE AMENDS THE PRESENT ACT.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, May 19.—Heavy increases in taxes on theatres and moving picture houses are announced in Hon. Peter Smith's changes to the Theatre and Cinematograph Act. Altogether the increased taxation will be about 25 per cent on the whole. Amusements generally come under the change and exemptions from taxation which patriotic and charitable affairs have enjoyed will cease to exist on June 1st. In municipalities of over 1,000 theatres will pay 35 cents a seat instead of 25 cents. Places of 5,000 to 10,000 pay 25 cents seat, instead of five cents. In places of 3,000 to 5,000 the tax will be 20 cents seat instead of a flat rate fee of $75. Instead of $50 flat in towns of 1,500 to 3,000 the tax will be 15 cents seat, while in municipalities less than 1,500 where the rate has previously been fixed to meet individual cases, the tax will be 10 cents a head. A dance hall, ball parks and skating rinks in municipalities of 10,000 or over will be taxed $10 a year.

SUMMON GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS

(Canadian Press.)

BERLIN, May 19.—German war criminals on list recently presented government by Allies, have been summoned to appear before the Supreme Council at Leipsch between June 7 and June 20 according to the Tageblatt.

A Grant to Band

G.W.V.A. VOTE A THOUSAND DOLLARS TO THEIR ORGANIZATION.

At the regular meeting of the Great War Veterans, held last evening, a resolution was passed making a grant of $1,000 to the Peterborough G.W.V.A. band. This amount to be expended together with the sum of $500 to be granted to the G.W.V.A. band under a by-law passed by the Corporation of the City of Peterborough for giving of park concerts during the season of 1920. This sum is to be used for the purpose of financing and purchasing suitable uniforms, the same to be hereinafter determined. It was further provided that the aforesaid funds of said band shall be placed in the hands of trustees consisting of six members, 3 of whom shall be members of said band, 3 to be elected annually by the Peterborough branch of th G.W.V.A.

The trustees shall have control of all band funds and a balance sheet shall be submitted annually to members of said band and shall also be incorporated in the annual statement of the local branch.

The said trustees shall also be empowered to establish a fund to be known as a band equipment fund, in which twenty per cent. of the gross receipts of said fund shall be placed therein for the purpose of upkeep of uniforms, music and such other equipment as may be required.

One Monthly Meeting.

It was resolved that future meetings shall be held on the first Monday of each month instead of semi-monthly as at present.

Anual Decoration Sunday.

A third resolution was passed providing that the annual decoration Sunday of the branch will be held on the 6th of June, when the crosses sent by the Department of Militia and Defence shall be erected to those of Comrades who died whilst on service during the war 1914-1918 and are buried in the Little Lake or St. Peter's cemetery.

LATEST NEWS DESPATCHES

(Special to The Examiner.)

LONDON, May 19. — "The government's policy, whether the struggle be short or long, would be to employ the whole available forces and resources of the kingdom to restore law and order in Ireland.'

Baron Birkenhead, Lord Chancellor announced the above in the House of Lords to-day. He said it would be the aim of the government in adopting this policy to render utterly impossible the existing campaign aiming at secession.

Considerable military reinforcements have already been sent to Ireland, the Lord Chancellor stated, and more would be sent as required. He was speaking with authority and on behalf of the rest of his colleagues, he declared, when he said that if existing military forces were insufficient the government would hesitate as little to ask the country for more, as it hesitated in the late war.

GETTING BETTER.

(Special to The Examiner.)

LONDON, May 19. — Grave rumors concerning the condition of the Dowager Queen Alexandra, who has been suffering from a bronchial cold, were set at rest this morning by one of her secretaries, who told the Associated Press that the Queen was so much improved that she would be able to get about as usual if the weather were milder.

Queen Alexandra has been confined to Marlborough House for the past three weeks.

CLEARED OF CHARGES.

(Special to The Examiner.)

TORONTO, May 19. — Judge McBeth in his report to Hon. S. C. Nixon, Provincial Secretary completely exonerates the superintendent and the staff of the Ontario Hospital for the Insane at London, of every charge laid against them. Harry Lowden entered a long list of complaints, including wholesale theft, brutality to the patients and general maladministration. Judge McBeth failed to find any ground for the charges.

WILL NEGOTIATE.

(Special to The Examiner.)

LONDON, May 19. — It was officially announced to-day that satisfactory assurances had been received from M. Tchitcherin, Commissary for Foreign Affairs of Soviet Russia, regarding the safety of the remnant of General Denigine's forces in the Crimea. Consequently it was stated peace negotiations will be opened immediately between the representatives of General Wrangel's army in the south.

BROADER LUXURY TAXES, BUT BUSINESS PROFITS GET INCREASED EXEMPTION

LUXURIES NOW INCLUDE BOOTS, CLOTHING AND WEARING APAREL OF ALL KINDS ABOVE CERTAIN PRICES—INCOME TAX RAISED—WAR CUSTOMS DUTIES REMOVED.

SYNOPSIS OF BUDGET

OTTAWA, May 18—Confronted by the need for increased revenue during the present fiscal year if the Dominion is to meet its commitments without resort to further borrowing, Sir Henry Drayton introduced in the Commons to-day new direct taxation proposals of varied character and calculated to yield from $80,000,000 to $100,000,000. Taxation measures, it has been said, are never popular; but the new Minister of Finance, presenting his first Budget statement to Parliament, approached his task courageously and frankly, and with apparent confidence that the new imposts would be accepted by the Canadian people as necessary if the Dominion was to meet the obligations resulting from war activities, avoid the flotation of additional loans, and, indeed, pay off some short-term treasury notes and debenture stock maturing during the present year.

Sir Henry Drayton's speech was carefully prepared and as carefully delivered. It was a business statement presented in a business-like manner without any attempt at oratorical effects. The Finance Minister concisely laid down the task confronting the country, "to aid the return to ordinary economic conditions to the extent that such return is at this time possible."

"The duty to-day," he asserted, "is to carry on the government of the country without any additions to the debt; but, on the other hand, to promote measures which will reduce the nation's obligations."

HOW TAXES APPLY.

The following is a summary of the taxation proposals submitted by the Minister of Finance:

LUXURY TAX—Ten per cent. of the total purchase price on boots and shoes costing over $9.00 a pair, men's and boys' suits costing over $45.00 each, men's and women's overcoats costing over $50 each, fur coats and robes over $100 each, women's dresses over $45, women's suits over $60, and on hats, hose, neckwear, shirts, purses and gloves costing above certain specified figures, as well as on some other wearing apparel, all fans, opera cloaks, ivory-handled cutlery, cut-glass ware, velvet and silk fabrics, lace, ribbons, silk embroideries, and sporting goods; also on trunks over $40 each, and valises, suit cases, etc., over $25 each. This tax is to be paid by the purchaser to the vendor at the time of sale.

Ten per cent. on pleasure boats, yachts, canoes, and motor boats, cameras, candy and confectionery, chewing gum, firearms, shells or cartridges, pianos, organs, musical instruments, and plated ware adapted for household use. This tax is payable at the time of sale by the Canadian manufacturer, or when imported.

STIFF TAX ON FANCY GOODS.

Twenty per cent. of total purchase price on such articles as cigar and cigarette holders and pipes costing over two dollars and fifty cents, humidors and other equipment for smokers, hunting, shooting and riding garments, fancy pocket-knives, gold, silver, ebony, and ivory toilet ware, jewellery articles of silver adapted for household or office use, fur wearing apparel (except as mentioned above), liveries, Oriental rugs, expensive carpets, and curtains, and chandeliers. This tax payable by the purchaser at time of purchase.

Twenty per cent. on mechanical player-pianos, graphophones, and mechanical musical instruments, and records used therewith.

Fifty per cent. on articles of gold for house use.

Latter two taxes are payable at the time of sale by manufacturer or when imported.

Playing Cards—Twenty-five cents a pack on cards selling at wholesale rates not over $25 per gross packs, and 50 cents a pack on cards above $25 per gross packs.

EXEMPT ESSENTIAL FOODS.

BEER, WINES, AND SPIRITS—Increase in excise duties on beer of 30 cents a gallon, non-sparkling wines 30 cents a gallon, spirits $2.00 a gallon, and on sparkling wines $3.00 a gallon.

MOTOR CARS—Excise tax on Canadian manufactured and imported cars increased from 10 to 15 per cent.

SALES TAX—One per cent. on the sales of all manufacturers, wholesale dealers, jobbers, or importers (not retailers). This tax is not to apply to a large list of essential foodstuffs, cattle foods, anthracite or bituminous coal, or to goods exported.

STAMP DUTIES—Existing tax on cheques continued, but rate increased on bills of exchange and promissory notes. Two cents for bils of $100 or less, and two cents for each additional $100 or fractional part thereof.

Stamp duties on patent medicines, etc., henceforth to be affixed by the

SUMMARY OF DRAYTON BUDGET AND ITS NEW SCHEDULE OF TAXES

OTTAWA, May 18. — Definitely renouncing national borrowing, Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, expects to make up the difference between present revenue and expected expenditure by the following taxes.

1. One per cent. tax on all sales of manufacturers, wholesalers or importers, except on coal and foods for man and beast.

2. Excise taxes running from 10 to 50 per cent. of the selling price of goods, particularly textiles, ranging above certain specified prices, and upon luxury articles made of gold or silver, or for adornment or recreation, whether imported or manufactured in Canada.

3. Heavy excise taxes on all spirituous liquors, from 30c a gallon on ale, beer, porter, stout, to $2 a gallon on rum, whiskey, brandy, gin, etc., and $3 a gallon on champagne and sparkling wines.

4. Increase of 5 per cent. in all taxation on incomes of $5,000 and upwards, taxes to be paid in part or in whole when making returns, and heavy penalties provided for errors or failure in making returns.

5. Stamp taxes of two cents on promissory notes and bills of exchange for every $100 for which drawn.

6. Stamp tax of two cents on every share of stock transferred.

7. Twenty-five to fifty cents on every pack of playing cards sold.

8. A license fee of $2 on every business man dealing in various luxury articles mentioned.

The only reductions are: First, the removal of the extra customs war tax of 7½ per cent., which brought $30,000,000 last year, mainly drawn from articles on which the still higher excise duties are now levied. Second, the repeal of the duty on moving picture films. Third, the retention of the business profits tax, but increasing the exemption on profits from 7 to 10 per cent., and decreasing from 25 to 20 per cent. the tax on profits above 10 and less than 15 per cent. on all businesses having a capitalization of not less than $25,000 and not more than $50,000, except where more than 20 per cent. of the profits was gained in 1917 or 1918 from munitions industries. Fourth some minor tariff reductions, letting typewriters, books and other articles for the blind, come in free.

FLYNN CONDEMNS ATTITUDE OF THE UNION GOVERNMENT

WAS SLATED TO BE FIRED FOR TALKING OUT LOUD—A BIG MEETING IN WINNIPEG.

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., May 19. —The force of the ballot to turn out the government at Ottawa was vehemently urged upon a mass meeting of five thousand which filled the convention hall of the Board of Trade building last night, by Harry J. Flynn, Vice-President of the Grand Army of United Veterans of Canada. Two resolutions were passed with utmost enthusiasm by the gathering, which embraced representatives in large numbers of all veteran organizations in the city, and a generous sprinkling of citizens not eligible for membership in veteran bodies, also a very generous sprinkling of the fair sex.

Andrew J. Norquay, son of a former Premier, presided.

Flynn was accorded a most enthusiastic reception, his tirade against the manner in which Acting Premier Sir George Foster and Hon. N. W. Rowell have treated demands of his organization and himself, being greeted with cheers.

The resolutions both carried by a standing vote, condemning the present Federal government for failure and refusal to re-establish returned soldiers, widows and orphans of the great war, and one resolution calls upon the G. A. U. V. to appeal direct over the head of the government through the Governor General to King George himself, that the desires of the soldiers and sailors of the great war may be heard. Other records, the sentiment of the meeting, that present government, having no mandate from the people, be called upon to resign, and that three members of Winnipeg, Major Andrews, Dr. Blake and G. W. Allan, be called upon to withdraw all support from the government. The meeting pledged itself individually to show to the city members that unless they so withdraw they will be opposed in any convention at which they may seek renomination for any future election.

Flynn's Address.

Flynn in his address said:

"Hon. N. W. Rowell went about the country vilifying me and telling people that the returned soldier could re-establish himself with his back pay from the army. My back pay was $9.20 when I was discharged. I met some who assured me their back pay was $35 to re-establish themselves. How far will Sir Robert Borden get with $35 in buying clothes. He might get a suit of silk pyjamas and that's about all. All a man can get at present prices is coat and vest and do like the chocolate soldier, go for once without "pants." Borden at Boulogne saw men going about in ground sheets and tin hats and thought perhaps they could do the same in Canada.

"As for gratuity it was barely enough to keep a man for a few months' badly needed rest and change after the hell of Flanders. How many high salaried pension board men would go three or four years without a holiday. I know something about vocational training, for I had charge of the commercial department till I found that for my opinions I was to be fired and I resigned. They quizzed me as to my $200 a month salary and my opinions and I told them I was paid for my work, not for my opinions."

NATIONAL RAILWAY

(Canadian Press.)

CALGARY, May 19.—Resolutions urging that there should be good representation of western interests on the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railway and that freight rates westward should be based on the same mileage rates as those eastward and full advantage taken of the reduced cost of operating government lines through easy grades to the coast, were passed by a conference of representatives of the Western Boards of Trade yesterday. A resolution urging establishment of western executive offices for railway was with drawn.

MURRAY STREET CHOIR CONCERT

The first rehearsal of the Murray street Baptist church choir for the concert of to-night was held last evening.

Undoubtedly the presentation will be one of the finest ever heard in Peterborough by any one choir.

The Lady of Shalott by ladies' voices is of superb quality.

The Te Deum, with which the evening opens is regal in its sentiment at any time, but when heard from fifty voices permanently associated and perfectly balanced, the effect must be experienced rather than described.

"Three Men Have Journeyed," and the instrumental work vary the programme in a fashion that excludes all suggestion of monotony.

The musical people of Peterborough will be convinced that this choir is at least the peer of any in the city. Much credit is d those who have the enterprise to attempt such a production without any musical help from outside its own membership.

THE WEATHER

Rain is needed, and needed badly. With the exception of a few light showers there has been no rain for about a month and the spring generally was very dry. Conditions are favorable for rain at the present time, but it fails to come, and the looked-for showers tantalizingly hold off.

MOSCOW SOVIET WELCOME THE BRITISH TRADE DELEGATION.

(Canadian Press.)

MOSCOW, May 19.—An impressive popular demonstration greeted the British Trade Union delegation upon its arrival here at noon to-day.

Following addresses of welcome by the chairman of the Moscow Soviet and the chairman of All-Russian Federation of Trade Unions, the Britishers assured the representatives of the Russians that the British workmen were opposed to the blockade of Russia and Polish aggression. They declare that on their return to Britain they would bring pressure of organised labour to bear on the British Government for the purpose of forcing the resumption of relations with Russia.

BLAMES GOVERNMENT.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, May 19.—A definition of the Polish attack on Bolshevik Russia and what is claimed to be "Great Britain's complicity in that offensive," is contained in a manifesto issued here by a number of Labour leaders.

It states that the attack means the "prolongation of war and chaos, victory of secret diplomacy and the defeat of the League of Nations." The British Government is accused of "violating its pledges by sending munitions to Poland" the manifesto declaring that a "ferociously cruel blockade of Russia is actually maintained although legally non-existent, while a stream of goods is flowing into Poland. The temper of the whole labour movement is rising rapidly, and labour should see that the attack upon Russia is ended."

NEW TAXES AIMED AT EXTRAVAGANCE

GOVERNMENT WILL BENEFIT IF FREE SPENDING CONTINUES.

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, May 19.—Instructions for levying the new taxes in force today have been sent to tax collectors throughout Dominion. What the revenue will be, finance department experts make no attempt to estimate in anything like exact figures although it is thought additional revenue will be about seventy-five or eighty million dollars. The purpose of the luxury tax is two fold, —more revenue and prevention of extravagance. In any event one of these two objects will be secured. If extravagance continues the government will benefit by additional revenue. If prices are lowered to within the limit of exemption from taxaton the consumer will benefit. It is thought, however that this tax would give an impetous to reduction in prices. An article now just coming within scope of luxury tax will probably be sold a few cents under tax limit.

TWO COATS IN ONE

Do you catch on? This is the time when you need both a light overcoat and a raincoat. At the present price of clothing this means considerable outlay. By taking advantage of the clearing sale of splendid Tweed Raincoats at the Tartan Shop, you can buy one of these utility garments that keep out the rain and that you can wear any day of the week for a light top coat. If you buy this week, while this slashing sale is on, you'll never buy a cheaper and more practical outfit. The place: The Tartan Tailor Shop, Frank N. Hourigan, Manager. Your size awaits you—just off George St., at 161 Hunter. 1d118 9633

SUBSCRIPTION RATES FOR THE DAILY EXAMINER

Owing to the greatly increased cost of newsprint and all other costs going into the production of a newspaper, The Examiner has been forced to increase its subscription rates, and on and after June 1st next, The Daily Examiner will be sold as follows delivered:

Yearly	$6.00
Half-Yearly	$3.00
Quarterly	$1.50
Monthly	50c
By Mail Monthly	40c
Weekly through newsboys	15c
Single Copies	3c

The Examiner is about the last of the Daily Papers to increase its subscription rates. We had hoped that the price of newsprint would come down and permit us to continue the old price, but find that it is absolutely necessary to follow the course of all other newspapers in order to continue our publication.

Cutting Prices

READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHING AND SHOES PRINCIPAL ARTICLES AFFECTED BY LOWER PRICES.

CHICAGO, May 19.— A wave of price cutting in retail clothing costs, reaching from the Mississippi Valley to the Pacific coast, was reported today. Despatches from 24 cities in that territory told of promised reductions in these necessities, ranging from 15 per cent. to minus profit.

Financial authorities here said that the indications were that the price decline would be limited to ready-to-wear clothing, principally women's garments and silks. Shoes were in the list affected.

Tight money and inadequate transportation facilities were cited among the prime reasons for the mercantile movement. Delays in delivery of goods in which much money had been tied up, together with inability of farmers to get grain and live stock to market, were said in many instances to have worked a hardship on merchants.

An office of one of the leading department stores of Chicago declared that the price reduction now being reported meant also that merchants were trying to satisfy, what he called "a hysterical demand from the public for lower prices." These current reductions, he said, might be only temporary.

A financial authority here said that if reports of price cutting were dependable, they indicated a tendency toward a reduction in inventories. Though this might be temporary, he said, it was undoubtedly good, in that it suggested that merchants were going ahead more cautiously. Sales are being held under various names.

SEEKS TO SET ASIDE FARM SALE— PRICE TOO LOW

WINDSOR, May 19. — Arthur Damphouse, farmer, of Tilbury North, has filed suit here to set aside the sale of a farm valued at $15,000, which was sold by Mrs. Louise Damphouse, his mother, and executrix of the $250,000 estate left by M. H. Damphouse. The action, which will come before the Ontario Supreme Court this autumn, also names Wilfred and Elijah, brothers, who were interested in the sale. The farm, which contains 120 acres, is said to be the finest in the district. Arthur claims in his suit that the property was sold at too low a figure.

WANT TO REMOVE THE POLICE MAGISTRATE

The town council of Collingwood instructed the mayor of that town to take steps to have Police Magistrate W. A. Hogg removed from office. They want an official who will fill the position for about $500 a year, "with less partisanship and more dignity," as their statement says.—Telegram.

MADRID'S FAMOUS TOREADOR KILLED

Gored to Death While Attempting to Save Compatriot in Bull Ring.

MADRID, May 17.—Madrid is mourning because her favorite toreador, Gallito, was killed by a bull last night at Place de Talavera while attempting to save a felow-toreador. The newspapers issued special editions to tell of the event, and a bullfight that was scheduled for to-day in connection with King Alfonso's birthday fete was abandoned.

Gallito was 23 years old, and had amassed a fortune of about eight million dollars in the ring. He had killed 1,430 bulls in the area and taken part in 674 "vorribas."

OLD DAILIES MAY HAVE TO SUSPEND

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Representatives of more than 100 newspapers, meeting here, formed the United States Publishers' Newsprint Conservative League.

Many editors who were unable to attend sent letters that painted harrowing pictures of distress, due to the lack of paper and high prices.

Many old and well established dailies would be compelled to suspend, it was said, if conditions did not improve.

200 BORDER RESIDENTS INTEND TO SEEK DIVORCE

WINDSOR, May 17.—More than 200 border residents, three-fourths of whom are men, have filed applications with Windsor barristers to commence divorce proceedings as soon as the Divorce Bill now before the Dominion Parliament becomes law. One Windsor barrister has no few than 20 applications for divorce filed during the last two weeks. As there are 41 lawyers in the border municipalities this barrister estimated the total number of divorce applications at 400.

"LOVE, HONOR AND OBEY" REMAINS IN CEREMONY.

LONDON, May 17. — Another attempt to alter the "causes for which matrimony was ordained" has been defeated by the Lower House of Convocation.

The Dean of Canterbury moved to give first place to a solemn promise between the contracting pair "to love, comfort and help each other through life." He argued the tone of the present marriage service does not correspond with the feelings of women nowadays.

However, for the present, women will have to continue to "love, honor and obey."

DIVIDEND OF 100 PER CENT. DECLARED BY COTTON PLANT

BOSTON, May 19.—Declaration of a stock dividend of 100 per cent. by the Dwight Manufacturing Company, which has cotton mills at Chicopee and Alabama City, Ala., was recommended to stockholders by the directors of the company here. It was voted also to recommend that the par value of the stock be changed from $500 to $100, with an exchange of five new shares for one of the old, and to increase the authorized capital from $1,800,000 to $6,000,000. The stockholders will act at a special meeting called for May 26.

WANTED $50 FOR FINDING WIFE

But Happy Bridegroom Denied Liability.

TORONTO, May 18.—Harry Lang who recently led a smiling bride to the altar, was defendant in the Division Court Chambers yesterday in a claim made by Mrs. M. Shapero and Mrs. Clara Aron, who sought to recover $50 for introducing Lang to the young lady.

"He said he would give me $50 if I would find him a nice wife," declared Mrs. Shapero.

But though Lang did marry, he did not pick out as his bride any of the young ladies the plaintiffs introduced him to. This was proven by the bride herself, as well as by her mother, and Judge Morson dismissed the case.

MAN WHO SHOT GIRL DIES OF SELF-INFLICTED WOUNDS

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, May 18.—William Collier, the young man who shot Miss Hazel Evans, Chateau Laurier telephone operator, after escorting her to her home on Lebreton street Sunday night, and who then turned the weapon upon himself, died this morning at 2.30 o'clock in St. Luke's Hospital. The shooting, it is said, is the result of Miss Evans' refusal of marriage to Collier. Miss Evans will recover.

CURB ON CREDIT TO CURTAIL LUXURIES

HOUSTON AND RESERVE BOARD TO DISCUSS PLAN TO LIMIT PRODUCTION OF NON-ESSENTIALS.

CHICAGO, May 19.—How to halt the orgy of spending on luxuries and other non-essentials in which Americans are indulging and divert capital to increased production of necessities which will reduce the cost of living is a question that will be considered by leading bankers in a conference with Secretary of the Treasury Houston and the Federal Reserve Board next week, says Arthur Sears Henning in a dispatch from Washington to-night to the Chicago Tribune.

"The principal suggestion to be discussed," he adds, "is that the reserve banks and the bankers take concrete action to curtail the advance of credit for the production of non-essentials in an effort to stem the wave of extravagance, on the theory the people will stop spending when there are no luxuries to buy and capital will be forced into the production of necessaries when denied the more popular field of non-essentials.

Conference to Take Wide Range.

"George M. Reynolds and James B. Forgan of Chicago will take a leading part in the conference, the former as a director of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank and the latter in the dual capacity of member of the Advisory Council of the Federal Reserve System and Chairman of the American Bankers' Association Committee appointed for the conference.

"A wide range of questions will be considered, all bearing on financial reconstruction measures to check and reduce inflation and otherwise direct the nation back to normal conditions from the financial and economic excesses produced by the war.

"The suggestion of action to check extravagance has grown out of the failure of realization of the expectation that the cost of living would begin to decline by this time and the increasing evidence that the wave of reckless spending has not abated, but is even advancing, with the financing of the production of pleasure cars, fancy wearing apparel and other luxuries assuming huge proportions.

Farmers Unable to Get Nails.

"One assertion frequently heard is that farmers are unable to procure nails, wire and other articles of iron because of the prodigious demand for steel in the automobile industry.

"There are numerous difficulties to be faced by the conference, however, in dealing with the curtailment of the production of luxuries and increasing production of essentials.

"The impression prevails that such action as may be takenu along this line must necessarily be of a general nature. Beyond blanket power to restrict loans, the Federal Reserve Board has no specific authority by law to define essential industries and non-essential industries.

"There will also be a discussion of the present rediscount rates, but beyond a modification of those now in effect general increases are not anticipated.

"Officials here believe the results of the application of graduated rediscount rates in the Kansas City district have been successful in restraining unnecessary use of credit."

AFTER CLOUDS COMES SUNSHINE.
AFTER DESPONDENCY COMES JOY.
AFTER SICKNESS COMES HEALTH.
AFTER WEAKNESS COMES STRENGTH.

In the spring when you're "all in"—fagged out—blood thin, if you will turn to Nature's remedy, a tonic made from wild roots and barks, which has stood fifty years as the best spring tonic—you will find strength regained. No need to tell you it's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, put up in tablet or liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. After a hard winter—shut up indoors, your blood needs a temperance tonic, a tissue-builder and blood-maker such as this "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's.

SARNIA, ONT.—"I was in a very bad condition. I could not eat without feeling distressed. Had indigestion so badly I was always in misery. I had liver trouble as well, and the two just put me 'down and out' for about five years. I had many good doctors but got no relief. I took Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken two bottles I was much improved, and in less then six months I was well. I could eat anything and do my work with pleasure." —MRS. ANNIE BACON, 236 Burand St.

TORONTO WOMAN HAS GAINED 30 POUNDS

TRIED FOR TEN YEARS TO FIND HEALTH WITHOUT SUCCESS—TROUBLES OVERCOME BY TAKING TANLAC.

"I have changed so much for the better that when my friends meet me on the street they don't know me, and no wonder for I have gained thirty-five pounds in weight," was the remarkable statement made by Mrs. Davies, of 55 Beaty Avenue, Toronto, recently.

"I was a sick woman for ten years," she continued. "My ill-health was caused by overwork and then a severe shock which shattered my nervous system and I had a complete breakdown. I was in the hospital for a year and when I came out I wasn't very much better. I had headaches that nearly drove me out of my mind, and all the sleep I ever got was after I was completely exhausted. I was as weak as a baby and went down from one hundred and thirty-eight pounds to a hundred and six. I was so pitiably pale and thin that you wouldn't have recognized me for the strong, healthy woman I used to be.

"It was my husband who persuaded me to give Tanlac a trial. He read of a case in the papers which almost described my own and he was convinced that it would help me. That was before Christmas and that bottle of Tanlac was the best Christmas present I ever had, for it was the turning point of my illness. The first thing it did was to make me sleep better, and soon my appetite improved and I began to eat as I had not done for years. My whole condition steadily improved and I gained in strength and weight rapidly. I now weigh one hundred and thirty-six pounds so that I have gained thirty pounds and really I feel fine. For ten years I have been trying to find something to restore my health. So you can imagine how thankful I am for what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowler's Corners by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert by A. J. Scott; in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

REVENANTS.

I know where go the ghosts of grief,
of longing or of laughter,
Which haunted hearts of men;
By broken doors they fled afar, but turned them earthward, after,
In flower form again.

I know the dogwood drifts are dreams whose white and wasted fire
Burned bright in younger years;
I know the painted poppies are but phantoms of desire,
And hyacinths are tears.

I know the lilies are a love that lingered, unabated,
Where all but love had fled,
And every red rose is the wraith of some caress awaited
By lovers long-time dead.

So shall, as other Maytimes send (oh, wistful ghost of gladness!)
Blue iris blown aslant,
I find the late forgiveness that I asked you in my sadness—
And that you did not grant!

EXPLORERS HAVE HARROWING TIME

PROFESSOR RICE'S PARTY PURSUED FOR DAYS ALONG BANKS OF ORINOCO.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A thrilling story of a running fight with Indians in the wilderness along the Amazon river in South America was told last night by Prof. Alexander Hamilton Rice, who came to port with members of his exploring party on the steamer Alban. The expedition which Prof. Rice headed left here last July and proceeded to Para, Brazil, from which point the members penetrated to hitherto unexplored sections of the country of the Amazon.

Describing the fight with the Indians, who, he said, were almost white in color, Prof. Rice said:

"Early in January, Mr. Ober, who is connected with the Geodetic Survey of our Government, and I, accompanied by a Venezuelan, named Fuenters, left our base at Esmeralda, Brazil, to map out ground on a small island known as Raudaul Guahariбos. The place was seven days' journey from our base.

"In due time we reached the island and started at our task with very satisfactory results. We were about finished and ready to return to Esmeralda when one of the Indian guides of our party happened to glance across the river, which at that point was about ninety feet wide. He pointed to a naked savage running through the jungle undergrowth.

"The alarm was immediately given and we fired several shots at the savage. As we did this a signal was given by the man and more than 200 of his kind, almost white in color, sprang up from the bushes just across from us. In all my years of experience in the tropical jungles, I have never seen such a ferocious group of men. Nearly all of them were armed with bows and arrows and many carried spears and blow guns.

Not Seen for Century.

"I believe these Indians have been seen but once before by Ensign Bobadilla, in 1763, during his explorations under the direction of the Spanish Government. This tribe are neighbors of the Narqui tribes, who hold them in deadly fear.

"When the savages made their appearance we attempted to parley with them in the Indian dialects that we knew, but without avail. As we were talking with them they suddenly rushed into the stream, holding their bows above their heads. The only arms our party had were a revolver, a shotgun and a rifle. With these weapons we fired volley after volley, killing several of their number. This succeeded in stopping their charge against us. They later made four other attempts, but were unable to carry out their purpose."

Pursued Along Bank.

"For four days and nights sleep was impossible," he went on. "The savages, who apparently had no boats of any kind, and who, I believe, did not know how to use them if they did have canoes pursued us along the river bank. It seems almost miraculous that none of our party was injured. After the fourth day the tribesmen became disheartened over their inability to capture us for a meal and they gave up the chase. Three days later we arrived back in Esmeralda none the worse for our thrilling experience."

HOUSE SOLD TO DR. MORGAN

Dr. J. A. Morgan yesterday purchased the residence of the late Dr. Brown corner of Murray and George streets at public auction for $5,400. The bids which commenced at $3,000 were fairly briskfl. J. F. Thornston, auctioneer, conducted the sale.

Mr. John Fligg has brought the residence at present occupied by Mr. Cameron, 264 Hunter street and has commenced work in transforming it into six modern apartments.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR PLAYGROUNDS

At a meeting of the Playgrounds Committee held yesterday afternoon, Mrs. E. V. Frederick, convenor of the Appointment Committee, read a report of the progress being made by her committee which was subsequently given authority to go ahead with the appointments for the coming season.

Mrs. F. C. Neal, convenor of the Equipment Committee, submitted an estimate of the new equipment needed at the Central and the King Edward Schools. The meeting, which was not well attended, adjourned for further consideration of matters brought up yesterday.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19TH, 1920.

LET THEM GO.

There is much lamenting in some of the newspapers over the fact that the Mennonites in Manitoba, dissatisfied with the condition there, especially in regards to compulsory school atendan ce,are threatening to emigrate to the United States or South America. In many respects the Mennonites may be good citizens, their departure in large numbers might represent a material loss to the province of Manitoba. But after all if they will not adopt Canadian ways and Canadian customs and allow their children to receive a Canadian education, perhaps they would be better off elsewhere ,and the country would be better off without them. The setting up of communities of foreigners, ignoring Canadian regulations and laws and operating according to their own customs, is not the best policy for the development of a healthy Canadianism, and if the Mennonites or any other body want to leave Canada merely because they are not permitted to bring their children up regardless of the school regulations of the land in which they are living, there should be no obstacles placed in the way of their departure. Canada can do very nicely without them.

THE HYDRO STRIKE.

The dispute between the Hydro Electric Commission and its employees on the Chippawa development scheme is a matter that affects the interests of the whole province and it is hoped that a satisfactory settlement will be speedily reached. There is, however, little likelihood of this culmination if the workers persist in their present demands, which represent an increase of 223 per cent over the wages paid in 1914. The Hydro Electric Commission claim that the offer made by them to their employees was the very highest that could possibly be made in order to be fair to the municipalities involved, and to the province as a whole. Any additional expense added to the cost of the undertaking would be felt by the people, and the Commission believe that the demands of the men are excessive. The cost of living, figures given by the Commission show, has increased since 1914 by 110 per cent., but the wages asked for represent an increase of 223 per cent—the lowest wage asked for by any adult employee being $6.60 per day, while workmen who were paid $4.80 per day six years ago, want $14.70 per day now. The Labour members of the Legislature did well to avert a general strike on the work; if they succeed in convincing the men that a strike that will hinder the Hydro enterprises at the present time is a calamity in which labour and everybody else will suffer, they will have done much more.

HOSPITAL GRANTS.

The attitude of the Ontario government towards the question of increasing the grants that the province and the municipalities pay to hospitals for the maintenance of indigent patients is not as generous as is necessary to meet the needs of the various institutions, although the increase decided upon will be of assistance. However the government should not be harshly criticized for in its consideration of the question it has only taken the same ground as the people generally are inclined to take. There has been too little consideration given to this matter of caring for the sick, especially for those who are unable to pay for their treatment. People know there are hospitals for such people, but they have only a hazy idea of how these institutions are financed and the hospitals have been left to struggle along as best they can in the face of ever-increasing expenses. The Provincial government is no better or no worse than the individual citizen in recognizing responsibility in this connection. The province cheerfully spends millions of dollars on good roads, yet gags at an expenditure of a few cents a day for the care of the ill who cannot afford to pay for their maintenance in hospital. There are grants for agriculture that go through without a complaint, but when the question of grants for hospitals is being considered, the government finds that only a small increase is possible because the province cannot afford to do more. Are the people to understand that good roads are of more importance than caring for the sick and the injured?

A FOOLISH ATTEMPT.

Men who hold the idea that there should be a law against anything they do not like, should not be encouraged, says Turner's Weekly. Mr. Tweedie, the Member in the House of Commons for a Calgary division is one such man; and he was not encouraged in the House. After hearing a lot of criticism about the way in which the Independent members of parliament were disposed to leave their resignations in the hands of a committee of their constituents, thus establishing an informal system of recall, Mr. Tweedie came to the conclusion that he did not like the system and so he prposed to pass a law against it. His proposal was that the election of any member who had agreed to resign his seat if his actions in the House dnd not suit a certain number of his constituents, should be declared illegal. His proopsal was permitted to die a painless death without the formality of a House division. The incident arose over the admission of O. R. Gould, Farmer member for Assiniboia, that he was sitting practically at the pleasure of a committee of fifteen. As we stated before, we do not agree with Gould in this matter, but if the people want such a system and members can be found who will agree to it, it is impossible to read anything criminal into the transaction. It is not a matter for law it is a matter for argument. If Tweedie does not like the idea of committee control of members, he does not have to subscribe to it. If Gould likes it, good luck to him; he is welcome to it.

A CALL TO ARMS.

The cost of food will continue high until production catches up more closely to demand, declares the Montreal Star. Canada's foremost authority on agriculture Dr. J. W. Robertson, C.M.G., makes this statement after a prolonged survey of conditions both at home and abroad.

Dr. Robertson sees no immediate remedy for high food prices. The gradual refilling of granaries is the only solution. The world war, with its terrific wastage, set the people down some miles from home, and the people have got to walk back.

Reference is made to the fact that no allied government has attempted to reduce the prices paid to farmers for their products; on the contrary they have guaranteed minimum prices. The overpowering question is not one of cost b,ut one of production, and it is a vital question. Better sufficient at high prices than famine is the consideration dictating the policy to-day.

The prime need of the world is greater food production to save life and to maintain order. The blight of hunger means a stunted social and political growth, when the vast problems of reconstruction demand the application of a public mind, unhampered by trial and unmoved by crisis.

The world reputation of Canada's foodstuffs, of which Dr. Robertson speaks, lays upon this country a duty in service to humanity hardly secondary to that just completed. On the battle line with famine Canada holds a salient of the first importance. The barrage of her flour-barrels is depended upon for the great advance against chaos.

"To work diligently, with intelligence, to live economically, and to waste nothing" is the plan of life Dr. Robertson advises for man and nation. Could that advice be burned into the consciousness of every Canadian, Canada would leap forward. It lays down the individual duty, the noblest form of human conduct, the only worthy reaction to war sacrifice.

WHEAT SEEDING THREE-FOURTHS DONE

(Canadian Press.)

REGINA, May 19.—Seventy-five per cent. of wheat seeding in Saskatchewan is completed, acording to the fortnightly report of the Provincial Department of Agriculture. In many districts seeding will be fully completed this week ,and oat seeding is now under way and will be general within a few days. The weather has been ideal, and the land is in splendid condition for seeding, so much so that in many places wheat has appeared above the ground in three days from being sown. Heavy winds occured in some places, but no damage was done. There is ample moisture to insure growth, but rain is needed in the northern districts.

Regarding the supply of potatoes for seed, there appears to be sufficient at from $2.50 to $4 a bushel. With the good growth of grass, cattle are picking up well, and all live stock is in fair condition. Although the spring is late, wheat seeding will be completed not more than seven days later than last year.

THE CARTERS WILL DRAFT A NEW SCALE FOR THEIR WORK

THE MATTER WAS DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

At the regular meeting of the police commissioners held yesterday afternoon a deputation consisting of William White and Edward Cooney, representing the local carters waited on the board seeking a revision of the old city by-law dated 1906 covering the carters' charges. All the members of the board were present.

Chief Thompson explained the purpose of the deputation. He stated that he had had a number of complaints from citizens over the alleged exorbitant cartage charges. He met the carters and they said they could not afford to work on the old scale and had to raise the rates. It seems that they have broken the by-law which was passed 14 years ago but is admittedly unfair today.

Mr. Cooney outlined the different increases in feed and everything entering into their business. He said all they wanted was a fair deal. He had not increased his rates and broken the by-law and he was here to get the by-law changed so he wouldn't have to. Mr. White and Mr. Cooney said they would sooner go out of business than try to carry on under the present by-law.

After some discussion they were advised to have a meeting of the carters and draw up a schedule which they would consider fair and present this to the Board for discussion and revision if necessary. The Board was unanimous that the by-law did not meet conditions now and the carters were only fair in seeking a revision.

Police Fair Grounds.

A letter was read from the Exhibition Board asking for the assistance of the City police on the holidays they are holding there this year and also on Fair days. "I think we should help them out in this matter," said Judge Huycke. "Oh! yes, I think so too," the Mayor stated.

"I'm willing to give the men," Chief Thompson replied and said the reason it had come up before the Board was that the Exhibition Grounds were outside the city limits and in the territory of the county constables. He wanted the matter to come up so the Board would understand his position and give him the proper authority.

"We want to give the Chief the legal right to have the men there," was the way the chairman put it.

The Mayor moved, seconded by Magistrate Dumble that the request be granted.

Enos Mayette who, at a previous meeting complained about being $3.10 short in his money after being convicted at the Police Court on a charge of having liquor at his house. The letter he wrote to the Board again and addressed to S. R. Armstrong, secretary, is dated, County Goal, April 27. He states:

"I was arrested on the Sunday evening and had no supper and on the Monday I had only breakfast and supper. On the Tuesday I had breakfast only—no other meals.

Three meals at 40c is	$ 1 20
I had when arrested, cash,	95 65
3 meals	1 20
Received on remand	2 00
Order to O'Brien	20 00
Paid to Me	69 35
	$ 92 55
Balance unaccounted for	3 10

Which I claim the Police must refund.

Yours truly,
ENOS MAYETTE.

Chief Thompson explained that he saw Mayette yesterday morning and the man still persisted that he was cheated out of $3.10 at the station. The chief said the money was locked up and taken care of by the Sergeant carefully. "I have never known of a cent going wrong," he said. He said Mayette was so doped up he did not know anything when he was taken in that morning. He used drugs at times. It was moved that the letter be placed on file.

A motion was put through that Mr. R. R. Hall be paid $450 in full of his account over the police investigation. Previously he was offered $350 but did not feel that this was enough. "The burden of the work was on Mr. Hall," said Judge Huycke. The motion carried unanimously.

The Police Car.

The Chief of Police notified the Board that he had purchased a car for $1,200, which was the amount the Board placed at his disposal for this purpose. The car was owned by a local man and had only been driven about a thousand miles last year and was in excellent shape. If purchased at the new prices it would cost upwards of $1,800. The owner had never any trouble with it the Chief stated. Magistrate Dumble felt that he should have bought a Ford "for about $400 or $500." Two accounts for two tires which the Chief said he had been able to purchase wholesale for which he was ocmmended,accompanied the bill for the car and over this the Magistrate pondered thinking perhaps it was only the forerunner of expense accounts. Finally he pased them:

"I don't know anything about cars," he said.

"Stick to it Don't know anything about them," cautioned the Judge, speaking evidently from experience.

Accounts Passed.

The following accounts were passed:—T. A. MacDonald, $1,257; Mrs. A. Irwin, $1.40; Bell Telephone Co., $5.35; James Sutherland, $1.90; Hydro Electric Power Commission, $200; Municipal Fuel Supply, $120.25; J. A. Ash, $14.40; W. H. Hamilton, 50c; R. J. Soden, $4.05; Aaron Comstock, $9.00; Peterbor Lock Mfg. Co., $1.50; Higgins Hardware Co., $9.40; Grant and Thorpe, 60c; Peterboro Utilities Commission, 50c.

ROSE AGAIN

Chapter CXXVI.

Rose had gone home at last. Gone to stay—so she said. She had not yet asked for a divorce. I, for one, felt she never would. There is something in a small town bringing-up that still made divorce seem a sort of disgraceful thing, although in cities it was scarcely a nine days wonder. Then too, Rose loved Walter Kemp badly as he had treated her. And when a woman loves a man she clings to any hold she may have up on him as long as she can.

"Her heart is near the breaking point," Mother wrote. "She seems to have lost all interest in everything. Her father wants Rose and her mother to travel. He cannot leave his business, however, and Mrs. Grandon hates to leave him. I think Rose feels chagrined and embarrassed because of her old friends. There is no need; there is nothing but sympathy for her in their young hearts. I think it will be a lesson to some of them. If Rose had consulted hers, her father would have looked up Mr. Kemp's record, and from what Mrs. Grandon tells me of him, I am sure Rose would not have married him. Now she is shamed and humiliated."

There was much more in Mother's letter, but that was all about Rose. I sat right down and wrote her a long letter. By and by I would ask Everett to let me have her for a short visit. It would do her good, perhaps. And I was so sorry for her.

When I suggested it to Everett he offered no opposition to my plan, although he did not appear particularly pleased.

"It will bring back all that happened while she was here before," he reminded me. He had always resented her running away to get married while visiting me. He never had quite belived that her father did not blame him in some way, or think he might have prevented the marriage, altho Rose had told them Everett didn't even know she was acquainted with Walter.

But we needn't have worried. When I wrote Rose asking her to make me a visit, she replied refusing, and giving as one reason just what Everett had suggested: that it would bring Walter's courtship back too vividly.

"I don't feel that I could bear it—not just yet. Then too, I am not good company for anyone these days, Sandra. Perhaps after I have been with father and mother longer I shall grow more cheerful, but at present everything looks dark to me. What I should do without them, God only knows. So excuse me for a time, and thank you for the invitation. It is good of you to want me after the way I abused your hospitality."

"I thought she would feel that way," was Everett's only remark when I read that portion of her letter.

"Poor Rose. She was such a gay, fun-loving girl. She was the liviliest of us all."

But Rose, everything was pushed from my mind soon after I received her letter, because of my jealous suspicioins of Miss Pierce.

One morning I was a bit late in getting down to breakfast. She and Everett were in close conversation in the hall. Their heads were close together and they were talking in an undertone so that I could distinguish nothing they said.

When they heard me they sprang apart. I thought guiltily, and I saw Everett give a warning glance before she turned and bade me good-morning.

I responded in a freezing tone, at which she gave me a depreeating glance and moved on. Everett buried himself in his paper, so did not notice my silence.

He kissed me when he left, promising to be home early, then went out whistling gayly. What did he care if I had been hurt by his attention to Miss Pierce in the house where I was mistress? He was as bad—almost—as Walter Kemp, I said in my thoughts. And all day I kept to myself, lonely and miserable, the demon Jealousy again in possession.

HEART SO BAD

WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Yatem.n, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines, and took several different kinds but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them. Before I had taken more than two boxes I could see that they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited. Toronto, Ont.

YOUNG ONION THIEVES USE DOG AS AN ALLY

(Canadian Press.)

WINGHAM, May 19.—A new method of diverting attention while a raid is being made on a vegetable garden appears to have been discovered by some small boys here who have been raiding the onion beds of citizens and selling the produce in town. The lads are alleged to have taken a dog with them on their visits to the gardens, and, locating somebody's cat, then set the dog on it, the barking of the dog at the cat guaranteeing to the lads sufficient freedom from observation to secure their supply of young onions.

TRADES CONGRESS AGAINST APPEAL OF STRIKE TRIALS

WILL NOT LEND SUPPORT TO TAKE CASES TO PRIVY COUNCIL.

OTTAWA, May 19.—In a circular letter to the affiliated membership of Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, the executive of the Congress state that they do not feel justified in lending their support to an appeal to the Privy Council from the verdict in the Winnipeg strike trials. The letter states that the indictment speeches for prosecution and defence, the Judge's charge to the jury, the verdict of the jury, and the decision of the Appeal Court in the trial of Russell, and also the indictment, charges and verdict in the trial of Ivens, Armstrong, Heaps and others, have all been carefully examined. In the opinion of the executive, any danger that may exist of these cases being used as a precedent to curtail the proper activities of the trade union movement can be most effectively remedied by amendments to the law itself.

It is stated in the circular that the Trades and Labor Congress will continue to render such aid as may be possible towards securing the liberty of the men at present serving terms for seditious conspiracy. The executive is not convinced that Russell and the others were indicted simply because they were strike leaders, as most of them held only minor positions on the strike committee, and many others, being far more responsible for the direction of the strike, were not interfered with, and are still at liberty. Neither is the executive convinced that the activities of these men in endeavoring to obtain a change in economic conditions through the medium of a strike, are such as should be punishable by law.

In making this statement, however, the executive does not desire to cast any reflection on the fairness of the judge or jury in these trials, as Russell is reported as publicly stating he had a fair trial. Though it was the duty of the judge and jury to administer the law as they found it, the executive is of the opinion that the law of seditious conspiracy under which these men were found guilty, is to vague in its definition and possibly of such wide application as to practically make impossible any organized activity for the betterment of social and economic conditions.

This circular states that Trades and Labor Congress are proceeding to obtain a full review of the Criminal Code and other laws as they affect generally recognized trades union rights in this country, and will bring their findings to the attention of the membership. Afterwards, they will place the same before the proper authorities and the public generally, in order to secure such alterations in the law as may be found necessary. The policies outlined by the convicted men, says the circular, had been repudiated by the International Trade Union movement.

MEETING AT MAY'S SCHOOL

On Monday afternoon, May 17th, a very interesting meeting was held at May's School for the purpose of organizing a "Home and School Association. Mrs. Medd and Mrs. W. R. Frederick, a promising and brilliant young pastor of the Methodist Church, passed away at the parsonage at Ivanhoe after a brief illness from pneumonia following influenza. He was thirty-five years of age, and leaves a wife and three small children. He was ordained into the ministry seven years ago, and had Ambreton as his first charge. He had been three years at Ivanhoe. The funeral will be held at Lindsay.

BOARD OF COMMERCE REPORT ON BREAD

Average cost to Canadian bakers of production of bread during March increased one-fifth of one per cent. per pound and a half loaf, due to an increase in the cost of flour of thirty-four cents per barrel. In publishing its monthly statement on the production and cost of bread, the Board of Commerce states that this item of flour is the only one in which returns show any particular increase during the month.

The Board of Commerce report states that representative firms in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, and Vancouver are furnishing the board with satisfactory and reliable reports of their operations, while the returns of the smaller firms show improvement. "Certain firms having discontinued reporting," concludes the statement, "they will be prosecuted."

The average cost of production of bread in Canada during March was seven and nine-tenths cents per pound. There was an increase in consumption over Febraury of six per cent.

Flour cost the bakers $11.94 per barrel on the average. The cost in February was $11.60. The yield of bread per barrel had been maintained at 264 pounds. The average standard loaf is one and a half pounds.

The most expensive bread production was in Montreal first district, where the loaf cost the baker 8.847 cents per pound. In Sydney, Amherst, Milford, St. John, N.B., Calgary and Vancouver, cost of production ran over eight cents per pound. It was cheapest in Brantford, where production cost 7.076 cents per pound.

TWO HUNDRED APPLICANTS IN WINDSOR WANT DIVORCES

WINDSOR, May 19.—At least two hundred applicants are on lists of local barristers awaiting action on the bill now pending before Parliament which wil give Ontario the right to grant divorces in her own courts, as well as cut the cost from $1,000 to $100. One lawyer during the past two weeks has had twenty applications.

Already divorce proceedings for seven unhappy Windsor pairs have been started in Parliament, notwithstanding the almost prohibitive cost. Three-fourths of the actions are being brought by men, the majority of them war veterans.

MINISTER OF LABOUR ACTS IN RESPONSE TO MAYOR'S APPEAL

SENDS DEPUTY TO INVESTIGATE LOCAL STRIKE—MAYOR M'INTYRE AND ALD. GORDON INTERVIEWED VICE-PRESIDENT ASHWORTH OF C.G.E. COMPANY.

THE MACHINISTS' CASE

Further efforts yesterday on the part of Mayor McIntyre and Ald. Gordon to bring about a settlement of the strike at the C.G.E. works ended with a special meeting of the Council at which the latest negotiations and communications were reviewed to a large audience composed almost entirely of C.G.E. employees.

Following an interview with Vice-President Ashworth, of Toronto, who arrived here on Monday, Mayor McIntyre wired Senator Gideon Robertson, Minister of Labor, urging him to come to Peterboro, to exercise his influence, and just prior to the Council meeting His Worship received a reply that Mr. Gerald H. Brown representing the Labor Department, was leaving on the night train and would be here to-day.

At the suggestion of Mr. Harry Harper, business representative of the Machinists, the Mayor telephoned Ottawa after the meeting in the hope of impressing upon Senator Robertson the importance of his personal attendance but he could not be located. There was no other recourse but to await to-day's developments. Mr. Harper stated that if a meeting of Senator Robertson and Senator Nicholls, president of the C.G.E. company, could be arranged there would be the strongest likelihood of hastening the end of the strike.

Could Do Nothing More.

Ald. Gordon reported that in the absence of Ald. Whitehouse and because the Council's special committee was unable to act, Mayor McIntyre and himself had interviewed Mr. Ashworth at the C. G. E. office here yesterday, and had concluded that it was hopeless for the municipal authorities to attempt negotiations with the local executive of the company. They realised that negotiations would finally have to be conducted with President Nicholls, and also that the Minister of Labour should be called upon to exercise whatever he could do toward removing the existing difficulties.

Mayor McIntyre agreed with Ald. Gordon's statement, and asked Mr. Harper if he desired to say anything to the Council.

Mr. Harper's Presentment.

Mr. Harper replied that he was reluctant to discuss the situation in the absence of a representative of the company.

Speaking of the causes of the strike he referred to th eschedule of wages and overtime rates the men had asked for, together with a 48-hour week. They had agreed to abrogate the latter demand and to continue with the 50-hour week. The overtime rates and other conditions were granted by the Conciliation Board in 1918, but without the classification of machinists. The men felt that since the classification of machinists was adopted in all shops, if they were to get anywhere they must have a classification of what machinists' work was.

Cropped Out of the War.

"This question goes back to the War," Mr. Harper continued. "The Government said that many men would have to be put into the trade to get production of munitions, so we threw down the barriers."

It was decided to let these men remain, and after four years thy would become machinists; but others had been hired by a number of shops in the meantime. In the recent negotiations the machinists had asked for a minimum rate of 80 cents, and had agreed to accept 75 cents. They didn't expect the agreement to be signed, but they knew that in nearly all cases the word of the Nicholls interests was good.

The argument that the company couldn't afford a minimum rate wasn't quite true, Mr. Harper contended. After the 1918 award, 55 cents was the minimum for machinists and 45 cents for specialists, and that basis had existed for some time.

Arbitrate Classification.

In an endeavour to facilitate an understanding on the classification question, Mr. Harper said he had proposed that the men appoint two representatives and the company two others, and if these four failed to agree, that they call in a fifth. It was the 6th of May before anything was done about the demands of the men. Mr. Patterson had picked out a man here and there, and said he would give them five cents an hour extra. Afterwards he met Senator Nicholls and Senator Robertson separately, and finally together in Ottawa.

"I made more concessions then than the men were willing to consent to," Mr. Harper said. "I offered to form the men into two or three groups, but the company turned that down.

"Afterwards Mr. Patterson and I met in Toronto, but in this conference only individuals were again talked of. If we can't deal colectively then labour is purely a commodity. But countries have declared that labour has a human side, and we want that considered. Senator Nicholls was willing to consider every man individually by a Board, but that would take too long. I told him we would arbitrate for two or three groups and let the other conditions stand as decided in 1918. Finally, after a period of forty days, I concluded we couldn't get anything. The men were restless, and said they would take it out of my hands. Then the Council's Committee met here, with Aldermen Whitehouse and Hamilton, Mr. Patterson, and representatives of the men. There were no hard feelings shown, and we were asked to state our lowest terms. Those terms were away below Toronto rates. Many firms there have signed up for a 90 cent rate. We agreed to 75 cents and classification, as Mr. Patterson sugested, by representatives of bothparties. Specialists were to get 60 cents, and five cents extra was to be paid those who were previously over the new rates. I saw Mr. Patterson before it was closed, and he remarked that a rate hadn't been set for helpers in the machine shop. I said that I supposed it would be 50 cents the same as others. I told him that if this was all suitable to the men they would return to work on Monday. That was the understanding all of us had.

On Saturday afternoon I was preparing to return to Toronto, when Mr. Dobie informed me not to put the men back, and gave me a letter saying nothing could be got out of the Toronto ends. I went to Toronto and met Senator Nicholls, and Mr. Ashworth said that the development of another group asking for an increase had led the company to consider closing down the local works.

Senator Nicholls said that if there other men walked out there was no use having the machinists in. Later he said I would hear from him before the week was over. I said that it was unfair on his part if the company did not keep the agreement.

Mr. Ashworth is here, but largely to investigate. The Senator said he would send him for that purpose.

"I am disappointed Senator Robertson has seen fit to delegate one of his staff to come here. The only man who can do anything with Senator Nicholls is Senator Robertson. They have become close friends.

"The men are not going to work here for poorer conditions than they can get elsewhere. Half the machinists have said they would go away. We could place hundreds of them. Some time ago there were none available, but recently they have been bringing men from Scotland, and they are advertising in Glasgow for one hundred girls to come here as armature winders. The new men coming here belong to the organised world, and join the ranks of the others who are here.

"I couldn't get the machinists to take less than 75 cents, and was censured for going so low.

Mr. Patterson told me "we are buying labour in the open market," and I said that we were not going to trade in human beings any longer. You can't get the production that is spoken of if men are not well fed and working in good conditions. The strike is the only solution. Previous to this there were men getting as low as 25.4 cents, and many around 30 cents.

"We must have regard for humanity. The high-priced men were willing to make a sacrifice for those who were not sufficinntly paid. The railways established the minimum wages. They found that it created harmony, and got better co-operation and production.

"We were not looking for a strike, but it is the only solution until labour, capital, and the employers oan get together. That day is coming, and we will work for the good of humanity instead of trying to buy and sell labour in the open market."

Wages in Other Places.

Replying to Mayor McIntyre, who quoted a statement that local machinists were paid more than in other cities, Mr. Harper named shops where in Windsor the rate, he said, was from 95 cents to $1.25, London 77 cents, Brantford 82 cents, Welland and Bridgeburg 85 cents and 90 cents.

In Peterborough the William Hamilton Company is paying 72 cents to a few of its old men, and the rest from 75 cents upward. The only place below the C. G. E. was the Canadian Locomotive Works in Kingston, where a new rate would have to come into effect.

"If an arbitrator would grant us the conditions that prevail outside this city we would accept them at once," Mr. Harper concluded.

Have Use of Hall.

A motion by Ald. Gainey, seconded by Ald. Morrison, provides that in the event of rain to-night, the cost of renting the Market Hall for the meeting to be held on the Market be paid by th city.

Electrical Workers' Claims.

Mr. William Houston and Mr. Alex. Morrison asked that when the Council was taking up the machinists' strike, they also consider the claims of the electrical workers.

They recited their efforts to make an agreement with the company. Mr. Ashworth offered an increase of fifteen per cent., but this had been rejected three times by the men. Some of the employees in the transformer department were receiving only 47½ cents—and that wage was comparatively recent.

The armature winders are willing to return to work, accepting Mr. Patterson's offer of the Board's award of 15 p.c. from January 5th plus an increase of five cents an hour approximately from May 1st, but on condition that concessions are made to other electrical workers or that they are given a Board of Arbitration.

POOR OLD J. D. IS LOSING CUNNING

HAD HE BEEN YOUNGER HE WOULD HAVE MADE DOUBLE THE AMOUNT—HIGH FINANCE.

By HERBERT COREY.

NEW YORK, May 19.—It's too bad about John D. Rockefeller. He is getting old, and he hasn't been very well lately, and his business acumen must be dropping below par. Only, if that is the case, what a godsend this country must have been to him when he was young and full of ginger. For I have just heard a story.

Some time ago the elder Rockfeller bought the handsome estate of Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, near his home at Tarrytown, N.Y. He paid $400,000 for it, including a large mess of extravagant pasture land. He didn't really need the property, but you know how he is; did it to oblige a friend. Then he may have dropped a hint in the right quarter. Or he may not. One positively never can tell. Anyhow, the Sleepy Hollow Country Club was shortly after organized by Frank Vanderlip and others of the National City Bank social circles. It was to be, so it was reported, the most expensive country club in the world.

"But where are we to house ourselves," the new clubmen asked.

Didn't Ask a Cent of Cash.

Where, in deed, but in the Shepard residence, now opened by Mr. Rockefeller. So they appealed to him and he let 'em have it. He may have told them that they are a nice lot of boys, and that he always believed in helping a banker or broker boost himself along, and so he sold them the house and a few acres for a mere $300,000. He did not even ask cash. He turned the magnificient building over to the new club on mortgage for the full amount. The remainder of the land he reserved to himself.

So the Sleepy Hollows — what a quaint—what an almost significant—name that is—set to housekeeping. But eventually it struck one of the nation-builders who are members of the club that the need of a golf course had been overlooked. Club members did not find it entertaining to sit on the verandars all day long and talk stocks and corners and the like. So they called again upon good old Mr. Rockefeller.

"Please, Mr. Rockefeller," they may have said to him, "sell us enough land for a golf course."

He Helped the Boys Out.

Well, you know how it is. The old gentleman never could resist an opportunity to do somebody — good. That paper vest propaganda of his swept over the country like a flame some years ago, if you'll remember. And he beat Fletcher and Muldoon and the rest of them to the idea that man can live on lettuce, just like rabbits, if he only puts his mind to it. So he smiled benevolently on the Sleepy Hollow boys.

"Certainly," he may have said. "Just a little cash with the purchase this time, boys. Not much, but just a little. An old man's idiosyncrasy, you know.

So they bought enough of the Elliot Shepard land to make a golf course, and paid him $100,000 cash. Another mortgage for $500,000 was slapped on the property. The Sleepy Hollows now owed Mr. Rockfeller $800,000, secured by mortgages on the ex-Shepard estate. It was a wonderful country club. The Sunday papers carried pages about it.

His Lamp Always Burning.

Not long ago the elder Mr. Rockefeller was discovered walking over the various properties in his various states, looking like a thousand dollars, as an earnest member of the Sleepy Hollow Country Club asseverated. He had a bust made of himself of the finest marble, which he may or may not give to the Sleepy Hollow Club at some future time. His eyes were bright, his step firm, and his interest lively in many things. He is getting to be an old man now—very old man. He will be eighty-one in July. But he still functions somewhere close to the normal of forty years ago. At least, that is what the Sleepy Hollers say.

"I am getting old, my boy," Mr. Rockefeller is reported to have confided to a member of the club. The clubman raised his hand in deprecation.

"And I'm not very well," continued Mr. Rockefeller. A look of pain crosed the mobile features of the banker he addressed. It became a look of anguish as Mr. Rockefeller dreamily added:

"So I've decided to call in all my mortgages, my boy. Ah, yes, yes. I am getting too old to be worried about such things now. An old man must be humored you know. I like to have the cash."

Half Million to the Good.

Well there you are. A member of the Sleepy Hollow Club, which is composed almost exclusively of bankers, brokers, sentiment-makers and the world-builders of the most completely utmost prominence, states that the clubmen, as clubmen, regret that Mr. Rockefeller should have felt himself compelled to take this step. Professionally however, as dealers in money, they find themselves forced to admire the neatness and dexterity of the operation. Mr. Rockefeller is now one-half million hard, cold, emotionless dollars to the good, which have been extracted from men who sidered themselves fairly immune to any of the ordinary processes of extraction. Not a widow—not even an orphan—has been mentioned during the entire process which is an evidence of the philosophy which illumes the Sleepy Holow breast.

"And that," observed the clubbed gentleman who has been intermittently quoted, "is what the Old Master can do when he is old and not well."

HAIR TONIC COST $200.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., May 19.—For drinking on the street a mixture of grain alcohol andflorida water secured on a prescription procured from a Port Colborne doctor for an external lotion, John Connors of that town was to-day fined $200 for a breach of the O.T.A. here.

ANNUAL MEETING OF PETERBORO CHEESE BOARD WAS HELD TO-DAY

OFFICERS ELECTED AND A SMALL QUANTITY OF CHEESE DISPOSED OF.

The forty third annual meeting of the Peterboro Cheese Board was held in the Bank of Montreal Board rooms at 10 o'clock this morning. President T. Braden was in the chair. A fair representation of buyers and salesmen and those interested in the dairy interests attended the meeting. A small sale of cheese took place and was run off in record time.

Following thereading of the minutes of the last meeting the treasurer's report was read by the Secretary-Treasurer E. Hawthorne and referred to the auditors.

Addressed Meeting.

President Braden spoke briefly stating that the meeting was called to see whether there would be any cheese board this year or not and he deplored the fact that there were factories who belonged to the board but did not board their cheese or pay their fees but secured the advantages of the board. Several impromptu addresses followed.

Mr. Stade, an Englishman touring Canada in the interest of the dairy industry said that this was the first opportuniy he had of meetng Canadian cheese men. His company had always been large buyers from Montreal. He complimented them on the excellent cheese that came from this district. Mr. Stade urged greater production as the only way to down the high cost of living and save the country from ruin. I think you should do your part to fill up the world shortage He spoke of the coordination and bonds of sympathy brought between Canada and the Motherland as a result of the war.

Mr. R. W. Ward stated that he had been all over this section and was well pleased with the general outlook. He entirely agreed with the gentleman from overseas as regards greater production. "The food per capita is shoter than it has ever been in the history of the world," he said.

The factories all told, would make more cheese than last year.

Mr. John Riddell, a veteran member of the Board said he was always glad to come down and meet his old acquaintances and before any changes were made in their system of handling chese he advised them to think well.

Mr. John Coughlin, Hastings, said the present system now was good enough, "I believe in sticking by the old rules." He moved that the cheese board keep on this year and abide by its old rules Mr. W. Anderson second ed the motion dwelling on the excellent work the board had carried on. He said that the manner and features of doing business by the cheese board was responsible largely for the superior quality of Peterboro cheese. "I would strongly advise every Peterboro factory to participate in the board. He urged a greater education of the public to the value they were getting for their money in buying dairy products. The dairymen he said, had never received their due returns for the amount of work done.

John Galvin of Dummer also spoke.

Helped Peteboro.

"It appears to me the dairy business put Peterboro on the map," he said. He told how when he was out west he was often reminded when he said he came from Peterboro that Peterboro was a great dairying centre. He regretted that the cheese business had fallen off in late years but hoped it would soon grow and expand to its former dimensions. Looking at the large blackboard with some 47 names of factories boarding cheese, he regretted that there were not that many now. He was in favour of the cheese factories throughout entire province boarding cheese at only one board and selling to greater advantage.

The vote was taken and carried unanimously that the board continue Mr. Braden expresed his pleasure at being the president for the year 1919.

Mr. James Cook of Belleville, spoke briefly stating that he felt something should be done to eliminate the regulars who paid salesmen but did not use them and did not board their cheese.

Mr. H. B. Cowan agreed with Mr. Cook that the factories who belong to the board but do not market their cheese were a hindrance to the other factories. Replying to a statement of Mr. Cook about the Dairy Co-operative Co., now under way he gave his reasons for the organization of this company and the need for this company by the dairymen who were unorganized. As one co-operative company which had made great strides in a few years he mentioned the Quebec Company in Montreal with which his company will work in conjunction for a short time.

Two years ago the United Farmers looked into this matter to see what could be done. The scheme has been upheld by the different factories. Every argument that has been said against this co-operative company were said against the Quebec Company ten years ago. It began with 30 factories while last year it handled 500.

A committee appointed by farmers and two dairymen's organization went into the matter here. Arrangements have been made for warehouses in Montreal. his week they will begin the campaign amongst the factories and already have secured a number of them who will ship their cheese to Montreal.

"The cheese will be shipped to us in Montreal. Our arrangement now is only tentative. We hope to get storage in the Government storage later. The cheese will be graded by the government official in four classes." Every step they have taken, Mr. Cowan said has been approved by the government and dairy officials. Mr. Cowan stated that Peterboro cheese in view of its quality had never got the prices it deserved. We believe right now we have enough cheese from factories in Eastern Canada to guarantee the success of our first sales. The cheese will be sold in the Board of Trade Montreal, the first sale being held on June 4.

It means that our farmers will be selling their cheese directly to Eng-

Y.M.C.A. NOTES

Few boys there are who have not at some time or other helped with "chores" on the farm—feeding the pig included. Then oftentimes have they seen loads of swine passing down the streets of the city bound in the direction of the Canadian Packing Company's plant. But there are not many boys who have been privileged to see the process through which flesh of the porker is passed before emerging to be sold in the different stores of the city.

An opportunity will be given every boy who so desires to see the second process of the preparation of the pork for the table, in the Canadian Packing Company to-morrow, Thursday, at 4.15, when a qualified guide will Be on hand to show and explain the cutting, curing and the cooking of meat. Parets would do well to call this observation tour to the attention of their boy and urge upon him to be present. Though it is arranged by the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Department the trip is not confiend to the Y.M.C.A. members alone and it is to be hoped that many will be on hand to gain first hand knowledge of the handling of products manufactured in the city and exported to all parts of the empire. Dont' forget the hour and be on hand promptly.

DEPUTY MINISTER OF LABOUR ARRIVES

Mr. Gerald H. Brown, Deputy Minister of Labor, arrived in the city early this morning and held several conferences with the machinists and electrical workers of the C.G.E. company. This afternoon he and Mayor McIntyre interviewed the local officials of the C.G.E. and Vice-President Ashworth.

JUST ONE DAY WILL DO IT

People who have been suffering from backache, kidney trouble, rheumatic ailments, are sometimes under the impression that they will continue to suffer from these ailments and will be unable to obtain relief. Headache, nervousness, soreness in the bones and limbs are frequently caused by poisonous gases being absorbed into the system, and the kidneys are overtaxed in their effort to expel these gases. Dr. Banta's Kidney and Rheumatic Pills will prevent the formation of these poisonous gases, and are highly recommended for kidney troubles, rheumatic ailments or any other disease arising from a disorderly condition of the kidneys. The manufacturers are so confident that these pills will do what we claim for them that your dealer is authorized to refund your money if they do not give you satisfaction. Will you try them and be convinced? They are sold by one reliable dealer in each county. Sold in Peterborough at Lynch's Drug Store. Price 50c. Mail orders attended to promptly. 168 Hunter street.

CONCERT WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Last evening in the Reid street Hall the Royal Knights of Trinity put on a very successful concert featuring Mrs. M. A. Ford, the celebrated elocutionst assisted by Mrs. Maurice Park and Mr. Hetherington. Mrs. Ford's numbers were each enthusiastically encored by the large audience, while Mrs. Park's vocal numbers and Mr. Hetherington's 'cello solos, were thoroughly appreciated. Mr. George King accompanied the musical numbers.

Warsaw Correspondence

WARSAW, May 19. — Mr. Verne Skirk spent the week end at home.

Miss Lulu Bell, Cotessloe, spent the week end with her cousin, Miss Elsie Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew LeRush have moved to Lakefield.

Mrs. Norman Bell, who came from Ottawa last week to visit her mother, Mrs. A. F. Choate, returned to her home on Friday.

Miss Anna Schryver of Ann Arbor, Mich., spent the week end with her cousin, Mrs. A. F. Choate.

Mr. James Meyers, Mrs. Robert Meyers and the Misses Marjory and Agnes Meyers of Napanee, motored up and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Choate.

Rev. and Mrs. Percy H. Robert left for Toronto Friday and on Sunday evening left there for their new home near Edmonton.

Little Willie Myles, who was badly injured on the head a few weeks ago, is able to walk around now.

The funeral of little Thelma Gunn took place from the family residence last Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Archibald, assisted by Rev. J. Knox, conducted the services. The remains were borne to the grave by two brothers, Fred and Melville Gunn, a cousin, Elmer Cooper, and a neighbor, Gordon Bowen. Quite a number of flowers were sent and her little playmates had gathered beautiful bunches of wild flowers which little Thelma loved.

Fishing parties from Warsaw and vicinity went to Buckhorn every day of last week, except Monday and Thursday. The suckers were large and plentiful.

Mrs. David Miller and Miss Edith Tucker attended the Nicholls Hospital commencement exercises last Tuesday evening.

A Narrow Escape.

Mr. P. G. Towns and son of Douro, narrowly escaped with their lives on Tuesday evening while returning from Peterborough with their motor truck loaded. Near the foot of Walsh's hill the truck slewed and upset. Both men were under the upturned motor, but the load saved them by leaving a space. Mr. P. G. Towns was gotten out first, his face being slightly scratched. The son was gotten out with more difficulty. The two escaped serious injury. The truck was much damaged, driving wheel, wind shield and seat being smashed, but the son, Mr. Charley Towns, was driving the truck again on Saturday.

The school children's memorial fund of $61.50 has been transferred to the credit of the Dummer soldiers' memorial fund.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet on Thursday afternoon of next week, May 27th at the home of Mrs. Richard Deen.

Rev. Vose conducted the services in the Baptist church yesterday.

Conducted Service.

Rev. Milligan of Toronto, conducted services in the Presbyterian churches at Warsaw and Cotesloe. Mr. Milligan, though an ordained minister, went overseas as a private and remained one, though offered a commission as chaplain. He was overseas three years and spent over two years in France and Belgium.

The morning text was 1 Cor., 9-24, "So run that ye may obtain.' He dwelt on the race itself, the rules of the race ,and the reward of the race. He showed that to be a Christian was no easy matter. One could not be indolent and be a Christian, but the reward was worth while.

At the evening service there were a lot of Cotessloe people present. The subject was "Mount Calvary." One of the smaller mountains, yet the things that were enacted there were so very great that all the other mountains would bow down before Calvary. The preacher instanced several of the most prominent mountains in the Bible, Ararat, Moriah, Sinai, Horeb, Olivet, et., and told what happened on these mountains. He asked if his hearers had never noticed that most of the great things of the Bible happened on these mountains.

The Methodists had their usual Sunday services, conducted by Rev. John Knox.

There was a meeting of the Dummer Sunday School Association executive on Tuesday evening last, to decide on the subjects to be taken up at the annual meeting to be held soon at Zion.

Cotessloe I.O.D.E. are to have a debate on "Consolidated Schools" on the evening of June 3rd. Mr. Geo. Clements leads the affirmative in favor of consolidated schools and Mrs. Wm. Forsythe leads the negative. This is to be purely educational.

Held a Meeting.

As district agricultural representative MacRae and Mrs. W. R. Morris, of Peterborough, were at the Women's Institute last Thursday, the regular subject was dropped. Little business was done, except that it was announced that there would be an egg day May 24th and all who are willing are asked to contribute the eggs laid May 24th for an extra fund for the school fair prizes. The eggs may be left at Mr. Calder's store any day after the 24th. As efforts are being made to have the school fair more than usually interesting and useful, it is hoped there will be a large response to this appeal. Every cent of the money will go towards the school fair, over and above the $10 the Institute has pledged itself to give.

Mr. MacRae presented the prize list as he had it, and it was approved by those present.

Mrs. Morris 'address on "Education and Consolidated Schools" was an education. She impressed the fact that Education made for Christian citizenship and developed the mind and laid such a foundation that the person is able to take his place anywhere. She asked if under our present system we are getting the worth of our taxes. In Ontario there are 1400 schools with an average attendance of less than 10. She explained that the better the teachers the higher the grants. Teachers want to do their best and want to go where they can do their best. She explained how so much is possible for community good with these schools.

In the little discussion which followed no one seemed to mention taxes, but the transportation question up.

After the meeting was closed, a social cup of tea was served.

The next Institute meeting Thursday, June 10th is the annual meeting and all the officers are to have their reports ready. Mr. McCrae will be at this meeting to give a demonstration in culling out non-laying hens.

The summer series speaker will be in Warsaw June 21st. Who the delegate will be and what the subject will be announced at the annual meeting and published in the papers. These meetings are absolutely free to all women and girls over 14 years of age and mothers need not remain away because they have a baby—bring the baby.

Ice Cream Social.

An ice cream social, under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Bible class of the Warsaw Methodist Sunday school, will be held on the evening of Monday, May 24th. A good programme is in preparation and will commence at 8 o'clock p.m. After the programme ice cream and other refreshments will be served in the basement of the church. Come and spend an enjoyable evening. Admission 25c. and 20c.

PARIS A NEW AND A SADDER CITY

The city of Paris in many of its social characteristics is not the Paris of a few years ago. The boulevards have lost the touch of gaiety, and recall the sombre days of the early years of the seventies. The crepe of the widow and sorrowing mother is everywhere in evidence. The midday services of the great churches are no longer patronized by semi-gay and foreign tourists; they are filled with mourners. Around Notre Dame wounded soldiers, who, although not begging for alms, are there in all the grim reality of the price that many Parisian lads had to pay for their country's liberation from the Prussian yoke. The same description applies to the Madelaine in the heart of the city. In the Government offices old soldiers are back in their places, minus legs, arms, and here and there some may be seen working with bandaged eyes. War has painted a death hand upon every part of Paris. In theatre, exchange, market, and store the havoc that was made upon the manhood of Paris is too eloquently portrayed. It is only when a stranger converses with the people that he makes the discovery that there is something in Paris stronger than death. An elderly lady presides at a stall near the Grand Opera. She wears a medallion of three boys on her breast. A British officer passing through the city recently pointed to the emblem, and she at once ejaculated: "Yes, monsieur, my boys. They died for France, and I will not mourn." The officer raised his hat.

BUSINESS AGENT FOR TRAIN ROBBER

CHUM OF MAN KILLED AFTER LOOTING MAIL CAR MAKES CONFESSION

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 19.—In a signed confession here, Dick Symthe chum of Horace Walton, who was killed after robbing an Illinois Central train near Chicago last Saturday, said he had been engaged by Walton as "Business Agent," and knew of Walton's plans for the robbery, Federal officials announced.

Walton told Symthe, according to the alleged confession, that he (Walton), committed the robbery of a Santa Fee train near Lexington Junction April 6 last, when a considerable sum of money and Liberty bonds were taken.

Symthe's duties, according to the alleged confession, were to assist Walton in the disposal of bonds and other loot garnered in his robberies.

He was summoned to Chicago some weeks ago, Smythe said.

No salary was stipulated, according to the alleged confession, but Smythe was told he would be paid liberally.

Walton had Smythe look up railroad time cards for him and attend to other preliminaries, but did not ask him to assist in the work of his enterprises, the officials say Smythe confessed. Smythe is nineteen years old. Walton was twenty-two.

MID-SUMMER MILLINERY OPENING

THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

A cordial Invitation is extended to all to view the Display of Summer Millinery on our Third Floor

There is a new inspiration in the summer millinery. The large drooping brims and the brim turned away from the face, or notched behind, the tam shaped crowns and hand-worked ornaments are all much favoured in millinery vogue.

All the new straws and trimmings are shown in our display. Lace trimmed and crowned leghorns. Maline trimmed shapes. Ornaments made from wool. The new Batavia cloth, which is a popular among sport hats in its bright colours makes a very striking head piece.

The new shapes, such as the Hindoo Turban, Cleopatra and others, that lend chic to the sport, while for afternoon wear, our new summer hats will lend beauty and grace to every face.

Charming Flower Hats as pretty and colourful as a Summer Garden

Drooping gracefully is the brim of this most delicate shade of pink Maline summer hat, and the crown is a profusion of crushed roses, touched with a contrasting shade of French blue ribbon which passes around crown and is caught in at the back, then falls gracefully in streamers. To wear with a summer frock, this charming model would be most modish.

Leghorns with their drooping brims are among the most favored for Summer

Fashion for summer is very partial to silk and leghorn straw. Here we have a tam crowned shape of leghorn straw, the crown and brim is covered with navy blue taffeta silk to within two inches of edge, where it is gracefully scolloped, which gives a very catching appearance to this model. Around the crown are embroidered flowers of raffia in colours of deep crimson and green. The facing is of navy blue taffeta, and lined with silk. A very smart hat for afternoon wear.

Sport Hats

It's a pleasure to tell you of our sport hats. It is an assortment of choice and dainty styles, in Hindoo Turbans, Egyptian, Cleopatra models. Each one pleasing and suitable, differing in modelling and varying in colors and texture. Some showing their dashing contrasts in smart colour effects, while others are more subdued for those whose tastes are more conservative.

THE J. C. TURNBULL CO. LTD.

ORGANIZATION OF LOCAL BRANCH DECIDED UPON

PETERBORO MERCHANTS HEAR SPLENDID ADDRESSES UPON THE WORK OF THE RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION OF CANADA.

By a standing vote taken at the meeting of the Peterboro Mercantile Association last night at which about twentyfive of the local merchants were present to hear E. W. Trowern secretary of the Dominion Board of the Retail Merchants Association of Canada and Mr. W. C. Miller of Toronto secretary of the Provincial Board and Mr. T J. Maher of Toronto in charge of the organization work, it was carried without a dissenting vote to join the association forming a local branch. This step was not taken until the end of the meeting following the splendid talks of the officers and it only remains now for the members to get out and get new members with the assistance of Mr. Maher who will make his headquarters in the city for a few days. The addresses of the speakers proved interesting in the extreme to the retailers and it is not much to say that after hearing them the local merchants left the meeting feeling a new pride in their life work and resolved to push the association in Peterboro.

The speakers were welcomed by the President Mr. J. Picard who occupied the chair.

The first one was W. C. Miller. Mr. Miller expressed his pleasure at being present to give an account of the stewaardship and activities of the Provincial organization. As you are probably aware our organization extends from ocean to ocean. It is incorporated under special legislation. We are sometimes asked what is the organization doing for the retail trade. He proceeded to explain what they were doing. Every bill that comes before the Dominion or Provincial house is examined by the organization and if the legislation is detrimental to the merchants we bring pressure to bear on the government and have it amended and changed so it does not hurt the merchants. Many time, he said, had the organization through its power had bills amended or defeated and helped the retail tradesmen and Mr. Miller quoted several bills they had been instrumental in having amended or defeated.

Mr. Miller said they were asking the government to change the transient and traders bylaw. In some municipalities through pressure these trades have been largely done away with by raising the fees but in other parts where local bylaws are not enforced they have proved a serious menace to the merchants.

The organization stands ready to help all merchants who wish to give coupons as other premiums by advising them or their scheme for breaches of the Trading Stamp Act meet with heavy fines. Mr. Miller outlined much legislation they had secured to protect the retail trade.

In the Bankruptcy Act the merits or demerits of the act was gone into fully by the association. Many changes were made in it and it was finally passed coming into effect on July 1st next and making each merchant keep a careful set of books. It is one of the finest pieces of legislation in the world", he said

Speaking on the giant mail order house businesses Mr. Miller said that the government had been giving many benefits and privileges in cheap mailing costs in the past but they were now pushing the matter and the privilege would be taken away somewhat so as not to endanger the retail trade.

Mr. Miller said that since the cost of living had mounted so high the recognized channels of distribution had been disregarded by wholesalers and others but all investigations had determined that the old ones were the best ones and should be adhered to.

"Every measure that comes up is receiving our careful attention", the speaker said referring to the provincial legislature. Mr. Miller said he was glad to see the stores closing here at 5.30.

We sincerely trust the work of our organization will appeal to you. There is practically no end to the functions you can do here. Mr. Miller anticipated a very excellent address from Mr. Trowern and Mr. Maher and made way for Mr. Maher.

Mr. Maher is a brother of the well known merchant here and he, is in charge of the organization work. He largely attributes the success of his work in the organization to his past experience as a retail merchant. "There is one thing I want to bring home to you. This organization was organized simply to protect the retail merchants organization of a single line could not stand." Mr. Maher said that the bills coming before the house were carefully examined by experts. If they were detrimental they were fought to the last ditch, if they were helpful they put their shoulder to the wheel and pushed them.

Mr. Maher dealing on the distribution of goods said that as they were the last dealers handling the goods before they reached the consuming "suffering" or better the public, for no one knows what the public are suffering better than we; they got all the blame for high prices He said they mustclean up the produce dealers who had no definite standing and fleeced the unsuspecting merchants right and left and advocated licensing of these dealers.

As a right to their organizing Mr. Maher quoted the retail trade as the largest line of trade in the country representing the most wealth, paying the most taxes. "Organization and co-operation is necessary if we are to get any place. We now have one of the finest charters in the country and it is worth millions to the retail trade if advantage is taken of the privileges.

Mr. Maher condemned the co-operative schemes which he claimed were promoted by two classes—idealists and dishonest men who both wanted to cut out the middleman, as they called the retail merchant. He told of many of these schemes that had gone " in the hole" leaving their shareholders in debt.

He urged them all to be proud of their business which he said, was one of the oldest in the world and one they need feel no shame of. "The French called England a nation of shop-keepers sneeringly. Well that might have been true but they were also a nation of fighters. In conclusion he urged them to form an association and get behind it and push.

I feel gentlemen I am here on a special mission, said Mr E. M. Trowern. I hear the Peterboro merchants are going ot join up with our organization. As to what you can get out of it. I can only refer you to the addresses of Mr. Miller and Mr. Maher. He rated the retailers strongly for being so unassuring and retiring. "They say, oh we're only retailers, we're only little fellows" and the speaker went on to tell how they, the little fellows owned the biggest share of all the wealth in Canada. There are only two classes, he said those that work for somebody else and those that work for themselves. "You work for yourself, you are your own boss."

This is a great educational movement Mr. Trowern said and continuing told how the organization had grown. "If you don't like the business get out of it," he told those who were a little ashamed of their life calling Speaking of the Board of Commerce investigation he stated that the parts of the act over which the trouble occurred were being amended.

Mr, Trowern was of the opinion that the national debt hanging over our country should be spread over several generations and not force this one down on their kuees trying to pay it. He agreed with Mr. Maher that the retailers were blamed for all high cost of living and had to take all the abuse that the public cared to throw at them over conditions over which they had no control. That the merchants should be honest with their customers and show them just how they stood was the solution the speaker offered to smooth out the feeling.

He went after the co-operative schemes even harder than Mr. Maher and scoffed at their proposals to cut down profits and yet give the shareholders a good return. The way we are operating in true co-operation with the grocers butchers, hardware men, all over Canada, working together for the common good of all. "I want to tell you men to get in it and keep in it. You needn't be ashamed of our organization."

The speaker eulogized the retail business. "You can't do away with the retailers and no others can take their places. There were merchants selling corn in Ancient Egypt and there will be merchants till the crack of doom." You want us we want you. Mr. Trowern stated that their next convention was in Vancouver, when delegates would be present from every province and the Dominion Board elected and the Dominion Council picked. "We are a purely democratic organization — we are all elected. There is no appointing, nothing of that kind and the speaker reminded them that his office was open to any of them and he himself would be only too glad to nominate any of them for it.

"I hope I will hear through Mr. Miller that at your meeting you will have decided to join us." were his closing remarks.

In moving a vote of thanks to the speakers Mr. R. G. Kingan emphasized the need for more co-operation amongst the local retailers. more meetings at which they could get together and discuss mutual problems and difficulties. He was heartily in favour of starting a local association he thought if Mr. Maher could spend a few days here organizing it would begin things. The work being carried on by the association was highly praised by the hardware man who felt that they were doing a good stroke of business in joining it. His vote of thanks was seconded by Mr. R. H. Ross and the vote tendered to the speakers by the president.

Mr. Maher said that he was willing to do all he could to organize here and suggested that the meeting express itself as in favour of joining so he would have a certain amount of backing in his organizing. He also asked that several men from each trade work with him so that he could cover the ground more easily.

The president said that the by-laws of the association were passed and the only thing remaining was to get the membership. It was decided to take a standing vote on the matter and everyone present stood for the motion. Several men were picked to assist Mr. Maher and the others will be secured by the secretary.

His Death Expected

New Brunswick Man Saved

Mr. Isidore Thomas, of Tilley's Road, Gloucester County, N.B., while expecting death, availed himself of help that was offered at random. Here is part of a letter he wrote to us:—

"I beg you to publish my letter, so that people may know what Gin Pills did for me. My case was very serious. I was so sick everybody expected my death any day. Finally, on advice from friends, I tried Gin Pills, and in a short time was well again, and soon had gained 20 pounds."

Kidney and bladder troubles, very often, work in secret ways. A bad condition may exist, with only a backache to indicate it. That is why the slightest pains in back or sides should be investigated. These pains, along with sciatic neuralgia, rheumatism, dizziness, constipation, lassitude, lumbago, highly-colored urine, headache, floating specks before the eyes, gravel, indicate kidney trouble. A course of Gin Pills, taken at once, will give relief, and prevent the progress of the disease, enabling the organs to right themselves and restore good health. Gin Pills are the sure, safe, quick remedy. Get a box from your druggist or dealer—50c. Money refunded if no relief found. Send for free sample.

CELEBRATED THEIR 50TH ANNIVERSARY

On May 17th, 1870, in Newburgh, Ontario, Miss S. E. Rook and Mr. George S. Kingdon were married, and on Monday of this week the bride and groom of half a century ago celebrated their golden wedding, surrounded by their seven children, seventeen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, at their home, 584 George George street. The celebration took the form of a reception during the afternoon for the younger people, who were joined in the evening by the older members of the family, including Mr. Kingdon't sisters, Mrs. Wm. Hill and Mrs. Madden. After a very pleasant few hours, during which dainty refreshments were served and Mr. and Mrs. Kingdon presented with some gifts from their guests, the party departed, wishing their host and hostess many more such happy years as they have already spent together.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR TOURNAMENT

At the regular meeting of Lansdowne Lodge, S. O. E., on Monday evening, May 17th, three new candidates were admitted and one accepted by transfer, making a total of ten for the month of May.

Prizes for the second carpet ball tournament were awarded o the winners, Messrs. F. Rathbone and A. Follis, and the consolation prize to Messrs. R. W. Stevens and J. Townsend.

Arrangements were made to attend St. Luke's church at the evening service on May 23rd, also for a trip to Lindsay in the near future.

DEALERS ARE AGAINST LEGAL FRUIT BASKET

SAY IT GIVES DISHONEST ONES CHANCE FOR BIG PROFITS.

The fact that the Department of Agriculture has agreed to the move making the four-fifths of a quart fruit basket the legal one to be used by Canadian growers, does not find favor with the majority of the local dealers. They point out, however, that this is the basket that has always been in use by Canadian berry growers and that the order of the Department of Agriculture simply makes this the legal one for Canadian use. For years all small fruit was packed in this basket, which is almost indistinguishable from the imperial quart basket.

This was confirmed by an official of the department, who pointed out that the basket has been in general use for years. Canadian small fruit farmers several years ago ceased to use an Imperial quart basket, and adopted the four-fifths quart measure and have since been pressing the department to make this size legal.

The British Columbia growers in partcular were eager for the smaller basket so that their half-size basket would be two-fifths of a quart. They claim that on account of the climatic conditions prevailing in British Columbia fruit grows much quicker and spoils when packed in any quantity. They claim that the two-fifths box suits their purpose best.

Retail dealers are not at all in favor of the smaller box and were hoping that the Department of Agriculture would not make it legal. They point out that all American berries that come into Canada are packed in Imperial quart boxes and that the United States growers give good measure. This gives the dishonest dealers a fine chance to put one over on the public, they claim. They have the smaller boxes on hand and when the American stock comes in early in the season are able to transfer the fruit to the smaller boxes and make three boxes out of every two that come from the United States. In their opinion the Department should have made the imperial quart and the pint boxes the only ones that could be legally used in Canada.

DOCTORS WANT HIGHER FEES

The decision of Quebec medical men to fight for an increase of 150 per cent. in the fee for examining prospective policy holders for insurance companies, has resulted in Hull doctors declining to examine anyone for insurance for less than the proposed new rate. This partial strike of the medical men went into effect yesterday after they had all pledged themselves to charge a fee of not less than $10.00.

It is stated by several Hull doctors that there are about a score of people in Hull who have agreed to take out policies but who cannot be signed up by the insurance agents until they have been passed by the doctors.

At present the plan is to pledge all the Quebec doctors to do what the Hull doctors have done, and it is hoped ultimately to have the doctors of the entire Dominion agree to the new rate. The present charge is $3 or $4 and the doctors want $10.

Suffered With Boils

Last 5 Years.

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them, knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery it at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B.B.B. has been on the market for over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Grapefruit cocktail is made with one grapefruit, one tangerine, three tablespoons shredded cocoanut and three tablespoons maple syrup.

C.G.E. VERSUS THE CALEDONIANS WILL PLAY TO-MORROW EVENING

THE GAME WILL BE PLAYED AT EXHIBITION GROUNDS AT 6.30 PROMPT—OTHER NOTES OF INTEREST.

The Football League will provide an excellent game to-morrow evening at the Exhibition grounds when the fast-going Canadian General Electric team will meet the Caledonians to decide the points for the League. Mr. Bates will handle the whistle during the game and it is expected that the class of football shown will be above the average. The kick-off is at 6.30 prompt.

Both teams have the same number of points, with the C.G.E. having a little better goal average, but after Thursday evening's game the league standing may be different.

The Executive committee expect a large attendance, and to accommodate the players, also the referee, the public are requested to stand back from the goals and the touch.

After last night's practice the C.G.E. executive selected the following team: J. Naples goal, B. Mason and J. McDonald, backs; A. Parkins, H. Turner and H. Bestard half-backs; A. Maunders, G. Hotson, B. Gash, J. Williamson and E. Bartley. Reserves—H. Cowie and J. Bills.

A little re-arrangement in the Caledonian's team is as follows: A. Brunton, goal; Jas. Willshaw and Bob Willshaw, backs; J. Frost, S. McMillian and A. Duthy, half-backs; R. Hannah, Matt. Shaw, Ed Hardie, Jas. Shaw and R. McDowall.

Free Kicks

At the last meeting of the Association a rule was passed that in future all clubs must obtain the personal signature of any players before being registered with the secretary.

An Englishman has suggested the following team for the International game on the 24th May: W. Jones (De Laval) goal; B. Mason (C.G.E.) and Bob. Willshaw (Caledonians) backs; J. Frost (Caledonians), P. D. Ryan (G.W.V.A.) and J. Cridland (Can. Woollens), half-backs; A. Maunders (C.G.E.), C. Hotson (C.G.E.), H. Norman (G.W.V.A.), J. Sharman (G.W.V.A.) and Ed. Bartley (C.G.E.)

A prominent Scotsman places the team as follows to represent Scotland: A Brunton (Caledonians), goal; A. Duthy (Caledonians) and S. McMillian (Caledonians), backs; A. Newman, A. McLeish (Machine Gunners) and A. Hardie (Caledonians) half-backs; R. Hannah, Matt. Shaw, Ed. Hardie, Jas. Shaw and R. McDowall forwards (Caledonians.)

After the C.G.E. and Caledonian game on Thursday evening the executive of the Association will choose the English and Scots team.

The Canadian Woolens team will practice to-night at the Oval, 6.30 prompt.

Nebraska, which in the Spring of 1919 had the most cars per capita, is now in third place. Iowa leads with one car for every 6.09 people. California is second with one machine to every 6.20 people. Nebraska is third with one car to evry 6.48 people.

Lindsay Warder—Through the efforts of Mr. O'Brien, of Peterboro, the hustling and able representative of the Imperial Tobacco Co., of Canada, Limited, a large and up-to-date score board will be erected at the Lindsay baseball park at the fair grounds.

Last season the officers of the Lindsay Club applied for a score board, and another application was made this year. Word to the effect that a score board would be erected as soon as J. J. Turner & Son, of Peterboro, received the order, has been received by Ford W. Moynes.

The new board will be similar to the one used on the Peterboro baseball park, giving the names of the teams, the score by innings, etc.

Lindsay Warder.—On the return of President Dedman from Montreal a meeting of the Intermediate Town League will be called to complete organization. The league will comprise four good teamsnamely: "K" of C., present holders of the cup; Veterans, Hustlers and Mr. N. Mark's team.

MR. JACK MAYNARD LEADS IN THE BOWLING TOURNEY, WITH SCORE 745

The City Bowling Tournament started o: last night, when singles were rolled and some good scores were put up. Jack Maynard is now leading with 745. J. Green rolled into second with 626. G. Green third with 618, to-night singles and doubles will be rolled and some good scorees expected.

Representing the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, S. A. Miles has gone abroad to seek to improve conditions for the shipping of American-made cars to England, France and Italy. One of the things sought is a lower import duty rate on American machines.

LOCAL BASEBALL COMMENT

Queen Alexandra team in the junior series of the Public School ball league added another game to their unbroken chain of victories, when they defeated the South Central juniors by the score of 24 to 1. Alexandras have won every start since their schedule opened. Batteries—Queen Alexandra, Ash and Outram; South Centrals, Parrington and Morrison.

Central juniors also win their game with the boys from King George school, by the score of 21 to 3.

King Edwards playing Queen Mary team at the latter's ball grounds were defeated by 18 to 9. The batteries were: King Edward, McLeish and Morrison; Patterson and Thirnbeck.

Looks as if the local ball tossers won't have to bother about the new dead ball rule. It is destined for the discard. This is the rule which makes it a dead ball when the batter, trying to avoid a wild pitch, inadvertently strikes the ball with his bat. President Heydler of the National League has come to the conclusion that the little good derived from the change is not sufficient to make up for the wrangling and dissatisfaction it provokes, and he has written to President Ban Johnson, the American league chief, that the Nationals will go back to the old order of things, if the American League will agree. Before this year a ball striking a bat in this manner was a strike if it went fair, or in play if it went fair.

'Tis strange to hear of heavy batting by Detroit. The Tigers got eleven hits and beat Athletics yesterday. Cobb smashed out a triple, and then stole home.

COLLEGIATE WON FROM THE BANKERS

Yesterday afternoon the Collegiate Institute baseball team defeated the "Bankers" by the score of 4-3 in a closely contested game in Central Park. Mowat won the game for the P.C.I when he knocked a home-run in the last innings breaking the tie. The score by innngs was:—

Bankers—1 0 0 0 0 2 0—3
P. C. I.—0 0 0 0 0 2 2—4

PRACTICE GAME IS POSTPONED

The repairs to Riverside Park have not yet been completed and consequently the practice game arranged between the Peterboro Central League club and the G.W.V.A. for to-night has been called off. The teams will get together to-morrow night.

LACROSSE FANS OUT TO GAME

Last night's lacrosse practice brought out a big turnout and the work of the players indicated a big year for the local enthusiasts. Two teams were made up who are asked to be on hand on Thursday and Friday night to get in shape for the big game on Monday. The personnel of team one is: H. Scriver, H. Goodfellow, Haight, J. Creighton of Quebec, H. Tudhope, Doc Dawson, F. Scriver, J. Thirnbeck, Ed. Foley, Lynn Johnson and team two, which; will be known as the Excelsiors, will be chosen from L. Dillon, G. Mein, G. Hatton, J. McCoy, H. Donovan, A. Todd, G. Robertson, C. McCoy, B. Hamilton, S. Whitney, G. Halpin and several others with whom the committee could not get in touch.

Will Manage the Game.

Mr. R. M. Glover and Mr. Cameron were named to look after the game on Monday. The sweaters which will be used by the teams are displayed in Thornton's window.

Arrangements could not conveniently be made to accept Oshawa's challenge to a game to be played at Oshawa on Saturday evening, but the Peterborough boys hope to meet them in about two weeks time.

TYRONE POWER

All who saw Mr. Tyrone Power, and his company, at the Grand Theatre here recently, in "The Servant in the House," will learn with keen interest that he will return on the 24th of May, and will play the title-role in "The Little Brother," a stirring drama of religious tolerance, by Milton Goldsmith and Benedict James, in which he scored a sensational success when it was first produced two years ago.

"The Little Brother" is a play which possesses unusual interest and in which the situations are so dramatic as to grip the attention of the audience in a very vivid manner.

THE VIRGIN OF STAMBOUL

The story of "The Virgin of Stamboul," the expensive attraction that will be presented at the Grand Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday is excitingly interesting. Priscilla Dean is seen as Sari, a beautiful beggar girl in the streets of Stamboul Captain Pemberton, a dashing young soldier of fortune, falls in love with her. At the same time Achmet Hamid a powerful Sheik of the desert plans to kill the young officer in love with his favorite wife. Following him to the Mosque he wrecks his vengeance upon the young officer but is seen by Sari. To protect himself he plans to marry her. From this point the story becomes most engrossingly interesting. The details of a most thrilling plot are carried out with perfection, lending a rare charm to the production.

"The Virgin of Stamboul" will stand out as one of the most amazing most thrilling, most stupendous photo dramas ever put upon the screen.
